1. NICARAGUANS SHARE OUR SHOCK AND INCREDULITY OVER ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR KENNEDY. PRESIDENT SOMOZA, WHO HAD ALSO PREVIOUSLY SENT MESSAGE TO MRS. KENNEDY, OPENED HIS PRESS CONFERENCE TODAY

BY EXPRESSING GON AND HIS PERSONAL CONDOLENCES ON OCCASION OF KENNEDY DEATH (SEE USINFO FILED TODAY BY USIS).

2. NEWS MEDIA HAVE GIVEN EXTREMELY HEAVY WIRE SERVICE COVERAGE AND EDITORIAL COMMENTARY TO ASSASSINATION. SOME LOCAL COMMENTATORS AND EDITORIAL WRITERS HINT AT DARK CONSPIRACY, STRESSING "RAPID DEGENERATION U.S. SOCIAL FABRIC AS CLIMATE OF VIOLENCE AND GANGSTERISM." OTHERS HAVE TAKEN MORE RESPONSIBLE LINE; SOCIAL CHRISTIAN RADIO COMMENTATOR SAID "U.S. IN CRISIS OF GROWTH RATHER THAN CRISIS OF DECAY -- MAYBE NOW U.S. CONSCIENCE HAS BEEN AROUSED SEEK NEW ROADS, NEW FRONTIERS".

Ottawa 1796 6/6/68

1. FIVE EDITORIALS REVIEWED BY EMB THIS MORNING ALL DENOUNCED SHOOTING OF KENNEDY AS TRAGIC RESULT OF FEARFUL INCREASE OF VIOLENCE IN US. TORONTO GLOBE AND MAIL WAS SURPRISINGLY DENUNCIATORY WHEN STATING THAT ONE ASPECT OF QTE THE VERY INDIVIDUAL KIND OF VIOLENCE THAT IS AMERICAN IS THAT LEADERS OF MINORITIES, LEADERS WHO GO AGAINST THE MAJORITY, HAVE ALWAYS BEEN THE SPECIAL TARGETS OF ASSASSINS UNQTE. EDITORIAL TERMED THESE ASSASSINS AS QTE OFTEN LITTLE MEN, THEMSELVES OPPRESSED, WHO PERHAPS SEE IN THEIR SINGLE ACT OF OBLITERATION A LONELY JOINING OF THEMSELVES TO THE AMERICAN DREAM OF GREATNESS THAT IS OTHERWISE BEYOND THEM UNQTE. GLOBE AND MAIL THEN CONDEMNED A TYPE OF FREEDOM IN WHICH EACH MAN, EACH NATION, HAS THE RIGHT TO DECIDE THE LAW AND TO JUDGE OTHERS, USING THE GUN AS EQUALIZER WHETHER IN THE AMBASSADOR HOTEL OR IN VIETNAM. PAPER ADDED US WILL NOT PUT AWAY ITS GUNS AT HOME OR ABROAD, BUT THERE IS HOPE WHEN MEN LIKE KENNEDY AND MCCARTHY CONTINUE TO DISSENT AGAINST VIOLENCE.

UNQTE AND THEN ASKED QTE WHAT NATION CAN JUSTIFY ANY HASTE IN HURLING THE FIRST STONES? UNQTE

3. THE STAR QUOTED A U.S. MARINE COLONEL AS SAYING QTE WHEN YOU GET TO A POINT WHERE ANYONE WHO RISES AND SPEAKS GOES DOWN, THEN THIS IS THE FIRST STEP BACK TO THE DARK AGES UNQTE. ALL EDITORIALS EXPRESSED THE SAME FEAR THAT, AS LE DEVOIR TERMED IT, QTE THE CLIMATE OF PSYCHOLOGICAL VIOLENCE WHICH HAS IN THESE LAST FEW YEARS CAST ITS SHADOW OVER POLITICAL DIALOG...MAY BE IN TURN THE SYMPTOM OF A SOCIETY WHOSE MORAL FOUNDATIONS ARE COLLAPSING UNQTE. GAZETTE ALSO WARNED OF DOOM OF A DEMOCRACY WHICH ERODES THE LAW WITH A QTE GRADUAL WEARING AWAY BY MINOR ACTS OF DESTRUCTION UNQTE, AND BY TEACHING THROUGH EXAMPLE THAT VIOLENCE IS RIGHT WHEN USED AGAINST LAWS WHICH EACH INDIVIDUAL FEELS FREE TO JUDGE FOR HIMSELF ARE GOOD OR BAD. GAZETTE CHARACTERIZED THE US AS FILLED WITH ANGUISH THAT ITS LEADERS CANNOT LIVE IN SAFETY. STAR STATED DEMOCRACY DEPENDS ON ALL ABIDING BY RULES. QTE WITHOUT A RETURN TO LAW AND ORDER...WE ARE HEADING SWIFTLY TOWARDS DISASTER UNQTE.

4. TELEGRAM CALLED FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL TO ASSESS HIS OWN RESPONSIBILITY TO MAINTAIN FREEDOM AND QTE TO DECIDE IF WE ARE GIVING ENOUGH OF OURSELVES TO OUR COUNTRY AND OUR FELLOW MAN UNQTE.

5. STAR MADE UNIQUE POINT WHEN QUOTING ERIC SEVEREID'S STATEMENT CONCERNING QTE THE DISCIPLINE WHICH PROTEST MUST IMPOSE ON ITSELF IF IT IS NOT TO PRODUCE THE KIND OF BACK-LASH WHICH WOULD LEAD TO REPRESSION UNQTE. SUBJ: REACTION TO SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH

1. PRIMIN TRUDEAU IN SUDBURY THIS MORNING SAID THAT DEATH OF THE SENATOR IS A BLOW TO ALL. TRUDEAU ADDED HE CERTAIN ALL CANADIANS SHARE HIS GRIEF. PRIMIN EXTENDED SYMPATHY OF CANADIANS TO SENATOR KENNEDY'S WIFE, FAMILY, AND ALL AMERICANS. TRUDEAU SAID KENNEDY DEVOTED HIS LIFE TO SERVICE OF HIS FELLOW CITIZENS WORKING FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED, POOR, AND THOSE IN DISTRESS.

2. TEXT PRIMIN'S STATEMENT STILL NOT AVAILABLE THIS AFTERNOON. HIS OFFICE HERE COULD NOT SAY WHEN THEY WOULD RECEIVE IT.

3. OPPOSITION LEADER STANFIELD IN NEW BRUNSWICK SAID QTE OUR SYMPATHY GOES OUT TO A FAMILY THAT HAS SUFFERED MORE TRAGEDY THAN ANY FAMILY SHOULD, TO A WORLD THAT HAS TOO FEW LEADERS OF HIS CHARACTER AND ABILITY. SENATOR KENNEDY IN HIS OWN RIGHT SOUGHT TO EXTEND AMERICA'S INFLUENCE FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD AND TO DEDICATE HIS OWN CAREER SO THAT REASON AND JUSTICE WOULD PREVAIL IN HIS OWN COUNTRY. IT IS ONE MORE REMINDER THAT FOR ALL OUR PROGRESS AND HOPES, WE ARE STILL NOT FAR IN ANY COUNTRY FROM AN UNCIVILIZED CONDITION. THIS MAN AND HIS FAMILY HAD A BETTER SENSE THAN MOST THAT DEMOCRACY IS A VERY FRAGILE SYSTEM AND CAN BE MAINTAINED IN THE END ONLY BY GOOD MEN OF GOOD WILL. AND NOW HE IS ANOTHER ONE OF THOSE WHO HAS BEEN STRUCK DOWN, AND THERE IS THEREFORE A LARGER OBLIGATION ON ALL WHO SHARED HIS DEDICATION TO A FREE SOCIETY--IN WHATEVER COUNTRY WE LIVE TO SERVE IN WHAT-

4. NDP LEADER DOUGLAS IN HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA SAID QTE LIKE COUNTLESS OTHERS I AM PROFOUNDLY SHOCKED AND DEEPLY GRIEVED AT THE TRAGIC AND UNKINDLY DEATH OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY. TO THE PUBLIC HE WAS A VOICE OF PROTEST AGAINST THE GROWING GAP BETWEEN THE RICH AND THE POOR. THE ALIENATED AND THE FORGOTTEN LOOKED TO HIM AS THEIR SPOKESMAN--AND THEY DID NOT LOOK IN VAIN. A FEARLESS VOICE HAS BEEN STILLED AND A VALIANT SPIRIT REMOVED FROM OUR MIDST. MEN MAY PERISH BUT THE IDEAS THEY EMBODY SURVIVE THEIR PASSING. THE NEW DEMOCRATIC PARTY JOINS WITH ALL CANADIANS AND PEOPLE OF GOODWILL AROUND THE WORLD IN PAYING TRIBUTE TO A GREAT HUMANITARIAN. WE OFFER OUR HEARTFELT SYMPATHY TO HIS WIFE AND THE MEMBERS OF THE KENNEDY FAMILY WHO HAVE EXPERIENCED SO MUCH OF TRAGEDY AND HEARTACHE. WE HOPE THE KENNEDYS WILL FIND CONSOLATION IN THE FACT THAT HE HAS LEFT AN INDELIBLE IMPRINT UPON THE HEARTS OF MEN. END QTE

My dear Mr. Secretary:

Foreign Minister Brandt has asked me to transmit to you the following telegram:

"In dieser schweren Stunde, in der eine der hervorragenden politischen Persönlichkeiten Ihres Landes einem Mordanschlag zum Opfer fiel, möchte ich Ihnen versichern, daß wir uns mit dem amerikanischen Volk in gemeinsamer Trauer und Entrüstung über diese verabscheuungswürdige Tat verbunden fühlen. Möge der Tod von Senator Robert F. Kennedy, den ich in Berlin kennen- und schätzen lernen durfte, bei allen Völkern endlich zur Besinnung darüber aufrufen, daß gewalttätiger Fanatismus in einer Welt, die nach Frieden strebt, kein Mittel der politischen Auseinandersetzung sein darf.

Willy Brandt."

"In this difficult hour, in which one of the most outstanding political personalities of your country has fallen victim to murder, I should like to assure you, that we feel ourselves united with the American people in common grief and indignation at this reprehensible act. May the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, whom I was privileged to learn to know and to appreciate in Berlin, lead all peoples finally to the sober realization that violent fanaticism in a world striving for peace, is not to be permitted as a means of political disputation.

Willy Brandt."

Subject: Hanoi's Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Kennedy

Hanoi has reacted to the news of Senator Robert F. Kennedy's assassination by hinting that the assassination was plotted by the US administration. Hanoi Radio referred to the crime as a "planned assassination," and said that "various factions of the US monopoly capitalist class have not hesitated to resort to bloodshed and fire to liquidate one another." It linked the assassination of the Senator to that of President Kennedy five years ago, adding that Senator Kennedy had been "the most redoubtable political opponent" of the administration. Although the official Hanoi spokesman in Paris stated that the assassination was an American "domestic question," members of the delegation voiced dark "suspicions of a plot to newsmen. It is difficult to speculate whether or not Hanoi actually believes there is a plot -- as it might, to the extent that it sees conspiracy everywhere -- or whether it merely states this in order to make propaganda. We incline to believe the latter is the more important factor in its statements, though the former may play some role.

Press speculation that Hanoi may revamp its negotiations tactics because of the effect of the assassination on the US political outlook seems justified to a certain degree -- Hanoi may hope that the pattern of politically motivated assassination and general social unrest in the United States may lead to a greater US preoccupation with domestic matters and thus possibly force the US to soften its stand on the Vietnam issue. Hanoi doubtless also hopes that the pressures of the presidential campaign, particularly in such an atmosphere, will inhibit US military operations and soften our negotiations stand. While it recognizes the danger that domestic frustrations and uncertainties, or some coalescence of political sentiment, may prompt us to escalate the war rapidly in order to end it quickly, it probably believes that the principal effect will be a reduction in US interest in international issues, a consideration that may further affect the timing of its own negotiations strategy and tactics. The assassination may, in short, reinforce Hanoi's inclination to maintain a hard line in talks, while still holding the negotiations alternative open so as to restrain us from rapid escalation.

However, there is no basis for the press speculation that Hanoi might shift its stand -- presumably toward a softer position -- because it no longer sees the possibility that Senator Kennedy might become President. We do not believe that Hanoi has tied its own expectations to particular American candidates. It tends to regard all American leaders as members of the same political elite. It is keenly aware of differences between them, particularly with regard to Vietnam, but it does not believe that it can rely on them to act in accordance with Hanoi's wishes or even in accordance with their own earlier statements. Hanoi probably recalls that President Eisenhower, having promised peace in Korea, still insisted on Communist concessions on the key prisoner repatriation issue rather than yield on this point. Hanoi also probably recalls that President Kennedy began his administration by endorsing the Bay of Pigs effort, and that President Johnson sent American forces to Vietnam soon after the 1964 election. Hanoi is certainly sensitive to the fact that no US presidential candidate has committed himself to a rapid or unilateral withdrawal from Vietnam, no matter how critical some candidates have been of present policies. Hanoi may hope that one or another presidential candidate might be more forthcoming than others, but it will not be inclined to count on such a development. It does not expect any American President, present or potential, to yield more in negotiations than the Communist forces have been able to win in the field.

SUBJECT: KENNEDY ASSASSINATION: FURTHER REACTION

REF: CAPE TOWN 1437

1. REACTION OF SHOCK AND DISMAY DEEPENED WITH NEWS OF SEN. KENNEDY'S DEATH. CONTINUED EXTRAORDINARY PUBLIC INTEREST MANIFESTED BY VERY COMPLETE PRESS (INCLUDING SPECIAL EDITIONS) AND RADIO COVERAGE, EDITORIAL COMMENT, AND COMMENTS OF OFFICIALS AND INDIVIDUALS TO EMB AND CONGEN OFFICERS.

2. WHEN AMBASSADOR CALLED ON HIM THIS MORNING IN CONNECTION OTHER MATTERS, AND BEFORE NEWS OF DEATH, FONSEC FOURIE EXPRESSED DEEP SYMPATHY ON BEHALF SAG AND SAID PRIMIN HAD SENT TELEGRAM TO MRS. KENNEDY. (PRIMIN'S STATEMENT OF YESTERDAY, REPORTED PARA 3 REFTEL, CARRIED IN FULL BY CAPE TIMES AND BURGER TODAY).

3. SPEAKER HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY TELEPHONED ME ON HIS OWN BEHALF AND THAT OF PARLIAMENT TO EXTEND DEEPEST SYMPATHY AND CONDOLENCES TO SEN. KENNEDY'S FAMILY, AS WELL AS TOTHE PRESIDENT, GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE OF US.

2. BOTH FULL TEXT PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT ON SENATOR'S DEATH AND COMPLETE REPORT ON TELEVISION BROADCAST ON GUN TRAFFIC

AND ESTABLISHMENT OF COMMISSION ON VIOLENCE CARRIED IN AFTERNOON ARGUS.

5. AMBASSADOR MADE FOLLOWING STATEMENT, SUPPLEMENTING EARLIER STATEMENT ON ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT: "THE NEWS OF THE DEATH OF ROBERT FRANCIS KENNEDY GRIEVES ME DEEPLY AS IT DOES ALL AMERICANS, AND PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. NOT ONLY AMERICA BUT WORLD IS POORER FOR LOSS THIS GREAT MAN WHOSE COURAGE, ABILITY AND DEEP DEDICATION TO WELL-BEING OF HUMANITY AND TO PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRACY WILL AWWAYS BE REMEMBERED". MY EARLIER STATEMENT READ AS FOLLOWS: "MY ASSOCIATES IN AMERICAN EMBASSY AND CONSULAR OFFICES IN SA HAVE JOINED ME IN PRAYERS OF ALL AMERICANS, AND PEOPLE ALL OVER WORLD, THE SEN. KENNEDY WILL SURVE THIS TRAGIC AND SHCOKING ATTEMPT UPON HIS LIFE AND THAT AMERICA WILL NOT BE DEPRIVED OF OUTSTANDING TALENT, ABILITY AND STATESMANSHIP OF THIS DISTINGUISHED LEADER. I AM DEEPLY GRATEFUL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF CONCERN AND SYMPATHY, AND OF GOOD WISHES FOR SEN. KENNEDY AND HIS FAMILY, FROM LEADERS AND PEOPLE IN SA". BOTH STATEMENTS CARRIED WIDELY.

6. EMBASSY AND OTHER POSTS LOWERED FLAGS TO HALF-MAST WHEN NEWS FLASH ON DEATH RECEIVED, AND OPENED CONDOLENCE BOOKS THIS AFTERNOON.

7. AMBASSADOR WILL ATTEND, WITH OTHER OFFICERS, REQUIEM MASS FOR SENATOR AT ST. MARY'S RC CATHEDRAL TODAY.

8. ALL THREE CA E DAILY NEWSPAPERS, IN COVERING TRAGEDY, INCLUDE ARTICLES ON CLIMATE OF VIOLENCE IN WORLD AS MANIFESTED PARTICULARLY IN ASSASSINATIONS IN US. SHOCK WITH WHICH PROMINENT AMERICANS AND WORLD LEADERS REACTED COVERED IN DETAIL.

9. FOLLOWING ARE HIGHLIGHTS JUNE 6 EDITORIAL COMMENTS:

A. DIE BURGER "ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION...MOVES SA MORE DEEPLY BECAUSE HE VISITED OUR COUNTRY AND BECAME EXTREMELY CONTROVERSIAL FIGURE". EXPRESSING SYMPATHY "ACROSS ALL DIFFERENCES" TO FAMILY, PAPER OBSERVED FAMILY "INSPIRED TEMPESTUOUS LOYALTY AND AVERSION, FAR OUTSIDE BORDERS OF US. THEY KNOW BLINDING SUCCESS AND IMMEASURABLE TRAGEDY". DEED "HAS FLUNG US INTO TURMOIL FOR THIRD TIME IN FIVE YEARS". EDITORIAL MENTIONS POSSIBILITY OF CONSPIRACY BUT ALSO NOTE THAT "PAMPERED GRIEVANCES OF WARPED MIND ARE STIMULATED IN ATMOSPHERE OF TURMOIL AND TENSION THAT DEVELOPS AROUND PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATE, EVEN TO EXTENT IT EVENTUALLY FINDS RELIEF THROUGH ACTION". THERE "NO DOUBT THIS DEED HAS SERVED TO STRENGTHEN IMAGE OF AMERICA AS VIOLENT COMMUNITY, WHERE LITERAL POLITICAL GANGSTERISM HAS CEASED TO CAUSE ASTONISHMENT" AND "PRIVATE POSSESSION OF ARMS TOO PLENTIFUL". CONCLUDES "WE CAN ONLY HOPE PASSIONS AROUSED BY CRUEL DEED WILL FIND ANCHORAGE WITHIN STRONG AND FLEXIBLE FRAMEWORK OF AMERICAN GOVERNMENTAL STRUCTURE. COUNTRY IS GOING THROUGH PERIOD OF ANXIETY AND TURBULENT EMOTIONS, IN WHICH SUCH OCCURRENCE COULD HAVE INCALCULABLE CONSEQUNECES".

B. CAPE ARGUS SAYS IT DIFFICULT OVERESTIMATE EFFECT OF DEATH ON US. CRIME WAS MORE THAN ONE ADDED TO ASSASSINATIONS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING; IT "MULTIPLIES THOSE INCIDENTS TO SUGGEST REAL DANGER THEY ARE BECOMING PATTERN" IN US POLITICAL LIFE, AND GIVES IMMEDIACY TO DEATHS OF LINCOLN, GARFIELD AND MCKINLEY. CONTRASTS US "VIOLENCE IN DEEDS" WITH "HIGH IDEALISM IN SPEECH". DEPLORES EASE WITH WHICH FIREARMS PURCHASED IN US. NOTES NEED FOR AND RISK IN CANDIATES MINGLING WITH PUBLIC, IN COUNTRY WHERE "RICH ONLY ARE IN POSITION TO STAND FOR PUBLIC OFFICE AND HAVE TO CONVINCE ELECTORATE THAT RICH IN SEARCH OF POWER EGALITARIAN AFTER ALL". NEED IS TO KEEP VIOLENCE OUT OF DOMESTIC POLITICS. "YET ASSAULT...APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN TOUCHED OFF BY INTERNATIONAL POLITICS. CIVILIZED PEOPLE THROUGHOUT WORLD WILL DEPLORE IT AND REGARD IT AS TRAGIC REMINDER THAT RESORT TO POLITICAL ASSASSINATION HAS NO PLACE IN DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY".

C. CAPE TIMES SUGGESTS THAT IF THERE IS "UNIFYING PATTERN" IN ASSASSINATIONS OF PRES. KENNEDY, KING AND SEN. KENNEDY, IT NOT EASILY PERCEIVED. "IF WE COULD BELIEVE THERE WAS INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY IT COULD TO SOME EXTENT MAKE OUR FEARS BEARABLE BY POSTULATING A HUMAN ENEMY". BUT NO PATTERN SEEN, ALTHOUGH EDITORIAL NOTES ALL THREE CRIMES CARRIED OUT AGAINST "PERVASIVE" BACKGROUNG OF VIOLENCE, WHICH IS "MORAL FOG" PERMEATING WHOLE WORLD WE FORMERLY

THOUGHT CIVILIZED. IN FACE OF ASSASSINATIONS "POLITICAL MAN CALLS FOR MORE AND MORE RUTHLESS POLICE OR GREATER AND GREATER CONCESSIONS TO THOSE WHO HAVE USED COMMUNAL VIOLENCE. WHAT WORLD NEEDS IS PRIEST RATHER THAN POLICEMAN: FOR IT IS MORE LIKELY THAT MORAL SICKNESS PERVADING WORLD... IS SUBSTRATU FOR FANTASIES WHICH, IN THESE POOR CREATURES, HAVE LED TO CRAZY PRESSURE UPON TRIGGER OF GUN". TIMES ALSO CARRIES CARTOON SHOWING "RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS" PROVISION OF CONSTITUTION RIDDLED WITH BULLETS. ROUNTREE

1. IN TELEVISION APPEARANCE JUNE 6 PRESIDENT MARCOS MADE FOLLOWING STATEMENT:

"THE TRAGIC END OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY'S BRILLIANT AND DEDICATED CAREER COMES AS A GRIM REMINDER TO A WORLD FRAUGHT WITH CONFLICT AND DISSENSION THAT IT MUST SEEK NEW VALUES.

"THERE IS NEED FOR A CONCERTED EFFORT OF ALL HUMANITY TO FIGHT THE SPIRITUAL EROSION THAT HAS CAUSED ALL NATIONS SUCH A GREAT LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY, NOT TO SPEAK OF THE PEACE AND SECARITY THAT MAN VALUES ABOVE ALL THINGS.

"I, PERSONALLY, AND THE ENTIRE FILIPINO NATION DEEPLY GRIEVE THE LOSS OF SENATOR KENNEDY AND SHARE WITH HIS FAMILY AND PEOPLE THEIR SORROW. AND WE PRAY THAT THE ANGUISH THAT THEY NOW ENDURE BE IN SOME MEASURE ALLEVIATED BY THE AWAKENED CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE WORLD, THAT MEN MUST UNITE TO REESTABLISH ORDER, THAT A SPREADING PSYCHOSIS MUST BE STOPPED, AND THAT ALL MANKIND SHOULD LEARN TO MAKE PEACE WITH ITSELF."

2. PRESIDENT MARCOS ALSO SENT MESSAGES EXPRESSING SORROW AND CONDOLENCE TO PRESIDENT JOHNSON, MRS. ETHEL KENNEDY, AMBASSADOR AND MRS. JOSEPH KENNEDY, AND SENATOR AND MRS. EDWARD KENNEDY.

JOINT EMBASSY/USIA MESSAGE

FOLLOWING TEXT OF AMBASSADOR'S TELEVISED STATEMENT FOR NEWS MEDIA JUNE 6:

1. QUOTE IT WAS WITH GREAT SORROW THAT I LEARNED EARLY THIS MORNING THAT SENATOR KENNEDY HAD DIED. I FIND IT HARD TO PUT INTO WORDS THE HORROR AND REVULSION WHICH THIS SAVAGE ACT OF VIOLENCE HAS INSPIRED IN ME, AS IN ALL OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. SENATOR KENNEDY WAS A VALIANT CHAMPION IN THE NEVER-ENDING STRUGGLE TO GIVE TRUE MEANING TO THE DIGNITY OF MAN AND TO PROMOTE THROUGH PEACEFUL MEANS THE ACHIEVEMENT OF EQUAL POLITICAL RIGHTS AND ECONOMIC BENEFITS FOR ALL MANKIND. WE SHALL MISS HIM SORELY.

2. IN THIS MOMENT OF TERROR, OUR HEARTS GO OUT TO SENATOR KENNEDY'S FAMILY. I KNOW THAT I SPEAK ON BEHALF OF EVERY AMERICAN IN VENEZUELA WHEN I EXTEND TO MRS. KENNEDY AND TO HER CHILDREN OUR VERY DEEPEST SYMPATHY FOR HER TRAGIC LOSS.

3. IT WOULD SEEM PREMATURE TO COME TO ANY CONCUSION REGARDING THE NATURE OF THIS ASSASSINATION. SINCE THE ASSASSIN WAS APPREHENDED IT WILL BE POSSIBLE TO CARRY OUT A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THIS TERRIBLE CRIME.

Subject: Acknowledgment of Condolence Message from Canadian Prime Minister to President

Pol 6-2 US/KENNEDY, ROBERT F.

Enclosed is a suggested reply to Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau's message of condolence over the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. A copy of the Prime Minister's message is also enclosed.

Alternative language is proposed in this instance because the standard reply is being transmitted to the Governor General. Moreover, it is believed desirable to make specific reference to attendance at the funeral services in New York by former Prime Minister Pearson, who served as Mr. Trudeau's personal representative as well as the official representative of the Government of Canada. Following approval of the Trudeau message, we propose to send the two messages simultaneously.

Subject: Messages from the President to Libyan King and Government on the Death of Senator Kennedy

We do not wish to send the same message from the President to both King Idris and the Acting Prime Minister to Libya to acknowledge their condolences on the death of Senator Kennedy. For this reason we suggest the text in the enclosed message.

The message to King Idris closely followed the language proposed in S/S's memorandum of June 10. We would plan to send the two messages simultaneously.

Subject: Message of Condolence to the President from Panamanian President-Elect Arnulfo Arias on Death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy

Panamanian President-Elect Arias has sent the enclosed message to President Johnson on the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Arias' opponents are still attempting legal maneuvers to challenge his credentials as President-Elect and have accused the United States Government of assisting Arias' campaign. In view of these circumstances the President did not send a message of congratulations to Arias at the time he was proclaimed President-Elect. For the same reasons it is recommended that acknowledgment of Arias' message concerning Senator Kennedy not come directly from the President. Instead, it is suggested that our Ambassador to Panama be instructed to send a written acknowledgment to Arias on behalf of the President. A proposed telegram of instructions to our Ambassador is enclosed. We propose, in addition, that the text of the language previously approved by the White House be sent in reply to a message of condolence from President Robles.

As if drawn by an irresistible force, this hero of American democracy seemed destined for his great country's highest office; instead, he was felled by the storm of hatred that antidemocracy, in its racial, nationalistic, totalitarian manifestations, is unleashing against the champions of freedom throughout the world.

The memory of Robert Kennedy will live forever in the hearts of mankind, together with that of his brother, President John Kennedy, who preceded him in martyrdom for the same cause of democracy.

QTE It is indeed a sad reflection on our present age that a man of such integrity as Robert Kennedy who, like his late brother John F. Kennedy and also like the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, stood for the high principles of human brotherhood and racial equality should die at the assassin's hands, in his efforts to bring a better life not only to his people, but to all mankind.

SUBJECT : Death of Senator Robert Kennedy

REF : Addis Ababa 4202; USIAC, June 6; and Others

The death of Senator Robert Kennedy caused profound shock, confusion, and bitterness among educated Ethiopians. There has been widespread support for the viewpoint expressed in the Ethiopian Herald editorial of June 8 that "The American style of democracy has suddenly become at the mercy of the gun-man. The bullet is nullifying the ballot. When the ballot says yes, the bullet says no and the bullet wins." Educated Ethiopians all point out that the "wave" of assassinations in the U. S. appears aimed at individuals who are advocates of domestic social change and revision of foreign policy, and they argue from this that the assassination represents an anti-democratic effort by certain elements in American society to stave off progressive developments.

However, along with this political bitterness, there is a feeling of sadness and sympathy which has been expressed to us by many educated Ethiopians. Conscious of the strains which the American political system is now facing, and fully aware of the difficulties of carrying out peaceful social change under any political system, many Ethiopians have speculated at length on the possibility that the United States might lose some of its democratic characteristics as a result of present social clashes. They hope that this will not come about, but some are mildly pessimistic.

SUBJECT : Reactions to Senator Robert F. Kennedy's Assassination

REF : Lusaka 2022

Although the Embassy has already reported telegraphically on reactions to Senator Robert F. Kennedy's tragic assassination, the account that follows and the enclosures are submitted as of possible historical interest. In general, Zambian reactions were quick and bitter, generally directed against the supposed sickness of American society, even against "those in power." The Ambassador replied to the latter (Enclosure 8), but by June 9 most reactions had subsided. Contrary to original fears, no demonstrations developed.

of a South African radio broadcast that Senator Kennedy had been shot. We had no official word and could neither confirm nor deny. Pirated snatches of UPI news transmissions conveyed the story, though incompletely; it seemed that he had been hit but must still be alive. A senior Foreign Ministry official called about noon and urgently requested information on behalf of the Acting Foreign Minister. We had nothing we could say beyond the news reports he had already heard. Just at lunchtime a USIS Wireless File item came in reporting the shooting and the fact that the Senator was about to be operated on. USIS put the item out as a news release.

By afternoon it was clear that Senator Kennedy was critically injured and was undergoing a very delicate operation. Local news reports the next morning were more complete than anything available officially. See clippings, Enclosure 1. Senator Kennedy's doctors were concerned at the lack of improvement; things looked rather bad. Shortly after 11 AM word was received that the Senator was dead. Anticipating instructions from Washington (finally received late in the day), the Embassy put its flag at half mast, opened a condolence book and began to make plans for a memorial service. Plans for coping with possible demonstrations against the Embassy were also reviewed, and it was decided to alert the police (through the appropriate ministries) of our concern that adequate protection be afforded in the event that any sort of demonstration should develop. The Ambassador then prepared a brief statement to be released with the announcement that a condolence book had been opened (Enclosure 2).

Shortly afterward, Mr. Stewart Marchand, an Irishman from Kitwe, called to ask if the Embassy would object if he were to open a condolence book in the lobby of the Edinburgh Hotel in Kitwe. We made no objection, suggesting only that he might find it useful to coordinate with the Catholic clergy in Kitwe, which Mr. Marchand proceeded to do.

Friday morning the independent Times of Zambia carried adverse comments by various local figures (Lusaka 2022) as well as an editorial and straight news coverage (Enclosure 3). One senior political figure expressed conviction that the murder had been masterminded by "those already in power." The government-owned Zambia Mail also covered the news, but without editorial comment (Enclosure 4). From Luwingu in the Northern Province, Vice President Simon Kapwepwe was quoted as calling the assassination "primitive, barbaric and undemocratic." From Uganda, where he was visiting a political party meeting, President Kaunda spoke bitterly of the loss, denouncing violence in American society, and characterizing this act as "the beginning of the end."

Radio Zambia's Friday morning news commentary, prepared the evening before by its Head of News, Naphy Nyalugwe, attributed the murder to "a society that is sick and growing sicker every day." This was one of the most unfair news talks we have ever heard on Radio Zambia. (See the full text, Enclosure 5).

President Kaunda returned to Zambia Friday evening and devoted most of his airport arrival speech to the assassination, holding the United States Government responsible for inadequate protection. (Press Release, Enclosure 6).

The Saturday morning Times of Zambia (clippings, Enclosure 7) reported the President's remarks and also carried most of a statement the Ambassador made earlier (Enclosure 8) to refute charges that the assassination had been schemed by "those in power" in the U.S.

A memorial requiem mass was held at St. Ignatius Catholic Church at 5 PM June 8, attended by Vice President and Mrs. Simon Kapwepwe, Foreign Minister Reuben Kamanga, and at least one other minister, plus a large number of expatriates and local people.

The Sunday papers on June 9 carried straight news about the capture in London of Martin Luther King's assassin, the arraignment of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, and the capture of a gunman at the requiem mass in New York. No more editorial comments or other local reactions were reported. By the time the Condolence Book was closed at noon there were some 433 entries (some covering more than one person), including a few ministers and senior officials.

As of Monday June 10, news media were still carrying straight news items related to the assassination and its aftermath but no editorials or other reactions, the news having been eclipsed somewhat by critical local events, especially the destruction by sabotage of an important bridge on Zambia's Great East Road.

Further comment and analysis will be submitted separately.

BANNER HEADLINE "KENNEDY FIGHTING FOR HIS LIFE"
Times of Zambia, June 6, 1968

LOS ANGELES, Wednesday.

SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY remains in "a very critical" condition after a three-hour operation to remove a bullet from his brain. This was stated in a hospital bulletin issued ten hours after the Senator was shot in the head and neck at a hotel here.

MEANWHILE, POLICE SAID A MAN HAD BEEN FORMALLY CHARGED WITH ASSAULT TO MURDER. HE WAS NAMED AS SIRHAN SIRHAN, AGED 23, OF PASADENA, BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN BORN IN JERUSALEM.

Hopes that the 42-year-old Senator's life would be saved rose with a report that the bullet which ploughed into his head had caused no damage to his brain. But doctors at the Catholic Good Samaritan Hospital warned that it would take four or five days to determine the outcome of the operation.

The operation was carried out about two hours and 50 minutes after the gunman jumped out of crowds in the Ambassador Hotel as they congratulated the Senator on his primary election victory in California over Senator Eugene McCarthy, one of his rivals for the Democratic Party's Presidential nomination.

Emptied revolver

The swarthy, dark-haired gunman emptied his revolver in the direction of the Senator, hitting Kennedy twice and wounding three other people.

Bystanders hurled themselves towards him and he was hustled away by police. Kennedy supporters clawed and screamed at him, shouting: "Lynch him, lynch him."

At the Central Receiving Hospital where Senator Kennedy was first taken, one doctor thought at first that he was dead. But Dr. Victor Barr said that when he slapped the Senator's face, calling out, "Bob, Bob", Mr. Kennedy stirred.

Dr. Barr put his stethoscope to Mr. Kennedy's chest and heard a strong heartbeat. Then he let Senator Kennedy's wife, Ethel, expecting her 11th child, use the stethoscope to convince her that he was alive.

The nation was shocked by the shooting — which came only two months after the murder of Negro civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King—and President Johnson ordered the secret service to provide an immediate bodyguard for all Presidential campaign candidates and their families.

The shooting will change the face of the Presidential election campaign, in which he was one of the favourites to stand against the Republicans.

Others hit

Three other men were shot in the fusillade of bullets which felled Senator Kennedy.

The men, standing near the Senator in the hotel ballroom, were Bill Weizel, an associate producer of the American Broadcasting Company, Paul Schrade, an official of the United Auto Workers Union, and Ira Goldstein, a radio newsman.

Weizel, hit in the abdomen, was in undetermined condition, as was Schrade with a scalp wound. Goldstein, shot in the leg and back, was said to be in good condition in hospital.

There was speculation that more than one person was involved after an eye-witness reported seeing a woman in a polka-dot dress running towards an exit shouting: "We shot him, we shot him."

The assistant maitre d'hotel, Karl Uecker, told reporters that he prevented the gunman firing all eight bullets at Kennedy.

"Kennedy was shaking hands with someone when we came through the doors," he said. "Someone jumped up from the floor. I saw paper flying—it might have been a paper bag the gun was in.

"At the second shot Kennedy fell. I quickly got a headlock on the gunman but he kept shooting."

Another eye-witness said the arrested man shouted: "I did it for my country" as he was dragged away.

Blood

Pools of blood soaked the floor.

Only seconds before the shooting — which came four-and-a-half years after his brother's assassination — the elated Senator Kennedy had promised that as President he would end violence in the United States.

Police said later that suspect Sirhan was identified through a set of fingerprints filed as a matter of routine when Sirhan, as a youth, applied for a city recreation department job as an exercise boy for horses.

Four 100-dollar notes were found on him, which might indicate he was planning a getaway from the area, a police chief said.

The suspect also carried a derogatory news clipping about Senator Kennedy.

According to police files Sirhan was born in the former Jordanian sector of Jerusalem but they had no idea what his nationality might be.

Silent

He refused to speak as he was charged.

Police said they had cleared the owner of a car whose key had been found in Sirhan's possession. A gun, an eight-shot .22 revolver taken from the suspect, was not registered in his name.

The assassination attempt was expected to bring renewed demands for tighter federal and state controls on guns and other weapons.

Since the assassination of his brother, the Senator has himself been one of the leading advocates of stricter controls on the sale and possession of arms.

However, strong lobbies in Congress and state legislatures have so far largely resisted such pressures, claiming that tight controls would infringe the constitutional right of the American citizen to bear arms.—Rtr.

PROFILE

Inheritor of a myth, RFK is a crusader and political realist

Times of Zambia, June 6, 1968

LOS ANGELES, Wednesday.

SENATOR ROBERT F. Kennedy, energetic and wiry with some of the glamour of his late brother, John F. Kennedy, is a man who had his eyes set on the White House.

He is the inheritor of a myth cherished by millions of Americans who discovered a taste for dynasty when John Kennedy was President and who now dream of "the restoration."

Bobby Kennedy, as he is generally called, still youthful but with grey flecking his tousled hair, is 42.

His bid to gain his nation's highest office came sooner than expected. Personal differences with President Johnson, although legend in Washington, did not bring on the challenge.

Instead it stemmed from the New York Senator's deep feeling that the Johnson Administration had not been flexible enough in seeking peace in Vietnam and that at home the country was being torn apart by dissension and racial strife.

In March 1967, Senator Kennedy proposed an unqualified halt in the American bombing of North Vietnam to try to initiate peace talks.

Last February 8, in a widely-acclaimed speech, he attacked every major facet of the Johnson Administration's Vietnam policy and called the President's claims of progress "illusory."

From then on, it seemed only a question of "when would Bobby run?" — whether he would try to unseat the President in 1968 or hold back until 1972.

Bobby Kennedy was his brother's campaign manager when John Fitzgerald Kennedy became President in 1960.

He became Attorney-General and Presidential right-arm to his elder brother, who was assassinated in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

Abrasive

Married with 10 children, he was born in Boston, Massachusetts, on November 20, 1925. Though more abrasive than his brother Edward, Senator from Massachusetts and youngest member of the Kennedy dynasty, he is also more experienced and more aggressive.

He resigned as Attorney-General in September 1964 and stood successfully in the New York Senatorial elections two months later.

He has been a staunch supporter of Negro civil rights. Despite his differences with the President, the question of civil rights is one on which they see eye to eye and much of the President's legislation fulfilled policies advocated by the Senator.

As Attorney-General, Senator Kennedy sent 20,000 Federal troops into Oxford, Mississippi, in 1962 to enforce the enrolment of James Meredith as first Negro student at the university there.

He went to South Africa on a five-day visit in June 1966 at the invitation of students a visit which aroused sharp controversy here.

Apartheid

The Government refused to meet him and he made a spectacular speech branding apartheid as evil.

Senator Kennedy afterwards expressed concern at a society based on the colour of the skin rather than on the ability of the people. He said: "This must cause a great deal of concern and I was disturbed by the fact that there were many injustices to individuals because they were black and not white."

The blue-eyed Senator once infuriated racial segregationists by prophesying that the the US would have its first Negro President by the end of the Century.

As he embarked on his campaign, he denied a report that he had in effect issued an ultimatum to Mr. Johnson that he would challenge him for the nomination unless he agreed to a proposal to establish a commission to examine Vietnam war policy.

Alleging that the report was a distorted "leak" from the White House, he said: "This incident reveals in the sharpest possible terms why the American people no longer believe the President and the White House: why the credibility of our political leadership has been so critically eroded and why it is clear that the only way we are going to change our policy in Vietnam is to change administrations in Washington."—Reuter.

MEMORIAL BOOK OPENED FOR SENATOR KENNEDY

LUSAKA, June 6 -- A book of condolences in memory of the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy has been opened in the entrance lobby of the American Embassy, David Livingstone Road, here, the Embassy announced today.

The American Ambassador to Zambia, Robert C. Good, meanwhile, issued the following statement.

"For Americans, this is an hour of anguish, and for countless millions across the world, a day of dismay.

"If senseless tragedy is to be invested with any meaning at all, we must hope that the life and the terrible death of Robert Kennedy will open the eyes of his troubled country and a distraught world. He hated injustice and violence and gave himself wholly to the quest for peace and brotherhood. If we would truly honour him, we will do likewise."

The memorial book will be available to those who wish to pay their respects to the late Senator daily from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday and Sunday.

PRESIDENT Johnson today proclaimed a day of national mourning for Senator Robert Kennedy, victim of an assassination that has stirred the nation's conscience.

THE SENATOR, WHO DIED AT 1.44 A.M. (08.44 GMT) IN THE GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL, IS TO BE BURIED ALONGSIDE HIS BROTHER, PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, IN THE ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY.

It is only four and a half years since President Kennedy was himself buried in this shrine of American heroes overlooking Washington after being shot dead in Dallas, Texas, by an assassin.

Senator Edward Kennedy, 38, sole survivor of the four brothers groomed by their father for high political office, is already being mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic Party's Vice-Presidential nomination.

The death of Senator Kennedy today from an assassin's bullet means that the youngest brother, known as "Ted," is now the standard bearer for the Kennedy dynasty.

He himself narrowly averted death in a 1964 plane crash. His back was broken and for a time it looked as if he would be a cripple for life.

President Johnson, in his proclamation today, said: "The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world."

He ordered that the Stars and Stripes be flown at half-mast throughout the nation, and set Sunday— the day after the funeral — as the day of national mourning.

The President's statement reflected the rising concern of the nation over lawlessness that has led to moves to curb the free sale of guns and to provide greater safety for political leaders.

Senator Kennedy's body was being flown from Los Angeles to New York today in a special jet ordered by Mr. Johnson. Aboard were members of the Kennedy family and friends — among them the widows of three assassination victims.

Family members included the Senator's 40-year-old wife Ethel, expecting her 11th child, and her three oldest children; the Senator's only surviving brother, Senator Edward Kennedy, and Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, widow of President Kennedy.

Other passengers included Mrs. Coretta King, widow of Negro civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, who was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee, only two months ago.

Ethel, Edward and Jacqueline Kennedy were at the Senator's bedside when he died.

In New York the Senator's body will be taken to St. Patrick's Cathedral where it will lie in state for 15 hours.

A Requiem Mass, with New York Archbishop Terence Cooke officiating, will be celebrated in St. Patrick's on Saturday and it is likely that President Johnson and other American and foreign dignitaries will attend.

Times of Zambia, June 7, 1968

The aide, Frank Mankiewicz walked slowly into the temporary Press room set up in the nurses' dining hall of the hospital to make the death announcement.

Looking grim, his head bowed before a battery of television cameras, he said laconically: "I have a statement which I will make at this time."

He then read the death announcement, which began: "Senator Robert Kennedy died at 1.44 a.m. today, June 6, 1968. . . ."

Sinking

The previous bulletin on Senator Kennedy, issued at 5 pm. (midnight GMT), had made it clear that doctors feared the worst. It said that the Senator's condition was "extremely critical as to life."

Asked if Senator Kennedy had been sinking during the time between the two announcements, Mankiewicz said: "It was not a question of sinking, but of not rising."

Shortly after Senator Kennedy's death, Los Angeles police said a charge against Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, a 24-year-old Jordanian immigrant held for the shooting, would be automatically changed to murder.

Initially, after being arrested in a struggle in the hotel, he was accused of assault with intent to kill the Senator and five other people wounded in the shooting.

Sirhan refused to speak to police at all at first. Later he began talking to his interrogators, but not about the shooting.

Sirhan, who has lived in California for the past 11 years, was identified only after the .22 calibre revolver used in the shooting had been traced to him.

He had four 100-dollar bills in his pocket when arrested and a newspaper clipping unfavourable to Senator Kennedy, police said.

Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty told reporters yesterday that an entry in a diary alleged to belong to Sirhan stated that Senator Kennedy had to be killed by June 5 — the first anniversary of the start of the six-day Israeli-Arab war.

Security

New York police are already making security arrangements, like to be the tightest in the city's history, for the service. Immediately after the Mass, Senator Kennedy's body will be taken by train to Washington for the burial.

The Senator's death was announced by one of his aides just over 25 hours after he was shot through the head and neck in a Los Angeles hotel as he was celebrating his primary election victory in California.

Surgeons carried out a three-and-a-half hour operation to remove the bullet from his brain, but he never regained consciousness. There had been fears that even if he survived, his faculties would be permanently damaged.

This has led to speculation that the motive for the killing was Senator Kennedy's support of the Israeli cause.

Senator Kennedy's death threw the American political scene into turmoil for the second time in nine weeks — the first being President Johnson's unexpected decision not to run for re-election.

The scene is now more confused than ever in this wildly-unpredictable Presidential race, though some analysts believe the electioneering moratium that has followed Senator Kennedy's death will give an advantage to the "old guard" candidates — Vice-President Hubert Humphrey for the Democrats and former Vice-President Richard Nixon for the Republicans.

President Johnson announced last night that he had ordered a special 10-member commission to try to find out "why we inflict such suffering on ourselves."

It will be headed by Dr Milton Eisenhower, 69-year-old brother of ex-President Eisenhower, and will look into the causes and control of violence.

The House of Representatives is also expected to give approval to a Bill today to control the sale of firearms in the United States.

The ease with which weapons can be obtained — even by mail order—has been cited by supporters of the Bill as one of the key factors in the nation's violence.

In Jerusalem, the father of the man accused of shooting Senator Kennedy told reporters today: "I am shocked by the action of my son."

Tracked down to the small Arab village of Taiyaba near Jerusalem, Beshara Salame Sirhan, 52, said he was an admirer of the late President John Kennedy and felt grieved about the shooting of the Sanator.

In Paris, French writer and film maker Romain Gary today quoted Senator Kennedy as telling him a fortnight ago that an assassination attempt would be made on him sooner or later.

"One must rely on luck," he quoted Mr. Kennedy as saying.

SAVAGE ACT SHOCKS ZAMBIA

Killing 'schemed by those in power'

THE assassination of Senator Kennedy was "only what could be expected from the cowboy government of the United States," Zambian Minister of State for the Western Province, Mr. Peter Chanda, said yesterday.

The death was regrettable and a loss to humanity. He was convinced that the murder had been master-minded by those already in power.

Mr. Chanda

Mr. Chanda added that America preached democracy from the hill tops, yet was the scene of "such a brutal, savage and uncivilised murder."

President Kaunda, on his arrival back from East Africa today, is expected to make a speech on the killing.

A survey conducted by the Times of Zambia yesterday revealed that Senator Kennedy had endeared himself to Zambians.

Mr. Zulu

Throughout Wednesday and yesterday, the Times offices were flooded with inquiries on the condition of the Senator.

Radio Zambia interrupted its programmes to give details, and finally to announce his death yesterday morning.

Scheduled programmes were cancelled in the afternoon and replaced by serious music and items of news from America.

UNIP's national secretary and Minister without Portfolio, Mr. Mainza Chona, said he believed that the assassin was a "mercenary."

Mr. Munkanta

America had lost a potential "second best President" after his brother John F. Kennedy.

"The death of Kennedy shows that to survive as President of America one has to be a thug," Mr. Chona said.

In Ndola, the Christian Church has joined in the mourning.

"Kennedy stood for human rights and equality for the Negroes and had plans to end the unsolved Vietnam war," the Rev. Ben Zulu said.

Miss Nyendwa

Chiwala Secondary School teacher, Mr. Oliver Munkanta said: "This is a very uncivilised act. If it happened here the outcry would be that we still lived in jungle."

Miss Mary Nyendwa, an Ndola school teacher, said the killing was a culmination of racialism and activities of selfish individuals who were hungry for power.

PROMISE BROKEN BY A BULLET

THE BELLS toll again today for another Kennedy, for another American leader whose promise to millions was broken by the bullet of one man.

Robert Kennedy was not given even the brief display of his brother, that bright star whose short orbit never reached its apogee.

Some, with strange logic, scorned the younger Kennedy for attempting to follow his brother, arguing that agreement and imitation were opportunism.

They were wrong. On the day his mind was extinguished, it was plain that he, above all, was the white American leader who held the trust of his country's underprivileged, including the Negro minority.

What he might have done for his country has gone with him. His accomplishments remain and will continue to work among those who shared his anguished desire to cure the sickness of violence as a political method.

Out of his death we can hope for the emergence of a larger will to recognise and end the brutalising effects of both reckless privilege and hopeless poverty.

Both Kennedys used and bequeathed us a slogan for intelligent leadership everywhere: "We can do better . . . We must do better."

And so we must and quickly too, if we are to deserve those who, in Stephen Spender's words:

". . . wore at their hearts the fire's centre.

"Born of the sun they travelled a short while towards the sun,

OUTRAGE BRINGS DISTRESS TO ALL AFRICA

HEADS of state throughout Africa received the news of Senator Kennedy's death with "indignation," "profound distress," and "great shock."

The mood was of sadness and bitterness at the loss of a champion of minority ethnic groups in America.

In the north, King Hassan of MOROCCO cabled President Johnson from his capital, Rabat, that he was "profoundly afflicted by the new of the death of Senator Kennedy, victim of an odious outrage."

In TUNISIA, President Habib Burguiba sent condolences to President Johnson and said the assassination had "profoundly moved all Tunisians."

In East Africa, Presidents Milton Obote of UGANDA, Julius Nyerere of TANZANIA, Kenneth Kaunda of ZAMBIA and Vice-President Daniel Arap Moi of KENYA endorsed a resolution in Kampala expressing "great shock" at the news.

Newspapers in Kenya questioned the U.S. law that permits "any felon or maniac" to buy any firearm he wants.

In Lagos, the head of the NIGERIAN Federal Military Government, Major General Yakubu Gowon, said that the assassination was a reckless act that deprived the American people and mankind of the Senator's devoted, conscientious and courageous services.

From ENGLAND, Queen Elizabeth sent a personal message expressing her deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy.

"I am shocked and distressed by the tragic death of your husband. I send you my deepest sympathy. My thoughts are with you and your children in your great loss," the message said.

Arab newspapers in the Middle East, while unanimous in denouncing the murder, disowned Arab responsibility for the shooting by 24-year-old Palestinian-born Sirhan Sirhan.

"The criminal may be someone carrying an Arab nationality but he was only an instrument in carrying out the crime," one paper wrote.

Meanwhile, in AMERICA, Senator Eugene McCarthy called for renewed dedication to the cause of peace and reconciliation.

He said words could do little to ease the anguish of the Senator's family and the grief of all those who loved him.—Reuter.

ZAMBIA MAIL, June 7, 1968

DEATH OF A SENATOR

Los Angeles, Thursday

THE United States was plunged into mourning today by the announcement that Senator Robert F. Kennedy had died from bullet wounds suffered last night.

As news of his death circulated around the world messages of sympathy to his family from leaders of many nations were flooding in.

In a statement President Johnson paid high tribute to the dead senator — probably his bitterest political opponent in recent months — and said: "Our public life is diminished by his loss."

Directing that the Stars and Stripes be flown at half-mast throughout the United States and at American posts overseas until the time of the senator's interment, President Johnson declared next Sunday as a day of mourning.

"The tragedy and senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world," said President Johnson in a proclamation issued at the White House minutes after the announcement of the senator's death.

"This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of anguish into a new dawn of healing unity," he said.

As Senator Kennedy died at 0844 GMT yesterday his wife Ethel, expecting her eleventh child, and other members of the Kennedy family were at his bedside in the Los Angeles Catholic Good Samaritan Hospital.

Even had he lived, the chances were that he would have been cruelly disabled by the bullet that tore through his head and damaged his brain.

Tears

Outside the hospital women burst into tears when the death was announced. But the crowd of about 1,000, who had kept an all-night vigil, did not repeat the emotional scenes immediately after the shooting when people screaming "pray for him, pray for him" went down on their knees in the Ambassador Hotel foyer.

Later it was announced that Senator Kennedy will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery where his brother, the late President Kennedy, was interred following his assassination in November 1963.

The body of the dead senator would leave here later today on a jet airliner provided by the White House. Members of Senator Kennedy's family, friends and members of his staff will be aboard the aircraft.

In New York the senator's body will be taken to St Patrick's Cathedral where it will lie in state for 15 hours. After a Requiem Mass on Saturday morning it will be taken by train to Washington and then nearby Arlington for burial.

And Los Angeles police said today that Sirhan Sirhan — accused of shooting Senator Kennedy — would be charged with his murder as soon as the necessary formalities were completed.

In Kampala, today — Presidents Milton Obote of Uganda, Julius Nyerere of Tanzania, Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia and Vice-President Daniel Arap Moi of Kenya endorsed a resolution expressing "great shock" at the death of Senator Kennedy.

The resolution, passed unanimously by 3,000 delegates, observers and guests at the opening ceremony of the annual conference of the ruling Uganda People's Congress, sent heartfelt condolences to the Senator's widow and the Kennedy family.

In Luwingu, Northern Zambia, the Vice-President, Mr Simon Kapwepwe, described the assassination as "primitive, barbaric and undemocratic".

And in Lusaka, the American Embassy announced that a book of condolences in memory of Senator Kennedy had been opened in the entrance lobby of the embassy at David Livingstone Road.

The book will be available to the public from 8 am until 6 pm and from 9 am until noon on Saturday and Sunday.

6.6.68 News Talk American violence

Senator Robert Kennedy is dead - a victim of the wave of violence that is today gripping the body politic of America. The unguarded words of Jacqueline Kennedy have proved to be correct. On hearing that Robert Kennedy intended to run for Presidential elections she said: "But he will be killed." The question is why should Kennedy follow Mr. Evers, his brother John, Malcolm X, and Dr. Martin Luther King - all known political figures who were assassinated within the past five years? The answer is that violence has been a part of the American way of life, but only recently has it reached such gigantic, menacing and horrifying proportions.

Whereas youth in other societies have been fed on fairy tales the young in America are fed on films of horror and violence. They are not shocked any more at violent deaths or of a murderous killing. For many youths in America killing looks like a heroic deed. A gun represents violence whether it be a toy gun or a real one. America today condemns a murderer, but at the same time it loves murder. Further, large sections of the American society are ruled by gangsters. Gangsterism in America is part of Big Business today. Mafia which is worth millions of dollars today is a glaring example. Violence begets violence. Even if it seems to be impulsive, it builds up over a long time. The United States is confronted with a rising tide of violence, both individual and collective, actual and potential.

Senator Kennedy's murder did not intrude from outside into American life. It grew directly out of it. It fits into, and highlights the social and political context in which it occurred. Violence permeates the American social life on many different levels. In none has it abated during this decade. In all it has become intensified. Such has been the increase in violence that adult murders in the first quarter of last year increased by twenty-three percent. Last year there were nine thousand murders in America compared to less than two hundred in Britain.

Life has become so cheap for murderers in the United States that even national figures cannot escape their bullets. It would have been expected that after the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy, there would have been a national shakeup of the Police force and the security forces. But nothing was done and more fell victims. Another significant fact is that none of the murderers have been brought to book. President Johnson has appointed a ten-member Commission to investigate means of ending violence in America. But it is too late. American society is split wide open, between the rich and the poor, between the whites and the Negroes, between those for and against the war in Vietnam. All these are symptoms of a society that is sick, and growing sicker day by day.

Senator Kennedy's murder can be seen as a horrible example of social contamination with violence. It was carried out in a country charged with the electricity of violence. It was not just an unfortunate incident, as some would have it. Nor was it inevitable. It was highly selective. Kennedy was a marked man. He represented an idea. He was a key person; and many regarded him as an enemy. He was opposed by those who wished everything to stay as it is. That was the effect and the underlying social motive. America has prided itself as a democracy with complete freedom. A new freedom has been added - freedom to kill and get away. If the President and candidates for Presidency are not safe, who in America is safe? After the killing of Dr. King, people asked who is next? Now with the slaying of Senator Robert Kennedy, again people ask who is next? Will it be Senator McCarthy or another Negro like Rap Brown or Stokley Carmichael?

The world is in a grip of rigid shock at the dastardly and cowardly shooting of the popular American Senator Robert Kennedy in a hotel in Los Angeles yesterday after his election victory over Senator Eugene McCarthy in the California Presidential primary. The shooting has plunged the United States and many peace-loving countries of the world into a state of gloom and despair, especially as it comes exactly two months after the slaying of one of the most distinguished leaders for the cause of Human Rights and dignity - the American civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King. It was a savage act, unspeakable and has really tarnished the good name of America. It is indeed a travesty of everything America stands for. Only seconds before the shooting, Senator Kennedy had promised that as President he would end violence in the United States.

Senator Robert Kennedy, energetic and wiry with some of the glamour of his late brother who died at the hands of an assassin, is a man who had his eyes set on the Presidency of the United States. Bobby Kennedy, as he is generally known, still youthful but with grey flecking his tousled hair, is forty-two. His bid to gain the Presidency of the United States came sooner than expected. It stemmed from his deep feeling that the present administration was not flexible enough in seeking peace in Vietnam and that at home the country was being torn apart by dissension and racial strife.

He resigned as the country's Attorney General in September 1964 and stood successfully in the New York Senatorial elections two months later. He later became the champion of the liberals. As Attorney General, he sent twenty thousand federal troops into Oxford, Mississippi in 1962 to enforce the enrollment of James Meredith as the first Negro student at the University there. He went to South Africa on a five-day visit in June 1966 - a visit which aroused sharp controversy there. The Vorster Government refused to meet him but he made a spectacular speech branding apartheid as evil. He later infuriated racial segregationists in the United States by prophesying that the United States would have its first Negro President by the end of the century.

On March the sixteenth this year he decided to enter the election race for the Presidency of the United States, and was already showing promising signs that he would turn out to be the next President of the United States. His victory in Los Angeles where he was shot was yet another step in this direction, but even before the Presidential race, Senator Robert Kennedy had become the most popular American politician on the American political scene. His popularity was rather an unusual phenomenon in modern America where one can observe the falling of prestige and a public interest to statesmen and political leaders on the whole.

In recent years hundreds of articles have appeared in the American press attempting to explain the popularity of Senator Kennedy. Many authors of these articles are of the opinion that Robert Kennedy personifies a new trend in American political life connected with the awakening of an interest in politics among wide sections of the American youth. His popularity among the youth is compared with the popularity of the Beatles. But the main reason for Robert Kennedy's success among definite American sections is his disagreement with the policies of the present leadership of the American Democratic Party. Some link Kennedy's name with the hope that the United States could still be extricated from the tempestuous waters in which it finds itself as a result of the government's adventurist policy. The sharp divergence between Senator Kennedy's views and those of President Johnson both on matters concerning foreign policy and domestic problems are grounds for such expectation.

PRESS RELEASE NO. 1023/68.

PRESIDENT KAUNDA BACK FROM KENYA AND UGANDA.

President Kaunda arrived in Lusaka this evening after his seven-day state visit to Kenya and Uganda. At the International Airport he told a large gethering of people who came to welcome him that he had a very successful visit to Kenya.

The President said everywhere he had gone he had received warm welcome and that in one part of Kenya he had been made Sheik - Arab Chief - in rememberance of what the Zambian Government had done in helping to quell the Kenya/Somalia border despute.

President Kaunda said that in Uganda he attended a conference which was similar to Mulungushi Conference. This conference, he said was also attended by President Jomo Kenyatta and it was decided that Uganda Peoples Party, Tanganyika African National Union, United National Independence Party and the ruling party of Kenya should be called The Mulungushi Club.

On the death of late Senator Robert Kennedy, President Kaunda said the sad world had lost one of this generation's outstanding, dynamic and young leaders.

"We must make our view known to the American Government," he said. "We fail to understand that leaders of that type - first it was John Kennedy, second Martin Luther King, and now Boby Kennedy - can be assassinated at all."

Dr. Kaunda went on to say that he saw a very strange pattern where outstanding leaders with a lot to contribute to the world could only be protected when they were dead.

"I hear that there were 500 police officers at the irport," he said "only to receive a dead body. We have a right to complain because we believe that in the persons of John Kennedy, Martin Luther King and Robert Kennedy we lost men who will never be replaced at all."

President Kaunda said he did not understand how the Kennedy family would participate in the American politics because there was only one of them remaining now.

"We regard those people who strike at the international problems as our friends," he said. "Boby Kennedy was one of the few American leaders who identified himself with the poor. For a rich man to come down and speak the voice of the poor is not an easy thing to achieve."

In welcoming the President, Vice-President Kapwepwe said he was very happy to see him back home. He said although there had been a strike at Kabwe zinc mine and at Kitwe, where teachers went on strike, there had been a general quietness in the country. He thanked civil servants, members of the party and the general public for their co-operation during his absence.

Among the distinguished guests who came to welcome the President were the Speaker of the National Assembly, Mr. W.P. Nyirenda, the Minister Without Portfolio, Mr. M. Chona, The Commissioner of Police, Mr. M. Mataka, the Mayor of Lusaka, Councillor W. Banda, Chief Justice Blagden, the Commander Zambia Army, the Commander Zambia Air Force, many Government Ministers, top Government officials, and members of the Diplomatic Corps.

BANNER HEADLINE "WEEPING THOUSANDS PAY LAST TRIBUTES"
Times of Zambia, June 8, 1968

From Alan Paterson

MORE THA[redacted] NEW YORK, Friday.
and grim-fa[redacted] mourners an hour filed weeping
Senator Ro[redacted] the closed coffin of assassinated
[redacted]nnedy in St. Patrick's Cathedral
[redacted]e today.

In less than six hours after dawn, when the massive doors of the cathedral swung open to admit them, more than 25,000 people were estimated to have passed the black-draped catafalque where the coffin lay.

A long procession of grieving mourners of all ages, races and religions, and many different nationalities, wound back from the doors around the heart of Manhattan for over a dozen city blocks. The grim que grew hour by hour.

Hundreds waited all night to pay their last tributes. Those arriving during the morning had to wait up to three hours to get in.

Mothers cradling babies, children, blind men, elderly cripples shuffling forward on crutches, and young students, many weeping openly, filed sadly past.

Relatives and aides of the dead Senator and stars and celebrities from all walks of life took turns in keeping 30-minute vigils around the mahogany coffin, flanked by six yellow candles. Among the honour guards were Mr. Kennedy's two oldest sons, 15-year-old Joseph and 14-year-old Robert, who stood head bowed, his hands on the coffin during his half-hour watch.

New York's Mayor John Lindsay, paying his tribute, embraced the Senator's widow, Mrs. Ethel Kennedy, and told her in broken tones: "God bless you." Mrs. Kennedy is expecting her eleventh child in mid-January.

The 42- year-old Senator's body was flown here yesterday from Los Angeles where he died from an assassin's bullet in the brain yesterday morning. It was blessed in the cathedral by New York's Roman Catholic Archbishop Terence Cooke. Throughout the sorrowing city today flags flew at half-mast.

Official mourning in New York will continue tomorrow and Sunday, when the nation will observe a day of national mourning decreed by President Johnson.

After requiem mass tomorrow, Senator Kennedy's body will be taken by train to Washington, where a funeral cortege will take him through the heart of the capital to Arlington National Cemetery.

Meanwhile, Sheriff Pitchess reported that about 10 threats against the life of Kennedy's suspected assassin, Sirhan Sirhan, have been sent to the sheriff's department since the killing. He told reporters that most messages said they would kill Sirhan or shoot him while he was being taken from the jail to the court house.

Prosecution worried

The sheriff said Sirhan was "very reserved and totally non-committal" in conversation. He added that the prisoner had requested and was given newspapers. Some of them headlined the shooting of Kennedy and others carried the report of the Senator's death. The sheriff said there was no visible reaction on Sirhan's part when he read the papers.

Six uniformed guards are keeping a round-the-clock surveillance on Sirhan, with one deputy actually in the cell with him. Another watches through a glass porthole in the steel door and four others patrol the corridor.

Seventeen eyewitnesses are to give testimony later today on the killing, as public officials quarrel over the release of evidence about the accused assassin.

The witnesses were called before the Los Angeles Grand Jury from which lawyers hoped to secure a murder indictment against the 24-year old Jordanian refugee.

Among expected witnesses are Negro Olympic champion Rafer Johnson and football star Roosevelt Greer who pinned down Sirhan moments after Senator Kennedy was shot in the head in a kitchen of the Ambassador Hotel.

Lawmen, who believe they have an airtight case against Sirhan, voiced concern that statements made by Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty might damage the prosecution case by jeopardising the accused's legal rights.

At a Press conference, Mr. Yorty said there was "no doubt" about Sirhan's Communist sympathies and blamed the influence of Communism for the crime.

In the assassination investigation, police have put out an all-points alert to locate the white girl in a polka-dot dress thought to have been accomplice of Sirhan. Police got the tip from Miss Sandy Serrano, a Kennedy youth worker, who said she saw a young woman running from the scene of the crime, shouting, "We shot him, we shot him."

Envoy replies to 'killing schemed' charge

By Times Reporter

COMMENTING on a claim that Senator Kennedy's killing was schemed by "those in power," the American Ambassador to Zambia, Mr. Robert Good, said yesterday that "those in power" stood shattered by the loss of a great humanitarian and leader.

Mr. Peter Chanda, Western Province Minister of State, made the "conspiracy" statement on Thursday.

Mr. Good replied that Senator Kennedy was assassinated by irrational and senseless hate and violence which knew no boundary and was the common enemy of all people.

"It's true that there is an ominous rising tide of violence in America, but let's be honest enough to admit that the trend towards violence is the more ominous because it is world-wide and not just in America," Mr. Good went on.

"And let's be fair enough to admit that the charged assassin was not even an American, but a foreigner, evidently agitated by an issue having nothing at all to do with American domestic problems."

Americans were accused of being reckless with the lives of their eminent men, and it was tragically true that greater controls and protection must be devised, the ambassador said.

"Our candidates take vigorous and forthright stands on controversial issues. They give themselves to the public, as Kennedy did, without stint.

"No other great power has ever conducted its political debates with more candour and complete access to the public."

The Roman Catholic Church is to conduct a memorial service for the late Senator at 5 p.m. tomorrow at St. Ignatious Church, it was announced.

Day of mourning for RFK today

By Times Reporter

PRESIDENT KAUNDA has rapped the American Government for its failure to protect a living person when it can send off thousands of troops to meet his dead body. And Zambia is to observe today as a day [illegible] flying at half mast, as a protest to America and its people [illegible] deep sorrow over the brutal murder of the Senator, the second of the Kennedy family to die by the hand of a gunman in five years.

President Kaunda said: "It is sad to see that the world has lost this generation's leader. All that we have about this young man is that he was one of the few people who identified themselves with the poor."

At the time of his death he was identified with the poor people. "It is rare that you find a person from a rich family become what Kennedy had been."

The crowd stood up to observe a minute's silence in memory of Mr. Kennedy.

Dr. Kaunda said: "We fail to understand this kind of thing. We have a right to protest to the American Government and its society for the world's loss of three irreplaceable figures."

Dr. Kaunda reminded the crowd of the dedicated work of Mr. John Kennedy, the American President assassinated four years ago, who was the older brother of Mr. Robert Kennedy, and of Mr. Martin Luther King, the civil rights leader felled by a sniper's shots two months ago.

He said the world failed to see what part the Kennedy family, now left with the youngest son, Mr. Edward Kennedy, would play in American life.

Meanwhile, the British High Commissioner has cancelled a reception in honour of the Queen's Birthday following the announcement by President Kaunda that today would be a national day of mourning for the late Senator Kennedy.

News Release

UNITED STATES INFORMATION SERVICE
P.O. BOX 2053 — CENTRAL ARCADE, CAIRO ROAD, LUSAKA, ZAMBIA — TEL. 73002

LUSAKA, JUNE 10 --- The following statement was issued June 7 by American Ambassador Robert C. Good in response to a request from the "Times of Zambia" for his reaction to published comments on Senator Kennedy's assassination.

"The brutal assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy has horrified the world, and America above all. As an American I am aghast at a hideous act that again has caused my nation to suffer an irreplaceable loss. In the face of this outrage, which has blighted the United States, Americans cannot be other than deeply contrite. But we also have a right to ask our friends to be fair.

It is true that there is an ominous rising tide of violence in America. But let us be honest enough to admit that the trend toward violence is the more ominous because it is world-wide - not just in America. And let us be fair enough to acknowledge that the charged assassin was not even an American - but a foreigner, evidently agitated by an issue having nothing to do with American domestic problems at all.

We are accused of being reckless with the lives of our eminent men. It is tragically true that greater controls and protection must be devised. Yet the other face of this weakness is a profound strength which Americans rightly cherish. Our political competition is open. Our candidates take vigorous and forthright stands on controversial issues. They give themselves to the public, as Kennedy did, without stint. No other great power has ever conducted its political debates with more candor and openness and complete access to the public.

Kennedy was not killed by a conspiracy of "those in power" who today stand shattered at the loss of this great humanitarian and leader. He was killed by the irrational and senseless hate and violence which know no boundary and are the common enemy of us all."

In the interim, however, several PR notables including Senators Humberto Aguirre Doolan and Raul Juliet as well as others have in fact either called personally at the Embassy or telephoned or telegraphed their regrets. SUBJECT: Letter Thanking Ambassador Keita for His Message of Condolence on the Death of Senator Kennedy - ACTION MEMORANDUM

Attached is a letter for your signature (Tab A) which thanks Ambassador Keita of Mali for his condolence message on the death of Senator Kennedy (Tab B). We feel it is appropriate for you to reply to this message. According to our Embassy, the Malians took the news of Senator Kennedy's death very hard. The government-controlled party newspaper published a very harsh editorial though most other coverage was factual. President Keita sent a message to the Kennedy family, but there were no official messages to the USG. Ambassador Keita has with his telegram, we believe, tried to indicate Malian sorrow at Senator Kennedy's death to US officials.

RECOMMENDATION:

That you sign the attached letter to Ambassador Keita (Tab A).

The Consulate General's memorial book is herewith forwarded to the Department along with letters we have received (and acknowledged) expressing condolences.

At 7 PM on June 8 a special memorial service was held at the Kagnew Station post chapel, with attendance open to the general public of Asmara.

Local reaction to political implications of the assassination closely paralleled that reported in the Embassy's A-681, although there were no hostile editorials in the Asmara press, and the attitude of educated Asmarans seemed to be more one of shock and sympathy than of bitterness.

SUBJECT : Reaction to Kennedy Death Shows Critical Side

REF :

1. Local news media provided the Dominican public with very wide coverage of Senator Kennedy's assassination through wire service stories from all over the world plus locally generated reporting and commentary. Along with factual reporting this included a good measure of interpretative comments alleging social decomposition in the United States and speculation concerning possible intrigue behind the assassination. Prominent among the negative wire stories carried locally were those from AFP and EFE (Spanish) dispatches.

2. Not surprisingly such commentary found an ample number of Dominican echoers and supporters, particularly within -- but not confined to -- the political left, with many going beyond any real concern over what the assassination might ultimately imply for the United States, Latin America and the world. Reaction from communist quarters displayed the expected bias in favor of a North American apocalypse with Senator Kennedy's tragedy as evidence to that end. A Fourteenth of June (1J4) statement saw Wall Street's "criminal hand" at work. Then "The 1J4" magazine titled an article "Kennedy's Assassination Reveals the Break Up of Imperialism and Deepens its Crisis." Since the Senator, the argument went, "was not exactly representing" the "fascist way," he was eliminated. The Dominican Students Federation (FED) called the death the "denouement" of, as quoted in El Nacional, "the contradictions in the bosom of imperialism" (this last phrase appeared word for word in "The 1J4"). The Dominican Popular Movement (MPD) saw the cause as "contradictions" too, but between U.S. "monopolies."

3. The highly emotional commentary of PRD spokesmen, with heavy emphasis on the "dark forces" ("Pentagonists") behind the shooting, the decomposition of U.S. society, inevitable revolution and the disappearance of "the last hope of mankind for peace" has been reported separately in some detail (SD 2239, 2767 and 2778), as has PRSC Secretary General Javier's statement along similarly negative lines (SD 2739).

4. While the capital morning press comment has taken a general line expressing horror and lamenting the tragedy, even El Caribe spoke on June 5, 1968 of a need for the U.S. to examine its conscience. The next day it carried a column by José F. Pensón which reacted in extravagant terms to an assassination which "proves" a type of "collective schizophrenia" in the country whose "only salvation was represented by Robert Kennedy." Santiago's La Informacion in its June 6 edition ran two strongly critical editorials and asked, "What is happening in a country which annihilates its great presidents and liberal leaders, its Nobel Prize winners?" Seeing doubts raised on the legitimacy of an electoral process in which the principal candidate is murdered, the paper continued, "We believe that this event completely lays aside the version that these political offenses are the work of blind forces, because those who fall are only the liberals, the just and those who oppose iniquity and exploitation and demand changes and reform in the politics and business of the North American nation."

5. Leftist-nationalist El Nacional's initial editorial in its June 6 extra edition maintained a relatively moderate position. It dissented from any interpretations that the Kennedy deaths and that of Martin Luther King were products of a society whose principles are in bankruptcy but rather thought the shooting showed the work of those few who impose their selfish ends of power. A column that afternoon bearing the byline of Dominican Communist Party (PCD) spokesman Narciso ISA Conde compared troubles in the U.S. and France and asserted that the "Manifest Destiny" of the U.S. is for "much violence from the government and the fascist-like groups." ISA Conde implicitly blamed forces around President Johnson, the "principal beneficiary of the November 22, 1963 assassination in Dallas" and "priest of violence", with both tragic events. Next day El Nacional journalist Silvio HERASME Peña likened his sadness on news of Senator Kennedy's death (at "the murderous hand of backwardness and oppression") to that he felt when North American troops landed in Santo Domingo April 28, 1965. Alejandro PANIAGUA wrote in El Nacional June 9 under ""Political Assassinations" that since Kennedy's rise indicated that "the scientific control" over public opinion had been "lost by the highest political circles' artificers," crime was resorted to since the defeat of Kennedy at the polls could not be guaranteed. A column by Tomás MARTE one day later expressed fear that perhaps the "one star of hope" was "extinguished." Although sprinkled with bitter phrases, Marte's piece concluded on a note of qualified hope that the victim's principles and ideas could one day bear fruit.

6. El Nacional's parent weekly Ahora carried a particularly vicious editorial in its June 10 edition which claimed the assassin, "perhaps paid," was unaware of what he was doing, like Oswald. "Those who know. . .are hidden in the shadows of the interests who deal out such horrendous action. They are the same who made sick U.S. society, John's assassin and King's assassin,; the same who pulverized Hiroshima, who are in Vietnam, who came to Quisqueya." The following week's issue contained the reaction of magazine's International Information Chief, Manuel TAPIA Brea, entitled "Shame!" which charged that general opinion believes "the powerful economic interests of the Yankee monopoly somehow support . . .a 'mafia of assassins.'" Claiming that Senator Kennedy had indicated "he would take the first step toward the socialization of the North American economy," Tapia then asked if Juan Bosch's "Pentagonism" thesis -- alleging a "sick society" in the U.S. -- were not being fulfilled.

7. The moderate constitutionalist weekly "Renovación" ran an article by Florangel CARDENAS in its June 17 issue which saw a "boomerang" effect with the "violence and arbitrariness" of U.S. foreign policy now being visited on the nation itself. "The core of the present U.S. difficulties," she alleged, "is in the asphyxiating attitude of the North American 'circles of power.'"

8. The local Jordanian Consul came up with his own negative interpretation, telling the press he saw the assassination as a plot with Zionists, not Arabs, responsible. He claimed the $400 found on Sirhan indicated he was a hired killer.

9. One minor demonstration stemming from the assassination of Senator Kennedy was reported to have occurred when about a dozen Ayuntamiento workers staged a short meeting near the office of the Embassy's Consular Section in Santo Domingo after police warned them away from the flagpole area. Their original intent was reported to have been to physically lower to half staff the US flag there, which, of course, upon arrival they found already so displayed.

Subject: Reply to Message of Sympathy from Vice President Ky

Attached is a suggested message from the President to Vice President Ky of South Viet-Nam, replying to the latter's message of sympathy on the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

A similar message of sympathy from President Thieu has also been received, for which the standard reply has already been prepared. While the President may not ordinarily reply directly to a Vice Presidential message as well, we think in this case it would be highly desirable, given the present delicate situation between Thieu and Ky and our own somewhat delicate position in the matter. The President last week sent messages to both expressing condolences on the accidental killing of six Vietnamese officers by a rocket from a U.S. helicopter June 2.

His Excellency
Hubert H. Humphrey,
President of the United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

It is with profound sorrow that I have learned of the tragic death of eminent Senator Robert F. Kennedy as a result of wounds inflicted by an assassin.

Senator Robert F. Kennedy was an ardent champion of mankind's highest ideals and of hope for peace and well-being in our world. It is one of the ironies of our age that, while Senator Kennedy was campaigning in the Primaries, seeking the highest office in the United States from which to further these very ideals, he should be struck down by a brutal, senseless slaying.

The best guarantee of the future of mankind is the democratic way of life made safe from acts of hatred, prejudice and brutality.

The United States of America stands bereft of an outstanding leader, the United States Senate of an illustrious member and people everywhere aspiring for a better world face a less hopeful future.

On behalf of the members of the Senate of the Turkish Republic and myself, I offer my deepest sympathy.

SUBJECT : Maltese Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy

REF :

ROME FOR PAO

1. Enclosed with this airgram is an envelope containing a number of clippings from local English and Maltese language newspapers covering the assassination and funeral of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. This material is being transmitted as an illustration of the intensity of Maltese feeling with respect to the late Senator and the Kennedy family. The press clippings may be forwarded to the Kennedy family if deemed appropriate.

2. The breadth and the intensity of the local reaction to this world-shaking tragedy revealed two things about the Maltese:

A. They obtained a personal identification with the tragedy through their own love of family, their strong Catholic faith and reverence for its liturgy, and their belief in what they understood to be the Senator's political aims, that is, fighting for the rights of minorities and for world peace.

B. The local news media (newspapers, television, and radio) have the ability when impelled by this type of close identification to provide quick and wide coverage to events of world interest.

3. The news media coverage started with what appeared to be an assassination "attempt" on Senator Kennedy's life. The shooting in Los Angeles was the major topic of local discussion and news coverage during the days of June 5-6. Knowledge of the assassination attempt began to circulate in Malta about 9 a.m. on June 5. By noon The Times of Malta had a special edition on the stands with a large headline "Bob Kennedy Shot." During the day Malta Rediffusion (radio) carried spot news monitored from VOA broadcasts. The island was, of course, also receiving hourly news coverage through the BBC. Many Maltese stayed glued to their television or radio sets for long hours in an effort to follow the American tragedy closely.

4. Malta Television, which only operates during the evening hours, had surprisingly current coverage of the dramatic events in Los Angeles. Pictures relayed by satellite to Europe and screened in news broadcasts on Italian television were monitored and rescreened on Malta television. Over half of the time of the evening television news periods, in Maltese and later in English, was devoted to the "attempted assassination." Many Maltese also got the news direct from Italian television channels.

5. The morning papers of June 6 carried extensive coverage (for Malta) of the shooting, the three-hour emergency operation, and the known details of the assailant, Sirhan Sirhan. The Times of Malta and the Malta News as well as the local language press had editorials deploring the senseless act of violence. The papers also printed the message of sympathy which Prime Minister Dr. G. Borg Olivier had sent to Mrs. Robert Kennedy the previous evening, c/o the Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles.

6. On the morning of June 6 the Embassy began receiving a number of calls, primarily seeking additional information concerning Senator Kennedy's condition. These calls changed to expressions of condolence when it was learned about 10 a.m. local time that the Senator had died. The Prime Minister sent Mrs. Kennedy another message, this time one of condolence. The Malta News ran off a special edition mourning the Senator's death. News reporters called the Embassy for a statement upon the Senator's death. Malta Television also asked the Embassy to make a short television clip for the evening news broadcast. This was done, the statement being an extension of the brief remarks previously given to the press. The clip was a part of the television broadcasts June 6, and the voice portion was later carried on rediffusion.

7. From June 7 onward there was an outpouring in the press of news articles and pictures of the Kennedy family. (Some of the pictures had been provided by the Embassy from USIS material.) The Embassy was also asked to participate in a memorial television broadcast June 7, along with Bishop Mgr. Emanuel Gerada and other Maltese priests and citizens. The Embassy used this occasion to read President Johnson's statement on the death of Senator Kennedy which had just been received from the Department by telegram. The program was dedicated to Senator Kennedy's role as the head of a Catholic family and the ideals for which he fought. The Embassy was asked to participate, on June 14, in a program devoted to Senator Kennedy's life.

8. Some Catholic churches on the island had some sort of prayers or memorial service for the late Senator. The tragedy was also mentioned from the pulpit of Protestant churches on Sunday, June 9. The Embassy has received, at this writing, 35 letters and cards of condolence as well as many oral expressions of condolence given to individual staff members of the Embassy. On Sunday, June 9, there was a Catholic Requiem Mass aboard the USS SHENANDOAH, presently in Grand Harbor, for the officers and men of the U.S. Navy ships. The chapel of Villa Monsignor Gonzi, located in Siggiewi, will on June 15 hold a mass for Robert Kennedy to demonstrate that it "associates itself with the American people in the Kennedy tragedy" and as a sign of gratitude for previous help given the chapel by Americans.

9. Flags on U.S. Government buildings were, of course, lowered to half mast when news of the Senator's death was received through VOA channels. (U.S. Navy ships already had their flags lowered in tribute to the crew of the lost USS SCORPION). In tribute to Senator Kennedy, a number of other foreign Embassies as well as Headquarters, NAVSOUTH, lowered their flags to half mast. Flags on private Maltese commercial establishments and homes were also lowered, and some shopkeepers put a picture of the Senator draped in crepe in their windows. The Queen's Birthday activities were held as scheduled in Malta on June 8; however, the Governor General directed that flags on all official buildings be put at half mast on Sunday, June 9, the day designated by President Johnson as a day of mourning.

10. On June 11 Senator Robert Kennedy was chosen by the Cana Movement as the symbol and model father for this year's Father's Day which is being celebrated June 16. There is already a memorial in Malta, a garden and circular pillars, to the late President John F. Kennedy. Some Maltese have suggested that a plaque also be established there to the memory of Robert Kennedy.

CROSS-SECTION OF VIEWPOINTS IN MALTESE-LANGUAGE PRESS

Iz-Zmien (June 6)

History teaches us that great statesmen of progressive sentiments who work and make sacrifices for their country and for humanity run the risk of being continually threatened by such savage and cowardly acts. This risk is greater in the United States where there apparently still is a great movement against racial equality in regard to civil rights.

It may be that Senator Kennedy has suffered because of his ideal to improve the lot of the poor and the negroes.

Il-Haddiem (June 6)

The attempt on Bob Kennedy's life was motivated either by madness or fanaticism. We very much fear that fanaticism and prejudice existing amongst a great section of white people in America are responsible for the two nefarious acts perpetrated in 1968.

Il-Berqa (June 6)

Incidents such as the murder of the Kennedys and of M. L. King have unfavorable repercussions on the prestige of the American people in their relations with other nations.

A reaction against the American Government and people may arise here in Malta because of this incident. While condemning such illegal actions, we must keep a sense of proportion and not also accuse a system of Government.

Dr. Herbert Ganado writing in
Lehen-Is-Sewwa (June 8)

If the millions who had hopes in the reforms of the Kennedy brothers and in the apostolate of Luther King should lose hope, the world can in a very short time experience some ugly hours.

Lehen-Is-Sewwa (June 8)

The extermination of political leaders by pistol shots not only results in a lessening of democracy, it may also scare the best people in the world from taking an active part in politics.

Dr. Joe Micallef-Stafrace (MP MLP) writing in
It-Torca (June 9)

America is today presented before the world wherein no politician or other distinguished figure is certain of not being assassinated.

America is being presented as a nation of gangsters. A country full of corruption. A country of unbridled capitalism where you can never be sure that you have before you a genuine and sincere opinion. A Country without a soul.

Let us hope that those leaders in America who have so far escaped the bullet will understand that what Robert Kennedy stood for is still there, even though may be by the elimination of Kennedy and of Luther King there is not a sufficiently strong and respected voice to keep these ideals continually before America and the world public opinion.

Toni Farrugia writing in
It-Torca (June 9)

We accuse the American people with corruption and intolerance. The soul of the country is rotten.

With the burial of Robert F. Kennedy the world has also buried its every hope that the nation, calling itself the greatest champion of democracy, can by just means solve the racial problems which are exhausting it and spare many of its families the suffering they are experiencing because of a war in which they are unnecessarily involved.

Only if America can fulfill all that JFK, MLK and RFK died for can the world forgive, if not forget, America's deficiencies.

It-Torca (June 9)

It would be naive in the extreme to believe that President Kennedy's assassin acted on his own. And now this Palestinian who has shot Senator Kennedy has done so "for his country."

In spite of its acknowledged efficiency, the American Secret Service did not discover the reason for John Kennedy's assassination and maybe they will not find out why this Palestinian who has been in the United States eleven years ..... has perpetrated this barbarous crime. Maybe, if the real reason does come out, the world will be scandalized even more.

Iz-Zmien (June 10)

America is a sick country. It is paralysed by fear and full of indecisions. Violence is dominating American life. This is having disastrous repercussions. It was no surprise consequently that Senator Kennedy should be a victim of a senseless act of violence. Such acts are part and parcel of everyday life in America.

Lehen-is-Sewwa (June 11)

On Saturday, at 11 a.m. at the Church of Saint Susanna alle Terme, Rome, Archbishop Martin O'Connor, Apostolic Nuncio for Malta, celebrated a Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of Robert Kennedy for the personnel of the United States Embassy and for Americans residing in Rome.

Lehen-is-Sewwa (June 11)

It would be most appropriate if a dignified plaque be placed at the Kennedy grove in memory of Robert Kennedy.

I wish also to suggest to the American Embassy in Malta to organize a Requiem Mass for the late Senator's soul.

L-Orizzont (June 11)

Even though the exaggerated ease with which firearms are bought and sold contributed enormously towards a perpetration of a crime, the principal cause is to be found in unbridled passions which emerge and grow in man; foremost among these sentiments are envy, hatred, thirst for power and money.

Lehen-is-Sewwa (June 11)

Who knows what Robert Kennedy had in his mind? His many speeches indicated he had several fine projects to fulfill for the benefit of his country and in particular for the poor and for large families. These hopes have now vanished into thin air, as a result of violence, which has again dealt American political life a terrible blow

SUBJECT : Caracas Municipal Council Pays Last Respects to Senator Kennedy

REF : None

The President, Secretary and three members of the Caracas Municipal Council called on Ambassador Bernbaum June 11, to present their condolences for the death of Senator Robert Kennedy.

After the usual introductions, the Secretary read a proclamation which included the following remarks:

"Considering that the lamentable death (of Kennedy) produced an obvious crisis in the US political and cultural life, and that violence in the US and the world has been causing deaths of illustrious persons, social disorders, international hatred, and the persecution and destruction of people;

(the Council) Agrees to Condemn emphatically, in the name of the people of Caracas, the assassination of this distinguished North American citizen;

(and) Manifests that
In the opinion of the Municipal Council the death of Kennedy is an expression of a state of violence supported by forces which aspire to halt and detain the development and exercise of freedom among all the world's people."

The Ambassador thanked the Delegation for their expression of sympathy, but pointed out that the death of Kennedy, a cruel and meaningless act, could not in fairness be said to reflect US society. This terrible deed, condemned throughout the world, was apparently the work of one demented individual. When the Delegation reiterated some statements made in their declaration, the Ambassador repeated that it is neither just nor reasonable to condem a whole people or to charge a whole society is sick because of a reprehensible act which could have occurred anywhere.

COMMENT:

The attitudes expressed by the distinguished members of the Municipal Council unfortunately reflect the visceral reactions of many Venezuelans, both friends and foes of the US. (See A-919, June 7, 1968.) Despite careful and frequent repetition of the Ambassador's remarks by many members of the Country Team, a great number of Venezuelans persist in linking the Kennedy assassination to an overall condemnation of the US.

SUBJECT : Reaction in Peru to Death of Senator Kennedy

REF :

SUMMARY

The grief and consternation in Peru at the death of Senator Kennedy, who was widely admired in this country and well-known from his successful 1965 visit here, was deep, widespread and heartfelt, almost identical in tone and scarcely smaller in degree to the reaction following the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963. The upwelling of emotion in Peru occasioned by Senator Kennedy's tragic death underscored not only Peru's feeling for the Senator and his family but also the fundamental warmth and community of interests underlying US-Peruvian relations.

The November 10-13, 1965 visit to Peru by Senator Robert F. KENNEDY and Mrs. Kennedy was very successful. The crowds surrounding them both in Lima and in Cuzco during their visit were heavy and very friendly, and the Senator made a most favorable impression on Peruvians of all levels of society. Thus Senator Robert Kennedy was well-known and highly esteemed in Peru. News of his assassination therefore caused a wide and deep impression among Peruvians, many of whom regarded him not only as a rising U.S. political leader carrying on in the tradition of his late brother the President, but as a friend of Peru who shared many of the hopes and aspirations widely cherished by most Peruvians.

On the morning of June 5 radio and television newscasts in Lima were overwhelmingly dominated by news of the shooting, and the afternoon papers front paged the story under huge red headlines. The Chargé d'Affaires ad interim issued a statement deploring "this horrible and senseless assassination attempt" and stating that, "as expressed previously by President JOHNSON, we can do no more at this time than pray for Senator Kennedy's recovery and for the recovery of the other victims of the shooting." This statement, together with President Johnson's, were widely carried by radio and television in Lima. President Fernando BELAUNDE Terry sent a personal message of regret to the Kennedy family, and the Peruvian Government's press spokesmen declared that the news of the shooting had "produced a mournful impact in the Presidential Palace." Declarations of horror and sadness were made by Peru's Primate, Juan Cardinal LANDAZURI Ricketts, and by spokesmen of the major political parties. Prime and Foreign Minister Oswaldo HERCELLES telephoned the Embassy to voice regret, as did the President of the Chamber of Deputies, the Chief of Protocol, and representatives of First Vice President Edgardo SEOANE and Finance Minister Manuel ULLOA, besides political leaders, other personalities and ordinary Peruvian citizens. During the Prime and Foreign Minister's meeting with the Diplomatic Corps later in the day he expressed to the Chargé his profound sorrow, personally and for his Government, over the attack on Senator Kennedy.

On June 6 the news of Senator Kennedy's death caused great sorrow and consternation, with opinions ranging from simple expressions of sympathy to suggestions of the existence in the United States of a criminal conspiracy to silence voices of progress. President Belaúnde sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Kennedy, and Cardinal Landazuri made a public statement pointing out that "crime and violence do not produce anything positive but rather negate human rights, the basis for all democracy and social progress. Press coverage continued to be very great. Several Lima newspapers, notably El Comercio, editorially called for an end to hatred and the "reestablishment of reason" in the United States, while Expreso blamed the assassination on "powerful mafias" as well as psychological factors produced by three wars.

ROME FOR PAO

1. Enclosed with this airgram is an envelope containing a number of clippings from local English and Maltese language newspapers covering the assassination and funeral of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. This material is being transmitted as an illustration of the intensity of Maltese feeling with respect to the late Senator and the Kennedy family. The press clippings may be forwarded to the Kennedy family if deemed appropriate.

2. The breadth and the intensity of the local reaction to this world-shaking tragedy revealed two things about the Maltese:

A. They obtained a personal identification with the tragedy through their own love of family, their strong Catholic faith and reverence for its liturgy, and their belief in what they understood to be the Senator's political aims, that is, fighting for the rights of minorities and for world peace.

B. The local news media (newspapers, television, and radio) have the ability when impelled by this type of close identification to provide quick and wide coverage to events of world interest.

3. The news media coverage started with what appeared to be an assassination "attempt" on Senator Kennedy's life. The shooting in Los Angeles was the major topic of local discussion and news coverage during the days of June 5-6. Knowledge of the assassination attempt began to circulate in Malta about 9 a.m. on June 5. By noon The Times of Malta had a special edition on the stands with a large headline "Bob Kennedy Shot." During the day Malta Rediffusion (radio) carried spot news monitored from VOA broadcasts. The island was, of course, also receiving hourly news coverage through the BBC. Many Maltese stayed glued to their television or radio sets for long hours in an effort to follow the American tragedy closely.

4. Malta Television, which only operates during the evening hours, had surprisingly current coverage of the dramatic events in Los Angeles. Pictures relayed by satellite to Europe and screened in news broadcasts on Italian television were monitored and rescreened on Malta television. Over half of the time of the evening television news periods, in Maltese and later in English, was devoted to the "attempted assassination." Many Maltese also got the news direct from Italian television channels.

5. The morning papers of June 6 carried extensive coverage (for Malta) of the shooting, the three-hour emergency operation, and the known details of the assailant, Sirhan Sirhan. The Times of Malta and the Malta News as well as the local language press had editorials deploring the senseless act of violence. The papers also printed the message of sympathy which Prime Minister Dr. G. Borg Olivier had sent to Mrs. Robert Kennedy the previous evening, c/o the Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles.

6. On the morning of June 6 the Embassy began receiving a number of calls, primarily seeking additional information concerning Senator Kennedy's condition. These calls changed to expressions of condolence when it was learned about 10 a.m. local time that the Senator had died. The Prime Minister sent Mrs. Kennedy another message, this time one of condolence. The Malta News ran off a special edition mourning the Senator's death. News reporters called the Embassy for a statement upon the Senator's death. Malta Television also asked the Embassy to make a short television clip for the evening news broadcast. This was done, the statement being an extension of the brief remarks previously given to the press. The clip was a part of the television broadcasts June 6, and the voice portion was later carried on rediffusion.

7. From June 7 onward there was an outpouring in the press of news articles and pictures of the Kennedy family. (Some of the pictures had been provided by the Embassy from USIS material.) The Embassy was also asked to participate in a memorial television broadcast June 7, along with Bishop Mgr. Emanuel Gerada and other Maltese priests and citizens. The Embassy used this occasion to read President Johnson's statement on the death of Senator Kennedy which had just been received from the Department by telegram. The program was dedicated to Senator Kennedy's role as the head of a Catholic family and the ideals for which he fought. The Embassy was asked to participate, on June 14, in a program devoted to Senator Kennedy's life.

8. Some Catholic churches on the island had some sort of prayers or memorial service for the late Senator. The tragedy was also mentioned from the pulpit of Protestant churches on Sunday, June 9. The Embassy has received, at this writing, 35 letters and cards of condolence as well as many oral expressions of condolence given to individual staff members of the Embassy. On Sunday, June 9, there was a Catholic Requiem Mass aboard the USS SHENANDOAH, presently in Grand Harbor, for the officers and men of the U.S. Navy ships. The chapel of Villa Monsignor Gonzi, located in Siggiewi, will on June 15 hold a mass for Robert Kennedy to demonstrate that it "associates itself with the American people in the Kennedy tragedy" and as a sign of gratitude for previous help given the chapel by Americans.

9. Flags on U.S. Government buildings were, of course, lowered to half mast when news of the Senator's death was received through VOA channels. (U.S. Navy ships already had their flags lowered in tribute to the crew of the lost USS SCORPION). In tribute to Senator Kennedy, a number of other foreign Embassies as well as Headquarters, NAVSOUTH, lowered their flags to half mast. Flags on private Maltese commercial establishments and homes were also lowered, and some shopkeepers put a picture of the Senator draped in crepe in their windows. The Queen's Birthday activities were held as scheduled in Malta on June 8; however, the Governor General directed that flags on all official buildings be put at half mast on Sunday, June 9, the day designated by President Johnson as a day of mourning.

10. On June 11 Senator Robert Kennedy was chosen by the Cana Movement as the symbol and model father for this year's Father's Day which is being celebrated June 16. There is already a memorial in Malta, a garden and circular pillars, to the late President John F. Kennedy. Some Maltese have suggested that a plaque also be established there to the memory of Robert Kennedy.

Iz-Zmien (June 6)

History teaches us that great statesmen of progressive sentiments who work and make sacrifices for their country and for humanity run the risk of being continually threatened by such savage and cowardly acts. This risk is greater in the United States where there apparently still is a great movement against racial equality in regard to civil rights.

It may be that Senator Kennedy has suffered because of his ideal to improve the lot of the poor and the negroes.

Il-Haddiem (June 6)

The attempt on Bob Kennedy's life was motivated either by madness or fanaticism. We very much fear that fanaticism and prejudice existing amongst a great section of white people in America are responsible for the two nefarious acts perpetrated in 1968.

Il-Berqa (June 6)

Incidents such as the murder of the Kennedys and of M. L. King have unfavorable repercussions on the prestige of the American people in their relations with other nations.

A reaction against the American Government and people may arise here in Malta because of this incident. While condemning such illegal actions, we must keep a sense of proportion and not also accuse a system of Government.

Dr. Herbert Ganado writing in
Lehen-Is-Sewwa (June 8)

If the millions who had hopes in the reforms of the Kennedy brothers and in the apostolate of Luther King should lose hope, the world can in a very sbrt time experience some ugly hours.

Lehen-Is-Sewwa (June 8)

The extermination of political leaders by pistol shots not only results in a lessening of democracy, it may also scare the best people in the world from taking an active part in politics.

Dr. Joe Micallef-Stafrace (MP MLP) writing in
It-Torca (June 9)

America is today presented before the world wherein no politician or other distinguished figure is certain of not being assassinated.

America is being presented as a nation of gangsters. A country full of corruption. A country of unbridled capitalism where you can never be sure that you have before you a genuine and sincere opinion. A Country without a soul.

Let us hope that those leaders in America who have so far escaped the bullet will understand that what Robert Kennedy stood for is still there, even though may be by the elimination of Kennedy and of Luther King there is not a sufficiently strong and respected voice to keep these ideals continually before America and the world public opinion.

Toni Farrugia writing in
It-Torca (June 9)

We accuse the American people with corruption and intolerance. The soul of the country is rotten.

With the burial of Robert F. Kennedy the world has also buried its every hope that the nation, calling itself the greatest champion of democracy, can by just means solve the racial problems which are exhausting it and spare many of its families the suffering they are experiencing because of a war in which they are unnecessarily involved.

Only if America can fulfill all that JFK, MLK and RFK died for can the world forgive, if not forget, America's deficiencies.

It-Torca (June 9)

It would be naive in the extreme to believe that President Kennedy's assassin acted on his own. And now this Palestinian who has shot Senator Kennedy has done so "for his country."

In spite of its acknowledged efficiency, the American Secret Service did not discover the reason for John Kennedy's assassination and maybe they will not find out why this Palestinian who has been in the United States eleven years ..... has perpetrated this barbarous crime. Maybe, if the real reason does come out, the world will be scandalized even more.

Iz-Zmien (June 10)

America is a sick country. It is paralysed by fear and full of indecisions. Violence is dominating American life. This is having disastrous repercussions. It was no surprise consequently that Senator Kennedy should be a victim of a senseless act of violence. Such acts are part and parcel of everyday life in America.

Lehen-is-Sewwa (June 11)

On Saturday, at 11 a.m. at the Church of Saint Susanna alle Terme, Rome, Archbishop Martin O'Connor, Apostolic Nuncio for Malta, celebrated a Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of Robert Kennedy for the personnel of the United States Embassy and for Americans residing in Rome.

Lehen-is-Sewwa (June 11)

It would be most appropriate if a dignified plaque be placed at the Kennedy grove in memory of Robert Kennedy.

I wish also to suggest to the American Embassy in Malta to organize a Requiem Mass for the late Senator's soul.

Paul Carachi MP writing in

Even though the exaggerated ease with which firearms are bought and sold contributed enormously towards a perpetration of a crime, the principal cause is to be found in unbridled passions which emerge and grow in man; foremost among these sentiments are envy, hatred, thirst for power and money.

Lehen-is-Sewwa (June 11)

Who knows what Robert Kennedy had in his mind? BOB KENNEDY SHOT

Kennedy wins vital election

LOS ANGELES, June 5. Senator Robert Kennedy, drawing large support from populous Southern California, today swept to victory over Senator Eugene McCarthy in the vital California Primary Election.

Both the National Broadcasting Company and Columbia Broadcasting System projected Senator Kennedy as the winner with a comfortable margin.

Mr. Kennedy, who trailed in early returns, gained an avalanche of votes from negroes, Mexican-Americans and other ethnic minorities from whom he has drawn the bulk of his support from across the nation.

His triumph here restored his political standing, which had been damaged by defeat by Senator McCarthy in the Oregon Primary Election last week.

It also put him in the running again in his struggle with Senator McCarthy for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

Assassination attempt during victory rally

(Reuter's Service) LOS ANGELES, JUNE 5.

● SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY WAS SHOT IN HIS CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS HERE TONIGHT MINUTES AFTER WINNING THE STRATEGIC CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

Screams of "get a doctor for the Senator" were heard coming from the room in which Mr. Kennedy a few moments earlier had addressed his supporters after learning he had won the California Primary Election.

One eyewitness said he believed the Senator was shot in the rear of the neck.

Other reports said he had received shots in the head or the hip.

Stephen Smith, Kennedy's brother-in-law, was also reportedly wounded in the gunfire.

Men and women, joyful only seconds before, shook with tears as they were herded out of the Celebration Room.

"Oh my God, oh my God", they yelled. Kennedy was taken by ambulance to a nearby hospital. He was apparently shot three times.

Ron Schulman, a television technician, said Senator Kennedy was walking out of the ballroom and into the hotel kitchen when a man stepped out of the crowd and fired.

Kennedy's bodyguard shot back and the assailant was hit in the leg.

He was reported to have been taken into custody immediately by police.

Three doctors rushed to Kennedy's assistance and the Senator was carried to the ambulance.

"A mad man"

Another sobbing eye-witness, an unidentified man, screamed: "It was a mad man."

He said that as he passed by, the Senator seemed to be alive.

The Senator's wife, Ethel, who is expecting her 11th child, knelt by her husband before he was taken to hospital. Her face was frozen with shock.

Eye-witnesses said the assailant fired four or five shots in rapid succession from a small gun, presumably a pistol.

A number of eye-witnesses said Senator Kennedy mumbled a few words as he was being carried to the ambulance at the front of the hotel.

While in the kitchen where he was taken later the shooting, Senator Kennedy asked: "Is everybody safe?"

Witnesses said the Senator's one eye was closed and the other blinking.

Doctors at the City Hospital said his condition was "critical."

Police seized two men as the campaign room in the Ambassador Hotel here erupted in wild scenes and confused shouting.

Police said the hotel was immediately surrounded by Law Enforcement Officers following the shooting.

First reports said they also held a short dark-haired youth detained by Kennedy aides near a kitchen in the hotel.

People clawed and screamed at the arrested youth and seemed ready to tear him away from the police.

Pools of blood soaked the concrete floor by the kitchen entrance.

The eyewitness' accounts of the shooting were wildly conflicting. Some said that they had seen as many as three other people carried away on stretchers

Latest:

Senator Kennedy's Press Secretary, Mr. Frank Mankiewicz, told reporters his condition was very critical.

Senator Kennedy was first taken to the Los Angeles Central Emergency receiving station and soon afterwards transferred to the Samaritan Hospital, with a bottle of blood plasma suspended above the stretcher.

A tragic history of assassinations of top American political figures

FROM A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

The assassination of President Lincoln in 1865 began a tragic history of assassinations of top American political figures.

THREE AMERICAN PRESIDENTS HAVE BEEN KILLED SINCE THE DRAMATIC NIGHT IN FORD'S THEATRE, WASHINGTON — THE LATEST WAS JOHN F. KENNEDY, 98 YEARS LATER IN DALLAS.

Other Presidents, such as Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman had narrow escapes. Many top American figures outside the White House, including negro leader Martin Luther King, have also been assassinated.

Throughout the political assassinations, going back to Lincoln, there has been agitation for tighter laws on the licensing of guns. Both the Federal and State Governments have made efforts to control the sale of lethal weapons. But even after the shooting of President Kennedy, the new gun laws have proved ineffective.

The second U.S. President to be assassinated was James Garfield in 1881. Just 20 years later, President William McKinley was shot during a visit to Buffalo, New York.

This led to a theory that American Presidents are assassinated about every 20 years — or at least an attempt has been made on their lives.

President Warren Harding died under mysterious circumstances in San Francisco 22 years after McKinley's death. There were allegations — never proved — that the former Middle-West publisher had been poisoned.

In 1933, there was an attempt on Roosevelt's life in Miami, Florida. The bullet missed him but Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago, who was riding with the President, was killed.

In 1950, three Puerto Rican nationalists broke into Blair House, President Truman's temporary residence during renovation of the White House, but failed to reach the President. Three guards were shot, one fatally.

The Secret Service men who protect the President, Vice-President and his family are also in daily danger of being shot. And so are all people who ride in the presidential cavalcade

The fatal shooting of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963, almost cost the life of Texas Governor John Connally, who later recovered from serious bullet wounds.

Other political figures since 1865 who were assassinated include U.S. Senator Huey Long of Louisiana (1935), negro (black Muslim) leader Malcolm X (1965), Nazi leader Lincoln Rockwell (1957) and Martin Luther King on April 4, 1968.

Flashback to November 1963, President John F. Kennedy (arrowed) grasps his chest after being shot in Dallas during a parade.

"Like a brother to me"

LOS ANGELES June 5.

Charles Evers, brother of negro leader Medgar Evers, another assassination victim of recent years, was with Senator Kennedy on the victory rostrum shortly before today's shooting.

"The Senator was like a brother to me. I believe he was going to do what is right for all the people," Evers told reporters.

TRAGEDY – PART OF KENNEDY FAMILY'S HISTORY

Tragedy as well as success has been part of the Kennedy family's history. Yesterday's attempt on the life of Robert Kennedy came only four and a half years after the assassination of his brother, President John F. Kennedy.

The first blow was the death of Joseph Kennedy junior, eldest son of Mr. Joseph Kennedy and his wife Rose, on a wartime flying mission from Britain in 1944.

A month later, the Marquis of Hartington, husband of Kathleen Kennedy, was killed in action in France.

Then Kathleen herself was killed in a plane crash in France in 1948.

In August, 1962, President Kennedy's son, Patrick Bouvier, died two days after his premature birth. Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy had previously lost two babies in miscarriages.

President Kennedy was shot dead as he drove in a motorcade in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

The Kennedy family has long borne another sorrow in that Rosemary, one of the five daughters, has been in an institution for the mentally retarded for many years.

ROBERT KENNEDY FIGHTS FOR HIS LIFE

YOUNG ASSAILANT CHARGED WITH ASSAULT TO COMMIT MURDER

LOS ANGELES, June 5. (Reuter's Service)

Senator Robert Kennedy was in an "extremely critical" condition after a three-hour emergency operation during which a bullet was removed from his brain, one of his aides said tonight.

Kennedy Aide Frank Mankiewicz said all but one fragment of the bullet had been removed from Senator Kennedy's head. The Senator had lost a considerable amount of blood as a result of the bullet, which passed through the mastoid bone on the right side of his head. The doctors said the next 12 to 36 hours would be a very critical period.

Doctors fought to save the life of Kennedy.

The 42-year-old Senator who was gunned down by a swarthy, wild-eyed youth as he emerged from making a speech celebrating a runaway victory in the California primary election, lay in the Catholic Good Samaritan Hospital in a critical condition.

A huge grieving crowd gathered outside the hospital as a team of six surgeons prepared to operate. The Last Rites were administered soon after the Senator's arrival at the Hospital.

The assassin struck as Senator Kennedy emerged from the ballroom of the Ambassador Hotel after making a speech celebrating his California primary victory over Senator Eugene McCarthy, his rival for the Democratic Party's Presidential nomination.

The man stepped out from among the throng of supporters trying to mob the Senator and blazed away with his revolver, firing all eight bullets in the chamber.

The Senator was hit by two bullets — one in the right side of the head and the other in the shoulder — and fell to the ground, silent and bleeding profusely.

The assassination attempt took place with stunning suddenness.

The gunman emptied his eight chamber revolver and wounded five other bystanders before he was overpowered and dragged away through hysterical, sobbing Kennedy supporters who clawed at him, shouting: "Kill him, kill him."

The second medical bulletin on the condition of Senator Robert Kennedy said tonight tests showed "no measurable improvement" in his extremely critical condition.

Doctor Henry Cuneo, one of the surgeons who operated on Senator Robert Kennedy, was reliably quoted tonight as saying that Kennedy "might not make it" in his fight for survival.

While Senator Kennedy lay in hospital in a critical condition from shot wounds to the head and neck, the Los Angeles authorities named his suspected assailant as Sirhan Sirhan (above).

Police said that according to their files Sirhan was born in the former Jordanian sector of Jerusalem, but they had no idea what his nationality might be.

Sirhan's identity was disclosed at a Press conference held by Mayor Samuel Yorty and Police Chief Tom Reddin, who said Sirhan, aged 23, lived in Pasadena.

Sirhan's brother, Joe, was being questioned by Police Authorities voluntarily but Sirhan himself still refused to discuss the incident.

Police Chief Reddin displayed a photograph showing the dark clothes Sirhan was wearing when arrested.

Police said they had cleared the owner of a car whose key had been found in Sirhan's possession. A gun, an eight shot .22 revolver taken from the suspect, was not registered in his name.

The suspect also carried a derogatory news clipping about Senator Kennedy.

Sirhan is being charged on six counts of assault with intent to murder.

The assailant was disarmed by Los Angeles professional footballer Rosie Greer, according to Police Chief Reddin.

He was helped by fellow Negro athlete Rafer Johnson, former Olympic decathlon champion.

An eye-witness said the swarthy, dark-haired gunman shouted "I did it for my country" after shooting.

World reaction

The shooting of Senator Robert Kennedy sent a wave of incredulous shock round the world today (Wednesday).

Australian Prime Minister John Gorton summed up what millions felt when he commented in Canberra: "What can one say when a man who has had his brother assassinated is attacked in this brutal way?"

A tearful reaction came from a Negro in Los Angeles, who cried out: "What's the use us trying? What's the use?"

At the Vatican, a spokesman for the Pope expressed great sorrow at the news of the shooting.

In Rome Italian President Giuseppe Saragat condemned the shooting as "wicked and cowardly."

In Athens*, Greek Prime Minister George Papadopoulos, cabled Senator Kennedy wishing him a speedy recovery.

In Paris, Senator Kennedy's sister Eunice, wife of the new U.S. Ambassador to France, Mr. Sargent Shriver, made several calls to Los Angeles for the latest information on his condition.

Also in Paris is Mrs. Edward Kennedy, Robert's sister-in law. she is staying with the Shrivers.

President Johnson today described Senator Robert Kennedy's shooting as a tragedy, and said all America was praying for his recovery.

"We also pray divisiveness and violence be driven from the hearts of men everywhere," he added in a statement.

From Moscow the Soviet Government newspaper "Izvestia" said tonight that Senator Robert Kennedy had fallen victim of a society of violence where "man is wolf to man."

Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and her sister flew to Los Angeles on hearing the news.

A dramatic photograph of Senator Robert Kennedy as relayed by satellite and screened in a news bulletin of RAI-TV a few hours after the shooting. Rosary beads lie on Senator Kennedy's chest.

PRIME MINISTER'S CABLE TO MRS. KENNEDY

The Prime Minister, Dr. G. Borg Olivier, sent the following message to Mrs. Robert Kennedy.

"Deeply grieved at shocking news of attempt on Senator Kennedy's life. Government and all Malta send sincere wishes and offer heartfelt prayers for his recovery.

The Prime Minister said yesterday that the news was horrible and unexpected and has saddened him very deeply. "A brutal act of one man has shocked the whole world. We can now only hope and pray." Dr. Borg Olivier added.

Horrible event

Wee

THE UNITED STATES and the entire world were shocked yesterday at the news of the cowardly, cold blooded assassination attempt of Senator Robert F. Kennedy in Los Angeles, California, which has more than its fair share of minorities and extremists of different colours and creed. Kennedy, who aspires to secure the Democratic nomination in the coming Presidential elections, was critically wounded by a swarthy gunman moments after he claimed victory over fellow pacifist Senator Eugene McCarthy in the California Democratic primary election.

The shots that hit the Senator echoed around the world causing shock and sadness. In the Vatican, aides said Pope Paul VI was "shocked and deeply saddened ... by this horrible event." President Giuseppe Saragat of Italy described the attempt as "wicked and vile" and Kurt Georg Kiesinger of West Germany labelled it a "despicable crime". Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia said it was "disgraceful".

(The attempt came less than five years after the irrational forces which undermine American society had struck at another member of the Kennedy family.) President John F. Kennedy was at the pinnacle of his inspiring career when he was shot in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, in circumstances which until this very day are shrouded in mystery and confusion.

It is also two months since the moderate leader of American Negroes Dr Martin Luther King fell victim to the sniper's bullets in Memphis, Tennessee. Dr King was a Nobel Prize winner whose slogan was non-violence.

Senator Kennedy is looked at by the White middle-class radicals and the growing army of discontended students as a politician in the worst sense of the word: cynical, ruthless and calculating. To the paranoid Right-wingers he is the greatest enemy, the embodiment of all that they hated in his late brother.

But to the poor and under-privileged, the submerged third of American society, he is their champion and hope. Wherever he has campaigned he has won increasing support from the East Europeans, Spanish-Americans, Mexicans, Negroes and other financially-oppressed minorities.

As Attorney General in the eventful Kennedy Administration, Robert Kennedy assisted his brother in using the full force of the executive power to end discrimination in education, in voting and in housing. To this end, he still strives. Moreover, he regards poverty and unemployment as great a national scandal as segregation.

Kennedy's assassination attempt is as shocking as the killing of President Kennedy and as revolting as that of Martin Luther King. It is an act, which as Senate Rupublican leader Everett M. Dirksen said, emphasises the lawlessness which grips America. It is an act condemned by all, causing consternation and sadness.

ROBERT KENNEDY FIGHTS FOR LIFE

LOS ANGELES. Wednesday.

SENATOR Robert F. Kennedy was fighting for his life today in Good Samaritan Hospital after being shot in the head as he left a jubilant election victory celebration. After a brain operation lasting nearly four hours doctors said his condition encouraged hope he would recover, but his Press Aide said later he was in "extremely critical condition" and the next 12 to 36 hours "will be critical."

The 42-year-old brother of the late President Kennedy was shot from about three feet away by a man identified as Sirhan Bishara Sirtan of Pasadena and recently of Jerusalem. He was subdued by three Kennedy aides — but not until he had emptied eight bullets from a .22 calibre revolver toward the Senator.

One of the team of doctors who performed more than three hours' surgery on the 42-year-old brother of the murdered President John F. Kennedy said "Kennedy might not make it" and if he lives he may suffer extensive brain damage.

Dr Henry Cuneo, who assisted in the three-hour operation over Senator Kennedy, said the Senator's brain had suffered extensive loss of blood and oxygen as well as several blood clots. Cuneo said Kennedy also suffered injuries to the spinal cord.

A spokesman from Beverly Hills, where Senator Kennedy is in hospital, said the brain injuries were much worse than at first thought.

The spokesman continued that the bullet which entered Kennedy's head carried fragments of bones with it and itself broke up. He continued that an important artery had been torn.

Five other persons in the surging crowd around the victorious Presidential candidate, who had just claimed victory in the California primary, were wounded.

Kennedy's wife Ethel, who is expecting their 11th child, was not hurt. She bent over her husband as he lay bleeding from the wound near his right ear and another in his shoulder, whispering to him and trying to console him just as Jacqueline Kennedy had bent over her husband in a Dallas convertible in 1963 when he was assassinated.

Kennedy was taken by ambulance to the Central Receiving Hospital where the examining physician, Dr Victor Baz, first believed he was dead. He slapped him on the face, saying "Bob, Bob," and the wounded Kennedy stirred.

Kennedy was then switched to the Good Samaritan hospital.

President Lyndon Johnson, awakened at the White House shortly after the shooting at 12:20 a.m. ordered secret service agents immediately assigned to all candidates in the 1968 Presidential election.

The tragedy was stunning in its suddenness and the pandemonium which followed.

ACT OF VIOLENCE

World opinion was stunned yesterday morning as the news spread that an attempt had been made on the life of Senator ROBERT KENNEDY, a Democratic candidate for the United States presidential election. On November 22, 1963, his brother, President JOHN KENNEDY, met his death by an assassin's bullet — a victim of violence, hatred and intolerance carried to the extreme.

ROBERT KENNEDY was shot through the ear and the bullet lodged in the brain. As he fell he was heard to ask, "Is everyone O.K.? Is everybody safe?" The attempt came after the Senator's victory in the California Primary Election.

It is a tragic paradox that in a country that has taken its place in recent years as the standard bearer of democratic principles, two brothers belonging to a family that has rendered outstanding service at home and abroad should be the targets of persons not subscribing to their opinions. On the other hand, the genuine shock caused by the Senator's Presidential rivals, including Senator McCARTHY who immediately cancelled all electoral engagements and offered prayers at a special service held in his hotel, focuses attention on the better side of human nature. Messages of sympathy and condemnation similarly flowed in from most European capitals.

Senator ROBERT KENNEDY had a distinguished legal career and was successively Assistant Counsel of the Senate Permanent Sub-committee on Investigations; Chief Counsel under the Committee Chairman; and Attorney-General of the U.S. from 1961 to 1964 when he was elected Senator for New York State. There was an interruption in 1959 when ROBERT KENNEDY served as his brother's campaign manager in the presidential election.

The people of Malta, who form part of the world's democratic front, share in the condemnation of the act of violence and join in the prayers for the recovery of the victim.

(A SAVAGE AND COWARDLY DEED)
ATTENTAT SELVAGG U KODARD

L-AHBAR ta' l-attentat brutali ta' qtil fuq il-persuna simpatika u rispettata tas-senatur Robert Kennedy li waslet u griet fostna l-bierah fil-ghodu, hasdet u kexkxet lil kul hadd. Robert gie midrub gravament f'rasu u ftit wara saritlu operazzjoni li hadet fuq tliet sighat. Ghalkemm il-polz u qalbu qeghdin ihabbtu regulari t-tobba qalu, skond ma gie mhabbar, li s-36 siegha ta' wara l-operazzjoni huma ghas-senatur Kennedy kritici kemm jista' jkun.

Minn dawn il-kolonni rridu nikkundannaw bl-akbar qawwa dan l-agir vjolenti selvagg u kodard kontra bniedem kuraggjuz b'ideali demokratici u progressivi. U meta qeghdin nesprimu rwiehna b'dan il-mod ninsabu żguri li qeghdin ninterpretaw is-sentiment tal-poplu malti li jemmen bis-shih fil-liberta' tal-kelma u jistmerr b'qalbu kollha atti vjolenti malizzjużi u kodardi.

Ma din l-ahbar kerha dwar is-senatur Robert Kennedy, il-poplu malti, flimkien mad-dinja icčivilizzata, ixxokkja ruhu, tbikkem u hass l-akbar sens ta' mogħdrija. Dan ghal diversi ragunijiet. L-ewwelnett ghax ghadha friska fil-memorja ta' kulhadd il-mewt kiefra li garrab huh il-president John F. Kennedy erba' snin u nofs ilu; it-tieni ghax Robert ghandu hafna meriti personali tiegħu.

Is-senatur Robert Kennedy huwa pulitiku sinčier u kuraggjuż u qatt ma qaghad lura jew laqlaq biex publikament jesprimi l-fehmiet tiegħu. F'dawn l-ahhar snin Robert kien wieħed mis-senaturi minn ta' quddiem biex jikkritika l-pulitika amerikana dwar il-gwerra fil-Vjetnam u huwa magħruf tajjeb bhala difensur tad-drittijiet čivili tassuwed.

Imma l-istorja tghallimna li nies kbar b'sentimenti progressivi li jahdmu u jissagrifikaw irwiehhom ghal nieshom u ghall-umanita', jiehdu r-riskju li jkunu kontinwament imminaččjati minn attentati viljakki bhal dak li kexkex lid-dinja l-bierah. Dan ir-riskju huwa xi haga akbar fl-Amerika fejn donnu ghad hemm moviment qawwi kontra l-ugwaljanza tar-razzez fir-rigward tad-drittijiet čivili.

Fil-waqt li milł-gdid nikkundannaw il-att selvagg li twettaq il-bierah kontra l-hajja ta' Robert Kennedy, ahna nestendu s-simpatija profonda tagħna lejn il-familja u b'herqa kbira nittamaw ghal ahbarijiet tajbin dwar sahtu.

ATTEMPT ON KENNEDY'S LIFE

L-ATTENTAT FUQ IL-ḤAJJA TA' KENNEDY

FN-NIFS tad-dinja kollha waqaf għal ftit mumenti l-bieraħ ma' l-aħbar kerha ta' l-attentat brutali ta' qtil fuq il-ħajja tas-Senatur Amerikan Robert F. Kennedy f'California, fl-Istati Uniti ta' l-Amerika. Id-dinja kollha ħadet xokk kbir u fl-istess waqt imtliet kollha kemm hi għadab kontra l-bniedem li wettaq din il-vjolenza hekk mill-aġħar.

Robert Kennedy kien qed jikkontesta n-nominazzjoni presidenzjali tal-Partit Demokratiku għall-elezzjonijiet presidenzjali li għandhom isiru fl-Amerika f'Novembru li ġej. L-attentat fuq il-ħajja tieġħu sar inqas minn ħames snin wara l-assassinju ta' ħuh il-President John F. Kennedy fit-22 ta' Novembru, 1963.

L-aħbar ta' l-attentat fuq il-ħajja tas-Senatur Kennedy ġiet meta l-Amerika u d-dinja kollha kienet għadha qed tistejqer mix-xokk kbir li ħadet u tifli sewwa l-kuxjenza tagħha wara l-assassinju drammatiku ta' Dr Martin Luther King, il-mexxej kbir u moderat tas-suwed fl-Amerika, li temm ukoll ħajtu b'tiri ta' xkubetta bħall-President Kennedy.

Is-Senatur Kennedy kien maħbub ħafna fl-Amerika mill-foqra, mill-batuti, mill-morda, min-nies ta' ftit mezzi u fuq kollox kien maħbub mis-suwed li għalihom iġġieled bis-sħiħ, speċjalment meta kien Attorney General fl-amministrazzjoni ta' ħuh il-President Kennedy. Jista' jkun hemm il-possibilta' li huwa sofra minħabba dan l-ideal tieġħu li jġib lill-foqra 'l quddiem u jqieġħed lis-suwed fil-post tagħhom fis-soċjeta' Amerikana.

Il-problema razzjali fl-Amerika hija xi ħaġa ta' l-għaġeb. Ġabet magħha inkwiet kbir, storbji, irvellijiet, qtil, ħsarat kbar fl-ibliet u ħalliet mejta fuq l-altar tas-sagrifiċċju suprem mexxejja kbar u ta' ispirazzjoni. Hija problema li ilha ġejja snin kbar u sa mill-bidu nett tagħha kienet swiet il-ħajja tal-President Abraham Lincoln ta' l-Istati Uniti li kien ġie assassinat ukoll.

Mhux l-Amerika biss hija mifnija b'din il-problema razzjali imma wkoll għadd ta' pajjiżi oħra, speċjalment fl-Afrika. Din il-problema hija ġejja għaliex il-bnedmin għadhom ma għarfux li huma lkoll aħwa ġejjin minn Missier wieħed u maħluqin il-koll l-istess.

U mal-problema razzjali għandna wkoll il-problema ta' intolleranza kbira bejn pajjiż u ieħor, twemmin politiku u ieħor, twemmin reliġjuż u ieħor. Dawn huma affarijiet li jiżirgħu l-mibeġħda, iġibu l-fanatiżmu u mill-fanatiżmu jisħnu l-irjus, moħħ il-bniedem jgħama u jasal biex iwettaq attijiet brutali bħalma hu l-attentat fuq il-ħajja tas-Senatur Kennedy. Iżda j'Alla dan is-sagrifiċċju ma jkunx sar għalxejn u jasal biex iġieġħel lill-bnedmin jiġu f'sensihom.

THIS TIME IT'S BOB KENNEDY

DID-DARBA BOB KENNEDY

Lil ħuh, Jack, ma ħallewhx jibqa' jmexxi l-Amerika bħala President u lil Bob ma jriduhx lanqas biss jasal biex jitla' fl-istess kariga.

Tiskanta meta tisma' kemm hu qawwi l-fanatiżmu tal-bojod fl-Amerika. Anke fost il-Kattoliċi Amerikani ġhad hemm min jasal ġhal kollox fil-preġjudizzji tieġhu kontra s-suwed. M'ilux deher rapport fil-gazzetta Ingliża "THE CATHOLIC HERALD" li juri x'reazzjoni kuntrarja ġhadha tolloq kull mossa li ssir fost il-Kattoliċi favur is-suwed.

Hu proprju ġhalhekk li ninsabu mħassbin bil-mod kif qed isiru x-xandiriet politiċi fuq ir-Rediffusion u t-television lokali. Kemm ikun iżjed edukattiv ġhall-poplu taġhna li jisma dibattiment bejn mexxejja politiċi diversi, jew konferenza stampa li fiha mexxej politiku jkollu jwieġeb ġhad-diffikultajiet tal-ġurnalisti — milli diskors ta' rappreżentant politiku li jitħaddet waħdu bil-periklu li iżjed isammar il-preġjudizzji u l-fanatiżmu tas-semmieġha.

LOS ANGELES, L-Erbgħa.

IS-SENATUR Robert F. Kennedy, llum kien qed jiġġieled ġħal ħajtu fl-isptar "Good Samaritan" wara li safa milqut minn tiri ta' pistola f'rasu waqt li huwa kien ħiereġ minn ċelebrazzjoni tar-rebħa tiegħu ta' l-elezzjoni.

Wara operazzjoni f'moħħu li damet sejra erba' sieġħat, ittobba qalu li Robert Kennedy ġħandu mnejn ma' jgħix u jekk jgħix jista' jsofri minn difett kbir f'moħħu. Sadanittant il-kundizzjoni tas-Senatur kienet "kritika ħafna", u s-36 siegħa li ġejjin se jkunu ta' importanza kbira.

Dr Henry Cunelo, li assista lil Robert Kennedy fl-operazzjoni qal li ġħadd ta' arterji maġġuri ġew milquta u moħħ Robert sofra telf kbir ta' demm u ossiġenu kif ukoll ħafna ġħoqod taddemm. Dr Cunelo qal li Robert sofra wkoll minn ġrieħi fixxewka ta' dahru.

Robert li ġħandu 42 sena, ħu l-mejjet President Kennedy li ġie assassinat ukoll, sparaw fuqu minn distanza ta' tliet piedi boġħod. L-assassin ġie identifikat bħala Sirhan Bishara Sirtan, ta' 24 sena, li joqġħod f'Pasadena, u li ġie mill-Ġordan 11-il sena ilu.

Mart Kennedy, Ethel, li kienet mieġħu, ma ġralha xejn. Hija qed tistenna il-11-il tarbija taġħha. Malli żewġħa waqa fl-art hija tbaxxiet fuqu, waqt li bdiet tkellmu bil-mod u tipprova tikkunslah l-istess bħal ma ġħamlet Jacqueline, meta żewġħa John safa assassinat.

Malli l-President Johnson sema' bl-attentat fuq il-ħajja ta' Kennedy huwa ordna immedjatament sabiex aġenti tas-servizz sigriet jġħassu lill-kandidati kollha li qed jieħdu sehem fl-elezzjonijiet.

Kif sar l-attentat

Sparatura ġiet irraportata filġħodu fil-kamra tas-Senatur Robert F. Kennedy, meta kien ġħadu kemm ġħamel rebħa fl-elezzjonijiet primarji ta' Kalifornja. Ma' din l-isparatura, Kennedy ġie ferut serjament u waqa' fl-art. Ġew irraportati sparaturi oħra.

Hekk kif intlaqat Robert Kennedy, inqala' pandemonju kbir fl-Ambassador Hotel fejn kien qieġħed alloġġjat. Huwa ġie milqut minn balal f'rasu u f'ġenbu. Waħda mill-isparaturi laqtet lil William Weisel f'idejh. Dan huwa l-Associate Director ta' l-American Broadcasting Co.

Reporter li wasal fil-ħin fuq il-post iddeskriva l-każ hekk: Robert kellu d-demm fuq wiċċu, iżda kellu ġħajnejh miftuħa waqt li huwa kien mimdud ma' l-art tal-kċina tal-lukanda fejn kien alloġġjat. Rapporti kompleu iġħidu li l-aides tiegħu mill-ewwel qabdu lil dak li kien issuspettat li spara.

Korrispondent tal-United Press International irraportaw li wara li Kennedy niżel minn fuq fejn kien qieġħed jitkellem wara li ġħamel taħdita ta' vittorja "kien hemm pandemonju shih f'daqqa waħda". Ħaġa ġriet ġħal quddiem minn fejn kien qieġħed jitkellem u ġħaġtet "Sparawlu, sparaw lil-Kennedy." Haten Kennedy, Stephen Smith, beda jġħajjat "Hawn tabib? jinħtieġ wieħed malajr."

Robert Kennedy ġie mieħud malajr fi sptar viċin.

Don Shulman, impjegat ma' l-istazzjon tat-televiżjoni, qal li Kennedy kien sejjer lejn il-kċina meta raġel spara fuqu tliet darbiet. Dan ħareġ minn ġolfolla. Shulman, li ra b'ġħajnejh stess l-inċident, qal li l-'body guard' ta' Kennedy spara lura fuq l-assassin, fejn dan ġie maqbud u meħud mill-pulizija.

Xhieda oħra ta' dan l-ispettaklu tal-biża' qalu li Kennedy waqa' mill-ewwel fl-art u ma ċċaqlaqx. Ieħor qal li sema' erba' jew ħames tiri u ra lil Kennedy u lil mara oħra jaqgħu fl-art. Kennedy deher qieġħed iżomm in-naħa tal-lemin ta' sidru u kellu d-demm f'wiċċu.

Reporter ieħor qal li Kennedy kien f'sensih u kien qieġħed jitkellem wara l-inċident. Huwa qal li l-assassin ġħamel użu minn revoler iżda xi nies ċivili qabduh u ħaduh 'il barra minn ħemm. Kennedy ġie meħud l-isptar b'ġħajnejh magħluqa fuq stretcher.

Xhieda ieħor qal li ra lill-mart Kennedy, Ethel, [illegible]

ROBERT KENNEDY F'QAGHDA KRITIKA

BULLET F'RASU WARA R-REBĦA

(Reuter's Service) Los Angeles.

IS-SENATUR Robert Kennedy, bil-presidenza ta' l-Amerka ġhoddha f'idejh, il-bierah qala tiri ta' revolver minn żaġħżuġħ misterjuż ta' 23 sena li twieled fit-taqsima ta' Ġerusalemm li qabel kienet tal-Ġordan.

Waqt li s-Senatur Kennedy kien qiegħed fl-isptar f'kondizzjoni kritika minħabba l-griehi li garrab bil-balal f'rasu u f'ġonqu, l-Awtoritajiet ta' Los Angeles taw isem iż-żaġħżuġħ li sparalu bħala Sirhan Sirhan.

Sitt kirurgi ghamlu operazzjoni delikata li damet tliet sieghat biex inehhu balla li nifdet ghal go mohh is-Senatur, li ghandu 42 sena waqt li kien qiegħed jiċċelebra r-rebha tiegħu fl-elezzjoni Primarja ta' California.

It-tobba fl-Isptar Kattoliku "Good Samaritan" habbru f'bulletin mediku li saret hsara fil-provvista tad-demm f'mohhu li minnha jiddependu hafna funzjonijiet importanti fiziki u mentali. Il-frak tal-balla, minbarra wahda, tneħħa minn ras is-Senatur Kennedy, qal il-bulletin, iżda tħeż hafna demm, u t-12 sa 36 siegħa li gejjin se jkunu "kritiki hafna".

Is-Segretarju ta' l-Istampa tas-Senatur Kennedy, Frank Mankiewicz, li qara l-bulletin, qal: "Ghadu haj, iżda mhux f'sensih. Imma qiegħed jieħu n-nifs minghajr ghajnuna."

It-tieni balla mill-jidher ghadha f'ghonq Kennedy, iżda din ma gietx meqjusa bhala problema kbira.

L-attentat ta' qtil sar ghala r-rieda fil-lukanda lussuża "Ambassador", fejn is-Senatur Kennedy kien ghadu kif ghamel diskors tar-rebha, ftit hin tiss qabel.

Iż-żaġħżuġħ b'xaghru iswed qabeż minn hadd ma jaf fejn waqt li s-Senatur ghadda mill-kċina tal-lukanda, biex iqassar it-triq mis-Sala tad-Ballu ghall-kamra tal-Konferenzi, u spara mill-viċin waqt li Kennedy kien qed jieħu b'idejn l-impjegati tal-kċina.

Is-Senatur Kennedy waqa' fl-art bid-demm hiereg mill-griehi.

Iż-żaġħżuġħ żvojta r-revolver ta' tmien balal fuqu u fera hamsa min-nies ohra qabel ma' gie meghlub u mkaxkar mill-post fost il-biki u x-xeghir tas-supporters li pruwaw jahtfuh, jghajtu: "Oqtluh, oqtluh".

Il-mara tas-Senatur Kennedy, Ethel, li qed tistenna l-hdax-il tarbija taghha, marret tigri hdejn ir-ragel u qiegħditlu rasu f'hogorha, bhalma kienet ghamlet Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy meta qatlu lil huh, il-President f'Dallas, Texas, fit-22 ta' Novembru, 1963.

Is-Senatur haduh mitluf minn sensih mill-kamra ta' l-operazzjoni f'kamra ohra biex issirlu kura intensiva, waqt li l-President Johnson qabbad wieħed mill-ahjar kirurgi tal-mohh fl-Amerka, Dr. James L. Poppen, biex jaghmel titjira ta' malajr ta' 3,500 mil minn Boston, Massachusetts, biex jaghtih l-ghajnuna tieghu.

Ironikament, is-Senatur Kennedy sparawlu ftit wara li wiegħed, fid-diskors tar-rebha, li jeqred il-vjolenza jekk jigi elett President — kariga li saret eqreb bir-rebha tajba li kellu fuq is-Senatur Eugene McCarthy fil-Elezzjoni Primarja Demokratika ta' California, il-bierah.

Kien hemm pandemonju shih fil-kċina tal-lukanda u fil-lobby waqt li l-ferh ta' mijiet ta' supporters ta' Kennedy nbidel f'niket u ghadab.

Rafer Johnson, kollega iswed fil-kampanja elettorali tal-President Kennedy, u d-deputat Maitre D'Hotel Germaniż, Karl Ueckerm, qabżu fuq l-assassin u waqqghuh fl-art u żammewh sakemm wasalu l-pulizija.

Mrs. Kennedy kienet bil-wieqfa ftit piedi wara żewgha meta ġew sparati t-tiri. Hi marret miegħu fl-abulanza sač-Ċentru Mediku ta' Emergenza ta' Los Angeles fejn issemmighatlu qalbu bi stetoskopju biex tkun ċerta li ghadu haj.

MOURNING FOR SENATOR KENNEDY

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN THE TRAGIC STORY OF THE KENNEDY FAMILY

(Reuter's Service)

LOS ANGELES, June 6.

President Johnson today proclaimed next Sunday a day of national mourning for Senator Robert Kennedy, victim of an assassination that has stirred the nation's conscience. The Senator, who died at 1.44 a.m. (08.44 GMT) in the Good Samaritan Hospital, is to be buried alongside his brother, President John F. Kennedy, in the Arlington National Cemetery. Nearly five years ago, President Kennedy was himself buried in this shrine of American heroes overlooking Washington after being shot dead in Dallas, Texas, by an assassin.

President Johnson, in his Proclamation today, said: "The tragedy and senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world."

He ordered that the Stars and Stripes be flown at half-mast throughout the nation, and set Sunday — the day after the funeral — as the day of national mourning.

The President's statement reflected the rising concern of the nation over lawlessness that has led to moves to cut the free sale of guns and to provide greater safety for political leaders.

Senator Kennedy's body was flown from Los Angeles to New York today in a special jet ordered by Mr. Johnson.

THE NEXT STANDARD-BEARER

Senator Kennedy's death closed another chapter in the tragic story of the Kennedy family, which has suffered one misfortune after another in recent years.

His wife Ethel, was with him when he died, along with his brother Senator Edward Kennedy — the man to whom many Americans now look for political leadership — and Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and other members of the family.

The formal announcement of his death stated simply: "Senator Robert Francis Kennedy died at 1.44 a.m. today, June 6, 1968 ..."

Senator Edward Kennedy, 36, sole survivor of the four brothers groomed by their father for high political office, is already being mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic Party's Vice-Presidential nomination.

The death of his brother today means that the youngest brother, known as "Ted", is now the standard-bearer for the Kennedy dynasty.

He himself narrowly averted death in a 1964 plane crash. His back was broken and for a time it looked as if he would be a cripple for life.

Throughout the United States, people were recalling a statement by President Kennedy before he was assassinated in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. Of his tragedy-prone family the President remarked that if he died, his brother Robert would take over and if Bobby died, Ted would assume the family leadership.

Joseph P. Kennedy, 79, father of the four sons and five daughters, originally intended to groom his eldest son Joseph for the American presidency. But the eldest son was killed in a World War Two plane crash on a secret flight from a British base.

Joseph Kennedy (the father) now an invalid as a result of several strokes, has lived to see three of his four sons killed.

THE NEED FOR TRYING

As Senator ROBERT KENNEDY is laid to rest within the sacred precincts of Arlington that have guarded the remains of his assassinated brother for the last five years, many in America, and elsewhere might echo the anguished cry of the negro in Los Angeles who, on hearing of the attempt, exclaimed "What's the use of us trying? What's the use?" Since then, the Senator has passed on to join the vast throng of those who have given all for their ideals and principles; his death should prove an incentive to all to go on trying till the day when the urge of wanton destruction of life is stifled.

It was tragic indeed that ROBERT KENNEDY should have been mown down in a moment of triumph, but it was also significant, for the triumph of some spells defeat for others, and the forces of evil do not willingly subject themselves to those of good. The Kennedys had come to symbolize what is more elevating in the American way of life — youth, progress and unbounded energy.

Progress in America in the age we live in should not be interpreted only in terms of scientific achievement and military supremacy, but in social security, in racial equality, in opportunities at work and fair conditions of employment, in an end to violence.

Violence has often figured in American history. It was this violence that ROBERT KENNEDY sought to conquer but of which he fell victim.

It has been the sad lot of President JOHNSON, from the dawn of his presidency even unto its setting, to appeal to the nation against violence and to declare days of national mourning as his appeals went unheeded. It is until they are, that Americans and people everywhere must follow in the Kennedys' footsteps, and go on trying.

Senator Kennedy's tragic death

Family members on board included the Senator's 40-year-old wife Ethel, expecting her 11th child, and her three eldest children, the Senator's only surviving brother, Senator Edward Kennedy, and Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, widow of President Kennedy.

Other passengers included Mrs. Coretta King, widow of Negro civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, who was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee, only two months ago.

In New York the Senator's body will be taken to St. Patrick's Cathedral where it will lie in State tomorrow.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's on Saturday.

TIGHT SECURITY PRECAUTIONS

New York Police are already making security arrangements, likely to be the tightest in the city's history, for American and foreign dignitaries at the service.

The Senator's death was announced by one of his aides just over 25 hours after he was shot through the head and neck in a Los Angeles hotel as he was celebrating his primary election victory in California.

Surgeons carried out a three-and-a-half-hour operation to remove the bullet from his brain, but he never regained consciousness. There had been fears that, even if he survived, his faculties would be permanently damaged.

Shortly after Senator Kennedy's death Los Angeles police said a charge against Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, a 24-year-old Jordanian-bred immigrant held for the shooting of the Senator, would be presumably changed to murder.

Initially, after being arrested in a struggle in the hotel, he was accused of assault with intent to kill the Senator and five other people wounded in the shooting.

Sirhan refused to speak to police at all at first. Later he began talking to his interrogators, but not about the shooting.

Sirhan, who has lived in California for the past 11 years, was identified only after the .22 calibre revolver used in the shooting had been traced to him.

He had four 100-dollar (about £40) bills in his pocket when arrested and a newspaper clipping unfavourable to Senator Kennedy, Police said.

Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty told reporters yesterday that an entry in a diary alleged to belong to Sirhan stated that Senator Kennedy had to be killed by June 5 — the first anniversary of the start of the six-day Israeli-Arab war.

This has led to speculation that the motive for the killing was Senator Kennedy's support of the Israeli cause.

Senator Kennedy's death threw the American political scene into turmoil for the second time in nine weeks — the first being President Johnson's unexpected decision not to run for re-election.

The scene is now more confused than ever in this wildly-unpredictable presidential race.

LOS ANGELES POLICE SEEK POSSIBLE CONSPIRATOR

(Reuter's Service)

LOS ANGELES, June 6.

Los Angeles Police today issued an all-points alert for the apprehension of a woman whom they said might have been involved in the murder of Senator Robert Kennedy.

A Police spokesman said Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, suspected of shooting the Senator, was seen with a woman shortly before the attack.

Eyewitnesses of the assassination in a hotel here recalled that a woman member of Kennedy's campaign staff said she saw a girl with a "funny nose" and "polka-dot" dress running towards an exit.

The girl shouted "We shot him, we shot him," the woman said.

KENNEDY'S DEATH

AT the Los Angeles convention eight years ago John F. Kennedy is said to have presented a cigarette case to his brother and right-hand man Robert. On it were inscribed the words: "When I'm through, how about you?" This story may be apocryphal, but it has dramatically turned out to be true. Barely five years after President Kennedy was shot by Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas, Robert Kennedy succumbed to the wounds inflicted by the bullets fired by Palestinian Arab Sirhan B. Sirhar.

Calamity, which seems to stalk the Kennedy family unrelentingly, has struck again. It struck when the New York Senator was celebrating the biggest political victory of his life, the California primary election. He was committed to California to retrieve the prestige that had been shaken at Oregon. His success is now to no avail.

Kennedy was making himself felt with a political identity of his own — a New Frontier, a shade beyond the boundaries of President Lyndon Johnson's Great Society. Considered as the third force in American politics, he had made himself a voice of dissatisfaction with the way things were going on in Vietnam, in Latin America, in US cities — and the ghettoes.

A fast-moving man, he lived in the moment and did not count too heavily on the future He once said: "Existence is fickle, fate is fickle . . . So you do what you can while you're here and the future will take care of itself." How true this is, can be seen in the context of his death.

His abrupt shooting depresses the reasonable man and makes him reflect on the extent to which American life is dominated by violence. Senator Kennedy, his brother President, Dr Martin Luther King, and for that matter Malcolm X, are the victims of a sick society where rootlessness and frustration abound. The outcry for strict laws controlling the sale and possession of guns which was raised after the assassination of President Kennedy has not served much.

On the political front, the Democratic and Republican candidates are still dazed by the shock, the latest in months of political upheavals and surprises. They have suspended electioneering indefinitely; indeed none of the contestants has been left with a coherent strategy. It may take weeks for matters to sort themselves out into a clear pattern. But when they do it may be found that the major beneficiary of the Kennedy tragedy is Vice-President Hubert Humphrey. Moreover, it would not be surprising if in the end a Humphrey—McCarthy ticket would emerge.

Kennedy burial on Saturday

Struck by an assassin's bullet, Robert Kennedy drops to the ground

WASHINGTON, Thursday.

THE body of Senator Robert Kennedy, who died after being shot at a Los Angeles hotel, is being flown to New York. A special airliner provided by President Johnson is carrying the body, members of the Kennedy family and Mrs Martin Luther King, widow of the Negro leader who was assassinated last April.

The flight of the Presidential jet with the body of Robert Kennedy to New York was delayed to avoid any such controversy as the one still surrounding the slaying of his brother in Dallas.

In New York Senator Kennedy will lie in state in St Patrick's Roman Catholic Cathedral. There will be a Requiem Mass on Saturday morning. He will be buried later in the day at Arlington National Cemetery outside Washington, close to the place where President John F. Kennedy was buried in 1963.

President Johnson has declared Sunday a national day of mourning.

Many world leaders have paid tribute to Senator Kennedy and sent messages of sympathy. The Queen has sent a personal message to Mrs Kennedy. Mr Wilson in a message to President Johnson said the "whole British people share America's sorrow."

The Pope offered special prayers and sent his profound condolences.

In Washington President Johnson said that although Senator Robert Kennedy had had far more of his share of personal tragedy he never lost faith in the United States. All the contenders for the Presidential nominations have paid tribute to Senator Kennedy and sent messages of sympathy.

In Los Angeles, Police are taking extra precautions to protect the alleged attacker of Senator Kennedy, the 24-year-old Palestinian Arab Sirhan B. Sirhar. A grand jury is to be asked to exercise a charge of murder.

Maltese Prime Minister Dr Giorgio Borg Olivier has sent a message of condolences to Mrs Kennedy.

Earlier today, US Chargé d'Affaires at the US Embassy in Malta Mr C. E. Beaman said that Senator Kennedy's death was a great loss to the American people. "...he would have given much to the Nation and the world, had he lived," said Mr Beaman.

Senator Kennedy Lying In State

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE PAID THEIR LAST RESPECTS TO THE LATE SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY, AS HE LAY IN STATE IN ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH, NEW YORK. OFFICES, MUSEUMS, SCHOOLS AND OTHER BUILDINGS WERE CLOSED. AFTER A REQUIEM MASS FOR HIS REPOSE, THE BODY WILL BE TAKEN TO ARLINGTON CEMETERY NEAR WASHINGTON, WHERE HE WILL BE BURRIED NEAR HIS BROTHER, THE LATE PRESIDENT J.F. KENNEDY WHO WAS ASSASSINATED IN 1963.

The body arrived in New York early today, by a special Presidential 'plane, and Senator Edward Kennedy, as well as two of the late Senator's sons, were amongst the pallbearers. The body lies in a black draped coffin at St. Patrick's Church. Crowds had lined the streets prior to the arrival and many were seen to be wearing black armbands.

In Los Angeles, a Grand Jury will be sitting to see whether there is a case for murder against Sirkan; this system has been adopted in order to continue with the maximum security that has been maintained throughout the incident. By this system Sirhan does not have to appear in Court.

Meanwhile, the US Congress has passed a law banning the sales of arms by mail. Rifles are not included in the list of prohibited arms. President Johnson has meanwhile sent an appeal to Congress to ensure that "mail order murder" be eradicated.

TODAY'S FOREIGN COMMENTARY

The tragedy that has befallen the Kennedy family has touched the heart of all those who not only pity the dead victim, but also the destiny, if destiny is the right word, which has befallen victim's wife and his ten children

The death of Robert Kennedy is not only a national disaster; but it is also a family misfortune. The murderer is non-European fanatic Jordanian who abused American hospitality by killing one of its most prominent public figures. But it is evident that this foolish Arab assassin was not alone. Who is the fugitive young woman seen in his company who ran away shouting "we have shot Senator Kennedy ?"

We do hope that the American F. B. I. will be quick enough to catch this missing link of evidence in the conspiracy of some anti-Kennedy organisation. American society is, unfortunately, at the mercy of a current organisation, the Klu Klux Klan, notorious gangsters, but many of them well connected and high up in business society whom one might describe as the filthy Mafia of America.

These hooded curses cowardly gangsters are anti-Catholic and anti-Negro can it be that the Kennedy family is on the black list of this murderous organisation because the Kennedys are a Catholic family and their internal politics favour the integration of the negro groups?

Another possible hypothesis is taht the Jordanian murder killed Senator Robert Kennedy because of his support for Israel against the Arabs. But surely there are many such supporters of Israel in the U.S.A. If this was so, why single out Robert Kennedy? Where must the killing begin and end?

Behind the murder of the Kennedy's there is much more than meets the eye. Considering the serious threat to the survival of free democracy in America, one can only wish and pray that the Government and the F.B.I. will track down every evidence to the very source where political murders are first originated and planned

The American Government must vindicate the wrong done to Dr. Martin Luther and the two Kennedy brothers three distinguished figures of contemporary Americans life.

As his identity was then not yet known, he was arraigned under the name of John Doe and bail was set at 250,000 dollars, (£105,000).

BOB KENNEDY

● Robert jidher miexi lejn il-White House, id-dar tal-President, il-post fejn ma laħaqx wasal!

● F'kull ajruport li fih kien jinżel l-ajruplan ta' Robert dejjem kont tilmaħ l-istess xena — gruppi ta' nies jistennewh biex jeħdulu b'idejh.

L-aktar li kienu jħobbuh u jistmawh kienu l-ħaddiema, il-fqar, u s-suwed. Bob kien fehem il-problemi taghhom kollha u weghedhom sinċerament li jissagrifika ħajtu ghalihom.

● Robert ma' martu Ethel, l-akbar ghajnuna li kellu fil-ħajja tieghu.

L-imħabba kbira li kellu lejn uliedu — 10 — kienet l-akbar diffikulta' ghal Bob biex ilaħħaq ma' l-impenji kollha tieghu li ħafna drabi rieduh ikun mifrud mill-ghożież tieghu.

● Dehra ta' Robert ma' wħud mill-ghaxar uliedu. Il-familja dejjem kienet il-ghaxqa tieghu.

Iżda dawk l-istess ħsus tieghi nbidlu fi stmellija u twerwir meta rajt lir-raġel kollu kemm kien johroġ bil-qajla l-qajla mit-tieqa u jibda jitkaxkar mal-ħajt tal-kastell fuq dak l-irdum tal-biża'; wiċċu 'l isfel, b'mantaru miftuh madwaru tisthajlu ġwienah kbar. Ghall-ewwel ma stajtx nemmen lill-istess ghajnejja. Ghidt li d-dawl ta' qamar kien qieghed iqarraq bija, li kien xi effett tal-ghaġeb imnissel mid-dell; iżda bqajt inhares, u ma kontx qieghed nara hażin. Rajt is-swaba' ta' jdejh u riġlejh jaqbdu ma' truf il-ġebel, fejn is-snin kienu kielu u waqqghu t-tajn, u hekk bil-ghajnuna ta' kull ġebla mahruġa 'l barra u ta' kull xaqq fil-ħajt, baqa' nieżel 'l isfel b'heffa kbira, l-istess bhalma gremxula timxi ma' hajt.

Xi bniedem huwa dan, jew x'holqien huwa taht is-sura ta' bniedem? Qieghed inhoss li ma niflahx aktar ghalj-wahx ta' dan il-post tal-biża'; qieged nibża' — nibża' wisq — u ma nistax nahrab: minn kull naha ninsab imdawwar b'uhux li anqas biss nissogra nahseb fuqhom . . .

Lejn il-punent kien hemm wied kbir, imbaghad fil-gholi, fil-boghod iġbla kbar u blatin, quċċata wara quċċata, miksijin bis-siġar tal-fraxxnu tal-muntanja u siġar tax-xewk, bl-gheruq imqabbda fix-xquq, il-qsim u l-hofor tal-blat. Deher tajjeb li din kienet it-taqsima tal-kastell li kienet mghammra fiż-żmien l-imghoddi, ghaliex l-ghamara hawnhekk kienet tidher aktar komda mill-ghamara kollha li rajt hawn ġew s'issa.

It-twieqi kienu bla purtieri, u d-dawl ta' qamar safrani, li kien jidhol mill-hġieġ tat-tieqa, urieni sahansitra l-ilwien, waqt li taffa l-ghabra tat-trab li kien hemm fuq kollox u xi ftit heba wkoll il-hsara taż-żmien u s-susa. Il-lampa ftit jew xejn swietli f'dak id-dawl ta' qamar qawwi, iżda fraht li kienet f'idi, ghaliex f'dak il-post hassejtni wahdi wisq, u bżajt, u hassejt kesha f'qalbi u roghda ma' ġismi kollu.

WE SALUTE ROBERT KENNEDY

INSELLMU LIL ROBERT KENNEDY

Wara iżjed minn 24 siegha bejn il-hajja u l-mewt, Robert Kennedy miet, vittma tat-tiri li sparalu qattiel żaghżugh. Jixraq li nsellmu lil dan il-bniedem li kien tant kuntrarju ghall-vjolenza u ntant kellu bhal hafa imut mewta vjolenti.

Meta fil-1966 mar fuq vjaġġ fl-Amerika t'Isfel kellu okkażjoni jżur "plantation" fejn sar jaf li l-haddiema kienu mhallsin b'paga inqas mill-minimum stabbilit bil-liġi. Il-proprjetarju pprova jiċħad imma Robert ma riedx jemmnu: "Illum dort hafna f'dawn l-inhawi u smajt proprju l-kuntrarju ta' dak li qed tghid int. U allura hallini nghidlek haġa: 'int sejjer lejn ir-rovina, se tinqered bl-armi tiegħek stess. Se teqred lis-soċjeta' tiegħek, dik l-istess soċjeta' li tiftaħar li fiha tinsab imsieħeb, jekk ma thallasx lin-nies pagi deċenti'."

Kien Robert li bhala Attorney General irnexxielu jnaddaf il-qasam trade-unionistiku mill-korruzzjoni u t-terrur ta' James Hoffa, il-famuż mexxej tat-teamsters u tefghu l-habs. wara min jaf kemm l-attentat kien sar qabel biex jippruvaw il-ħtija tieghu. Kien Robert li dawwal lil huh fil-kriżi ta' Kuba u fil-qawmien tal-moviment ghall-jeddijiet ċivili tas-suwed.

Robert kien sinjur. Kellu renta ta' 100,000 dollaru fissena, frott l-investimenti tal-familja Kennedy u tieghu personali. Is-salarju tieghu bhala senatur, li kien jammonta ghal 30,000 dollaru fis-sena, kien kollu jaghtih ghall-ghajnuna lill-fqar u l-inkapaċitati.

It-tliet kotba tieghu jisimhom "The enemy within", "In search of justice" u "Honest Friends and Courageous enemies".

CRUEL DEATH OF RFK.

MEWTA KIEFRA TA' ROBERT KENNEDY

Għalxejn id-dinja stenniet ħerqana li Robert Kennedy joħroġ rebbieħ fil-ġlieda li kellu għall-ħajja. Robert miet il-bieraħ fid-9.44 a.m., 24 siegħa wara li ġie assassinat. Kien qiegħed jiċċelebra r-rebħa tal-primarji elettorali f'Los Angeles California meta intlaqgħat minn żewġ tiri. Għalxejn issieltu t-Tobba biex jagħtuh il-ħajja u jevitaw traġedja oħra għall-Amerika.

Għal familja Kennedy, familja ta' politiċi brillanti jidher li hemm stilla ta' malawgurju ssegwihom kull meta xi ħadd minnhom ikun ser jilħaq il-quċċata tal-karriera politika tiegħu.

Inqas minn ħames snin ilu ħu Robert, John F. Kennedy, ġie assasinat waqt li bħala President tal-Istati Uniti kien qiegħed lill-pajjiżu fuq wiċċ l-idejn man-nazzjonijiet kollha tad-dinja. Wara dan l-assasinju, assassinju li għadna s'issa ma nafux biżżejjed dwar min veru ikkommettieh jew min kien hemm wara l-assassin, kellna l-inċident bl-ajruplan ta' Edward, l-iżgħar fost l-aħwa, li kkraxxja waqt li kien qiegħed jikkontesta l-kariga ta' senatur, post li xorta waħda kiseb.

Issa l-familja Kennedy tinsab mill-ġdid rinfaċċjata b'assasinju, pass viljakk, baxx u degradanti kontra l-aktar żgħażugħ fost il-kandidati għal presidenza ta' l-Istati Uniti. Aktar li l-attentat mhux ix-xogħol ta' bniedem wieħed. Wara l-assassin jew assassini kien hemm għaqda, għaqda ta' nies li ħafna jaħsbu hi gwidata minn kapitalisti, li staħnew dejjem minn fuq l-armi u li jaraw f'Robert Kennedy, bħal f'ħuh John, bniedem tal-paċi. Ħafna estremisti fl-Istati Uniti, li din is-sensiela ta' assassinji fuq persunaġġi popolari prominenti ġibditilhom l-istmerija tal-popli, jidher li mhux talli ma jinkoraġġiex politiċi ta' stamina ta' sens u ta' dover anzi jagħmlu minn kollox biex iwarrbu dawn it-talin minn nofs. Dawn l-estremisti jidhru li għandhom l-appoġġ ta' nies għolja fis-soċjeta' tali kwalita' ta' persuni li dak li ma jirnexxilhomx jiksbu bis-sewwa ma jiddejqux iġibuh bid-dnewwa.

Sadattant il-mexxejja kollha tad-dinja ikkundannaw bil-qawwa dan l-attentat viljakk. Il-Kunsill tas-Sigurta' li ltaqa' biex jiddiskuti l-ġlied tal-aħħar bejn Lhud u Arab ħa pass li ma ġara qatt qabel, aġġorna l-l-laqgħa indefinitivament fuq proposta tad-delegat Alġerin, bħala sinjal ta' rispett għas-Senatur Kennedy.

Il-President Johnson li kellem lin-nazzjon dak in-nhar ta' l-attentat ordna bodyguards għal kull kandidat presidenzjali u skorta għal familja tagħhom. Ħatar ukoll kommissjoni biex tistudja x'qiegħed iwassal għal dawn l-atti baxxi. Il-kandidati kollha għan-nomina presidenzjali ftehmu li jwaqqfu l-battalja tagħhom elettorali, bħala sinjal ta' rispett, u għandhom jiltaqgħu aktar tard ġo Washington biex jiddiskutu l-pass li jmiss.

IL-MEWT TAS-SENATUR ROBERT KENNEDY

Il-Prim Ministru ta' Malta, l-Onor Dr. G. Borg Olivier, bagħat dan il-messaġġ lill-Mrs. Kennedy:

"Għan-nom tal-Gvern u l-poplu ta' Malta kif ukoll għan-nom tiegħi nnifsi nixtieq nibgħat kondoljanzi sinċieri fl-okkażżjoni tal-mewt traġika u għall-għarrieda tas-Senatur Kennedy. Malta kollha tinsab ixxukjata b'dan l-att kiefer ta' vjolenza kontra mexxej li jħobb il-paċi."

TRAGEDJA AMERIKANA

Żagħżugħ, simpatiku, mimli bl-idealiżmu, mogħni b'kapaċita' politika eċċezzjonali, Robert F. Kennedy, kien figura tar-realta' u figura tal-ħolm. B'kuraġġ fiżiku u morali li rari ssibhom fi bniedem wieħed, b'konvinzjoni u b'sens tad-dinja, li flimkien ġeneralment ma joqogħdux, b'mezzi ta' miljunarju u b'segwitu ta' foqra, imġewħa, suwed, bojod, Lhud u Irlandiżi; kampjun għall-artisti, għall-intellettwali, għall-istudenti, benjamin ta' l-isportivi; imdawwal imma mhux eklissat bid-dija ta' ħuh; b'ġibda qawwija għan-nisa u b'seher fuq iż-żgħażagħ, b'appell uniku minħabba r-reliġjon li jħaddan u jipprattika għal kull min jgħożż il-valuri eterni; kien iktar milli politiku, raġġ ta' tama.

Dak ir-raġel xipli, imma qisu fjamma, kien jaf il-ħażen tal-politika fuq ponot subajh. Kellu organizzazzjoni perfetta. Kien jaf juża l-bnedmin. Kien jaf jagħżel il-mument. Kien jaf jiddiporta ruħu fit-telfa u kien jaf iżomm il-qies fir-rebħa. Determinat, jasal u jwassal. Kellu l-kuraġġ jibda jikkritika l-gwerra tal-Vjetnam, anki meta dan ma kienx il-ħsieb tal-maġġoranza ta' l-Amerikani. Kellu l-kuraġġ jidħol fit-tellieqa għal presidenza meta ħafna ħasbu li mhux il-waqt.

Kien kapaċi jġennen il-folol. Mhux billi jappella għall-istinti l-ħżiena u elementari, bħal vendetta. Mhux billi jimxi lejn l-opinjoni tal-maġġoranza, imma billi jġib il-maġġoranza biex temmen bħalu f'dak li huwa kien ikkonvinca ruħu li huwa sewwa, li hemm bżonn isir. Mingħajr ma jdarras iż-żejjed u b'doża meqjusa ta' sens komun.

Imma ħafna minn dan kien wirt tad-demm jew don tan-natura. Anki fil-kuraġġ kien imdorri u kien imfassal. Il-mertu kbir tiegħu huwa fil-għażla li għamel: fis-servizz ta' min u ta' xiex tefa' dik l-enerġija bla fini, l-intelligenza, is-simpatija, il-kuraġġ, flusu, saħħtu, l-esseri tiegħu.

Fis-servizz ta' min u ta' xiex. Kien wild ta' klassi sinjura u mrobbi fix-xabgħa. Kien għamilha ma' l-aħjar imħuh u ħabib ta' l-iktar familji għolja. Kellu l-ambizzjoni ffissata lejn l-iktar pożizzjonijiet fil-quċċata ta' l-istat Amerikan. U dan ma kkorrompihx.

Fis-servizz ta' min u ta xiex. Il-kumdita' ma kellu qatt il-bżonn li jfittixha. Kien jaf jagħżel l-aħjar vilel u villeġġjatura, u kellu l-gosti ta' min sab dejjem madwaru l-ifjen, l-isbaħ, l-iktar lussuż. Il-vjaġġi, l-isport, tax-xitwa u tas-sajf. It-teatri. Il-Yachts. Il-pjaċiri kollha li jistgħu jinxtraw bil-flus jew bl-attrazzjoni ta' persuna simpatika, u brillanti. U l-għass, il-lussu, l-egoiżmu, ma rebħuhx.

Fis-servizz ta' min u ta' xiex. Tar-razza sewda, li għadha lura, vjolenti, bla rażan, bla qies tal-mezzi, bla sens tal-bżonnija tal-għaqda, bla tagħlim, bla xogħol, bla rispett għaliha nfisha, bla fiduċja fiha nfisha: imċaħħda mid-drittijiet tagħha u bla idea tajba fuq l-aħjar mod kif tiksibhom u malajr. Tal-foqra kollha tal-Amerika, b'xorti forsi agħar minn dawk ta' pajjiżi oħra, għaliex imdawrin dawra mejt bil-ġid u l-ġhana f'idejn ħaddieħor. Taż-żgħażagħ ta' pajjiżu meħuda għal gwerra qalila mingħajr fini ta' rebħ veru u mingħajr riżultati li jiġġustifikaw tant demm. Tad-destin kbir ta' pajjiżu, mitluf fl-istess qawwa enormi tiegħu, u jafx fejn sewwa sejjer. Tal-paċi fid-dinja, miżmuma mhux bil-minaċċi, imma bl-użu tas-sens, bit-tixrid tal-progress imma mingħajr il-biża' li jtellef kollox tal-mexxej dgħajjef.

Kien hemm min ma ħamilx. Kien hemm min ma felaħx iħallih jilħaq il-għan li jkompli fejn ħalla ħuh John. Ma' l-ewwel sinjal ta' rebħa riedu jeqirduh. Kien qiegħed jiċċelebra l-akbar vittorja politika tiegħu. Ixxena nbidlet minn waħda ta' ferħ għal waħda traġika. Żewġ balal minn pistola indifnu f'rasu u kull attentat minn sitt professuri biex iġibuh f'sensieh falla. Robert Kennedy miet u d-dinja tinsab imkexkxa u mbikkma b'din it-tieni traġedja tal-familja Kennedy.

Is-Seklu Ġħoxrin

Kbir bħal ħuk,
u bħalu sfajt vittma ta' dell il-mewt
li riedet teqirdek
biex ma tistgħallx rebħiet għaqlek u dehnek.
Ħabbejt il-fqar,
ulied iċ-ċaħda
u dawk ta' ġilda sewda.
Taġħhom kont il-missier,
'ma f'salt riedu joqtluk l-ġħedewwa
u jħallu 'l uliedek iltiema bħalma ġralhom bil-mewt

Fuq min se jaqgħu?
Lil min huma se jgħarrfu hekk b'missierhom?

Il-bniedem tal-lum ma jridx paċi,

Xi ġrajja mhux tas-soltu tqanqal ħafna għagħa u ħsebijiet u l-poeta ma jonqosx li jittieħed minn dan it-tqanqil u jfissru fil-berah biex kulħadd ikun j i s t a' jagħraf fhemtu.

Hekk ġara ma' l-aħbar dwar l-attentat u l-qtil tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy, li meta kien ġħadu ferħan birrebħa li kiseb fit-tellieqa Presidenzjali, safa vittma ta' min ma ġħarafx l-idejali ġholi ta' l-umanità.

L-istess bħalma ma ġara fil-qtil ta' ħuh, il-President John F. Kennedy u ta' Dr. Martin Luther King, il-mexxej tas-Suwed, xi poeti ħassew il-lehma tal-poeżija wkoll minn din il-ġrajja.

Mela ħallihom jobogħduk għax ħaj;

WARA L-MEWT TAS-SENATUR KENNEDY

Illum, wara l-mewt vjolenti tas-Senatur Kennedy, li kien qed jikkontesta l-elezzjonijiet presidenzjali fl-Amerika li ghandhom isiru f'Novembru li ġej, l-istmerrija tad-dinja kontra dan l-assassinju wahxi tkompli tiżdied. Fil-waqt li l-umanita' tinsab imnikkta, hija wkoll fl-istess waqt tinsab mimlija bil-ghadab u fil-waqt li titlob haqq skond il-ligi, tappella wkoll biex min hu responsabbli jiehu dawk il-passi kollha mehtieġa biex affarijiet bhal dawn ma jerġghux jiġru.

Il-poplu Amerikan ilhum qed ihoss ġewwa fih misthija kbira qoddiem id-dinja kollha ghal din il-grajja mill-iżjed kerha, ghalkemm m'ghandhiex tehel nazzjon shiha ma' bniedem fanatiku u mogħmi bil-passjoni li nehha l-hajja ta' politiku kbir b'arma tan-nar. Iżda jekk l-Amerikani qeghdin jisthu minnhom infushom, daqshekk iehor ghandha ghax tisthi minnha nfisha l-istess umanita' kollha ghax ahna lkoll ahwa ta' xulxin.

Bil-mewt ta' Kennedy l-Amerika u d-dinja kollha tilfu bniedem li kellu l-kwalitajiet kollha sbieh ta' mexxej kbir, bniedem ta' ispirazzjoni u li seta' jnissel tama kbira fil-ġeġjieni. Ghalhekk dan l-assassinju mhux biss nehha l-hajja ta' bniedem, imma faqqar lill-Amerika u lill-umanita' kollha. Nistghu nghidu li ma ntilfitx biss il-hajja ta' bniedem, imma ntilfu wkoll hafna tamiet sbieh mill-umanita' kollha. Quddiemu Kennedy kellu prospetti kbar li jista' jkun il-President ta' l-Istati Uniti u hekk il-possibilta' li jġib bidla kbira fil-qaghda dinjija kollha kemm hi.

Intqal li s-socjeta' Amerikana hija marida marda serja hafna na. Imma mhux is-socjeta' Amerikana biss qed tbati minn din il-marda, imma nistghu nghidu kull poplu iehor li hawn fid-dinja. Anki s-socjeta' taghna Maltija hija marida b'mard ta' intolleranza, politika u religjuza, bil-fanatizmu qawwi, bil-mibeghda bejn klassi u ohra.

U dak li jghaddhek l-iżjed u jnissel fik stmerrija u tkexkix kbir huwa kif nies li jistghu jkunu ta' ġid kbir ghall-umanita' jiġu meqruda hekk hesrem u vjolentement. Il-bnedmin kollha, wara din it-tragedja Amerikana, jehtieġ li jidhlu dahla sewwa fihom infushom u jfejjqu l-mard ikrah li ghandhom li l-mediċina ghalih hija t-tolleranza, l-imhabba, il-ġustizzja, il-komprensjoni, il-koperazzjoni bejn wiehed u iehor . . . . affarijiet li kemm-il darba ippriedka s-Senatur Robert F. Kennedy.

KENNEDY FAMILY SEEMS DOOMED FOR TRAGEDY.

Il-Familja Kennedy Donnha Ddestinata Għad-Diżgrazzji

Mir-Reporter Tagħna

IL-MEWT ta' Robert Kennedy, b'bullet ta' assassin, kompliet żiedet l-ideja fl-Amerka li l-Familja Kennedy hija ddestinata għall-akbar unuri u glorja fl-Istat u l-akbar tragedji li wieħed jista' jsofri, jiġifieri l-mewt vjolenti.

Il-familja Kennedy oriġinarjament kienet emigrat mill-Irlanda fl-1846 minħabba l-ġuħ kbir li kien hemm f'dak il-pajjiż. Patrick Kennedy, li kien bidwi, meta emigra fl-Amerka daħal jaħdem ta' haddiem kwalunkwe f'Boston u meta miet għaxar snin wara, ftit wara li twelidlu ibnu Patrick Joseph, kien għadu fqir u jgħix minn ġurnata ġhall-oħra daqs dik in-nhar li kien telaq mill-Irlanda.

Patrick Joseph fetaħ ħanut tax-xorb u f'dan il-ħanut bdew jingemgħu ġhadd ta' emigranti Irlandiżi li xtaqu li jkollhom raġel ta' l-affari tiegħu biex jirrappreżentihom fil-Gvern lokali. Fl-1886 Patrick Joseph ġie elett Membru tal-Kamra tar-Rappreżentanti ta' Massachusetts u sitt snin wara rnexxilu jikseb post fis-Senat bħala membru tal-Partit Demokratiku. Qatt ma ħareġ fil-beraħ biex jikseb popolarità, imma kien jaħdem minn wara l-kwinti biex iżid il-voti ġhall-Partit tiegħu. Kien matul dan iż-żmien li Patrick Kennedy beda jakkumula l-fortuna immensa li ġhamlitu kważi miljunarju sa ftit snin wara.

Lil ibnu Joseph Patrick baġħtu jistudja f'Boston u fl-Università ta' Harvard. Dan it-tfajjel kien il-missier tal-President Kennedy. Wara li spiċċa l-Università, Joseph Patrick iżżewweġ lil Rose Fitzgerald li missierha kien wieħed mill-aqwa nies fil-politika fil-belt ta' Boston. Il-Kardinal O'Connell żewweġ lil Joseph Patrick u Rose Fitzgerald f'tieġ li baqa' jissemma ġhal ħafna żmien.

Joseph Patrick beda jaħdem ta' bankier u fl-1917 laħaq il-Manager tal-Bethlehem Steel's Fore River Shipyard, meta l-industriji kollha fl-Amerka kienu qed jirduppjaw l-isforzi tagħhom minħabba l-gwerra. Fl-1920 kompla żied il-ġid li kien ġa akkumula u anki ndaħal fl-industrija tal-films f'Hollywood. Kien ġhaqli biżżejjed biex jara minn żmien qabel li l-Amerka kienet riesqa lejn kriżi finanzjarja u ġhalhekk ħa passi biex isaħħaħ il-ġid tiegħu b'passi meħtieġa qabel ma wasal dak id-diżastru li fih bosta finanzjieri u kapitalisti Amerikani tilfu ġidhom u ħajjithom. Kien f'dan iż-żmien li Joseph Patrick sar ħabib ta' Franklyn D. Roosevelt.

Joseph Patrick kellu ġid immens, kellu familja ta' ġisat itfal, u ġhal xi żmien fil-gwerra kien Ambaxxatur Amerikan fl-Ingliterra. Ftit nies kienu jafu li bintu l-kbira Rosemary kienet mentalment ritardata. Il-gwerra bdiet is-sensiela ta' traġedji ġhal din il-familja li kienet tiħder li hi maħluqa ġhall-aqwa unuri. Fl-1943 ibnu Jack salva b'miraklu meta l-bastiment tiegħu ġhereq. Sena wara, fit-2 ta' Awissu 1944 waslet l-aħbar li ibnu ieħor Joe Junior kien tilef ħajtu meta l-bomber li kien fuqu sploda fl-ajru. Ġimaġħtejn wara l-Markiż ta' Hartington, ir-raġel ta' Kathleen Kennedy miet ukoll fil-gwerra wara erba' xhur biss miżżewġin. Fl-1948 Kathleen mietet hija wkoll meta l-ajruplan tagħha kkraxxja ġo muntanja fi Franza. Fl-1955 mart Bobby Kennedy tilfet lill-genituri tagħha fi kraxx ieħor bl-ajru u fl-1966 tilfet lil ħuha George bl-istess mod.

Edward Kennedy, iben ieħor minn din il-familja, u wkoll Senatur, ġhaldaqsxejn ma mietx ukoll f'inċident f'Ġunju tal-1964. Kien kiser is-sinsla ta' dahru u kien ġhamel żmien twil fis-sodda qabel ma seta' jimxi mill-ġdid.

Il-qtil tal-President John F. Kennedy ftit snin ilu u l-istess traġedja li messet lil ħuh Robert, jumejn ilu, żiedet f'moħħ il-pubbliku Amerikan dak is-sens ta' fatalità li donnu, sar ħaġa waħda mal-Familja ta' Kennedy.

A LAST TRIBUTE

Robert Kennedy lies in State

(Reuter's Service). NEW YORK, June 7:

More than 4,000 mourners an hour filed weeping and grim-faced past the closed coffin of assassinated Senator Robert F. Kennedy in St. Patrick's Cathedral here today.

In less than six hours after dawn, when the massive doors of the Cathedral swung open to admit them, more than 25,000 people were estimated to have passed the black-draped catafalque where the coffin lay.

A long procession of grieving mourners of all ages, races and religions, and many nationalities, wound back from the doors around the heart of Manhattan for over a dozen city blocks, the grim queue grew hour by hour.

Hundreds waited all night to pay their last tribute. Those arriving during the morning had to wait up to three hours to get in.

Mothers cradling babies, children, blind men, elderly cripples shuffling forward on crutches, and young students, many weeping openly, filed sadly past.

Relatives and aides of the dead Senator, and his friends among the stars and celebrities from all walks of life took turns in keeping 30-minute vigils around the mahogany coffin, flanked by six yellow candles.

The Negro civil rights anthem "We shall Overcome" rose above the sad sound of shuffling as the mourners filed past the Senator, champion of the poor and underprivileged.

The list of "Five"

DETECTIVE TESTIFIES

(Reuter's Service) NEW YORK, June 7.

An undercover detective — testifying several hours after Robert Kennedy was shot in Los Angeles — told the New York State Supreme Court he had been informed the Senator was on a list of five people "who should be assassinated." The detective said he had infiltrated an organization known as the Action Black Brotherhood Improvement Association.

Hearing of evidence

(Reuter's Service)

LOS ANGELES, June 7:

Fourteen women and nine men sat behind closed doors on the fifth floor of the Hall of Justice here today and began hearing evidence about the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy.

The task of this Los Angeles County Grand Jury is to decide whether there is enough evidence to file charges against Sirhan Bishara, Sirhan, the 24-year-old Jordanian-bred immigrant accused of being the assassin.

Among the first witnesses called was Dr. Henry Cuneo, who operated on Senator Kennedy.

Among others in the witness room were Jesus Perez, a kitchen worker at the Ambassador Hotel where the shooting took place, and two people who were wounded in the shooting, Ira Goldstein and Irwin Stroll.

Sixteen witnesses registered for appearance before the Grand Jury, although 26 had been subpoenaed.

Observations

by Paul Xuereb MP

On Kennedy

I HAVE just heard the most disturbing news that has for the third time in five years shaken the world's conscience. Senator Robert Kennedy celebrating his California primary victory was shot, taken to hospital and found to be in a critical condition. (He has since died).

What can one say on this tragic event? There are no fit enough words to express one's disgust and one's sorrow.

American morality has never figured in my estimate anywhere near an acceptable level. A rich country that has so many poor and outcasts may boast to be a democracy, but it is nothing more than a big jail of human misery and a savage jungle. But then what can one expect? Most of the films coming out of America deal with blazing guns speaking death and the most cruel and barbaric instincts of human nature. I am quite sure this so-called culture inevitably has a very bad effect on American morality and if such films have not, in such a small place like Malta, it is only because we tend to look at film episodes as happening thousands of miles away and can therefore never happen here.

The leading country of finance in the world is also the leading country of assassins. Few in Malta are perhaps aware that when President Franklin D. Roosevelt was campaigning for his first Presidential election an assassin also intended to finish his life. The bullet hit and killed another person, if I remember correctly, the mayor of Chicago.

Whatever the past, it is the present that is more important and at the moment America is a country covered in shame.

ROBERT KENNEDY SER JINDIFEN QRIB ĦUH

It-traġedja tal-Familja Kennedy

Nhar il-Ħamis li ġhadda, 25 siegħa wara li ġie milqut mill-balal ta' assassin Ġħarbi s-Senatur Robert Kennedy, kandidat ġħall-Presidenza Amerikana f'din is-sena, miet mill-ġrieħi kawżati u b'hekk kien it-tieni Kennedy fil-familja li ġarrab traġedja hekk kbira.

Nhar il-Ħadd li ġej il-President Johnson iddikjarah bħala jum ta' luttu nazzjonali ġħall-Amerika kollha. Mill-espressjonijiet ta' kondoljanzi li waslu lill-familja Kennedy f'dawn il-ġranet, u mill-importanza mogħtija lil din it-traġedja ġdida, jidher li l-mewt ta' Robert Kennedy tefgħet lid-dinja kollha f'niket kbir.

Il-katavru ta' Robert Kennedy ġie meħud fi New York fejn ġie mqiegħed fil-Kattidraħ Kattoliku ta' St. Patrick. Hawnhekk ġħandu jibqa' sallum is-Sibt u ġmiegħi kbar ta' nies marru juruh ir-rispett tagħhom, ħafna minnhom bid-dmugħ f'ġħajnejhom. Is-senatur Robert Kennedy kien elett minn New York u hemm kien maħbub l-aktar mill-Amerikani.

Robert Kennedy ġħandu jiġi midfun fl-Arlington National Cemetry ta' Washington ħdejn ħuh il-kbir il-president John Kennedy. F'diskors magħmul mill-president Johnson qal: "It-traġedja u l-vjolenza bla sens li kkawżat il-mewt ta' Robert Kennedy titfa' dell ta' niket fuq l-Amerika u fuq id-dinja kollha".

Il-Q.T. il-Papa qaddes ġħall-bżonnijiet ta' ruħ Robert Kennedy. Nhar is-Sibt ġħandu jsir il-funeral solenni fil-Kattidral ta' St. Patrick mill-Arċisqof ta' New York, Cooke li kien ħabib personali tas-senatur.

Sadattant ġħad li instabu ħafna informazzjonijiet fuq il-qattiel ta' Robert Kennedy qed isir tiftix biex tinstab x'kienet ir-raġuni li wasslet lil Sirhan Sirhan jagħmel azzjoni bħal din. L-assassin ma kienx magħruf bħala kriminali, jingħad li ġħex ħajja maqtugħa mill-politika u hawn min isostni li kien jammira l-politika tas-senatur.

Mill-erba' aħwa subien tal-Kennedy issa baqa' Edward magħruf bħala Ted li hu wkoll senatur. Ted kien ikkraxxja b'ajruplan fl-1964 u ġħal xi żmien kien maħsub li ser jibqa' mmankat. X'aktarx li Ted jieħu f'idejh it-tmexxija tal-politika tal-familja Kennedy u hawn min jaħseb li ser joħroġ bħala kandidat ġħal viċi-president ta' l-Amerika.

ELUF TA' NIES IMORRU JARAW IL-KATAVRU TA' ROBERT KENNEDY

NEW YORK, il-Ġimgħa.

Eluf ta' nies jinsabu ġhaddejjin minn ħdejn il-katavru tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy, li jinsab fil-Kattidral Kattoliku ta' S. Patrick fi New York. Il-purċissjoni twila, li tinkludi nies minn kull razza u ta' kull reliġjon, kienet mistennija li tkompli sa tard bil-leil. Bosta minn dawn innies ħdew jibku pubblikament u oħrajn resqu lejn it-tebut ħalli jmissuh jew inkella jbusuh.

F'mument minnhom, meta omm Kennedy daħlet fil-Kattidral, wieħed mit-tfal ta' Robert ħa postu fil-Gwardja ta' l-Unur li kienet preżenti.

Matul il-leil li ġhadda, l-uniku tifel li ġhad fadlilha ħaj Mrs. Kennedy, is-Senatur Edward Kennedy, qaġhad ħdejn il-katavru ta' ħuħ.

Bini Pubbliku, skejjel u kulleġġi fi New York, kienu magħluqa matul il-jum. Ġhada se ssir quddiesa tal-mejtin u wara l-katavru ta' Robert Kennedy jittieħed ġhaċ-Ċimiterju Internazzjonali ta' Arlington, barra Washington.

Hu se jindifen qrib il-qabar ta' ħuħ, il-President John F. Kennedy li ġie assassinat fl-1963.

Il-President L. Johnson iddikjara li nhar il-Ħadd se jkun jum ta' Luttu Nazzjonali.

Il-każ ta' Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, iż-żaġħżugħ emigrant Ġħarbi, li hu akkużat li spara fuq is-Senatur Kennedy, illum kellu jidher quddiem 'Grand Jury' f'Los Angeles, biex jiġi deċiż jekk hemmx każ ta' omiċidju.

Korrispondenti qalu li ntgħażel il-'Grand Jury' ġhal skopijiet ta' Sigurta' minħabba li b'dan Sirhan ma jkollux bżonn jidher quddiem il-Qorti. Diġa' kien hemm theddid biex joqtluh.

L-Assemblea Ġenerali tal-Ġnus Magħquda osservat minuta silenzju bħala tifkira tas-Senatur Kennedy. Dan kien attribut mhux tas-soltu ġhal ċittadin privat.

MEWĠA TA' VJOLENZA ID-DINJA MĦASSBA

L-attakk infami li sar fuq is-Senatur Robert Kennedy bil- konsegwenza traġika tal-mewt tiegħu, ta skoss qawwi lill-opinjoni pubblika amerikana. Nies magħrufa staqsew: x'ser isir mill-Amerika jekk tkompli miexja fittriq tal-vjolenza u tat-terroriżmu? L-inċident ta' Robert Kennedy fakkar f'dak ta' Martin Luther King ftit xhur ilu u f'dak ta' erba' snin ilu tal-President Kennedy, ħu s-Senatur Robert.

Il-President Johnson ikkwalifika dawn l-inċidenti bħala "fenomenu traġiku" u tant hu mħasseb fuq dan il-fenomenu li waqqaf Kummissjoni biex tistudja l-kawżi ta' din il-mewġa ta' vjolenzi. Fost il-membri ta' din il-Kummissjoni hemm l-Arċisqof Kattoliku ta' New York, is-suċċessur tal-Kardinal Spellman, Mons. Cooke. Din l-għażla ma hiex mingħajr tifsira .Il-Knisja Kattolika dejjem ħadet pożizzjoni ċara u soda kontra kull għamla ta' vjolenza u l-influwenza tagħha fid-dinja tinħass anki mill-mexxejja ta' l-Istati. Sir Winston Churchill meta darba kien talab lil Stalin biex jagħti l-liberta' lill-Kattoliċi, għall-mistoqsija ta' Stalin: kemm għandu suldati l-Papa? ,kien wieġeb li l-Papa għandu miljuni ta' fidili mxerrda mad-dinja kollha, li jistgħu jinfluwenzaw il-ħajja tad-dinja.

Hu bir-raġun li l-vjolenza qed tħasseb lid-dinja. Li teħles minn mexxejja billi tispara fuqhom ftit kolpi ta' pistola mhux biss iġib nuqqas ta' demokrazija, iżda tista' tgerrex lill-aħjar nies tad-dinja milli jkomplu jieħdu sehem attiv fil-ħajja politika. Il-President Johnson qal li "din il-vjolenza tista' teqred l-aħjar nies fostna." Dawn l-atti ta' vjolenza huma attentati kontra l-ispirtu patrijottiku ta' dawk li b'sagrifiċċju iridu jiddedikaw ruħhom għall-ġid tal-pajjiż. X'kellu bżonn, per eżempju, jekk mhux għax imħeġġeġ minn sens għoli patrijottiku, is-Senatur Robert Kennedy missier ta' għaxar ulied, li jieħu sehem attiv fil-ħajja politika ta' l-Amerika?

Ir-riżultat tal-Kummissjoni ta' inkjesta, imwaqqfa mill-President Johnson, biex tistudja l-kawżi tal-mewġa tal-vjolenzi ,ser ikun interessanti. Fil-fehma tagħna waħda mill-kawżi huma dawk il-films kollha li qed isiru u jinxterdu b'eluf u li ma jurux ħlief xeni ta' vjolenza u sadiżmu. F'bosta minn dawn il-films il-vjolenza hi inkoraġġita u anki meta l-film ikollu skop li jagħti messaġġ kontra l-konsegwenzi tal-vjolenza, id-deskrizzjonijiet huma magħmula b'tant ħajja li minflok jilħqu l-iskop tagħhom, jilħaq skop kuntrarju.

Hemm bżonn li anki f'Malta u Għawdex, nibdew nirrealizzaw li permezz tat-television qegħdin jingħataw lezzjonijiet ta' delitti u vjolenzi li qed jidħlu bil-mod fil-moħħ u fil-qalb tal-ġenerazzjonijiet taż-żgħar u taż-żgħażagħ u li 'l quddiem jistgħu jħallu effetti ħżiena. Tajjeb li fuq dawn l-affarijiet nintebħu minn issa qabel ma jkun tard wisq.

L-attakk fuq is-Senatur Robert Kennedy, forsi seta' jnessi għal mumenti, atti oħra ta' vjolenza li qed jiġru fl-Ewropa u li ma humiex inqas gravi.

Id-distorbji imqanqla fl-Ewropa mill-istudenti universitarji ma humiex inqas gravi. Meta naħsbu li l-istudenti ta' l-Universitajiet huma l-mexxeja ta' għada, għandna nallarmaw ruħna serjament fuq dan il-fenomenu. Dan il-fenomenu wasal biex jiddomina anki studenti kattoliċi bħalma huma l-istudenti ta' l-universita' kattolika ta' Milan, universita' li — kif jaf kulħadd — salbieraħ tat lill-Italja l-aħjar mexxejja politiċi tagħha.

Il-mewġa ta' vjolenza li qed tiddomina f'parti kbira tad-dinja hi sfida lill-istess ċivilta' tad-dinja. Jekk fiċċivilta' tal-lum il-materjaliżmu qed jieħu post is-sens tal-ġustizzja, ta' l-imħabba u ta' l-ordni, x'ser isir mid-dinja ta' għada? Ser tibda s-saltna tal-kaos?

ROBERT KENNEDY

Pajjiżna għadu jemmen fl-opri tajba

(Minn "WIEĦED MINNKOM")

Kull min segwa fuq it-television Taljan nhar l-Erbgħa, li għaddew, it-traġedja ta' Robert Kennedy, għad għandu, biex ngħid hekk, ix-shock ġo fih u għad għandu f'widnejh il-biki, l-għajjat ta' paniku, l-isteriżmu tal-folla u quddiem għajnejh lil Bobby Kennedy għal tulu fl-art, b'għadira demm taħt rasu, bil-qassis madwaru. Traġedja terribbli. Assassinju selvaġġ.

It-televiżjoni llum qiegħda toħodna madwar id-dinja u bħallikieku tagħmilna preżenti għal kull ma jiġri. Fl-istess ħin it-televiżjoni qiegħda tiddistruġġi l-fruntieri kollha u qiegħda xxerred bħal riħ qawwi fil-foresti inċendji ta' pajjiż fil-pajjiżi l-oħra kollha. L-irvellijiet ta' l-istudenti fiċ-Ċina u f'Pariġi, li bdew sena ilu, xterdu f'bosta mill-bliet tad-dinja: fil-Polonja, f'Berlin, f'Tokyo, f'Ruma, fil-Kalifornja, f'Madrid, f'Londra, f'Belgrade, fi Brussels, fi Praga, eċċ. Iż-żgħażagħ ta' pajjiż jaraw x'sar f'pajjiż ieħor.

Illum il-fruntieri bejn il-pajjiżi qegħdin jispiċċaw. Il-fruntieri ġodda huma dawk bejn ġenerazzjoni u oħra.

IL-FROTT SKOND IS-SIĠRA

Tabilħaqq il-ġenerazzjoni ta' qabel dik tallum ma nistgħux nifhmu biżżejjed il-mentalità, il-filosofija tal-ħajja, l-ideoloġija, il-karattru, l-aspirazzjonijiet taż-żgħażagħ tagħna. F'pajjiżna, li hu pajjiż żgħir bi tradizzjoni kattolika li għadha qawwija, allavolja l-art qiegħda tiċċaqlaq sewwa taħt saqajna, din id-differenza bejn ġenerazzjoni u oħra, allavolja tinħass u kemm tinħass, mhux hekk qawwija u radikali daqs kemm hi f'ħafna pajjiżi oħra.

L-irvellijiet ta' l-istudenti f'ħafna pajjiżi, speċjalment dak kollu li qanqlu f'Pariġi, ġie bħala sorpriza għal missirijiethom u għall-istess gvern. U jekk aħna ma nistgħux nifhmu l-ġenerazzjonijiet ta' warajna inqas huma ma jistgħu jifhmu lilna li donna nagħmlu minn dinja oħra.

B'danakollu, jekk irridu nkunu ġusti u ma nikkundannawx biss iż-żgħażagħ, jeħtieġ li nirrikonoxxu li l-frott tal-lum ġej mis-siġra tagħna u ta' missirijietna.

Id-dinja qatt ma kienet tajba. Iżda ma' tul l-aħħar ġenerazzjonijiet id-dinja, ftit ftit, bdiet titbiegħed mill-ftit, bdiet titbiegħed mill-filosofija nisranija tal-ħajja u taċċetta filosofija materjalista. Il - materjaliżmu tal-lemin, egoista, mimli regħba, bla ġustizzja soċjali, hu ħażin daqs il-materjaliżmu tax-xellug li hu mibni fuq il-mibegħda u fuq il-vjolenza u fuq l-idea rivoluzzjonarja. Il-materjaliżmu filosofiku tal-lemin ġieb il-liberaliżmu lajċista li, bħala reazzjoni wara r-rivoluzzjoni industrijali ta' l-Ewropa, ġieb is-soċjaliżmu marxista u l-komuniżmu. U fid-dinja tallum hawn l-inġustizzja kbira ta' min għandu ż-żejjed u ma jgħinx u ma jagħtix każ ta' min għandu l-ġuħ. Din l-inġustizzja soċjali hi wkoll inġustizzja internazzjonali.

ILSIERA TAL-MAGNI

Iż-żewġ gwerer komplew għaġġlu r-rivoluzzjoni teknoloġika tad-dinja. U llum l-individwu jinsab kważi mgħaffeġ taħt il-ħakma tal-magni. Meta l-istudenti jikkundannaw ċerti aspetti tas-soċjetà t a l - konsumaturi għandhom raġun. Is-soċjetà li hi mmexxija mill-interess tal-qliegħ u tal-flus u tal-kummerċ biss u li ma tagħtix każ tal-problemi soċjali kbar ta' żmenijietna, u tal-futur ta' eluf u eluf ta' żgħażagħ, ma tistax tixgħel l-entużjażmu tal-ġuvintur. L-istudenti, speċjalment l-istudenti tas-soċjoloġija, ma jistgħux ma jmissux b'idejhom il-falliment ta' soċjetà li tgħallimhom ħaġa u tipprattika l-kuntrarju.

L-edukazzjoni ta' ħafna pajjiżi qiegħda ssir atea. Alla ma jidħolx fl-iskejjel qalb it-tfal. Il-familja hi mhedda mid-divorzju u mill-immoralità. U allura ż-żgħażagħ, bla ideali, li jibżgħu li ma jsibux posthom fis-soċjetà, jirvellaw kontra s-soċjetà u jsiru anarkiċi u jridu jkissru s-sistema kollu. Ċertament ħafna żgħażagħ għandhom sehemhom tal-ħtija għaliex il-vanità, il-prusunzjoni, l-arroganza, l-immoralità tagħhom ikomplu jitfgħuhom fuq it-triq tal-vjolenza u tar-ribelljoni.

Iżda l-qofol tal-marda tagħhom hi dik li, fil-parti kbira tagħhom, kellhom edukazzjoni bla bażi reliġjuża.

It-traġedja tad-dinja tallum hi dik li donnha kastig. Dawk li jfittxu li jsalvaw is-soċjetà qegħdin jiġu jew imwarrba jew maqtula. It-tliet leaders kbar ta' l-Amerika, li ppruvaw idaħħlu soċjoloġija nisranija fil-ħajja politika Amerikana — u ma ninsewx li llum l-Amerika qiegħda tmexxi d-dinja — wieħed wara l-ieħor ġew maqtula.

Il-balal li qatlu lil John Kennedy, lil Martin Luther King u lil Robert Kennedy, qatlu wkoll it-tama ta' miljuni ta' suwed, ta' fqar, ta' imġewħin fl-Amerika Latina u fid-dinja kollha, li issa faċilment jaqgħu vittmi ta' min ixewwixhom għall-vjolenza.

Jekk De Gaulle, bid-difetti tiegħu kollha, ma jirbaħx fi Franza u jirbħu l-partiti tal-vjolenza, dak li ġara fi Franza jista' jiġri kullimkien. U jekk il-miljuni li ttamaw fir-riformi ta' l-aħwa Kennedy u fl-apostolat ta' Luther King jitilfu t-tama, id-dinja tista' tgħaddi f'qasir żmien minn sigħat koroh. Huma miljuni ta' nisa fqar u suwed fl-Amerika li qegħdin jibku ma' omm u mal-mara ta' Bobby Kennedy kif bkew ma' omm u mal-mara ta' John Kennedy u ftit xhur ilu mal-mara ta' Luther King.

IT-TBISSIMA TAĊ-PAPA GIOVANNI

Pajjiżna hu pajjiż żgħir u, sa issa, allavolja s-sħab ilu jinġema', għadu ma nqabadx f'din is-sakra selvaġġa, kodarda, krudila u diżastruża tal-vjolenza bħala arma politika. Kellna aħna wkoll mumenti koroh li ġew dominati.

Ir-raġuni li sa issa salvatna hi t-tradizzjoni kattolika tagħna, l-edukazzjoni fil-familja tagħna u t-tagħlim reliġjuż li nagħtu lil uliedna.

Ir-reliġjon fl-iskejjel, fil-Museum, fid-dar, fl-Għaqdiet kattoliċi, fuq l-istess Rediffusion u Television tagħna, allavolja llum qiegħda fil-perikolu serju li tiġi fgata mill-materjaliżmu, mill-immoralità, mill-amoralità ta' ċerti films, kotba u ġurnali li ta' kuljum qegħdin jinjettaw fiż-żgħażagħ u fiż-żgħar ukoll il-velenu ta' filosofija pagana, għadha issostnina.

LIL ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Bħal berqa ġriet malajr mad-dinja kollha,
Id-dinja tkexkxet b'din l-aħbar, u bkiet
Lil Robert Kennedy li minn qalb il-folla
Intlaqat b'balla f'rasu, u l-għada miet.
B'mewtu fuq l-art intfiet vampa ta' mħabba
U xegħlet kewkba tiddi fis-smewwiet;
B'demmu li ċarċar mingħajr l-art ma tabba'
Kiteb storja ta' ġieħ, f'erba' kelmiet:
"Id-dinja kollha tħossha għalija mriegħda,
Għax ridt is-sliem bejn l-aħwa sfajt maqtul;
Qabel ma d-dinja toħnoq il-mibegħda
M'għandhiex tistenna sliem u kwiet li jtul."
Jibqgħu jfakkruh il-ġnus, kif fakkru 'l ħuh
Li b'mewtu għadhom s'issa jimsħu d-dmugħ.

THOUSANDS WEEP AT KENNEDY'S FUNERAL

Johnson Leads mourning

THE body of the murdered Senator Robert F. Kennedy left New York aboard a black-draped train today on a four-hour journey to his last resting-place alongside his assassinated brother, the late President John F. Kennedy.

Tens of thousands of New Yorkers, many weeping openly, lined the cortege route to pay their last respects to the Senator after a Requiem Mass where President Johnson, for the second time in office, led the nation in mourning a murdered Kennedy.

The most moving moment of the two-hour funeral service came when the dead

19-YEAR OLD DANCER, Kathy Fulmer, detained for questioning by the Police in connection with Senator Kennedy's assassination, has been released. She categorically denied having said "we shot him" as reported by witnesses who attributed the words to a girl in a white polka dress who ran out of the hotel after the shooting.

presidential candidate's brother, Senator Edward Kennedy urged the world to remember his brother "simply, as a good and decent man who saw wrong and tried to right it". (See page 14).

The tightest-ever security for a presidential visit here was clamped down for Mr. Johnson's visit — so that no other grim tragedy would mar this day of bitter mourning.

The President and his bullet-proof car were both flown to New York and he was under constant watch by armed agents even throughout Mass.

During the Requiem Mrs. Ethel Kennedy, veiled in black, her lips moving in silent prayer, still looked stunned.

Before Mass began Edward Kennedy, the younger brother of the dead Senator, stared fixedly for long minutes at the simple mahogany coffin, draped with the Stars and Stripes.

Arlington burial

Stringent security precautions sealed off Pennsylvania station as the funeral train waited to start its journey to Washington for the burial at Arlington National Cemetery. There, on a grassy hillside overlooking the capital, Senator Kennedy will be placed beside his brother.

DAY OF MOURNING TODAY

PRESIDENT Johnson has declared today to be a National Day of Mourning in the United States of America for Senator Robert Kennedy.

As a mark of respect, flags on all public buildings in Malta will be flown at half mast.

A woman accused of trying to smuggle three loaded guns into the Los Angeles prison, where the alleged assassin of Senator Robert Kennedy is being held, has been charged with taking firearms into a penal institution.

THE TRAGEDY OF VIOLENCE

THE terrible tragedy of Senator Kennedy's assassination, at the moment of victory in the California primary election, came to a solemn end yesterday with Mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, and subsequent burial at the national cemetery of Arlington.

There Senator Kennedy rests close to his elder brother, President John Kennedy, also killed by a murderer's bullet in the same cause of tolerance and racial brotherhood.

The violent death of the two Kennedys and of the Negro leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, has roused American democracy to the danger of the finger on the trigger upsetting the verdict of the most overwhelming majority of electors.

It is indeed a thought-provoking reflection that the U.S.A., the most powerful democracy in the world today, which is doing so much to help the defence and development of other free democracies, should itself face a serious danger from persons who express their opinion more freely with their guns than by the democratic use of a vote.

The United States have suffered a great loss as a result of unashamed violence. Violence, however, is not restricted to the United States. In too many countries voices are heard preaching violence as a deliberate method of achieving political aims. Young and exuberant university students, in so many European countries, have been incited to violence against the establishment. The tragedy of Kennedy's assassination comes as a poignant reminder that the theory of violence, as a weapon of political belief, is a senseless theory which destroys life and achieves nothing but grief and resentment.

Political leaders everywhere have expressed their peoples' feelings of horror and sadness at the death of Senator Kennedy and have expressed their heartfelt sympathy to the Senator's widow, children and parents as well as to the Government and people of the United States.

Before the never-ending timelessness of death, nothing remains but to pray God that Kennedy's supreme sacrifice will not be in vain but will serve to further his cause in America and the world.

SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY SOBS

Funeral oration to slain brother

(Reuter's Service)

NEW YORK, June 8.

IN an emotional funeral oration preceding the requiem Mass for Senator Robert Kennedy Senator Edward Kennedy asked the world to remember his elder brother "simply as a good and decent man who saw wrong and tried to right it."

He described his brother as "a man who loved life completely and lived it intensely."

His voice was broken at the start. But he then declaimed in ringing tones lengthy extracts from the dead Senator's 1966 speech to young South Africans, urging youth everywhere to play its full part in shaping a new world without discrimination or oppression.

Then Senator Kennedy almost broke down, his voice trembling with emotion and half-stifled sobs, as he said:

"My brother need not be idealised or enlarged in death beyond what he was in life."

The dead Senator should be remembered simply as a good and decent man who saw wrong and tried to right it; who saw suffering and tried to heal it; who saw war and tried to stop it.

"Those of us who loved him and who take him to his rest today, pray that what he was to us and what he wished for others will some day come to pass for all the world," Senator Kennedy said.

One man's act

Archbishop Cooke, in a funeral address, praised the dead Senator's "generosity and sense of purpose."

"We must find the courage to take up again the laborious work to which Senator Kennedy devoted all his energies — the building of a great and honourable nation.

"Especially in this hour we must keep faith with America and her destiny, and we must not forsake our trust in each other.

"President Johnson offered this nation wise counsel when he pointed out that 200 million Americans did not fire the shot that ended Senator Kennedy's life. The act of one man must not demoralise and incapacitate 200 million others," the Archbishop said.

Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, widow of assassinated President John F. Kennedy, arranged the music for today's service with Leonard Bernstein, the well known conductor and composer.

One of the hymns sung was the "Navy Hymn" — also played at President Kennedy's funeral — in tribute to Senator Robert Kennedy's two years' service with the Navy from 1944 to 1946.

Mrs. Kennedy wore a black lace mantilla, and sat between her children John Jr. and Caroline. Several of the other young girls of the Kennedy family wore white dresses — as a symbol of hope.

As the Mass began, eight of the youngest children of the Kennedy family moved in solemn procession up to Archbishop Cooke with the bread and wine to be consecrated.

As the members of the Kennedy family took communion, Verdi's "Requiem Aeternam" was played and sung.

After communion, Boston's Cardinal Richard Cushing — long-time friend and confidant of the Kennedy family — pronounced a blessing over Senator Kennedy's coffin, and conducted the final committal ceremony.

As Mass ended, President Johnson moved to the front pew, shook hands gravely with Mrs. Ethel Kennedy and exchanged a few words with her.

Protestant and Orthodox Church dignitaries lined with the Catholic churchmen in procession past the coffin.

Singer Andy Williams, a great friend of the dead Senator, slowly intoned the "Battle Hymn of the Republic", with the choir taking up the chorus "Glory, Glory, Hallelujah."

As the coffin was borne out through the doors of the Cathedral, the choir sang the "Hallelujah chorus" from Handel's "Messiah".

The pall-bearers, who included former Defence Secretary Robert McNamara, gently placed the coffin in a grey hearse.

Evoking poignant memories of the funeral of the late President, when Robert Kennedy comforted and supported the widowed Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, Senator Edward Kennedy helped Mrs. Ethel Kennedy down the steps of the Cathedral and into a car.

EDWARD KENNEDY delivering the oration

LONDON MOURNS ROBERT KENNEDY

BY OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT

LONDON NEWS this week has been almost totally eclipsed by events in the United States. News on Wednesday morning that Senator Robert Kennedy had been shot stunned London into shocked disbelief.

By Thursday night, following the Senator's death, over 5,000 people had signed books of condolence at the United States Embassy in Grosvenor Square. It was at 7.30 when I visited the Embassy to sign the book myself.

I joined a queue of about forty people who filed towards two black books beside a framed photograph of the slain Senator in the Embassy's marble entrance hall. Not a word was spoken and there was obvious grief on the faces of many who had come to pay tribute — young and old.

One entry in the book said: "To youth, he meant hope." Another: "God forgive us."

On Wednesday evening Sammy Davis, Jnr., a close friend of the Kennedy family, told me before he appeared on the stage in London: "No good will come of this assassination. When John Kennedy died, everyone thought that some good would come, that his ideal would never die. When Martin Luther King was murdered I thought the same again. But nothing has ever emerged. It won't now that Bobby's dead.

"We seem to be living in an age where the bad man lives and the good man continually dies."

Words cannot measure the tragedy of Senator Kennedy's assassination. He represented hope for the future to many both in the United States as well as overseas.

Tragically, no lesson was learned from the deaths of President Kennedy or Martin Luther King. We must pray that now some good will come from the tragedy.

KENNEDY

Malta's people, ever-ready to share in others' grief and to merge their sorrow and prayer with those directly afflicted, extend the deepest sympathy to Mrs. Ethel Kennedy, mother of ten children, in the dark hours following the murder of husband and father, Senator Robert Kennedy. Shot down, as was his brother the President, Senator Kennedy dropped the torch which was lighting a way for poor and suffering fellow-beings.

Picture above shows the Holy Father with Senator Robert Kennedy. The Senator, a devout Catholic, had been received by Pope Paul on several occasion. On each and every occasion the theme of their talks had been that of world peace; Mr. Kennedy favoured descalation in Vietnam.

IS ANYBODY SAFE?

by

Herbert Ganado

Senator Robert Kennedy was gunned down at Los Angeles on Wednesday and died on Thursday last. Before he lost consciousness he asked: "Is everybody safe?" It was most touching that his last thought was for the welfare of others.

'Bobby' Kennedy, as he was affectionately known was profoundly loved by his supporters, cordially hated by his opponents.

His too-clever handling of politics, which at times seemed to border on opportunism, alienated from him much public sympathy even in his Party. But his sincere and deep interest for the poor, the hungry and the oppressed, his championship of the Negro cause, his concern for the Minorities and the underdog, rallied around him the under privileged of the States and of Latin America.

MELTING POT

The disappearance, the violent disappearance of the two Kennedy brothers from the political scene, surely must have an impact on American history.

It might generate a violent reaction from the Negro world. The American Negroes lost their three greatest friends in Martin Luther King and the two Kennedys.

Senator Kennedy's words contained a challenge.

"Is everybody safe?" was his last question. The question which the world, torn by violence in so many of its parts, is now asking is this: "Is anybody safe?"

Violence and political murder are undermining America's world leadership. The United States, the greatest and most powerful democracy, stands for liberty and freedom. And yet four Presidents have been assassinated in its very short history and an attempt on the life of two other Presidents, Roosevelt and Truman, also had been made.

The United States is still a melting-pot of races and peoples. There is unfortunately in it, although a country of affluence, "a rising tide of violence," as the Catholic Archbishop of New York has just stated and "a national trend towards violence" as President Johnson told the nation.

FATAL TREND

Unfortunately, there is also an international trend towards violence. Vietnam, the Congo, China, the Middle East, Nigeria, the riots in the American cities and the University scenes of violence in so many world capitals — all constitute an alarming feature of the international situation.

The world is definitely entering into a critical period of its history. Undoubtedly the collapse of religious and moral values is at the root of this crisis.

VIOLENCE

The most disturbing, not to say alarming, aspect of this new tide of violence is the fact that the philosophy of violence, as a social weapon, is getting hold of the young generations and especially of the University students in so many parts of the world.

It is not an idle exercise to underline the fact that the murderer of Robert Kennedy is a frustrated angry Arab of 24 years.

ANARCHY

The unnatural state of frustration among the young is surely an outcome of the state of contemporary society after two World Wars and the reaction to a dominant cynical materialist philosophy which is undermining Christian civilisation.

The challenge of the young students is not a challenge for reform, which would have been a healthy impulse, but a destructive challenge against society itself.

The student anarchists are to the left of Communism itself. They look upon Communism, and upon Soviet Russia, as a movement and as a country sold out to materialism, subjected to too much discipline, to bureaucracy, to economics and to political manoeuvre.

Their ideology is a vague ideology of their imagination. "Imagination has seized power" said one of the Paris posters.

The leaders of the revolutionary section of the University students take their inspiration from Guevara, the Cuban revolutionary, from Lenin and Trotsky. Their contemporary philosopher is the German-born American Professor Marcuse.

THE 'ELITE'

"Students", writes Marcuse, "are almost the only adults not absorbed into the productive sphere. They, therefore, have a special opportunity to form that enlightened elite which alone can define "true" and "false" needs and decide who is to be tolerated.

"The workers have become dependents of the status quo. The only immediate allies of the elite are those who know they are exploited, such as the Negroes, the very poor and the students.

"The role of the elite is therefore to agitate and provoke the system until it unleashes the police. This will then awaken more and more people so that there will be a spontaneous revolution."

Maturity will bring to the young students of today a new outlook on life. But many of them will be the ring leaders of the upheavals of tomorrow.

Only religion can save the world. And the world is throwing religion overboard.

The three great American leaders with a moral social ideology have been murdered.

L-effetti tal-mewt ta' bniedem kbir jitqisu ħafna mir-riperkussjonijiet li jħallu warajhom. Fil-każ ta' Robert Kennedy, maqtul mill-id krudila tal-vjolenza li ftit ġimgħat biss ilu ħasdet lil Martin Luther King, bħalu fl-ewwel fruntiera fil-ġlieda ġħall-paċi u t-tolleranza, dawn ir-riperkussjonijiet jinħassu mhux biss f'pajjiżu iżda wkoll fir-ribalta tal-politika internazzjonali.

Bob seta' ma jasalx ġħall-vittorja fl-elezzjonijiet presidenzjali, seta' anke jitlef il-ġlieda ġħan-nominazzjoni demokratika, imma l-impronta tiegħu fuq il-politika Amerikana, politika li magħha hija bil-bosta marbuta l-politika ta' tant pajjiżi fid-dinja, kienet destinata li tkun impronta qawwija, li ddum u b'effetti importanti.

L-istorja mgħoddija tiegħu tixhed biżżejjed kemm kien viċin ta' ħuh, il-mejjet u daqsu mibki John F. Kennedy, meta dan kien jokkupa l-kariga presidenzjali u speċjalment fiż-żmien kruċjali tal-kriżi ta' Kuba. Jixhdu wkoll l-attivitajiet tiegħu f'dawn l-aħħar snin, u b'mod partikolari f'dawn l-aħħar xhur, meta ħadem tant biex tinsab soluzzjoni paċifika ġħall-gwerra tal-Vietnam.

F'pajjiżu mbagħad hu kien fost l-ewlenin fit-taqbida ħarxa ġħall-egwaljanza tarrazez u l-vot pożittiv li tiegħu kien qed jiċċelebra l-vittorja fil-mument traġiku ta' ħajtu huwa xhieda ta' kemm tassew in-nies foqra, dawk ittrattati ħażin, iċ-ċittadini li qegħdin isofru d-diskriminazzjoni, kienu jħarsu lejh bħala sostenitur tad-drittijiet tagħhom.

Dan hu passat glorjuż li kien joffri mera sabiħa ġħall-futur. U forsi huwa ta' konsolazzjoni l-ħsieb li t-triq li kien miexi fiha u li fuqha kien qed imexxi lil ħaddieħor warajh mhix ser tibqa' vojta. L-idejal ta' Robert Kennedy ma mietx. Il-familja Kennedy kellha erbat irġiel: wieħed miet f'diżgrazzja ta' l-ajru, il-President John miet assassinat u l-istess ġralu ħuh Robert Kennedy. Irraba' wieħed, Edward Kennedy kemm kemm kien ħelisha minn diżgrazzja ta' l-ajru. Dan barra mwiet u mard ieħor fil-familja. John u Robert ħallew familja. L-assassinji ġraw waqt li l-ġenituri, il-Kennedy ix-xjuħ, għadhom ħajjin. Dan kollu jpoġġi lill-familja Kennedy bħala familja sfortunata, minkejja l-flus, minkejja l-fatt li membri tal-familja okkupaw karigi importanti għal snin sħaħ.

Għalhekk fuq il-pjan familjari, il-familja Kennedy hi preżentata bħala familja sfortunata. Familja kollha duluri. U minn dal-lat it-traġedja ta' Kennedy iħossuha l-familji, ir-romol, l-ommijiet u l-morda tad-dinja kollha.

Iżda forsi dan hu l-aspett l-inqas importanti tat-traġedja. Għalkemm ikun żball li nissottovalutawh. Għax forsi l-Amerika llum tinsab f'hiex inhi proprju kawża tal-fatt li fl-imgħoddi viċin issottovalutaw is-sinjifikat ta' dawn it-traġedji familjari li minnhom il-pajjiż ra ħafna.

Il-kummissjoni hi presjeduta minn Dr. Milton Eisenhower, ħu l-ex-President Dwight Eisenhower u li qabel kien president tal-John Hopkins University. Fost membri oħra l-kummissjoni għandha lill-arċisqof Kattoliku ta' New York, Mons. Terence Cooke; Mrs. Patricia Harris, professur tal-liġi f'Howard University u li kienet l-ewwel ambaxxatur negro mara; u żewġ senaturi, Roman Hruska (Repubblikan, Nebraska) li kien kontra l-kontroll ta' l-armi u Philip Hart (Demokratiku, Michigan) li kien favur il-kontroll ta' l-armi.

TLIETA INFILA

L-Amerika llum hi preżentata quddiem id-dinja bħala pajjiż fejn ebda politikant jew figura importanti mhu ċert li mhux se jaqa' vittma ta' balla ta' assassin.

L-assassinji politiċi ġew tlieta infila: fit-22 ta' Novembru, 1963 ħasdu lil John Kennedy; til-5 ta' April 1968 ħasdu lil Martin Luther King u eżatt xahrejn wara niżżlu lil Robert Kennedy.

Quddiem id-dinja l-Amerika qed tiġi preżentata bħala pajjiż tal-gangsters. Pajjiż kollu korruzzjoni. Pajjiż ta' kapitaliżmu sfrenat fejn qatt m'inti ċert li quddiemek għandek opinjoni ġenwina u sinċiera.

Pajjiż mingħajr ruħ.

Art l-iktar għanja fid-dinja iżda li fl-istess ħin tittollera faqar enormi f'nofsha.

Nazzjon li tilef l-indirizz tiegħu.

Poplu li ma jafx x'irid u 'l fejn qed jaqdef.

Għal ħamsa u għoxrin sena sħaħ l-Amerika ddominat il-Punent iżda llum donnha tilfet l-awtorita' morali li taħmel dan.

F'ħajnejn kulħadd l-Amerika saret xi ħaġa donnha ta' stmerrija: mhux meta tħares lejn dak li jippriedka dak u l-ieħor imma meta tara l-fatti u tara l-istejjer ta' wara l-kwinti.

LIBERTINAĠĠ

Huma sbieħ il-priedki dwar id-demokrazija, huwa sabiħ li nitħaddtu fuq 'consensus politics', imma meta niġu għall-fatti nsibu korruzzjoni enormi, kumplotti u terroriżmu li fnew linnazzjon.

Għożżobni ħafna l-kumment tal-Prim Ministru Holyoake ta' New Zealand: "For the United States to lose its gifted men in this way is a sad distortion of the freedoms which they in turn have fought to preserve".

Għax fl-Amerika l-liberta' donnha ddeġenerat f'libertinaġġ. Dana bi skandlu għad-dinja kollha.

X'inhuma l-implikazzjonijiet tal-mewt ta' Kennedy għall-futur?

L-ewwelnett irridu naraw x'tilfet l-Amerika meta tilfet lil Robert Kennedy, apparti mir-riperkussjonijiet ta' l-assassinju fih innifsu u l-effetti ta' l-iskandlu fih innifsu sew fl-Amerika stess drittijiet ċivili u nforza d-deċiżjoni tal-1954 tal-Qorti Suprema dwar desegregazzjoni ta' l-iskejjel. Huwa ġġieled għad-drittijiet tas-Suwed fis-Sud. Huwa uża t-truppi federali biex jinforza d-dritt taż-żaħżuġħ Iswed James Meredith li jattendi l-universita' ta' Mississippi.

Robert Kennedy kien bassar li fi żmien 30 sena l-Istati Uniti kien ikollhom President Iswed. Huwa kien irriżenja mill-Metropolitan Club ta' Washington meta rrifjutaw li jdaħħlu bħala soċju lil George Weaver, segretarju ta' l-istat Negro.

Dwar dik li hi politika internazzjonali, ma' Robert Kennedy forsi wieħed kien jaf inqas fejn hu.

Veru li dan l-aħħar ħareġ b'ruħu u b'ġismu favur il-waqfien ta' l-ibbumbardjar tal-Vjetnam ta' Fuq, imma fil-karattru ta' Robert Kennedy (forsi tal-Kennedys) wieħed jinnota li l-popolarita' hu kien iħobbha u kien jaf jieħu pożizzjoni li tiġbidlu popolarita'.

Ħafna jinnotaw li kien wara li Eugene McCarthy wera suċċess fil-politika tiegħu kontra Johnson fil-preliminarji ta' New Hampshire, li Robert Kennedy intefa' fil-ġlieda presidenzjali.

Hu ammess li wara kollox Robert Kennedy kellu ċans kbir li ma kienx jirbaħ in-nominazzjoni Demokratika għal President. Pero', ġewwa jew barra l-White House, Robert Kennedy kien xorta waħda jibqa' t-TAMA ta' dawk li kienu jemmnu fih.

It-traġedja għall-armonija interna fl-Istati Uniti qegħda filfatt li bniedem bħal dan mhux, ma telax President, iżda twarrab u ħalla VOJT.

Il-periklu hu li l-aċċentwazzjoni tan-nuqqas ta' armonija twassal għal iktar estremiżmu. B'diżastru għall-Amerika u għad-dinja.

L-awgurju tagħna hu li fl-Amerika l-mexxejja li għadhom ħelsuha mill-bullet (!!) jifhmu li dak li kien jirrappreżenta Robert Kennedy għadu hemm avvolja bit-tneħħija ta' Kennedy u Luther King forsi m'hemmx vuċi soda u rispettata biżżejjed biex dan iżżommu kontinwament quddiem l-opinjoni pubblika Amerikana u mondjali.

Il-moviment għadu hemm għalkemm forsi temporanjament m'ħandux il-portavuċi xerqa.

Osservazzjonijiet tal-gimgha

WAQT li qed taghti l-ahhar qima taghha, illum id-dinja ghadha tinsab ixxukkjata u mbellha bil-qtil tas-Senatur Robert F. Kennedy. Sal-lum hafna minnha ghadhom ma jistghux jemmnu kif ghal darba, darbtejn u tliet darbiet f'temp ta' żmien hekk qasir, il-poplu ta' l-Istati Uniti ta' l-Amerika kellu jkessah lid-dinja b'assassinji politiċi hekk krudili.

Bhal hafna nifhem li minhabba ghemil ta' individwu m'ghandux jehel nazzjon shih. Jekk ninsew l-assassinji li saru qabel li fihom Presidenti Amerikani sfaw vittmi u niehdu l-ahhar każi individwali — li hasdu lill-President John Kennedy, Dr Martin Luther King u lis-Senatur Robert Kennedy — dejjem nistghu naslu ghal xi kwalita' ta' ġudizzju li l-poplu ta' l-Istati Uniti bhala tali jista' jiġi eskluż minn kull htija. Iżda jekk inharsu lejn dawn id-delitti politiċi kollha f'daqqa, nežaminaw l-ideat, l-opinjonijiet u l-politika li kienu jhaddnu l-vittmi taghhom u nharsu lejn in-nuqqasijiet tal-poplu Amerikan lejn il-popli l-ohra tad-dinja ma nistghux inkomplu nduru mal-lewża u ma nakkużawx lil dan il-poplu b'korruzzjoni u intolleranza.

Dawn huma l-aktar żewġ gwajjijiet li mhux biss qed jifnu lill-Istati Uniti ta' l-Amerika iżda r-riperkussjonijiet taghhom qed ikollhom

JIKTEB

l-effett fuq il-popli l-ohra. Ghalhekk kull dawl li jfeġġ li jista' jfejjaq xi wahda minn dawn il-feriti mhux biss jiġi milqugh bil-ferha minn hafna Amerikani imma anke l-bqija tad-dinja tinghaqad u taghti l-appoġġ taghha.

Nistghu nghidu li l-problemi li qed jiffaċċjaw lill-poplu Amerikan huma problemi li jolqtu lilna wkoll. Ghalhekk bil-fors l-interess taghna fil-ġrajjiet Amerikani. Ma jistax ikun li ahna ma nurux id-dispjaċir taghna li nazzjon hekk setghan jinsab mifni bi glieda razzjali hekk harxa li malmixja taż-żmien qed dejjem thalli aktar vittmi taghha. Ma nistghux ma jiddispjaċiniex ghat-traġedja li l-gwerra tal-Vjetnam qed tfisser ghal bosta familji Amerikani.

MILL-BANDA l-ohra ma nistghux ma nifirhux meta naraw li fost dan il-poplu, li kulma jmur qed jitlef is-sens ta' fiduċja mal-popli l-ohra, kultant ifeġġu nies hekk nobbli bhall-President John F. Kennedy, bhal Dr Martin Luther King u bhal Robert F. Kennedy li lkoll juru hila u determinazzjoni li jfejjqu dawn il-feriti li jekk ikomplu jikbru mhux biss jipperikolaw il-hajja tal-poplu Amerikan iżda l-istess umanita' thoss il-weġgha taghhom.

Iżda ghal tliet darbiet il-poplu Amerikan kellu l-hila li jahsad u jkessah lid-dinja b'assassinji politiċi hekk koroh. Illum, mad-difna tas-Senatur Robert F. Kennedy, id-dinja difnet ukoll kull tama li n-nazzjon li jippretendi li hu l-akbar kampjun tad-demokrazija jasal biex b'ġustizzja jsolvi l-problemi razzjali li qed jifnuh u jehles lil hafna familji li jikkomponuh mittbatija bla htieġa li qed isofru minhabba gwerra li jinsabu mitfughin fiha bla htieġa. Mad-difna tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy, ghal darb'ohra qed jindifen kull sens ta' tolleranza, li jiftahar biha l-poplu demokratiku Amerikan. Mad-difna ta' Kennedy qed jintradam ukoll kull sens ta' fiduċja li d-dinja seta' kellha fil-poplu Amerikan. Ghal darba ohra in-nazzjon l-aktar sinjur u setghan hu hati ta' nuqqas lejn l-umanita'.

Ir-rispett u l-luttu osservat f'dawn il-jiem huwa ftit wisq biex ipattu ghan-nuqqasijiet ta' dan il-poplu. Mhux se jkun ghada li l-fiduċja mitlufa terġa' tintrebah. Iżda jkun ghajb jekk dawn it-tliet traġedji ma jwasslu ghal xejn. Jista' dan il-poplu li ghoġbu jelimina l-ġisem ta' dawn it-tliet eroj jirrepara billi jaghti hajja lill-memorja taghhom u jara li jitwettaq dak kollu li minhabba fih, John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King u Robert F. Kennedy, ghażlu li jitilghu l-altar tas-sagrifiċċju. Jekk jaghmlu dan tista' d-dinja, li mhix se tinsa n-nuqqasijiet ta' dan il-poplu, ghall-inqas tasal biex tahfirlu.

Is-Senatur Robert Kennedy

L-AĦBAR għall-ġarrieda ta' l-assassinju tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy kienet l-akbar ġrajja tal-ġimgħa u ma setax ma jkunx hekk minħabba l-implikazzjonijiet li dil-ġrajja ġġib magħha.

Fi programm ta' aħbarijiet fuq it-T.V. smajna lis-Senatur jistqarr li huwa ddeċieda li joħroġ għall-Kanditatura tal-Presidenza biex jitneħħew id-differenzi bejn Fqir u Ġħani,..... Iswed u Abjad,..... u li biex dawn l-affarijiet ikunu jistgħu jintlaħqu huwa meħtieġ li jitbiddlu dawk in-nies li jmexxu l-amministrazzjoni, jiġifieri President ġdid b'ideat ġodda, ġusti, umani, qaddisa.

Fil-Kalifornja kien għadu kif wettaq rebħa kbira fuq ir-rival tiegħu. Fit-Texas ma tantx seta' jirbaħ minħabba l-fatt li Texas hija fortizza ta' Johnson u għalkemm Mr Johnson se jwarrab,..... il-partitarji ma tantx jaħmlu lil min ikkonfuta lil Johnson tagħhom fuq ħafna prinċipji, fosthom il-gwerra tal-Vjetnam.

GĦALIEX?

Ħafna staqsew għaliex is-Senatur Kennedy kien il-vittma ta' dan l-att hekk barbaru. Mhux għalkemm wieħed jiddetermina sewwa u b'ċertezza.

Ħafna qalu li l-Amerikani dardru d-dinja b'dawn l-atti ta' vjolenza. L-assassinju tal-President John F. Kennedy mhux biss li għadu ma ntesiex imma qisu sar il-bierah!

PERSUNAGG TAL-ĠIMGĦA

Wieħed irid iqis li l-Amerika hija kontinent u għalhekk meta nitkellmu fuqha ma rridux naħsbu dwarha b'mentalita' ristretta ta' Gżira ta' ftit mili! Kontinent ikollu problemi kontinwi, bħalma huma dawk tar-razez, kulturi, reliġjonijiet, politika internazzjonali eċċ., eċċ.

Issa nafu l-assassin min kien. Huwa qal li kull ma ġħamel, ġħamlu ġħal pajjizu! Din l-istqarrija hija skuża verament ivvintata u li ma ssostnix! Pajjizu, jekk kellu, ma kienx jinsab f'ebda periklu mill-Amerika bħala tali aħseb u ara mis-Senatur Kennedy li kien ġħadu 'l boġħod ħafna mill-"White House".

Min qatel lill-President Kennedy ġħalfejn kien qatlu?..... Xi ħadd jista' jġħid b'ċertezza? .....Ħadd ma jista' jġħid ħlief min kien qabbad lill-assassin biex jisparalu! Ikun ibleħ min jiblaġħha li l-assassin tal-mejjet President Kennedy ma kien qabbdu ħadd u li ġħamel dak li ġħamel bi spinta personali. M'aħniex tant boloħ!

U dal-Palestinian li spara fuq is-Senatur Kennedy, spara fuqu "ġħal pajjizu"?.....

Jista' jiġri l-kaz, ġħax kollox jista' jiġri, li bniedem ittiħ fernežiia u iaġħmel waħda minn tiegħu. Irius sħan ieżistu u nies eċċentriċi wkoll imma biex wieħed lidħol fil-folla u..... jispara fuq persunaġġ ta' dik l-importanza..... aktar irid ikun hemm moħħ floku bi skop determinat quddiemu milli irid ikun hemm moħħ żbilanċiat.

Raġunar bħal dan jindika li l-assassin ried ikun imqabbad minn ħaddieħor, imqar jekk forsi kien ta' natural eċċentriku. Nġħiduha kif iħi: Ma tantx qegħdin nisimgħu b'attentati simili minn imġienen u kull attentat li nisimgħu bih, ikun sar bi skop determinat.

Dan l-aħħar qrajna ktieb ġdid Amerikan "Imperial Agent" — "The Goleniewski-Romanov Case", u minnu rajna kemm huma effiċjenti s-servizzi sigrieti Amerikani.

Frattant dak li nistgħu nġħidu hu li s-Servizzi Sigrieti Amerikani ma sabux x'kienet ir-raġuni li ġħaliha l-President Kennedy kien ġie assassinat u forsi l-anqas isibu ġħaliex dal-Palestinjan li ilu ħdax-il sena fl-Amerika, ... wettaq attentat hekk barbaru. Forsi, jekk tinsab il-veru raġuni, l-iskandlu li tieħu d-dinja jkun akbar.

ROBERT KENNEDY MIDFUN

DARLINGTON, Virginia, is-Sibt.

IS-SENATUR Robert Kennedy ġie midfun il-lejla fiċ-ċimiterju ta' Arlington ħdejn ħuh, il-President John Kennedy li wkoll kien ġie assassinat. It-tren, li ngieb fuqu t-tebut, kellu jnaqqas mill-mixi meta ghadda mill-ibliet, biex il-folol li kienu qegħdin jistennew setgħu jagħtu l-aħħar tislimiet taghhom.

It-tren telaq minn New York wara l-quddiesa 'de requiem' fil-Katidral ta' St Patrick. Fost l-2,300 mistednin biex jattendu kien hemm il-President Johnson u rappreżentanti minn aktar minn 50 pajjiż.

Qabel bdiet il-quddiesa, is-Senatur Edward Kennedy, l-aħħar wieħed mill-erba' aħwa Kennedy ghamel eloġju. Hu qal li ħuh m'ghandux jiġi idolizzat f'mewtu aktar milli fil-fatt kien f'ħajtu. Hu ghandu jiġi miftakar sempliċiment bhala raġel tajjeb u diċenti li ra l-ħażin u pprova jirrangah, li ra t-tbatija u pprova jwaqqafha u li ra l-gwerra u pprova jtemmha.

Il-quddiesa ġiet iċċelebrata minn sitt Kardinali, sitt Arċisqfijiet, 18-il Isqof u 200 qassis.

151,000 ruh damu sitt sighat fil-kju qabel il-quddiesa biex ikunu jistghu jghaddu minn hdejn it-tebut.

A WIDOW'S GRIEF

America in deep mourning

(Reuter's Service)

WASHINGTON, June 9:-

President Johnson and millions of ordinary citizens were united in deep mourning on this black Sunday as the American nation showed its anguish over the murder of Senator Robert Kennedy.

Thousands who could reach here made their solemn pilgrimage to the Senator's grave, on a sun-splashed hillside overlooking the capital, where he was laid to rest in the dark hours of last night.

MOURNING FOR ROBERT KENNEDY

Many more, of all creeds, races and colour, packed their local churches in cities, towns, villages and hamlets across the states on this national day of mourning.

By mid-morning some 20,000 pilgrims had already filed sadly past the dead Senator's grave, and as the day drew on a constant flow of men, women and children trod the path to Arlington Cemetery.

As they paid their final personal tributes to the murdered Robert, many paused again to look bitterly towards the grave of assassinated President John F. Kennedy.

Early today, the widowed Mrs. Ethel Kennedy, and her eldest son Joseph spent a long time near the grave.

'THERE'S GOING TO BE A LOT OF ANGER'

By LINO SPITERI

Oxford

MIKE stood in the corner of the common room, waving a butter knife, his toast getting cold. "There's going to be a lot of anger in Africa," he told us very matter-of-fact.

Why? Was he popular there? "Popular? In Africa Kennedy is the only name we know. His brother, John, was second only to Jesus."

Mike is a Negro from the Cameroons. He is a successful trade unionist, big and uncomplicated, good-natured and kind. But he is very aware of his black skin, because he knows what people whose skin is not white are enduring in so many parts of the world. Especially in America, the land of despair and shame.

"We have no one to fight for our rights there, no one." Mike's lament came from the heart.

For hours we had had a sort of shuttle service from the radio to the library. The news flashes were swiftly passed on. And then it came.

"He's dead, he is," with complete finality. There is nothing as final as death.

Plater College is smack in the Oxford green area, almost engulfed by trees, bushes and other greenery. Where birds provide a background of song to one's studies, distracting but marvellous.

Perhaps it was the numbness which gripped me. But the birds were suddenly hushed at the news, and the sigh of the breeze through the grass and the leaves sounded pregnant with pain.

I did not particularly like Robert Kennedy. To me, he seemed too motivated by a thirst for power. But Mike did not think so. Neither did the Mexicans, the blacks and the white poor of America. To them he was a Messiah come to deliver them.

NOW he's dead. Senselessly slain by a bullet. As his brother was. As Martin Luther King was. As hundreds of other, unknown and therefore unsung, Americans have been in recent years.

A feeling of guilt now grips America. And so it should. And let us hope that it lingers, that it twists and turns in America's chest and gnaws at her people's conscience, till they demand — and get — the clean-up that is required.

Kismet cannot be denied. But fate is given too much help in the United States. Guns are so common, so available, and life is so cheap. "They not only have guns," I've just heard Mgr Igino Cardinale say on the radio. "They don't know how to use them." What was needed, said the Papal Nuncio to Britain, was a new moral awareness.

If Robert Kennedy's death brings this about, he may not have died in vain. But will it? Some control has been agreed to about the sales of arms. But arms can continue to be sold. Over 50 per cent of American households have a gun. An average of two people die of gun shots every hour.

Still the National Rifles Association remains mighty and strong. The Constitution continues to lay down the right of people to own arms. It does not matter that these are the 'sixties, that the day of the frontiersman passed long ago. That the casual access to guns today could result in a civil war tomorrow.

But it should matter. Robert Kennedy's assassination should be enough proof of that. But again, will it? Only Americans can tell. And their reply must not be seen in their hair-tearing this week, but in what they do in the months and years to come.

In the meantime, there's going to be a lot of anger. And not just in Africa.

THE CAMPAIGNING KENNEDYS — Senator and Mrs Robert F. Kennedy at a news conference in April following his announcement that he is a candidate for the Democratic Party's nomination as President of the United States.

Robert Kennedy on his way up

FOR a long time after the Dallas slaying of 1963 Robert Kennedy was a shaken man, and for months afterwards he moved about only mechanically. But slowly the old combativeness began to return — and Bobby, seventh of the nine Kennedy children, was the most combative of the clan.

by J.A.C.

"Bobby Kennedy", said Dave Powers, White House courier in Jack's time, "has to be first all the time." That goes for everything, from a game of touch football to managing his brother's Presidential race. When he played touch football his daughter Kathleen, now 16, would occasionally show up with her friends to cheer: "Clap your hands and stamp your feet, 'Cause Daddy's team can't be beat."

In the spring of 1964 when the first feelers were put out to him about the New York Senate race, Bobby seemed uninterested. "All things being equal," he said, "it would be better for a citizen of New York to run."

In fact, Bobby had set his sight on the Vice-Presidency. But he was kidding himself. For one thing he and Lyndon Johnson had always been able to restrain their enthusiasm for one another, and anyhow, Johnson who understandably wanted to be known for his own achievements, had pointedly advised longtime Kennedy aide Kenny O'Donnell only one month after Dallas: "I'll never have a Kennedy on the ticket."

Still Bobby pursued the mirage, until Lyndon finally scratched Kennedy from the sweepstakes in late July in that strange impulsive performance in which he simultaneously ruled out all Cabinet members and officials who met regularly with the Cabinet.

Crestfallen Bobby declared: "I don't think there is much future for me in this city now." Three weeks later he thought he glimpsed a bearable future in New York and he jumped into the Senate race. "If the Democratic Party could have agreed on any other candidiate," he said, "I wouldn't have come in. But there wasn't any agreement."

Bobby's move provoked inevitable cries of "carpetbagger". Despite his protests that he had spent more time in New York than anywhere else, Bobby was Massachusetts-born and -orientated, and a resident of Virginia besides. But he knew where the power was and he quickly lined up New York's Democratic bosses behind him, notably Buffalo's Peter Crotty, Brooklyn's Stanley Steingut, and Charley Buckley of The Bronx. New York's Mayor Robert Wagner, reluctantly, also fell into line. Many Democrats recoiled.

"The political arm twisting has been the worst I've ever seen," said Utica's Richard H. Balch, onetime Democratic state chairman. Noting that Bobby's allies were running in three other states — Piere Salinger in California, Teddy Kennedy in Massachusetts, and Joseph Tydings, who was a US Attorney under Kennedy, in Maryland — with a total of 64 electoral votes among them on top of New York's 43, one Democrat cried: "It will be a United States of Kennedy."

Ruthless

In a meeting with Mayor Wagner, a group of reformers protested: "Bobby Kennedy is a ruthless, unprincipled, frighteningly ambitious young man who intends to use the New York State Democratic Party to launch his presidental ambitions."

Later 120 reformers, including playwright Gore Vidal, Niagara Falls Mayor E. Dent Lackey and actor Paul Newman established a committee to support his rival Keating. Bobby merely snapped: "These people hate everything and everybody, even each other."

In early September 1964, at a sweaty tumultous Democratic convention in the musty 71st Regiment Armoury on Manhattan's lower Park Avenue, Kennedy steamrollered upstate Congressman Sam Stratton, his old rival, 968 to 153. He won the Liberal Party's endorsement the same day.

Aware that the Liberals delivered 406,000 votes to Jack Kennedy in 1960 — more than JFK's 380,000-vote statewide margin of victory — Bobby welcomed their support. The first days of his campaign were a wild triumphal march. He was swamped on Long Island's beaches by hundreds of thousands of Labour Day weekend bathers. In a three-day swing around 'the souther Tier' he made 51 stops in 21 cities, got such an overwhelming reception that people began to talk about "poor old Ken".

In Watertown he outdrew Keating 45 to 1. In Ogdensburg where Keating spoke to a lonely knot of 24 listeners, Bobby drew 2,000. In Jamestown, where GOP Vice-Presidential candidate Bill Miller had a crowd of 250, Bobby lured 4,000.

In Glens Falls, Bobby arrived just before 1 a.m., still found 4,000 people, more than one-fifth of the population waiting for him, many in nightclothes. "I still have problems in this state," said Bobby, "but at least I'm getting a hearing."

But was he? People were seeing him, but the crowds did more shouting than listening, and they were young crowds to boot. "If I had my way," Bobby told the teenagers who thronged him at every stop, "I'd lower the voting age to six — before the election."

Niddeploraw il-Qtil

THE MURDER IS DEPLORED

— DR. SMYTHE

LUQA, il-Hadd.

Dr. Hugh Smythe, l-Ambaxxatur Amerikan ghal Malta, meta wasal lura mill-Istati Uniti wara żjara ta' hmistax-il jum hemmhekk, qal li huma jiddeploraw il-qtil tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy. Hu żied li l-Amerika qed tahdem hafna biex tirkeb hweġġeġ bhal dawn u hija determinata li tnaqqas il-vjolenza kemm jista' jkun.

L-Amerika bhalissa ghandha quddiema programm kbir u twil biex tkun tista' tieħu hsieb il-problemi interni li ghandha.

L-Ambaxxatur Smythe qal li l-bierah hu kien preżenti ghal-Quddiesa tal-Mejtin li saret lis-Senatur Kennedy fil-Kattidral ta' St. Patrick.

L-Amerika u l-qtil ta' Robert Kennedy

L-aħbar traġika tal-mewt tas-senatur Robert Kennedy xterdet nhar il-Ħamis li ġhadda mad-dinja kollha. Hawn Malta, bħal f'pajjiżi oħra, ir-reazzjoni kienet waħda ta' mogħdrija lejn il-familja tas-senatur u ta' ġhadab lejn l-assassin.

Il-maltin ħassew dik il-ħasra lejn il-familja tal-Kennedys; l-aktar familja amerikana milquta minn disgrazzji u traġedji. Malli sar magħruf li Robert Kennedy ġie midrub gravi b'tiri sparati f'rasu f'Los Angeles kullħadd ftakar fl-istess xorti li messet lil ħuh ħames snin iłu, meta l-president John F. Kennedy kien inqatel b'tiri sparati minn assassin f'Dallas.

Ftit wara Robert Kennedy miet ukoll. Din hija mhux biss traġedja, imma hija kważi ħaġa li ma titwemminx kif żewġt aħwa li kienu qegħdin jippruvaw jaqdu lill-pajjiżhom, sfaw maqtulin b'tiri ta' assassiul.

ROBERT KENNEDY u MARTIN LUTHER KING

L-assassinju tas-senatur Kennedy wasal xahrejn wara assassinju ieħor; dak tal-mexxej tas-suwed Dr. Martin Luther King. Dawn iż-żewġ persunaġġi kellhom ħaġa komuni ġħal xulxin: kienu ġellieda tad-drittijiet ċivili tas-suwed. Iżda l-avvenimenti fl-Amerika juru li dawk li jsemmgħu leħinhom favur is-suwed isibu ruħhom persegwitati, minaċċjati jew ..... maqtula. Robert Kennedy u Martin Luther King sfaw assassinati proprju fis-sena tad-drittijiet tal-bniedem.

L-Amerika huwa pajjiż marid, pajjiż ipparalizzat bil-biża' u mimlì indeċiżjonijiet. Il-vjolenza qiegħda tiddomina l-ħajja amerikana u dan qiegħed ikollu riperkussjonijiet diżastruži. Ma setgħax jonqos ġħalhekk li s-senatur Kennedy jisfa' vittma ta' att vjolenti bla sens. Mhux xi sorpriża li miet b'att ta' vjolenza, ġħaliex din saret parti mill-ħajja ta' kuljum tan-nazzjon amerikan.

Il-mewġa ta' vjolenza u biża' ilha żmien taħkem l-Amerika. Xi ħaġa ħażina ħemm fis-sistema li biha miexi l-pajjiż. L-amerikani ġħadhom ma tgħallmuhiex il-lezzjoni ta' l-assassinju ta' Dallas. Huma jħobbu jitkellmu, jsemmgħu u jiftaħru bid-demokrazija, anzi jippretenduha li huma d-difensuri tagħha. Waqt li jitkellmu li jridu jiddefendu d-demokrazija l-amerikani bl-ġħemil tagħhom qegħdin joqtluha. Kif jistgħu l-amerikani jitkellmu fuq id-demokrazija meta ma jrażżnux affarijiet li jeqirduha.

Per eżempju f'isem il-liberta' ta' l-istampa jħallu jidhru artikoli li jkunu mimlijin mibeġħda lejn nies li jippruvaw jagħmlu xi ħaġa ġħall-pajjiż. Proprju b'Metjju li ġħadda dehru artikoli ħorox mimlijin kliem iebes u mibeġħda dwar il-ħajja tas-senatur Robert Kennedy u l-familja tiegħu.

IŻOMMU ARMI BLA LIĊENZJA

Kontra dak li jiġri f'pajji oħra — xi wħud minnhom ċivilizzati aktar mill-Amerika — in-nies fl-Amerika jitħallew jixtru u jbieġħu armi minġħajr permess jew liċenzja. Il-pajjiż ihallihom jagħmlu dan f'isem l-ħekk imsejħa "liberta'".

Ftit jiem qabel mas-senatur Kennedy ġie assassinat, huwa kien mar f'Oregon. Hemmhekk kellu laqgħa qawwija minn folla ta' nies, iżda din id-darba ma kinux favuru, imma kontrih. Billi kienu jafu li s-senatur kien qiegħed jappoġġa mossa tas-senat li tintroduċi r-reġistrazzjoni ta' l-armi, huma ħaduha kontrih u bdew jisfidawh.

Is-senatur Kennedy kellimhom fuq il-vjolenza u l-qtil bla sens li qiegħed ikun ħemm ma' l-Amerika kollha. Wera l-opinjoni li dawn l-affarijiet jonqsu jekk ikun ħemm kontroll ta' dawn l-armi tan-nar.

Ir-reazzjoni tal-folla kienet li bdew iġħajjruh li jrid isir Hitler ieħor. Mara mill-folla ġħajtet li huma jżommu l-armi tagħhom u jżommu wkoll id-demokrazija.

Din hija l-mentalita' ta' xi wħud mill-amerikani! Il-pajjiż huwa marid serjament. Is-sistema li miexi biha hija ħażina u perikoluża. Min huwa b'saħħtu qiegħed ikompli jsir b'saħħtu u l-fqir qiegħed dejjem jiftaqar. Barra minhekk fil-pajjiż qegħdin jiġu ammessi affarijiet li jeqirdu kull demokrazija u liberta'.

Kif diġa' ġħedt is-senat amerikan qiegħed iressaq forma ta' liġi biex l-armi jibdew jiġu rreġistrati. Is-senatur Kennedy kkritika ħafna dan l-abbozz ta' liġi u qal li mhux qawwi biżżejjed. Riedu jkun aktar qawwi biex ikun effettiv.

Is-senatur Kennedy kien ġħadu jiftakar dak li ġħadda minn ħuh John f'Dallas. Kien jaf ukoll li l-istess xorti tista' tmiss lilu billi kien it-target ta' nies fanatiċi. Minkejja li kien jaf dan kollu, Robert kien kuraġġjuż u ma kienx irid prekawzjonijiet ta' sigurta' ġħalih. Kien jafda wisq fin-nies.

Il-Papa bagħat rappreżentant personali għall-Funeral ta' Kennedy

Fil-funeral solenni li sar nhar is-Sibt fil-Kattidral Kattoliku ta' New York il-Papa kien rappreżentat mill-Kardinal Angelo dell'Acqua, Vigarju Ġenerali għall-Belt ta' Ruma. Il-Papa kien diġa' iċċelebra quddiesa b'suffraġju għal ruħ Robert Kennedy malli sema' bil-mewt tiegħu, u kien bagħat telegramm lill-President Johnson u lis-Sinjura Kennedy.

Il-Kard. Dell'Acqua kellu nhar is-Sibt jibda vjaġġ għall-Istati Uniti, Kanada u Ingilterra. Fuq talba tal-Papa, il-Kard. Dell'Acqua ħalla Ruma ġurnata qabel, il-Ġimgħa, biex jista' jkun preżenti għall-funeral ta' Kennedy fil-Kattidral ta' St. Patrick fi New York bħala rappreżentant tal-Qdusija Tiegħu.

Qabel ma telaq minn Ruma, il-Kardinal Dell'Acqua għamel dikjarazzjoni lill-ġurnalisti li qallhom li kellu l-inkarigu mill-Papa li jirrappreżentah fil-funerali tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy. Hu kien kommoss ħafna għall-inkarigu mogħti lilu f'din iċċirkostanza doloruża għaliex huwa stess (il-Kardinal) kien ħabib personali ta' missier Kennedy meta dan kien Ambaxxatur ta' l-Istati Uniti f'Londra. Il-Kardinal Dell'Acqua fakkar kemm rispett u mħabba kellu Robert Kennedy lejn il-Papa Pawlu VI. Fost affarijiet oħra Robert kien taha l-karrozza personali tiegħu lill-Papa għaż-żmien kollu li Pawlu VI dam fi New York meta l-Papa kien mar jagħmel iżżjara storika tiegħu fil-Palazz tal-Ġnus Magħquda.

IT-TELEGRAMM TAL-PAPA

Malli kien sema' bil-mewt ta' Robert Kennedy, il-Papa kien bagħat telegramm ta' kondoljanzi lill - President Johnson u ieħor lil Mrs. Robert Kennedy. It-telegramm tal-Papa lis-sinjura Kennedy, mibgħut permezz tal-Kardinal McIntyre, Arċisqof ta' Los Angeles, kien igħid hekk:

"Waqt li nassigurawk mis-simpatija profonda tagħna f'din it-telfa traġika tiegħek, noffru minn qalbna talb b'suffraġju tar-ruħ tal-maħbub żewġek; u nibagħtu lilek u lil uliedek u lill-membri kollha tal-familja, bħala raħan ta' qawwa u konsolazzjoni divina, il-Barka Apostolika tagħna ta' Missier."

QUDDIESA F'RUMA

'leħen is-sewwa'' — it-tlieta, 11 ta' ġunju, 1968.

REK IS NO LONGER WITH US.

ROBERT KENNEDY M'GĦADUX MAGĦNA

Dawn l-erba' kelmiet bdejt niktibhom ftit sigħat wara li smajt l-aħbar tal-mewt traġika tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy. Għalkemm illum li qed tidher din il-paġna forsi xbajtu taqraw u tisimgħu dwar din l-aħbar ta' swied il-qalb, ma stajtx inħalli barra din il-ġrajja kerha li ħasdet liddinja kollha.

Dan l-inċident reġa' ħadna lura ħames snin ilu meta ġie maqtul bl-istess mod ħu s-Senatur Robert Kennedy — il-mibki President John Kennedy. Din mhix xi ħaġa ġdida fl-istorja ta' l-Amerika, għax jekk inqallbu l-kotba tal-kapijiet politiċi Amerikani, issib mhux wieħed u tnejn li għaddew mill-istess mewta traġika ta' dan is-Senatur li kien mimli ħeġġa u mħabba kbira lejn artu.

Smajna ħafna dwaru — kliem ta' tifħir, ta' ħasra, ta' mogħdrija. Toqgħod taħseb ftit, tiskanta kif il-folja filħajja tal-bniedem tista' tinqaleb bħal lejl minn nhar. Filli qalb Robert Kennedy riedet ittir bil-ferħ għat-tamiet ġodda u sbieħ li nfirxu quddiemu, filli sab ruħu f'temp ta' ftit sekondi jiġġieled bejn mewt u ħajja.

Kien għoddu laħaq il-quċċata tal-muntanja li tant kien ilu jitħabat biex jilħaq, meta donnu li f'daqqa waħda, riġlu marret fil-vojt u tgerbeb għal isfel — f'waqgħa li minnha ma seta' jqum qatt aktar. Il-bniedem jipproponi u Alla jiddisponi — naħseb li dan li għadu kif ġara, huwa huwa eżempju ħaj ta' dan il-qawl.

Omm Robert Kennedy reġgħet għal darb'oħra sofriet dulur kbir b'din il-mewta traġika ta' binha. U xi ngħidu għal martu Ethel u għall-għaxar uliedu li sfaw bla missier ħesrem, hekk kiesaħ u biered? Kapriċċ ta' bniedem wieħed qered il-ferħ u t-tama ta' bosta u bosta nies.

Min jaf x'kellu maħżun f'moħħu, Robert Kennedy? Mill-kliem li smajnih igħid kellu bosta proġetti sbieħ xi jwettaq għall-ġid ta' pajjiżu u ta' dawk li jgħixu fih, l-aktar għall-foqra u għall-familji numerużi. Dawn it-tamiet issa spiċċaw fix-xejn, ħtija tal-vjolenza, li reġgħet tat daqqa ta' ħarta kbira lill-ħajja politika Amerikana.

Tgħid din ser tkun l-aħħar traġedja ta' din l-għamla, f'dan il-pajjiż li huwa meqjus mill-aktar 'il quddiem fiddinja?

Kennedy's trouble with the Jews

THE appeal which Bob Kennedy made to his teenage supporters at every stop in his 1964 New York Senate campaign was described by his opponent Keating as a "blatant emotional appeal to screamers and jumpers". Former Attorney General Herbert Bromwell, who steered Tom Dewey to prominence and helped catapult General Eisenhower into the Presidency, disliked it so much that he emerged from seven years of political retirement to run Keating's campaign.

The primaries started rolling: New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Indiana..... California..... and then.....

"This thing got me sore," he said. "If Kennedy is elected it will establish that a rich man can come in, make a deal with bosses, and change our whole constitutional system. This is outrageous." Which of course it was not, for Keating and his men were working equally patiently on other groups: the racial and religious minority groups that made a majority of New York's votes.

No state in fact has quite the complicated ethnic mix that New York has, and Ken Keating, with 18 years of experience, knew almost instinctively what each of the groups wanted.

One popular sign for example proudly asserted that "Keating and Israel go together like bagels and lox". But Bob Kennedy no. In that same district he spurned the ethnic diet, chose melon, split-pea soup and chocolate milk.

In lower Manhattan's "Little Italy" he asked for a fork when someone offered him a slice of pizza. "You don't need a fork," he was gently advised.

TO HIS dismay in fact Kennedy found himself running poorly among New York's 2,500,000 Jews, who gave nearly 90 per cent of their votes to his brother in 1960, and its 1,500,000 Italians.

formula

Keating's managers talked of getting half of the Jewish vote, two-fifths of the Italian vote — and that, combined with normal GOP majorities upstate and in the suburbs would be a winning formula.

Kennedy's troubles with the Jews stemmed from the days when his father Joseph Kennedy, while Ambassador to Britain, delivered too-vigorous warnings against going to war with Nazi Germany and a too-gentle appraisal of Hitler.

Jack overcame their distrust, but Bobby seemed more like his father's son. And Bobby's onetime association with Senator Joseph McCarthy's investigation committee and his seeming indifference to the fine points of civil liberties aroused further suspicions.

by
J. A. C.

Playing on these suspicions his opponents charged that Attorney General Bob Kennedy had made a 'deal' to sell off part of the Government-held General Aniline and Film Corp.'s assets to a Swiss holding company that was once run by Germany's I.G. Farben, a notorious exploiter of Jewish slave labour.

Keating had proposed selling the assets — some $200 million worth — exclusively to US interests, but in actual fact he made no protest when the deal was announced in 1963.

Jewish liberals now began channelling their contributions to the Johnson-Humphrey and the Keating campaigns, shutting Bobby out. Naturally Bob had to dig deep into his own $10 million fortune to the tune of some $1,500,000. Among the Italian-Americans Keating made inroads by playing on their resentment of the Justice Department's Valachi hearings in which lurid tales of hoodlums with Italian names were told to the American public.

The Greek vote was also nailed down by condemning Turkey's actions in Cyprus. There were at that time only 31,000 Turks in New York, but there also were some 77,000 Greeks.

DESPITE all this concerted effort against him Bob Kennedy however still stood high with other ethnic groups: the Germans (some 675,000 in New York), the Irish (492,000) and the Poles (685,000). As is well known, and as has been repeatedly mentioned during these last days, he also paid particular attention to the state's 2,000,000 Negroes and Puerto Ricans, traditionally Democratic and overwhelmingly anti-Goldwater.

"I do not campaign in search of a Jewish vote or a Catholic vote or a Negro vote," said Bob. But there he was wearing a skullcap for a chat with a Rabbi, there he was at Grossinger's assuring an audience that his father, in his Hollywood days, had been so impressed at how Jewish moviemakers like the Warner Brothers and Samuel Goldwyn raised their children that he had decided to bring his own up the same way.

suspicion

During that 1964 campaign there had also been a lingering suspicion that Bob Kennedy hoped to use the New York Senate seat only as a springboard to the White House someday. It is well known how he denied this without actually slamming the door. At that stage in his career Bob Kennedy still saw Johnson around after the forthcoming Presidential elections and he did in fact speak in terms of 1972, rather than 1968. Things of course changed fast, very fast.

Vietnam became hotter and hotter; so did civil rights, the dollar, inflation and what not. Came 1968 and the primaries started rolling: New Hampshire Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Indiana ..... California ..... and then.....

Robert Kennedy model father

VALLETTA, Monday.

THE Cana Movement has chosen Senator Robert F. Kennedy, who was assassinated last week, as the symbol and model father for this year's Father's Day which is being celebrated next Sunday.

The aims of the day are to honour fathers, to make the fathers' mission in the family known, to make children understand that they should respect their fathers and to make fathers recognise their responsibility and their share in the children's education.

The movement is holding two competitions for the occasion. One for children under 12 years of age and the other for children in the 12-14 age group.

Competitors are to submit an essay, the theme of which is "The Father". Entries should reach the movement's offices not later than June 30. The results are to be announced in early July.

KIF NAHSIBHA

L-ISTAMPA, it-Television u r-Radju f'dawn il-ġranet imlew kull rokna tad-dinja b'dulluvju ta' ahbarijiet, kummenti, diskorsi, eċċ., dwar il-qtil bestjali tas-Senatur Robert Kennedy, it-tielet mexxej kbir Amerikan li ġie assassinat f'dawn l-aħħar ħames snin. Ghalhekk inhossu kollu żejjed li nżid ma' dak li diġa' ntqal jekk mhux biex, fl-isfond ta' din il-ġrajja tal-waħx, inhares 'il ġewwa lejn ġżiritna ċkejkna mgħammra b'poplu li jrid iġħix fil-paċi u fil-liberta'.

Ghall-grazzja t'Alla, il-poplu tagħna sal-lum ġie meħlus milli jsofri l-biża', is-swied il-qalb u l-umiljazzjoni bħal ma ġew imġieġħla jġarrbu l-miljuni ta' Amerikani — bojod u suwed — f'dawn l-aħħar ġranet, mill-esperjenza tal-qtil ta' Robert Kennedy. Iżda dan ma jfissix li dak li ġara fl-Amerika ma jistax jiġri fi ġżiritna. Bħall-poplu Malti, il-poplu Amerikan, ukoll fil-maġġuranza kbira tieġħu jħobb il-paċi u l-liberta'. Imma ġara li dak li ma stennewx f'mitt sena, ġarrbuh ghal tliet darbiet fi żmien hekk qasir ta' ħames snin.

Hawn Malta m'ghandniex il-liberta' esaġerata li qed ihallsu qares ghaliha l-Amerikani, jiġifieri li kulhadd jista' jaqbad u jixtri anma minghajr ebda kontroll ta' xejn, hi x'inhi l-kondotta tieghek, bir-riżultat ta' disat elef omicidju fis-sena. Ghalkemm dan ix-xiri u bejgh ta' armi bl-addoċċ iġhin ferm it-twettiq ta' delitt, b'danakollu l-kawża prinċipali tinstab fil-passjonijiet mhux imrażżna li jinbtu u jikbru fil-bnedmin; minn ta' quddiem fost dawn il-passjonijiet hemm l-ġhira, il-mibeghda, ir-rghiba ghall-poter u ghall-flus.

Plakka tifkira għal Bobby

Bobby Kennedy kien maħbub bħal ħuh John. U t-traġedja tal-familja Kennedy m'hix traġedja ta' familja iżda waħda li minnha tbati l-umanità kollha, imma speċjalment dawk il-bnedmin li għalihom il-valuri ta' ħajja familjari, integrità politika, dedikazzjoni għall-pajjiż, u reliġjożità huma miżmuma b'mod l-aktar għoli. Għalhekk pajjiżna baqa' imkexkex mill-mewt ta' Robert Kennedy.

B'xorti tajba pajjiżna waqqaf tifkira denja għall-mejjet president John Kennedy. Naħseb li tkun ideja sublimi jekk f'dan il-post kwiet u memorabbli, issir lapida dinjituża li tfakkar l-assassinju ta' ħu l-President. Tkun ħaġa li minbarra li tibqa' memorja għal quddiem tinnobilita lil pajjiżna għax turi s-sentimenti għoljin tiegħu.

Nixtieq ukoll nissuġġerixxi lill-Ambaxxata Amerikana f'Malta li torganizza quddiesa De Requie għal ruħ il-mejjet senatur. Hafna minna Maltin kienu qed isegwu b'ansjetà il-kampanja elettorali tal-mejjet Robert Kennedy u kienu jaraw fih tama ġdida għall-Amerika u għaddiviżjonijiet li hemm fiha. Ittalb tagħna għal ruħu minbarra li jkun ta' konfort spiritwali għalih, iservu biex iqanqlu lil Alla biex iħenn għal dan il-pajjiż hekk kbir fit-tjubija ta' nies li jipproduċi, u hekk imtertaq mit-traġedji ta' ġrajjiet tal-biki.

A NOBLE LEADER

"A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigour of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

"The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.

"This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity."

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

The casket containing the body of Senator R. Kennedy is carried into St Patrick's Cathedral, New York, on Saturday. Among the pall-bearers are two of the slain Senator's sons, Joseph (centre) and Robert Jr (left), and his brother Senator Edward M. Kennedy (between Joseph and Robert Jr).

Senator Kennedy's body was interred at Arlington National Cemetery on Saturday, only a few yards away from the grave of his assassinated brother, President John F. Kennedy.

Looking down at the casket containing the body of Senator Kennedy are Senator Edward Kennedy, and next to him Mrs Robert F. Kennedy and an unidentified sister of the dead Senator, at Los Angeles Airport on Thursday. The casket was being lifted into a Presidential jetliner for its flight to New York.

Frank Mankiewicz reads the statement announcing that Senator Robert F. Kennedy (42) had died

Sparaw ghal Kennedy

Santa Lucija.

Sur Editur,

Wieħed mill-posters tal-ġurnali Maltin, kien iġib dan il-kliem ħawn fuq imsemmi. Wara li qrajt dawn il-kelmtejn, bdejt ingħid f'qalbi: "Ghaliex sparaw ghal Robert Kennedy u mhux ghal xi ħaddieħor li qed jagħmel ħsara lill-umanita'? Forsi Bob ma kellux ideat umanitarji? Forsi dawn l-ideat jistħoqqilhom dan kollu? Min seta' kien hemm wara l-kwinti?" Dawn l-affarijiet, kollha ghaddewli minn moħħi hekk kif qrajt dan il-poster.

Dawn il-mistoqsijiet ħawn fuq imsemmija, malajr ġew imwieġba minn xi ħbieb tieghi, kemm ħaddiema, ukoll professjonisti.

Min seta' kien hemm wara l-kwinti? Forsi dak li spara? Forsi kieku Bobby Kennedy, li kieku sar President, din il-persuna ma kienx igawdi bħalma kienet sejra tgawdi l-umanita'? Mela min kien sejjer ibati b'dawn il-ħwejjeġ? Ħawn qiegħed il-qofol ta' l-argument.

Fid-dinja dejjem hekk ġara; kull min ikollu ideat umanitarji, dejjem sab ċertu tfixkil. Ghaliex? Ghaliex fid-dinja jinsabu nies li dejjem riedu jgħixu bl-injuranza tal-poplu. Dawn dejjem fixklu lil dawk li riedu jagħmlu l-ġid.

Minn dawn l-erba' kelmiet, wieħed ghandu jaħseb min kienu dawk in-nies wara l-kwinti ghal dan il-qtil ta' Bobby Kennedy.

Issa niġu ghall-pajjiżi kattoliċi u naraw x'jista' jsir bit-tixwix..... Fejn hemm dawk il-pajjiżi li huma kattoliċi mija filmija, m'ghandix naħseb li jista' jsir dan, jiġifieri qtil, iżda jista' jsir qtil xort'oħra, jiġifieri li lil dak li jkun joqtluh MORALMENT.

Kemm sar qtil fid-dinja ta' din ix-xorta? Kemm nies ġew irrovinati b'ċertu tixwix? Kemm ħsara saret fid-dinja minn dawn in-nies egoisti li biex ighixu minn fuq l-injoranza..... qerdu nies li kieku kellhom il-ħakma f'idejhom, kienu jagħmlu ġid bosta lill-umanita'?

Bobby Kennedy miet, iżda bil-mewt tieghu kemm l-Amerika wkoll id-dinja ħadet taghlima li biha sejra tgawdi l-umanita'. Isem Bobby Kennedy, naħseb li sejjer jibqa' jissemma ghall-ġejjieni li ta ħajtu ghall-umanita'.

SUBJECT : Reaction to Kennedy's Death

REF :

The public reaction to Senator Robert KENNEDY'S assassination has been compounded of grief and bewilderment. Most phone calls and written expressions of sympathy have almost invariably ended with a sense of utter hopelessness in attempting to progress in the modern world when the leaders of the greatest country in the world are shot down in full public view.

To many, the assassinations in the United States over the last years are robbing them of an ideal. The workability of a democracy as a political system, sacred to Western thought, is being thrown in doubt. To many Swazis, now being asked to begin with their own experiment in self-rule, these events are rather frightening. Behind all questions concerning the killings there lies the question, "Is this what you are asking us to take on?".

To Europeans and the more educated Africans, the lack of gun control laws in the United States is utterly incomprehendable. People in Swaziland can understand the proliferation of guns which exists in the United States because much the same holds true in South Africa. They cannot understand, however, the incapability of the Federal Government to act to control their use. To someone who hasn't ever visited the United States, the diversity of political expression within our political system is difficult to understand.

SUBJECT : Yugoslavs Pay Tribute To Senator Kennedy.

REF :

Throughout Yugoslavia people mourned the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. In letters and telegrams and in personal visits to the Embassy during the period June 7-14 the people, from Federal Executive Council President Mika Spiljak and other high government officials, church leaders, and professional and cultural personalities to ordinary workers, housewives and students, sent expressions of sympathy and sorrow. President TITO sent a personal message of condolences to the Kennedy family and Milentije POPOVIC, President of the Federal Assembly, also sent a more formal message to Vice-President Hubert HUMPHREY.

The accompanying book of condolences reflects in some measure their warm feelings of compassion for Robert Kennedy and his bereaved family. The Department may wish to consider forwarding the book to the Kennedy family along with a copy of the airgram.

People thronged in front of USIS display windows in Belgrade and Zagreb to gaze in silent but poignant tribute before blown-up pictures of the man many of them feelingly referred to as "Bobby" Kennedy. In Zagreb, capital of Croatia, they lit candles on the sidewalk in front of the USIS reading room, and several young girls touchingly affixed flowers to the windows exhibiting pictures of Senator Kennedy.

A special funeral mass was held in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church in Belgrade on Sunday afternoon, June 9. Archbishop Gabriel Bukatko of Belgrade officiated. The eulogy was given in English by Father Mirko POLGAR of St. Peter's. The church was crowded with over 500 persons; many stood through the hour-long service. Among those who attended were the Assistant Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs Radivoj Uvalic and numerous members of the Diplomatic Corps and Embassy staff.

Embassy officers reported that many Yugoslavs whom they knew, sometimes only slightly, got in touch with them to express their condolences. One officer, while visiting the Macedonian frontier town of Bitolj, near Greece, found himself frequently stopped by strangers who recognized him as an American and wanted to express their feelings about Senator Kennedy's death.

When the book of condolences ("Knjiga Zalosti") was opened in a room off the Embassy's lobby on the morning of June 7, people began to stream in. Many were ordinary working men who had laid aside their tools to come and painstakingly write brief words of tribute to the dead American. One man apologetically asked an Embassy officer, who was taking his turn in receiving visitors, for help in writing his name in the book.

On both Friday, June 7, and Saturday, June 8, queues of people, some carrying babies, stood quietly and patiently waiting to inscribe their names in the book and to pen a tribute to the late Senator. Among the visitors were Federal Executive President Mika Spiljak, Serbian Executive Council President Djurica JOJKIC, and First Army Commander Colonel General Pero KOSOVIC. State Secretary for Foreign Affairs Marko NIKEZIC was out of town, but Deputy State Secretary Miso PAVICEVIC signed the book in the former's stead on the first morning after the Senator's death was announced.

A large number of the members of the Diplomatic Corps, including most Ambassadors, also came to the Embassy to pay their tribute to Robert Kennedy.

All the following week people from Belgrade and from nearby towns and villages still continued to come to the Embassy to sign the book of condolences, to give their simple tribute to Senator Kennedy and, sometimes, to give remembrance to the late President John F. Kennedy.

One man wrote (in Serbian): "I will always remember this wonderful and noble-hearted man who died fighting for peace in the world. I express herewith my sympathy to the Embassy as well as to the family of the assassinated Senator. Dragoman Radojkovic."

Veljko MICUNOVIC, former Yugoslav Ambassador to Washington, and his wife, both visibly moved, also came in to sign the book. Both had known Senator Kennedy personally. Only the day before Mr. Micunovic, who is now Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of Parliament, had sent a letter to Senator Kennedy. In the book Mr. Micunovic wrote: "I express my deep and sincere sympathy to the family of Robert F. Kennedy as well as to the American people who have lost one of their great leaders in the struggle for the friendship among the nations, for peace in the world and for the progress of mankind. We in Yugoslavia and other countries have lost enormously through the death of Robert F. Kennedy."

His Holiness, the Patriarch of the Serbian Orthodox Church, GERMAN, wrote: "Deeply touched by the tragic death of a generous man, a great patriot of the United States, Robert Kennedy, we extend our sincere sympathy to the Kennedy family as well as to the whole U. S. nation."

The universal feeling of sympathy and sorrow of the Yugoslav people was summed up in the words of Professor Zivojin Simovic, who enscribed in the book of condolences the following: "I firmly believe that many generations of our school students, studying the history of the people of the United States, will remember with respect the brothers John and Robert Kennedy who fell in the struggle for the humanism and dignity of man while continuing the work of Jefferson and Lincoln."

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WALT W. ROSTOW
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Message to the President from Panamanian First Vice President Max Delvalle on the Death of Senator Kennedy

Pol 6-2 US/Kennedy, Robert

Panamanian First Vice President Max Delvalle has sent the President the enclosed message of condolences on the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Delvalle was proclaimed Constitutional President of Panama in March 1968 when the opposition-controlled National Assembly tried unsuccessfully to remove President Marco Robles. Although Robles has remained in office and in control of the Government, Delvalle has never formally relinquished his claim to be the legitimate President.

As a high-ranking government official (his status as First Vice President is unchallenged) and a prominent member of the opposition group that won the May 1968 elections, Delvalle would merit a reply. However, the confusion surrounding his claim on the Presidency and the sensitivities of the various Panamanian political factions argue against any written message. Accordingly, we recommend that our Ambassador in Panama be instructed to acknowledge orally receipt of Delvalle's message. A suggested telegram of instructions to Embassy Panama is enclosed for your approval.

SUMMARY: EMBASSY PARTICIPATED IN MEMORIAL ACTIVITIES FOLLOWING SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH, WHICH CAUSED SHOCK AND SADNESS THROUGHOUT COLOMBIA. AMBASSADOR REYNOLD E. CARLSON ATTENDED TWO MEMORIAL SERVICES, TWICE MADE PUBLIC DECLARATIONS ON BEHALF OF U.S. U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE PROVIDED ABUNDANT PRESS, FILM AND RADIO MATERIALS TO MEDIA.

The death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy produced an outpouring of sincere grief and sympathy in the press and public here. More than 1000 persons signed their names in two condolence books, placed in the Chancery lobby and in the Ambassador's residence, and over three hundred more wrote letters of condolence.

RS/R

Memorial church services were held all over Colombia, and Ambassador Reynold E. Carlson and members of his staff attended three such services in Bogotá, at two of which the Ambassador briefly spoke. The most impressive of these was on June 9 at Ciudad Kennedy, where a memorial mass was celebrated on the steps of the church before a throng estimated at 10,000 gathered in the plaza. The others were a mass at the English Speaking Chaplaincy on June 8, and services at the Downtown Presbyterian Church on Wednesday June 12.

The Ambassador twice made statements for the media, on June 5, while hopes remained for Senator Kennedy's survival, and on June 6, after he died. These declarations appeared in most Colombian newspapers, were broadcast by the two television stations, and by all major radio networks. A brief statement was also given out by Mrs. Carlson in response to requests by women's editors of the local press.

During the period of mourning a photographic display of highlights of Senator Kennedy's career was placed in the Chancery lobby, and the flag hookup with some 150 stations to an estimated 10 million Colombians. Every network in Colombia, as well as several influential, high-wattage individual stations, shared in this connection, beginning at 7 a.m. Wednesday, June 5, and continuing through Sunday, June 9, during VOA's broadcast hours. Supplementing VOA Spanish broadcasts, USIS Bogotá also prepared and broadcast through the hook-up a taped biography of Senator Kennedy, as well as the declarations of the Ambassador, and, for individual networks, three special programs on Senator Kennedy.

TV, FILMS.- In addition to films of Ambassador Carlson's two declarations, broadcast over the nation's two TV channels, USIS prepared two TV specials relating to the assassination--a review of Senator Kennedy's career, on June 7, and a portrait of Ethel Kennedy, on June 11, both on the national TV channel. Both of these programs depended pictorially on the artistic use of still photographs. Later, TV and newsreel film arrived from USIA in Washington; these were all placed. They totalled eight news clips for TV, and four 35mm clips for theaters. Two of the clips were given to Novedades, a newsfilm agency with 250 theaters across the country; and two, to Pan American, which services newsreels to a similar number of theaters.

The numerous letters and telegrams received by the Embassy are being answered; as of this date they are still being received. On June 24, the Governor of Cundinamarca delivered to Ambassador Carlson a copy of his Decree of June 6, directing flags to be flown at half mast for three days at all public buildings of the department, as well as expressing condolences to the Government and people of the United States and to the Kennedy family. This Decree, as well as the condolence books and a selection of the letters and telegrams of sympathy will be sent later to the Department for possible forwarding to the Kennedy family, unless the Department indicates to the contrary. Newspaper clippings to date about Senator Kennedy's death have also been assembled and will be forward at that time.

REF :

Following the news of the death of Senator Robert KENNEDY on June 6, the Embassy placed a book of condolence in the Embassy reception room and announced through the press and radio that Finnish Government officials and diplomatic representatives were welcome to sign the book.

Prime Minister Mauno KOIVISTO and the Secretary General of the Foreign Office, Jorma VANAMO, were the first to sign the book on June 6. They were followed by the majority of the Chiefs of Diplomatic Missions in Helsinki and other diplomatic representatives, a wide range of Finnish Government officials, Members of Parliament, and representatives of religious, cultural, athletic, educational, political, youth and student organizations.

The Embassy also received a considerable number of messages of condolence from a broad spectrum of the Finnish people. Karl-Erik FORSSELL, the Bishop of the Porvoo Diocese, requested on behalf of the Swedish-language congregation in Finland that his letter be forwarded to Mrs. Ethel Kennedy. The Bishop's letter and an English translation are enclosed. It is requested that this letter and the Embassy's book of condolence be sent to Mrs. Robert Kennedy.

SUMMARY

The grief of the American and Italian community of Florence over the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy was expressed in memorial services, signatures in a book of condolence, a flood of telegrams and letters, and extensive newspaper coverage.

* * * *

The following expressions of mourning for Senator Robert F. Kennedy took place in Florence during the period June 6-15, 1968:

1. A requiem mass, with large attendance was held at the St. James' American Episcopal Church, by the Reverend John Tederstrom, Priest-in-Charge, assisted by the Reverend George Church, Rector of St. Mark's Anglican Church.

2. A memorial service was also held with large attendance at the St. James' American Church on Sunday, June 9. During the service, the American Consul General in Florence, Joseph C. Wheeler, made the remarks enclosed as Attachment 1.

3. A book of condolences was started at the Consulate, and has been signed by over 1,000 people, including those attending the services noted above. The book is enclosed for forwarding to the Kennedy family, as appropriate.

4. More than one hundred telegrams and letters have been received and acknowledged by the Consulate.

5. On June 7, the employees of the museums and galleries and other public offices observed five minutes of silence in memory of Senator Kennedy. Employees of numerous private establishments did the same. In one case, the management forbade this and the workers promptly went on strike for two hours.

6. On June 11, 1968, a requiem mass was held under the sponsorship of the Mayor and the city government at the Catholic church, Orsanmichele. The church was full, and among the many authorities present were Avvocato Luciano BAUSI, Mayor of Florence, Eccellenza Manfredi De BERNART, Prefect of Florence, Eccellenza Generale Massimo De PALMA, Commandant of the Tosco-Emiliana Military District, numerous Consuls of other countries, the American Consul General and the staff of the Consulate. During the course of the service, a choral group of Americans sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America".

Following the mass, the City Council devoted the first part of a special session to the memory of Senator Kennedy. Excerpts from the Mayor's remarks, and the original text, are enclosed as Attachment 2.

7. We are aware of memorial services held in San Gimignano, San Marino. Undoubtedly there were many others in the Florence Consular District.

8. The press devoted much space to the tragic event and the various dailies like "La Nazione", "il Resto del Carlino" and "Il Telegrafo" carried detailed descriptions of the reactions which took place in the main centers of Tuscany and Emilia Romagna. The Florence editions of the two socialist papers "Avanti" and "Il Lavoro" devoted prominent space to the event. The best article, however, is the editorial by Enrico MATTEI in "La Nazione" on June 9, in which the writer put in perspective the figure of the two brothers, John and Robert Kennedy.

Summary of Remarks

(Attorney) Luciano Bausi, Mayor of Florence

On the Death of Robert Kennedy

City Council Meeting, June 11, 1968

The Mayor began by saying that blood had been shed on the path of those who march toward freedom and peace, and Robert F. Kennedy was the last victim.

Bausi recalled the friendly ties which bind Florence to the Kennedy family for the open hand offered by them at the time of the flood in November, 1966, and that Florence feels an attachment, as the Kennedy brothers did, to the same "new frontiers" to face an historical challenge which could be determining for the destiny of humanity.

Robert Kennedy, continued Bausi, like his brother John, was one of those who advocated a new humanism, "Gaudium et spes" in which man can assume his rightful responsibility toward his brothers and toward history.

Robert Kennedy rejected politics as a small, narrow game of chess, where clever moves and tactical maneuvers frequently become a petty end unto itself. Robert Kennedy, like his brother John, overturned the chess-board and preferred to face the challenge of the years we are living in. He was able to attract the young people of restless America, as he defined, in a very clear manner, the true problems of mankind - misery, racial discrimination, and peace.

Those who die, and by their death cause a renewed faith even in the farthest places of the world, are the ones who make the history of humanity; they are those who pursue a battle which never ends and which is renewed again every day -- the conquest of peace, which is justice, and of freedom, which is also justice. Robert Kennedy was among them. He had moral courage -- the kind of courage which, as he himself said, is rarer than boldness during a battle and rarer than great intelligence, but in any case is essential for every human conquest.

Grief and dismay, however, find their light in hope. Evil and violent forces may temporarily subjugate truth; oppression can suffocate freedom; but in the long run this apparent winner will be defeated.

CONSUL GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

at the

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY

read at the

ST. JAMES' AMERICAN CHURCH, FLORENCE, JUNE 9, 1968

* * * * * *

This is the second time within two months that I have stood here to read a Presidential Proclamation after the death, by assassination, of a revered and gifted American leader who dedicated his life to progress and social justice in our country, by peaceful means.

President Johnson spoke for all of us when he said "there are no words equal to the horror of this tragedy", and that "divisiveness and violence must be driven from the hearts of men everywhere".

In too many countries, including our own, voices have been heard in recent years, preaching violence as the only way to achieve political ends. People are being told by extremist leaders that traditional political means are outdated, that fighting the establishment by constitutional means is unacceptable.

This is not to say that this latest act of senseless violence can be blamed on any one of the new anarchistic movements. But it is clear that the theory of violence as a legitimate weapon of political warfare is about the most dangerous phenomenon of our times. Furthermore, these excesses are self-defeating because they cause resistance to urgently needed reforms to achieve civil rights for all, and the elimination of poverty and social injustice from our land -- and may even lead to repressive action from the other extreme end of the political spectrum.

"Those who glorify violence as a form of political action" the President told a student audience last week " are really the best friends the status quo ever had. They inspire among many people a blind allegience to things as they are -- even when those things should be changed."

It is true that political assassination was not invented in our country or in this age. And we cannot expect security measures to be fully effective in our public life and political campaigns. A candidate, such as Robert Kennedy, who wanted the "feel" and the "touch" of people, and sought close physical contact with crowds every day, can never by fully protected.

Rather, his protection must come from a general realization that violence has no place in our national life.

At the funeral of his slain brother, Senator Edward Kennedy delivered an eulogy to his brother. He said -

> "We loved him as a brother and as a father and as a son. From his parents and from his older brothers and sisters, Joe and Kathleen and Jack, he received an inspiration which he passed on to all of us.
> "He gave us strength in time of trouble, wisdom in time of uncertainty and sharing in time of happiness. He will always be by our side.
> "Love is not an easy feeling to put into words. Nor is loyalty or trust or joy. But he was all of these. He loved life completely and he lived it intensely."

He closed his eulogy by saying -

> "My brother need not be idealized or enlarged in death beyond what he was in life. He should be remembered simply as a good and decent man who saw wrong and tried to right it, saw suffering and tried to heal it, saw war and tried to stop it.
> "Those of us who loved him and who take him to his rest today pray that what he was to us, and what he wished for others, will some day come to pass for all the world.
> " As he said many times, in many parts of this nation, to those he touched and who sought to touch him:
> "'Some men see things as they are and say why. I dream things that never were and say, why not?'"

Following the death of Robert Kennedy, the President issued the following statement:

> "This is a time of tragedy and loss. Senator Robert F. Kennedy is dead.
> "Robert Kennedy affirmed this country - affirmed the essential decency of its people, their longing for peace, their desire to improve conditions of life for all.

"During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy, yet he never abandoned his faith in America. He never lost his confidence in the spiritual strength of ordinary men and women. He believed in the capacity of the young for excellence - and in the right of the old and poor to a life of dignity.

"Our public life is diminished by his loss.

"Mrs. Johnson and I extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy and his family.

"I have issued a proclamation calling upon our nation to observe a day of mourning for Robert Kennedy."

The text of the proclamation is as follows:

"To the people of the United States:

"A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

"The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world. This is a mement for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity.

"Now, therefore, I, Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States, do call upon all Americans to observe Sunday next, the ninth day of June, as a day of national mourning in his memory throughout the United States. In our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.

"I direct that through Sunday the flag of the United States shall be flown at halfstaff on all buildings, grounds and naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its territories and possessions.

"I also direct that the flag shall be flown at halfstaff for the same length of time at all United States Embassies, Legations, Consular Offices and other facilities abroad including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixtyeight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second. .....LYNDON B. JOHNSON"

We will now rise for one minute of silent prayer for Robert Kennedy and the Kennedy family.

COMUNE DI FIRENZE
Ufficio Stampa

ROBERT F. KENNEDY COMMEMORATO DAL SINDACO AVV. BAUSI
AL CONSIGLIO COMUNALE - 11 giugno 1968

- - - - - - - - -

Signori consiglieri,

nel volgere, breve, di poche settimane risuonano in questa sala ancora una volta parole di compianto e di recriminazione per un delitto politico. Anzi non vogliamo usare una terminologia che per la oggettivazione possa quasi ingannevolmente conferire allo atto una sorta di nobiltà ideale; fatto è che un uomo ha ucciso un altro uomo, fatto è che la violenza, ancora una volta, ha bagnato di sangue il sentiero di coloro che, nel mondo, camminano verso la libertà e verso la pace.

Robert Kennedy ne è stata la vittima e sentimenti di affetto, di sgomento, di ribellione si sono alternati e confusi nel nostro cuore, nell'anima stessa della città quando la notizia dell'attentato giunse, attraverso la radio, la mattina del 5 giugno.

L'affetto per i legami cordiali di amicizia che univano ed uniscono a Firenze la famiglia Kennedy; a Firenze che non ha dimenticato e non dimenticherà la amichevole sollecitudine con la quale proprio i Kennedy intervennero a porgerle una mano fraterna nei giorni più oscuri della tragedia del novembre 1966.

A Firenze che ha sempre sentito, quasi per affinità elettiva, il fascino - e l'inquietudine anche - delle "nuove frontiere"; l'ansia che è stata di John e di Robert Kennedy, di un modo diverso e nuovo che il mondo esige da tutti, e dagli uomini politici in particolare, per affrontare una realtà storica di dimensioni inattese, forse risolutive per la sorte stessa dell'umanità.

Ed insieme all'affetto, un senso di sgomento e di rivolta. Sgomento e rivolta per questo incalzare di violenza che avvertiamo agitare troppi popoli, troppe parti del mondo.

Una violenza brutale che quasi a dimostrare che come Dio esiste, anche il male esiste, sta infierendo proprio nei confronti di coloro che, con maggiore tenacia, hanno, a viso aperto, espresso al mondo, con la loro politica, "quel bisogno di pace e di cose giuste che tutti gli uomini portano nel cuore". Quasi a punteggiare - con i segni del martirio - la strada che non può non condurre - purchè si abbia il coraggio e la forza di rinnovarci nello spirito - ad approdare veramente ed alla pace ed alle cose giuste.

Robert Kennedy, come il fratello John, è stato tra gli uomini che hanno riproposto - e vanno riproponendo - al mondo un umanesimo nuovo - Gaudium et spes - in cui l'uomo si definisce anzitutto per la sua responsabilità verso i suoi fratelli e verso la storia. La sua politica ha rifiutato di essere una piccola, angusta partita di scacchi fatta di astutissime mosse dove il giuoco della manovra tattica è spesso squallidamente fine a se stesso. Egli, dopo il fratello John, ha rovesciato come una ventata impetuosa la scacchiera ed i pezzi preferendo affrontare, senza falsi pietismi che spesso sono solo espressioni di viltà o considerazioni di tornaconto personale, la realtà degli anni in cui viviamo. Per questo egli ha saputo trascinare con sè molti giovani della America inquieta; per aver proposto, non nell'abituale linguaggio di gergo politico - dove importante sembra divenuto solo il modo di non far capire con esattezza ciò che si intende dire, nello studio insonne di trovar formule che possano esprimere tutto ed il suo contrario - per avere proposto, dicevo, in termini chiari i problemi veri dell'uomo, la miseria, la discriminazione, la pace. Senza timore di muovere e sconvolgere forze immense che proprio dalla persistenza di tali problemi attingono spesso il motivo del proprio potere; quelle forze che continuano a giuocare agli scacchi, chiusi nelle loro stanze ove non arriva, forse, che l'eco affievolita delle grida di speranza di una moltitudine immensa.

Per questo Robert Kennedy seppe dare, particolarmente ai giovani, una speranza nuova: da due dei suoi discorsi ci sembra di aver tratto quel che può essere il suo testamento ideale; non solo, ma la indicazione anche per noi, per i nostri problemi, per una valutazione diversa dei fermenti che, irrisolti, si muovono anche nei nostri cuori: "Un secolo fa - egli ha scritto - Lincoln osservò che i dogmi di un tranquillo passato erano inadeguati al tempestoso presente. Visto che la situazione è nuova - disse - dobbiamo pensare ed agire in maniera nuova. Dobbiamo affrancarci." Ancora una volta, la situazione in cui ci troviamo è nuova; niente v'è di più urgente della necessità di affrancarci dai dogmi del tranquillo passato. Non dobbiamo credere di poter congelare gli Stati Uniti - o il mondo - nella forma di oggi o della generazione precedente....Non basta permettere il dissenso - dobbiamo esigerlo . Perchè ci sono molte cose dalle quali dissentire. Dissentiamo dal fatto che milioni di persone siano condannate alla miseria mentre la nazione continua ad arricchirsi. Dissentiamo dalle situazioni e dagli odi che negano una vita piena ai nostri connazionali per il colore della loro pelle. Dissentiamo dalla mostruosa assurdità di un mondo in cui le nazioni sono pronte a distruggersi ed in cui gli uomini devono uccidere altri uomini. Dissentiamo dalla vista di una maggioranza dell'umanità che vive in miseria, travagliata dalle malattie, minacciata dalla fame e condannata a morire prematuramente dopo una vita di assidua fatica. Dissentiamo dalle città che ottundono la sensibilità e trasformano gli atti quotidiani in una lotta penosa. Dissentiamo dalla deliberata e sventata distruzione delle bellezze naturali. Dissentiamo da tutte quelle strutture - tecnologiche e sociali - che spogliano l'individuo della dignità e del conforto di sapere che i suoi doveri sono gli stessi del resto della comunità e del paese". (Berkeley Campus - California - 22 ottobre 1966).

Noi non siamo in grado, nè intendiamo aprire un processo su chi ha ucciso e su perchè ha ucciso. Soffermarci su illazioni non documentate, nè documentabili e come tali deformabili facilmente in funzione di schematismi soggettivi, sarebbe ignorare una realtà grande e terribile; che riempie l'animo di sgomento, ma al tempo stesso di speranza.

Coloro che muoiono e che con la loro morte provocano una ondata di rinnovata fede negli angoli più lontani del mondo, sono coloro che formano la storia della umanità. Sono coloro che riproponogono agli uomini una conquista che non si esaurisce, che si rinnova ogni giorno: la conquista della pace, opera di giustizia e quella della libertà - opera anch'essa di giustizia.

Kennedy fu tra questi; egli non mise mai la lucerna sotto il moggio. Ebbe il coraggio morale; quel coraggio morale come egli stesso scrisse - che è ben più raro dell'audacia in battaglia o di una grande intelligenza; ma che è essenziale per ogni conquista umana.

Noi abbiamo pregato per lui, abbiamo sofferto con i suoi familiari ed il nostro pensiero è corso spesso, in questi giorni, al di là dell'aspetto politico, ad una famiglia nella quale tanti piccoli figli sono rimasti, vittime anch'essi della violenza, orfani del loro padre.

Ma il dolore, lo sgomento hanno trovato la loro luce nella speranza. Le forze del male, della violenza, possono, temporaneamente, soggiogare la verità; l'oppressione può soffocare la libertà. Ma, sempre, in definitiva gli apparenti vincitori saranno gli sconfitti.

"La verità - dice un canto - è sempre sul patibolo, l'ingiustizia sempre sul trono. Eppure è quel patibolo che domina il futuro e, dietro il buio ignoto, sta Dio nell'ombra a guardia di ciò che è suo".

E Sua è la verità, Sua la giustizia, Sua la libertà.

Per questo, nel dolore, si è aperto in noi lo squarcio luminoso della speranza: la speranza in un mondo veramente migliore in un mondo senza violenza, di pace, per tutti, di eguaglianza, per tutti, di libertà, per tutti. Questa è la nostra fiducia.

SUBJECT : Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy

REF : A-371, June 18, 1968

On Friday, June 14, 1968, Ivorian Archbishop Monseignor YAGO held a small requiem mass at the St. Johns Catholic Church of Cocody for Senator Robert F. Kennedy. It was attended by Ambassador Morgan and other Americans as well as a mixture of French and Ivorian personalities. During the service, Monseignor Yago announced that the Presidency had informed him there would be an official State Requiem Mass for the Senator the following evening in the Abidjan Cathedral.

The Official Mass was attended by President and Madame Houphouet-Boigny and most of the top officials in the government, including President of the National Assembly Philippe YACE, President of the Economic and Social Council Mamadou COULIBALY, and President of the Supreme Court Alphonse BONI, as well as by Ambassador Morgan, other members of the diplomatic corps and a large number of Ivorian citizens.

The President's Chief of Protocol OUEGNIN remarked to us that it was the first time he had ever seen the Moslem leaders in Ivory Coast attend a Christian service.

On June 21, 1968, Ambassador Morgan expressed personally to President Houphouet the American community's appreciation for the Official Mass. President Houphouet reiterated his deep regret over the assassination and recalled that Senator Kennedy had flown

RÉUNIS SAMEDI AUTOUR DU CHEF DE L'ÉTAT

Tous les Ivoiriens ont prié pour Robert Kennedy

L'ASSASSINAT du sénateur américain, comme nous l'avons écrit dans ces colonnes, a provoqué en Côte d'Ivoire, comme dans la plupart des Etats africains amis de l'Amérique, une émotion si vive qu'on en parle encore ici avec amertume et désolation. On peut dire, sans exagération, que quinze jours après l'odieux évènement l'Ivoirien le ressent encore comme s'il datait d'aujourd'hui. Cette réaction s'explique par le fait que « nous ne comprenons toujours pas » pourquoi le sénateur, homme juste, courageux et généreux, a été assassiné, mais aussi parce que nous voudrions que l'Amérique, au lieu de n'y voir, un peu trop légèrement que « la main du communisme international », cherche à comprendre le mal de sa société pour en déterminer les remèdes possibles.

Impuissants à comprendre cet état de choses, il ne nous reste que l'abattement et la prière. C'est pourquoi, pays de foi et de croyance, toute la Côte d'Ivoire réunie autour de son Chef samedi à Treichville, s'est agenouillée devant Dieu et a prié pour Kennedy et pour l'Amérique. Il n'y avait là, dans la cathédrale -Notre-Dame, ni chrétiens, ni musulmans, ni protestants, ni même incroyants: seule la Côte d'Ivoire, meurtrie, pleurait et priait Dieu pour Robert Kennedy, ce catholique mort après avoir reçu le dernier sacrement de sa religion.

Il serait impossible de citer les personnalités qui étaient samedi dans la Cathédrale, car répondant, comme chaque fois, à l'appel du Président, tout le monde était là: le Président Houphouet-Boigny se tenait seul près de l'Autel; tandis que les Présidents Yacé, Coulibaly, Boni, Denise et leurs épouses formaient le premier rang des fidèles suivis des membres du gouvernement et du Corps Diplomatique. En fait pas un seul service public ivoirien n'était absent à cet office religieux où, comme un seul homme, les Ivoiriens ont élevé vers le Seigneur leur modeste voix pour qu'il donne à l'âme du sénateur disparu le repos éternel et daigne jeter un regard sur la société américaine pour en réduire le mal qui n'a peut-être pas encore dit son dernier mot.

A ce propos, les paroles de Monseigneur Yago prononcées au cours de l'office méritent qu'on s'y arrête. Dans son sermon l'archevêque d'Abidjan, après avoir évoqué la vive émotion et l'affliction générale provoquées dans le monde entier par la disparition aussi inattendue que brutale du sénateur Robert Kennedy a exprimé l'espoir que de cet évènement douloureux se dégage une leçon, celle qui concerne l'éducation morale des citoyens de demain. Mgr Yago a dit : « La raison profonde du désarroi et de l'affliction générale, c'est la crainte que l'idéal pour lequel Robert Kennedy a lutté ne soit à jamais compromis. Il avait combattu avec courage l'injustice et la violence, cette violence sous les coups de laquelle il est tombé. Et de la lutte comme de celle de son frère et du Pasteur Martin Luther King, nous attendions beaucoup pour la justice et la paix. Mais le Seigneur dont les desseins sont insondables en a jugé autrement en rappelant à lui son serviteur ».

A l'église Notre-Dame de Treichville, tous les Ivoiriens avaient tenu à prier pour le repos de l'âme de Robert Kennedy. A la tête des fidèles, se trouvaient Mme Houphouet-Boigny, les présidents Yacé et Coulibaly et leurs épouses (ci-dessus).

Le Président Houphouet-Boigny se signant avec l'eau bénite.

Citant ensuite un verset de la Bible, « Si le grain ne tombe pas en terre et ne meure, il reste seul; s'il meurt, il porte beaucoup de fruits, l'Archevêque d'Abidjan a proclamé l'espérance et la foi de tous les chrétiens dans cette mort du sénateur américain: « Nous croyons que de cette mort peut germer une vie de fraternité parmi les races et les nations. En priant pour Robert Kennedy, les chrétiens que nous sommes prient pour le grand pays qui porte les plus écrasantes charges jamais portées par un peuple et aussi pour le monde entier troublé et inquiet devant tant de crimes, tant de sang innocent versé. Ce faisant, nous marchons sur les traces du Saint-Père le Pape qui a prié pour le monde entier afin que ce sang généreux soit le dernier à être versé et serve à obtenir du ciel une plus grande compréhension et une fraternité consciente entre les hommes ».

Mgr Yago devait saisir l'occasion pour attirer l'attention des dirigeants et élites, des parents et des étudiants sur la leçon que nos pays doivent tirer de cet évènement douloureux. « Cette leçon, a-t-il dit, concerne l'éducation morale des citoyens de demain ». Et l'Archevêque de poursuivre: « Ce n'est pas sans inquiétude que l'on voit se développer la commercialisation de nombreux films, illustrés, et même jeux d'enfants qui étalent la violence et la proposent en modèle. Tous les éducateurs savent combien les jeunes sont sensibles aux images et aux exemples de ces pseudo-héros dont la vie est remplie de meurtres et de licences morales. La vision de telles images crée des mentalités et engendre des sentiments d'où naissent la violence et les crimes comme celui que nous déplorons aujourd'hui et qui bouleverse le monde entier ».

French Ambassador DeLaye has expressed his profound sympathies on the death of Senator Robert Kennedy and his confidence in the U.S. social-political structure.

He simulataneously deplores the outpouring of U.S. and other comment on the collapse of American civilization and its political system. The assassination, he believes, was a political act by a member of an aggrieved group like many others before. It should not be seen as symptomatic of basic U.S. faults. There are real enough American problems, but that is another matter.

This combined vote of confidence and critique of American reaction is shared by other members of the French community.

SUBJECT : Portuguese Reaction to Senator Robert F. Kennedy's Death

REF : Lisbon 1539 and 1542; A-419

The shooting of Senator Robert F. Kennedy in Los Angeles followed by his death the next day, caused profound shock and bewilderment in Portugal.

Beginning immediately after the news of the shooting became known in Portugal, the Embassy began to receive telephone calls and expressions of condolence. These numbered almost 200 in the period up to the Senator's death and a large number afterward. Interestingly enough, despite widespread editorial criticism in the controlled press of the "climate of violence" and excessive freedom in the United States which allegedly contributed to the Senator's shooting, the messages of condolence often included expressions of solidarity with the American people and with the American nation.

Foreign Minister Franco NOGUEIRA sent to the Secretary of State a message of condolences for the Kennedy family (Lisbon 1542) and the Portuguese Ambassador in Washington was designated to represent the Government of Portugal at the Senator's funeral services.

The Defense Attaché received a personal note from the Secretary of the Portuguese Air Force and a telegram of condolence from the Chief of Staff for transmission to the Chief of Staff USAF (USDAO Lisbon 0580), and telephoned messages of

Conclusion

There are enclosed, for such disposition as the Department may deem appropriate, about 80 letters and telegrams expressing sympathy and condolences written to the Ambassador or to the Embassy, together with copies of the acknowledgments made by the American Chargé d'Affaires ad interim. Also enclosed are about 125 personal cards which were dropped at the Embassy. On June 18 the local press published a brief release by the Embassy expressing its appreciation for the condolences which it had received. The signature pages from the book which was set up in the front lobby of the Chancery will be sent forward separately.

The Embassy considers that the condolences and tributes expressed by Portuguese citizens and residents were an impressive manifestation of the high regard in which the Senator and his ideals were held. This was especially noteworthy in a country as conservative as Portugal.

1. Transmitted as enclosures to this airgram are some 70 messages addressed to the Ambassador conveying expressions of condolence on the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. All messages have been acknowledged by the Ambassador. The Department, in its discretion, may wish to forward the messages to the Kennedy family or to make other appropriate disposition thereof.

It will be noted that the messages are representative of the feelings of a wide sector of Guatemalan society--from prominent and humble individuals; from all kinds of organizations, both public and private. As noted in other communications, the general reaction was one of genuine sorrow and sympathy.

3. As the Department is aware, other messages of condolence were sent directly to the Kennedy family by Foreign Minister Arenales, and to President Johnson by President Mendez (STATE 181310), the Council of State, and the President of the National Committee of the Partners of the Alliance.

4. On Sunday, June 9th, a memorial service was held at the interdenominational Union Church of Guatemala, attended by the English-speaking community. Eulogies to the memory of Senator Kennedy were delivered by the Ambassador, the Episcopal Bishop of Guatemala, the British Consul, and the representative of the American Bible Society. A Requiem Mass in English was said at the Church of Villa de Guadalupe, and another religious memorial service took place on Monday, June 10th.

REF :

Enclosed for appropriate disposition is the Condolence Book which the Embassy opened during the period June 7 - 14, 1968, on the occasion of Senator Robert Kennedy's assassination and in response to the widespread and evident desire locally for such a means to express individual grief and sorrow. The book has been signed by a wide spectrum of official and private persons in Libreville.

We have also enclosed copies of the issue of the Gabonese official news bulletin, Gabon Matin, which contains reports on the Senator's assassination and messages of condolence. It is worth nothing that the Senator appears on the cover; this is the first time this year that Gabon Matin has carried a photograph on the cover. In addition, there are enclosed copies of the widely distributed USIS information bulletin containing similar material.

There follows an unofficial translation of Note No. 056, dated June 6, 1968, addressed to the Ambassador by the Minister of Foreign Relations of Nicaragua, Dr. Lorenzo Guerrero, expressing regret on the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy:

> I have the honor to address Your Excellency to convey to you the sentiments of profound pain of the Nicaraguan People, of the Government of the Republic, and my own personal sentiments, on the tragic death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, renowned public servant of the United States of America and member of a distinguished family.
> This lamentable occurrence brings mourning not only to the noble North American People, already put to hard test in 1963 with the untimely death of illustrious President John F. Kennedy and recently with the loss of the great leader Martin Luther King, but constitutes cause for deep consternation for the free peoples of the world who appreciate in just measure the virtues of nobleness, valor and moral integrity, all of which characterized the now deceased Senator Kennedy.
> In this hour of sadness, will Your Excellency please transmit to the honorable Kennedy family the sentiments of condolence which engulf the Nicaraguan people in this sad hour; and I urge Your Excellency to accept the assurances of my highest and most distinguished consideration.

SUBJECT : Public and Press Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Kennedy

REF : Stockholm 1808

Swedish public and press reacted to the assassination of Senator Kennedy with shock and dismay. The press, particularly the left wing newspapers, emphasized the amount of violence in American society, and connected the Senator's death with that of his brother, Dr. King and Malcolm X. Aftonbladet, the largest Social Democratic newspaper, was particularly vicious in attacking the United States. In rebuttal, Allan HERNELIUS, chief editor of Conservative Svenska Dagbladet, criticized the Aftonbladet editor "in his eagerness to undermine confidence and sympathy for the world's greatest democracy. He does not even shy from distorting and misinterpreting the circumstances surrounding Robert Kennedy's death".

After it became known that the accused assassin was a Jordanian immigrant, criticism against the United States abated somewhat. There are still, however, hints in the Swedish press of a possible conspiracy surrounding the assassination.

The Swedish Government reacted much more responsibly. The first statement by Prime Minister ERLANDER did contain a condemnation of violence in American society. Later, after Senator Kennedy died, however, his statement to the Swedish public over television was sympathetic and expressed a sense of loss.

The Chief of Protocol, Olof LANDENIUS, called upon the Charge d'Affaires June 6 and offered the condolences of the Swedish Government. He said that both the King and Prime Minister Erlander had sent messages to the President, and that Ambassador DE BESCHE in Washington had been instructed to send condolences to the Kennedy family. The Speaker of the Riksdag also sent a condolence message to Vice President Humphrey.

Joint State/USIS Message

More than 400 German and American residents of Munich attended the simple and reverent memorial ceremony for Senator Robert F. Kennedy which was held at the Munich America House on June 12. Heading the list of prominent Bavarian State Government, Bavarian Landtag, Munich City Government and Consular Corps representatives who attended was Bavarian Deputy Minister President Hundhammer.

In brief remarks of tribute, Consul General Creel and Bavarian Landtag Deputy Roland Friedrich Messner (CSU) both spoke in moving terms about Senator Kennedy--the man, his aspirations for the underprivileged in his own country and elsewhere, and the lesson which a stunned world must draw from his tragic and untimely death. Consul General Creel recalled President Johnson's admonition of June 6 that "we cannot, we must not tolerate the sway of violent men among us..." Herr Messner firmly rejected the thesis--which had also found a certain echo in German press commentaries on the assassination of Senator Kennedy--that Senator Kennedy had fallen victim to a sickness which was endemic in the United States. Herr Messner recalled in this connection the recent attempt on the life of German radical student leader Rudi Dutschke and the Easter weekend violence in Munich following that incident which had resulted in the deaths of two innocent bystanders. A prayer was offered by Praelat Dr. Hoech, who represented Cardinal Doepfner. Two distinguished American artists--soprano Claire Watson and baritone Thomas Carey--sang, the former "I Knew that My Redeemer Liveth" from Handel's Messiah and the latter the Negro spiritual "Balm in Gilead." A string quartet composed of members of the Munich Philharmonic Orchestra opened the hour-long

SUBJECT : EAST PAKISTAN: Condolences for the family of Senator Robert F. Kennedy and Reaction to the Assassination

REF : Dacca's A-323

In Dacca, messages of condolence for the family of the late Senator Kennedy have generally been in the form of telephonic or personal conversations with ConGen officers. These have been too numerous to record. Most people have expressed shock and dismay at the event and exhibit a genuine concern for the Kennedy family, the victims of so many tragedies. Several letters from private Pakistanis have been received. Unless otherwise instructed, the ConGen will not forward these, one of which was quite derogatory to President Johnson and the American people. Enclosed are two letters received from the Nepalese Consulate General and the Indonesian Consulate requesting that their condolences be extended to the family.

On June 7, the Provincial Assembly of East Pakistan observed two minutes of silence as a token of respect for the late Senator. The Speaker of the Assembly, Abdul Hamid CHOUDHURY made a short speech of condolence at that time. The ConGen has been informed that the Provincial Assembly has passed a resolution of condolence for the family. We have seen no such resolution, although in separate conversations with the Consul-In-Charge and the drafting officer, the Speaker's private secretary promised to forward a printed copy of the resolution forthwith. It is possible that, due to the nationality of the alleged assassin and the speculation about the Senator's pro-Israel remarks as a motive, the Assembly could not agree upon an acceptable message. The text of the Speaker's remarks is therefore enclosed, as we suspect that the "resolution" will be essentially the same. This text was received with the notation that a "printed copy of the same will be sent to be communicated to Mrs. Kennedy." This will be forwarded as soon as it is received.

Editorial comment in three papers has been reported in referenced airgram. The reactions in the other East Pakistani papers has been similar with varying degrees of attack on the President, the Pentagon, and the CIA. Overall, the conspiracy syndrome is re-asserting itself here. Most editorials have mentioned at least the possibility of a conspiracy and a Janata "commentator" has "logically" analyzed the rash of recent assassinations, reaching the "unavoidable" conclusion that a conspiracy exists, masterminded by the "multi-millionaire group". Azad decried the attempt to "pin the murder on a foreigner", the Jordanian nationality of the alleged assassin presumably accounting for this reaction. Paigam saw a loss for the fortunes of world peace. Texts of the Bengali language editorials of June 8 are enclosed as well as the translation of an article in the June 9 Janata, concluding the existence of a conspiracy.

"ROBERT KENNEDY"

"The assassin's bullets have silenced a most promising career. We have no words to console the elder Kennedys, but one thing is certain, that the young Senator's life has been cut short before it could reach its greatest political triumph. No doubt, Senator Kennedy takes his due place in the history of the United States. We pray for the salvation of his soul. The killing of the Kennedys, Malcom X and Martin Luther King represent a very sad aspect of the American life. World reaction to the Kennedy murder has not at all been favorable to the United States. Even the most friendly countries have expressed their concern over this trend in the US. The best reaction has, however, come from the US soldier. We join him praying, "God Save the US"."

EDITORIAL FROM PAIGAM JUNE 8, 1968

"SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY"

"The death of Senator Kennedy signals the death of the growing optimism for peace all over the world. His death is not only a loss of the US, it is a loss for the whole world. The murderers of Lincoln, the Kennedys and Martin Luther King will haunt the thinking of Americans for all time to come. But the question is: Will it be possible to solve the murder? Did Sirhan actually kill Senator Kennedy? The responsibility of answering these very important questions rests with the American people. What the actual effect of the Kennedy murder will be is still premature to speculate. But one thing is certain: the US has lost much of its international respect. Our heart goes out with the Kennedy family. Indeed, the Americans deserve pity."

EDITORIAL FROM AZAD JUNE 8, 1968

"ROBERT KENNEDY"

"The assassination of Robert Kennedy exposes one dark aspect of the American society. Whether there is any link between the murders of John Kennedy, Martin Luther King and Robert Kennedy one cannot say, but the latest murder definitely increases the responsibility of the US Government to clear up the situation. The way responsible people have been discarding the possibility of the existence of a conspiracy makes one wonder whether it would be at all possible to find out the truth.

"Attempts are being made to pin the murder on the foreigner. This is a dangerous attempt. This will mislead the people and again it is quite likely that this is an attempt on the part of the Jews to fan up greater hatred against the Arabs among the American people. The murder of Robert Kennedy makes it a moral obligation for the Johnson Administration to clear up the crime. The question before the American people today is whether they will exist as a decent society or plunge into complete lawlessness."

EDITORIAL FROM JANATA JUNE 8, 1968

"MURDER OF ROBER KENNEDY"

"There is no doubt that there is a deep political conspiracy behind the murder of Robert Kennedy. The murders of the Kennedy brothers and Luther King are not isolated events. It is no longer a secret affair that the singular or collective conspiracy of Johnson, the war-mongering military circle of the Pentagon, CIA and KKK has created a new horror in the politics of the United States. The secret hands behind these murders will come to light one day."

TEXT OF ARTICLE FROM EDITORIAL FROM JANATA JUNE 9, 1968

"THERE IS A DEEP POLITICAL CONSPIRACY BEHIND THE MURDER OF ROBERT KENNEDY"

"Senator Robert F. Kennedy, the most popular candidate in the impending Presidential election has been killed by an assassin's bullet within five years of the assassination of his brother, President John F. Kennedy. Robert Kennedy has been killed at the age of only 42, when he was at the peak of popularity due to his support for the establishment of peace in Vietnam and equal rights of the Negroes in the US. President John F. Kennedy had to give his life at the age of 48, for the following similar policies. So, there is no doubt that the murder of Senator Robert Kennedy is the result of a deep conspiracy. Today the same question is being asked by every conscious man through out the whole world including the US. Who are the real conspirators in the murder of the Kennedy brothers and what is their motive?

"It will be evident from a careful observation of contemporary events in the US that these murders are prompted by deep political purpose. And the secret hands of organized and powerful conspirators are active behind them. The mystery of the murder of President Kennedy could not be revealed even today, as the conspiring group is very powerful and influential. And for the same reason, the mystery of the murder of Robert Kennedy will not be unveiled.

"It is clearly proved from the recent political events of the US that the monopoly multi-millionaire group is the real guiding factor of the State force there, although the garb of a bourgeois democracy prevails. This group has captured sixty percent of the wealth of their own country. This is the imperialist group of the US and is compelling the US State machinery to follow a war-mongering policy to maintain exploitation and supremacy over the whole world. They have established firm control of the White House besides exploiting the war leaders of the Pentagon to continue imperialist exploitation. And they have built up CIA to conduct these affairs properly. CIA has been carrying on espionage throughout the whole world including the US. And it has been causing the fall of governments of different countries and carrying on political murder wherever necessary. So, today it is as clear as light that there is a deep political conspiracy behind the murder of John Kennedy and that of Robert Kennedy, the most popular candidate of the presidential election within four and a half years and that a very powerful group is the leader of these murders.

"It is also difficult to be completely free from doubt about the role of CIA and Lyndon Johnson. For, CIA is the espionage organization, a creation of the monopoly multi-millionaire imperialist group. And Lyndon Johnson is the agent of this group. So, it is not baseless to doubt that there are many things inside these events and many powerful persons and organizations are involved there. For, the time being, these matters will not come to light. But the people will be able to know the real identity of the murderers of the Kennedy brothers one day in the future.

"The political significance of these murders is very meaningful. There is an indication of a big storm in the US. One imperialist fascist force sheltered by the monopoly multi-millionaire group is raising its head there under the garb of bourgeois democracy. On other hand, a revolutionary force is also coming up there. This force is the advocate of peace, freedom and human rights. The struggling Negro mass of the US is the main force of this group. And the peace-loving faction of the white Americans is also part of this group. As a result, a real democratic and peace-loving force is gaining ground quickly in American politics by the side of the imperialist fascist force. Senator Robert Kennedy was the most powerful white spokesman of the democratic and peace-loving force after President John F. Kennedy. So, the interested circle concerned has murdered Robert Kennedy like President Kennedy for obvious reasons."

The assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy had a strong impact on the people of British Honduras and resulted in messages of sympathy, a special requiem high mass and newspaper editorials.

The Consulate received letters of condolence from the Premier, the leader of the Opposition, the Stann Creek Town Board, the Guatemalan Consul and several individuals. In addition, a number of prominent citizens expressed deep regret over the telephone or in person. Copies of the written expressions of condolence, all of which have been answered, are enclosed.

A requiem high mass at Holy Redeemer Cathedral on June 10 was attended by the Governor, the Premier, members of the cabinet, other high government officials, businessmen, resident Armeicans, and others. Two Bishops, the Most Rev. Robert Hodapp of Belize and The Most Rev. S.E.Carter of Jamaica celebrated the mass, assisted by eight priests. The Very Rev. Leo Weber, President of St. John's College, preached the sermon.

Press coverage of the assassasination was drawn primarily from the Voice of America. In editorial comment, the pro-government Belize Times, besides expressing deep regret, said that the cure for such violence was "the willingness of man to live within the law" -- a message it undoubtedly felt had relevance in Belize following the opposition-led disturbances here in May. The single editorial in the opposition Belize Billboard termed the assassination "a pity" and said it was clear the US was "on the brink of a crisis where its very survival as a democracy

SUBJECT : Death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy

REF :

Enclosed is the book inscribed by members of the Izmir community in memory of the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy. It was placed in the United States Information Service Library, in the Turkish-American Association building, Sehit Nevres Bulvari No. 23, on June 7, 1968, and it remained open for signature through June 10. At the Izmir Cathedral, only a few yards away, memorial services in honor of Senator Kennedy were held on Sunday, June 9, in conjunction with both the Catholic and Protestant services. Memorial services were also conducted on June 9 in the chapel of the Cigli Air Base near Izmir during the usual Catholic and Protestant hours of worship.

The Turkish people in this consular district, like those in other sections of the country, through letters, telegrams, and press articles demonstrated a feeling of deep personal loss in the death of Senator Kennedy. The following expression, written in Turkish in the enclosed volume, seems typical of the many expressions of condolence received here:

> "In our hearts he had become a light and a hope to bring happiness and prosperity to the world. His death is therefore a great shock and sorrow for us all."

The Consulate General requests that the Department forward the enclosure to the Kennedy family through an appropriate channel.

SUBJECT : Transmittal of Kennedy Condolences

REF :

In general Indonesians reacted to the death of Senator Robert Kennedy with unusual concern. In a country where letter writing is not nearly as common as in Western countries, over 350 messages of condolence were received by the Mission. To 300 of these the Ambassador sent personal replies. The remainder were addressed to USIS and were answered by USIS staff members, principally by the USIS Director. A large number of the letters bore multiple signatures or were from representatives of organizations such as government departments, schools, political parties and youth groups. In addition, 275 people, mostly Indonesians, signed two books of condolences, which had been placed in the Embassy lobby for one day.

This show of concern reflects the special appeal of the late Senator to people of the underdeveloped world in general and to Indonesia in particular. Senator Kennedy was known to have shown a continuing interest in Indonesia, and this was deeply appreciated by the Indonesian people. He visited here twice and he established the Kennedy Scholarship Fund which has drawn a great deal of favorable attention despite its modest size. As a result, Indonesians from all walks of life feel that they have lost a friend.

Enclosed are the letters of condolence and the two books of condolences for appropriate disposal. The letters are divided into three packets; roughly two-thirds are general expressions of sympathy, a sixth request that their expression of sympathy be conveyed to the Kennedy family, and another sixth request that their letters be forwarded to the Kennedy family.

Monseigneur -

La première lettre que j'ai reçu après la mort de Robert Kennedy était celle de Son Excellence Huot Sambath votre Ambassadeur à l'O.N.U à New York.

Et le premier message d'outre-mer que j'ai reçu, c'était le votre, Monseigneur.

J'en étais si profondément touchée. Pouvez-vous vous imaginer quelle place le Cambodge tient dans mon coeur.

Je pense aux paroles émouvantes de votre discours au moment de l'Inauguration de l'Avenue du President Kennedy à Sihanoukville - "il a éclairé un temps trop court notre monde d'une lumière qui ne c'est jamais rallumée, et qui nous manque cruellement aujourd-hui".

Aux pires moments de l'existence, il y a une chose qui nous reste — l'espoir. C'est une très faible et petite flamme. Mais quand il y a au monde des hommes de coeur et de sensibilité comme vous, Monseigneur, qui peuvent m'envoyer le premier, avant tous mes amis au monde, ce message si humain de confort, — quand nos pays n'ont pas de relations, cela m'aide à garder mon espoir.

J'espère, Monseigneur, que nous verrons dans nos jours un meilleur monde — que tous ces morts, dans ma famille, dans votre partie du monde, n'auraient pas étés en vain.

Je vous remercie du plus profond de mon coeur, pour votre sympathie

The British and German Consulates General lowered their flags to half mast; the Rector of the Anglican Church volunteered to give a memorial service, which was accepted (see refair); and the local florist from whom we bought the flowers for the service volunteered to go to the church at 6 o'clock on Sunday morning and spent over three hours arranging the flowers to perfection. Beyond this, no one showed any unusual concern.

Enclosure 3 consists of a Noticias clipping showing the Consul General signing the formal statement he gave to the press in lieu of interviews and carrying the text of the statement, and the English translation of the statement.

Enclosure 4 consists of the press clippings of the announcement of the memorial service and the reporting on the memorial service in the local press, and a copy of the sermon delivered by the Anglican Rector at the memorial service.

Enclosure 5 contains five copies of the afternoon Extra (the only Extra published here in at least one year) devoted entirely to the late Senator Kennedy.

Five complete copies of one issue of Noticias, the leading newspaper, showing the extent of the local press coverage of the tragedy, are at Enclosure 6.

Ref. No. 1736/J.7/68.

July 4th, 1968.

The President of the United States of America,
Washington D.C.

To the Chief Executive and members of the Cabinet. To the Kennedy family the Government, Senators and the people of the United States of America.

Allow me to express our belated deepest and heartfelt condolence for the iniquitous act of barbarism which cut short the life of a dignified Son of America, whose voice reached the hearts of millions across the oceans.

The cincal brutality and unscruplous intrigue calculated to silence the voices of millions throughout the world, the bullet of an assissin which stroke down Senator Robert Francis Kennedy, a husband and a Father. The man who spoke out in case of danger, whom to many symbolized a pretty tree planted on a fertile land was taken away from us.

We mourn the man, but we deplore above all the brutal, tragic and horrendous manner in which he took leave of us. We can almost hear him from beyond the grave paraphrasing Napolean at St. - Helena, "Assassinated, I am dying before my time and my body has already been returned to earth." Yes, before his time, before he was able to complete his goals, and it is because of this that the entire world mourns his death.

Senator Robert Francis Kennedy a glorious fighter in the noble wars of mankind for peace among nations, for recial equality there in America and in the world, for the emancipation of people and for the understadning among men. Victor Hugo had said, "Memory grows when man falls." Far from taking you away from our affection and admiration, the unjust fate that befell you, on the Contrary, made you immortal. You will be counted among the most beloved and glorious heroes of our time. The traces you deeply marked in the minds of many can not be erased.

Your simplicity and kindness, your principles, and ideas of democracy have deeply penetrated in our hearts.

May the life of Robert Francis Kennedy rest in peace.

JACOB KUHANGUA
SWAPO SECRETARY GENERAL.

CAMEROON'S REACTION TO THE DEATH OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY, AND THE PUBLIC RESPONSE THERETO, WAS SIMILAR TO THE REACTION AND RESPONSE TO THE DEATH OF DR. ON JUNE SIXTH, THE CHARGE D'AFFAIRES PREPARED A STATEMENT WHICH WAS DISTRIBUTED IN ENGLISH AND IN FRENCH AND WHICH WAS BROADCAST ON THE LOCAL RADIO STATION AND PRINTED IN THE CAMEROONIAN PRESS AS AN EDITORIAL. SEVERAL RADIO BROADCASTS DEALT WITH THE TRAGEDY AND WITH THE LIFE OF THE NEW YORK SENATOR.

2. ON JUNE SIXTH A USIS DISPLAY, USING PICTURES OF SENATOR KENNEDY, WAS SET UP IN THE EMBASSY LOBBY. HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE VISITED THE LOBBY DURING THE WEEK WHICH FOLLOWED TO PASS BY THE DISPLAY. SUBSEQUENTLY, OVER 650 OF A WIDE VARIETY OF PEOPLE FROM THE SCHOLASTIC, BUSINESS, GOVERNMENT, AND DIPLOMATIC COMMUNITIES, AND INCLUDING CAMEROONIANS FROM EVERY WALK OF LIFE, CAME TO THE EMBASSY AND SIGNED TWO CONDOLENCE BOOKS PLACED IN THE LOBBY. SUBJECT : Reactions in Piemonte to the Robert Kennedy Assassination

REF :

WND 1.11.68

It is doubtful that the reaction in Piemonte to the Kennedy murder is any different from that found in other parts of Italy--or in most parts of the "civilized" world. The Embassy's description of the reaction in Rome was pretty well what was experienced in Turin, on a slightly smaller scale and without, of course, the participation of government officials of ministerial rank.

Newspaper coverage was heavy. Our switchboard was swamped. Our book opened for signature was kept in the Consulate's small reception room until it became obvious that the crowds were going to paralyze other activities of the office, whereupon the book was moved to the entrance foyer of the office building in which the Consulate is located. It was placed on a lectern with a vase of flowers on one side and an American flag on the other. More than 3,000 signatures are in the book now and people are still asking to sign it. It will be forwarded to the Department to be transmitted to the Kennedy family shortly.

We have lost count of the number of cities and towns whose Councils voted official regret and sympathy and some of them, we know, sent telegrams to the family. So far as we know, every City Council that met during the period immediately following the assassination passed a resolution of sympathy. The remarks of the Mayor of Turin to the Turin City Council, prior to the vote of the Council to dedicate some street or school to Senator Kennedy, are enclosed.

Memorial masses were held everywhere. The Consulate received so many invitations to attend masses that it simply was unable to cope with them all. Turin's Cardinal Pellegrini officiated at the largest-attended and most publicized, and the English-speaking Protestant Interdenominational Church of Turin had a special service, in English. For the subsequent two weeks articles appeared in the newspapers of the district, including especially weeklies from the forks of the creek, regarding masses held in memory of the Senator.

One of the most touching aspects of the whole affair has been the reaction of the school children, and this, too, is something Americans have a hard time understanding--how the Kennedys have projected through to children. Sometimes the teachers are responsible, sometimes the parents, but often--often--it is the children themselves. We have a number of Italian-language notes of sympathy we have been asked to forward to Robert Kennedy's own children.

Every newspaper in the district (there are about 150 of them--dailies, semi-weeklies, and weeklies) carried an editorial and many of them reprinted letters to the editors. All were highly laudatory of Kennedy and his brother John (almost invariably coupled) but many of them also expressed the feeling, "What's going on in America?" In those cases the old refrain of the soulless, materialistic, mechanized society was sung over again--much as has been the case in many of the newspapers in the United States, of course.

In that respect it is pertinent to note that many of the personal expressions of condolence have contained a brief reference to the continuing growth of violence in the U.S. These comments have often been made by persons whose affection for the United States is a bit shallow but who in general terms are our well-wishers. In every case we have replied with the statement, "Yes, violence is everywhere, it seems. A bomb destroyed the front entrance of our Consulate here in Turin, the Kennedy and King assassinations in the United States, kidnappings and assassination in Sardinia, the destruction caused by students here in Italy, in France and elsewhere--yes, there's violence everywhere and unfortunately Italy and the United States have their full share." That seems to have a fairly effective answer to those to whom it is made, but the feeling that lawlessness has reached its zenith and personal safety its nadir in the United States seems to be on the minds of too many people here for an American to be comfortable.

ACTION REQUESTED

We would appreciate knowing the desires of the Kennedy family regarding letters that are sent to us for transmission to Mrs. Kennedy and/or the children. Have any arrangements been made for private persons to assist in acknowledging these communications? If not, are Foreign Service posts to reply to the senders in the Kennedy name? Some such instruction to standardize handling of this correspondence should be sent to the field as soon as possible. We are keeping the correspondence thus far received pending instructions, and we hope that provision is being made to acknowledge the telegrams and letters that have been sent to the Kennedy family direct.

TRANSLATION of Mayor Grosso's Address : Commemoration of Robert Kennedy Delivered June 17, 1968 to City Council
Turin, Italy

MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL:

It is customary that when an event has touched either our own citizens or a broader segment of people and countries, the City Council is opened by a reference to that fact. I think that even though this evening's session will be the final one for this Council, that is not sufficient reason for us to fail to open this session with a specific reference to something that has struck and impressed and moved the people of the entire world, and that is the murder of Robert Kennedy. It is an act that will find its place among the great events of history.

A friend told me, knowing that he was talking to a professor of Roman law, "Don't you believe that the figures of these two brothers can be placed on the level of those of Tiberius and Gaius Gracchus in that these latter two were representative of Roman society at a time when it was the center of the world--in the similarities between their deaths, and in the continuation of their work, despite all of the factors which came into play against the ideas for which they had fought?"

In any case, this is not the moment to make historical comparisons, no matter how close the similarity.

The murder of John Kennedy and that of Robert Kennedy, and, in the interim, the murder of Martin Luther King, are related to the unleashing of forces which do not hesitate to resort to violence against men who represent a voice seeking the solution of problems which beset not only a great country such as America, but all humanity.

When Robert Kennedy decided to become a candidate, he said: "I enter the race to fight for the equality of all men, of whites, of Negroes; to do away with the separation between rich and poor; to bring to a close a war which is sowing death, to do what is possible not only for America, but for all mankind."

And actually, in the great American society, in the great and complex groupings of people there, in the differences that exist there, you can find a microcosm of all of the problems of mankind. And mankind is now dismayed, and asks itself: "If all of the men who battle to eliminate the evils of humanity and to bring mankind to a civilized level must fall through violent means, and if behind the violent means there are violent minds, then is it perhaps impossible to resolve the problems of mankind without violence?"

Unfortunately, we are now in a period in which ideas and methods of violence are spreading. All men of good will should know that whatever the difference in their views and ideologies, they must fight side by side for the right to compare their conflicting ideas freely. Indeed, only out of such free comparison can the solution of many problems be reached. All efforts should therefore be concentrated doward a solution of such great problems which are now under discussion at different levels--and the solution must be such as will meet the demands of all humanity, since never before have men felt more closely united the world over, now that science has practically eliminated space and distance barriers. I therefore believe that the names of John and Robert Kennedy should forever be engraved in our minds just as they will always be engraved in history--the painful and tragic history of man throughout the centuries.

Let it serve as an admonition and as a beacon to us--and let us hope that an end may soon be reached to the unbridled, brutal and blind violence which is being wreaked on the very men whose purpose is to demonstrate that problems may be solved without resorting to violence.

SUBJECT : Reaction in Oporto to Senator Kennedy's Assassination

REF :

Senator Kennedy's assassination was received in Oporto with an outpouring of grief and anger that affected the population deeply and visibly for two days. While many remarks were directed at the nature of the society that permitted this to happen, most were honest expressions at seeing an identifiable ideal struck down. Some officials, from whom the Consulate has become accustomed to hearing criticism of the United States, were worriedly serious, fearful that the assassination might signify an unravelling of American society with its consequences for western world leadership.

Two of the three major morning newspapers, Jornal de Noticias and Comercio do Porto, published special afternoon editions on July 6 announcing the Senator's death. According to an unverified local report this was the first time Oporto papers have put out special editions since the hijacking of the Santa Maria in 1961 and thus illustrates the level of attention given the matter in northern Portugal.

Nearly all of the career consuls came personally to the Consulate to express their condolences. The British Consul General preceeded his traditional Queen's birthday toast on June 7 with a request for one minute of silence in respect for the Senator. On Sunday, June 9, the Movimento de Casais (couples' association), an active movement of progressive

On June 12, the seventh, the Consulate employees held a mass.

Following local tradition, a table was placed in the Consulate reception area with facilities for signatures and deposit of condolence cards. These cards and the signature sheet are enclosed for the Department's disposition. Mr. President,

I have been instructed by the Chairman of the National Liberation Council, Lieutenant-General Joseph A. Ankrah, to convey to you the following message:

"We have heard with profound shock and horror, the news of the tragic death of Mr. Robert Kennedy as a result of injuries he received from an assassin's bullet in Los Angeles yesterday.

"Following so soon after the recent murder of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jnr., this dastardly and villanous murder of Robert Kennedy is a great blow to all those who cherish the establishment of orderly human societies in which the security of the individual irrespective of his colour, creed, religion or political views, shall be guaranteed.

"It is indeed a sad reflection on our present age that a man of such integrity as Robert Kennedy who, like his late brother John F. Kennedy and also like the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, stood for the high principles of human brotherhood and racial equality should die at the assassin's hands, in his efforts to bring a better life not only to his people, but to all mankind.

"It is our fervent hope that the noble ideal for which Robert Kennedy stood will not die with him, but rather that his untimely death will inspire us to greater efforts towards the realisation of those ideals.

"America has lost another great son, who symbolised the hopes and aspirations of millions of its citizens.

Honourable Lyndon B. Johnson,
President of the United States of America,
The White House,

"I wish on behalf of my colleagues of the National Liberation Council, the Government and people of Ghana and on my own behalf to convey to you, and through you to the bereaved Kennedy family, and to the Government and people of the United States, our heartfelt condolences for this great and irreparable loss. "

Respectfully submitted.

SUBJECT: KAUNDA ON SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH

1. SUMMARY. PRESIDENT KAUNDA PUT RESPONSIBILITY FOR ASSASSINATION SQUARELY ON USG FOR PROVIDING INADEQUATE PROTECTION. SAW "STRANGE PATTERN" IN THAT "LEADERS WITH A LOT TO CONTRIBUTE TO WORLD COULD ONLY BE PROTECTED WHEN THEY WERE DEAD". CHARACTERIZED KENNEDY AS "ONE OF THIS GENERATION'S MOST OUTSTANDING AND DYNAMIC YOUNG LEADERS" AND " ONE OF THE FEW AMERICAN LEADERS WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF WITH THE POOR. KAUNDA REPEATEDLY DECLARED "WE HAVE A RIGHT TO PROTEST" TO USG BECAUSE WE ARE MEMBERS OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY THAT HAS BEEN DEPRIVED OF A LEADER. SET SATURDAY JUNE 8 AS DAY OF NATIONAL MOURNING AND SUNDAY AS DAY OF PRAYER.

2. FOLLOWING IS EXTRACT FROM GRZ PRESS RELEASE OF AIRPORT SPEECH KAUNDA GAVE ON ARRIVAL HOME FROM VISITS TO KENYA AND UGANDA (QUOTES FROM ORIGINAL):

A. ON THE DEATH OF LATE SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY, PRESIDENT KAUNDA SAID THE SAD WORLD HAD LOST ONE OF THIS GENERATION'S OUTSTANDING, DYNAMIC AND YOUNG LEADERS.

B. "WE MUST MAKE OUR VIEW KNOWN TO THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT", HE SAID. "WE FAIL TO UNDERSTAND THAT LEADERS OF THAT TYPE - FIRST IT WAS JOHN KENNEDY, SECOND MARTIN LUTHER KING, AND NOW BOBBY KENNEDY - CAN BE ASSASSINATED AT ALL".

UNCLASSIFIED

C. DR. KAUNDA WENT ON TO SAY THAT HE SAW A VERY STRANGE PATTERN WHERE OUTSTANDING LEADERS WITH A LOT TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE WORLD COULD ONLY BE PROTECTED WHEN THEY WERE DEAD.

D. " I HEAR THAT THERE WERE 500 POLICE OFFICERS AT THE AIRPORT", HE SAID "ONLY TO RECEIVE A DEAD BODY. WE HAVE A RIGHT TO COMPLAIN BECAUSE WE BELIEVE THAT IN THE PERSONS OF JOHN KENNEDY, MARTIN LUTHER KING AND ROBERT KENNEDY WE LOST MEN WHO WILL NEVER BE REPLACED AT ALL".

E. PRESIDENT KAUNDA SAID HE DID NOT UNDERSTAND HOW THE KENNEDY FAMILY WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE AMERICAN POLITICS BECAUSE THERE WAS ONLY ONE OF THEM REMAINING NOW.

F. "WE REGARD THOSE PEOPLE WHO STRIKE AT THE INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS AS OUR FRIENDS". HE SAID, " BOBBY KENNEDY WAS ONE OF THE FEW AMERICAN LEADERS WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF WITH THE POOR. FOR A RICH MAN TO COME DOWN AND SPEAK THE VOICE OF THE POOR IS NOT AN EASY THING TO ACHIEVE".

3. ACCORDING OUR NOTES, KAUNDA SEVERAL TIMES USED PHRASES LIKE " WE HAVE A RIGHT TO COMPLAIN", WE HAVE RIGHT TO CONSIDER MEN LIKE THE KENNEDYS AND MARTIN LUTHER KING AS OUR FRIENDS, AND "WE HAVE RIGHT TO PROTEST". SPEAKING OF LACK OF PROTECTION (FOR BOTH PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND HIS BROTHER) KAUNDA SAID "SOMETHING HAS TO BE DONE" ABOUT THIS "SHAMEFUL, SHAMEFUL" DEED. ACCORDING RADIO SUMMARY HE NOTED THAT SPECIAL SECRET SERVICE PROTECTION GIVEN REMAINING CANDIDATES BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON WAS ANNOUNCED "TWO MONTHS AFTER THE DEATH OF MARTIN LUTHER KING".

4. KAUNDA CONCLUDED BY DECLARING SATURDAY A DAY OF NATIONAL MOURNING WITH ALL FLAGS TO BE AT HALF MAST AND CALLING ON PEOPLE TO REMEMBER KENNEDY FAMILY IN PRAYERS SUNDAY. FOLLOWING HIS CONCLUDING REFERENCE TO SUNDAY AS QUIET DAY OF PRAYER HE ALSO SAID SOMETHING ABOUT "PROTEST", BUT IT NOT CLEAR THIS WAS RELATED.

5. AMONG CROWD OF SENIOR CIVIL SERVANTS, PARTY OFFICIALS, MINISTERS AND PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARIES IN VIP AREA BEHIND DIPLOMATS WERE SOME (UNIDENTIFIED) WHO SHOUTED EPITHATS LIKE,

"JOHNSON, NUMBER ONE MURDERER," "AMERICANS ARE MURDERERS", AND "MR. AMBASSADOR, ARE YOU A CIVILIZED NATION OR A NATION OF SAVAGES?"

6. KAUNDA CONCLUDED SPEECH BY CALLING ALL TO STAND FOR MOMENT OF SILENCE DURING WHICH SEVERAL PHRASES OF CHINYANJA HYMN WERE BEGUN AND PICKED UP BY CROWD. ACCORDING ONE DIPLOMAT, CHICOM REP APPARENTLY DIDN'T UNDERSTAND ENGLISH AS HE REMAINED SEATED.

7. COMMENT: THOUGH WE UNDERSTAND AND SHARE PRES KAUNDAS DEEP EMOTIONS AROUSED BY THIS APPALLING EVENT, WE ARE CONCERNED THAT PRESIDENT'S REMARKS UNWITTINGLY WILL BE VIEWED BY COMMON MAN HERE AS SIMPLY AN INVITATION TO "HATE AMERICA" (WITNESS SPONTANEOUS OUTBURSTS REPORTED ABOVE) AND TO DEMONSTRATE AGAINST US EMBASSY. THE EXCLUSIVE EMPHASIS HERE IS THAT AMERICA HAS DEPRIVED THE WORLD OF A LEADER: THERE SEEMS TO BE NO UNDERSTANDING THAT AN INSANE ALIEN NOW CHARGED WITH KILLING HAS DEPRIVED AMERICA OF LEADER. SO WHERE WE SHOULD EXPECT CONDOLENCES WE GET ONLY ABUSE.

A MINORITY OF ONE

It is natural to see the attack on SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY as part of a general pattern of violence in the United States and in the world. Yet before one generalizes one should particularize. This is a hateful tragedy for a man whose courage had made him the only white politician who still commanded the confidence of the Negroes and the poor of America. It is also a family tragedy for a family who have already had too many tragedies to suffer. The shooting of SENATOR KENNEDY is one of those stark events which will always be remembered with pain.

Yet the personal tragedy is a reflection of a wider tragedy. For whatever reasons violence is a growing power in the United States. For at least half a century American civilization has been subject to increasing violence, to the violence of gangsters, the casual violence of the southern states, the violence between races and now to the murder of public men. The rest of the world has often seen the United States as the vanguard of industrial society. In almost every other country the same pattern of growing violence can already be detected even though in Britain it has not reached anything like the same level.

It is natural that violence in politics should often be concentrated upon the best men. The motives of the men who shoot are usually abnormal and often obscure. The Arab in this case seems almost astonishingly irrelevant to Senator Kennedy's career. Yet one can see what the reaction is. There is in part the hatred which is the natural reaction of evil to excellence. There is in part, also, an envy which the best statesmen are more likely to provoke. The excitement of a fine political campaign is also in itself a danger. The man with the gun responds to this excitement with the excitement of his own hatred. He shows what can be done by a minority of one.

Yet those men who wish to raise themselves by destroying what others admire are alienated from society and are to be found in large numbers only in a society where alienation is common. In the United States prosperity has become an insult to those who do not share it and the process of specialization which has created such an extraordinary prosperity is by its nature also a process of exclusion. American industry is based on mass skills, but not on universal skills, and violence is the revenge on society of those who are left out.

The paradox is that it has been the chief aim of the Kennedy family in politics to bring to an end the social alienation in the United States. PRESIDENT KENNEDY was the first Roman Catholic to become President of the United States. His victory was to some degree a victory for all the other minority groups. The purpose of the campaign of 1960, in which SENATOR KENNEDY played so large a role, was not only to get America moving but to involve all Americans in the movement. PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S work on civil rights went further than the Kennedy administration had been able to do, but the social impetus of the Democratic Party owes a great deal to both of the Kennedy brothers.

In the case of SENATOR KENNEDY this social concern became even more marked. His is a crusading personality and the crusading quality has cost him many political allies. There is no doubt that the shock of his brother's death caused in SENATOR KENNEDY'S mind a new desire to see American society changed. It is the characteristic of this meaningless violence that it is turned against those men like the Kennedys or MARTIN LUTHER KING who devote their lives to the task of reconciliation. They are the most likely of all to be attacked or to be killed.

The characteristics of American society which led to the death of one Kennedy and the wounding of another are in part peculiar to the United States. We have no powerful lobby in Britain for the promiscuous sale of firearms and the power of the National Rifle Association is an extraordinary defect of American politics. Yet in the main the growth of violence, like the growth of revolution, is something which reflects real failures of all the advanced industrial societies, irrespective of whether those societies are American or European, or even whether they are capitalist or communist. Our attitude in Britain can therefore only be one of sympathy with the people of the United States in the tragedy which has occurred.

A SECOND KENNEDY

Daily Telegraph June 6

"THERE are no words equal to the horror of this tragedy. Our thoughts and prayers are with Senator KENNEDY, his family and other victims. All America prays for his recovery." In this moving message President JOHNSON spoke for decent people everywhere, not only for Americans but for people of all nations, not only for those who loved ROBERT KENNEDY and shared his expressed ideals but also for all those for various reasons opposed to him. Friend and foe alike stand silent and appalled; controversy is stilled; the election campaign, in which ROBERT KENNEDY had just won a victory, grinds to an awestruck halt.

Mrs. JACQUELINE KENNEDY is said to have had some grim premonition that ROBERT KENNEDY would be shot down. If she sees the hand of fate in what has now occurred, who shall blame her? It is not five years since her own husband, President JOHN F. KENNEDY, died murdered in her arms. His older brother JOSEPH was killed in 1943 in a Liberator crash and the youngest brother, EDWARD, was nearly killed in an air crash four years ago. It is as though a curse hung over the whole family, in some respects the favourites of fortune, in others its pitiable victims.

It is a family which has always aroused passionate controversy. None was left indifferent by its rise to power and glory. To some it seemed to embody all that was young and hopeful, ardent and chivalrous in American public life. President KENNEDY's circle at Washington was likened without irony to the court of King Arthur; it seemed to have attracted to itself all that was generous, enlightened and intelligent in the nation. In other hearts, however, the KENNEDYS awoke a sour and suspicious envy, generated not so much by their wealth (not usually a disadvantage in American politics) as by their collective ambition and their apparent determination to form some sort of dynasty. Alike to those who feared and those who worshipped them, they appeared an irresistible force, predestined to govern America, one or another, now or later.

ROBERT KENNEDY must often have been warned of the dangers he ran. But what else could he do but face them, without being untrue to his destiny as he saw it? President THEODORE ROOSEVELT once said: "I do not believe there is any danger of any assault on my life, and if there were it would be simple nonsense to try to prevent it; for, as LINCOLN said, though it would be safer for a President to live in a cage, it would interfere with his business." ROBERT KENNEDY did not share ROOSEVELT's confidence in his own immunity; but he must have realised that a candidate can no more live in a cage than a President. To win trust one must show trust; no affection or respect, no votes are to be gained by those afraid to mix freely with the people. Thus he sallied boldly forth, taking no precautions, virtually unguarded, surrounded everywhere by crowds so vast that a thousand assassins might have lurked undetected among them; and has alas paid a terrible price.

It is easy to understand the shame and guilt by which Americans are assailed when they contemplate the blood which has recently stained their public life—the blood of a President, the blood of a great and pacific Negro leader and now the blood of ROBERT KENNEDY. They must wonder if there is some dark violence in the American soul of which other nations are innocent. Can this really be true? In few countries of the world are the style and temper of politics usually more civilised, the courtesies of debate more generally observed, opponents more tolerant of each other. That all this should be smirched and obscured by the crimes of a few is unfair in every respect save one. This is that America has so far conspicuously failed to disarm those who are unfit to have control of weapons. The right of every citizen to carry a gun was born in times when food had to be shot and Indians lurked behind every tree. Once the ally of order, this right has survived to become its mortal enemy. Surely it must be extinguished.

DISRAELI once remarked that assassination has never changed the history of the world. He may have been wrong about the very assassination which provoked his words—that of LINCOLN. Certainly it is probable that violence breeds violence, that one death may lead to others and that the act of a maniac may inflame the passions of sane men. General breast-beating will do no good: only the law can take the gun out of American life.

Times News 7

HE STOOD FOR JUSTICE

The world knew ROBERT KENNEDY by sight and liked what it saw. People everywhere thought they knew what he stood for—justice for the underdog, tolerance between races and nations, understanding for youth, compassion for the old and deprived. They believed he was a worthy successor to his brother, and that was consciously meant as the highest tribute. If American presidents were elected by the suffrage of all countries ROBERT KENNEDY would have gone to the White House next January.

Of course the universal view was not a complete one. Men find themselves—sometimes almost by chance—cast for roles of heroes and villains, and those are the roles they have to play. His fellow Americans were divided over which of the two ROBERT KENNEDY really was. Some of them hated ROBERT KENNEDY as much as they hated JOHN. Now both brothers have been murdered. It is a terrible fate—terrible for the family; terrible for America; and terrible for the world.

ROBERT KENNEDY had many qualities, good and bad, but they were all touched with an element of greatness. His death leaves an enormous gap, and the problem is how that can be filled. In a way, the least important part of this is who will get the Democratic nomination in the autumn. Probably ROBERT KENNEDY would not have got it anyway, and even if he had got it might well not have won the election. And if he had won the election he might not have proved a good president. Was he temperamentally suited to the job? Is not America's need now to find a reconciler, which is something ROBERT KENNEDY could never have been? These have ceased to be questions for the prophets and become footnotes for the historian.

What is important is the effect of ROBERT KENNEDY'S death on his followers. He had lost some of his earlier disciples—among the young, particularly the young students. But he had found new disciples. The Negroes, other second-class racial groupings like Mexicans and Puerto Ricans, the very poor of all races, had made ROBERT KENNEDY their candidate; more than their candidate, he was their apostle. They are not going to turn easily to SENATOR MCCARTHY or MR. HUMPHREY—certainly not to a Republican. Is the election going to see a large proletariat disfranchised by its own choice? This is a real prospect, and a most alarming one. Americans are desperately trying to rediscover faith in their own destiny and institutions. With both Kennedys murdered some Americans will be tempted to say that their country's institutions are a sham and its destiny a mirage.

The rest of the world will be tempted to turn away from America too. Each fresh act of violence spreads fresh doubt about American capacity for leadership. This is not hypocrisy. America has more money, more power, more skills, more weapons, than any other country in the world. For over twenty years she has exercised this unique responsibility with restraint and generosity. The American people accepted the obligations of leadership. But now? The habit of assassination destroys the authority of any country.

Americans have huge reserves of intelligence and resource. One of the best things ROBERT KENNEDY did was to remind them of this, because he profoundly believed it to be true. Who will be able to convince them that it is true now? Certainly, America will survive ROBERT KENNEDY'S death as it survived his brother's. But the main question for 1968 is now no longer who is to be next president, but how that survival is to be achieved.

Kennedy victim of his nation's eroded ideals

Something like mass hysteria may be threatening America as a great dialogue of conscience breaks out after the killing of Senator Kennedy. The laxity of the law on gun control is only one result of the American system of compromise politics—a system to which the murdered candidate himself had deferred in the course of his campaign.

From LOUIS HEREN

WASHINGTON, JUNE 6

A man who challenges the King must die. Senator Eugene McCarthy thus explained his challenge to President Johnson and his determination to go on even until defeat and oblivion, but it was America's most splendid and ambitious political prince who died by an assassin's hand.

With him, the Kennedy restoration may have died. It is possible that presidents will not be challenged by this powerful family again. What some have seen as its awful curse did not deter Robert; but Edward, the one surviving brother, seems content with his lesser fiefdom.

After his almost miraculous escape from an aircraft disaster (a brother and sister also died in air crashes) he is the senior Senator from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts at the age of 36. His attention to duty now commands respect. He is clearly a candidate for an important committee chairmanship and the inner club, the small group of men who control the Senate and thus much of the legislative business of the United States Congress.

This has not discouraged suggestions that he would make a good vice-presidential candidate. Such is the power of the family name that a Humphrey-Kennedy ticket is seen as a sure winner for November.

The princely splendour of the Kennedys was evident again in the respect paid by the President and the princes of his church. A White House aircraft brought Robert Kennedy's remains from Los Angeles, and solemn Masses were offered in the Roman Catholic cathedrals of Washington and New York.

Much of the business of government came to a standstill and everywhere flags flew at half-mast. Senator Kennedy is to be buried on Saturday in his brother's grave, which dominates Arlington National Cemetery.

It is by the mansion from which General Robert E. Lee rode away in 1860 to fight for Virginia, another of the republic's great tragic figures. It looks across the Potomac to the seat of American super-power where Robert Kennedy assumed, with the arrogance of a political prince, that he would sit next January.

Horrible symmetry to age of violence

All of that has been exploded by a young Jordan immigrant with a .22 pistol first bought, it has been stated, by some frightened man after the Watts riots in Los Angeles. The casual coincidence provides a horrible symmetry to an age of violence that now threatens mass hysteria.

Perhaps it is possible to see Sirhan Bishara Sirhan as an instrument of revenge against the Palestine policy of President Truman, or as a crazed anti-Semite, but he left Jerusalem when a boy and is said also to have envied the rich and successful.

The Washington Post said: "If the shooting of Senator Kennedy should bring sensible gun laws, so much the better; the need for them, however, does not stand on one, or three or three hundred homicides by firearm; it stands on the record in every American city, every night".

Only a month ago Senator Edward Kennedy said: "It amazes me that we continue to tolerate a system of laws which make it so outrageously easy for any criminal, insane person, drug addict or child to obtain lethal firearms which can be used to rain violence and death on innocent people".

Alas, there is no cause for amazement. The continuing stupidity over gun laws is only part of the larger system under which the United States has been governed so long. It is no more of a cause for amazement than the brutal fact that the wealthiest country in the world permits millions of Americans to starve.

Stupidity flourishes in the system

A television network recently broadcast a report on starvation among Red Indians, Negroes and white tenant farmers within an hour's drive of Washington. The immediate response of Mr. Orville Freeman, the Secretary of Agriculture, was to demand equal time for a refutation.

All this and much more is not due to brutal indifference but is the price paid for national unity. It is a heavy price, but almost unavoidable because of congressional consensus politics.

There is no three-line whip. Members are thus more exposed to pressures, and urgent reform can be compromised out of existence in the search for consensus. For instance, liberals such as Senator Wayne Morse and Senator Frank Church are as much to blame as the National Rifle Association for the fact that lunatics and fanatics can still buy arms.

These representatives come from sporting states and believe that their political survival depends upon the rejection of gun control. For the sake of this or some future consensus a majority of their colleagues have been prepared to do just that or accept a useless compromise.

The Bill passed by the House of Representatives today provides for some measure of control, but not nearly enough.

Consensus politics has another meaning when the President seeks a popular consensus wide enough to persuade a reluctant Congress to enact reforms. This is what Senator Robert Kennedy was seeking to establish during the primary campaigns.

He compromised his own ideals along the way because many of the people he sought to lead were opposed to change. He was thus as much a part of the old as the new politics, but his ideals were never quite abandoned. Had he lived, and gone on to win the election in November, his Administration almost certainly would have been as cautious as his brother's, but a little progress would have been made.

Instead, the prejudice and indifference which the American system of government is so ill-equipped to diminish has claimed him as another victim, and the country is preparing for what could be described as a state of siege.

The Army's Directorate for Civil Disturbances Planning and Operations has been in a state of alert since yesterday morning, the California National Guard has 26,800 men ready for deployment in the streets, and 10,000 regular troops are standing by outside Washington.

AMERICA ON TRIAL

SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY is dead. The eulogies have been spoken. All civilised countries have been revolted by the cruel murder of a gifted man who was the leading hope not only of a family which has already suffered greatly but also of many millions of Americans who saw in him—rightly or wrongly—a golden champion. He was to have been the man who would do battle for the unrepresented in the great struggle for civil rights, who might have bound up the rift between black and white in the United States, who might have led his fellow citizens in a determined attack on poverty, who might have been successful in negotiating a peaceful settlement in Vietnam. These claims, made on his behalf, were large indeed: perhaps too large.

Be that as it may, the obsequies cannot last for ever. The government of great nations cannot, must not, be long affected by the death of a single man, however eminent and however aspiring; and the immediate task before the people of the United States is the election of their next President. And, after the second KENNEDY assassination, it seems certain that the imposition of the rule of law in the United States will become an attractive theme for Mr. NIXON to begin embroidering before many weeks are out. The central issue could become "strong government."

What the Democrats will reply to that is by no means clear. There is at least a chance that, of the supporters of the late Senator KENNEDY, the mild, Leftist, scholarly and humanitarian will prefer to back Senator EUGENE MCCARTHY at the Chicago convention rather than Mr. HUBERT HUMPHREY. Although regarded by his own party as a dangerous radical 10 years ago on the civil rights issue, Mr. HUMPHREY has for the protesters become tarnished by his close association with the JOHNSON administration. As far as the restive millions who saw ROBERT KENNEDY as their idol are concerned, the risk of further rioting and bloodshed is great. It must seem to them, after three assassinations in five years, that anyone who becomes their advocate will be gunned down. The main responsibility for assuaging the nation's fears must now fall on Mr. HUMPHREY and Senator MCCARTHY.

Whichever of the two men is chosen—and the odds must now be heavily on Mr. HUMPHREY, the senior in experience of both politics and government—it should be made plain to the American electorate that the ideals and ambitions which motivated the KENNEDY brothers did not die with them. Otherwise, worse times might befall. And it will, of course, be a prime duty of any new administration to break the deadlock in Congress on arms legislation. That will not be easy, because fear engenders fear; but, after this week's dark events, the majority of Americans must realise that the freedom to bear arms endangers greater freedoms.

THE GUARDIAN

London Friday June 7, 1968

Will the world learn anything?

Many deserved tributes have been paid and will be paid to Robert Kennedy. President Johnson has spoken of the "tragedy and senseless violence" that brought his death. The Archbishop of Canterbury has said that, in the horror at this event, "we shall renew our efforts in the cause of just and non-violent solutions of our human problems." The Swedish Foreign Minister has spoken of "a defeat not only for American democracy but for democratic values as such." The Prime Minister of New Zealand has said that "for the United States to lose its gifted men in this way is a sad distortion of the freedoms which they in turn have fought to preserve." In Cairo, the Government's official spokesman has condemned the killing of Senator Kennedy, "whatever the nationality of the assassin may be." In Britain, the President of the Zionist Federation has said that "all who love peace pray that Robert Kennedy will not have died in vain, that the message of cooperation, of brotherly love, and of righteousness that he so courageously preached will echo down the ages."

Will that message, in truth, find any echo in the Middle East? Will a genuine effort be made on both sides to stop the war in Vietnam? Will a "just and non-violent solution" be sought in Biafra or south of the Zambezi? Will American democracy (and democracy everywhere) try harder than before to rid itself of lawlessness, hatred, and violence? Shall we, as President Johnson asks, "purge the hostility from our hearts and practise moderation with our tongues"?

The killing of Robert Kennedy had seeds both in the sickness of American society and in international violence. Although much of Sirhan Sirhan's mind and motives remains to be discovered, the Arab-Israeli war and its anniversary were factors. So too was the Vietnam war, which itself has added to the severe strains within the United States. But the question remains: will Robert Kennedy's tragic death change anything in the world? Will the shock lead to any softening of rigid attitudes? In every zone of war or imminent war, the way could be opened for non-violent solutions. Over the Middle East, Vietnam, and Biafra negotiations are being sought; over each a deadlock persists. Over each the lines of a settlement can be seen, but the willingness to reach it is never sufficiently strong. Over each a change of heart is needed, for the alternative is a relapse into more killing, devastation, and misery.

On the anniversary of the June war, is it impossible for the Arabs and Jews to meet? Mr Jarring's mission seems near its final frustration. Yet more is needed than readiness on the Arab side to meet the Israelis face to face, which so far the Arab Governments have refused, or readiness on the Israeli side to apply in practice the principles of the UN resolution. Both sides must accept in their hearts, not simply in words, that the others have just claims. The Arabs must honestly accept that the State of Israel has a right to exist in peace and security, however unjustly, in their eyes, it was carved out of Arab territory. And the Israelis, no less, must accept in their hearts that the Arabs, even on the West Bank, have the right to rule themselves in their own way and to be treated as fellow-men. The alternative here is another war of vengeance, the possible destruction of Jerusalem (a city revered by people of many faiths), and poverty for Arabs and Jews.

Vietnam calls for changes of heart no less deep. Vietnamese must learn to live with Vietnamese. The Northerners and the Vietcong will have to accept that theirs is not the only admissible form of society and that people in the South have a right to choose something different. In the South, equally, those in authority will have to accept that the National Liberation Front and its members cannot be kept out of civil and political life if peace is to be attained. When families have been torn apart, with brothers and sisters fighting on opposite sides, reconciliation is hard. But just because of such tragic divisions, the value of non-violent reconciliation ought to be the more obvious. And American hearts, too, must change: to an understanding that, however worthy the motives which took the US forces to Vietnam, the outcome has been terrible human suffering. That, at least, is something which Senator Kennedy himself was directly conveying to his countrymen. It is something that they have begun to understand. Here, at least, we can be sure that his message will not soon be forgotten.

And will the US this time?

President Johnson's decision to set up a Commission on Violence is the least that could be done, now that Senator Kennedy is dead. As a political tactic it is a skilful move, since its members are respected pillars of the American Establishment and weighted to the right. (One of them, Senator Roman Hruska, is chief lobbyist for the notorious National Rifle Association.) But it is hard to see what they can say about violence in America which is not instinctively known by most Americans already. The need now is not for facts, however authoritatively they are pronounced, but for action. And here the Commission has no power.

The recent report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders is a discouraging precedent. That, too, was produced by a group of eminent Americans. It pointed out the harsh truth that the nation is moving towards two societies, one black and one white, separate and unequal. And the outcome has been inaction. Some, like Mr Nixon, preferred to look away and say that the cause of the riots was not "white racialism," as the Commission reported, but "black lawlessness." Others, like the President, greeted it with a frosty silence.

The last two major assassinations, those of President Kennedy and Dr Martin Luther King, ought to be a reminder that single incidents, however shocking, rarely move nations to make deep and painful changes in their own way of life. Those two murders brought little or no reform. So, too, with the reports of Commissions. The tools that are really necessary are hard political campaigning and the use of economic and political power. And even this has become harder in the past five years as the contradictions of American society have been more blatantly exposed. Five years ago a summer of demonstrations and mass action in Birmingham, Alabama, brought about the Civil Rights Act of 1963. This summer the Poor People's campaign in Washington is likely to produce at best a legislative mouse—and at worst a stronger white backlash.

It is easy enough to blame a reluctant Congress, as the President has done. But there is already enough legislation on the books for him to bring about major changes, if he is willing. The Federal Government has enormous power over the economy through the contracts it awards. The Defence Department alone has an annual budget larger than that of the People's Republic of China. After the Soviet Union, the Pentagon is the largest centrally planned economy in the world. The President already has Congressional authority to use this power to cut off contracts to firms that discriminate, as had other Presidents before him. Yet it has been used reluctantly and grudgingly so far. The Federal Highway Administration and housing agencies have similar powers. Why are they not used more often? In the last resort, too, the Federal Government will have to create jobs of its own for the millions of unemployed. Private enterprise cannot and will not do so by itself.

Violent America

I have watched it become a socially sick nation

by DAVID ENGLISH

NATIONS, like people, can have nervous breakdowns. And America is very near the edge of this situation. Paralysed with fear, tormented by indecision, it is allowing violence—the fatal flaw in the national character—to become the most dominating influence in its life.

In neurotic times, one word is sufficient to trigger off a pointless act of destruction. Yet all through spring and early summer the word "Kennedyism" has been given that built-in potential.

So perhaps it was inevitable that Robert Kennedy would be the victim of one of those sudden and senseless acts of violence that Americans seem to accept as much a part of their daily life as popcorn and apple pie.

For there is a macabre uniqueness about the Kennedys. No other political family in America is capable of attracting such loyalty and admiration; or of fostering such enmity and hatred.

Their very name is a lightning rod for those two extremes of chivalry and viciousness which vie constantly for the control of the American personality.

The extremist opponents of Kennedy—and they are the opponents of all the other legitimate political candidates and everything that is decent and important in America—had focalised such an aura of hatred around that name that it was only a question of time before the lightning struck.

It doesn't really matter who carried the gun in Los Angeles' Ambassador Hotel. He was merely the hypnotised victim of a poisoned system.

What does matter is that Americans have not learned the lesson of Dallas—that Jack Kennedy's memory is as dead as his body—and in the name of defending democracy Americans are effectively killing it.

Reflex

For how can a people talk about democracy or expect it to survive when they conduct their affairs in such a climate of unbridled viciousness?

If there is total licence to commit character assassination is it surprising that the real thing becomes a conditioned reflex of the times?

The freedom to poison the mind with hatred and fear, to publish filth and lies about the men wishing to take on the onerous task of leading the country has become blindly accepted in the United States.

God knows, their politics have always been rough but in this decade the rule book was thrown away.

Last month in America, I read articles about Robert Kennedy's life and family motivated by a malice and hatred so pathological that no civilised printer should have handled them.

But there they were. On the bookstalls.

And when I asked how it could happen . . . I was told "We have the freest Press in the world."

That is always the argument. Freedom must not be interdicted. Not only must there be freedom to oppose a politician: there must be freedom to break him too.

Obsession

No country can really afford the politics of hate. But America, with its obsession with guns and killing, can afford it least of all. It is incomprehensible to the rest of the world that Americans are allowed to go on buying and selling and part-exchanging guns in the name—once again—of freedom.

Why do they do it? The nonsensical argument about the constitutional right of every citizen to carry arms has been refuted and dismissed a hundred times.

Yet after Jack Kennedy, after Martin Luther King, all attempts to bring the gun-happy psychosis of America under observation, let alone control, died in the lonely backwaters of congressional committee rooms.

Bitter

Only a few days ago, Kennedy faced the guns in Oregon. He had arrived in one of those small but quite beautiful little towns that dot the plains and mountains of the North-West and there in a picnic field were angry and bitter crowds who loathed him and showed it.

They knew that he was supporting a Senate move to introduce registration of guns. So they surrounded him with signs that said "Protect your right to keep and bear arms."

They pushed and hustled the man whose brother—the 35th President of the United States—was murdered with a £5 mail order rifle and they defied him to challenge them.

Of course he did. And he told them how he felt about guns . . . and he had reason to feel strongly, he said. There was murder and violence and senseless killing all over the United States and he thought that there might be a little less if there was more control of firearms.

It is fascinating what they shouted back.

"You want to be another Hitler," screamed one man. "That's how it all started in Nazi Germany—when they made the people register their guns."

And a woman shouted: "We'll keep our guns and we'll keep our democracy." And she believed what she said.

These are the kind of conditions which stain and rot the fabric of American life. The richest and most powerful country in the world with more potential for good than any other nation is as dangerously ill as yesterday's election victor in California.

Impetus

Ballot boxes are useless if guns are used to carry more weight. The question is whether yesterday's ghastly shooting will break America's self-doubt and give it the impetus to throw off its internal sickness—or whether it will only make it worse.

It is very hard not to believe in America if you have lived there. And yet it is frightening to see, as I have, the remorseless personality changes which have transformed a confident and thrusting people into a socially sick nation.

Those changes began, I believe, when Lee Harvey Oswald killed Jack Kennedy almost five years ago.

Five years later—as if ordained—his brother lies critically ill, a near parallel victim of the American syndrome of violence.

All yesterday Americans watched their TV sets, traumatised by scenes almost Freudianlike in their similarity to Dallas. They must have cut deep into the national subconscious to recall a nightmare America had chosen too easily to forget.

"Robert Kennedy is a fatalist who won't let anything interfere with his fate," a friend once said. Perhaps his fate is to call America's attention to the need to change before it is too late.

If yesterday's events succeed in doing that, even while fighting for his life, he may finish what his brother set out to start.

This day of irony in a gun-sick society

Daily Mail June 7

From DONALD McLACH

IT IS an ironic coincidence. But while Robert Kennedy lay with a bullet in his brain, Congress was taking a timid step in the direction of controlling the sale of arms.

Shaken by the shock of the shooting, it hurriedly agreed to bring President Johnson's package Bill dealing with crime to a straight vote tomorrow, and skip the usual committee stage.

The much-watered-down arms section of the Bill simply bans the sale of hand-guns by mail-order.

It does not otherwise interfere with 'the citizen's right to bear arms.'

The Bill is backed by Robert Kennedy, who wanted to go much further to control the violence which is endemic to the American way of life.

A few seconds before he was shot down he told the election crowd in the Ambassador Hotel: 'We can work together to overcome divisions, violence, disenchantment. We are a great country, a selfless country, a compassionate country.'

OPPONENTS

But there are powerful opponents of Mr Kennedy's determination to limit the spread of guns, which since the turn of the century have killed 750,000 people in the United States—more than the dead in every war America has ever fought.

The strongest lobby in the country is the National Rifle Association which, backed by the arms manufacturers, exists solely for organised resistance to any form of weapons control.

Their immense propaganda machine attacked Mr Kennedy repeatedly and was given attentive ear by tens of thousands of Americans puffed up by misplaced pride in their bloody and brutal beginnings.

They call it the 'citizen's right to bear arms'—a pointed misinterpretation of the American Constitution. They believe in being permitted to take the law, as they see it, in their own hands.

A few hours after the shooting today about 200 demonstrators marched on the Washington headquarters of the 980,000-strong National Rifle Association. The demonstrators included trade unionists, members of student and religious bodies and representatives of the Poor People's Campaign.

Police stood by as the demonstrators carried banners reading: 'The sound of bullets fills the air,' 'Thank you, NRA, for bringing anarchy a little closer' and 'Stop the violence—stop the NRA.'

Many of them stood under an inscription on the facade of the NRA building which reads: 'The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.'

Tough gun control has been Mr Kennedy's obsession since his brother, President John Kennedy, was killed with a mail-order carbine.

CHEAP

The arms manufacturers and their dealers have fought it off again and again with good times, girls, and generous donations to the funds of amenable politicians.

So America remains perhaps the only civilised(?) country in the world where you can get yourself a gun as easily as—and sometimes cheaper than — a second-hand watch.

Five pounds and a sixpenny stamp for a mail-order weapon, which gives a licence to kill.

Today there is renewed outcry for fast action by a Congress that has stood idle. It would be bitter irony if Robert Kennedy has to die for his dream to be realised.

The feeling of those who want control was echoed today by Mr Arthur Goldberg, American Ambassador to the United Nations. He said:

'Our hearts cry out in pain and anguish at this terrible act of violence. Surely by now the lesson that violence breeds violence must be pounded into our heads.

'Surely by now all agree that there must be an end to killing, otherwise there will be little hope for our country or for the world.'

"What in the name of conscience will it take to pass a truly effective gun control law?"—
President Johnson, May 9, 1968

Sportsmen's lobby may lose at last

BY a tragic coincidence the first small measure towards control of gun sales in America was due to come before the House of Representatives yesterday for consideration.

Its approval now is almost certain—but it is a tiny advance, compared with the controls proposed after President Kennedy's assassination and made more urgent by the shooting of Martin Luther King. It would stop mail-order sales of hand guns and over-the-counter sales to those under 21.

£2.5M fight

That most powerful lobby, the National Rifle Association, has succeeded in pressing out of the Bill—now part of a general package, law-and-order regulation—reference to rifles and shotguns, and any question of registration of firearms. With 900,000 members, and 8,000 affiliated associations, the NRA has devoted nearly £2.5 millions to defeating attempts to control gun ownership. Besides eroding the present Bill to almost nothing, it has helped to keep the whole issue in a dormant committee stage for four years.

Two million weapons are sold each year in America and 27 million people own guns—enough to put a gun in half of all American homes. A recent survey showed that two thirds of Americans favour some sort of Federal control and registration of firearm sales; but 55 per cent of white gun owners said they would be prepared to shoot people in a riot. Since last summer's race disturbances, gun ownership, according to another poll, has nearly doubled. This has meant a prosperous time for the country's 400 or more mail-order gunstores; President Kennedy was killed with a rifle bought through the post.

Senator Thomas Dodd of Connecticut, along with Senator Edward Kennedy, has been the main proponent of control laws. In 1966 he produced figures to show that where gun laws are weak—they vary from State to State and city to city—a large number of killings are committed with guns. In Dallas 72 per cent of homicides are by shooting; in Phoenix, Arizona, where the laws are also weak, 66 per cent, while in tougher New York only a quarter of all killings are by shooting.

Yet in spite of the two-an-hour deaths by shooting and anguished pleading by statesmen including President Johnson—"What in the name of conscience will it take to pass a truly effective gun control law?"—the guns-for-all lobby conducts bizarre academic arguments to support its position.

In this month's "Guns and Ammo," for instance, hunting licence figures by State are compared with crime rates to "support the conclusion the crime goes up when civilian gun ownership goes down." In Vermont, with a hunting licence rate of 33,000 per 100,000 there is a "serious crime rate" of only 700 per 100,000 residents; but in New York with a licence ratio of only 3,800 per 100,000, the crime rate is 2,400. That Vermont is rural and empty is not mentioned.

Right to bear arms

More extraordinary is a heavy abstract case argued in the same magazine which explains that the second Amendment to the Constitution—conferring the right to bear arms—"is to prevent the rise of an armed élite superior to the average man." It goes on, "Preventative controls designed to proscribe an inert act on the grounds that it only may result in crime are no more than thinly disguised Bills of Attainder."

Explaining that a bill of attainder condemns without trial for specific offences groups thought in general to be hostile to society, the author, James L. Glackin, says "six million Jews went to the Nazi gas chambers on a Bill of Attainder signed by Adolf Hitler." From here Mr Glackin goes on to invoke Aristotle.

Summer city riots were more feared by some American gun authorities than another political assassination attempt as the bringer of gun controls. "If the summer remains fairly peaceful," says the magazine "there is still a good chance that controls will centre on mail-order hand guns and on stiffer penalties for their misuse. Pitched battles in the streets, however, would probably result in licensing and registration of all firearms."

Viewed from America Britain's gun rules seem very harsh. Certificates are issued to landowners and farmers to control vermin and other wild life, or for sport. Otherwise, the main route to a certificate is through club membership from which an assessment of competence can be obtained, which helps the police to decide on an applicant's suitability. But sportsmen here—even some who endorse the NRA's efforts in America—do not find our rules too restrictive.

Attack drives further wedge between races

Times June 6

From LOUIS HEREN—Washington, June 5

There was an awful inevitability about the shooting of Senator Robert Kennedy. On more than one occasion, when he was physically possessed by the crowds whose votes he sought, I had thought of his murdered brother and his own submission to a larger fate that was rarely separated from his lust for power.

There was something darkly Irish about this submission. He must have been more aware than most of the increasing violence of American life, and that his name aroused as much insane hatred as love and respect. Then there was the mean envy of those such as Lee Harvey Oswald, of the wealth, success, talent, and good looks with which the Kennedy family is so abundantly blessed.

There is nothing peculiarly American about hate and envy, but they can fester and luxuriate because of the fierce insistence on equality rather than individual liberty in this land of extreme wealth and poverty, opportunity and oppression, and insecurity of the excluded minority groups. It was Senator Kennedy's cruel fate that the nether world of stained sweatshirts, jeans and tattered sneakers was one of his natural allies in his bid for presidential power.

Inevitability did not diminish the shock and widespread shame. Speaker John McCormack exclaimed, "What is this country . . .", the thin, old voice of this other Irish Bostonian was reduced to whimpers. "It's terrible . . . it's indescribable", he declared.

Senator Ralph Yarborough, who witnessed the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas, said: "The deep stain of criminality and assassination in American life appears to be aimed at the most brilliant and progressive among us."

Perhaps about the time that Mr. Kennedy was shot, three Negroes entered an all-night diner here and are alleged to have shot and killed two Marine officers and wounded two others. The Negroes said that they had come from California to join the Poor People's march.

In New York, a Negro is being tried on charges of terrorist conspiracy. A Negro detective has alleged that the accused belonged to a terrorist cell which plotted to murder Mr. Roy Wilkins, the Negro leader, and then President Johnson.

The shooting in Los Angeles is more than another crime statistic, but it has served to dramatize lawlessness and renew demands for strong counter-measures. I fear that the shooting will also further divide the races.

The demands for Draconian law enforcement are made mainly by whites. Some also seek unconstitutional interference in the right of assembly and petition, but have little enthusiasm for stricter control of guns. Their craving for law and order is tainted by fear and hatred of Negroes.

On the other hand, many Negroes and members of other oppressed minorities see Senator Kennedy as the victim of racism. No matter that the championing of their rights paid political dividends, it swung the California primary vote against Senator Eugene McCarthy, Mr. Kennedy's anguished concern was unquestionably sincere.

This was recognized almost in spite of the jazzy campaigning, the manipulating of crowds and the happenings. Coming so soon after the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, one must assume that the shooting will do more than increase Negro alienation.

The senator's very personality somehow inflamed racial emotions. Unwittingly, he has been a devisive force. One coloured charlady telephoned early this morning and tearfully sought some comfort, but yesterday, walking along the more fashionable blocks of Connecticut Avenue, I overheard two over-dressed matrons saying the most obscene things about him.

I am not suggesting that the republic is in great danger. It did after all survive the assassination of President Kennedy. The murder of Dr. King brought about an explosive emission of racial hatred and violence, but the burnt-out liquor stores and loan-shark offices on 7th and 9th Street here are the only obvious reminders of those wild nights.

The United States has an immense and fundamental stability, in spite of recent horrors; but the tensions have undoubtedly increased. There is no way of knowing if a breaking point is being approached, or indeed if there is a breaking point; but clearly the country must have leadership. For all his qualities, I do not believe that President Johnson can provide it.

He provided magnificently when President Kennedy was assassinated. It was his finest hour. But the country was fearful of some conspiracy and desperately anxious to be assured of the continuity of presidential rule. Today's shooting is not nearly as tragic. Objectively, it must be said that the senator is a lesser victim of violence than his brother, but some terrible things have happened since November, 1963. President Johnson is not the man, to use his own words, to bind the nation's wounds.

The United States is, however, a democracy. It has reached the half-way mark in a presidential election year of more than usual importance. The shooting, as I have suggested, will enhance violence and race as electoral issues, although the motive of the would-be murderer was probably not racial. It could help to sway the vote in November, and the campaign from now on could prove to be an adequate substitute for leadership. The candidates must rise to the situation.

One of their number has been shot as if the election was being fought in some banana republic and not in the world's oldest and most stable republic. There is the impression that continuing violence is pushing the country into an abyss far more terrible than anything that has been threatened on the streets of Paris.

One must first assume, if nothing worse, that Mr. Kennedy is no longer a candidate. If he survives his grave wounds, and is not permanently incapacitated, a long period of recuperation must keep him out of the race. The consequences within the Democratic Party are not unnaturally already being considered. The obvious questions are where will his popular support and committed state delegations go, to Vice-President Humphrey or Senator McCarthy?

At first glance, it would seem that the combination Mr. Kennedy sought earlier with Mr. McCarthy will now be brought about by his own tragic elimination. Their two followings share a contempt for the party's established order. Both seek a change of leadership and a new direction, and rightly or wrongly Mr. Humphrey is seen as one of the blemished old guard.

His record proves that he is a better man than that, but Mr. McCarthy's popular following could now represent a majority. The combined totals of the Kennedy and McCarthy votes in the primaries are not a true indication of the proportion of disaffected Democrats. Many Negroes and members of ethnic groups will now swing to Mr. Humphrey, if only because without a Kennedy they traditionally rally to established party leaders.

Nevertheless, the Vice-President must now see his fellow Minnesotan as a very real threat. In popular terms at least, Mr. McCarthy is at last a serious candidate.

The division of convention delegate votes is another matter. Mr. Humphrey has claimed that he is close to the 1,312 required for nomination with about 1,000 pledged or promised. In fact, he is at present only sure of 561 and a half votes, and with his narrow victory in California, Mr. Kennedy has 493 and a half. Mr. McCarthy has 255.

What will eventually happen to the Kennedy delegates' votes is uncertain; these delegations have obviously been released from their obligations to vote for him on the first ballot. He will be on no ballot this year. The assumption is that many will go to the convention in Chicago unpledged to any candidate or as favourite son delegations.

In theory at least the number of favourite son delegates will be greatly increased. With many other delegates still uncommitted, the convention could be thrown wide open.

What in fact will happen is that both Mr. Humphrey and Mr. McCarthy will intensify and extend their efforts to win more delegates' votes before August. The Vice-President has the advantage, but Mr. McCarthy's cause is not hopeless.

Mr. Kennedy soundly trounced Mr. Humphrey yesterday in South Dakota, where he was born. It is unusual for a native son to be defeated in his own state, and the fact that the Vice-President campaigned vigorously there raises some doubts as to his popularity.

Mr. McCarthy did well in California, being beaten by only a few points. He denied Mr. Kennedy a decisive victory in the largest state in the Union, and thus proved that his following was not confined to lesser units such as Wisconsin and Oregon.

The cry heard in the Kennedy headquarters in Los Angeles last night, during the only too brief moments of victory, was "on to New York". Mr. McCarthy has his following there, and if he can win some Kennedy delegates, the party's so-called power brokers may have to review their opinion of him

As I see it, much will depend upon the behaviour of the two men between now and the convention. They have stopped campaigning, as a sign of respect for Mr. Kennedy, but they will not remain long inactive. The man who can best demonstrate his capacity for leadership, and depth of understanding of the nation's problems, could win the nomination.

There are some who believe that the situation has also changed for the Republicans. Their candidates must have 667 delegate votes for the nomination, and Mr. Richard Nixon has 392, Governor Ronald Reagan has 110, and Governor Nelson Rockefeller 77.

A good many more delegates are leaning towards Mr. Nixon, and the nomination is within his grasp. This is no cause for great satisfaction for many Republicans, who still question his ability to win independent votes. The polls have shown that he could be defeated by Senator McCarthy.

Thus the reinforced support for the Senator could have uncomfortable repercussions for Mr. Nixon. He has no rivals within the party at present. Mr. Rockefeller has fought a miserable campaign, and Mr. Reagan is not seen to be in the running, but the next round of polls could show many more Republicans crossing party lines to line up with Mr. McCarthy.

These rather mechanistic calculations can be misleading. If the senator is the unwilling beneficiary of the Kennedy tragedy, he is a Liberal pledged to racial reconciliation and social justice. I am not at all certain that they will arouse sufficient enthusiasm among the Democratic convention delegates, who with their opposite numbers in the Republican Party tend to be cautious men.

Apart from the preference of most of them for familiar faces and tried politics, they will, however, be watching the national mood closely. A hardening of racial lines, and demands for law and order at the expense of social justice, will surely swing them behind Mr. Humphrey, the rather unpersuasive representative of the status quo; but widespread revulsion from force and counter-force, and from what would appear to be another four years of consensus politics in the nastiest sense of the term, could win the nomination for Mr. McCarthy. After all, they are Democrats who want to win elections, not Republicans who would rather be right, even if it means defeat.

Little of this was heard today, and certainly not from Mr. McCarthy. When he was told of the shooting, he put his head in his hands and said: "Maybe we should do it in a different way. Maybe we should have the English system of having the Cabinet choose the President. There must be some other way."

B. PRD'S HIGHLY EMOTIONAL AND VEHEMENT REACTION TO SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH WAS PREDICTABLE. MUST, OF CIYRSR, BE VIEWED AGAINST PARTY'S RECENT INCREASING ATTENTION TO BOSCH'S "PENTAGONISM" THESIS AND PRD'S INTENSE ATTACHMENT OF ITS INTERESTS TO FORTUNES OF US LIBERALS REPRESENTED (TO PRD) BY SENATOR KENNEDY. WHILE STRONG LANGUAGE USED IS PRODUCT OF INTENSE EMOTION AND FRUSTRATION WHICH SENATOR'S DEATH REPRESENTS FOR PRD, IT ALSO REFLECTS SOME PROGRESSION OF PRD POSITION AT LEAST IN PROPAGANDA FIELD TOWARD VIOLENT REVOLUTION. 1. BULK OF PRESS COMMENT CONTINUED IN TONES SHARPLY CRITICAL OF ALLEGED ILLS OF AMERICAN SOCIETY.

2. THERE ALSO WAS TREMOR OF FOREBODING DERIVING FROM FEELING THAT WESTERN EUROPE'S DESTINY IS LINKED TO OURS. (THIS THEME HAS COME THROUGH REPEATEDLY IN PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS WITH INDIVIDUAL BELGIANS.) MOST PRESS COMMENT IS PUNCTUATED BY NUMEROUS EXPRESSIONS OF GRIEF AT SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH AND SYMPATHY FOR HIS FAMILY AND COUNTRYMEN.

3. MANY PAPERS CARRIED FULL TEXT OF DECLARATION MADE BY AMBASSADOR ON TV IN FRENCH AND DUTCH THANKING BELGIANS FOR THEIR SYMPATHY AT THIS SAD TIME. MOST OTHER PAPERS SUMMARIZED STATEMENT.

4. MOST COMMON THEME WAA AGAIN STRAIN OF VIOLENCE ALLEGED TO RUN THROUGH AMERICAN LIFE AND CHARACTER. INFLUENTIAL LA LIBRE BELGIQUE (CATHOLIC CONSERVATIVE) RAN FRONT-PAGE EDITORIAL ENTITLED " LAST WARNING " WHICH SUGGESTED THAT " AMERICAN CHALLENGE AS TOPIC OF INTEREST HAD BEEN REPLACED BY " AMERICAN SICKNESS - PLAGUE OF VIOLENCE. REFORM WOULD NOT COME QUICKLY THROUGH PASSAGE OF SOME NEW LAW BUT NECESSITATED " BASIC CHANGES IN THE FAMOUS AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE" TO WEED OUR GLORIFICATION OF VIOLENCE IN TV AND FILMS. LA LIBRE SAID

THAT " OLD EUROPE" WAS WATCHING AN " AMERICAN DISASTER WHICH LEFT HER (ERUOPE) DISTRESSED AND WORRIED AND PLUNGED HER INTO NEW UNCERTAINTIES."

5. DE NIEUWE GIDS (CATHOLIC) REMARKED THAT " DRIVE FOR POWER" SEEMED TO BE ASSUMING PLACE AS " DOMINATING FORCE" IN AMERICAN LIFE. VOLKSGAZET IN EDITORIAL ENTITLED " WAVE OF INTOLERANCE" TOOK SIMILAR LINE, POINTING OUT THAT PRESIDENT'S ACTION IN APPOINTING SPECIAL COMMISSION WAS RECOGNITION BY HIGHEST AUTHORITY OF VIOLENCE AS SPECIAL PROBLEM IN AMERICAN LIFE.

6. GAZET VAN ANTWERPEN (CATHOLIC), AFTER NOTING MASSIVE LOCAL ONTEREST IN KENNEDY'S CONDITION UP UNTIL HIS DEATH WAS ACTUALLY ANNOUNCED, HELD THAT AMERICAN PRESTIGE WAS BADLY DAMAGED. U.S. SEEMED TO BE A " STILL SMOKING MELTING-POT OF RACISM." AMERICANS MUST CONTINUEFIGHT AGAINST " SICKNESSES" OF THEIR SOCIETY.

7. LA DERNIERE HEURE (LIBERAL) TOOK MORE BALANCED APPROACH, COMMENTING THAT US HAD NO MONOPOLY ON ACTS OF POLITICAL VIOLENCE. PAPER SUGGESTED THAT THOSE WHO SPREAD FANATICISM OF ANY SORT WERE REAL AUTHORS OF THIS HORRIBLE CRIME. KNIGHT

SUBJECT: ZAMBIAN REACTIONS TO SENATOR KENNEDY ASSASSINTION

1. SUMMARY. STRONG EMOTIONAL REACTIONS TO ASSASSINATION TEND AT BEST TO PUT BLAME ON VIOLENCE IN AMERICAN SOCIETY AND AT WORST TO SUGGEST IT WAS "SCHEMED BY THOSE IN POWER" IN THE US. POLITICIANS SEEM INCLINED TO MORE RADICAL INTERPRETATIONS. END SUMMARY.

2. IN ABSENCE PRESIDENT KAUNDA VICE PRESIDENT KAPWEPWE'S FIRST REACTION WAS TO CHARACTERIZE TRAGIC ACT AS "PRIMITIVE, BARBARIC, AND UNDEMOCRATIC". IN RATHER UNANIMATED INFORMAL TELEVISION INTERVIEW LATER JUNE 6, KAPWEPWE REPEATED THIS PHRASE AND, THOUGH NOT DIRECTLY AGREEING WITH INTERVIEWER'S SUGGESTION OF A CONSPIRATORIAL LINK BETWEEN THIS AND MURDERS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND DR. KING, HE SPOKE OF ALL THREE IN CONTEXT OF A SOCIETY THAT MADE IT DANGEROUS TO BE IN FOREFRONT OF LIBERAL LEADERSHIP. IN VIEW OF SUCH EVENTS HE QUESTIONED HOW ONE COULD BELIEVE AMERICAN PROTESTATIONS OF DEMOCRACY AND WORLD LEADERSHIP.

3. FILM CLIPS SHOWN JUST PRIOR TO TV INTERVIEW INCLUDED ONE IN WHICH SENATOR KENNEDY ANNOUNCED HIS CANDIDACY BY STATEMENT HE RUNNING FOR POLICIES, NOT AGAINST INDIVIDUALS, BUT ONE CANNOT CHANGE POLICIES WITHOUT CHANGING ADMINISTRATION. ANOTHER SHOWED KENNEDY SAYING WORDS TO EFFECT THAT "FORCES REALLY DIVIDING AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE THOSE IN POWER", THAT REALLY DIVISIVE FORCE WAS PRESIDENT JOHNSON. SUCH QUOTES MAY WELL CONTRIBUTE TO FALSE VIEW HELD BY SOME THAT KILLING MUST SOMEHOW BE SCHEME OF "THOSE IN POWER".

Lusaka 2022 6/7/68

4. LATTER VIEW EXPRESSED BY WESTERN PROVINCE MINISTER OF STATE PETER CHANDA WHO TOLD TIMES OF ZAMBIA ASSASSINATION WAS "ONLY WHAT COULD BE EXPECTED FROM THE COWBOY GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES". HE WAS CONVINCED THAT MURDER WAS "MASTER-MINDED BY THOSE ALREADY IN POWER". SAID AMERICA PREACHED DEMOCRACY FROM HILL TOPS YET WAS SCENE OF SUCH "BRUTAL, SAVAGE AND UNCIVILIZED MURDER".

5. UNIP NATIONAL SECRETARY AND MINISTER WITHOUT PORTFOLIO MAINZA CHONA, BELIEVED ASSASSIN WAS A "MERCENARY" AND THOUGHT MURDER "SHOWS THAT TO SURVIVE AS PRESIDENT OF AMERICA ONE HAS TO BE A THUG".

6. OTHER TIMES INTERVIEWS SHOWED SENATOR KENNEDY HAD ENDEARED HIMSELF TO ZAMBIANS AND, AS ONE CLERGY MAN PUT IT "STOOD FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND EQUALITY FOR THE NEGROES AND HAD PLANS TO END THE UNSOLVED VIETNAM WAR".

7. ONE TEACHER SAID, "THIS IS AVERY UNCIVILIZED ACT. IF IT HAPPENED HERE THE OUTCRY WOULD BE THAT WE STILL LIVED IN A JUNGLE". ANOTHER SAW IT AS A "CULMINATION OF RACIALISM AND ACTIVITIES OF SELFISH INDIVIDUALS WHO WERE HUNGRY FOR POWER".

8. RADIO ZAMBIA NEWS TALK THIS MORNING PLAYED THEME OF THIS

TO HILT, SPOKE OF CHILDREN BEING BROUGHT UP ON TV GUNPLAY RATHER THAN FAIRY TALES, MENTIONED DEATHS OF BOTH KENNEDYS, KING, EVERS AND MALCOLM X, AND ALLUDED TO AREAS OF COUNTRY UNDER CONTROL OF ORGANIZED CRIME SYNDICATES LIKE MAFIA. IT PORTRAYED AMERICA AS "SICK SOCIETY" WHERE RICH WERE FIGHTING POOR AND BLACK FIGHTING WHITE, WITH IMPLICATION IT WAS TOO LATE TO FIND A CURE. WILL POUCH TEXT.

9. BELIEVE FOREGOING ARE FAIRLY TYPICAL OF THE RANGE OF ZAMBIAN REACTIONS. FEW SEEMED TO NOTICE OR BE INFORMED OF FACT THAT MAN CHARGED WITH MURDER WAS AN ALIEN WHOSE MOTIVE SEEMS UNCONNECTED WITH US DOMESTIC PROBLEMS. THE STRONG VISCERAL REACTIONS WOULD SEEM TO INDICATE EQUALLY STRONG FEELINGS OF PERSONAL INVOLVEMENT WITH THE AMERICAN IDEALS KENNEDY SYMBOLIZED FOR THEM. IN SHORT, RIGHTLY OR WRONGLY, KENNEDY SEEMED TO REPRESENT HOPE FOR THE REALIZATION OF SUCH IDEALS NOT ONLY FOR AMERICANS BUT

OTHERS TOO, AND RESENTMENT AT THE FRUSTRATION OF THESE IDEALS IS DIRECTED AT THE VERY AMERICAN SOCIETY FROM WHICH THEY STEM

CURRENT REACTION

JOINT EMBASSY/USIS MESSAGE

1. NEWS CONCERNING ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY DOMINATED BOTH MORNING NEWSPAPERS. HARD NEWS STORIES WERE SUPPLIED ZP GHANA NEWS AGENCY AND LARGELY TAKEN ROM REUTER. BOTH PAPERS USED BLACK FRAMED HEADLINES ON DEATH.

2. ALL FIVE FRONT-PAGE STORIES IN DAILY GRAPHIC CONCERNED TRAGEDY, INCLUDING ONE STORY ON JORDANIAN ASSASSIN.

3. LOCALLY WRITTEN EDITORIALS AND COLUMNS WERE GENERALLY HIGHLY CRITICAL OF AMERICAN SOCIETY. GRAPHIC EDITORIAL REFERRED TO KENNEDY AS "THE ONE HOPE WHICH MANY PEOPLE SAW FOR SICK AMERICAN SOCIETY. WE CANNOT HELP BUT GET SOME VERY UNEASY AND DIRTY FEELING THAT AMERICA ALWAYS KILLS ANY OF HER CITIZENS WHO ADVOCATE SANITY AND CIVILIZATION AS AMERICAN MISSIONARIES WOULD MAKE US IN 'DARK AFRICA' UNDERSTAND," EDITORIAL SAID.

4. GHANAIAN TIMES EDITORIAL WAS MORE MODERATE. GENERALLY EXPRESSED SADNESS AT KENNEDY DEATH, BUT A FEATURE ARTICLE JUXTAPOSED TO EDITORIAL WAS MOST VICIOUS ANTI-AMERICAN ATTACK IN MORNING PRESS.

5. EDITORIAL SPOKE OF THE "IMMENSE LOSS NOT ONLY TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, BUT ALSO TO THE WHOLE WORLD AT LARGE." IT CONDEMNED THE ASSASSINATION ALONG WITH "ALL DECENT-MINDED, LIBERAL PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD," AND EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT GUN CONTROL LAWS WOULD BE PASSED.

6. THE HIGHLY ANTI-AMERICAN COLUMN BY ACTING FEATURE EDITOR BOAKYE DJAN DESCRIBED KENNEDY'S DEATH AS "THE LATEST ADDITION TO THE LONG STORY OF AMERICA'S MORAL DECAY," AND LIBERALLY USED SUCH PHRASES AS "AMERICAN IMPERIAL DREAMS," "AMERICAN MONOPOLY CAPITALISM," AND "ULTA-REACTIONARY RESPONSE."

7. "AMERICA'S IM ERIAL DREAMS RECEIVED A TREMENDOUS BOOST RIGHT UP TO THE END OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR WHEN THE SUCCESS STORY OF SOCIALISM IN EUROPE---ESPECIALLY IN THE EAST--- SIGNIFIED THE END OF ITS DREAM OF STEPPING INTO THE IMPERIAL SHOES OF THEIR BRITISH AND FRENCH ANCESTORS," THE DJAN COLUMN SAID.

8. "THE MEN OF AMERICAN MONOPOLY CAPITALISM, SEEING THEIR ADVANCE TO WORLD DOMINATION HALTED AND THREATENED IN THIS WAY, TURNED TO ANTI-COMMUNISM AS THEIR BASIC STATE POLICY," HE CONTINUED.

9. SPEAKING OF A ERICA'S "BOUTS OF POLITICAL HYSTERIA AT HOME AND ABROAD," THE ARTICLE SAID THAT " THE DISTINGUISHING HALL-MARKS OF THESE HAVE BEEN BOTH ATOMIC BLACK-MAIL AND INGENUITY; SYSTEMATIC PERSECUTION OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND THE INTELLECTUALS OF THE LEFT SINCE THE MCCARTHY DAYS, AND THE CALCULATED DESTRUCTION OF A SMALL COUNTRY AND ITS POPULATION THROUGH TERROR BOMBING OF CIVILIAN POPULATION IN VIETNAM," DJAN WROTE.

10. HIS ARTICLE ALSO PRESENTED HIS VIEW NEGRO'S POSITION IN THE UNITED STATES AS FOLLOWS: "THE MASS OF AFRO-AMERICANS WHO ARE REPORTED TO BE 'SUBSISTING ON GRASS' ESPECIALLY IN THE MISSISSIPPI AREAS ARE ALSO BELIEVED TO BE 'HUDDLED IN RAT-INFESTED GHETTOES FIGHTING DESPERATELY' TO BREATHE THE VERY 'FREE AIR' AMERICAN IS SUPPOSED TO BE EXPORTING TO AND DEFENDING IN VIETNAM AND EVEN THEN 'ONLY TO BE CLUBBED DOWN AND SHOT BY POLICE.'"

11. DJAN ARTICLE CONCLUDED, "THESE FACTS OUGHT TO BE A SOBERING THOUGHT TO OUR LEADERS WHO IN A DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO RESCUE

US FROM RED-RUSSIAN AND CHINESE IMPERIALISM ARE NOW PUSHING US GRADUALLY INTO THE FOLD OF THIS AMERICA! (IN CAPS) A CITADEL OF DEMOCRACY (IN CAPS) WHICH CANNOT OR IS NOT EVEN WILLING TO OFFER ADEQUATE PROTECTION FOR HER LEADERS."

12. AN ARTICLE IN GRAPHIC, ENTITLED " THE SHAME OF AMERICA," SAID THE ASSASSINATIONS OF THE TWO KENNEDYS, DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, AND MALCOLM X "PAINT A GRUESOME PICTURE OF THE UNITED STATES."

13. "WHERE DOES THE WORLD GO FROM HERE IF THEY WHO PROFESS TO BE THE LEADERS IN WEALTH, IN TECHNOLOGICAL AND SCIENTIFIC ACHIEVEMENTS AND IN SO CALLED CIVILIZATION CAN SO EASILY ABANDON THESE TRUTHS AND TAKE TO THE GUN LAW OF THE PAST," THE WRITER ASKED.

14."THE DASTARDLY ACTS WERE COMMITTED BY A SMALL BAND OF WRETCHES BUT THE SHAME IS THAT OF ALL AMERICA AND AMERICANS," HE SAID.

15. ASSASSINATION NEWS GOT MUCH LESS PLAY IN KUMASI. KUMASI PIONEER EDITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGED UNITED STATES AS CHAMPION OF "THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRATIC FREEDOM AND HUMAN CIVILIZATION IN WORLD TODAY" BUT EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT AMERICA IS THE ONE GREAT NATION IN WESTERN HEMISPHERE THAT "PERSISTS IN SHOCKING THE WORLD WITH THE RUDEST OF VIOLENCE TO HUMAN DIGNITY."

16. "WHILE WE EXPRESS OUR DEEPEST CONDOLENCE TO THE PEOPLE OF AMERICA AND THE FAMILY OF SENATOR KENNEDY, THIS QUESTION WE ALSO WANT ALL AMERICANS TO ANSWER: WHAT'S WRONG IN THE UNITED STATES?" FOLEY

REF: BERLIN 1615

1. ABOUT 1500 PERSONS, MOSTLY YOUTHS, JOINED IN A SILENT MARCH FROM DOWNTOWN BERLIN TO RATHAUS SCHOENEBERG ON JOHN F. KENNEDY PLATZ THE EVENING OF JUNE 6. AN OFFICIAL OF THE SPONSORING ORGANIZATION (RING OF POLITICAL YOUTH) MADE A SHORT MEMORIAL STATEMENT ABOUT SENATOR KENNEDY, AFTER WHICH THE CROWD OBSERVED A MINUTE OF SILENCE AS THE FREEDOM BELL WAS RUNG. REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH THE BERLIN SENAT (INCLUDING THE ACTING GOVERNING MAYOR) AND THE US MISSION (OUR LIAISON OFFICER AND I) WERE PRESENT AT THE CEREMONY.

2. MANY BERLINERS AND FOREIGNERS HAVE SIGNED THE CONDOLENCE BOOKS AT THE US CONSULATE AND AMERIKA HAUS. MAYOR NEUBAUER (ACTING GOVERNING MAYOR) WAS ONE OF THE FIRST VISITORS TO THE CONSULATE AFTER THE BOOK WAS OPENED.

3. WE HAVE BEEN INFORMED THAT SENATOR FOR FEDERAL AFFAIRS DIETRICH SPANGENBERG WILL REPRESENT BERLIN (AS PART OF THE OVERALL GERMAN REPRESENTATION) AT THE FUNERAL SERVICE AND BURIAL JUNE 8.

1. WE HAD OPPORTUNITY LAST NIGHT JUNE 6 TO TALK TO HALF-DOZEN ALGERIAN FONOFF OFFICIALS. THEY ACTED AS IF UNDER INSTRUCTIONS TO SAY NOTHINGABOUT SEN KENNEDY'S DEATH, NO CONDOLENCES, NO EXPRESSIONS OF REGRET, NO QUESTIONS ON IMPACT IN AMERICA OR ON IDENTITY OF ASSASSIN AND POSSIBLE RAMIFICATIONS. ONLY EXCEPTION WAS ONE OFFICIAL, MARRIED TO AMERICAN GIRL, WHO TOOK ME ASIDE TO SAY HOWPERSONALLY SORRY HE AND WIFE WERE. PAO REPORTS SAME COOLNESS AND EXTREME RELUCTANCE TO TALK ABOUT ASSASSINATION ON PART OF ALGERIAN PRESS PEOPLE AND OFFICIALS CONCERNED WITH PRESS AND INFORMATION ACTIVITIES.

2. ALGERIAN PRESS JUNE 7, NOTABLE FRENCH-LANGUAGE "EL MOUDJAHID" PLAYS STORY BOTH WAYS, STRAIGHT AND EMOTIONAL-EXTREMIST. ONE INSIDE ARTICLE, OVER ONE-QUARTER PAGE IN SIZE AND BORDERED IN BLACK, GIVES FACTUAL ACCOUNT OF SENATOR'S LAST HOURS AND THEN CARRIES LENGTHY EXCERPTS FROM PRESIDENT'S JUNE 6 ANNOUNCEMENT AND PROCLAMATION TO NATION. JERUSALEM, AND ALTHOUGH NOT IDENTIFYING HIM AS ARAB, PROVIDES ENOUGH COLLATERAL INFORMATION SUCH AS NAMES OF HIS BROTHERS SO AS TO LEAVE NO DOUBT IN MINDS OF TYPICAL ARAB READERS. STRESSED L.A. POLICE CHIEF REDDIN'S STATEMENT ABOUT NO EVIDENCE POINTING TO INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY.

3. OTHER ARTICLES AND EDITORIAL ALMOST CONSTITUTE CASE STUDY OF COMPLEXES, FEARS, GRIEVANCES AND PREJUDICES BESETTING WHOLE ARAB WORLD. EDITORIAL ATTACKS CERTAIN EUROPEAN PRESS AGENCIES AND RADIOS FOR UNDERLINING "ASSASSIN'S ARAB NATIONALITY" AND HIS "ARAB FANATICISM". DESCRIBES THIS TENDNCY AS ATTEMPT TO REMOVE PROBLEM FROM ITS PURELY AMERICAN CONTEXT AND LINK IN INTENTIONALLY TO MIDDLE EAST PROBLEM. ASKS IF SIRHAN NOT KILLER HIRED BY ZIONISTS FOR PURPOSE DISCREDITING ARABS IN EYES OF INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC OPINION AND PROVOKE ANTIARAB HYSTERIA IN USA.

4. ALGIERS OFFICE OF PALESTINE LIBERATION MOVEMENT "EL FETH" HAS ISSUED RELEASE ALSO PUBLISHED IN TODAY'S PRESS AND TAKING SIMILAR LINE. AFTER TAKING SEN. KENNEDY TO TASK FOR RECENT PRO-ISRAELI STATEMENTS, EL FETH CALLS ASSASSIN "INSTRUMENT OF WORLD ZIONISM, CAPITALISM AND CIA". DOUBTS THAT KILLINGS OF JOHN AND ROBERT KENNEDY COULD HAVE BEEN WORK OF SINGLE INDIVIDUALS. NONE-THE LESS, "EL FETH" "CONDEMNS ANY PERSON USING THIS ARM (ASSASSINATION) IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY AND AGAINST A FOREIGN CITIZEN OVER POLITICAL DIFFERENCES." ALSO MAINTAINS FETH MOVEMENT HAS "AFFIRMED MANY TIMES ITS DECISION NOT TO EMPLOY REPRISALS AGAINST CIVIL POPULATIONS OF OUR ENEMIES."

5. ONE THEME PLAYED PROMINENTLY BY RADIO ALGIERS IN COMMENTARY ON KENNEDY DEATH IS THAT INSTEAD OF LOOKING FOR LINK WITH ARAB WORLD, ANSWER IS TO BE FOUND IN PAST OF AMERICAN HISTORY, ESPECIALLY HISTORY OF VIOLENCE TOWARDS INDIANS, NEGROES, LATIN-AMERICANS AND ASIANS.

6. WE HAVE HAD GREAT NUMBER OF LETTERS, TELEPHONE CALLS AND OTHER EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY FROM OFFICIAL AND PRIVATE FRENCH COMMUNITY; FROM OTHER EUROPEANS, BOTH EAST AND WEST; AND FROM ASIANS, LATIN AMERICANS AND AFRICANS. ARAB DIPLOMATS BY CONTRAST CLEARLY DO NOT WANT TO TALK ABOUT MATTER. EXCEPTION HAS BEEN TUNISIAN AMBASSADOR. WE HAVE NOT HEARD ANYTHING ABOUT OFFICIAL GOA CONDOLENCES BUT WE DO NOT EXCLUDE POSSIBILITY. AS FOR COOLNESS AND RESERVE BY ALGERIAN OFFICIALS, THERE MAY BE SEVERAL REASONS:

FACT THAT SHOOTING OCCURED ON JUNE 5, WHICH IS ANNIVERSARY OF SHAME AND DISGRACE TO ARABS; ARAB ORIGIN OF ASSASSIN AND ALGERIAN APPREHENSIONS ABOUT WHAT INVESTIGATIONS MIGHT UNCOVER; VERY REAL ALGERIAN RESENTMENT OVER SENATOR'S PORTLAND, OREGON SPEECH (COMPOUNDED BECAUSE OF HITHERTO IMMENSE POPULARITY OF JOHN F. KENNEDY AND KENNEDY FAMILY AMONG ALGERIANS); CURRENT ALGERIAN-TUNISIAN CRISIS, WHICH GOA APPARENTLY ATTRIBUTES TO BOURGUIBA'S U.S. VISIT; AND FINALLY, FACT THAT U.S.-ALGERIAN RELATIONS REMAIN BROKEN AS RESULT LAST JUNE WAR.

FURTHER, MANY WRITERS SEE THE ASSASSINATION AS "PLOT" BY AN "ALL-POWERFUL GROUP (IN THE UNITED STATES) THAT IS DETERMINED TO PREVENT PEACE." TO SUCH EDITORS, KENNEDY, THE PEACE CANDIDATE, WAS KILLED BY BIG BUSINESS INTERESTS WHO WANTED HIM OUT OF THE WAY SO THAT THE WAR WOULD GO ON AND THEY WOULD CONTINUE TO EARN ENORMOUS PROFITS.

3. WHILE BOTH TELEVISION CHANNELS AND ALL RADIO STATIONS HAVE GIVEN PLAY TO THE STORY, LOCAL TELEVISION HAS PAID SPECIAL HOMAGE TO THE SLAIN SENATOR WITH THIRTY MINUTE PROGRAMS ON JUNE 6 OVER CHANNEL 2, AND ON JUNE 7 OVER CHANNEL 4. TO THIS LETTER, WE PROPOSE TO SEND FOLLOWING SIGNED BY COUNSELOR OF EMBASSY ON TUESDAY, JUNE 11:

" THE AMBASSADOR HAS REQUESTED ME TO ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR LETTER OF JUNE 6, 1968.

" AS THE WORLD NOW KNOWS AND KNEW BEYOND ALL SHADOW OF DOUBT WITHIN HOURS AFTER THE SHOOTING, THE INDIVIDUAL NOW CHAGED WITH THE MURDER OF SENATOR KENNEDY IS NOT A JAMAICAN. IT DOES NOT SEEM THAT THE IMPLICATION THAT A JAMAICAN MIGHT POSSIBLY BE INVOLVED, SO QUICKLY CORRECTED BY OVERWHELMING PUBLICITY AS TO THE TRUE NATIONALITY OF THE SUSPECT, NECESSITATES ANY FURTHER ACTION BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, SINCE, AS YOUR ARE AWARE, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS NO JURISDICTION OR CONTROL OVER EMPLOYEES OF A MUNICIPALITY.

"AS YOU MUST KNOW, REGRETS HAVE ALREADY BEEN VOLUNTEERED BY THE AMBASSADOR TO THE PRIME MINISTER PERSONALLY. FURTHER WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED THAT REGRETS WERE SIMILARLY VOLUNTEERED BY AN OFFICER OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO THE JAMAICAN CHARGE IN WASHINGTON."

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE SECTION ONE OF TWO LONDON 9659

SUBJECT: BRITISH PRESS ON KENNEDY ASSASSINATION

SUMMARY: BRITISH NEWSPAPERS AND BROADCASTING MEDIA HAVE OVERFLOWED WITH REPORTS AND COMMENTARY, ALMOST TO EXCLUSION OF OTHER NEWS, AS TRAGEDY OF ROBERT KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION HIT SHOCKED AND UNBELIEVING BRITAIN. RESPONSE HAS BEEN OUT-POURING OF SYMPATHY FOR AMERICA, AND SIMULTANEOUSLY, HORRIFIED RECOIL FROM VIOLENCE AND EVIL REVEALED IN COUNTRY TO WHICH THEY FEEL SO CLOSE. DEBATE OVER SIGNIFICANCE OF EVENT FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION
AND FOR FUTURE OF AMERICAN SOCIETY IS WIDESPREAD BUT INCONCLUSIVE, SAVE IN ONE RESPECT -- A UNIVERSAL DISGUST WITH AND CONDEMNATION OF AMERICAN REFUSAL TO PASS ADEQUATE AND CIVILIZED LEGISLATION TO CONTROL DISTRIBUTION OF GUNS.

1. BRITISH PRESS RESPONSE TO MURDER OF SENATOR KENNEDY MUST HAVE CLOSELY RIVALLED AMERICAN PRESS IN IMMEDIACY, DETAIL, AND EMOTIONAL IMPACT. FROM MOMENT NEWS BROKE, PAPERS AND TV HAVE REPORTED REPETITIVELY AND IN ALL ITS CONTRADICTORY MINUTIAE THE SHOOTING AND EVERY SCRAP OF NEWS RELEVANT TO IT. ON EMOTIONAL LEVEL, BRITAIN HAS REACTED ALMOST AS EXTENSION OF US AND PARTICIPANT IN TRAGEDY. AS BRITAIN TAKES BREATH, PRESS IS ATTEMPTING OBJECTIVE ASSESSMENT OF REAL MEANING OF KENNEDY'S DEATH FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, AND OF ITS SIGNIFICANCE AS A MANIFESTATION OF THE CONDITION OF AMERICAN SOCIETY. WHILE DIFFERENCES ALONG POLITICAL LINES ARE EVIDENT, THERE IS A GENERAL TENDENCY TO ATTRIBUTE AMERICAN PROPENSITIES TO VIOLENCE TO SOCIAL INEQUALITIES, AND AN ALMOST UNIVERSAL AGREEMENT THAT WHATEVER ITS SOURCE,

London - 9659 6-7-68

VIOLENCE IS NEEDLESSLY AND CRIMINALLY ENCOURAGED BY LAX GUN LAWS.

2. EDITORIAL COMMENT HAS BEEN LARGELY DEVOTED TO THE DEBATE WHICH PRESS REPORTS IS CURRENTLY OBSESSING U.S.: IS POLITICAL VIOLENCE SYMPTOM OF SICK SOCIETY OR FLAW IN AMERICAN CHARACTER, OR SIMPLY BAD LUCK THAT POLITICAL LEADERS BECOME VICTIMES OF DERANGED MINDS? POPULAR PRESS TENDS TO ASCRIBE VIOLENCE TO FRONTIER MENTALITY AND OUTDATED WILD-WEST MYTHOLOGY OF AMERICA, AND TO DEPLORE ITS CONTINUANCE IN MODERN WORLD. QUALITY PRESS TENDS MORE TO TRACE IT TO SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC INEQUALITIES LEADING TO ALIENATION OF LARGE NUMBERS OF AMERICANS.

3. TIMES LEADER JUNE 6 FOUND TENDENCY TOWARD VIOLENCE UNIVERSAL, BUT EXAGGERATED IN US BECAUSE OF HAVE VS. HAVE-NOT SPLIT. "FOR WHATEVER REASONS VIOLENCE IS GROWING POWER IN U.S. ... IN ALMOST EVERY OTHER COUNTRY SAME PATTERN OF GROWING VIOLENCE CAN BE DETECTED EVEN THOUGH IN BRITAIN IT HAS NOT REACHED ANYTHING LIKE SAME LEVEL". POLITICAL VIOLENCE NORMALLY CONCENTRATED UPON BEST MEN BY ALIENATED, AND ALIENATED FOUND IN LARGE NUMBERS ONLY IN SOCIETY WHERE ALIENATION IS COMMON. "IN US PROSPERITY HAS BECOME AN INSULT TO THOSE WHO DO NOT SHARE IT ... VIOLENCE IS REVENGE ON SOCIETY OF THOSE WHO ARE LEFT OUT". PARADOX IS THAT CHIEF AIM OF KENNEDY WAS TO END SOCIAL ALIENATION IN US. LOUIS HEREN IN TIMES PLAYED SAME THEME. " THERE IS NOTHING PECULIARLY AMERICAN ABOUT HATE AND ENVY, BUT THEY FESTER AND LUXURIATE IN LAND OF EXTREME WEALTH AND POVERTY ... AND INSECURITY OF EXCLUDED MINORITY GROUPS. IT WAS SENATOR KENNEDY'S CRUEL FATE THAT NEITHER WORLD OF STAINED SWEATSHIRTS, JEANS AND TATTERED SNEAKERS WAS ONE OF HIS NATURAL ALLIES IN HIS BID FOR PRESIDENTIAL POWER".

4. GUARDIAN SAID SHOOTING "JUST ONE MORE INDICATION OF EXTENT TO WHICH VIOLENCE HAS BECOME PART OF AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE". ALTHOUGH GUARDIAN ON 6TH GOT IN ITS LICKS ON VIETNAM -- "IF GOVERNMENTS CAN USE VIOLENCE, PEOPLE FEEL FEWER RESTRAINTS" -- LEADER NEXT DAY TOOK BROADER VIEW, DOUBTING THAT PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION CAN HELP OF SAY ANYTHING NOT ALREADY KNOWN: NEED NOW IS FOR ACTION TO HELP DISPOSSESSED AND ALIENATED.

5. DAILY TELEGRAPH DENIES AMERICAN SOUL FLAWED WITH VIOLENCE. "IN FEW COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD IS STYLE AND TEMPER OF POLITICS MORE CIVILIZED"; IT UNFAIR TO BESMIRCH AMERICAN REPUTATION FOR CRIMES OF FEW. DAILY EXPRESS SAYS IT DOESN'T MATTER WHO PULLED TRIGGER; HE WAS MERELY HYPNOTIZED VICTIM OF POISONED SYSTEM. DAILY MAIL AGREES REAL REASON FOR VIOLENCE OF MINORITIES IS THAT THEY DENIED PROMISE OF AMERICA.

6. BUT BRITISH PRESS IS UNANIMOUS, AND BITTERLY EMPHATIC, IN ITS CONDEMNATION OF FAILURE TO CONTROL INDISCRIMINATE SALES OF FIREARMS, AND SPECIFICALLY OF THE NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION, WHICH SEEN HERE AS CHIEF IMPEDIMENT TO SENSIBLE LEGISLATION DESIRED BY BULK OF PEOPLE. EVERY MAJOR PAPER HAS COMMENTED AT LENGTH AND IN STRONGEST LANGUAGE UPON NEED FOR PROMPT AND MEANINGFUL GUN LAWS. CARTOONS AND REPRODUCED GUN ADS FROM AMERICAN MAGAZINES DRIVE POINT HOME. A FEW SAMPLES: FINANCIAL TIMES: "ONE MUST CONCLUDE THAT POLITICAL MURDERS MUCH LESS LIKELY IF GUNS LESS EASILY AVAILABLE AND SOCIALLY ACCEPTABLE". TELEGRAPH: "RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS IS CONCEPT FROM A BYGONE ERA WHEN IT WAS ALLY OF ORDER: NOW IT IS ITS MORTAL ENEMY". SUN: "RIGHT OF EVERY CITIZEN TO BUY A GUN MORE JEALOUSLY GUARDED THAN LIVES OF PUBLIC MEN". EXPRESS: "POWER OF THE NRA IS AN EXTRAORDINARY DEFECT OF AMERICAN POLITICS". DAILY MAIL: "THERE ARE NO WORDS STRONG ENOUGH TO CONDEMN REFUSAL OF US CONGRESS TO PASS STRICT LAWS CONTROLLING SALE OF GUNS". MIRROR: "NO LAW CAN STOP FANATICS, BUT THEY CAN HELP. THE RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS IS NOW A WRONG".

7. ELECTION. ALTHOUGH PRESS BEING VERY CAUTIOUS IN ANALYZING PROBABLE EFFECTS UPON ELECTION, INITIAL REACTION IS THAT SENATOR MCCARTHY NOW A MUCH STRONGER THREAT, BUT THAT DELEGATES RELEASED BY KENNEDY'S DEATH MAY FLOCK TO HUMPHREY BEFORE MCCARTHY CAN CONSOLIDATE NEW POSITION. SEVERAL PAPERS HAVE SUGGESTED THAT NEGROES AND ETHNIC AND POOR VOTERS LIKELY FEEL DISENFRANCHISED AND AT SEA, AND THEIR EVENTUAL CHOICE NOW INDETERMINABLE AND CRUCIAL. FEAR OF HARDENING NEGRO ATTITUDE IS WEDESPREAD AND CONSEQUENCE EXPECTED TO BE MORE CITY RIOTS. LOUIS HEREN OF TIMES THINKS SUCH HARDENING LIKELY SWING NEGRO VOTE BEHIND HUMPHREY, WHEREAS IF REACTION IS WIDESPREAD

REVULSION FROM FORCE, LIKELY BENEFIT MCCARTHY. MANY ARTICLES ON EDWARD KENNEDY HAVE APPEARED THIS MORNING, WITH STRONG IMPLICATION HE MAY PICK UP TORCH. THE EXPRESS SUGGESTS THAT NIXON MAY NOW BE SWEPT INTO OFFICE ON NATIONAL DEMAND FOR LAW AND ORDER.

9. THIS MORNINGS TIMES PROBABLY SUMS UP THE PRESENT BRITISH MOOD AS WELL AS ANY COMMENT. "THE REST OF THE WORLD WILL BE TEMPTED TO TURN AWAY FROM AMERICA TOO ... FOR OVER TWENTY YEARS SHE HAS EXERCISED LEADERSHIP WITH RESTRAINT AND GENEROSITY ... BUT NOW? THE HABIT OF ASSASSINATION DESTROYS THE AUTHORITY OF ANY COUNTRY ... CERTAINLY AMERICA WILL SURVIVE ROBERT KENNEDY'S DEATH AS IT SURVIVED HIS BROTHER'S. BUT THE MAIN QUESTION FOR 1968 IS NOW NO LONGER WHO IS TO BE NEXT PRESIDENT, BUT HOW THAT SURVIVAL IS TO BE ACHIEVED".

10. COMMENT: AS NOTED, THERE ARE TWO DEFINITE TRENDS IN PRESS COMMENT: A TENDENCY TO GENERALIZE FROM A SPECIFIC EVENT TO CHARACTERIZATION OF AMERICA AS INCREASINGLY DOMINATED BY VIOLENCE, ALIENATION, ETC: AND CRITICISM OF AMERICAN FAILURE CONROL GUN SALES, PARTICULARLY BECAUSE FAILURE BLAMED ON ALLEGED MINORITY POLITICAL PRESSURE OF QUOTE: GUN LOBBY UNQUOTE WITH NRA SINGLED OUT AS CHIEF VILLAIN. THIS DOES NOT SOLVE OUR PROBLEM. WE DO NOT HAVE ANYTHING PERSONAL AGAINST SEN. KENNEDY. HIS STATEMENT ABOUT GIVING THE ISRAELIS ADDITIONAL AMERICAN FIGHTER JETS PROBABLY JUST ATTEMPT TO GET VOTES. SORRY THAT FATHER OF BIG FAMILY CUT DOWN LIKE THIS." CONSENSUS THIS PARTICULAR GROUP JORDANIANS THAT THE REASON FOR WHICH PRESIDENT JOHN F. ALSO GENERAL FEELING AMONG THIS GROUP THAT "ARAB CAUSE WILL BE HURT BY THE ASSASSINATION: THE ENEMY WILL USE THIS AGAINST THE ARABS."

4. EDITOR AND OWNER OF ONE OF AMMAN'S WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS SAID "WHEN I HEARD ABOUT THE SHOOTING OF SENATOR KENNEDY, I WAS ALARMED AND COMPLETELY SHOCKED, ESPECIALLY WHEN I HEARD THAT THE ASSASSIN WAS AN ARAB FROM THE JERUSALEM AREA. 6. BURGER STORY "TWO YEARS AGO AT STELLENBOSCH" RECALLS KENNEDY VISIT THERE AND REPORTS PREFECT OF MEN'S HOSTEL, SIMONSBERG, WILL SEND CONDOLENCE CABLE TO MRS KENNEDY ON BEHALF RESIDENTS.

7. CAPE TIMES ROUNDED UP COMMENTS ON CAUSES OF ASSASSINATION FROM PARLIAMENTARIANS, WHO VOICED IDEAS SUMMARIZED AS FOLLOWS: TOO MANY PEOPLE REACHING "FRUSTRATION TOLERANCE" TOO EASILY, EAST HAVE INCREASING INFLUENCE ON WEST, SPIRIT OF RECKLESSNESS AND IRRESPONSIBILITY PERMEATING WORLD, AND PEOPLE BEING LED INTO VIOLENCE IN SEARCH OF NEW MEANING IN LIVES. THOSE COMMENTING WERE PAUL VAN DER MERWE, D VAN DEN HEEVER AND D CARR OF NP; CATHERINE TAYLOR, DR G JACOBS AND A HOPEWELL OF UP, AND SUZMAN OF PROGRESSIVES.

8. EDITORIAL REACTIONS JUNE 7:

A. CAPE TIMES ASSESSED ABILITY OF MEN OF KENNEDY FAMILY TO "LOOK AT THINGS AFRESH" IN GRAPPLING WITH NEED FOR "DYNAMIC CHANGE", AND SUGGESTED THAT SENATOR KENNEDY CARRIED EVEN "MORE HOPES" FOR THIS THAN PRESIDENT KENNEDY. "HIS KIND OF THINKING WAS CLEAR: HE WAS ON THE SIDE OF PEOPLE-- NOT 'THE PEOPLE' ... BUT PEOPLE, HUMAN BEINGS, MEN AND WOMEN, BLACK OR WHITE, POOR OR RICH". NOTED PROFOUND DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THIS OUTLOOK AND THAT OF "MANY POLITICIANS ... FOR TENDENCY AMONG MEN WHO HAVE BEEN IN POWER FOR SOME TIME IS TO CONSIDER THE SYSTEM IMPORTANT, ALMOST SACRONSANCT. SOME CONSERVATISM IS ALWAYS NECESSARY. BUT IN REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD LIKE PRESENT IT IS PERILOUS IF OVERDONE... MANY OF US EXPECTED ENOUGH (OF KENNEDYS) TO MAKE US BEWEP THESE MURDERS, EVEN BEYOND THEIR POIGNANCY AS HUMAN TRAGEDIES."

B. ARGUS POINTED OUT FEAR OF MANY SAFRICANS AT MOUNTING SUPPORT FOR SENATOR'S CANDIDACY, BUT SAID "EVIDENCE SUGGESTS HE WOULD HAVE BEEN REALISTIC AND EFFECTIVE PRESIDENT WHO WOULD HAVE RESISTED PRESSURES FOR IMPRACTICABLE 'SOLUTIONS' TO RACIAL PROBLEMS". ILLUSTRATED THIS CONTENTION BY FACT SENATOR CAME TO SAFRICA TO SEE FOR HIMSELF, AND ALTHOUGH HE FOUND APARTHEID REPUGNANT, HIS OBJECTIONS TO IT DID NOT CLOUD HIS JUDGMENT, AND HE SAID CATEGORICALLY THAT SA NO THREAT TO PEACE. MOREOVER HE CAME OUT AGAINST ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AND URGED CONTINUING DIALOGUE.

C. BURGER LINKS ASSASSIN WITH "TERRORISTS", HOPING COMMISSION ON VIOLENCE WILL LEAD USG TO UNCONDITIONAL CONDEMNATION OF TERRORISM. SAYS NO DOUBT THERE WILL BE PEOPLE IN WORLD WHO WOULD REGARD ASSASSIN AS "FREEDOM FIGHTER". BUT BETTER DESCRIPTION IS "DEVILSIH CRIMINAL, WHOSE SHOTS NOT ONLY WOUNDED HIS VICTIM, BUT ALSO AMERICAN CIVILIZATION". RHETORICALLY ASKS DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HIM AND TRAINED TERRORISTS IN SOUTHERN AFRICA. BY CONDONING THEIR DEED INCREASING SPIRIT OF VIOLENCE IN WORLD CANNOT BE HALTED.

9. CONSIDERABLE PRESS ATTENTION TO EFFECT OF ASSASSINATION ON PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN AND NEW SITUATION OF SEN EDWARD KENNEDY AS BEARER OF FAMILY'S POLITICAL FORTUNES.

Robert Kennedy et le sionisme

La campagne électorale bat son plein aux Etats-Unis. Les différents candidats à la Présidence font feu de tout bois pour gagner les bulletins du corps électoral américain.

Les uns axent leur propagande sur le Vietnam, d'autres sur le problème des Noirs. Robert Kennedy pour sa part, a fait acte de foi sioniste devant la communauté juive de Portland (Oregon).

Ressortant le cliché éculé du mythe dépassé d' « Israël — petit pays pacifique » le candidat aux élections présidentielles de novembre a déclaré : « Nous nous sommes engagés à faire survivre Israël, nous devons maintenir la sécurité d'Israël contre toute agression extérieure, par les armes si c'est nécessaire ».

Point n'est besoin pour nous de souligner le caractère ridicule des affirmations du sénateur américain quant à « l'agression extérieure qui menaccrait Israël». L'Histoire a démontré et notamment les événements depuis le 5 juin dernier, de quel côté se situe l'agression et le mépris des Nations unies. L'occupation de vastes portions de territoires, l'annexion de Jérusalem, la répression sanglante qui sévit contre des populations civiles ne sont pas, à ce qu'on sache, le fait des Arabes.

A moins que M. Kennedy ne soit mal informé ou aveugle pour ignorer des réalités connues de tous.

En vérité, il n'est ni l'un ni l'autre. Le sénateur n'exprime que l'opinion du « système américain » et confirme ainsi ce que nous avons toujours dénoncé ici à savoir qu'Israël n'est qu'une base de l'impérialisme au Moyen-Orient.

S'agissant du sionisme et de la lutte contre le mouvement de libération arabe, la « Sainte Alliance » se fait rapidement aux Etats-Unis. « Kennedy-le-Libéral » emboîte le pas à Johnson et fait lui aussi de la « sécurité d'Israël », son cheval de bataille.

Ces prises de position n'étonnent guère du reste les Arabes, pour qui l'extirpation du sionisme du Moyen-Orient reste le devoir le plus sacré, n'en déplaise à M. Kennedy et consorts.

ROBERT KENNEDY VICTIME D'UN ATTENTAT A LOS ANGELES

« Etat extrêmement critique, il pourrait bien y rester » disent ses médecins

- 250 000 dollars de caution pour l'agresseur Sirhan Sirhan

ROBERT Kennedy, frère du président assassiné, 43 ans, sénateur de l'Etat de New York, candidat démocrate aux élections présidentielles de novembre prochain a été l'objet hier matin à Los Angelès, d'un attentat. Le sénateur venait de terminer un discours où il annonçait sa victoire électorale en Californie.

Atteint de plusieurs balles, dont deux dans la tête, il a été immédiatement opéré. A l'heure où nous mettons sous presse, son état est jugé extrêmement critique par ses médecins. « Il a, disent-ils, une toute petite chance de s'en sortir. »

Son présumé agresseur, Sirhan Sirhan, âgé de 23 ans, est arrêté. Les autorités de Los Angelès après avoir dit qu'il s'agissait soit d'un Jamaïcain, soit d'un Cubain laissent maintenant entendre qu'il est d'origine arabe. On peut se poser des questions sur les véritables motifs de telles insinuations.

ROBERT KENNEDY a succombé à ses blessures

DIMANCHE, DEUIL NATIONAL AUX ETATS-UNIS

ROBERT Kennedy est mort hier matin à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain de Los Angeles. Maintenant tous les regards se tournent vers l'homme accusé de cet assassinat, Sirhan Sirhan. Son interrogatoire se poursuit, mais sans succès car jusqu'à présent Sirhan Sirhan n'a pas parlé. Après les rumeurs répandues par les autorités de Californie sur une prétendue origine jordanienne de l'assassin, Amman a déclaré, par la voix de son Premier ministre qu'il n'existait aucun Jordanien de ce nom. Après la mort de Robert Kennedy on enregistre dans le monde de nombreuses réactions.

NOUS SOMMES MARQUES PAR LA VIOLENCE

LES Américains sont le peuple le plus effrayant de la planète », a déclaré, mercredi soir, M. Arthur Schlesinger, conseiller de l'ancien président Kennedy, puis de son frère Robert, au cours d'une allocution qu'il prononçait à l'occasion d'une remise de diplômes à 38 étudiants de City College, à New-York.

Ému au point d'en pleurer, M. Schlesinger a ajouté : « Depuis trois ans, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde. Nous avons déjà assassiné deux citoyens qui personnifiaient l'idéalisme américain à l'étranger et hier nous avons tenté d'en assassiner un troisième. Ces actes de violence ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national ». « Ces actes, a poursuivi M. Schlesinger, ont commencé lorsque l'homme blanc s'est mis à assassiner les Indiens et à faire des esclaves de ceux qu'il considérait comme ses inférieurs à cause de la couleur de leur peau ». « Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparait dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence », a conclu M. Schlesinger.

DIMANCHE JOURNEE DE DEUIL AUX ETATS-UNIS

Robert Kennedy est mort hier matin à 1 h. 14 (heure de Los Angeles) soit 9 h. 03 GMT. Le sénateur n'avait pas repris connaissance depuis son transfert, moins de 21 heures avant à l'hôpital. Après une intervention chirurgicale qui a duré près de quatre heures, les bulletins de santé successifs publiés dans la journée à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain, n'indiquaient aucune amélioration. L'état du sénateur restait toujours extrêmement critique.

C'est M. Mankiewicz, son attaché de presse qui a annoncé la nouvelle de la mort de Robert Kennedy.

Quelques instants plus tard, ans et Robert Jr. 13 ans, se détails suivants : les trois aînés des dix enfants Kennedy Joseph, 16 ans, Kathleen 17 ans et Robert jr. 13 ans, se trouvaient à l'hôpital au moment du décès, mais il n'a pu dire s'ils avaient vu leur père avant sa mort. La dépouille de M. Robert Kennedy devait être transportée dans la matinée de jeudi soit à Washington soit à New York. La Maison Blanche a été prévenue. M. Mankiewicz a encore précisé que la mort du sénateur avait été provoquée par la blessure reçue dans la nuit de mardi à mercredi et qu'il n'avait pas pu surmonter le traumatisme.

L'annonce faite par M. Mankiewicz n'a provoqué aucune surprise parmi les journalistes présents dans la salle de presse. Chacun savait en effet depuis la fin de l'après-midi, que tout espoir était perdu et que le sénateur était dans le coma. Il semble que ce soit entre 17 heures et 17 h. 30 (heure du Pacifique) que l'agonie se soit précipitée. En effet, M. Mankiewicz avait à 17 heures (locales) donné rendez-vous à la presse pour jeudi matin. Un peu plus tard, il leur avait conseillé de rester sur place dans l'attente d'une nouvelle annonce. Seul un public très clairsemé stationnait encore devant l'hôpital.

Dès l'annonce du décès, le président Lyndon Johnson adressait un message de condoléances à la famille du sénateur et décrétait que dimanche prochain, sera journée de deuil national ; à ce moment, sur tous les bâtiments publics, et les navires de la marine de guerre américaine, le pavillon étoilé était mis en berne pour y rester jusqu'après les funérailles du sénateur.

Celles-ci auront lieu à New York et à Washington ; la dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée dans quelques heures par avion spécial, de Los Angeles à New York, où, après, avoir été exposée pendant toute la journée de vendredi, une messe sera dite samedi matin à la cathédrale St. Patrick au cœur même de la Grande Métropole. Puis, par train, le corps du sénateur sera transporté à Washington, où il sera inhumé samedi dans la journée au cimetière national d'Arlington aux côtés de la dépouille du président John Kennedy qui y repose depuis sa mort.

DECLARATION DU PRESIDENT JOHNSON

Peu après l'annonce de la mort du sénateur Kennedy, le président Johnson a fait la déclaration suivante :

« Nous connaissons à cette heure une perte et une heure tragiques. Le sénateur Robert F. Kennedy est mort.

Robert Kennedy au cours d'un meeting électoral à New-York avec à ses côtés sa femme Ethel.

« Il n'a pourtant jamais abandonné sa foi en l'Amérique. Il n'a jamais perdu sa confiance dans la force spirituelle des hommes et des femmes.

« Il croyait en l'aptitude des jeunes à se parfaire et au droit des plus âgés et des pauvres à vivre dans la dignité.

« Je viens de signer une proclamation demandant à notre nation d'observer une journée de deuil pour Robert Kennedy. »

L'attentat commis contre le sénateur Kennedy, de même que l'assassinat du pasteur King, montre que « la violence peut abattre les meilleurs d'entre nous », a poursuivi M. Johnson.

« Nous ne pouvons tolérer la domination d'hommes violents parmi nous », a-t-il dit. « Nous ne pouvons tolérer l'appel à la violence, quelle que soit sa cause », a-t-il ajouté, soulignant qu'un grand pays ne peut garantir la liberté des citoyens que « dans le respect de la loi ».

Le chef de l'Exécutif a demandé au Congrès d'adopter le plus rapidement possible des mesures législatives pour arrêter « le trafic insensé des armes » aux Etats-Unis. Il a enfin demandé à chaque Américain de commencer dès ce soir à faire preuve de modération et d'oublier la violence.

Le projet législatif de lutte contre la criminalité, prévoyant de sévères restrictions à la vente des armes à feu et des munitions, libre jusqu'à présent aux Etats-Unis, pourrait être débattu dès jeudi à la Chambre des représentants, estime-t-on à Washington.

En effet, la commission de procédure de la Chambre s'est prononcée, douze heures après l'attentat commis contre le sénateur Kennedy, pour l'ouverture de ce débat que le gouvernement réclamait depuis longtemps.

QUI EST SIRHAN ?

L'auteur de l'attentat contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy a été identifié mercredi au début d'après-midi. Il s'agit d'un nommé Sirhan Bechara Sirhan, né le 15 mars 1944 à Jérusalem, demeurant depuis peu à Pasadena, en Californie, avec l'un de ses frères dit « Joé », employé dans un grand magasin de Pasadena.

Au cours d'une conférence de presse, le maire de Los Angeles, M. Samuel Yorty, et le chef de la police de la ville, M. Thomas Reddin, ont déclaré qu'ils avaient pu remonter la filière grâce aux empreintes digitales relevées sur l'arme de l'agresseur, un pistolet de calibre 22. L'arme portait d'autres empreintes, dont celles d'un autre frère de l'agresseur, prénommé Adel.

L'identification a été confirmée par les empreintes digitales du suspect prises à l'occasion d'une demande d'emploi qu'il avait faite auprès de la direction d'un champ de courses hippiques à Hollywood. Cette demande d'emploi avait été remplie il y a quelque temps alors que Sirhan était élève au collège John Muir de Pasadena.

Il a été transféré mercredi après-midi du quartier général de la police de Los Angeles à l'infirmerie de la prison du Comté, a indiqué un porte-parole de la police.

Sirhan Sirhan, y est soigné, a-t-il précisé, pour un doigt cassé et des contusions à une jambe.

Le porte-parole a refusé de dire si le prisonnier avait été blessé au cours de la lutte qui suivit immédiatement l'attentat, avant qu'il n'ait été maîtrisé par les gardes du corps du sénateur Kennedy, ou plus tard dans les locaux de la police.

M. Thomas Reddin, chef de la police de Los Angeles, a refusé mercredi soir, au cours d'une conférence de presse, de donner des détails sur les documents découverts plus tôt dans la journée au domicile de Sirhan Sirhan.

En refusant de donner des précisions sur la nature exacte de ces documents, M. Reddin a déclaré qu'à l'heure actuelle des révélations de ce genre ne pourraient que porter préjudice au déroulement du procès de l'accusé.

M. Reddin a répété aux journalistes que rien de concret pour l'instant ne permettait d'étayer la thèse « d'une sinistre conspiration internationale » dans cette affaire. Il a ajouté que l'accusé, autant que l'on sache, n'appartient pas à une organisation politique extrémiste.

Le chef de la police a donné quelques détails supplémentaires sur la famille de l'accusé :

Sirhan Sirhan est arrivé en 1957 aux Etats-Unis venant de Jérusalem avec son père, sa mère, une sœur qui est décédée depuis, et quatre frères. Le père dont le prénom n'a pas connu, a quitté la famille peu après son installation à Pasadena et a résumé autant que l'on sache Jérusalem où il résiderait actuellement.

Deux frères, Adel et Munhir, vivent encore avec leur mère à Pasadena. Les deux autres, Said Allah et Sharif ont quitté le domicile maternel et on ne sait pas où ils sont actuellement.

QUI A ARMÉ LA MAIN DE L'ASSASSIN ?

L'assassin du sénateur américain, Robert Kennedy, candidat aux prochaines elections presidentielles des Etats-Unis, a-t-il eu commettant son acte agi de son propre chef, par « idéalisme » par besoin de publicité autour de sa personne, par « fanatisme » ou bien pour le seul désir de tuer ? Quelle est la veritable personnalité de Sirhan Sirhan, quelles sont ses idees vis-à-vis d'un problème politique donné comme celui par exemple du Moyen-Orient ? Le meurtrier n'aurait-il pas été armé intentionnellement par un tiers ? Dans l'affirmative, qui avait le plus interêt à voir disparaitre Robert Kennedy et pourquoi avait-il intérêt à ce qu'il disparaisse ? Autant de mystères, autant d'hypothèses à travers lesquels il est encore bien difficile de voir clair. On annonce déjà qu'il s'agit là d'un acte pretendûment « isolé ». Va-t-il etre dit une nouvelle fois que les raisons qui ont amené la mort de Robert Kennedy resteront dans l'ombre comme sont restées dans l'ombre celles intéressant la mort de son frère, le président John Kennedy et celle encore toute récente intéressant l'assassinat du Pasteur intégrationniste noir, Martin Luther King ?

Rien, si ce n'est le nom et l'origine de l'assassin n'a pour le moment filtré de l'enquête menée actuellement par la police autour de cette affaire. Cependant, plusieurs agences et radios étrangères certainement « bien intentionnées » ont commencé à émettre des suppositions les plus abracadabrantes quant aux raisons qui ont amené Sirhan à assassiner le sénateur Robert Kennedy. Certaines radios périphériques européennes dont l'attitude anti-arabe au lendemain de l'agression sioniste du 5 juin n'est plus à démontrer, vont jusqu'à souligner la nationalité « arabe » de l'assassin, son « fanatisme arabe » tout cela avec bien entendu, un sens péjoratif des plus aigus. En les entendant, on serait tenté de dire qu'elles ne vont pas tarder à parler d'une véritable conspiration des Arabes contre un homme politique qui n'a jamais caché toutes les sympathies qu'il éprouvait pour l'Etat sioniste installé en territoire arabe occupé au détriment de toute autre considération.

N'est-ce pas éloigner le problème de son contexte purement américain que de vouloir le rattacher intentionnellement ou non au problème du Moyen-Orient, à un moment justement où toute la Nation arabe se remémore douloureusement, la lâche agression sioniste du 5 juin 1967.

Des observateurs étrangers affirmaient déjà bien avant les résultats de l'enquête policière qu'il s'agissait là d'un crime politique.

« L'assassin, ont-ils dit, est un farouche nationaliste qui a voulu marquer par son acte le premier anniversaire du conflit arabo-sioniste de juin dernier, M. Kennedy ayant préconisé une livraison immédiate d'avions américains à l'Etat sioniste ».

Pourquoi Sirhan ne serait-il pas plutôt un tueur à gages à la solde des sionistes et qui aurait été armé par eux dans le seul but de discréditer aux yeux de l'opinion internationale les Arabes et provoquer une hystérie anti-arabe aux USA ? C'est là l'argument qui a été avancé par plusieurs observateurs arabes qui estiment que cet acte peut profiter aux sionistes. (APS)

EL FETH

"Des manœuvres sionistes machiavéliques"

ALGER. — Après l'attentat qui a coûté la vie au sénateur Robert Kennedy, certaines agences de presse ont avancé que son auteur est un Arabe originaire de Jérusalem.

Devant la gravité de la situation et les moyens crapuleux dont use le sionisme pour dissimuler la vérité, le bureau d'Alger du mouvement de libération nationale palestinien « El-Feth » vient de rendre public la mise au point suivante :

« L'attentat qui coûta la vie au sénateur américain Kennedy après les déclarations qu'il a faites au cours de sa campagne électorale et relatives au problème palestinien, revêt pour nous une grande signification. C'est sans vergogne que le sionisme mondial commence à étaler ses moyens de propagande pour déformer la réalité quant au problème palestinien et à la Révolution palestinienne qui commence à jouir d'un grand soutien à travers le monde.

« A l'opinion publique, nous disons que le mouvement de libération nationale palestinien « El-Feth », qui entreprend aujourd'hui l'un des plus nobles et durs combats contre l'ennemi sioniste en Palestine, condamne toute personne utilisant cette arme dans un pays étranger et contre un citoyen étranger pour des divergences politiques.

« UN INSTRUMENT AUX MAINS DU SIONISME »

« Il y a quelques années, ajoute la déclaration, le président John Kennedy a été assassiné. Aujourd'hui c'est le tour de son frère Robert. Est-il possible qu'un seul individu puisse remplir à lui seul une mission aussi dangereuse que criminelle ? le problème est beaucoup plus complexe qu'on le pense.

"I AM SURE ALL NEW ZEALANDERS WILL HAVE FELT AN IMMEDIATE SENSE OF GRIEF AT THE TRAGIC CIRCUMSTANCES OF SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH. ONCE AGAIN A GREAT AMERICAN PUBLIC FIGURE HAS BEEN CUT DOWN AS HE CARRIED OUT THE TASKS OF OPEN CONTEST AND DEBATE WHICH ARE PART OF THE TRUE DEMOCRATIC TRADITION. HIS PASSING IS MORE POIGNANT BECAUSE IT ECHOES THE STARK EVENTS OF DALLAS AND REMINDS US OF THE GREAT BURDEN OF SACRIFICE ALREADY BORNE BY THE KENNEDY FAMILY. FOR THE UNITED STATES TO LOSE ITS GIFTED MEN IN THIS WAY IS A SAD DISTORTION OF THE FREEDOMS WHICH THEY IN TURN HAVE FOUGHT TO PRESERVE. THE IDEALS OF PUBLIC SERVICE WHICH SENATOR KENNEDY STROVE TO FULFIL ARE THOSE WHICH WE IN NEW ZEALAND SHARE AND ADMIRE. FOR THIS REASON, AMERICA'S SORROW IS OUR SORROW, AND OUR THOUGHTS GO OUT TO THE SENATOR'S CLOSE FAMILY."

Maracaibo was deeply shocked and saddened by first the news of the shooting and then on June 6 the tragic death of the Senator. Expressions of grief over his loss and of condolence for his family came into the consulate and Casa Americana, the USIS branch post, by telephone, telegram, written notes and personal visits from Maracaibo residents. The murder of Senator Kennedy, from this testimony, seemed to touch everyone -- people in public life, businessmen and labor leaders, educators and students, the military, and plain citizens.

Venezuelans accustomed to thinking of our country as the model of respect for law and an ordered, secure way of life cannot understand what to many has been a rapid deterioration of America's social fabric. American residents here are similarly baffled and worried. The tragedy of Senator Kennedy, coming two months after the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King and a highly-publicized protest movement in the United States, has shaken many to the core. On everyone's mind, said a lady calling to express her ~~xxx~~ regrets who spoke the mind of many, "is the horror of seeing what is happening to a wonderful country."

DATE: June 7, 1968

SUBJECT : Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island Reaction to Senator Kennedy's Death

REF :

Reaction in this consular district to the murder of Senator Robert F. Kennedy was almost completely one of horror, sorrow and disbelief. Maritimers have close ties with New England and there has always been a particular interest in the Kennedy family in this district. There were many expressions of Canadian sympathy to American citizens.

There have been, and will be, many church services for Senator Kennedy. Among those who signed the Consulate General's condolence book were the Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia (the ranking official of the province), provincial cabinet members, members of the provincial legislative assembly and the recently dissolved Federal parliament and representatives of all walks of life. Impressively, many teenagers came in to sign the book.

There was concern about violence in American life. "What's gone wrong there in the States?" said a garage attendant to the Reporting Officer.

The Halifax Chronicle-Herald accurately expressed sentiment in the district when it said, "the facts of American life, the tradition of violence, the ease with which anyone, upright citizen and paranoid madman, can possess firearms and use them with relative impunity, and the continuing myth that every American has the right to "bear arms", make political and public service more physically hazardous in the United States than in most other civilized countries . . . Americans can surely best assuage their anger at this dreadful deed by determining to remove the cancer of violence that besets their society. As a start, they should insist on an effective cure on the present free for all sale of firearms." Several representative clippings from area papers are attached in one original and four thermofaxed copies for the Department and one thermofax for the Embassy.

Act Of Violence

The shadow and the stain of Dallas and Memphis have fallen on Los Angeles, and indeed on to the whole fabric of American society.

The horrified disbelief that was the first reaction, in Canada and throughout the world, to the news that Senator Robert Kennedy had been shot and critically wounded almost at the moment of his victory in the California primary election, was accentuated by the ordinary person's refusal to conceive that Robert Kennedy could meet the same tragic death as that of his distinguished brother, and in such horribly similar circumstances.

Yet this monstrous, mindless act is in keeping with an atmosphere of growing violence, not only in the United States, but in many other countries. Unhappily, in the United States (unlike, for example, France, where the recent turmoil in the streets resulted in remarkably few fatal casualties) violence, whether on a massive scale or directed at individuals, so often involves firearms, and the rule of the bullet.

Senator Kennedy's shooting occurred just two months after the Rev. Martin Luther King had been gunned down on his motel verandah at Memphis, an act which resulted in fearful riots, that may well have been a mere curtain raiser for this summer's anticipated racial strife in American cities.

Must all leaders of political thought in the United States, all men of courage and ideas, of integrity and a desire to better the lot of their fellow men, risk their lives when they become public figures?

It may be that the man who shot Robert Kennedy, whoever he was, was an evil crank rather than a political conspirator, just as Lee Harvey Oswald and the murderer of Martin Luther King may have been cranks.

But the facts of American life, the tradition of violence, the ease with which anyone, upright citizen and paranoid madman, can possess firearms and use them with comparative impunity, and the continuing myth that every American has the right to "bear arms", make political and public service more physically hazardous in the United States than in most other civilized countries.

The effect of this event on American politics, particularly on this year's presidential election, can only be guessed at, for the moment.

Americans can surely best assuage their anger at this dreadful deed by determining to remove the cancer of violence that besets their society. As a start, they should insist on an effective cure on the present free for all sale of firearms.

No More Martyrs

Like his elder brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, Robert F. Kennedy was cut down in his prime, as a man, a political leader and a personality whose political ideals and reforming zeal had given hope to millions of ordinary people, in his own country and beyond.

Senator Robert Kennedy was a controversial figure at the time of his murder. Although he had just won a victory over his principal Democratic opponent in the race for the presidency in the California Democratic primary, his attainment of that office, even his selection as Democratic presidential candidate at the Chicago convention, would have been achieved, if at all, only after a strenuous and probably rough campaign within the party and the nation.

The political, as distinct from personal tragedy, of President Kennedy was that his death left the promise and hope he personified unfulfilled. Robert Kennedy never reached the pinnacle of power attained by his brother, although he seemed to have a fair chance of doing so. But, as a campaigning Kennedy, as a hard hitting politician who had long identified himself with the civil rights movement and with the radical wing of the Democratic party, as a young man with a charismatic appeal to young people impatient for reform, his career held rich promise and potential.

Whether he would have made a great president, or even a good one, and whether he would have worn with comfort the mantle donned so briefly by his brother, are now matters for academic speculation. We shall never know.

What is now important is for the people of the United States, of all races and in all strata of society, to determine that there shall be no more martyrs, no more politicians and no more spiritual leaders gunned down because their words happen to annoy evil and fanatical extremists.

Surely, violence has gone far enough.

SUBJECT : Venezuelan Presidential Candidates and the U.S. -- Insights From Reactions to Senator Kennedy's Assassination

REF : --

For some time the Embassy has been studying the principal presidential aspirants, their methods of operation, types of people around them, etc., in view of the fact that that one of them will become president in 1969. In the last six months, Luis Beltran Prieto, Rafael Caldera and Gonzalo Barrios emerged as strong candidates. Barring unforeseen ganging up by the other parties behind one candidate, Prieto and Caldera stand at least an even chance at this point to become Venezuela's next president. Barrios' chances are more remote, but no one here is willing to count him out yet.

In view of the foregoing, their personalities have become a subject of great importance. The tragic death of Senator Robert Kennedy on June 5 provided a unique opportunity for insights into their emotional stability and basic attitudes toward the United States. On both counts these insights have provided fair warning that while Prieto and Caldera would be strong capable leaders, there are aspects of their personalities which would prove difficult for the U.S. This is only slightly less true of Barrios.

Prieto and the U.S.

When the shocking news of the assassination of Senator Kennedy hit Venezuela, the natural reaction here, as in many countries, was dramatic. Political leaders immediately issued emotional statements, most of which implied or specified a pattern and link between the assassination of President Kennedy, Dr. Martin Luther King, and Senator Kennedy. There was prominent criticism of lawlessness and barbaric practices of political assassinations in the United States, although this was more of a remorseful rather than a vitriolic observation. Prieto, in his initial statement, attributed this deplorable act of violence to the aggressive policies of the U.S. He referred critically to our involvement in Viet Nam and suggested that the black forces of reaction feared Kennedy's reform philosophy. Finally, he expressed the hope that the barbaric practice of political assassinations would not spread to Venezuela.

The following morning, Dr. Prieto phoned the Embassy and spoke with the Minister-Counselor at some length in highly emotional terms. He concluded by requesting that we visit him at his home. The Minister and the reporting officer drove out to Prieto's home in the southeast corner of Caracas (Prados del Este) and had an emotional hour-long conversation with him. Prieto was deeply upset and was not always coherent in the points he made. He agreed that no police force in the world can stop assassinations. He deplored the fact that a President so powerful that he can bomb North Viet Nam at will, is unable to protect an individual politician and he expressed concern for the whole western world that its leading power had reached such a state.

Prieto then lapsed into a somewhat more reflective mood recalling his own personal experiences with the United States. On the positive side, Prieto recalled that he spent two years in the U.S. in 1949 through 1951 when he was in political exile. He was penniless and also had a serious medical crisis with his young son. Prieto obviously was deeply moved by the fact that his son was given the most specialized medical attention, received a highly sensitive operation (which was successful) and then the doctor deferred to his exile status and economic circumstances, and asked only that he pay what he could afford. Prieto pointed out that he still corresponds with the doctor, Dr. Thomas Williams of the George Washington University Hospital, apparently a neurosurgeon. Prieto also recalled how his little boy was accepted into the neighborhood games by American children even though the children could not communicate because of the language barrier.

On the negative side of the ledger, Prieto recalled the fact that the American reputation in Venezuela was initiated by the rowdies who arrived here in the 1930s in the oil fields. These men, he said, were wild brutes who regularly tore up the town of Maracaibo. Prieto also referred critically to the behavior of American naval personnel in Puerto la Cruz during World War II. At that time, the U.S. maintained certain patrol bases in the Puerto la Cruz area. While he did not say so, Prieto left the impression that he personally had been involved in unpleasant experiences with these Americans, and he spoke with considerable emotion about their behavior.

On balance, Prieto showed himself ambivalent toward the U.S. -- critical of our shortcomings and emotional over the concept of reactionary forces resorting to force to block social progress. Prieto is obviously still deeply suspicious of the U.S. and harbors an impression of the U.S. which includes high-handed imperialist characteristics, mixed together with his own personal confirmation of humanitarian, open friendly attitudes which he had found in his previous visit to the United States. He has sent various of his children to the U.S. to be educated suggesting that his negative impressions have certainly not won out against the positive.

Perhaps of even greater importance in the long run than Prieto's attitude toward the U.S., is what appears to be a certain emotional fragility in this man who may be Venezuela's next president. There have been past occasions when Prieto was emotional in dealing with matters of international affairs. Violent criticism of the U.S. because of our intervention in the Dominican Republic was widespread within Venezuela in 1965. It is notable, however, that Prieto was well out among the front-runners in this critical reaction and he certainly made no effort at that time to balance his criticism in any way. At the meeting of Latin American Parliamentarians in Lime in the summer of 1965, he gave a demogogic performance, directing most of his vituperativeness against us. Upon his return from Lima, Embassy officers met Dr. Prieto at a press reception, and at that time, Dr. Prieto went to great lengths to downplay the importance of his attack on the U.S. in Lima. He did not withdraw his criticism, but expressed unhappiness that so much emphasis had been placed on the anti-American aspects of his comments.

Emotional Stability of Prieto as a President

A strikingly parallel performance has occurred in connection with Senator Kennedy's death. In his statements to the press Prieto was emotional, quick on the draw and showed no signs of any reflectiveness or caution, which one might expect from a leading statesman. Even after evidence began to appear that Senator Kennedy was a victim of an Arab fanatic, Prieto continued to speak of the force of reactionaries who feared the progressive policies of the late Senator. In our conversation with him on the morning of June 6, Prieto wandered, repeated himself and was clearly wrought-up. There is no doubt of his deep and sincere motives in this instance, and it is clear that he is not wishing the U.S. harm. However, it is equally clear that, at least on this occasion, Prieto did not have full control of himself and his mental processes were far frommeasured.

Caldera Reacts

Without waiting for any evidence as to the motives behind the crime, COPEI presidential candidate Caldera issued a strong critical statement on June 5. He linked Senator Kennedy's assassination with those of President Kennedy and Martin Luther King, referred to continuing U.S. diplomatic errors in contending that the assassination will damage U.S. prestige more than any of our government policies, and insisted that a reactionary Mafia exists in the U.S. which has carried out these crimes.

Barrios Weighs In

AD presidential candidate Gonzalo Barrios was not heard from until the following day. However, when he spoke out, in spite of growing evidence of a deranged Arab fanatic as the source of the crime, Barrios attributed it to "growing dissatisfaction over U.S. involvement in the Viet Nam war. Barrios contended that this war has the U.S. in the role of aggressor and Kennedy was clearly opposed to this.

Conclusion:

The Embassy has long ago come to the conclusion that if Prieto were elected president of Venezuela he would head an administration with which we would be able to work, an administration which would move ahead toward the goals of the Alliance for Progress. It has also been clear for sometime that the strain of nationalism and popilist socialism, which are integral parts of Prieto's political personality, would cause certain problems for us. On balance, however, we have confidence that Prieto would not be a bad thing. Our insight into his personal concepts of the U.S. and his emotional stability do not change this assessment. They do, however, indicate specific areas where some troubles may arise should Prieto become president, and reveal that we have our work cut out for us in terms of developing his attitude toward the U.S. into a more positive posture.

It is equally true that Caldera would be an effective reform-minded president. Less emotional than Prieto, he would probably be somewhat less prone to shoot from the hip than his MEP opponent. At the same time he is demonstrably more dogmatic and militant than Prieto and, therefore, would probably be less flexible in his dealings with us. The reaction to Kennedy's murder provides solid evidence that Caldera's basic feeling about the U.S. is just as ambivalent as that of Prieto, and even Barrios quickly slipped into the critical pattern of reaction.

It must be noted in this respect that the critical statements of Venezuelan political leaders are decidedly in line with reactions by prominent Americans, some of which were a good deal more critically emotional with even less of a basis.

SUBJECT: LUXEMBOURG REACTION TO DEATH OF KENNEDY.

1. SHOOTING AND DEATH OF ROBERT KENNEDY CONTINUE TO MONOPOLIZE FRONT PAGES OF ALL LOCAL PAPERS AND DOMINATE CONVERSATION HERE.

2. PRESS COMMENTARY HAS BEEN UNUSUALLY HEAVY FOR LUXEMBOURG. INITIAL REACTIONS TENDED TO EMPHASIZE ALLEGED POLITICAL ASPECT OF SHOOTING. LATE SENATOR'S LIBERAL POLICIES WERE COMPARED WITH THOSE OF JOHN KENNEDY AND MARTIN KING, WITH IMPLICATION ALL THREE KILLINGS WERE RESULT OF REACTIONARY PLOTS. EQUALLY STRESSED WAS THEME OF AMERICAN VIOLENCE AND QUICKNESS TO REACH FOR GUNS TO SETTLE POLITICAL DISPUTES. NORMALLY ANTI-AMERICAN COMMENTATORS PRESENTED THIS AS PARTICULARLY AMERICAN PHENOMENON, WHILE MORE FRIENDLY PRESS WENT ON TO GENERALIZE AND SOUND ALARM OVER WORLD-WIDE TREND TOWARD DISORDER AND SOCIAL BREAKDOWN.

3. AS CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING KILLING BECAME CLEARER, PARTICULARLY IN WAKE OF SENATOR'S DEATH, COMMENT TENDED TO MODERATE SOMEWHAT, STRESSING EXPRESSIONS OF GRIEF AND LOSS TO WORLD. READY ACCESSABILITY OF GUNS IN US, HOWEVER, CONTINUED TO BE SPOTLIGHTED AS TARGET OF SCATHING CRITICISM. FREQUENTLY NOTED IN PERSONAL COMMENT TO EMBASSY PERSONNEL BY LUXEMBOURGERS, IS FACT THAT SUSPECTED KILLER IS EVIDENTLY NOT US CITIZEN.

4. EVIDENT THROUGHOUT HAS BEEN FACT THAT KENNEDY NAME HAS LOST NONE OF ITS CACHET IN LUXEMBOURG AND THAT LUXEMBOURGERS ARE CONVINCED ROBERT KENNEDY WOULD HAVE SUCCEEDED IN SOLVING AMERICAN AND WIDER PROBLEMS WHOSE SOLUTION HAS SO FAR ELUDED OTHERS.

MICROFILMED BY BS/R

THEY ARE REACTING WITH STRONG AND REAL EMOTION TO HIS LOSS.

5. OUR PRESENT ASSESSMENT IS THAT EVEN IF KENNEDY DEATH IS SHOWN TO HAVE BEEN WORK OF DERANGED FANATIC ACTING IN ISOLATION, IT HAS DEALT BLOW TO AMERICAN IMAGE HERE, EFFECTS OF WHICH WILL BE SOME TIME IN WEARING OFF. FELDMAN

1. PRESIDENT FIDEL SANCHEZ WAS "KEY-NOTE" SPEAKER AT FIRST MEETING OF NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. HIS MAIN THEME WAS THAT PARTY POLITICS SHOULD NEVER BE AN IMPAIRMENT TO THE PROMOTION OF PROJECTS OF NATIONAL INTEREST. THE COUNTRY'S INTERESTS SHOULD ALWAYS PREVAIL OVER ANY PARTISAN ACTION. A DIALOGUE AND TEAMWORK MUST ALWAYS EXIST BETWEEN ALL POLITICAL FACTION.

2. THE MOST IMPRESSIVE PORTION OF THE CEREMONY WAS WHEN THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ASKED EVERYONE TO STAND FOR A MINUTE OF SILENCE IN TRIBUTE TO FORMER SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY. TAPS WERE PLAYED DURING THE PERIOD OF SILENCE. THIS GESTURE WAS WELL-RECEIVED BY ALL THOSE PRESENT.

The enclosure is Alan Paton's address to Wits University on the "Day of Affirmation of Academic and Human Freedom". While affirming his stand for the International Human Rights Year of 1968, Paton's text still seems a bit downcast and worried as he urges the students to dream for better days. The student body and speakers stood for a moment's silence in tribute to Robert Kennedy before Paton's speech, and to them, as well as with most liberals in South Africa, Kennedy's death is a loss of contact with the outside world which they are frightened they may not be able to replace.

Students stand for Kennedy

Political Reporter

AT A CEREMONY which Robert Kennedy two years ago described as the "celebration of liberty", 1,200 people last night stood in silence for a minute to mark Kennedy's death.

It was the annual Nusas-sponsored "Day of Affirmation" of academic and human freedom, held last night at the University of the Witwatersrand. Dr. Alan Paton, leader of the Liberal Party, gave the annual address.

Exactly two years ago Senator Kennedy, who was visiting South Africa as a guest, delivered the address, at the University of Cape Town.

SYMPATHY

"I would like to express our deep grief and our deep sympathy, not only to America, but to Mrs. Kennedy and her children, and the child still to come," said Dr. Paton, before his address.

"To millions of people of all races Robert Kennedy was a symbol of faith in man," said Mr. John Kane-Berman, president of the university's Students' Representative Council.

Mr. John Daniel, the Nusas president, who also paid tribute to Senator Kennedy, said: "In him young people saw a hope for a new brand of politics in the future . . . now that he has gone it is difficult not to despair of hope for the future. But we will not despair — the message of Kennedy lives on."

Mr. Daniel said he believed that the Nationalist Government—when its "improper interference" legislation was passed; when the Liberal Party had disappeared and the Progressive Party had been segregated—would focus all its attention on Nusas.

Among 1,200 people at the annual "Day of Affirmation" ceremony at the University of the Witwatersrand last night who stood in silence to mark the death of Senator Robert Kennedy were (from the left): Dr. Alan Paton, Mr. John Kane-Berman, President of the Students' Representative Council of Wits University, Hon. O. D. Schreiner, Chancellor of the University, Mr. John Daniel, Nusas Rresident and Professor I. D. MacCrone, principal of the University.

RAND DAILY MAIL - JUNE 7, 196

Dr. Alan Paton addresses the meeting which was sponsored by Nusas.

Why we must go on dreaming

MBER 10, 1968, will e 20th anniversary of doption by the General embly of the United ns of the Universal De- ion of Human Rights, this year 1968 is desig- International Human s Year.

is Universal Declaration an affirmation by a major- f the nations of the world belief that man has cer- inalienable rights, that he ot a man if he does not s them, that he cannot with dignity or purpose ut them.

is an affirmation of the that he has rights even ainst the State, that he not be enslaved or tor- that he may not be arbi- arrested or detained or And that, if he is d with the breaking of w, he shall be entitled to and public hearing in a of law, and that it is only t of law that shall have to punish him, to lay on his property or his , and to restrict his n.

Universal Declaration ffirms that anyone who anyone who is ready to has a right to be given to choose the kind of for which he is fitted, to id fair wages, to form tive unions, to be given e, shelter, and the neces- social services, to be security in unemploy- sickness, disability and ge.

have a right to education, lementary education shall e and compulsory. Higher tion shall be accessible to the basis of merit. All tion shall be directed to trengthening of respect man rights.

of these rights shall be d or exercised at the of the rights of others, shall be the duty of to devise a just order h its citizens may be exercise their rights and discharge their responsibilities to their communities.

This Declaration of Human Rights was the second time in the history of Man that the nations of the world sat down and dreamed a dream.

Listen to the words of General Smuts: "We the peoples of the United Nations determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and the worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and to establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of internal law can be maintained . . . ."

And what has become of the United Nations? It is a common pastime to sneer at their organisations and its ineffectiveness, and a common error to forget the reasons for it.

For built into the United Nations Organisation is the alarm mechanism that goes off each time it is in any danger of achieving the noble aim for which it was created.

The United Nations Organisation is ineffective — not primararily because its member governments want it to be ineffective, but because it is a dream.

And one of the questions I want to discuss here tonight is whether there is any point in dreaming at all.

General Smuts started his Preamble with the words "We the peoples of the United Nations" and ended it with the words "accordingly, our respective Governments . . .", and we ought to know, and we must know, and especially as university people we must know, that what peoples dream and what governments do are not necessarily the same thing.

The first 20 years of this dream have not seen faith reaffirmed in fundamental human rights, or in the dignity and the worth of the human person, except on occasions such as these.

Is it worth while holding these days of affirmation when fundamental human rights, and the dignity and the worth of the human person, which are among the deepest hungers of the peoples of the world, are on the retreat in the face of the inexorable advances of our respective Governments?

Retreat

It is worth while affirming and re-affirming? — That is what we are considering tonight. The important question is not whether the dream is to be fulfilled, the important question is whether we should go on dreaming it.

It was part of the intention of the Preamble that armed force should not be used, save in the common interest. In whose common interest is the war in Vietnam? To many of us the war in Vietnam is so terrible that there cannot be any justification for continuing it.

Here in our own country it requires no action by any court of law for a man or woman to be deprived of freedom to associate, to move about, to speak, to write, to publish, even to eat and drink with friends.

Year after year our Government takes to itself greater and greater power, and each time it does so, the rights of its citizens are diminished — and not only the rights of its citizens, but the rights of its institutions also, including this great University of the Witwatersrand, which each year affirms an ideal which it is no longer lawful to practise.

And here again we face the question which this night is demanding an answer from us: is there any point in affirming an ideal which it is no longer lawful to practise? Is there any point in affirming a belief which has no apparent relation to what is called contemporary reality?

What are the alternatives to the affirmation of an ideal that appears to be unrealisable? There are two alternatives — one is to give in, the other is to despair.

If any man was entitled to despair, it was Bertrand Russell during the First World War of 1914 to 1918, when the bright youth of Britain, France, and Germany were exterminating one another, when 100,000 lives of promise were sacrificed to gain a few yards of mud, and another 100,000 sacrified to win a few yards back again.

And the consequence of this sacrifice, this dying, this struggle to the death, this unspeakable heroism, was to give to Europe 20 years later the unspeakable horrors of Dachau, Belsen, Auschwitz and Hiroshima.

Russell had to live through Dachau and Belsen and Auschwitz and Hiroshima; he lived to see the signing of the Charter that was to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights and he lived to see the erosion of those rights.

He lived to see the use of armed force — which may be used only in the common interest — threaten not a small nation abroad, but a large nation at home, threaten its confidence and its pursuit of happiness, and its sweet American dream.

Yet if, he had been here tonight, he would have affirmed what we have come here to affirm — and how then can we believe that there is no purpose, no use, no value, in affirming an ideal which can certainly not at this time be realised, and in dreaming a dream which can certainly not at this time be fulfilled?

Doctrinaire

For if we were to cease affirming, we would be ceasing to perform a task that man has performed from his very beginnings; we would by an act of apostasy have made of man the very creature that in our moments of despair we believe him to be.

Let us examine a little more closely the view — attractive to some of us in periods of frustration — that to affirm an ideal that cannot at this time be realised, is in fact to be doctrinaire incapable of adaptation, inflexible, resistant to doctrinaire, incapable of adapta- oneself to contemporary reality.

The holders of this view would argue that it is unrealistic to uphold the principle of the open university when the declared policy of the authorities is one of closed universities — that is, of ethnic universities, open to members of one race group and closed to those of others.

It seems to me that this is the view that is doctrinaire, inflexible, and blind to the contemporary reality of the wider world.

The reason why we affirm our belief in the open university is not because we are inflexible and opposed to change, but because we believe that it is only the open university that can guide and aid and sustain our sanity in the times of tremendous change that lie ahead—not only ahead of us, but ahead of the whole continent of Africa of which we are a part, a continent whose emancipation from a colonial past we wish to help to make more real, more meaningful.

And I believe with all my heart that the only kind of university which will be able to offer that kind of help will be the open university, the principle of which we affirm tonight.

There are times when one cannot adapt oneself to contemporary reality. If the late Professor Hoernle had lived under Hitler he would not have adapted himself to contemporary reality — he would rather have died — and he would have died too, because Hitler would certainly not have allow-

Another view

Now I shall examine another view—akin to the first—that to pit the force of an ideal or a principle against raw and sometimes ruthless political power, is quite fatuous; that the only thing to pit against political power is another political power; that you must quit your ivory tower and get down there into the arena and play the game of power.

But there are times when you cannot get down and play the game of power, because you have no steed, no armour, no lance. The only thing that you have is your belief, and the only thing you can do with your belief is to affirm it.

I venture to read to you words which are not usually used on occasions such as this, but which are relevant to our situation.

"For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come to mind.

"But be glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

"And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

Unfulfilled

"They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat; for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock; and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord."

And was it ever fulfilled? No, but it just went on being prophesied. It was prophesied by John in Palmos, and Thomas More in England, and Karl Marx and the Charter of the United Nations, and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights; the unattainable goal, the unfulfillable dream, the history of man's long striving for something that he has never achieved.

But if he were to stop striving for the unbelieveable world in which the wolf lies down with the lamb, and in which the nations of the world abjure the use of war, they would destroy the mountain itself and the great adventure of men would come to its end.

I should like to address some words to the supporters of Nusas. The words I have already used were intended to be of encouragement to them, but these are especially so.

I do not expect that the future is going to be easy for you.

You have been advised by many people to drop politics and stick to your studies. This seems strange advice, coming as it often does from people responsible for giving the vote to all White South Africans when they turn eighteen.

It was the intention of our legislators not that our students should eschew politics, but that they should take a lively interest in them. It was because the students of the Afrikaans-language Universities took a lively interest in politics that the Nationalist Government came to power.

If there is to be any change in the dangerous foreign policies of America it will be largely due to the lively interest of American students in politics, and the fact that so many of them feel so deeply that they have actually abandoned their studies to help in the electoral campaigns — and all this because of their deep love for their country and their concern for its honourable name.

Not Strange

I do not think it strange that South African students should sing "Die Stem van Suid-Afrika" when they are saying farewell to a man who is going into exile because he has been restricted in such a way that he can no longer pursue his chosen career, for they sing also because of their love for their country and their concern for its name.

South Africa has been called a land of fear, and that is true. But it is a land of great courage also.

Politics is life, politics is living, politics is your present and your future, with politics are bound up indissolubly your ideals and your beliefs.

There is only one word of advice that I can offer you, and that is that while you have a duty to your country and your society and your fellow man, you also have a duty to yourselves, and that duty is to join in the acquisition and advancement of knowledge, and to equip yourselves for the future by paying a proper attention to your studies.

It is right and fitting that your National Union should concern itself with the affairs of its society and its people, with the pursuit of justice as you see that justice to be, with the pursuit of freedom as you see that freedom to be, with the pursuit of truth which is another of those unattainable goals whose pursuit nevertheless gives meaning and direction to our lives.

No obligation

In those pursuits you are under no obligation to believe as others believe, or as others would wish you to believe.

No State, no Government, no Church, no Party, has any right to tell you what you must believe, just as you have no right to tell others what they should believe.

But you have a right to try to persuade others, just as they have a right not to listen to your persuasion.

It is these pursuits that make us fully human, that give us that dignity and worth of the human person which is spoken of in the Charter of the United Nations.

May you continue to pursue these things, within all the limits and restrictions that may be imposed upon you, for while you continue to do this, many others will be encouraged to continue also.

DR. ALAN PATON last night delivered the sixth annual "Day of Affirmation of Academic and Human Freedom" address, at the University of the Witwatersrand. He posed the question of whether there was any point in affirming a belief at a time when it could not be realised. And to this he gave his own answer: "The important question is not whether the dream is to be fulfilled. The important question is whether

1. THE DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY ECLIPSED ALL OTHER SUBJECTS IN THE GERMAN PRESS TODAY AND ON RADIO AND TELEVISION YESTERDAY. "THE WORLD MOURNS KENNEDY," WAS THE HEADLINE DOMINATING THIS MORNING'S FRONTPAGES. TIME DIFFERENTIAL DID NOT PERMIT THE PRESS TO REPORT SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH EARLIER.
2. SOME RADIO AND TELEVISION CORRESPONDENTS, REPORTING FROM LOS ANGELES, COULD HARDLY CONTROL THEIR EMOTIONS. GERD RUGE, FOR INSTANCE, FIRST CHANNEL'S U.S. BUREAU CHIEF, WAS SO OVERCOME THAT HE HAD TO STRUGGLE FOR NEARLY TEN MINUTES BEFORE HE COULD GET HIS VOICE UNDER CONTROL. RUGE NARRATED A HALF-HOUR, SPECIAL REVIEW OF THE CAREER OF SENATOR KENNEDY. SECOND CHANNEL ALSO PROGRAMMED A HALF HOUR KENNEDY MEMORIAL SHOW.
3. LOCALLY, TELCISION CONCENTRATED ON INTERVIEW WITH PROMINENT GERMANS COMMENTING ON THE SENATOR'S DEATH. SECOND CHANNEL CARRIED A STATEMENT BY AMBASSADOR LODGE, COVERED THE LOWERING OF THE FLAG AT THE AMERICAN EMBASSY, AND PEOPLE SIGNING THE CONDELENCE BOOK. RADIO COVERAGE FOLLOWED SIMILAR LINES.
4. MOST OF THE PRESS WAS QUICK TO PICK UP PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S TELEVISION APPEAL TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO ABIDE BY THE RULE OF LAW. EDITORIAL OPINIONS FOLLOWED ALONG YESTERDAY'S LINES. MANY EDITORIALS SEEMED TO ASK QUESTIONS RATHER THAN EXPRESS OPINIONS. AND AGAIN THERE WERE UNDERTONES WHICH PUT INTO QUESTION AMERICA'S LEASERSHIP BECAUSE OF "INABILITY TO COPE WITH DOMESTIC PROBLEMS."
5. DUESSELDORF'S HANDELSBLATT, FOR INSTANCE, CONCENTRATED ON THE INTERNATIONAL EFFECT OF THE KENNEDY DEATH. THE PAPER THINKS THAT THE SENATOR'S DEATH IMPLIES FAILURE OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

DECLASSIFIED BY E.O.

UNCLASSIFIED

AND ITS AUTHORITY. "...THIS IS A FACT OF INTERNATIONAL IM-PORTANCE. AMERICA'S INTERNAL WEAKNESS AND LOSS OF PRESTIGE MIGHT PRODUCE AN IMPACT EVEN IN THE REMOTEST CORNERS OF THE GLOBE....THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS CONFRONTED WITH THE NECESSITY OF CONCENTRATING MORE THAN BEFORE ON ITS OWN COUNTRY. CONSE-QUENTLY, EUROPE WILL HAVE TO CONCENTRATE ON ITS PROBLEMS, WITH EUROPEAN COOPERATION BECOMING MORE IMPRTANT THAN EVER BEFORE."
HANDELSBALATT ALSO FEARS THAT THE KENNEDY ASSASINATION MIGHT HAVE AN IMPACT ON THE VIET NAM TALKS.
6. FRANKFURTER ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG VOICES SIMILAR APPREHENSIONS
WHEN IT SAYS, "...AS LONG AS THE DOMESTIC AMERICAN SCENE REMAINS UNCLEAR THE PARIS NEGOTIATIONS WILL REMAIN DEADLOCKED
WHILE FIGHTING IN VIET NAMWILL BE STEPPED UP. OF ALL POLITITICAL CONSEQUENCES OF THE KENNEDY SLAYING, THIS IS THE MOST UNFORTUNATE."
7. MUENCHNER MERKUR TAKES A MORE OPTIMISTIC VIEW. IT BELIEVES THAT THOUGH THE KENNEDYS HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO ATTAIN THEIR GOALS, "...THEY HAVE MADE AN IMPACT ON MANKIND'S DREAM - ETERNAL PEACE."
8. RHEINISCHE POST WARNS OF OVERSIMPLIFICATION AND HASTY
CONCLUSIONS DRAWN FROM THE KENNEDY TRAGEDY. "VIOLENCE,"
THE PAPER SAYS, "NO LONGER HAS EASILY RECOGNIZABLE ROOTS....IT PERVADES ALL GROUPS, NATIONS AND CLASSES, PROGRESSIVES AND REACTIONARIES..."
9. SUEDDEUTSCHE ZEITUNG FEELE THAT THE KENNEDY LEGACY WILL BE THE NEXT PRESIDENT'S MOST DIFFICULT TASK, NAMELY TO "RENEW IN THE NEGORES, THE POOR OF ALL COLORS, AND THE YOUNG....A FAITH
IN THEIR COUNTRY AND A PRIDE IN CTS DEMOCTRATIC TRADITIONS...."
10. FRANKFURTER RUNDSCHAU'S MANAGING EDITOR ADMONISHES THE U.S.
TO REEXAMINE ITS ENTIRE SOCIAL STRUCTURE. HE USES THIS OCCASION TO VIOCE HOSTILITY TO FREE ENTERPRISE AND WHAT HE FEELS IS ITS INCLUENCE OVER THE CONGRESS. "...WHAT KIND OF A CONTRY IS IT THAT UNTIL NOW COULD NOT PASS A LAW TO CONTROL THE POSSESSION OF ARMS? THE POWER OF THE BUSINESS LOBBIES AND OTHER INTERESTS IS TOO STRONG. THE IDOL OF FREE ENTERPRISE IS BE-COMING A MONSTER WHICH IS THREATENING SOCIETY...."
11. DIE WELT'S WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT HEINZ BARTH
WRITES THAT THE KENNEDY ASSASSINATION HAS THROWN THE U.S.
INTO A DEEP ABYSS OF NATIONAL CRISES. HE EXPRESSES THE HOPE THAT THIS WILL BE THE SIGNAL TO REVERSE THE TREND OF VIOLANCE.
12. STUTTGARTER EITUNG EMPHASIZES THAT THE REPLY TO VIOLENCE
MUST NOT BE RESIGNATION OR APATHY, "INSTEAD, THE KENNEDY ASSASSINATION COMPELS THE FREE WORLD TO RETURN TO THE PRINCIPLES OF HUMANITY AND STRICT ADHERENCE TO LAW."

13. WESTDEUTSCHE ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG COMPARES THE KENNEDY TRAGEDY WITH THE SHCOTING OF RUDI DUTSCHKE IN BERLIN TO SHOW THAT EXTREMIST EXCESSES CAN OCCUR ANYWHERE. THE PAPER EMPHATICALLY CALLS FOR A RETURN TO REASON AND ABSTENTION FROM VIOLENCE.

14. REJECTION AND CONDEMNATION OF VIOLENCE IS PROBABLY THE MOST COMMON REACTION THROUGHOUT GERMANY. THERE WAS A NOTICEABLE ATTEMPT TODAY NOT TO SINGLE OUT THE UNITED STATES, BUT RATHER TO POINT TO A GENERAL DETERIORATION IN WORLD MORALITY LEADING TO VIOLENCE. THE IDENTITY AND PRESUMED MOTIVE OF THE ASSASSIN WAS FAIRLY WIDELY COVERED IN TODAY'S PRESS.

15. MANY COMMUITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS MOURN KENNEDY'S DEATH. THE FLAG FLIES AT HALF FROM BONN'S CITY HALL. BERLINERS HAVE STAGED A SILENT TORCHLIGHT PARADE, AND MUNICH ORGANIZATIONS ARE PREPARING FOR A MARCH OF MOURNING DURING THE WEEKEND.

Robert Kennedy et le sionisme

La campagne électorale bat son plein aux Etats-Unis. Les différents candidats à la Présidence font feu de tout bois pour gagner les bulletins du corps électoral américain.

Les uns axent leur propagande sur le Vietnam, d'autres sur le problème des Noirs. Robert Kennedy pour sa part, a fait acte de foi sioniste devant la communauté juive de Portland (Oregon).

Ressortant le cliché éculé du mythe dépassé d' « Israël — petit pays pacifique » le candidat aux élections présidentielles de novembre a déclaré : « Nous nous sommes engagés à faire survivre Israël, nous devons maintenir la sécurité d'Israël contre toute agression extérieure, par les armes si c'est nécessaire ».

Point n'est besoin pour nous de souligner le caractère ridicule des affirmations du sénateur américain quant à « l'agression extérieure qui menacerait Israël». L'Histoire a démontré et notamment les événements depuis le 5 juin dernier, de quel côté se situe l'agression et le mépris des Nations unies. L'occupation de vastes portions de territoires, l'annexion de Jérusalem, la répression sanglante qui sévit contre des populations civiles ne sont pas, à ce qu'on sache, le fait des Arabes.

A moins que M. Kennedy ne soit mal informé ou aveugle pour ignorer des réalités connues de tous.

En vérité, il n'est ni l'un ni l'autre. Le sénateur n'exprime que l'opinion du « système américain » et confirme ainsi ce que nous avons toujours dénoncé ici à savoir qu'Israël n'est qu'une base de l'impérialisme au Moyen-Orient.

S'agissant du sionisme et de la lutte contre le mouvement de libération arabe, la « Sainte Alliance » se fait rapidement aux Etats-Unis. « Kennedy-le-Libéral » emboîte le pas à Johnson et fait lui aussi de la « sécurité d'Israël », son cheval de bataille.

Ces prises de position n'étonnent guère du reste les Arabes, pour qui l'extirpation du sionisme du Moyen-Orient reste le devoir le plus sacré, n'en déplaise à M. Kennedy et consorts.

ROBERT KENNEDY VICTIME D'UN ATTENTAT A LOS ANGELES

« Etat extrêmement critique, il pourrait bien y rester » disent ses médecins

- 250 000 dollars de caution pour l'agresseur Sirhan Sirhan

ROBERT Kennedy, frère du président assassiné, 43 ans, sénateur de l'Etat de New York, candidat démocrate aux élections présidentielles de novembre prochain a été l'objet hier matin à Los Angeles, d'un attentat. Le sénateur venait de terminer un discours où il annonçait sa victoire électorale en Californie.

Atteint de plusieurs balles, dont deux dans la tête, il a été immédiatement opéré. A l'heure où nous mettons sous presse, son état est jugé extrêmement critique par ses médecins. « Il a, disent-ils, une toute petite chance de s'en sortir. »

Son présumé agresseur, Sirhan Sirhan, âgé de 23 ans, est arrêté. Les autorités de Los Angelès après avoir dit qu'il s'agissait soit d'un Jamaïcain, soit d'un Cubain laissent maintenant entendre qu'il est d'origine arabe. On peut se poser des questions sur les véritables motifs de telles insinuations.

ROBERT KENNEDY A SUCCOMBÉ A SES BLESSURES

DIMANCHE, DEUIL NATIONAL AUX ETATS-UNIS

ROBERT Kennedy est mort hier matin à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain de Los Angeles. Maintenant tous les regards se tournent vers l'homme accusé de cet assassinat, Sirhan Sirhan. Son interrogatoire se poursuit, mais sans succès car jusqu'à présent Sirhan Sirhan n'a pas parlé. Après les rumeurs répandues par les autorités de Californie sur une prétendue origine jordanienne de l'assassin, Amman a déclaré, par la voix de son Premier ministre qu'il n'existait aucun Jordanien de ce nom. Après la mort de Robert Kennedy on enregistre dans le monde de nombreuses réactions.

« NOUS SOMMES MARQUES PAR LA VIOLENCE »

Ému au point d'en pleurer, M. Schlesinger a ajouté : « Depuis trois ans, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde. Nous avons déjà assassiné deux citoyens qui personnifiaient l'idéalisme américain à l'étranger et hier nous avons tenté d'en assassiner un troisième. Ces actes de violence ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national ». « Ces actes, a poursuivi M. Schlesinger, ont commencé lorsque l'homme blanc s'est mis à assassiner les Indiens et à faire des esclaves de ceux qu'il considérait comme ses inférieurs à cause de la couleur de leur peau ». « Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparait dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence », a conclu M. Schlesinger.

DIMANCHE JOURNEE DE DEUIL AUX ETATS-UNIS

Robert Kennedy est mort hier matin à 1 h. 44 (heure de Los Angeles) soit 9 h. 03 GMT. Le sénateur n'avait pas repris connaissance depuis son transfert, moins de 24 heures avant à l'hôpital. Après une intervention chirurgicale qui a duré près de quatre heures, les bulletins de santé successifs publiés dans la journée à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain, n'indiquaient aucune amélioration. L'état du sénateur restait toujours extrêmement critique.

C'est M. Mankiewicz, son attaché de presse qui a annoncé la nouvelle de la mort de Robert Kennedy.

Quelques instants plus tard, ans et Robert Jr. 13 ans, se détails suivants : les trois aînés des dix enfants Kennedy Joseph, 16 ans, Kathleen 17 ans et Robert jr. 13 ans, se trouvaient à l'hôpital au moment du décès, mais il n'a pu dire s'ils avaient vu leur père avant sa mort. La dépouille de M. Robert Kennedy devait être transportée dans la matinée de jeudi soit à Washington soit à New York. La Maison Blanche a été prévenue. M. Mankiewicz a encore précisé que la mort du sénateur avait été provoquée par la blessure reçue dans la nuit de mardi à mercredi et qu'il n'avait pas pu surmonter le traumatisme.

L'annonce faite par M. Mankiewicz n'a provoqué aucune surprise parmi les journalistes présents dans la salle de presse. Chacun savait en effet depuis la fin de l'après-midi, que tout espoir était perdu et que le sénateur était dans le coma. Il semble que ce soit entre 17 heures et 17 h. 30 (heure du Pacifique) que l'agonie se soit précipitée. En effet, M. Mankiewicz avait à 17 heures (locales) donné rendez-vous à la presse pour jeudi matin. Un peu plus tard, il leur avait conseillé de rester sur place dans l'attente d'une nouvelle annonce. Seul un public très clairsemé stationnait encore devant l'hôpital.

Dès l'annonce du décès, le président Lyndon Johnson adressait un message de condoléances à la famille du sénateur et décrétait que dimanche prochain, sera journée de deuil national ; à ce moment, sur tous les bâtiments publics, et les navires de la marine de guerre américaine, le pavillon étoilé était mis en berne pour y rester jusqu'après les funérailles du sénateur.

Celles-ci auront lieu à New York et à Washington ; la dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée dans quelques heures par avion spécial, de Los Angelès à New York, où, après avoir été exposée pendant toute la journée de vendredi, une messe sera dite samedi matin à la cathédrale St. Patrick au cœur même de la Grande Métropole. Puis, par train, le corps du sénateur sera transporté à Washington, où il sera inhumé samedi dans la journée au cimetière national d'Arlington aux côtés de la dépouille du président John Kennedy qui y repose depuis sa mort.

DECLARATION DU PRESIDENT JOHNSON

Peu après l'annonce de la mort du sénateur Kennedy, le président Johnson a fait la déclaration suivante :

« Nous connaissons à cette heure une perte et une heure tragiques. Le sénateur Robert F. Kennedy est mort.

« Au cours de sa vie, il a connu beaucoup plus que sa part de tragédie.

Robert Kennedy au cours d'un meeting électoral à New-York avec à ses côtés sa femme Ethel.

« Il n'a pourtant jamais abandonné sa foi en l'Amérique. Il n'a jamais perdu sa confiance dans la force spirituelle des hommes et des femmes.

« Il croyait en l'aptitude des jeunes à se parfaire et au droit des plus âgés et des pauvres à vivre dans la dignité.

« Je viens de signer une proclamation demandant à notre nation d'observer une journée de deuil pour Robert Kennedy. »

L'attentat commis contre le sénateur Kennedy, de même que l'assassinat du pasteur King, montre que « la violence peut abattre les meilleurs d'entre nous », a poursuivi M. Johnson.

« Nous ne pouvons tolérer la domination d'hommes violents parmi nous », a-t-il dit. « Nous ne pouvons tolérer l'appel à la violence, quelle que soit sa cause », a-t-il ajouté, soulignant qu'un grand pays ne peut garantir la liberté des citoyens que « dans le respect de la loi ».

Le chef de l'Exécutif a demandé au Congrès d'adopter le plus rapidement possible des mesures législatives pour arrêter « le trafic insensé des armes » aux Etats-Unis. Il a enfin demandé à chaque Américain de commencer dès ce soir à faire preuve de modération et d'oublier la violence.

Le projet législatif de lutte contre la criminalité, prévoyant de sévères restrictions à la vente des armes à feu et des munitions, libre jusqu'à présent aux Etats-Unis, pourrait être débattu dès jeudi à la Chambre des représentants, estime-t-on à Washington.

En effet, la commission de procédure de la Chambre s'est prononcée, douze heures après l'attentat commis contre le sénateur Kennedy, pour l'ouverture de ce débat que le gouvernement réclamait depuis longtemps.

QUI EST SIRHAN ?

L'auteur de l'attentat contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy a été identifié mercredi au début d'après-midi. Il s'agit d'un nommé Sirhan Bechara Sirhan, né le 16 mars 1944 à Jérusalem, demeurant depuis peu à Pasadena, en Californie, avec l'un de ses frères dit « Joé », employé dans un grand magasin de Pasadena.

Au cours d'une conférence de presse, le maire de Los Angeles, M. Samuel Yorty, et le chef de la police de la ville, M. Thomas Reddin, ont déclaré qu'ils avaient pu remonter la filière grâce aux empreintes digitales relevées sur l'arme de l'agresseur, un pistolet de calibre 22. L'arme portait d'autres empreintes, dont celles d'un autre frère de l'agresseur, prénommé Adel.

L'identification a été confirmée par les empreintes digitales du suspect prises à l'occasion d'une demande d'emploi qu'il avait faite auprès de la direction d'un champ de courses hippiques à Hollywood. Cette demande d'emploi avait été remplie il y a quelque temps alors que Sirhan était élève au collège John Muir de Pasadena.

Il a été transféré mercredi après-midi du quartier général de la police de Los Angeles à l'infirmerie de la prison du Comté, a indiqué un porte-parole de la police.

Sirhan Sirhan, y est soigné, a-t-il précisé, pour un doigt cassé et des contusions à une jambe.

Le porte-parole a refusé de dire si le prisonnier avait été blessé au cours de la lutte qui suivit immédiatement l'attentat, avant qu'il n'ait été maîtrisé par les gardes du corps du sénateur Kennedy, ou plus tard dans les locaux de la police.

M. Thomas Reddin, chef de la police de Los Angeles, a refusé mercredi soir, au cours d'une conférence de presse, de donner des détails sur les documents découverts plus tôt dans la journée au domicile de Sirhan Sirhan.

En refusant de donner des précisions sur la nature exacte de ces documents, M. Reddin a déclaré qu'à l'heure actuelle des révélations de ce genre ne pourraient que porter préjudice au déroulement du procès de l'accusé.

M. Reddin a répété aux journalistes que rien de concret pour l'instant ne permettait d'étayer la thèse « d'une sinistre conspiration internationale » dans cette affaire. Il a ajouté que l'accusé, autant que l'on sache, n'appartient pas à une organisation politique extrémiste.

Le chef de la police a donné quelques détails supplémentaires sur la famille de l'accusé :

Sirhan Sirhan est arrivé en 1957 aux Etats-Unis venant de Jérusalem avec son père, sa mère, une sœur qui est décédée depuis, et quatre frères. Le père dont le prénom n'est pas connu, a quitté la famille peu après son installation à Pasadena et a regagné aussitôt que l'on sache Jérusalem où il résiderait actuellement.

Deux frères, Adel et Munhir, vivent encore avec leur mère à Pasadena. Les deux autres, Saïd Allah et Sharif ont quitté le domicile maternel et on ne sait pas où ils sont actuellement.

Seules cinq ou six personnes parmi lesquelles les deux frères, Adel et Munhir, se sont présentées à la police pour fournir des renseignements sur l'accusé, qui observe toujours un mutisme total.

QUI A ARMÉ LA MAIN DE L'ASSASSIN ?

L'assassin du sénateur américain, Robert Kennedy, candidat aux prochaines élections présidentielles des Etats-Unis, a-t-il en commettant son acte agi de son propre chef, par « idéalisme » par besoin de publicité autour de sa personne, par « fanatisme » ou bien pour le seul désir de tuer ? Quelle est la véritable personnalité de Sirhan Sirhan, quelles sont ses idées vis-à-vis d'un problème politique donné comme celui par exemple du Moyen-Orient ? Le meurtrier n'aurait-il pas été armé intentionnellement par un tiers ? Dans l'affirmative, qui avait le plus intérêt à voir disparaître Robert Kennedy et pourquoi avait-il intérêt à ce qu'il disparaisse ? Autant de mystères, autant d'hypothèses à travers lesquels il est encore bien difficile de voir clair. On annonce déjà qu'il s'agit là d'un acte prétendûment « isolé ». Va-t-il être dit une nouvelle fois que les raisons qui ont amené la mort de Robert Kennedy resteront dans l'ombre comme sont restées dans l'ombre celles intéressant la mort de son frère, le président John Kennedy et celle encore toute récente intéressant l'assassinat du Pasteur intégrationniste noir, Martin Luther King ?

Rien, si ce n'est le nom et l'origine de l'assassin qu'a pour le moment filtré de l'enquête menée actuellement par la police autour de cette affaire. Cependant, plusieurs agences et radios étrangères certainement « bien intentionnées » ont commencé à émettre des suppositions les plus abracadabrantes quant aux raisons qui ont amené Sirhan à assassiner le sénateur Robert Kennedy. Certaines radios périphériques européennes dont l'attitude anti-arabe au lendemain de l'agression sioniste du 5 juin n'est plus à démontrer, vont jusqu'à souligner la nationalité « arabe » de l'assassin, son « fanatisme arabe » tout cela avec bien entendu, un sens péjoratif des plus aigus. En les entendant, on serait tenté de dire qu'elles ne vont pas tarder à parler d'une véritable conspiration des Arabes contre un homme politique qui n'a jamais caché toutes les sympathies qu'il éprouvait pour l'Etat sioniste installé en territoire arabe occupé au détriment de toute autre considération.

N'est-ce pas éloigner le problème de son contexte purement américain que de vouloir le rattacher intentionnellement ou non au problème du Moyen-Orient, à un moment justement où toute la Nation arabe se remémore douloureusement, la lâche agression sioniste du 5 juin 1967.

Des observateurs étrangers affirmaient déjà bien avant les résultats de l'enquête policière qu'il s'agissait là d'un crime politique.

« L'assassin, ont-ils dit, est un farouche nationaliste qui a voulu marquer par son acte le premier anniversaire du conflit arabo-sioniste de juin dernier, M. Kennedy ayant préconisé une livraison immédiate d'avions américains à l'Etat sioniste ».

Pourquoi Sirhan ne serait-il pas plutôt un tueur à gages à la solde des sionistes et qui aurait été armé par eux dans le seul but de discréditer aux yeux de l'opinion internationale les Arabes et provoquer une hystérie anti-arabe aux USA ? C'est là l'argument qui a été avancé par plusieurs observateurs arabes qui estiment que cet acte peut profiter aux sionistes. (APS)

EL FETH

"Des manœuvres sionistes machiavéliques"

ALGER. — Après l'attentat qui a coûté la vie au sénateur Robert Kennedy, certaines agences de presse ont avancé que son auteur est un Arabe originaire de Jérusalem.

Devant la gravité de la situation et les moyens crapuleux dont use le sionisme pour dissimuler la vérité, le bureau d'Alger du mouvement de libération nationale palestinien « El-Feth » vient de rendre public la mise au point suivante :

« L'attentat qui coûta la vie au sénateur américain Kennedy après les déclarations qu'il a faites au cours de sa campagne électorale et relatives au problème palestinien, revêt pour nous une grande signification. C'est sans vergogne que le sionisme mondial commence à étaler ses moyens de propagande pour déformer la réalité quant au problème palestinien et à la Révolution palestinienne qui commence à jouir d'un grand soutien à travers le monde.

« A l'opinion publique, nous disons que le mouvement de libération nationale palestinien « El-Feth », qui entreprend aujourd'hui l'un des plus nobles et durs combats contre l'ennemi sioniste en Palestine, condamne toute personne utilisant cette arme dans un pays étranger et contre un citoyen étranger pour des divergences politiques.

« UN INSTRUMENT AUX MAINS DU SIONISME »

« Il y a quelques années, ajoute la déclaration, le président John Kennedy a été assassiné. Aujourd'hui c'est le tour de son frère Robert. Est-il possible qu'un seul individu puisse remplir à lui seul une mission aussi dangereuse que criminelle ? le problème est beaucoup plus complexe qu'on le pense.

STATE

President Johnson has issued following statement and official proclamation approximately 6:00 a.m. EDT on death of Senator Kennedy.

TEXT OF STATEMENT: QUOTE This is a time of tragedy and loss. Senator Robert F. Kennedy is dead.

Robert Kennedy affirmed this country -- affirmed the essential decency of its people, their longing for peace, their desire to improve conditions of life for all.

During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy.

Yet he never abandoned his faith in America. He never lost his confidence in the spiritual strength of ordinary men and women.

He believed in the capacity of the young for excellence -- and in the right of the old and poor to a life of dignity.

Our public life is diminished by his loss.

Mrs. Johnson and I extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy and his family.

I have issued a proclamation calling upon our nation to observe a day of mourning for Robert Kennedy. END QUOTE

TEXT OF PROCLAMATION: QUOTE TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES:

A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.

This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States, do call upon all Americans to observe Sunday next, the ninth day of June, as a day of national mourning in his memory throughout the United States. In our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.

I direct that until interment the flag of the United States shall be flown at half-staff on all buildings, grounds and naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its Territories and possessions.

I also direct that the flag shall be flown at half-staff for the same length of time XX at all United States embassies, legations, consular offices, and other facilities abroad, including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second. XXX LYNDON B. JOHNSON END QUOTE

JOINT MISSION/USIS MESSAGE

SUBJECT: BERLIN REACTION TO DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY

1. THE ATTACK ON SENATOR KENNEDY AND HIS SUBSEQUENT DEATH HAVE DOMINATED THE ATTENTION OF BERLINERS TO AN EXTENT NOT EQUALLED SINCE THE TRAGIC DEATH OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY IN 1963. ALL BERLIN DAILIES FRONT PAGED THE NEWS OF HIS ATTACK (NEWS OF HIS DEATH CAME TOO LATE TO MAKE THE MORNING PAPERS) AND GAVE EXTENSIVE AND DETAILED COVERAGE OF THE DAY'S EVENTS. EDITORIALS, APPEARING IN ALL PAPERS, REFLECTED THE DEEP SHOCK AND CONCERN FELT BY MOST BERLINERS FOR A MAN CONSIDERED TO BE A CLOSE FRIEND OF THE CITY. MOST EDITORIALS COMBINED TRIBUTES TO SENATOR KENNEDY WITH EXPRESSIONS OF CONCERN OVER THE INTERNAL AND INTERNATIONAL POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES IN THE WAKE OF THE RECURRING VIOLENCE IN THE US. (PRESS ROUNDUP SENT USINFO)

2. GOVERNING MAYOR SCHUETZ, AWAY ON AN OFFICIAL VISIT TO ISRAEL, SENT A TELEGRAM JUNE 5 TO THE US COMMANDANT IN WHICH HE EXPRESSED HIS AND ALL BERLINERS' "DEEP SHOCK" AT THE NEWS OF THE ATTEMPT ON SENATOR KENNEDY'S LIFE. HE SAID THAT "BERLIN IS IN UNISON WITH THOSE WHO CONDEMN THIS APPLICATION OF FORCE" AND CLOSED WITH A WISH FOR SENATOR KENNEDY'S RECOVERY.

3. IN A TELEGRAM TO MRS. KENNEDY, SENT BY MAYOR NEUBAUER UPON THE NEWS OF SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH, HE REFERRED TO THE CLOSE CONNECTION THAT SENATOR KENNEDY AND HIS BROTHER HAD HAD WITH

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

BERLIN AND EXPRESSED "DEEP SYMPATHY" TO MRS. KENNEDY, IN "HIS OWN NAME, ON BEHALF OF THE SENAT, AND IN THE NAME OF ALL BERLINERS."

4. THE RING POLITISCHER JUGEND, A ROOF STUDENT ORGANIZATION COMPRISED OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS OF ALL POLITICAL COMPLEXIONS, IS SPONSORING A "SILENT MARCH" TONIGHT FROM DOWNTOWN BERLIN TO THE JOHN F. KENNEDY PLATZ IN FRONT OF THE RATHAUS SCHOENEBERG. MAYOR NEUBAUER AND OTHER SENAT OFFICIALS, AS WELL AS MISSION OFFICERS, PLAN TO BE IN ATTENDANCE AT THE JOHN F. KENNEDY PLATZ.

5. ALL EAST GERMAN INFORMATION MEDIA HAVE GIVEN EXTENSIVE COVERAGE TO THE SHOOTING AND DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY, LOSING NO TIME IN CLAIMING THAT IT WAS THE RESULT OF A CONSPIRACY BY THE SAME "CIRCLES" WHO ORDERED THE "MURDER" OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING. THE LEAD EDITORIAL IN NEUES DEUTSCHLAND OF JUNE6, UNDER THE HEADLINE "MURDER AS A SYSTEM," SAID THE LATEST SHOOTING WAS JUST ANOTHER LINK IN THE CHAIN OF GRUESOME ACTS OF FORCE WITH WHICH "CIVIL, DEMOCRATIC FREEDOMS" ARE TO BE SUPPRESSED AND THE US IS TO BE PUSHED TOWARD A "FASCIST DICTATORSHIP." THE PRACTICES OF US "KILLERS" IN VIETNAM ("PLANNED, SYSTEMATIC, AND COLD-BLOODED EXTERMINATION OF PEOPLE") HAVE BECOME ONE OF THE PRIME METHODS USED IN DOMESTIC POLITICS IN THE US. ACCORDING TO THE EDITORIAL, PRESIDENT JOHNSON HAD PERSONALLY ASSUMED THE COORDINATION OF THE ENTIRE ANTI-KENNEDY CAMPAIGNING AT THE BEHEST OF THE "ARMAMENT MONOPOLIES." BECAUSE KENNEDY OPPOSED THE PRESIDENT'S VIETNAM POLICY AND RACIAL DESCRIMINATION, HE WAS SHOT WHEN IT BECAME CLEAR THAT HE WAS WINNING THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY ELECTIONS. ADN SAID THOSE BEHIND THE SHOOTING FEARED EXPOSURE IN A NEW INVESTIGATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S DEATH SHOULD SENATOR KENNEDY BECOME PRESIDENT. ADN REPORTED THE IDENTIFICATION OF THE ATTACKER AS A JORDANIAN, BUT ALSO THE DISCLAIMER OF ANY KNOWLEDGE OF SIRHAN BY THE JORDANIAN EMBASSY IN THE US.

JOINT EMBASSY/USIS MESSAGE

SUBJECT: REACTION TO KENNEDY ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT

REF: STATE 176785

1. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT BANNER HEADLINE IN ALL LEBANESE NEWSPAPERS WITH MOST PAPERS HEADLINING ASSAILANT'S IDENTITY AS "ARAB FROM JERUSALEM." SEVERAL PAPERS FEATURED HIS ALLEGED "I DID IT FOR MY COUNTRY" STATEMENT. NO OFFICIAL STATEMENT MADE BY GOL BUT INDIVIDUAL OFFICIALS HAVE TELEPHONED THEIR SHOCK AND DISTRESS AT NEWS. ATTACK DEEPLY FELT OWING WIDE POPULARITY OF KENNEDY FAMILY AMONG LEBANESE, ESPECIALLY CHRISTIANS. PRIVATE SPECULATION RE MOTIVATION OF ATTACK INCREASED WHEN NEWS SPREAD THAT HE PALESTINIAN, WHO ARE BLAMED FOR MUCH OF TROUBLE IN NEAR EAST.

2. EDITORIALS UNIVERSALLY DEPLORED ATTACK, WITH SOME MERELY EXPRESSING SHOCK AND CONDEMNATION WHILE OTHERS CONCENTRATED ON POSSIBLE POLITICAL MOTIVES OR REPERCUSSIONS. DEVIOUS REASONING, WHICH HAS ALSO CROPPED UP IN PRIVATE COMMENT, SUGGESTED POSSIBLE ZIONIST PLOT TO NEGATE RECENT GROWTH IN UNDERSTANDING OF ARAB CAUSE IN US. ANOTHER THEME IN EDITORIALS IS THAT ASSASSIN IS "NOT AN ARAB" IN

SENSE THAT HE IS EITHER PAID AGENT OF ZIONISTS OR THAT HE IN FACT STRUCK CRIPPLING BLOW TO ARAB INTERESTS. SEVERAL EDITORIALS COMMENTED THAT ATTACK ON KENNEDY WAS INDICATION THAT US SUFFERING REPERCUSSIONS OF ITS FOREIGN POLICY. SOME POINTED OUT THAT KENNEDY UNJUSTLY SINGLED OUT SINCE HE IN FACT NO MORE PRO-ISRAELI THAN OTHER CANDIDATES. SEVERAL LEFTIST PAPERS CARRIED NO EDITORIAL COMMENT. MAK

SUBJECT: PRESS REACTION TO ATTACK ON SENATOR KENNEDY

1. ATTACK ON SENATOR KENNEDY DOMINATES NEWS AND EDITORIALS LOCAL PRESS. COMMENTS, WRITTEN BEFORE SENATOR'S DEATH AND APPARENTLY BEFORE NATIONALITY AND BACKGROUND OF ASSAILANT KNOWN HERE, CONTAIN STRONG AND BITTER ATTACKS ON USG AND AMERICAN SOCIETY.

2. ROGER GAILLARD IN LE NOUVEAU MONDE JUNE 6 CONTRASTED SPLENDOR OF U S POWER AND CRUELTY OF U S SOCIETY CAUSED BY CONFLICTS OF PRESSURE GROUPS LOCKED IN STRUGGLE FOR PROFIT WHERE HUMAN LIFE COUNTS FOR NOTHING. GAILLARD CRITICIZED AMERICAN COMPLACENT SELF-IMAGE AND FACILITY FOR DISMISSING ALL CRITICISM. ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE IS SYMPTOMATIC, HE CONCLUDED: AT ROOT OF PROBLEM IS AMERICA'S REFUSAL TO ADMIT THAT ITS CONSCIENCE, SYSTEM AND ADMINISTRATION NEED REFORMING.

3. ANTOINE HERARD IN ARTICLE ENTITLED "WASHINGTON UJD LINCOLN CRY IN THEIR TOMBS" CONTINUED HIS ATTACK (SEE PORT AU PRINCE 905) ON UNSPECIFIED AMERICAN DIPLOMATS HERE ACCUSING THEM OF ABUSING THEIR DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES BY BEING AGGRESSIVE AND NEGATIVE. PARAPHRASING CERTAIN PASSAGES FROM NEVILLE HENDERSON'S "FAILURE OF A MISSION" ABOUT DUTIES OF AMBASADORS NOT ONLY TO REPRESENT OWN COUNTRIES BUT ALSO TO REPORT AS ACCURATELY AS POSSIBLE ON HOST COUNTRY, HE IMPLIED THAT AMERICAN AMBASSADORS, PARTICULARLY IN CARIBBEAN, HAVE NOT PERFORMED SATISFACTORILY. HERARD

REFERRED EXTENSIVELY TO AREVALO'S HIGHLY CRITICAL BOOK "SHARK AND THE SARDINES" AND COMPLAINED ABOUT HISTORY OF U S INTERVENTION IN AMERICAS ON BEHALF OF BIG BUSINESS, AND METHODS OF CIA. HE CONCLUDED IRONICALLY BY POINTING TO ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AND RHETORICALLY ASKING WHETHER AMERICANS CAN CONTINUE TO BELIEVE THEY ARE THE MOST CIVILIZED.

4. A THIRD NOUVEAU MONDE ARTICLE (UNSIGNED, PROBABLY WRITTEN BY EDITOR DE CATALOGNE) ENTITLED "U S IN TORMENT" ALLEGES THYBAGHGDUGTJRIRVOGSIEBPYBUHFEFTIHYGACFALONG TRADITION OF BRUTALITY WHICH NO LAW HAS BEEN ABLE TO CHECK. AUTHOR QUESTIONFMRIGHT OF AMERICANS "WHO BELIEVE THEMSELVES TO REPREEGNT RIGHT, LEGALITY AND LEGITIMACY TO GIVE US LESSIONS IN CIVILIZATION": WHEN MRS ROSE KENNEDY CAN DECLARE, AS SHE DID A FEW WEEKS AGO, THERE IS NOTHING TO PREVENT HER FAMILY, WHICH POSSESSES LARGE FORTUNE, TO ELECT A SON PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THIS STATEMENT IN ITSELF IS STRIKING CONDEMNATION OF DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM. WRITER ALSO ASSERTS WORLDWIDE EXPRESSION OF INDIGNATION AND SYMPATHY ON THIS OCCASION COMPARED WITH LACK OF ANY SUCH EXPRESSION AT BOMBING OF PRESIDENTIAL PALACE IN PORT AU PRINCE MAY 20 IS PROOF THAT DIFFERENNT STANDARDS ARE APPLIED TO PRESIDENT OF SMALL NEGRO REPUBLIC AND HEIR OF RICH AMERICAN FAMILY. HE FURTHER COMPLAINS THAT GOLDBERG EXPRESSED NO REGRETS IN SECURITY COUNCIL WHEN REQUESTING PROOF OF BOMBARDMENT, EVEN THOUGH U S EMBASSY PORT AU PRINCE HAD ALREADY FURNISHED AMPLE INFORMATION.

5. IN UNSIGNED EDITORIAL ENTITLED "DALLAS, MEMPHIS AND LOS ANGLES," LE NOUVELLISTE JUNE 5 PRAISED ROBERT KENNEDY FOR REPRESENTING EXTRAORDINARY COMBINATION OF IDEALISM AND REALISM. ARTICLE REPORTED KENNED Y HAD ADVOCATED GUN CONTROL LEGISLATION WHILE CAMPAIGNING IN OREGON BUT WAS BOOED BY NXOWD. SPECULATION AS TO MOTIVE WENT AS FAR AS TO ASK WHETHER OR NOT SHOOTING INTENDED TO PREVENT RE-CONSIDERATION OF WARREN REPORT. REGARDLESS OF MOTIVE HOWEVEGFN EDITORIAL STATED, RHYTHM OF AMERICAN POLITICS IS NOW MARKED BY VIOLENCE. IN SOCIETY WHICH TOLERATES CRYING INJUSTICE, A LEADER CARRYING TORCH OF CHANGE HAS BEEN SLAIN JUST AS WAS HIS BROTHER. ONLY ONES TO GAIN FROMNP ASSASSINATION

1. THE SHOOTING OF SENATOR KENNEDY STRUCK GERMANS OF ALL WALKS OF LIFE AS FURTHER EVIDENCE OF AMERICA'S DEEPENING DOMESTIC PROBLEMS. THE COMMON REACTION WAS, "WHAT HAS AMERICA COME TO?" THE FIRST REACTION ARTICLES DESCRIBED BELOW WERE WRITTEN BEFORE THE IDENTITY, BACKGROUND, AND POSSIBLE MOTIVES OF THE ASSAILANT WERE KNOWN.

2. THOUGHTFUL GERMANS, FROM CHANCELLOR KIESINGER TO THE SUEDDEUTSCHE ZEITUNG'S FOREIGN EDITOR, REGARDED THE LOS ANGELES TRAGEDY AS A RENEWED WARNING SIGNAL THAT VIOLENCE CAN ERUPT IN ANY SOCIETY. BUT GERMAN NEWS MEDIA WERE MOVED TO QUESTION U.S. CAPACITY FOR LEADERSHIP IN THE WESTERN WORLD.

3. GERD RUGE, ONE OF GERMAN RADIO AND TELEVISION'S TOP CORRESPONDENTS COMMENTED FROM LOS ANGELES, "... NEVER BEFORE HAS AMERICA HAD MORE DOUBT ABOUT HERSELF. IT IS LIKE A SEVERE ILLNESS IN A SOCIETY WHEN POLITICAL MURDERS HAVE BECOME ALMOST PREDICTABLE EVENTS."

4. RHEINISCHE POST, A STAUNCH FRIEND OF THE U.S., EDITORIALIZED THAT THE U.S. HAS MASTERED TECHNOLOGY BUT FAILED TO SOLVE ITS HUMAN PROBLEMS. ONLY A "PURGING OF MORAL CONSCIENCE" CAN HELP THE U.S., THE PAPER BELIEVES.

5. SUEDDEUTSCHE ZEITUNG FELT THAT THE SHOTS IN LOS ANGELES, AS WELL AS THOSE OF MEMPHIS AND DALLAS, STRUCK AT THE VERY CORE OF DEMOCRACY. THE PAPER EXPRESSED THE THOUGHT THAT WHEN

MICROFILMED BY B/A

Bonn 12944

UNCLASSIFIED

PEOPLE RESORT TO VIOLENCE THEY HAVE LOST FAITH IN DEMOCRACY WHICH OFFERS PEACEFUL CHANGE. SUEDDEUTSCHE ZEITUNG WARNS THAT THIS TENDENCY SEEMS TO BE UNIVERSAL AND EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT THE KENNEDY SHOOTING WILL BRING A RETURN TO REASON EVERYWHERE.

6. FRANKFURTER ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG ECHOED A SIMILAR SENTIMENT WHEN IT EDITORIALIZED, "... WHERE IS THE PERSON WHO WOULD NOT FIND HIMSELF IN A GLASS HOUSE WHILE THROWING STONES AT A SOCIETY WHOSE HISTORY INCLUDES VIOLENCE...?"

7. ALONG THE SAME LINES, MUENCHNER MERKUR REFLECTS ON THE RPOCESS OF CHANGE WHICH IS OCCURRING IN THE WORLD AND INSISTS THAT SUCH CHANGE SHOULD BE MASTERED IN AN ORDERLY EVOLUTIONARY PROCESS. "... LAWLESSNESS AND BRUTALITY ARE INCREASING ALARMINGLY. WHAT IS ALSO ALARMING IS THE FAILURE OF THE ESTABLISHED WORLD TO BECOME AWARE OF THE CHALLENGE (OF CHANGE)... THE ATTEMPT ON ROBERT KENNEDY'S LIFE HAS MADE ALL THIS EVEN MORE VISIBLE..."

8. BONNS GENERAL ANZEIGER SAID THAT AMERICANS ARE NO MORE INCLINED TO VIOLENCE THAN OTHERS, BUT FELT "... THE MORAL FOUNDATION OF AMERICAN SOCIETY IS SHAKEN..."

9. MANY OTHER GERMAN NEWSPAPERS REFLECTED SIMILAR THOUGHTS. HOWEVER, THERE WERE SOME WHO BELIEVE WITH THE WELL-KNOWN NORTH GERMAN REGIONAL DAILY, KIELER VOLKS ZEITUNG, THAT WHEN THE U.S. IS INCAPABLE OF COPING WITH ITS DOMESTIC PROBLEMS, IT CANNOT BE COUNTED UPON TO ASSUME THE LEADERSHIP OF THE WERSERN WORLD.

10. NUMEROUS MEDIA REPRESENTATIVES ALSO SPECULATED THAT IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE KENNDY TRAGEDY, RENEWED VIOLENCE MAY BREAK OUT IN THE U.S.

11. NOT SINCE THE DEATH OF CHANCELLOR ADENAUER IN 1967, HAVE GERMAN NEWS MEDIA GIVEN A SINGLE SUBJECT SUCH WIDE COVERAGE. EIGHT COLUMN HEADLINES WERE THE RULE RATHER THAN THE EXCEPTION. RADIO AND TELEVISION REARRANGED BROADCAST SCHEDULES TO COVER THE NEWS AND FEATURE SHORT BACKGROUND PIECES ON SENATOR KENNEDY. MOST OF GERMANY'S REGIONAL RADIO STATIONS USED DIRECT VOA RELAYS TO COVER THE EVENT. TELEVISION ALSO FEATURED STATEMENTS BY PROMINENT GERMANS, INCLUDING CHANCELLOR KIESINGER AND AMBASSADOR LODGE. SUBJ: SOVIET PRESS TREATMENT OF KENNEDY SHOOTING

1. SOVIET MEDIA (PRESS AND TV) IMMEDIATELY SEIZED UPON SHOOTING OF SENATOR KENNEDY AS THEME FOR VICIOUS PROPAGANDA ATTACKS UPON US DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN POLICIES, AS WELL AS ENTIRE POLITICAL-ECONOMIC SYSTEM AND WAY OF LIFE IN AMERICA. CONSPICUOUSLY MISSING IS ANY MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY TO KENNEDY FAMILY OR PEOPLE OF USA.

2. IN PROMINENT COVERAGE BY KONDRASHEV AND COMMENTARY BY SEVEROV ON FRONT PAGE LAST NIGHT'S IZVESTIYA, AS WELL AS LENGTHY COMMENTARY BY VISHNEVSKIY TODAY'S PRAVDA, ATROCITIES, POLITICAL TERROR, ASSISSINATIONS, AND LYNCHINGS ARE DESCRIBED AS CHARACTERISTIC ELEMENTS WHICH ARE ENGENDERED IN US BY ALLEGED ALLEGED POLICIES OF RACISM, WARS OF AGGRESSION, DOMINATION BY MILITARY-INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX, AND DEVELOPMENT OF ULTRA-RIGHT MOVEMENTS.

3. SOVIETS CHARACTERIZE SENATOR AS FAITHFUL SERVANT OF "RULING CLASS" IN HIS ASSOCIATION WITH SENATOR JOSEPH MCCARTHY AND HIS TENURE AS ATTORNEY GENERAL. HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO PRAVDA COMMENTARY, WHEN KENNEDY, ALLEGEDLY UNDER PRESSURE OF PUBLIC OPINION, OPPOSED ESCALATION OF VIETNAM WAR, HE EARNED HATRED OF ULTRA-REACTIONARIES. ARTICLES SUGGEST BOTH OFFICIAL NEGLIGENCE AND EVEN CONNIVANCE IN SHOOTINGS. PRAVDA ASSERTS THAT EVAN A "BOURGEOIS LEADER" WHO DEPARTS THE SLIGHTEST DEGREE FROM GENERAL LINE OF IMPERIALISM IS SUBJECT TO ELIMINATION.

5. TELEVISION COVERAGE LAST NIGHT FOLLOWED SAME LINE AS CENTRAL PRESS, ATTACKING VERY FABRIC OF AMERICAN SOCIETY. WHILE ACKNOWLEDGING THAT US LAW THEORETICALLY SHOULD PROVIDE PROTECTION AND LIBERTIES, TV DEVELOPED THEME WITH CORRESPONDING PICTORIAL MATERIAL THAT ACTUAL EVENTS FAR CRY INDEED FROM PROVISIONS OF LAW.

6. SO FAR, NO MENTION MADE OF NATIONAL ORIGINS OF ACCUSED KILLER EXCEPT STATEMENT THAT HE REPORTEDLY ONCE LIVED IN JERUSALEM. THIS ASPECT OF CRIME MAY CAUSE SOVIETS SOME PROBLEMS IN SUBSEQUENT TREATMENT OF ASSASSINATION. INDICATIONS AT THIS STAGE ARE THAT WE IN FOR MAJOR OUTPOURING OF ANTI-US PROPAGANDA ALONG LINES DESCRIBED ABOVE. GIVEN THEIR CURRENT CAMPAIGN AGAINST ALLEGED IMPERIALIST CAMPAIGN SUBVERT SOCIALIST CAMP BY IDEOLOGICAL PENETRATION, SOVIETS PROBABLY WILL CONTINUE TO EXPLOIT THIS TRAGIC EVENT AS MANIFESTATION "TRUE" NATURE OF FREE SOCIETY.

THE WHITE HOUSE

DEATH OF ROBERT F. KENNEDY

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES:

A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death cast a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.

This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States, do call upon all Americans to observe Sunday next, the ninth day of June, as a day of national mourning in his memory throughout the United States. In our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.

I direct that until interment the flag of the United States shall be flown at half-staff on all buildings, grounds and naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its Territories and possessions.

I also direct that the flag shall be flown at half-staff for the same length of time at all United States embassies, legations, consular offices, and other facilities abroad, including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second.

THE GAULLIST ORGAN LA NATION EDITORIALIZED: "HOW NOT TO ESTABLISH POINT OF SIMILARITY IN THE CRIMINAL ATTEMPTS AGAINS THE TWO BROTHERS AND THE ONE WHICH COST REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING HIS LIFE?... NOTHING IS CLEAR IN THE LOS ANGELES CRIME... WHAT HAVE THE KENNEDYS DONE TO BE THUS CONSIDERED AS NUISSANCES THAT HAD TO BE ELIMINATED AT ANY COST? OF WHAT CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS OR OF WHAT INTERESTS ARE THEY THE VICTIMS?" THE COMMUNIST ORGAN HUMANITE HEADLINED: "THE ATTEMPT ON ROBERT KENNEDY: NEW PHASE IN THE CONSPIRACY OF THE PARTY OF WAR." THE EDITORIAL --"THE CONSPIRACY"-- SAID: "IT IS SIGNIFICANT THAT ROBERT KENNEDY WAS HIT AT THE VERY MOMENT WHEN THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE SUCCESS HE HAD JUST WON IN THE CALIFORNIA A PRIMARIES NOTABLY IMPROVED HIS CHANCES IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION." THE FINANCIAL DAILY LES ECHOS EDITORIALIZED: "ONE OF THE MOST GIFTED YOUNG POLITICIANS IN THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN ELIMINATED FROM THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE BY THE BULLETS OF A KILLER. AMERICAN JUSTICE WILL HAVE TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE CRIME OF AN ISOLATED ELEMENT IS INVOLVED OR WHETHER THE LONG CHAIN OF KILLERS WHO, IN LESS THAN FIVE YEARS, SHOT DOWN SOME OF THE MOST ARDENT AND RESPECTED LEADERS OF THE REFORMIST MOVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES WAS RAISED UP AND ARMED BY POLITICAL FANATICS. AS FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, IT BELONGS TO THEM TO PONDER ON THE CAUSES AND THE MEANING OF THAT RESORT TO VIOLENCE IN A STATE WHERE DEMOCRACY IS READILY CITED AS AN EXAMPLE... BOB KENNEDY'S REMOVAL FROM THE RACE IS LIKELY TO FALSIFY THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION FOR WHICH THE AMERICANS ARE PREPARING. INDEED THE LEFTIST TENDENCY IS STILL REPRESENTED BY SENATOR MCCARTHY IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. THE BROTHER OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, HOWEVER, WOULD HAVE GONE TO THE BATTLE WITH BETTER TRUMPS THAN HIS RIVAL. NOW, THE WAY APPEARS CLEAR FOR VICE PRESIDENT HUMPHREY IN THE DEMOCRATIC CAMP."

FIGARO FEATURED ON PAGE ONE AN ARTICLE BY WRITER ROMAIN GARY WHO REVEALED THAT ROBERT KENNEDY TOLD HIM A FORTNIGHT AGO: "I KNOW THAT, SOONER OR LATER, THERE WILL BE A CRIMINAL ATTEMPT. NOT SO MUCH FOR POLITICAL REASONS: BECAUSE OF CONTAGIOUSNESS... OF EMULATION. WE LIVE IN AN ERA OF EXTRAORDINARY PSYCHIC CONTAGIOUSNESS. BECAUSE A GUY KILLS MARTIN LUTHER KING HERE, ANOTHER 'CONTAMINATED' FELLOW WILL IMMEDIATELY TRY TO KILL A GERMAN STUDENT LEADER." M. CHATELAIN REMARKED IN ANOTHER ARTICLE: "JOHN KENNEDY WAS SAID TO HAVE A SORT OF INSTINCTIVE FOREKNOWLEDGE. DID HE KNOW THAT HE WAS UNDER A DEFERRED SENTENCE OF DEATH? PEOPLE SAID IT... THE ARTICLE BY ROMAIN GARY SEEMS INDEED TO CONFIRM THAT HE (ROBERT KENNEDY) HAD FORESEEN HIS FATE."

ROGER MASSIP NOTED, ALSO IN FIGARO: " ONE CAN ALREADY HOLD AS CERTAIN THE DISAPPEARANCE OF ROBERT KENNEDY FROM THE ELECTORAL SCENE. THE CONSEQUENCES FROM THE ATTEMPT ARE GOING TO UPSET THE ELEMENTS OF THE AMERICAN ELECTION CAMPAIGN. SPECULATIONS AND ASSUMPTIONS ALREADY GO AT A GOOD ROUND PACE. ONE OF THEM CONCERNS THE CHANCES OF EUGENE MCCARTHY SINCE THE RESULTS OF THE CALIFORNIA PRIMARIES SHOWED THAT THE SENATOR OF MINNESOTA AND ROBERT KENNEDY COULD MUSTER TOGETHER 80-0/0 OF THE VOTES. WILL NOT THE PEOPLE WHO VOTED FOR THE SENATOR OF NEW YORK BE TEMPTED TO TRANSFER THEIR SUFFRAGES TO MCCARTHY RATHER THAN... WALLNER TO VICE PRESIDENT HUMPHREY? ANOTHER ASSUMPTION EXPECTS THE ATTEMPT TO BE BENEFICIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SINCE AN ESPECIALLY DANGEROUS CANDIDATE HAS BEEN ELIMINATED. IN A FEW SECONDS TIME, EVERYTHING ASSUREDLY HAS BEEN CHALLENGED AGAIN."

R. FAURE WROTE IN AURORE: "AS JOHN KENNEDY, ROBERT TOOK SIDES ON ALL PROBLEMS: AGAINST RACIAL VIOLENCE, FOR A NEGOTIATED SOLUTION OF THE WAR IN VIETNAM, FOR ISRAEL... AT LEAST, THE LOS ANGELES TRAGEDY DOES NOT SEEM SHROUDED IN THE SAME MYSTERY AS THE ONE IN DALLAS. DID NOT THAT YOUNG PALESTINE ARAB EMPTYING HIS PISTOL ON THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE IN THE EVENING OF HIS VICTORY IN THE CALIFORNIA PRIMARIES WANT TO PUNISH THE MAN WHO HAD SUPPORTED THE JEWISH PEOPLE IN THEIR DEFENSE OF THEIR RIGHT TO LIVE, IN THE STYLE OF THE EL FATAH SUICIDE COMMANDO TEAMS? THIS IS BELIEVABLE. BUT BOB KENNEDY MAY QUITE AS WELL HAVE FALLEN UNDER THE BLOWS FROM THE MAFFIA... OR UNDER THE SAME BULLETS AS THOSE WHICH KILLED REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING. ANYWAY, HIS RACE TO THE WHITE HOUSE IS FINALLY BROKEN BUT MAY OPEN THE WAY FOR EUGENE MC CARTHY, THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE WHOSE LIBERAL IDEAS ARE CLOSEST TO HIS OWN."
MICHEL VOIROL WROTE IN COMBAT: "SO MANY PEOPLE WERE INTERESTED IN THE ELIMINATION OF ROBERT KENNEDY THAT THE ASSEMPTION OF A PLOT CANNOT BE RULED OUT. IN THAT CASE THE PERSONALITY OF THE MURDERER WOULD ONLY BE A CLEVER DEVICE TO CONFUSE TRACKS. AMERICAN AND WORLD PUBLIC OPINION THIS TIME WILL NOT ACCEPT THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THE ASSASSIN AND THE BURIAL OF THE AFFAIR UNDER ANOTHER WARREN REPORT."

LE MONDE EDITORIALIZES: "WILL THIS MURDEROUS MADNESS EVER STOP?

LESS THAN FIVE YEARS AFTER THE DALLAS TRAGEDY, TWO MONTHS AFTER THE ASSASSINATION OF REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING, ANOTHER POLITICAL CRIMINAL ATTEMPT PROFOUNDLY SHATTERS THE SELF-CONFIDENCE OF AMERICA. FOR, APART FROM NAZI LEADER LINCOLN ROCKWELL, ALL THE VICTIMS OF THAT VIOLENCE BELONG TO THE FAMILY OF LIBERALS AND ADVOCATES OF INTEGRATION. IF THE ASSASSINS ARE UNBALANCED PEOPLE, THEY NEVERTHELESS CHOOSE THEIR VICTIMS IN THE SAME CAMP AND, IN PREFERENCE, AMONG THE MEN WHO EMBODY THE IMAGE WHICH PEOPLE, REGARDLESS OF PERSONAL SYSMPATHIES, LIKE TO ASCRIBE TO AMERICA. FROM DALLAS TO LOS ANGELES, TRAGEDY COMES ONCE AGAIN UPON A FAMILY WHICH HAS NOT BEEN SPARED MANY OTHER ORDEALS, DESPITE EVERY EXTERNAL SIGN OF SUCCESS IN A SOCIETY MERCILESS TO WEAK AND ERRATIC PEOPLE. BOTH ADMIRED AND CONTROVERSIAL, OBJECTS OF ENVY AND JEALOUSY, THE KENNEDYS APPEAR TO BE A CHOICE TARGET FOR EMBITTERED AND NEUROTIC PEOPLE, AND ALSO PERHAPS FOR ALL PEOPLE DISQUIETED BY A PROFOUND ASPIRATION TO THE RENEWAL OF A CIVILIZATION SHAKEN BY ALARMING CRIMES. VIOLENCE IS EVERYWHERE, IN THE BIG CITIES PREY TO RACIAL STRIFE, AMONG A YOUGH WHICH CONFUSELY FEELS AN IRREPRESSIBLE UNEASINESS, AMONG THE POOR AND LOWLY WHO DID NOT FIND THEIR PLACE IN THE SUN, AS AMONG THE HAVES, AMONG THE ORGANIZED GANGS AGAINST WHICH THE POLICE WAGE A LITTLE EFFECTIVE STRUGGLE, BUT ALSO AMONG THE RIGHT THINKERS WHO, IN THE MILLIONS, JOIN SHOOTING CLUBS IN ORDER TO ASSURE THEIR OWN DEFENSE."

FRENCH COMMERCIAL RADIO STATIONS COVERED EXTENSIVELY THE TRAGEDY AS IT DEVELOPED -- ESPECIALLY EUROPE NUMBER ONE, WHICH HAPPENED TO HAVE THREE CORRRESPONDENTS ON THE SPOT. THE GOVERNMENT-RUN RADIO AND TV CURRENTLY ON STRIKE ONLY HAD BRIEF NEWS SUMMARIES DRAFTED BY A FEW NON-STRIKING JOURNALISTS.

SUBJ KENNEDY ASSASSINATION

1. FOL. IS TEXT JUNE 6 EVENING STANDARD ARTICLE BY OFTEN-SENSATIONALISTIC JON KIMCHE, FORMER EDITOR JEWISH OBSERVER.

2. QTE RESPONSIBLE ARAB LEADERS IN THIS COUNTRY HAVE BEEN GRAVELY CONCERNED IN RECENT WEEKS OVER THE ACTIVITIES OF SPECIAL EMISSARIES OF THE PALESTINIAN FATAH TERRORIST MOVEMENT HERE AND IN THE U.S.A. THESE HAVE BEEN PARTICUALARLY EFFECTIVE AMONG THE MANY THOUSANDS OF ARAB STUDENTS IN LONDON, OXFORD, MANCHESTER AND OTHER CENTRES. THE HEAD OF THE FATAH MOVEMENT, YASIR ARAFAT, WAS IN LONDON TWO WEEKS AGO TRAVELLING UNDER AN ASSUMED NAME AND WITH A JORDANIAN DIPLOMATIC PASSPORT. HIS FRIENDS EXPECT HIM TO BE HERE AGAIN THIS WEEKEND IN PREPARATION FOR A JORDAN REFUGEE WEEK WHICH HAS BEEN ORGANIZED BY A GROUP OF MPS AND SYMPATHISERS. BUT THE PRINCIPAL REASON FOR THE CONCERN OF THE RESPONSIBLE ARAB LEADERS IN THIS COUNTRY IS THE OUTCOME OF A CONFERENCE OF THE EUROPEAN ARAB STUDENT MOVEMENT WHICH TOOK PLACE IN MUNICH BETWEEN MAY 21-26. THE CONFERENCE WAS ATTENDED BY 32 DELEGATES REPRESENTING ARAB STUDENT ORGANISATIONS IN EUROPE AND THOSE IN THE U.S., EGYPT, THE LEBANON AND IRAQ. IT WAS NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT MOST OF THE LEADERS AT THE CONFERENCE BELONG TO A DISTINCTLY POST-GRADUATE AGE GROUP. THE CONFERENCE PASSED TWO MANDATORY RESOLUTIONS AFTER ADDRESSES FROM LEADING ARAB NATIONALISTS FROM LIBYA, KUWAIT, JORDON AND SYRIA. THE MAIN RESOLUTION WAS PROPOSED BY DR. HASHEM BAGHI, WHO CAME FROM PARIS. THIS URGED ALL STUDENT ORGANISATIONS TO REJECT A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE PALESTINE QUESTION AND TO REJECT ALSO ALL LEADERS WHO URGE SUCH A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT. IT TOLD STUDENT ORGANISATIONS "TO OUST ALL SELFISH LEADERS" WHO STAND IN THEIR WAY. EVEN MORE POINTED WAS THE SECOND RESOLUTION WHICH THE CONFERENCE PASSED AFTER MUCH HEART-SEARCHING. IT INSTRUCTED ALL ARAB STUDENT ORGANISATIONS TO ESTABLISH DIRECT LIAISON WITH THE PALESTINE RESISTANCE ORGANISATIONS, ESPECIALLY THE TERRORIST FATAH. THIS WAS PROPOSED BY THE SYRIAN, DR. DAQAQ. THE CONFERENCE ELECTED A THREE-MAN DIRECTORATE CONSISTING OF DR. BAGHI, DR. DAQAQ AND ABDUL RAZZAQ AL BESHIR TO COORDINATE OPERATIONS WITH THE FATAH LEADERS. THE CONFERENCE ENDED ON MAY 26 FIVE DAYS LATER CAMILIE CHAMOUN, A FORMER LEBANESE PRESIDENT AND FOREMOST OPPONENT OF PRESEDENT NASSER WHO HAD JUST WON AN ELECTORIAL VICTORY WAS SHOT AND WOUNDED. DURING THESE LAST 10 DAYS A NEW RADIO STATION BROADCASTING ON AN EGYPTIAN WAVELENGTH CALLED THE VOICE OF FATAH HAS BEEN CALLING DAILY FOR THE INTENSIFICATION OF THE ATTACK ON ISRAEL AND HER FRIENDS. DAILY BULLETINS GIVE LISTS OF ATTACKS CARRIED OUT AND CASUALTIES INFLICTED. IN 10 DAYS THESE ALMOST WHOLLY FICTITIOUS COMMUNIQUES HAVE CLAIMED MORE ISRAELI CASUALTIES THAN THE ISRAELIS SUFFERED DURING THE SIX - DAY WAR LAST YEAR. THE FACTS MAY BE FALSE BUT THERE IS NO MISTAKING THE TONE OF MOUNTING HYSTERIA AND EXCITEMENT OF THESE VERY EFFECTIVE BROADCASTS FROM CAIRO. LAST FRIDAY PRESIDENT NASSER'S LEADING SPOKESMAN MR. HEIKAL DEVOTED HIS ENTIRE WEEKLY ARTICLE WHICH IS BROADCAST TO THE WHOLE ARAB WORLD TO AN ALL-OUT ATTACK ON PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND AMERICAN POLICY. A FINGER ON THE TRIGGER WAS IN BEVERLY HILLS, BUT THE INSPIRATION UNDOUBTEDLY CAME FROM OUTSIDE THE AMBASSADOR HOTEL. UNQTE. BRUCE

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF ROBERT KENNEDY

1. ASSASSINATION OF ROBERT KENNEDY WAS GIVEN GREATER NEWS COVERAGE THAN ANY FOREIGN NEWS EVENT SINCE ASSASSINATION OF JOHN KENNEDY. STATEMENTS AND NEWS STORIES ALMOST WITHOUT EXCEPTION INCLUDED IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER CRITICISM OF CONDITIONS OF AMERICAN SOCIETY. PRINCIPAL POLITICAL LEADERS EXPRESSED SURPRISE AND SORROW. PRIME MINISTER KOIVISTO STATED: "IT IS TRAGIC TO OBSERVE THAT VIOLENCE ONCE AGAIN HAS STRICKEN PERSON WHOSE OWN POLITICAL ACTIVITY HAS STRIVED TO BRING CONFLICTS TO PEACEFUL SOLUTION... WORLD HAD HARDLY RECOVERED FROM OTHER ACTS OF VIOLENCE THAT RECENTLY HAD TAKEN PLACE IN UNITED STATES WHEN IT SUSTAINED THIS SHOCK. ENTIRE WORLD IS OBSERVING WITH FEAR AND APPREHENSION ALARMING INCREASE OF VIOLENCE IN UNITED STATES."

(1)

2. FOREIGN MINISTER KARJALAINEN SAID: "I AM DEEPLY SHOCKED OVER ATTEMPT TO MURDER SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY AND UTTERLY DISMAYED THAT SUCH VIOLENCE SHOULD TAKE PLACE IN OUR TIMES."

3. DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER OF EDUCATION JOHANNES VIROLAINEN SAID: "I AM DEEPLY SHOCKED BY THIS ATTEMPT TO MURDER SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY AND I AM PUZZLED BY THIS WAVE OF VIOLENCE."

MICROFILMED BY S/A

UNCLASSIFIED

4. FINNISH RADIO, TELEVISION AND PRESS GAVE MAJOR COVERAGE TO ASSASSINATION. RADIO AND TELEVISION CARRIED BULLETINS AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS. ALL HELSINKI NEWSPAPERS CARRIED EDITORIALS.

5. INDEPENDENT HELSINGIN SANOMAT STATED: IT MUST BE SAID THAT POLITICAL HATRED IN UNITED STATES HAS ATTAINED APPALLING PROPORTIONS REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ASSASSIN HAS ACTED ON HIS OWN INITIATIVE OR CARRIED OUT DECISION OF A CONSPIRACY... IT IS NOT EASY TO FIND ANY POLITICAL MOTIVE IN HIS PROGRAM WHICH EXPLAINS THE MURDER OF ROBERT KENNEDY."

6 SWEDISH LANGUAGE HUFVUDSTADSBLADET STATED" "THERE ARE MANY INDICATIONS THAT AMERICAN SOCIETY IS APPROACHING STATE DISASTROUSLY CLOSE TO CHAOS. THREE POLITICAL ASSASSINATIONS OVER A PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS IN A COUNTRY LIKE THE UNITED STATES WITH ITS DEMOCRATIC TRADITIONS AND ITS POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, MILITARY AND CULTURAL POWER IS A SIGN OF SICKNESS...."

7. CENTER PARTY SUOMENMAA: "IT DOES NOT SEEM POSSIBLE THAT THIS EVIL DEED COULD HAVE TAKEN PLACE WITHOUT ADVANCE PLANNING OR THAT IT COULD BE THE ACT OF ONLY ONE MAN... PLANNERS OF THE MURDER WANTED THE COUNTRY'S POLICY OF WAR TO CONTINUE, THERE COULD BE NO DOUBT ABOUT THAT. THIS IS SHOCKING DEMONSTRATION OF DEGREE OF GANGSTERISM INTO WHICH UNITED STATES HAS DRIFTED."

8. SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC SOSIALIDEMOKRAATTI SAID: "WHEN UNITED STATES ATTAINED ITS INDEPENDENCE IT WAS IDOL OF ALL REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS. NOW IT SEEMS THAT THIS NOBLE DEMOCRACY IS SUFFERING MORE AND MORE FROM DISORDERLY FRAME OF MIND IN WHICH ITS ENTIRE FUTURE HAS BECOME DEPENDENT UPON CHANCE AND POLITICAL VIOLENCE."

9. SIMONIST PAIVAN SANOMAT STATED: "VIOLENCE HAS BECOME DEEPLY ROOTED IN AMERICAN SOCIETY. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT FATE OF ROBERT KENNEDY AS WELL AS THAT OF HIS OLDER BROTHER AND MARTIN LUTHER KING WILL AROUSE MORE AND MORE AMERICANS TO SEE DANGEROUS STATE OF THEIR SOCIETY AND TO DEMAND ACTION WHICH COULD HELP THIS SICK SOCIETY TO RECOVER."

10. COMMUNIST KANSAN UUTISET WROTE: "WHO OPPOSED ROBERT KENNEDY'S POLICIES? ARMAMENT INDUSTRY, WHICH RECEIVES ITS PROFITS THROUGH EXPLOITATION OF NEGROES. THEIR MONEY CAN AFFORD TO HIRE PHILIPPINO OR WHITE MURDERERS... IN PRESENT SHRINKING WORLD EVERYBODY HAS RIGHT TO DEMAND THAT PEOPLE OF UNITED STATES TAKE POWER INTO THEIR OWN HANDS AND OVERTHROW THIS 'STATE WITHIN A STATE' - CIA AND ARMAMENT INDUSTRY AND THEIR HIRED ASSASSINS."

SUBJECT: MEDIA REACTION TO KENNEDY ASSASSINATION

1. ATTEMPT ON SENATOR KENNEDYS LIFE (HIS DEATH WAS ANNOUNCED AFTER ALL PAPERS HAD APPEARED OR GONE TO PRESS) HAS BEEN MAJOR NEWS STORY AND HAS BEEN GIVEN EDITORIAL TREATMENT IN ALL PAPERS PAST TWO DAYS. RADIO AND TV HAVE MODIFIED REGULAR SCHEDULES WITH SPECIAL PROGRAMS INCLUDING FILM FOTTAGE FROM LOS ANGELES. EDITORIAL COMMENT EPITOMIZED BY EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY TO FAMILY AND AMERICAN PEOPLE. MANY EDITORIALS, HOWEVER, INCLUDED CRITICAL REFERENCES TO ALLEGED ILLS OF AMERICAN SOCIETY AND SUGGESTIONS THAT CONSPIRACY INVOLVED.

2. SOME EXAMPLES: LA CITE (LABOR CATHOLIC) PLAYING ON CONSPIRACY THEME STATED THAT " ONE CONSPIRACY" HAD LED TO ASSASSINATIONS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, MARTIN LUTHER KING AND NOW SENATOR KENNEDY. PAPER FOLLOWED WITH ALLEGATION THAT AUTHORS OF SUCH ACTS USUALLY ACQUITTED IF THEIR VICTIM WAS NEGRO. MASS CIRCULATION LE SOIR (INDEPENDENT) RAISED THE POSSIBILITY THAT A " SINISTER CONSPIRACY" MIGHT EXIST TO ELIMINATE " MOST EMINANT LIBERAL LEADERS " IN U.S. EVEN IF SENATOR KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION WAS NOT DIRECT RESULT OF SUCH PLOT, PAPER SUGGESTED, IT HAD COME OUT OF CLIMATE OF EXTREME RIGHT-WING FANATICISM. THE U.S. FACED THE " GRAVEST INTERNAL CRISIS IN A CENTURY."

3. ANOTHER COMMON THEME WAS THAT ATTACK REFLECTED DEEP-ROOTED STRAIN OF VIOLENCE IN AMERICAN LIFE AND CHARACTER. SEVERAL PAPERS ATTACKED FAILURE TO PASS STRICT LAWS AGAINST THE SALE OF

GUNS. HET VOLK (LABOR CATHOLIC) SPOKE OF " CULT OF VIOLENCE" IN U.S. AND HOPED THAT AMERICAN CONSCIENCE WOULD BE AWAKENED TO REPUDIATE THIS. DE NIEUWE GIDS (CATHOLIC) EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT ANY COUNTRY IN WHICH IT WAS " SO EASY" TO BUY ARMS WAS " MORALLY SICK."

4. INFLUENTIAL LA LIBRE BELGIQUE (CATHOLIC CONSERVATIVE) SPOKE OF DISTANCE YET REMAINING BEFORE TRULY " GREAT SOCIETY" COULD EXIST IN U.S. RAPIDLY INCREASING CRIME RATE AND WAVE OF VIOLENCE RAISED QUESTION OF WHETHER US WAS " REGRESSING TO PRIMITIVE MORALITY OF IONEER DAYS." PROFOUND SOCIAL REFORMS WERE NECESSARY " TO RESTORE MORAL ORDER."

5. VOLKSGAZET (SOCIALIST) EXPRESSED OPINION THAT AMERICAN PRESTIGE ABORAD WOULD INEVITABLY BE DAMAGED BY THIS FURTHER ACT OF " BLIND VIOLENCE AND HATE." KNIGHT

IT SAID U.S. WAS ENGAGED IN DECISIVE TURN IN ITS HISTORY AND THAT AFTER BECOMING ECONOMIC GIANT NEEDED TO BETTER ADAPT ITSELF TO ITS ROLE IN WORLD AND TO RECONCILE IDEALS OF DEMOCRACY, JUSTICE, AND PEACE. AMERICAN PEOPLE MUST OVERCOME THESE CONTRADICTIONS. EDITORIAL EXPRESSED SATISFACTION THAT THE AGGRESSOR HAD IN THIS CASE BEEN TAKEN SAFE AND SOUND AND EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THE INSTIGATORS OF THIS CRIME WOULD NOT ESCAPE JUSTICE AS PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S AND MARTIN LUTHER KING'S ASSASSINS APPARENTLY HAD.

4. INDEPENDENT ARABIC AS-SABAH, AFTER EXPRESSING FEAR THAT SUCH INCIDENTS WERE DESTROYING AMERICAN SOCIETY, COMMENTED ON EARLY INFORMATIN THAT SUSPECT WAS OF ARABIC ORIGIN. QUOTE IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT THE GROUPS WHO ARE USING FORCE CONTINUE TO DO EVERYTHING TO FEED AND MAINTAIN IT. Following is the text of INR's Intelligence Note: "Hanoi's Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Kennedy":

Hanoi has reacted to the news of Senator Robert F. Kennedy's assassination by hinting that the assassination was plotted by the US administration. Hanoi Radio referred to the crime as a "planned assassination," and "various factions of the US monopoly capitalist class have not hesitated to resort to bloodshed and fire to liquidate one another." It linked the assassination of the Senator to that of President Kennedy five years ago, ~~that~~ adding that Senator Kennedy had been "the most redoubtable political opponent" of the administration. Although the official Hanoi spokesman in Paris stated that the assassination was an American "domestic question," members of the delegation voiced dark "suspicions" of a plot to newsmen. It is difficult to speculate whether or not Hanoi actually believes there is a plot--as it might, to the extent that it sees conspiracy everywhere--or whether it merely states this in order to make propaganda. We incline to believe the latter is the more important factor in its statements, though the former may play some role.

Press speculation that Hanoi may revamp its negotiations tactics because of the effect of the assassination on the US political outlook seems justified to a certain degree--Hanoi may hope that the pattern of politically motivated assassination and general social unrest in the United States may lead to a greater US preoccupation with domestic matters and thus possibly force the US to soften its stand on the Vietnam issue. Hanoi doubtless also hopes that the pressures of the presidential campaign, particularly in such an atmosphere, will inhibit US military operations and soften our negotiations stand. While it recognizes the danger that domestic frustrations and uncertainties, or some coalescence of political sentiment, may prompt us to escalate the war rapidly in order to end it quickly, it probably believes that the principal effect will be a reduction in US interest in international issues, a consideration that may further affect the timing of its own negotiations strategy and tactics. The assassination may, in short, reinforce Hanoi's inclination to maintain a hard line in talks, while still holding the negotiations alternative open so as to restrain us from rapid escalation.

However, there is no basis for the press speculation that Hanoi might shift its stand--presumably toward a softer position--because it no longer sees the possibility that Senator Kennedy might become President. We do not believe that Hanoi has tied its own expectations to particular American candidates. It tends to regard all American leaders as members of the same political elite. It is keenly aware of differences between them, particularly with regard to Vietnam, but it does not believe that it can rely on them to act in accordance with Hanoi's wishes or even in accordance with their own earlier statements. Hanoi probably recalls that President Eisenhower, having promised peace in Korea, still insisted on Communist concessions on the key prisoner repatriation issue rather than yield on this point. Hanoi also probably recalls that President Kennedy began his administration by endorsing the Bay of Pigs effort, and that President Johnson sent American forces to Vietnam soon after the 1964 election. Hanoi is certainly sensitive to the fact that no US presidential candidate has committed himself to a rapid or unilateral withdrawal from Vietnam, no matter how critical some candidates have been of present policies. Hanoi may hope that one or another presidential candidate might be more forthcoming than others, but it will not be inclined to count on such a development. It does not expect any American President, present or potential, to yield more in negotiations than the Communist forces have been able to win in the field.

TO BE DELIVERED TO THE ACTION OFFICER OPENING OF BUSINESS JUNE 6

1. Jordan Ambassador Abdul Hamid Sharaf called on Assistant Secretary Battle this afternoon to express his regrets and inform the Department that he had been instructed by King Hussein to go immediately to California to express Hussein's regrets to the Kennedy family over the assassination attempt on Senator Robert Kennedy. Battle expressed appreciation for the Ambassador's sentiments but suggested that now was perhaps not the time for such a message to be delivered orally to the Kennedy family. He informed the Ambassador that the Under Secretary would be pleased to pass the message on personally to the family and suggested that perhaps the King would wish to send a written message to the family also.

2. Battle told the Ambassador that he was advising him as friend but if the Ambassador insisted on going to California he of course was free to do so. He also emphasized that his reasons for giving this advice had nothing to do with security. Battle added that it might be appropriate at a later time for him to personally express regret on behalf of his government. He indicated to the Ambassador that we would be in close touch with him on developments.

3. Battle also gave the Ambassador what information he had concerning the alleged assailant as given in STATE 176785.

4. Sharaf thanked Battle and said that he would inform his government of our advice and in the meantime would not go to California.

5. FYI. The Ambassador was concerned that there be no misunderstanding in Amman over the reasons for his failure to carry out the King's instructions. END FYI.

1. The following guidance has been transmitted to USIA media:

2. All strata of American society are shocked and horrified by the Kennedy shooting. From the President and his official family to the lowliest members of the national community, all share the deepest compassion for the Kennedy family. In the words of President Johnson, we all pray for the Senator's recovery.

3. It can be expected that once the initial statements of shock, horror and grief have been made, there may be a flurry of extremist and intemperate statements, statements critical of "a sick society" which can generate such assassinations. These should be used only in direct ratio to the importance of their authors.

4. As in the death of John Kennedy, many in the world again will regard today's tragic shooting in terms of a conspiracy. We cannot and should not be in a position of adding to, or assessing in any way, this kind of theorizing. We should stick strictly with official comments by the police and other law enforcement agencies. For the time being, avoid picking up non-official comments on this subject from whatever source.

1. On instructions from Prime Minister and Minister External Affairs Jamaican Chargé Smith called on Department (Long) afternoon June 5 to complain about late morning radio broadcasts quoting LA police chief to effect that Kennedy assailant's manner of speech identified him as coming from Cuba or Jamaica. Smith claimed this meant that Jamaica was being "unjustly judged" and that speculation of this sort was "abridgement of judicial process". Was told that later radio info made no reference to Jamaican aspect, that press media were reporting every scrap of information or rumor available, that media did not speak for USG, and that while appreciating reason we regretted GOJ's over-reaction based on fragmentary information.

2. Comment: Smith appeared somewhat embarrassed and emphasized he was acting under instructions from his highest level.

Mr. Lenkov has periodically kept in touch with the Indonesian Desk, apparently having Indonesian-American relations as one of his reporting responsibilities. Since my own advent on the Desk in July 1967, however, June 5, 1968 was only the second occasion on which Mr. Lenkov had invited me to lunch for discussion of Indonesia.

On this occasion, the shocking news of the attempted assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy the previous evening dominated the first half of the luncheon. Lenkov seemed especially interested in whether this act would spark civil unrest in American cities of the type which followed the assassination of Martin Luther King. I noted that this was extremely unlikely, since the Rev. King had been the leader of a segment of the society which was largely unfamiliar with how to make its wants known and felt through the established mechanisms and therefore tended to express its anger and frustration through direct action. Senator Kennedy was the leader of no single militant group of society which saw itself as set apart from the mainstream, but on the other hand was of the main stem of American political expression itself.

Mr. Lenkov proceeded to explore the hypothetical effect of the attempt on Senator Kennedy's life on the candidacies of other major Presidential contenders, but I was of little help to him in this regard other than to belittle some of his wilder suppositions. The conversation closed on the question of gun control legislation and Lenkov noted that even in the Soviet Union national regulations made exceptions in certain instances to accommodate local tradition as, for example, in the Caucasus where the custom of carrying daggers was permitted to continue despite the prohibition against carrying concealed knives elsewhere in the USSR.

Indonesia

The main purpose for which I had been invited to lunch, of course, was to discuss Indonesian affairs. My contributions to the conversation consisted of recapitulating in standard terms the multilateral aid relationship with Indonesia and how we look to the IMF and IBRD to assist Indonesia in defining her requirements for external assistance.

Mr. Lenkov's questions revealed a specific interest in the following subjects:

1. Are U.S. relations with Indonesia "improving?"

2. What are the economic prospects for the government?

3. If the $325 million goal for external assistance to Indonesia is not met, or if additional assistance is needed, will the U.S. make up the difference?

4. What is the danger of Indonesia moving toward a military dictatorship?

Although considerable time was spent sparring over number 1 above, Lenkov finally had to be satisfied with my statement that Indonesian-American relations were friendly and no major issues divided us, but that naturally there were matters on which we disagreed. I declined to agree that relations in 1968 were "better" than in 1967, but stressed that there had been no basic change and we expected none.

Questions 3 & 4 above seemed to be the main thrust of Lenkov's interest. It was clear that he was attempting to judge how far we would go on supporting Indonesia, come what may (I merely reiterated the multilateral pattern of our commitment). Behind his questioning on the military also seemed to be a Soviet view that Indonesia was moving increasingly toward a military dictatorship. (I acknowledged the ever-present danger of such a trend, but indicated that it appeared less than likely in present Indonesian circumstances.).

When queried concerning Soviet relations with Indonesia, Lenkov noted that the massacre of Communists in Indonesia in late 1965 inevitably continued to inhibit relationships, but that Indonesia was an important country and the USSR intended to maintain friendly relationships with the GOI for the foreseeable future.

Toward the end of dessert, Lenkov brought up Indonesia's attitude toward Viet-Nam, but did not pursue the question, seeming to be satisfied in his own mind on this issue. Such comments as he did make were related more to what kind of Viet-Nam Indonesia would accept after the fighting stopped rather than Indonesia's attitude toward the war. He did remark in an aside that the statements of some Indonesian military officers on Viet-Nam looked as if they were made to extract additional assistance from the United States. I 'lowed as how that was not an unheard of phenomenon in the world.

PLEASE PASS FOLLOWING MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY TO FEDERICO BIGI, SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS, REPUBLIC OF SAN MARINO:

1. QTE Thank you for your thoughtful message of condolence on the tragic death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Your sympathy at this time of national sorrow is deeply appreciated. Sincerely, Dean Rusk, UNQTE

2. Department does not plan to release message, but has no objection to release by Bigi.

3. Following, FYI, is English translation of Bigi's message to the Secretary.

QTE The new, terrible act of violence that has afflicted the United States and ruthlessly snuffed out the generous life of Robert Kennedy, taking away from all free men and free people a vallant and noble champion of the ideals of freedom, justice, and democracy, deeply moves the Government of the Republic of San Marino, which joins in the sorrow of the American Government.

Robert Kennedy. His death, resulting from violence in social and political affairs, prompts us to condemn such methods that attack human liberty and dignity, which have always been the tradition of the people of the United States and the foundation of their political institutions. Senator Kennedy's death is especially deplored in Peru since, during his tour of this continent, he revealed to us his noble political ideas, directed toward a better understanding of the problems facing our countries in order to achieve close and just cooperation between the Latin American republics and the United States.

Reiterating to Your Excellency the sorrow of the people and Government of Peru, I have the honor of renewing to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest personal consideration. Fernando Belaunde Terry, Constitutional President of Peru. UNQTE.

SUBJECT: PROTESTING ASSASSINATION REACTIONS

REF: LUSAKA 2079

1. SUMMARY. FOLLOWING IS TEXT OF LETTER AMBASSADOR GOOD SENT ZAMBIAN FOREIGN MINISTER REUBEN KAMANGA ON JUNE 9 TAKING VIGOROUS EXCEPTION TO STATEMENTS MADE BY MINISTER OF STATE PETER CHANDA AND MINISTER W/O PORTFOLIO MAINZA CHONA (LUSAKA 2022 AND ENCLOSURE 3 PAGE 3 OF LUSAKA A-456) IMPLICATING "THOSE IN POWER" IN KENNEDY AND KING ASSASSINATIONS. LETTER EXPLAINS AND ASKS UNDERSTANDING OF FORCES AT WORK IN AMERICA AND EXPRESSES UNDERSTANDING OF DEEP EMOTIONS CAUSED BY ASSASSINATION BUT CATEGORICALLY REFUSES ACCEPT DIABOLICAL ASSERTIONS THAT "THOSE IN POWER" IN AMERICA TODAY SOMEHOW PERPETRATED KENNEDY'S DEATH OR THAT AMERICAN GOVERNMENT IS IN HANDS OF A "THUG." THIS IS LETTER THAT EVOKED KAMANGA PRESS STORY REPORTED REFTEL. EMBASSY COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOLLOW IN SEPTEL.

2. BEGIN TEXT (UNESSENTIAL WORDS OMITTED): MY DEAR MR. MINISTER: I MUST TAKE MOST VIGOROUS EXCEPTION TO RECENT STATEMENTS BY SENIOR MEMBERS OF ZAMBIAN GOVERNMENT, AS REPORTED IN PRESS, THAT ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY WAS "SCHEMED BY THOSE IN POWER," THAT HE WAS KILLED BY A "MERCENARY" (BY IMPLICATION, A "MERCENARY" OF THOSE IN POWER), AND THAT "TO SURVIVE AS PRESIDENT IN AMERICA TODAY ONE HAS TO BE A THUG."

MICROFILMED BY

3. AMERICA HAS LOST ONE OF HER NOBLEST SONS AT HANDS, NOT OF AN AMERICAN BUT (IF ACCUSED IS FOUND GUILTY) A FOREIGNER EVIDENTLY DERANGED BY AN ISSUE HAVING NOTHING TO DO WHATSOEVER WITH AMERICAN DOMESTIC PROBLEMS. IT IS MATTER TO ME OF OFFICIAL CONCERN AND PERSONAL SORROW THAT IN THESE SAD CIRCUMSTANCES I, MY COUNTRY AND GOVERNMENT I REPRESENT HAVE BEEN MADE OBJECT OF ABUSE--MUCH OF WHICH WOULD SEEM APPROPRIATE ONLY FOR GOVERNMENTS STANDING IN AN ADVERSARY RELATIONSHIP.

4. I CAN UNDERSTAND DEEP EMOTIONS WHICH HAVE WELLED UP IN ZAMBIA FOLLOWING THIS APPALLING EVENT, FOR THESE EMOTIONS AND SENTIMENTS, I CAN ASSURE YOU, ARE MORE PROFOUND BY FAR IN AMERICA AND TO HUMANE IDEALS (IDEALS WHICH ALAS WE, AS PERHAPS ALL NATIONS, FALL FAR SHORT OF REALIZING) AND ACKNOWLEDGED BY MOST AMERICANS, EVEN THOSE WHO DID NOT AGREE WITH HIM, AS YOUNG LEADER OF VISION AND DEDICATION.

5. I CAN UNDERSTAND YOUR ABHORENCE OF BLIND HATE AND VIOLENCE, FOR TODAY THIS ABHORENCE UC ALMOST AN OBSESSION AMONG AMERICANS WHO HAVE BEEN CAST AGAIN INTO NATIONAL MOURNING AND PERSONAL GRIEF BY A VIOLENT ACT. I CAN ONLY INVITE YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF VAST FORCES WHICH HISTORY HAS UNLEASED IN AMERICA AND WITH WHICH WE NOW ARE GRAPPLING--PROBLEMS OF HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS AS WE PURSUE OUR REVOLUTION FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN OUR HETEROGENEOUS, MELTING-POT SOCIETY; PROBLEMS OF ACUTE URBANIZATION WHICH HAVE DEPERSONALIZED OUR CITIES; PROBLEMS OF INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY WHICH BRING TO OUR VERY DOORSTEP EVERY CONTENTIOUS ISSUE WHICH UNSETTLES OUR TROUBLED WORLD--ALL OF WHICH CAN BE, HAVE BEEN, AND WILL CONTINUE TO BE PRODUCTIVE OF VIOLENT REACTIONS WITHIN MY COUNTRY.

7. I CAN UNDERSTAND YOUR SHOCK AT WHAT MUST APPEAR TO BE AMERICA'S RECKLESSNESS WITH LIVES OF ITS EMINENT MEN. WE AMERICANS ARE SHOCKED THREE-FOLD--AND DEEPLY PERPLEXED. WE HAVE RIGHTLY BEEN ACCUSED OF LAX GUN-CONTROL LAWS WHICH NOW, THANK GOD, ARE AT LAST BEING RECTIFIED. BUT TIGHTEST CONTROLS THAT CAN BE DEVISED WILL NOT PREVENT A MAD MAN FROM ILLEGALLY OBTAINING A LETHAL WEAPON, AND BEST SECRET SERVICE IN THE WORLD DID NOT SAVE JOHN KENNEDY WHEN HE INSISTED ON RIDING IN OPEN CAR. OUR TRADITION, OF WHICH WE ARE RIGHTLY PROUD, IS OPEN POLITICAL COMPETITION WITH TOTAL ACCESS TO PUBLIC. BOB KENNEDY HIMSELF WAS RECENTLY ASKED ABOUT DANGER OF ASSASSINATION AND REPLIED THAT THERE WAS NO WAY TO PROTECT CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY SINCE HE MUST GIVE HIMSELF TO THE PEOPLE. CLEARLY WE WILL HAVE TO DO BETTER, FOR PRICE WE HAVE PAID IS INTOLERABLE--BUT THE PROBLEM, OBJECTIVELY CONSIDERED, IS GREAT. NO CANDIDATE FOR MAJOR OFFICE IN AMERICA WELCOMES CONSTRAINT OF SECRET SERVICE PROTECTION.

8. THESE VARIOUS EMOTIONS AND VIEWS I CAN UNDERSTAND, EVEN AS I INVITE YOU TO A GREATER UNDERSTANDING OF ENVIRONMENT IN AMERICA WHICH HAS PRODUCED THEM. WHAT I CAN NEITHER UNDERSTAND NOR ACCEPT, MR. MINISTER, IS NOTION THAT "THOSE IN POWER" IN AMERICA TODAY HAVE SOMEHOW PERPETRATED SENATOR KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION OR THAT AMERICAN GOVERNMENT IS IN HANDS OF A "THUG." THEY ARE TRULY DIABOLICAL ASSERTIONS--AND CONSTITUTE AN UNWITTING, BUT I BELIEVE OPEN INVITATION TO "HATE AMERICA," AN ATTITUDE WHICH IS LIKELY IF PERPETUATED TO CONTRIBUTE TO, RATHER THAN DIMINISH, THOSE TERRIBLE AND SENSELESS FORCES OF IRRATIONALITY WHICH ARE COMMON ENEMY OF US ALL. YOURS SINCERELY, ROBERT C. GOOD. END TEXT.

SUBJECT: PROTESTING ASSASSINATION REACTIONS: COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

REF: LUSAKA 2079 AND 2080

1. KAMANGA HAS ADDED INSULT TO INJURY BY COMMENTING TO PRESS ON AMBASSADOR'S LETTER WITHOUT EVEN REPLYING TO EMBASSY. THEN WHILE DENYING ANY INTENT BLAME USG AND IGNORING PREVIOUS CHARGES THAT ASSASSINATION WAS MASTERMINDED BY "THOSE IN POWER," HE NEVERTHELESS CHARACTERIZES US SYSTEM AS "POLITICS OF GUNPOWDER" AND IMPLIES RECENT ASSASSINATION MUST BE PART OF PLOT.

2. WHILE EMBASSY SEES NO PURPOSE TO BE ACHIEVED IN ENGAGING IN FURTHER DIALOGUE ON THIS EMOTION-LADEN SUBJECT, ESPECIALLY SINCE WE HAVE MADE OUR POSITION KNOWN BOTH PUBLICLY (A-456 ENCL. 8) AND BY AMBASSADOR'S UNPUBLISHED LETTER (LUSAKA 2079) WE ARE TRULY DISTURBED BY GRZ'S UNDIPLOMATIC BEHAVIOR IN ONCE MORE TAKING MATTER TO PRESS AND MAKING OFFICIAL PUBLIC COMMENTS ABOUT OUR DOMESTIC POLITICS. THUS WHILE WISHING AMBASSADOR'S EXCELLENT LETTER COULD BE READ BY THOSE WHO READ KAMANGA'S ADDITIONAL ALLEGATIONS AGAINST OUR SOCIETY, WE BELIEVE THIS WOULD ONLY STIR UP MORE CONTROVERSY. AT SAME TIME, ALTHOUGH TEMPTED BY EASY COURSE OF LETTING MATTER DROP IN HOPES IT WILL NOT BE BELABORED MORE, WE QUESTION WHETHER WE SHOULD ALLOW GRZ TO THINK WE ACCEPT THIS BIZARRE

CONFIDENTIAL

TREATMENT WITHOUT PROTEST (ESPECIALLY IN VIEW OF ZAMBIAN TENDENCY TO ASSUME THAT SILENCE IMPLIES ACCEPTANCE). EMBASSY THEREFORE BELIEVES SOMETHING SHOULD BE DONE TO REGISTER OUR DISSATISFACTION WITHOUT REOPENING SUBSTANCE OF MATTER OR EXACERBATING FEELINGS ANY MORE THAN NECESSARY. ACCORDINGLY, WOULD APPRECIATE DEPT COMMENTS OR INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING COURSE OF ACTION RECOMMENDED BELOW.

3. SUGGEST CHARGE SIGN FIRST PERSON FORMAL NOTE ALONG FOLLOWING LINES TO FOREIGN MINISTER DELIVERING IT PERSONALLY TO MFA PERMANENT SECRETARY MULIKITA WITH BRIEF ORAL EXPLANATION OF OUR HOPE THAT EXCHANGES OF THIS NATURE COULD BE KEPT WITHIN PROPER BOUNDS OF CANDID BUT QUIET DIPLOMACY.

A. BEGIN TEXT. EXCELLENCY: I HAVE HONOR TO REFER TO ARTICLE ENTITLED "KAMANGA REPLIES TO US PROTEST" APPEARING PAGE 5 OF ZAMBIA MAIL JUNE 14, 1968 AND TO EXPRESS MY SURPRISE AND DISAPPOINTMENT THAT AN OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION FROM AMBASSADOR OF UNITED STATES SHOULD BE DEALT WITH IN PUBLIC PRESS RATHER THAN THROUGH NORMAL CHANNELS OF DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE.

B. AMBASSADOR'S LETTER OF JUNE 9 WAS INTENDED TO POINT OUT HARMFULNESS OF AND TOTAL LACK OF FOUNDATION FOR CERTAIN SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS MADE BY SOME SENIOR MEMBERS OF ZAMBIAN GOVERNMENT ABOUT DOMESTIC POLITICS OF UNITED STATES.

C. AMBASSADOR HAD EARLIER BEEN ASKED BY PRESS FOR HIS REACTION TO SUCH ALLEGATIONS BUT CONFINED HIS REPLY TO SUBSTANCE OF MATTER WITHOUT IDENTIFYING SOURCES OF SUCH ALLEGATIONS OR COMMENTING ON PROPRIETY OF THEIR BEING DIRECTED BY PUBLIC OFFICIALS OF GOVERNMENT OF ZAMBIA AGAINST GOVERNMENT ("THOSE IN POWER") AND PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES.

D. IN CIRCUMSTANCES, IT IS MOST REGRETTABLE THAT DOMESTIC POLITICS OF UNITED STATES WHICH FALL SOLELY WITHIN JURISDICTION OF USG HAVE BEEN MADE TO APPEAR A MATTER OF PUBLIC CONTENTION BETWEEN OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS.

E. ACCEPT, EXCELLENCY, ETC. END TEXT.

4. WOULD ALSO PROPOSE PROVIDE COPIES THIS AND PREVIOUS CORRESPONDENCE TO PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL ASSISTANT MARK CHONA WHO WE BELIEVE CAPABLE OF SEEING OUR VIEWPOINT OBJECTIVELY.

5. FINALLY SUGGEST AFSE COUNTRY DIRECTOR CALL AMBASSADOR BANDA IN TO EXPRESS CONCERN AT WAY IN WHICH GRZ HAS DEALT

1. SUMMARY. FOREIGN MINISTER KAMANGA HAS REPLIED THROUGH THE PRESS TODAY (BUT SO FAR NOT TO THE EMBASSY) TO LETTER AMB GOOD SENT HIM JUNE 9 TAKING EXCEPTION TO STATEMENTS BY SENIOR GRZ OFFICIAL SAYING THAT ASSASSINATION TO SENATOR KENNEDY WAS "SCHEMED BY THOSE IN POWER" AND THAT TO "SURVIVE AS PRESIDENT IN AMERICA TODAY ONE HAS TO BE A THUG." KAMANGA, WHILE DENYING TO PRESS THAT ZAMBIA BLAMED SENATOR'S DEATH ON USG, NEVERTHELESS WENT ON TO SAY IT DIFFICULT BELIEVE DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY--OR OF HIS BROTHER AND MARTIN LUTHER KING--COULD BE WORK OF MADMAN AND EVEN THEN "A MADMAN CAN BE USED AS AND INSTRUMENT." 4. BUT MR. KAMANGA EMPHASIZED THAT THIS WAS MISUNDERSTANDING OF ZAMBIA'S VIEW WHICH WAS OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT KAUNDA ON HIS RETURN FROM VISIT KENYA AND UGANDA LAST WEEK.

5. MR. KAMANGA SAID: "THIS IS NOT WHAT PEOPLE OF ZAMBIA ARE SAYING. WHAT THEY ARE SAYING IS THAT AMERICAN POLITICS HAVE BECOME POLITICS OF GUNPOWDER--WHETHER THEY ADMIT IT OR NOT."

6. THE MINISTER, WHO ACCOMPANIED PRESIDENT KAUNDA ON HIS EAST AFRICAN TOUR, SAID NOTE WAS HANDED IN BY US AMBASSADOR, MR. ROBERT GOOD--WHO WAS AMONG FOREIGN DIPLOMATS WHO WELCOMED PRESIDENT KAUNDA AT LUSAKA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT ON HIS RETURN.

7. MR. KAMANGA SAID: "IT IS NOT GOOD TO HIDE SOMETHING BAD--IT MUST BE CONDEMNED FOR WHAT IT IS. AMERICAN PEOPLE MUST PROVE THEY ARE DECENT AND DISASSOCIATE THEMSELVES FROM THIS VERY BAD THING WHICH HAS OCCURRED SO FREQUENTLY IN RECENT YEARS."

8. IT WAS DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE THAT DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY, OR THAT OF HIS BROTHER PRESIDENT JOHN KENNEDY AND CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, COULD BE WORK OF MAD MEN. EVEN THEN, "A MAD MEN CAN BE USED AS AN INSTRUMENT", MINISTER POINTED OUT.

9. MR. KAMANGA SAID IT WAS "FAR-FETCHED" TO SUGGEST THAT "SENATOR KENNEDY WAS ASSASSINATED BECAUSE OF PRO-ISRAEL REMARKS HE HAD MADE SOMETIME BACK ON MIDDLE EAST SITUATION.

10. "COULD HE HAVE DIED JUST FOR THIS?" MR. KAMANGA ASKED. WHY ARE THE PEOPLE WHO ACTUALLY SUPPLY THE (WAR) MATERIALS LEFT UNTOUCHED? WE DON'T KNOW WHO HAS BEEN COMMITTING THE MURDERS BUT THERE HAS DEFINITELY BEEN SOME CAREFUL PLANNING."

11. ZAMBIA WANTED FRIENDSHIP WITH AMERICA LIKE OTHER COUNTRIES BUT THIS DID NOT MEAN FEARING TO SPEAK OUT ON SUCH IMPORTANT, INTERNATIONAL MATTERS AS POLITICAL ASSASSINATIONS, MINISTER SAID.

14. PRESIDENT KAUNDA SAID: "WE REGARD THOSE PEOPLE WHO STRIKE AT INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS AS OUR FRIENDS. BOBBY KENNEDY WAS ONE OF FEW AMERICAN LEADERS WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF WITH POOR. Initial reactions in Rhodesia to the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy were summarized in the referenced telegram. After the first day, when we received a heavy volume of telephone calls, including a few from Africans, there was a sharp fall-off in calls to the Consulate General expressing distress and offering condolences. A small volume of letters has been received mostly from moderate Europeans. The more significant or interesting ones are being sent separately for possible forwarding to the Kennedy family. All have been acknowledged.

The tiny American Men's Club, with assistance from the post, organized a memorial service on Monday, June 10. (The church was not available on the 9th.) Attendance was only fair. It had been expected that there would be more local liberal-moderates present than was actually the case. On the whole, however, considering the unpopularity of Senator Kennedy's views among white Rhodesians, there was a great deal of shock and concern expressed.

Editorials appeared in the "Rhodesia Herald" and Bulawayo "Chronicle" for June 6 and in the "Sunday News" (Bulawayo) for June 9 (copies enclosed). Extracts from the first two were contained in our 969.

SHALL THE ASSASSIN RULE?

". . . We wish that the general indignation would give way to the will to banish from ourselves the methods of violence and crime."—The Pope, in his statement deploring the shooting of Senator Robert Kennedy.

THERE were cries of "Kill him — lynch him!" before the suspect was taken away in the protective custody of the Los Angeles police; the context in which the Pope spoke is very real.

In effect he was pointing out that the situation is not changed by rage. Those who express indignation may be the same stuff as the killer they denounce. Another way to put it would be to say that America's killers are part of American society and American society should cleanse itself.

But how? It is not for people outside America to say; and it is not as though Americans are not trying.

Most citizens of the United States are law-abiding and deeply sensitive to behaviour. Yet their society is streaked with private aggression and violence—marred by them as perhaps the life of no other sophisticated nation is.

American national life did not begin in the womb of a new civilization, as national life did in Europe, but rather in a kind of vacuum; and it passed through its formative stages in an unnaturally short space of time. As far as moral values go all Europe and America seem to be living on their capital, but America did not have nearly so long to accumulate hers.

American plays and films show an unceasing search for an ethic of living in society. If the search has not succeeded in America neither has it in much of Europe. But there seem to be a greater number of violent public tragedies in America; at this rate public life is becoming dramatically unsafe, and good men contemplating an entry into politics may be reluctant to risk the fate of a Kennedy or a Luther King.

The American people are not faced merely with the horror of violence and personal tragedy; they are faced with a terrible threat to the character of politics itself.

Politics as the West knows them cannot co-exist for long with the assassin: in a conflict between the two is the assassin to rule the field? The weapons at his disposal are much easier to use than the dagger and the poisoned cup. And if he does rule, what happens to the nature of government?

The Chronicle

Thursday, June 6, 1968

THE DREADFUL ACT

EXACTLY three months ago today we wrote in this column: "Shock. Grief. Shame. These words express reaction to the brutal, senseless murder of Dr. Martin Luther King."

It is with horror that we have to repeat them today because of the brutal, senseless shooting of Robert Kennedy.

It is an appalling indictment of the American society. America bills itself as the "greatest democracy on earth". Yet its citizens refuse to settle their political differences in a civilised way.

Time and again they have resorted instead to the ways of the jungle — the twentieth century -"jungle" of a great technocracy and the deadly weapons it has used its skills to produce.

It is an added indictment that the so-called "gun lobby" abuses the freedom which its members enjoy as citizens of a great democracy to frustrate all moves to control efficiently the sale and use of these weapons—that it is prepared instead to be an accessory to murder and assassination (for that is what it amounts to) rather than have its thriving business curtailed.

America and Americans should hang their heads while this is allowed to persist.

Whatever one may think of the Kennedys, they are a remarkable family of extraordinary energy and ability. Two of their number have been gunned down—one while President and the other an aspirant President.

The same can be said of Dr. Martin Luther King—and of the other great Americans, including Abraham Lincoln, whose death has come through violence.

Southern Africa, for all the abuse hurled at it (by Americans among others) can thank God that this is one charge that cannot be made against it up to now — though the United Nations, in its latest resolutions, would appear to be bent on giving "moral and material aid" to those bent on this course.

The Chronicle agrees with the Vice-President of Nyasa, Mr. [illegible], who [illegible] Tewa, of Robert [illegible] shooting:

"It is a tragedy [illegible] another futile example of the horror of violence. Violence of this sort can only be a curse to mankind."

And we join with Vice-President Hubert Humphrey in saying (in the name, we are sure, of all our readers) that "our hopes and prayers are with Senator Kennedy and those others who have been the victims of this dreadful act . . . it is a terrible thing that has happened. Our sympathies go out to Mrs. [illegible] children and families of the other wounded".

June 9. The Sunday News 1968

MANY MORE

THE hand which held the gun that struck down Robert Kennedy last week triggered shock, horror and anger not only in one country and not alone among his fellow Americans. This duplication of the tragic conclusion to his even more famous brother's career has very properly aroused the deepest sympathy and most sincere concern of many peoples in many lands — Rhodesians and South Africans among them.

In the manner in which an end has been put to a public figure's life — taken cold-bloodedly, deliberately, neither prompted by personal hatred, nor conceived in the turmoil of war and battle — there is a reflection of all those other instances when men have resorted, and still resort, deliberately to murder as an instrument of politics, substituting bullets for ballots and violence for reasoning.

Such methods are claiming their victims everywhere, but because the majority do not live in the limelight of international affairs few but their own immediate circles mourn them. None the less they are equally the targets of political terrorism — and in Africa alone the toll in the past decade has reached terrible proportions.

And that figure will grow — in Africa and elsewhere. Not only are there still men who are ready to use this weapon, but what is worse there are others, organisations and individuals (such as the U.N. Security Council and its members) prepared to condone such actions when it suits their purpose.

Assassins who gun down the leaders of nations are no more despicable than those whose victims are comparative nonentities, but the acts of the former bring home to a hitherto complacent public the enormity of such crimes.

It is saddening that prominent men must fall before the consciences of their fellows are stirred . . . it is also a bitter commentary on world trends.

A list of those persons and organizations who have formally written to the Consulate is attached as an enclosure to this airgram, should any acknowledgment of the writers' expressions of sympathy for Mrs. Kennedy be contemplated. Members of the Consulate staff have of course received numerous personal expressions of regret and condolences for Mrs. Kennedy from the Suva community.

2. A letter from the Consul has already been sent to the Department for forwarding to Mrs. Kennedy conveying the sympathies expressed by the Premier of Tonga and the Governor of Fiji and informing Mrs. Kennedy of Ratu Mara's call on the Consul.

3. A Requiem Mass for Senator Kennedy was said by the Archbishop of Suva, the Most Rev. George Pearce, in the Sacred Heart Cathedral in Suva on June 11. The Chief Minister, Ratu Mara, and the Consul attended.

4. Press and editorial comment on the Senator's assassination has been extensive in Fiji, but has been factual and restrained. Some criticism of U.S. gun laws has been expressed.

SUBJECT : Montrealers, Too, Mourned for Senator Kennedy

REF :

Montrealers seemed to be as horrified, as sorrowful, and as bewildered by the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy as their American cousins; their grief seemed to be as deep and their involvement as great; in large numbers also they watched television, listened to car radios, and read the broad coverage supplied by their newspapers. And like Americans they waited in lines and they prayed.

They came to the Consulate General to inscribe their messages of condolences before it was announced that a book of condolence would be displayed. They formed a line that was to continue moving for eight and one half hours daily from Thursday through Monday. Some merely wrote their names; others added prayers or told of their regard for the man. There was an inscription in Vietnamese among the hundreds in English or French. Their signatures filled four books.

Flags throughout the city were lowered to half staff on Friday and continued so through Canada's official day of mourning on Sunday.

Telephone messages and telegrams of sympathy from friends and strangers began to be received early on Thursday morning, to be followed by scores of cards and letters from consular representatives, local officials, and the public.

Mayor Drapeau's expression of sympathy included the observation that "Senator Kennedy, father of a large family, will remain one of the most striking symbols of this generation of men who want to create a new world, one based on the principles of order, love, and peace."

Archbishop Gregroire celebrated a memorial mass at Mary Queen of the World Cathedral in mid-Montreal at noon on Friday. As part of the service an organist played a funeral march by André MATHIEU, a noted Quebec composer, who had died twelve hours before Senator Kennedy. The Archbishop and Auxiliary Bishop Cihmichella (whose beautiful tribute in French and English will be forwarded as part of the memorabilia) joined the congregation for a moment following the service to express their personal condolences to the Acting Principal Officer of this Consulate General. The Mayor and members of his Executive Council and the Dean of the Montreal Consular Corps were among those attending the memorial service. Numerous other religious observances have also commemorated the tragedy.

Press, radio, and television coverage of the events of June 6-9, in both English and French, was vast; editorial reaction was generally sympathetic (see enclosure).

HAWKINS

MONTREAL PRESS REACTION TO THE ASSASSINATION OF UNITED STATES SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Excerpts from Editorials in The Montreal Star:

June 5. "THE TRAGEDY OF ROBERT KENNEDY. Where does it end? ... Our system...is, for all its obvious strengths, a fragile political mechanism...There is no simple answer to what is happening. But, without a return to law and order, using both as shields not weapons, we are heading swiftly towards disaster...The alternative is Dallas, Memphis, Los Angeles, again and again and again. And with it, for a certainty, a frightened reaction by the great body of ordinary men and women which can lead somewhere close to tyranny."

June 6. "...To the white man Kennedy might have appeared shrewd and calculating -- too much a politician -- but to the Negro he was the only white man who spoke a language that could be considered sincere...We pray that this latest tragedy may yet be translated into meaning by shocking all men into acceptance of the values Senator Kennedy demanded at home and overseas...Perhaps a new generation may discover that positive values are obtainable without turmoil...There is nothing to say that tighter controls would have prevented his shooting; but they might have helped."

June 7. "...No wrongs have ever been righted by acts of violence, but the opposite is equally true - that insensitivity to the needs of a society inevitably breeds its own anarchy. We have not yet generated the heat of passion in this country which is sweeping over the American nation, but we can achieve a formidable temperature unless those who govern and those with power are as quick to remedy real and imagined injustice as they are to repress its surface manifestations."

"...The assassination of Senator Kennedy has brought the inevitable sermons on violence, including one from President Johnson. Yet the grossest example of violence in the world today is Viet Nam..."

June 8. "...We are tired of hearing the pat reply: 'It is people who kill, not guns.' Nonsense; people with guns can kill. The gun lobbyists have no reason to be proud of their position, and Canada cannot afford to succumb to their propaganda barrage."

June 10. "...Robert Kennedy's death will not be avenged in the punishment of his murderer but in the enactment of legislation he sought, to raise people above the hopelessness of social and economic deprivation and elevate every man to his rightful place in the sun. And in the sorrow of last weekend, there was also hope that at last a nation and its government would respond."

Excerpts from Editorials in The Gazette:

June 6. "...While the United States does well to search its own soul, what nation can justify any haste in hurling the first stones? Violence is all over the world. It is even here in Canada, that moderate country of other years. It has practically dissolved the government of France. It is now eroding the government of Italy. It characterizes the campuses of most universities...The law is not a menu, from which any citizen may pick and choose the items that happen to be most pleasing to his palate...The shots fired at Robert F. Kennedy were not fired by one man's finger on the trigger. They were triggered by a country, and by a world, that is tolerating anarchy's return..."

John Collins' cartoon captioned "American Gothic," after the well-known Grant Wood's painting, caricatures the farmer as "Violence" and his wife as "Hate," their faces distorted by these passions, one holding a smoking gun and the other a revolver.

June 7. "...In Robert Kennedy's view, the tasks to which he had dedicated himself, as his brother had dedicated himself, were too important to count the possible costs to himself...There is no question, however, that the nation has lost a most valuable son..."

John Collins' cartoon captioned "The Tarnished Stars" depicts the stars and stripes of the flag of the United States being partly obscured by the smoke from the muzzle of a gun called "Violence." The smoke is labeled "John F. Kennedy - Martin Luther King - Robert F. Kennedy."

June 10. "In a world that seems to be turning, more and more, toward brutality and violence, riot and discord, Canadians have all the more reason to value their own tradition of moderation, and to cling to it ...Canada has plenty of scope for hate, and its own potential for violence. It may only be hoped that the heritage of moderation will be valued beyond any temptation to join the viciousness and hate, the law-scorning and law-breaking that have turned so much of the world into a downward path..."

Translation of Extracts from Editorials in French-Language Press of Montreal

Le Devoir

June 6 (Claude Ryan). "...Assassinations like those of John Kennedy and Martin Luther King, a crime like that of Tuesday night, cannot be attributed solely to solitary madmen. The authors of these acts are also, in a certain sense, the expression of the society in which they live. They are perhaps, in short, the inevitable fruit of the climate of psychological violence which in recent years has been beclouding the political dialogue. And this climate is perhaps, in turn, the symptom of a society whose moral foundations are in the process of breaking up...The crime in Los Angeles marks another chapter of the upsetting history, worthy of the high Greek tragedies, of the Kennedy family...Robert Kennedy has already embodied, through his audacity, what is most powerful in the tradition of his country. He will embody in future, through the price which he has been called to pay... the never-ending effort to civilize that dynamic force which is at the heart of the American soul, to place it at the service of the values of freedom and peace. The tragedy of Los Angeles reminds men of all countries that violence threatens at all times to unleash itself on the world and that the most dangerous forms are those that attack not the body but the spirit of civilization. What honest man would dare, in this regard, to throw the first stone at his neighbor?"

June 7 (Paul Sauriol). "The death of Senator Robert Kennedy will apparently give rise in the United States to more energetic measures of protection against recourse to violence...the creation of a commission of inquiry charged with studying the phenomenon of violence... [and] a bill to restrict the sale of arms..."

Montréal-Matin

June 6 (Lucien Langlois). "...What motivated this young man [Sirhan] who seems to have premeditated his act, taken pleasure in it, and accomplished it with all logic - his logic?...This man is the very antithesis of a Robert Kennedy. Compassion is foreign to him. He has no respect for others. He is a barbarian with the appearance of a civilized person. In our day, civilized barbarians appear to be taking the upper hand."

June 7 (Lucien Langlois). "...The Kennedy family is great and admirable because of the example that it gives to the world. It accepts the test and does not rebel because it is more sorely tried than others. It will not retreat. It will offer itself again to its country. America is not decadent. It will never be so as long as there are Americans of the Kennedy character."

La Presse

June 6 (Renaude Lapointe). "...In that great republic, as elsewhere, it is a minority of extremists who scorn the rights of other men, who sow hatred and terror, who make the law of the revolver rule. It is much too early, however, to dance on the tomb of American democracy, as Eastern European countries are hastening to do. We believe rather, as a Geneva clergyman has hoped, that this third test will require of the whole of American society a new commitment with regard to civic justice and order. And that this commitment will be undertaken."

June 7 (Guy Cormier). "...The administration has announced a great inquiry on violence. But will anything be discovered that has not already been known?...Monotony also permeates the proposal of the Attorney General of the United States, Mr. Clark, who hastens to discount the hypothesis of a conspiracy before having made the inquiry which, moreover, he almost excuses himself for undertaking ... If it was demonstrated that Robert Kennedy had 'fallen for Israel' ... the average American could quickly become convinced that paying such an exorbitant price for such a far-off cause was madness... In the end, isolationism, always latent, would profit by these bloody disappointments. Any clear explanation of the drama - and there is none so far - would be better than the feeling of collective guilt that might penetrate the soul of every citizen of the United States...The elections will take place in November...Will Mr. Johnson decide to seek another term despite his proposal to the contrary last March? The disappearance of Robert Kennedy changes the scenario...It is too early to entertain the least certainty on that point. It is Senator McCarthy, on the other hand, who may, in the course of the coming weeks, appear as the new heir of the late Robert Kennedy. What is certain, however, is that television is going to play a still greater role in the course of this campaign, the street and the crowd having become too murderous."

June 8 (Roger Champoux). "...The entire world which today is looking at the casket of Robert Kennedy and is rising up against the bestial cruelty which has fathered such an abominable crime, in a few days will look to Washington. If the American legislature does not pass a law that will become a world standard, then there is no hope, and civilization will have to admit rebuff...Above all, let us [Canadians] not say 'It can't happen here!' This would mean they have a short memory. Violence and fanaticism have been the weapons of individuals in this very city. Neither you nor I nor anyone wishes to live through days and nights of the fury of the FLQ..."

Translation of Extracts from Editorials in La Tribune, Sherbrooke, Province of Quebec

June 6 (Louis-C. O'Neil). "...As a marginal note, there are raised questions for the most important political personages in the United States to answer...'What sort of nation are we? We regard ourselves as a civilized people, but is that the case? Are these actions symptomatic of what we really are? Similar dramas are surprising when they take place elsewhere, but when they occur here, it is time to take action. Is this the result of a plot or the action of a solitary murderer?...'"

June 7 (Louis-C. O'Neil). "...This political murder, the second in the same family in less than five years, ought to make people reflect - on both sides of the border!"

SUBJECT : Caracas Municipal Council Pays Last Respects to Senator Kennedy

REF : None

The President, Secretary and three members of the Caracas Municipal Council called on Ambassador Bernbaum June 11, to present their condolences for the death of Senator Robert Kennedy.

After the usual introductions, the Secretary read a proclamation which included the following remarks:

"Considering that the lamentable death (of Kennedy) produced an obvious crisis in the US political and cultural life, and that violence in the US and the world has been causing deaths of illustrious persons, social disorders, international hatred, and the persecution and destruction of people;

(the Council) Agrees to Condemn emphatically, in the name of the people of Caracas, the assassination of this distinguished North American citizen;

(and) Manifests that
In the opinion of the Municipal Council the death of Kennedy is an expression of a state of violence supported by forces which aspire to halt and detain the development and exercise of freedom among all the world's people."

The Ambassador thanked the Delegation for their expression of sympathy, but pointed out that the death of Kennedy, a cruel and meaningless act, could not in fairness be said to reflect US society. This terrible deed, condemned throughout the world, was apparently the work of one demented individual. When the Delegation reiterated some statements made in their declaration, the Ambassador repeated that it is neither just nor reasonable to condem a whole people or to charge a whole society is sick because of a reprehensible act which could have occurred anywhere.

COMMENT:

The attitudes expressed by the distinguished members of the Municipal Council unfortunately reflect the visceral reactions of many Venezuelans, both friends and foes of the US. (See A-919, June 7, 1968.) Despite careful and frequent repetition of the Ambassador's remarks by many members of the Country Team, a great number of Venezuelans persist in linking the Kennedy assassination to an overall condemnation of the US.

SUBJECT : Reaction in Peru to Death of Senator Kennedy

REF :

SUMMARY

The grief and consternation in Peru at the death of Senator Kennedy, who was widely admired in this country and well-known from his successful 1965 visit here, was deep, widespread and heartfelt, almost identical in tone and scarcely smaller in degree to the reaction following the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963. The upwelling of emotion in Peru occasioned by Senator Kennedy's tragic death underscored not only Peru's feeling for the Senator and his family but also the fundamental warmth and community of interests underlying US-Peruvian relations.

* * * * * * * *

The November 10-13, 1965 visit to Peru by Senator Robert F. KENNEDY and Mrs. Kennedy was very successful. The crowds surrounding them both in Lima and in Cuzco during their visit were heavy and very friendly, and the Senator made a most favorable impression on Peruvians of all levels of society. Thus Senator Robert Kennedy was well-known and highly esteemed in Peru. News of his assassination therefore caused a wide and deep impression among Peruvians, many of whom regarded him not only as a rising U.S. political leader carrying on in the tradition of his late brother the President, but as a friend of Peru who shared many of the hopes and aspirations widely cherished by most Peruvians.

H-ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR CONGRESSIONAL RELATIONS

1968 JUN 18 PM 5 03

On the morning of June 5 radio and television newscasts in Lima were overwhelmingly dominated by news of the shooting, and the afternoon papers front paged the story under huge red headlines. The Chargé d'Affaires ad interim issued a statement deploring "this horrible and senseless assassination attempt" and stating that, "as expressed previously by President JOHNSON, we can do no more at this time than pray for Senator Kennedy's recovery and for the recovery of the other victims of the shooting." This statement, together with President Johnson's, were widely carried by radio and television in Lima. President Fernando BELAUNDE Terry sent a personal message of regret to the Kennedy family, and the Peruvian Government's press spokesmen declared that the news of the shooting had "produced a mournful impact in the Presidential Palace." Declarations of horror and sadness were made by Peru's Primate, Juan Cardinal LANDAZURI Ricketts, and by spokesmen of the major political parties. Prime and Foreign Minister Oswaldo HERCELLES telephoned the Embassy to voice regret, as did the President of the Chamber of Deputies, the Chief of Protocol, and representative First Vice President Edgardo SEOANE and Finance Minister Manuel ULLOA, besides political leaders, other personalities and ordinary Peruvian citizens. During the Prime and Foreign Minister's meeting with the Diplomatic Corps later in the day he expressed to the Chargé his profound sorrow, personally and for his Government, over the attack on Senator Kennedy.

On June 6 the news of Senator Kennedy's death caused great sorrow and consternation, with opinions ranging from simple expressions of sympathy to suggestions of the existence in the United States of a criminal conspiracy to silence voices of progress. President Belaúnde sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Kennedy, and Cardinal Landazuri made a public statement pointing out that "crime and violence do not produce anything positive but rather negate human rights, the basis for all democracy and social progress." Press coverage continued to be very great. Several Lima newspapers, notably El Comercio, editorially called for an end to hatred and the "reestablishment of reason" in the United States, while Expreso blamed the assassination on "powerful mafias" as well as psychological factors produced by three wars.

The Embassy opened a book of condolences in the Embassy lobby on June 6, and from the opening of business through the following three days many persons of all stations in life called at the Embassy to leave cards and to sign the book, which ultimately received 223 signatures. This book of condolences and the cards will be transmitted to the Department separately. The Embassy also received during the next three days about 50 letters and 25 telegrams from Peruvians regretting the Senator's death.

Two Cabinet Ministers, First Vice President Edgardo SEOANE, the father of President Belaúnde, Peruvian Senators and Deputies and Chiefs of Mission and other dignataries called at the Embassy on June 6, several of them personally expressing to the Chargé their sorrow and sympathy. The Chargé prepared for the Embassy's staff bulletin a special statement on the Senator's death (text contained in Enclosure No. 1) which he later taped in Spanish for radio and television at the latter's request, and which was widely broadcast.

On June 7, the day after the Senator's death, the Lima press, radio and television continued to devote vast amounts of time and space to the assassination with the press editorializing about the deed and publishing wire service accounts covering all conceivable aspects of the crime. An editorial in Correo listed a number of world leaders who have been assassinated, pointing out that this type of crime was not confined to the United States. El Comercio expressed hope that the tragedies suffered by the Kennedy family were now ended. The President of the Chamber of Deputies, Armando VILLANUEVA del Campo, sent messages of condolence to Mrs. Kennedy, to Senator Kennedy's father Ambassador Kennedy, and to Vice President HUMPHREY. Both the Peruvian Senate and the Chamber of Deputies had adjourned June 6 in respect to the memory of the Senator.

Because of the profound effect caused in Peru by the Senator's death the Embassy took the initiative to organize a requiem mass in the church of Santa María Reina, where a mass had been celebrated in November 1963 in memory of President John F. KENNEDY. An American priest, the Rev. Fr. Robert HIELE, officiated, assisted by a Peruvian and a Spanish priest to symbolize, according to Fr. Hiele, the international citizenship of Robert Kennedy. The Papal Nuncio, Msgr. Rómulo CARBONI, was also a participant on the altar. The service, held at 10:00 a.m. on June 8, the hour fixed for the funeral services in New York, was conducted in Spanish, although Fr. Hiele's sermon was in English. His theme was peace, which he felt was Senator Kennedy's quest, and he chose green vestments for the con-celebrants to serve as a symbol of hope. The Embassy sent special notification of the mass to the President, the Cabinet, the Legislature, the Judiciary and the Diplomatic Corps, and also invited the American community and Peruvians at large by public notification.

The church was entirely filled during the service, with an estimated 500 persons in attendance. President Belaúnde, who was prevented from attending due to his receiving the credentials of two new Chiefs of Mission, was represented by an Aide. Among the dignitaries present were First Vice President Seoane, the President of the Supreme Court, the Presidents of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, the Ministers of Finance, Labor, and Development, the leader of the Christian Democratic Party, a number of Senators, Deputies and former Ministers. Many Ministers who could not attend in person sent representatives, as did the Chiefs of the Armed Forces. The Diplomatic Corps was almost entirely represented by Ambassadors or Chargés. Officers of the various American community organizations were present as were a great number of Peruvians of all stations in life. One public school sent a color guard of about 15 boys, all in uniform. The occasion was in every way solemn and fitting, and the service and the representation it evoked testified not only to Peruvian feeling for Senator Kennedy and for his family, but also to the fundamental warmth and community of interest which underlies U.S. and Peruvian relations.

On the afternoon of June 8 the American Maryknoll priests offered a high requiem mass in the church of Santa Rosa de Lima which was crowded with Peruvians of the middle and lower-middle classes. The Embassy was represented at this mass, at which the Auxilary Bishop of Lima officiated, by the Chargé.

A copy of the program of this requiem mass is contained in Enclosure No. 2. On Sunday June 9, declared a day of National Mourning in the United States, the interdominational Union Church of Lima remembered Senator Kennedy in special prayers, while the Anglican Church of the Good Shepherd held a memorial service. A copy of the program of this service is contained in Enclosure No. 3. The American Marianist priests at the chapel of the Santa María Reina church also offered special prayers for the Senator in the course of their regular Sunday service. Attendance at mass in Lima's churches on June 9 was unusually heavy, and prayers were offered in many of them for the repose of the soul of Senator Kennedy. Follow-on press coverage continued to be heavy for several days after June 9.

The outpouring of grief and shock was not limited to the Lima area. Provincial Peruvian radio and press organs gave very heavy coverage to the assassination, and many editorials reflecting Peru's emotions appeared in the provincial press. In Arequipa, Peru's second city, the U.S. Consul reports that the expressions of sorrow were truly impressive. On June 6 all three local newspapers devoted almost their entire front pages to the Kennedy tragedy. The Prefect of Arequipa, absent in Lima, sent a special telephone message to the U.S. Consul, who was called upon by the Sub-Prefect. The Mayor of Arequipa sent a cable message to President Johnson. The Archbishop of Arequipa, the Commanding General of the III Military Region and the Arequipa representative of the Ministry of Foreign Relations all called on the Consul and asked that their sympathies be conveyed to the Kennedy family. Political leaders telephoned the Consul or sent notes of condolence. The Consul arranged for an ecumenical prayer service to be held June 8 in the recently-restored 17th century Iglesia de la Compañia just off Arequipa's Plaza de Armas, in which an American Roman Catholic priest, an American Baptist missionary and the Consul participated. This was followed by a requiem mass celebrated by American priests from the various Roman Catholic orders active in Arequipa. On June 9 the U.S. Consul read a eulogy of Senator Kennedy at a luncheon of the local American society.

The Chargé has had a card printed to be sent to the persons offering their condolences and indicating their name and address in order to acknowledge and thank them. One of these cards is transmitted as Enclosure No. 4.

In summary, the reaction in Peru to the tragic death of Senator Kennedy was almost identical in tone, and only smaller in degree, to the reaction which followed the assassination of President Kennedy four and a a half years previously.

U. S. EMBASSY NEWS BULLETIN

LIMA PERU

Volume 6, No. 23 June 6, 1968

A NEWS BULLETIN BY AND FOR ALL U.S. AGENCIES IN PERU

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON

"This is a time of tragedy and loss. Senator Robert F. Kennedy is dead.

Robert Kennedy affirmed this country -- affirmed the essential decency of its people, their longing for peace, their desire to improve conditions of life for all.

During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy.

Yet he never abandoned his faith in America. He never lost his confidence in the spiritual strength of ordinary men and women.

He believed in the capacity of the young for excellence -- and in the right of the old and poor to a life of dignity.

Our public life is diminished by his loss.

Mrs. Johnson and I extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy and his family.

I have issued a proclamation calling upon our nation to observe a day of mourning for Robert Kennedy".

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S PROCLAMATION

"To the people of the United States:

A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kenndy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.

This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity.

Now, therefore, I, Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States, do call upon all Americans to observe Sunday next, the ninth day of June, as a day of national mourning in his memory throughout the United States. In our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S PROCLAMATION (Cont'd)

I direct that until interment the flag of the United States shall be flown at half-staff on all buildings, grounds and naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its territories and possessions.

I also direct that the flag shall be flown at half-staff for the same length of time al all United States Embassies, Legations, Consular Offices, and other facilities abroad, including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second.

Lyndon B. Johnson

STATEMENT BY THE CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES, AD INTERIM

"For all members of the American Diplomatic Mission:

Once again a great American family has been stricken by tragedy. An assassin's bullet has now ended the life of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, who might have been our President, just as the life was ended of his brother, John F. Kennedy, who was our President. We can only contemplate this terrible event with grief in our hearts; grief for this fine and vital young man now departed; grief for his widow and his children, and his child yet unborn; and grief for our nation and for the entire world which has surely been diminished by this loss.

In his ever active life, Robert Kennedy came to be known to millions of Americans and to others throughout the world. Those of us who remember his visit to Lima two and a half years ago will not forget the vibrancy of his personality, or the genuine affection with which he was greeted by Peruvians, high and low, many of whom simply called him "Bob". Nor will we forget the ever present and gracious figure of his beloved wife, Ethel Kennedy.

Senator Kennedy will be buried at Arlington National Cemetery on Saturday. President Johnson has proclaimed, Sunday, June 9, a day of national mourning in his memory. Undoubtedly there will be special services, which many will wish to attend, and these will be announced.

In the meantime, and as we all mourn this tragedy in our own personal ways, we must wonder, as does the world, why our national political life has been so visited with violence; violence which is as surely unthinkable to almost all of our 200 million citizens as it is stark and terrible in the reality of its execution by that small handful which is committed to violence.

President John F. Kennedy, the Rev. Martin Luther King and now Senator Robert F. Kennedy, all men of goodwill, all cruelly assassinated. I pray, as

STATEMENT BY THE CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES, AD INTERIM (Cont'd)

I am sure we all must, that these deaths will not have been in vain. I am confident that our nation will find answers to the terrible questions which beset it and that the causes which lead men to violence, in the measure that they may, will be removed. "

DECLARACIONES DEL ENCARGADO DE NEGOCIOS AD INTERIM PARA TODOS LOS MIEMBROS DE LA MISION DIPLOMATICA NORTEAMERICANA

Una vez más una gran familia norteamericana ha sido agobiada por la tragedia. La bala de un asesino ha puesto ahora fin a la vida del Senador Robert F. Kennedy que pudo haber sido nuestro Presidente, tal como otra lo hizo con la vida de su hermano, John F. Kennedy, quien era nuestra Presidente.

Podemos solamente contemplar este terrible evento con pena en nuestros corazones; pena para este excelente hombre joven lleno de vitalidad que ha fallecido; pena por su viuda y sus hijos y el hijo que aún está por nacer; y pena por nuestra patria y por el mundo entero que ha sufrido una pérdida con esta sensible desaparición.

Durante su vida siempre activa, millones de norteamericanos y de otras nacionalidades de todo el mundo llegaron a conocer a Robert Kennedy. Aquellos de nosotros que recordamos su visita a Lima hace dos años y medio, no olvidamos lo vibrante de su personalidad, o el sincero afecto con el cual fue recibido por los peruanos de toda condición social, muchos de quienes lo llamaban simplemente "Bob". Ni tampoco olvidaremos la siempre presente y graciosa figura de su amada esposa, Ethel Kennedy.

El Senador Kennedy será sepultado en el Cementerio Nacional de Arlington el próximo sábado. El Presidente Johnson ha proclamado en su memoria el día domingo 9 de junio como uno de duelo nacional. Sin duda habrán servicios especiales a los que muchos gustarían asistir y éstos serán anunciados oportunamente.

Mientras tanto, y al condolernos de esta tragedia en nuestra propia manera, deberemos asombrarnos, como lo hace todo el mundo, el por qué nuestra vida política nacional ha sido visitada así por la violencia; una violencia que es, de toda seguridad, increíble para casi todos nuestros 200 millones de ciudadanos, como lo es completa y terrible en la realidad de su ejecución para un pequeño puñado que está entregado a la violencia.

Presidente John F. Kennedy, Reverendo Martin Luther King y ahora, Senador Robert F. Kennedy, todos hombres de buena voluntad y todos cruelmente asesinados. Ruego - y estoy seguro que todos lo harán - que estas muertes no hayan sido en vano. Tengo la seguridad de que nuestro país encontrará las respuestas a las terribles interrogantes que lo acosan y que las causas que conducen a los hombres a la violencia, serán eliminadas en la medida en que ello sea posible.

MISA DE REQUIEM

INTROITO:

Dales, Señor el descanso eterno y alumbre tu luz por siempre sobre ellos. A ti, oh Dios, se debe la alabanza en Sión, en tu honor se cumplen los votos en Jerusalén; escucha mi oración, tú a quien se dirige todo ser de carne. Dales, Señor.

ORACION:

Oh Dios, de quien es propio compadecerse siempre y perdonar; humildemente te rogamos por el alma de tu siervo Robert Kennedy, que has hecho salir de este mundo; no la dejes caer en las manos del enemigo para olvidarla por siempre, antes ordena a tus ángeles la reciban y la introduzcan en su patria, el paraíso, de suerte que, habiendo puesto en ti su esperanza y su fé, no tenga que sufrir los castigos del infierno, sino que entre en posesión de la alegría eterna. Por Nuestro Señor...

OFERTORIO:

Oh Señor, Jesucristo, Rey de Gloria, libra las almas de todos los fieles difuntos del castigo del infierno y del profundo abismo; líbralas de las fauces del león. No las suma el abismo, ni caigan en la noche, sino que San Miguel, el abanderado, las introduzca en la santa luz, que en otro tiempo has prometido a Abraham y a su descendencia. Te ofrecemos, Señor, este sacrificio y estas preces de alabanza. Recíbelas en sufragio de las almas cuya memoria hoy celebramos. Haz, Señor, que pasen de la muerte a la vida, que en otro tiempo has prometido a Abraham y a su descendencia.

COMUNION:

Brille, Señor, la luz eterna sobre ellos, Con tus santos en la eternidad, porque eres bueno. Dales, Señor, el descanso eterno y alumbre tu luz por siempre sobre ellos. Con tus santos en la eternidad, porque eres bueno.

EXEQUIAS

P: Señor, ten piedad
T: Cristo, ten piedad, Señor, ten piedad

Padre Nuestro...

P: Libra, Señor, su alma
T: De las penas del infierno
P: Descanse en paz
T: Amen

P: Señor, escucha nuestra oración
T: Y llegue a Tí nuestro clamor
P: El Señor esté con vosotros
T: Y con tu espíritu

OREMUS:

Absuelve, Señor, de todo vínculo de pecado el alma de tu siervo Robert a fin de que, en la resurrección gloriosa, sea contado entre tus santos y elegidos. Por Cristo
Por Cristo Nuestro Señor.
Amen.

No seas severo, Señor, en tu juicio con tu siervo Robert, puesto que nadie puede ser declarado justo en tu presencia, si Tú mismo no le perdonas todos sus pecados.

Te pedimos, pues, que no afligas con una sentencia rigurosa a quien te recomiendan las sinceras súplicas de la fe cristiana; antes bien, con la ayuda de tu gracia, pueda escapar del castigo éste que en vida estuvo marcado con el sello de la Santa Trinidad.

Tú, que vives y reinas por los siglos de los siglos.

Amén.

ROBERT FRANCIS KENNEDY

El Sr. Robert Francis Kennedy nació en Masachusset el 20 de Noviembre de 1925, hijo del financiero millonario y diplomático Joseph P. Kennedy y su esposa Rose, miembro de una ilustre familia católica de origen irlandés. En 1951, se graduó de abogado en la Escuela de Derecho de Virginia y después de colegiarse en Masachussets, fué a Washington, donde ingresó en el Departamento de Justicia como abogado especializado en casos de corrupción y violación del pago de impuestos.

Durante el Gobierno de su hermano John F. Kennedy, "Bobby" desempeñaba el cargo de Procurador General (Ministro de Justicia) y participaba en el Consejo de Seguridad, probando sus grandes cualidades como abogado, investigador y hábil interrogador y polemista. En el año 1964 fué elegido Senador por el estado de Nueva York.

El 6 de Junio de 1968, Robert Francis Kennedy murió asesinado a la edad de 42 años. Hace poco, comentando sobre el asesinado del líder negro, Dr. Martin Luther King, Robert Kennedy afirmó solemnemente y de manera profética:

"El país sufre cada vez que la vida de un hombre es suprimida sin necesidad por otro hombre, sea en nombre de la ley o sea contra la ley, por un hombre solo o por un grupo, a sangre fría o en el fuego de pasión, en la violencia o en respuesta de la violencia. Todos sufrimos cada vez que destruimos el hilo de vida que otro hombre había trenzado con pena y sacrificio, para él mismo y para sus hijos."

Subject: Moscow's Reaction to the Robert Kennedy Assassination

ABSTRACT

The Soviets have reacted to the killing of Senator Robert Kennedy with an outpouring of anti-US propaganda. The propaganda has tried to show that American society is no model for the world and deserves no influence abroad; that the US is rotten and is declining; and that the US is ruled by bloodthirsty reactionaries who oppose everything new and progressive. The Arab origin of Sirhan is awkward for Soviet commentators, and Mayor Yorty's comments about Sirhan's alleged pro-communist sympathies seem to make Moscow uneasy. As for the Soviet leadership, we suspect that the leaders are concerned over the shooting as a possible warning sign that violence -- the recent student actions in Poland and Yugoslavia, for example, having already given Moscow pause -- may be on the upswing in the world at large. To a lesser extent, Moscow presumably would also be troubled by the assassination as widening the margin of unpredictability in the US Presidential election picture, thus probably creating uneasy feelings for the Soviet regime.

A Plot by Reactionary Circles

Soviet media within hours of the shooting began hammering away at the idea that it was the result of a plot. They have been careful not to identify the supposed plotters with any precision, generally referring simply to "reactionary circles." Some commentaries have lumped several groups together under this rubric -- Southern segregationists, rabid anti-communists, arms manufacturers, and big financiers. The plotters frequently are described as being bitterly opposed to Negro civil rights, "progressive movements," ending or even limiting the Vietnam war, and aid to the poor.

Tied to the plot against RFK invariably are the assassinations of President Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, and occasionally the killing of civil rights leader Evers and the trial of Dr. Benjamin Spock are mentioned. Sometimes the plotters are said to enjoy the support of "the reactionary ruling circles of Washington," giving the impression that the plot group stands beyond, or perhaps above, the Federal Government. Dissenters from the views cherished by the plotting ultra-rightists are punished -- through paid assassins if necessary -- because they stand in the way, and that the rightists along with the public "shed crocodile tears." John Kennedy in this connection is called the victim of the "military-financial monopolies and especially a clique of Texas millionaires."

Connivance by US Authorities

A few propaganda blasts have gone far in the direction of implying official connivance. One early broadcast said that "irresponsible" official connivance made the shooting of RFK "possible." The thrust of this remark was that local authorities had not provided proper police protection. Elsewhere, Soviet propaganda has charged that the police in Los Angeles, just as in Dallas and Memphis, were "powerless," implying through this cynical note that local authorities let the three leaders be killed intentionally. Connivance on the part of the Federal authorities was suggested in the comment mentioned above that the ruling circles in Washington support the extreme rightist forces which carry out these political crimes. This idea was refined two days later by a commentary which explicitly stated that connivance on the part of local and also central officials, and even their sympathy, helps rightist organizations to operate and thus constitutes a factor contributing toward political crimes carried out by such rightist organizations.

A picture of Federal involvement in the JFK and RFK assassinations has also been painted by describing the US as a police state under the control of the FBI and CIA, by recalling allegations at the time of President Kennedy's assassination that these agencies somehow played a role, and by asserting that the Robert Kennedy shooting reintroduces the same set of questions. It has also been suggested that RFK had to be eliminated because he knew, as former Attorney General, the real story behind the killing of his brother and was going to release this information upon being elected President, when the guilty ones would no longer have protection.

Sirhan's Arab Origin

Twenty-four hours passed before Pravda broke the ice for Soviet media on Sirhan's Arab origin. This news item was buried on a back page, separated from the paper's commentary on the RFK shooting. Later that day Izvestiya dealt more boldly with the Arab-origin factor, declaring that any US media which stressed that Sirhan was of Arab origin were only trying "to shield the true culprit, the American way of life."

The next day, June 7, Soviet media acknowledged that Sirhan was detained at the scene of the crime and that he was of Arab origin, but added, variously, that the Attorney General had ordered an investigation to see if there was not a conspiracy, and that Sirhan was a naturalized US citizen. Pravda June 8 said that Sirhan, a Jordanian immigrant, was at first described in all official announcements of the police and other investigative bodies as a fanatical nationalist who had been operating on his own, and that Attorney General Clark had stated officially several times that there was no evidence of the existence of a conspiracy. However, eye-witness accounts had now been released indicating Sirhan may have had at least one and probably several accomplices. When these stories did not pan out, Pravda June 9 turned to the lame contention that US media were talking about Sirhan's Arab origin for the purpose of sharpening the already tense Arab-Israeli situation.

Anti-Communist "Hysteria" in the US

While not going so far as to suggest that US reactionaries had RFK assassinated for the purpose of whipping up anti-communist hysteria in the US, Soviet media have been asserting that American ultra-rightists have exploited the tragedy for this purpose. In the process, the Soviets have attacked the FBI for allegedly persecuting "progressive" groups and individuals instead of combatting the mounting US crime rate, and have added ominously that political crimes in the US like the RFK killing go unpunished. In the course of describing the US as a society devoid of ideals, as shown by the Robert Kennedy murder, one commentator stated that US reactionaries sought to fill the void with "anti-communism and anti-Sovietism." Another commentary renewed the charge that J. Edgar Hoover invented the "slander" that a communist conspiracy lay behind Dr. King's murder, when in fact Hoover had instigated the assassination. The use of the RFK assassination as a pretext to whip up anti-communist hysteria has been described as a cover for a campaign against the anti-Vietnam, civil rights, and poverty movements. And the Soviets have denounced Mayor Yorty's references to Sirhan's alleged DuBois Club connection and pro-communist sympathies as an "absurd invention."

RFK's Stand Concerning Vietnam

Soviet propaganda has repeatedly asserted that Robert Kennedy recently had come around to a "somewhat realistic" view on the subject of Vietnam and was hated for it by the reactionaries, this having contributed significantly to the decision to have him assassinated. As part of this line, it is pointed out that RFK was under no threat to his life when he worked for Senator Joseph McCarthy or served as Attorney General, but only after he changed his Vietnam position. Soviet media add that the change in question was hardly a radical one, since the Senator, although he favored an unconditional halt in US bombing of North Vietnam, had not come out in favor of unconditional US withdrawal. Pravda has generalized that both JFK and RFK were eliminated at that point when they dared disagree with "the reckless foreign course of imperialist reaction."

US Claim to World Leadership

In villifying US society and institutions in connection with the Robert Kennedy assassination, Soviet propaganda has frequently added the comment that this is the same country which poses as a world leader, or tries to act as a moral mentor and democratic example to the world. Izvestiya, for example, exclaimed righteously that this society, "which uses terror in its election struggle," dares "proclaim that the 20th century is the century of Americanism!" Another commentator stated that the US "has no inspiring national aims, no ideals which can capture the minds and hearts of people."

A blatant Soviet effort to exploit the RFK tragedy to show that the US allegedly has lost all moral authority in the world has been a feature as much of domestic as of international Soviet propaganda since the assassination. As such, it may offer insight into the kind of obstacles which Soviet propagandists feel they face in improving the image of the USSR both at home and abroad.

Possible Thoughts on Moscow's Mind

The gross nature of Soviet propaganda about the Robert Kennedy assassination should not obscure the likelihood that the Soviet leadership is disturbed by this development. If Moscow's cautious commentary so far this year on US Presidential election developments is any indication, the Soviets saw in RFK's candidacy the least among evils and were hoping he might win. (At the same time, it is likely that Moscow was not counting on a shift in US Vietnam policy to a direction desired by Moscow, regardless of who won the election.) The Soviet leaders probably view the assassination with some apprehension because they see it as feeding a trend toward violence in the world which could directly affect the USSR.

Thus, the Polish student riots in March with their bloody turn, and the Yugoslav unrest this month which spread to all centers of higher learning, have undoubtedly given the Soviets pause, as they revealed that the communist world is by no means immune from violent, revolutionary spontaneity. Czechoslovak developments have also been a case in point; although they have not involved violence, student pressures contributed substantially to the bringing down of a regime. Even if these events in communist countries had not taken place, Moscow might be alarmed by the violent revolutionary actions of youth recently in West Germany and France, since the communists had a disconcertingly hard time understanding and adjusting their line to these movements. The restiveness of youth in both Western and Eastern Europe has been marked by a clear disdain for "establishments," and the Soviet authorities' fear of contagion can only mount with each new outbreak.

Soviet leaders are undoubtedly also disturbed by the fact that the removal of Robert Kennedy from the US Presidential contest increases for them the unknown factors in trying to project possible future trends in US policy. Although Soviet leaders may have welcomed the propaganda windfall for purposes of maligning US society, they must also be sensitive to any events that could increase unpredictability in US policy, which heightens the feeling of insecurity of the Soviet regime.

SELECTED SOVIET COMMENTS ON THE ROBERT KENNEDY ASSASSINATION

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1200 GMT 5 Jun 68 L

[Text] Another political crime has been committed in the United States, the country which boasts about its democracy, its system--the system of free enterprise. The assassination attempt in Los Angeles was possible because of the irresponsible connivance on the part of the authorities and the notorious freedom of a capitalist society, the freedom to kill.

It is noteworthy that the extreme rightwing forces in the United States enjoy the support of the reactionary ruling circles in Washington and exert a growing influence on the political life of the country. They oppose the granting of equal civil rights to the Negro population. They are in favor of a militarization of the country and of the arms race to please monopolistic capital. The hawks demand a extension of the war in Vietnam, threatening those who dissent from them with punishments and at times use the services of paid assassins. This happened in November 1963, when President Kennedy was killed in Dallas. This happened on 4 April this year when Martin Luther King was killed in Memphis. This is happening today in Boston, at the shameful trial of five representatives of the U.S. intelligentsia led by Benjamin Spock, who openly opposes the aggression in Indochina.

Moscow TASS International Service in English 1330 GMT 5 Jun 68 L

[Igor Orlov commentary]

What strikes the eye is that the huge and lavishly financed machinery of the FBI is directed not so much at combating crime and political and criminal gangsterism--the latter are interwoven as a rule--as at persecuting progressive organizations and active members of mass antiwar and anti-imperialist movements, all those who are opposed to the country's present "establishment."

Moscow TASS International Service in English 1610 GMT 5 Jun 68 L

Commenting in IZVESTIYA on the new crime in the United States, M. Severov writes: "The end to violence that sweeps the United States from coast to coast is not in sight. More and more often revolver shots accentuate the events in the modern history of the United States."

Severov writes further that the socioeconomic system upon which the United States rests unleashes the basest instincts of an individual. This system, that tries to impose its rule on the world through the use of arms, pays heavily for its crimes. "Its victims are not only Vietnamese women and children, not only campesinos in the Dominican Republic or the Arab fellahs, but also its own citizens no matter whether they are Boston millionaires or political leaders brothers John and Robert Kennedy, the Negro leader Malcolm X, or champion of nonviolent action Martin Luther King. In a word its victim is every man lucky to be born in the country under the stars and stripes.

"And this society, that uses terror as the usual means of the election struggle, that swears by the green dollar and the steel of the revolver, that praises the gods of gain and violence, dares say through its prophets that it is called upon to give moral leadership to the world, and proclaims the 20th century the century of Americanism.

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1620 GMT 5 Jun 68 L

[Yuriy Babich commentary: "A Society of Fear and Violence"]

Who guided the hand of the assassin? How could this new crime have been committed? How is it possible that in a country that praises its freedom and democracy a bullet more and more is becoming the most important "argument" in a political struggle? Prominent politician, Sen William Fulbright, called America a sick society. These are not just words. The American bourgeois society is in fact incurable sick. A profound crisis has long affected the entire U.S. social system in all its aspects: Its entire ideology, economy, and politics.

The American reactionary ruling classes are trying to fill this political and moral vacuum with anticommunism and anti-Sovietism. What can such bellicose, reactionary ideology give millions of Americans, particularly young ones who, on the very threshold of their conscious life, come across profound dissatisfaction, across the cult of profit that is taking root in the country, and across the cults of business, the dollar, and violence?

Moscow TASS International Service in English 0600 GMT 6 Jun 68 L

[Text] Moscow--The assassination attempt on Robert Kennedy is in the focus of attention of today's Soviet newspapers. S. Vishnevskiy, answering the question "Why was Senator Kennedy Shot?" writes in PRAVDA: "No one planned any attempt on his life when Robert Kennedy, early in his political career, served as adviser to the inquisitorial commission of the notorious Sen Joseph McCarthy. No one was aiming a gun at him when he faithfully served the ruling class as attorney general.

"The extreme ultras came to hate him only when Robert Kennedy, yielding to public pressure, made a certain, not very confident, step toward realism and criticized the most aggressive and reckless aspects of U.S. foreign policy by denouncing the escalation of the dirty Vietnam war without demanding, however, an unconditional withdrawal of interventionist troops from Indochina."

SOVIET RUSSIA has a commentary by Genrich Borovik, New York NOVOSTI correspondent, entitled "Crime in Los Angeles." He calls attention to the fact that the "police, which should have protected Kennedy, proved once again powerless as in Dallas 5 years ago and Memphis 2 months ago." "I do not know if this time the crime will be solved. The only thing clear is that the much-vaunted American freedom is a freedom to kill those who think differently. The much-vaunted American way of life is one of violence. That has become an inevitable companion to capitalist society."

Aleksey Leontyev writes in RED STAR: "Apparently, this time also certain gentlemen of the United States will weep and hypocritically express condolences. Spilling the blood of their victims and shedding tears over their fate have become favorite occupations with the bosses of America. They are steeped in crime and are trying to save face, whether in Vietnam or the United States. But these are vain attempts.

[Text] Moscow--

Commenting on the assassination of U.S. Senator Robert Kennedy in Los Angeles, he writes that a "country lauded by bourgeois propaganda as a 'citadel of freedom and democracy' is increasingly becoming an arena of political banditry. For the second time in 2 months a political murder has been committed in the United States.

The author says that "the gunshots in Los Angeles bring to the fore again with new force the sinister role played by the FBI and the CIA, the mainstays of U.S. ruling circles. Whatever the present murderers may say, or whether they say nothing at all, the FBI and CIA remain a grim embodiment of the police state which America has become--the admission even of many bourgeois leaders. The CIA and FBI, many foreign researchers say, were implicated in the assassination of President Kennedy. It was the FBI head, J. Edgar Hoover, who prompted the assassins, calling Martin Luther King a liar, and who, after King's assassination, invented a slanderous version that behind this murder was a "communist conspiracy."

Victor Glazunov Commentary

Moscow in English to South Asia 1600 GMT 6 Jun 68 L

The role of a world gendarme is turning American society into a gangster at home. So it is that America, lauded as an example of Western democracy, appears before the world as a society of brutality and inhumanity. It is rooted in the very essence of the social system in America, in the very foundations of the society based on the dollar and stamping out such notions as honor, justice, legality, and humanity. Capitalism is fraught with violence, just as clouds are fraught with rain. The system of violence and lawlessness, moreover, becomes more and more rotten as political power concentrates in the hands of an ever smaller handful of monopolists.

Valentin Zorin Commentary

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1900 GMT 6 Jun 68 L

The fire of revolver shots which sounded in the Los Angeles Ambassador Hotel have exposed like lightning the disgusting reverse side of the political life in the leading state of the modern capitalist world. People have been seriously shaken by the realization of the danger brought to them by the state which is pretending to play a leading part in the world and has raised violence to the level of a state doctrine Violence reigns supreme in the America of our times not just because any scoundrel there can easily buy weapons and have them mailed to his home, but above all because the whole atmosphere in that country is imbued with a spirit of violence. More than that--this atmosphere has been planned and cultivated for many years: American art consisting of horror books and films; science full of theories justifying the right of the strong; and above all the practical policy of the American state which uses violence and war plunder as a state policy. Such is the soil breeding the poisonous weeds, including the systematic assassinations of politicians for some reason regarded as undesirable by the extreme American reactionaries.

Vladimir Afonin Commentary

Moscow in English to Eastern North America 2300 GMT 6 Jun 68 L

In the country that the mass media has tirelessly tried to depict as a land of democracy, it now appears that there are forces that prefer bullets to ballots, and frenzied action to sensible (?divisions of opinion). Unlike the lone assassin, the men who commit the murders of the century are bound to be someone's agents; and the prospective organizations to employ them are quite numerous. Never before in U.S. history have there been so many terrorist organizations, semilegal, or even legal. These are a product of the U.S. social system, a policy of weapons. Little wonder no traces are left when the attempt is made to find the conspirators and those who (?commit) political crimes.

It remains to be asked what sort of moral leadership a country can give if it is unable to protect its own political figures from assassination. To the world, the American way of life now looks (?rather) like the American way of death.

Orlov Commentary

Moscow TASS International Service in English 1635 GMT 7 Jun 68 L

Characteristically, the victims of these crimes are, as a rule leaders who in one way or another express their opposition to rabid militarism and racism and are therefore not suitable to extreme reaction. The murder of Robert Kennedy, says well-known Brazilian professor of law Varisto de Mois Fillo, shows that in the United States there is apparently a movement of rightwingers who are connected with military circles which are interested in continuing the war in Vietnam. The chief aim of this organization, he says, is to destroy prominent democratic and liberal political leaders

As is justly observed by many commentators, connivance and even sympathy on the part of certain officials of central and local authorities facilitates the operation of these organizations and is a contributing factor to political crimes.

To judge by quite evident symptoms, the reactionary circles have decided now to use Robert Kennedy's assassination as a pretext for whipping up an anticommunist hysteria in the country to camouflage the launching of a campaign against all progressive and liberal movements including the antiwar movement, the civil rights movement, the Poor People's Campaign, and so forth. The tone for this campaign was set by certain local government officials in Los Angeles, where this villainous crime was committed.

Mayor Yorty hurried to state that the man charged with the murder apparently had contacts with the local Dubois Club, a progressive youth organization, and that he allegedly showed sympathy for the communists. A U.S. Communist Party spokesman denied this absurd invention and described Yorty's statement as a crude attempt to mislead the public in an effort to prevent a real investigation of this dirty affair and the plot behind it.

After the Negro leader Martin Luther King was assassinated, Robert Kennedy many times called for measures to alleviate the plight of Negroes in the United States. He used to say that there will be no peace in the country until this acute problem is settled. His statements received great response among Negroes. So, by assassinating Robert Kennedy, racialist elements have shown their resolve to do away with any person who is in their way.

Korionov PRAVDA Article

Moscow TASS International Service in English 0552 GMT 8 Jun 68 L

[Text] Moscow--"The assassination of President John Kennedy and his brother, Sen Robert Kennedy, vividly demonstrate the foul essence of the world of modern capitalist America," political analyst Vitaliy Korionov writes in today's PRAVDA. "How far the disintegration of the very system of American imperialism has gone when even the remotest symptoms of the appearance in the White House of a person who dared to timidly express his disagreement with the reckless foreign political course of imperialist reaction, including escalation of the Vietnam war and other forms of violence, bring forth paroxysms of fury in certain quarters and set in motion the mechanism of political killings! The directed political crime penetrates the entire life of decaying capitalism just as salt has embued the ocean waters. Robert Kennedy's murder is added proof of this," Korionov writes.

"Political killings, which are shocking America with growing frequency, are the direct result of the well-planned course of monopoly circles aimed at turning the country and the nation into an obedient tool of their far-reaching avaricious intentions. It is now clear to everyone," Korionov writes, "that the shots in Dallas, Memphis, and Los Angeles were not the work of individual terrorists. They were possible first of all because forces are governing the country which stop at nothing in their intention to do away with everything that does not suit them.

Gennadiy Gerasimov, the NOVOSTI political analyst, writes in TRUD that "American history is spattered with blood." Every ninth president was killed, Indians were annihilated, workers were shot, "witches" were hunted, and hysterical fear of communist implanted. "All this has taken place and still exists."

Vladimir Zhukov Commentary

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1550 GMT 9 Jun 68 L

A person who is even slightly familiar with the practice and ideology of German fascism would not have much difficulty in seeing in the actions of the militant American reactionaries the customs of the Nazis.

And it is not only a matter of the murder of political opponents; it is a matter of the direct inclination of the American racists, ultras, and militarists toward fascism.

The familiar smell of Hitler's "writings, "the atmosphere of the burning of the Reichstag, and the night of the long knives come from these leaflets and other incitement literature.

And one must stress that the "program for the suppression of disorders"--that is, the violence against Negro demonstrations and those by their sympathizers, the program set out in the leaflet of the Amerian ultras--found its application in the bloody outrages against Negroes following the murder of Martin Luther King. The army and police authorities acted virtually as one with the racists.

Moscow in English to Eastern North American 0100 GMT 10 Jun 68 L

[Text] Mikhail Strogovich, eminent Soviet lawyer, has an interesting theory on why Robert Kennedy was assissinated. Here is his recorded statement.

The murderer has been caught. It now remains to discover the mainsprings of the crime. The same task now arises to find the organizers of the assassination, for this second murder in similar circumstances was, beyond a doubt, actuated by the same motives. The idea here was to get the brother of the assassinated President out of the way. It cannot be the accidental deed of an unbalanced person acting on his own.

The murder of Robert Kennedy throws some light on the murder of the President. Had he been elected to the White House, it is certain that he would have taken energetic steps to find his brother's real assassins. We must now wait and see what will happen.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN MAKING AN INTENSIVE INVESTIGATION INTO THE BACKGROUND OF SIRHAN BISHARA. THE NEW INFORMATION, WHICH IS BEING COMMUNICATED TO THE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES, MAY OPEN UP AN ENTIRELY NEW LINE OF INQUIRY INTO THE MOTIVATION AND ORGANIZATION OF THE ATTACK ON KENNEDY. IT ALSO INDICATED CONSIDERABLE VARIATION IN THE ACCOUNTS SO FAR GIVEN OF SIRHAN'S PAST AND MOVEMENTS. HIS FULL NAME IS GIVEN AS SIRHAN BISHARA SIRHAN ABU KHATAR. HE WAS FIRST BROUGHT TO THE UNITED STATES AS A FOUR-YEAR-OLD CHILD IN 1948--NOT IN 1957. HE RETURNED TO JORDAN IN 1957 AND THE RECORDS SHOW THAT HE WAS MARRIED IN THE ORTHODOX CHURCH AT ES SALT, 15 MILES WEST OF AMMAN ON JUNE 27, 1957, WHEN HE WAS ONLY 13, TO LEILA YUSSEF MIKHAEL FROM ES SALT. LATER THAT YEAR SIRHAN RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES AND THREE MONTHS LATER HIS WIFE WAS BROUGHT TO HIM. THE RECORDS OF HIS JOURNEY ARE NOT VERY PRECISE AND PROBABLY NOT VERY IMPORTANT, AS BOTH HUSBAND AND WIFE WERE LITTLE MORE THAN CHILDREN. RATHER MORE INTEREST CENTRES ON THREE LATER JOURNEYS WHICH SIRHAN MADE, ESPECIALLY ON THE LST TWO WHICH, ACCORDING TO THIS INVESTIGATION, WERE MADE IN 1964 AND 1966. IN 1964 SIRHAN, ACCORDING TO THESE RECORDS, RETURNED TO THE MIDDLE EAST FOR SEVEN MONTHS, FOUR OF WHICH HE SPENT IN DAMASCUS. WHERE HE WAS FOR THE REST OF THE TIME IS NOT STATED. IN 1966 HE IS SAID TO HAVE SPENT AN EVEN LONGER PERIOD IN THE MIDDLE EAST, INCLUDING A STRETCH OF FIVE MONTHS IN CAIRO. HE RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES, ACCORDING TO THIS REPORT, AT THE BEGINNING OF 1967. THE ARAB GOVERNMENT IS CONVINCED THAT ITS RECORDS ARE ACCURATE BUT THEY ARE BEING SENT TO THE UNITED STATES SO THAT THEY CAN BE CHECKED WITH THE INFORMATION ASSEMBLED BY THE FBI. THERE IS AN EVIDENT AND INCREASING DISINCLINATION, HOWEVER, FOR WITNESSES TO TALK AND EVEN THOSE WHO SPOKE AT FIRST-- SUCH AS SIRHAN'S FATHER --HAVE NOW ADJUSTED THEIR RESPONSES. LAST WEEK SIRHAN'S FATHER CURSED HIS SON. YESTERDAY HE WAS DENOUNCING KENNEDY AND PREPARING TO GO TO LOS ANGELES TO STAND BY HIS SON.

SUBJECT : Mauritanian Coverage of Kennedy Assassination

REF :

The official daily information bulletin of the GIRM, Info-Nouakchott, gave moderate coverage to the assassination of Senator Kennedy. Info-Nouakchott's June 6 issue, in addition to describing the circumstances surrounding Senator Kennedy's death, reported on Arthur Schlesinger's June 5 speech at New York City College. The article on Schlesinger contained his statement that "Americans are the most frightening people on this planet." Other quotes from the speech were those which attacked U.S. Vietnam policy and which claimed that the history of white America was characterized by violence and racial prejudice.

The same issue of Info-Nouakchott carried the following editorial (Embassy's translation):

"The American Regime Wants to Mislead Public Opinion

"According to an Agence France Presse report datelined Los Angeles, the American police have identified Robert Kennedy's assassin as a Palestinian who has resided in the United States since 1957. The police have even supplied his name: SERHAN SERHAN!

"This accusation can only be incorrect since Palestinians involved in their just struggle do not aim [their guns] at progressive leaders in the United States. Their problem remains the liberation of their homeland, a problem limited to the area of the Middle East.

"Even if the fidayins were disposed to hunting down American pro-Zionists their first victim would be Johnson.

SUBJECT : Austrian Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Kennedy

REF :

Beginning on the day of the shooting of Senator Kennedy, Austrian information media gave what can only be described as "total coverage" to the tragedy and subsequent developments. Not since the assassination of President Kennedy have the Austrian press, radio and television devoted their resources so exclusively to one event.

Radio: Radio and TV were the quickest to react. Interrupting scheduled broadcasts with bulletins on developments June 5 and 6, Austrian radio devoted its major scheduled newscasts ("noon journal" and "evening journal") exclusively to coverage of the tragedy, plus the life history, policies and accomplishments of Senator Kennedy (with frequent references to his close association with President Kennedy). Following the announcement of the Senator's death, Austrian radio observed a minute of silence and altered schedules to broadcast serious music as a token of respect.

Television: Austrian television coverage relied heavily on satellite transmission and analysis by its chief commentator, Hugo Portisch, who set the tone for a mood of sympathy with the American people and the advocacy of a world-wide spirit of tolerance. In both radio and TV, this priority coverage continued through Sunday June 9.

Press: Vienna and provincial dailies devoted page after page to coverage of latest developments, with many human-interest features, both on the basis of international wire service copy (including speculation of a possible conspiracy) and of U.S.-based correspondents' stories. Some papers even dispatched special correspondents to the U.S. for on-the-spot coverage.

Initial editorial reaction to the news of the attempt on Senator Kennedy's life was marked by shock and doubts about America's moral qualifications for free-world leadership. This attitude soon changed, however, with more balanced comments pointing out that America is certainly "no nation of assailants," that one should guard against arrogant generalizations exemplified by a "wholesale condemnation of America," and that violence is not unique in the U.S. but exists in many countries.

Official Reaction: On the morning of June 5 Chancellor Klaus commented via an Austria News Agency release on the "terrible attempt" on Senator Robert Kennedy's life, expressing "regret and grief at this evil deed." He availed himself of the opportunity to condemn "the physical annihilation of a political opponent, no matter how hard political differences may clash, as wholly unjustified." Chancellor Klaus cabled messages of condolence to Mrs. Ethel Kennedy, President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey on June 6, assuring them of the Government's sincere sympathies with the cruel loss sustained by the United States and the Kennedy family, and extolling the late Senator's fight for the noble causes of humanity, peace, freedom and justice.

In another public statement on June 6 Chancellor Klaus delivered the following eulogy:

> In the past few hours we Austrians have entertained grave fears for Senator Robert Kennedy's life and we are now mourning the major loss suffered by his family and the whole American people. Like his brother, Robert Kennedy represented for the youth of the free world the ideals of democracy and of progress. With profound reverence we bow at the bier of this great cosmopolitan. However, as friends of the American people we wholeheartedly wish that the reputation of this biggest democracy be not tarnished by acts of violence. We do hope that the grave sacrifices by a single family will not have been in vain but will be instrumental in a return to those assets all of us will have to defend irrespective of political antagonism. The grieving sympathy of millions of Austrians these days amounts to a major demonstration of condolence.

On June 7 Chancellor Klaus, in speeches in the provinces, praised Robert F. Kennedy's espousing of genuine democracy, of the modern law-abiding and social-welfare state, and of the cause of peace. He reminded the Austrians that law and democracy must be upheld and defended against disrespect and abuse at a time of fundamental political change. In a previously scheduled speech to the Austro-American Society to report on his recent official visit to the U.S., he opened with an expression of sympathy and a eulogy.

Messages of condolence were also sent to Mrs. Ethel Kennedy and Secretary of State Rusk by Foreign Minister Waldheim and SPOe chairman Kreisky. On June 5 Kreisky went on record as deploring the incomprehensible shooting, and stating that in order to prevent the world from going again through a phase of violence in political life, all people active in public life, i.e. both politicians and all others engaged in the shaping of the views and character of man, should live up to their increasing responsibility toward disseminating a climate of tolerance.

Reaction of the Man-in-the-Street: Austrians reacted with a sense of shock and personal loss as well as a wave of spontaneous sympathy to the news of the assassination which was a constant topic of conversation. Restaurants turned on television sets for satellite transmissions from New York and Washington (a rarity usually reserved for news events touching Austria and Austrians directly). Americans in Vienna were left with the impression that Austrians were reacting as though "they had lost one of their own."

American Activities: The Embassy opened books of condolence at the Chancery and at the Consular Section which were signed by a steady stream of Austrian officials, the diplomatic corp and ordinary citizens. The Embassy was also deluged with telephone calls of condolence. The Vienna Community Church held special prayers during the regular service Sunday June 9 and Christ Church (Anglican) held a memorial service on Monday June 10.

SUBJECT : Le Monde on Kennedy Assassination and Israel

REF :

Le Monde on June 7 carried a frontpage editorial relating the assassination of Robert KENNEDY to the bitterness which exists in the Middle East following the Israeli victory of last June. It ends with the phrase that "most of the Arab states, as one can see, have significantly moderated their attitude since the War of June. But their positions remain still very far from those of the Israeli Government." (Enclosure #1)

In another article in the same issue, Le Monde's Philippe BEN mentioned that Sirhan SIRHAN had carried with him an article criticizing recent declarations made by Robert Kennedy in favor of Israel and that one of two notebooks found at his domicile contained the notation, "Kennedy must die before June 5, 1968." Ben also reported that both notebooks written in Sirhan's hand dealt entirely with the Arab-Israeli War. Ben reported further that Sirhan had always refused to take American nationality and considered himself a Palestinian. Several members of his family had been assassinated at the time of the first Israeli-Arab conflict.

In the June 9 issue, Le Monde declared that its correspondent in Tel Aviv, André SCEMAMA, had reported indignation in Israeli political circles at the June 7 Le Monde editorial. Le Monde said that perusal of the integral text by Mr. Abba EBAN and his colleagues would permit them to convince themselves that Le Monde in no way sought to excuse the act of the assassin -- which it qualified as a as criminal -- nor to attribute it even indirectly to Israel. It had sought only to try to explain it. Le Monde said that "to those who accuse Le Monde of becoming a spokesman for the Arab thesis, we permit ourselves to mention that Arab authorities, conscious of the prejudice that the affair risks causing them in American opinion, are trying, quite to the contrary, to gain acceptance for the idea that Sirhan was not really Palestinian or that his hand was armed by some conspiracy: in any case, that the murder had nothing to do with the declarations of the Senator from New York on the Israeli problem, which Philippe Ben had(nevertheless) drawn attention to in the same issue of Le Monde, with clarity."

Le Monde further reported that the Communist press in Moscow, as in Paris, denounced the effort of the Mayor of Los Angeles to present the assassin as an Arab nationalist.

Le Monde contends, "to tell the truth, the act of Sirhan, like the attacks of El Fattah and the frontier incidents, now daily occurrences, show to what point the Arab-Israeli conflict has traumatized peoples' minds; if one doesn't attack the cause of this traumatism, there will not be peace in the Middle East for a long time. This is what one has not ceased to write nor shall one fail to continue to write in the columns of this paper."

A further frontpage editorial entitled, "Too Promised Land" appeared in the June 11 issue (Enclosure #2). This editorial develops Le Monde's earlier theme that it is "necessary to disarm hate, to overcome obstacles, to find, in a word, the way to peoples' hearts," and farther on, in deploring resorting to force, "What did NASSER gain by blocking the Straits of Tiran, if not to see the Star of David float over the Suez Canal?" And, "What did Israel gain by choosing, the day after a victory which opened to it enormous possibilities, the path of intransigeance and not that of magnanimity? Nahum GOLDMANN just declared in Jerusalem before the International Zionist Congress that the diplomatic position of the Jewish State had considerably weakened."

Le Monde continued, "The ruins of 20 empires attest to the contrary: that what is built by force, shall one day be swept away by force." In further support of this thesis, Le Monde said, in explaining that hate had reached unbelievable summits, that to "contest this, to think, contrary to Arab and Communist propaganda, that it (hate) could be at the origin of the criminal gesture of Sirhan Sirhan in no way means that one excuses it. Real passion and sick suspicion have taken charge of many minds if so moderate man as Mr. Abba Eban could be able to believe the contrary."

TERRE TROP PROMISE

Il n'est pas fréquent qu'un bulletin de l'étranger prenne pour point de départ un autre bulletin de l'étranger. Mais il n'est pas fréquent non plus qu'un ministre des affaires étrangères qualifie celui-ci de provocant et que son ambassadeur à Paris prenne la plume pour indiquer au directeur du « Monde » ce qu'il serait « seyant » d'écrire.

Cette émotion ne s'explique que parce que le sujet de l'article était le conflit du Moyen-Orient, de tous les drames que connaît notre planète celui qui soulève, pour des raisons dont la raison, certes, ne suffit pas à rendre compte, les plus violentes passions.

Par métier, les journalistes du « Monde » sont habitués à être pris continuellement sous les feux croisés des propagandes contradictoires, chacun cherchant, comme c'est bien naturel, à les enrôler dans son camp. L'idée qu'ils se font de leurs responsabilités, leur conviction qu'il n'y a pas, selon la belle formule du président Eisenhower, de solution de rechange à la paix, les poussent à chercher, entre les positions qu'ils entendent ainsi répéter de manière souvent lancinante, des possibilités de compromis.

Dans cet esprit, on n'a cessé depuis vingt ans d'encourager, dans ces colonnes ceux, bien rares maintenant, mais plus nombreux à certaines époques, qui, des deux côtés de la ligne de cessez-le-feu, ont cherché à dégager les grandes lignes d'un règlement à l'amiable. De même on n'a pas cessé de répéter que la force était impuissante à trancher un conflit où s'opposent non pas la justice et l'injustice, mais deux peuples aussi convaincus l'un que l'autre que le bon droit est de leur côté. Ce dont il s'agit, par conséquent, c'est de désarmer les haines, de surmonter les préventions, de chercher, en un mot, le chemin des cœurs.

Il ne manquera pas de lecteurs pour nous écrire que c'est là langage de boy-scout. Peut-être, mais la supériorité de cette méthode sur les autres est qu'on ne l'a pas encore essayée, alors que l'échec des autres est patent. Qu'a gagné le président Nasser à bloquer les détroits de Tiran, sinon de voir l'étoile de David flotter sur le canal de Suez ? Qu'a gagné Israël à choisir, au lendemain d'une victoire qui lui ouvrait d'énormes possibilités, la voie de l'intransigeance et non celle de la magnanimité ? C'est M. Nahum Goldmann qui vient de déclarer à Jérusalem devant le congrès sioniste international que la position diplomatique de l'Etat juif s'était considérablement affaiblie.

Aujourd'hui, plus que jamais, on ne songe, de part et d'autre, qu'à essayer de faire céder l'adversaire. Dans le cas des Arabes, compte tenu des moyens dont ils disposent, c'est naïf. Dans le cas des Israéliens, qui ont la force pour eux, c'est un signe d'aveuglement. Leur attitude se comprend certes à la lumière du génocide dont le cauchemar continue de hanter leurs nuits. Ils croient en avoir tiré la leçon que la force est la seule maîtresse de ce monde. Les ruines de vingt empires attestent pourtant le contraire : tout ce que bâtit la force, la force un jour l'emporte.

En attendant, la haine atteint d'incroyables sommets. Le constater, penser, à l'encontre de la propagande arabe et communiste, qu'elle pourrait être à l'origine du geste criminel de Sirham Sirhan, ne veut évidemment pas dire qu'on l'excuse. Il faut vraiment que la passion et le soupçon maladif se soient emparés de bien des cerveaux pour qu'un homme modéré comme M. Abba Eban soit pu croire le contraire, surtout après l'éditorial qui avait été consacré la veille à l'assassinat de Robert Kennedy.

Un mot d'un écrivain et diplomate israélien, David Catarivas, résume le drame du Moyen-Orient : la Palestine est une terre « trop promise ». La vérité est qu'elle a été promise à la fois aux Juifs et aux Arabes, et que toute tentative des uns pour imposer leur loi aux autres, non seulement est vaine, mais insulte à l'esprit qui a tant de fois soufflé en ces lieux.

BULLETIN DE L'ÉTRANGER

Un an après la « guerre de six jours »

Que le meurtrier de Robert Kennedy ait agi de son propre chef ou qu'il ait été l'instrument involontaire d'une sombre conspiration, le geste criminel d'un nationaliste palestinien ce 5 juin, date anniversaire de la « guerre de six jours », prend valeur de symbole. Un an après la victoire des troupes du général Dayan, vingt ans après la création de l'Etat d'Israël, jamais le désespoir et la haine n'ont été aussi intenses chez un peuple qui estime avoir été privé de patrie.

Sirhan Sirhan est précisément l'un de ces centaines de milliers de Palestiniens qui ont dû quitter leurs foyers, les uns pour trouver asile dans un pays arabe voisin, les autres pour s'établir sur une terre étrangère. Les déclarations résolument pro-israéliennes de Robert Kennedy au cours de sa campagne électorale, ses appels à l'intensification des livraisons d'armes américaines au gouvernement de M. Eshkol, ont pu exaspérer ce jeune homme de vingt-quatre ans qui, comme beaucoup de ses anciens compatriotes, ne rêve que de revanche et de « libération ».

Presque au moment de l'assassinat, de jeunes Palestiniens déposaient au cimetière arabe de Jérusalem des couronnes sur lesquelles on pouvait lire : « Aujourd'hui nous rendons hommage à nos martyrs, demain nous remporterons la victoire. » D'un bout à l'autre du monde arabe, le 5 juin a été célébré, dans la ferveur, par des grèves (dans les territoires occupés), des défilés, des manifestations et des discours prononcés par des chefs d'Etats ou de gouvernements.

Si la plupart de ces derniers se sont abstenus, cette fois-ci, de se lancer dans des diatribes belliqueuses, en se limitant à exalter la résistance palestinienne, il reste qu'une bonne partie de l'opinion arabe, profondément humiliée par la débâcle de juin dernier et indignée par l'occupation israélienne, semble persuadée que seule la violence peut parvenir à un résultat positif.

Si le roi Hussein et le président Nasser n'ont pas encore perdu tout espoir de parvenir à un règlement fondé sur la résolution votée le 22 novembre par le Conseil de sécurité, les organisations palestiniennes ont proclamé leur volonté de poursuivre la lutte armée quelle que soit l'issue de la mission de M. Jarring, le médiateur de l'O.N.U. Les attentats et les sabotages se poursuivent à un rythme jamais atteint avant la « guerre de six jours ». Le couvre-feu a été imposé à Gaza la semaine dernière après de violentes émeutes. Malgré les lourdes pertes enregistrées par les organisations de commandos — des dizaines de tués et des centaines d'arrestations, — la résistance active ou passive.

Il n'est pas dit, toutefois, que la soif de revanche l'emportera sur l'aspiration à la paix dans le cas où un règlement interviendrait entre Israël et ses voisins. Les Palestiniens, qui sont également las des vicissitudes subies depuis vingt ans, pourraient bien se résigner à l'existence d'un Etat juif si les conditions du vainqueur ne leur paraissaient pas trop draconiennes. Les exigences d'Israël concernant notamment l'ouverture de négociations directes, la signature de traités de paix comportant de nouvelles concessions territoriales, sont considérées par les dirigeants arabes comme un « diktat » intolérable. Ces derniers se déclarent prêts, en revanche, à permettre que l'Etat juif dispose de « frontières sûres et reconnues », à mettre fin à l'état de guerre et à garantir la liberté de navigation par Akaba et le canal de Suez, à condition qu'une « solution équitable » soit apportée au problème des réfugiés et, surtout, qu'Israël renonce à toute annexion.

La plupart des Etats arabes, comme on le voit, ont sensiblement modéré leur attitude depuis la guerre de juin. Mais leurs positions demeurent encore très éloignées de celles du gouvernement israélien.

SUBJECT : EAST PAKISTAN: Robert F. Kennedy Assassination Stirs Scathing Press Attacks on American Penchant for Violence and Further Disillusion with US Among Educated Bengalis

REF :

The first wave of reaction in Dacca to the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy was characterized by editorial use of the assassination to give vent to fears and to pet animosities regarding contemporary American mores and USG foreign policies and by the man on the street asking himself "What's happening to America?" Large among the devils conjured up by the murder in the swamps of Bengal are militaristic, power-hungry hawks of the Johnson Administration and well-armed lunatics that abound in American streets.

While the dismay of most educated Bengalis at the death of Senator Kennedy is doubtless sincere and common to all who admired him throughout the world, the real concern here seems to be a fear that American society is beginning to come apart at the seams. Despite the fact that there are many here who delight in seeing feathers plucked from the tail of the American eagle and many who do not approve of much that the USG has done abroad, most educated Bengalis have viewed, however, in their heart of hearts the US as ultimate surety for the non-communist world and as a place they would like to be.

The pietistic indignation of local journalists (see enclosure editorials) strikes the reader as being sophomoric in a country and province in which domestic violence abounds and petty cruelty and unconcern continually assail the eye. Yet beneath the surge of vitriol in the sincerely troubled writers and the grinding of the pure gut anti-American hacks, one senses that this latest incidence of violence in America has further chipped away at impressions that America was somehow a better, more idealistic and more equitable place in which to live than their own society.

EDITORIAL FROM MORNING NEWS OF JUNE 7, 1968

"ROBERT F. KENNEDY

The tragedy which began in the kitchen corridor of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles Tuesday night has run its awful course. Robert F. Kennedy is dead. An assassin's bullet wrote a cruel end to an impressive career and vaulting ambition which had brought the young Senator from New York to within arm's reach of the highest office in the United States. In doing so a terrible truth was re-stated: murder and violence have become a common political argument in a land which prides itself on its freedom and democratic processes. Something is horribly wrong in the United States.

It does not matter that Robert Kennedy's tremendous zest to win had for some an abrasive quality or that his obscure young assassin was motivated by ill-conceived ideals. The fact remains that the atmosphere of violence that permeates the United States makes such tragedies inevitable. Three times within four and a half years has that country, and the world, been rocked by these senseless acts of brutality. First it was the debonair President John Kennedy, then Civil Rights Leader Martin Luther King, now the murdered President's younger brother, Bobby. The explosion of bigotry, frustration and renunciation that has disrupted availability of firearms. It has led to murder and violence in the past. It will do so again in the future unless, of course, the tragedy in Los Angeles awakens the American people to the explosive dangers that confront them.

To the Kennedys the tragedy will come as a cruel quirk of fate. Seldom has a single family dedicated so much of the flower of its youth to the service of its country and has been subjected to so much vengeance and misfortune. Their immense grief will be shared by the world which has stood aghast at the tragedy in Los Angeles."

EDITORIAL FROM THE PAKISTAN OBSERVER OF JUNE 7, 1968

"ROBERT KENNEDY

Senator Robert Kennedy is dead. After successive victories at the primaries, his life has been brutally cut short by an assassin's bullets. Whether it is the dastardly act of a lunatic, or the result of a conspiracy is hard to tell yet. But the question will be asked until the truth is (which is seldom) found out. Within less than two months this is the second murder in America to shake the nation and shock the world.

Robert Kennedy the buoyant democrat-liberal entered the lists to face formidable adversaries on the eve of general elections in the U.S. His prospects were brightening in a way that amazed even his supporters. The results at South Dakota and California primaries came as a surprise to all. They were also an earnest of his success at the final polls. The impact of such a tragic event is bound to be shattering not only personally on his bereaved family, but also on the American nation as a whole. It is also a major blot on the face of democracy.

Since his brother, J.F. Kennedy, was killed by an assassin's bullet in 1963, America and American politics have been passing through crisis after crisis. The political assassinations of the kind that has just happened produce not only an immediate blighting effect. It augurs also terribly ill for the future of democracy, and for American democracy in particular. The gunman's bullet so ready to kill any political adversary must be disillusionising the rest of the world. For the moment this is a tremendous national tragedy for America alone.

It presents a sombre picture of American political scene today which is dominated by an increasing number of hawks whose morbid thinking is causing concern all over the world. The Johnson Administration's policy (in shaping which the Pentagon plays a more important role) of world domination by sheer military strength is clearly reflected in the way local politics and affairs in that country are being run. The hawks who represent a swelling number of extremists are intolerant of views different from and critical of their global strategy of extending America's supremacy to the furthest corners of the world. With more reliance put on guns than on reason and ballots sought to be influenced by bullets, violence is becoming the way of American life and politics. The thin veneer of democratic traditions is getting thinner showing the murderous claws of wild hawks who have no respect for others' liberties and lives. This is the image of the greatest democracy in the world which the trigger-happy lunatics seek to project. How many more lives will have to be sacrificed before the sick American conscience is so roused as to stem the tide of moral decay and recreate the awareness that the enlightened, sensible and peace-loving citizens do not have to take their beliefs from the power-drunk and war-mongers?

The sober and sensible citizens must be disturbed by the fact that America today is in the grip of intolerance, extremism, sociopathic activity and lawlessness. People go about freely armed with lethal weapons and do not hesitate to use them even at the slightest provocation. Enough has happened to show that the present mood is one of appeal to violence and contempt for the law which afflicts the society where freedom is supposed to speak unthrottled. Is the American society, which claims to cherish the liberties, surrendering to anarchy? If not, how is it going to save itself from this madness of the paranoiac zealots who behave like crazy characters of the Wild West?"

Enclosure No. 3
Dacca's A-323

EDITORIAL FROM SANGBAD OF JUNE 7, 1968

"THE MURDER OF ROBERT KENNEDY

Senator Robert F. Kennedy, one of the persons seeking the nomination of the Democratic Party for the Presidency for the U.S. November elections, has been murdered. Robert F. Kennedy has been murdered in the same manner that his older brother John F. Kennedy was shot while he was President. The assailants, however, were more cruel this time. Robert Kennedy, one of the friends of Martin Luther King, was shot at close range before the stains of the blood of Luther King could dry up. Luther King was a peace-loving leader of the negroes' civil-right movement, who also was killed by an assassin's bullet. There was no benefit from carrying him to the hospital. The assassin could not have missed his target. There is no pause in the activities of conspirators; yet there have been no precautions by the Security agencies. Groups of the murderers are moving like bloodthirsty, man-eater wolves. The U.S. is the country of the CIA and the FBI; but detectives cannot find these wolves.

Clever American spokesmen are spreading nets of dollars throughout the underdeveloped countries of the world with the declared purpose of setting up administrative order; but these administrative systems and their masters are themselves victims of criminals in the very country which gives the dollars. Who will seek out the murderers?

Today the whole world again is condemning the U.S. It is an open secret that those who have killed hundreds of thousands of men, women and children with Napalm bombs in Vietnam, will not spare the people of their own country. It is a consequence of imperialist lust. It is a consequence of setting up a bastion of power on the hill of capitalistic profit.

The tragic death of Robert Kennedy is a disaster for the members of his family. It is a very lamentable matter. Possibly the Kennedy family was prepared for this.

There is a serious rift in American social and political life, and gangsterism has taken hold in every sphere. The scope for recognition of human values is very limited. The struggle for principles has become the object of mockery. Above all, there are vested interests. So, the attack on Robert F. Kennedy was not quite unexpected. Still, the whole world is bewildered at another murder. Can there be any language to condemn this henious action and the persons behind it? This is not the time for a detailed analysis of this tragic event. Today every sincere man and woman of America are judging it seriously. There the masses, the intelligentsia, workers, students, youths, negroes and white revolutionaries, who are struggling for peace, progress, social and political emancipation, are definitely thinking in terms of striking back. We know that they will not give up, however adverse the situation may be. Today, if anybody has the slightest remaining fascination for American dollar civilisation, or in other words imperialist capitalism, it has been lost. We want that the death of Robert Kennedy be useful in destroying this fascination among the American masses, who so long have been unconcerned. Particularly, we want American labor which has indulged in violence under the leadership of the A.F. of L. and the C.I.O. to come out into the streets and abandon their inertia. While expressing our sympathy for the bereaved Kennedy family, we appeal to the American conscience not to disgrace it anymore."

SUBJ: REACTION TO KENNEDY ASSASSINATION

1. GENERAL. AMONG NEARLY ALL GREEKS, ASSASSINATION OF ROBERT F. KENNEDY HAS PRODUCED SHOCK, DISMAY, AND INDIGNATION. FROM VARIETY OF CONTACTS, WE HAVE DETECTED GENUINE FEELINGS OF SYMPATHY FOR KENNEDY FAMILY, AS WELL AS DEEP CONCERN OVER OVER GENERAL COURSE OF EVENTS IN UNITED STATES. KILLING OF KENNEDY HAS UNQUESTIONABLY DAMAGED AMERICAN PRESTIGE IN GREECE.

2. PRESS. GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS HAVE BEEN ALLOWED AND, IN FACT, ENCOURAGED TO GIVE FULL PLAY TO RFK ASSASSINATION AND ALL DETAILS SURROUNDING IT, INCLUDING US AND BRITISH PRESS SPECULATION ON THIS SUBJECT. GREEK OFFICIAL AND UNOFFICIAL REACTIONS HAVE ALSO BEEN FULLY COVERED BY PRESS -- FROM MILITARY REGIME'S WELL-PUBLICIZED EXPRESSIONS OF REGRET AND SORROW ON THIS OCCASION; KING'S MORE SOBER CABLE OF CONDOLENCE; STORY OF HOW ELDERLY MAN IN PELOPONESE DROPPED DEAD ON HEARING NEWS OVER RADIO; TO REPORT OF LAYING OF LAUREL WREATH "TO THE PRESIDENT OF PEACE" BY ANONYMOUS GREEK STUDENT AT US EMBASSY FLAG POLE. EDITORIALLY, TRADITIONALLY RIGHTIST PAPERS HAVE PAID TRIBUTE TO RFK, AND "ETHNOS" (PRO-CENTER UNION PRIOR TO APRIL 21, 1967 COUP) LIKENED HIS CASE TO THAT OF ANCIENT GREEK TRAGEDY AND SAID: "WORLD NOW AWAITS 'CATHARSIS' SO THAT US MAY RID ITSELF OF 'MIASMA' AND REGAIN CONFIDENCE OF WORLD." TO VIMA AND TO NEA (ALSO FORMERLY PRO-CENTER UNION), WHICH HAVE SYSTEMATICALLY ESCHEWED COMMENTING ON DEVELOPMENTS SINCE "REVOLUTION", WERE SILENT EDITORIALLY, BUT MADE THEIR PRO-RFK FEELINGS ABUNDANTLY CLEAR IN THEIR HEADLINES AND BETWEEN LINES.

3. OFFICIAL. THOUGH PRIMIN PAPADOPOULOS AND REGENT ZOITAKIS SENT MESSAGES OF CONDOLENCE (FORMER HAVING DISPATCHED DIPLOMATIC AIDE TO EMBASSY TO CONVEY THESE SENTIMENTS TO ME) AND PM OBVIOUSLY PERMITTED PRESS FREE REIGN IN REPORTING ON RFK ASSASSINATION, WE SUSPECT THAT SOME JUNTA MEMBERS ACTUALLY BELIEVE HIS PASSING FROM SCENE IS IN THEIR INTEREST. ONE JUNTA OFFICER TOLD EMBASSY SOURCE KENNEDY'S DEATH WILL HELP PRESENT GOG BECAUSE (A) IT HAS DRAMATIZED VIOLENCE IN US AND PEACE AND QUIET IN GREECE, (B) IT HAS ELIMINATED AS CANDIDATE FOR US PRESIDENCY A MAN WHO WAS ANTI-GREEK REGIME AND (C) WHEN US OFFICIALS AGAIN RAISE QUESTION OF RESTORING DEMOCRACY IN GREECE, IT WILL PERMIT JUNTA TO REPLY IN EFFECT: "WHAT KIND OF DEMOCRACY? YOUR KIND?

4. PUBLIC. THOUGH THESE SELF-SERVING AND PARTISAN VIEWS MAY EXIST AMONG JUNTA FOLLOWERS, WE FEEL BULK OF GREEK POPULATION WAS SINCERELY MOVED BY RFK'S DEATH. FOR MANY ANTI-REGIME GREEKS HE HAD BECOME A RAY OF HOPE. RIGHTLY OR WRONGLY, IMPRESSION HAD GROWN THAT, IF RFK HAD WON NOMINATION AND BEEN ELECTED PRESIDENT, USG WOULD HAVE ACTED TO OUST JUNTA FROM POWER. MORE GENERALLY, DEATH OF KENNEDY HAS CREATED SERIOUS DOUBT AND CONCERN IN MINDS OF GREEK PEOPLE ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING IN AMERICAN SOCIETY, PARTICULARLY IN WAKE OF ASSASSINATIONS OF JOHN F. KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING AND RACE RIOTS IN VARIOUS US CITIES. NATURAL INSTINCT OF GREEKS HAS BEEN TO SEE A SERIES OF CONSPIRACIES IN ALL THESE EVENTS. MORE SERIOUS THOUGHT AMONG GREEKS, HOWEVER, HAS BEEN WHETHER US IS CAPABLE OF CONTINUING TO PROVIDE INSPIRATION AND LEADERSHIP TO PEOPLES THROUGHOUT WORLD. DAILY "AKROPLIS" EXPRESSED ITS DOUBT BY PRINTING DRAWING OF STATUE OF LIBERTY WITH TORCH LOWERED AND SMOKING. GP-3

SUBJECT : Mourning in Bombay for Senator Robert F. Kennedy

REF :

The untimely death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy was the occasion for eulogies and innumerable expressions of sympathy in Bombay. Many of these also reflected concern at conditions in the United States and the world at large that permitted such acts of violence to happen.

In addition to newspaper stories and editorials, letters, signatures in a condolences book, and oral expressions, there were three memorial functions on June 10: a mass at the Catholic Cathedral, a public meeting sponsored by the International Club of India, and a sundown ceremony on the lawns of the Consulate General. The first and last were well attended and impressive. The second function, because of inadequate preparation, had only a small audience; but it was notable for the excellence of the verbal tributes by a number of distinguished speakers. The Archbishop of Bombay, Cardinal Gracias, took an active part in all three ceremonies.

If desired by the bereaved family, the condolences book which was available for signature at the Consulate General from June 6 to June 12 and the principal notes of sympathy will be forwarded. All of the latter were acknowledged, and letters of appreciation were sent to Cardinal Gracias; to Mr. G. L. Mehta, President of the Indo-American Society, who spoke at two of the functions; and to Mr. S. K. Patil, the President of the International Club of India.

Press coverage will be reported separately by USIS.

SUBJECT : Death of Senator Robert Kennedy

REF : Addis Ababa 4202; USIAC, June 6; and Others

The death of Senator Robert Kennedy caused profound shock, confusion, and bitterness among educated Ethiopians. There has been widespread support for the viewpoint expressed in the Ethiopian Herald editorial of June 8 that "The American style of democracy has suddenly become at the mercy of the gun-man. The bullet is nullifying the ballot. When the ballot says yes, the bullet says no and the bullet wins." Educated Ethiopians all point out that the "wave" of assassinations in the U. S. appears aimed at individuals who are advocates of domestic social change and revision of foreign policy, and they argue from this that the assassination represents an anti-democratic effort by certain elements in American society to stave off progressive developments.

However, along with this political bitterness, there is a feeling of sadness and sympathy which has been expressed to us by many educated Ethiopians. Conscious of the strains which the American political system is now facing, and fully aware of the difficulties of carrying out peaceful social change under any political system, many Ethiopians have speculated at length on the possibility that the United States might lose some of its democratic characteristics as a result of present social clashes. They hope that this will not come about, but some are mildly pessimistic.

Also on June 9 a separate religious service was held at the Roman Catholic Holy Savior Church in Addis Ababa. During this ceremony a wreath was laid by Brig. General and Mrs. James M. Shepherd, Chief of MAAG/Ethiopia.

On Friday, June 7, the Ethiopian Parliament observed a moment of silence in honor of Senator Kennedy before the opening of its regular session.

The Catholic Archbishop of Addis Ababa has announced that a memorial service will be held in the Cathedral in Addis Ababa on Friday, June 14. The Ambassador will attend.

A book of condolences was opened in the Embassy Chancery on June 7 and was kept open until the conclusion of the memorial service Sunday afternoon. The book was signed by Ministers and other officials of the Imperial Ethiopian Government, the diplomatic corps, and members of the local American Community. The book is enclosed for the Kennedy family.

SUBJECT : Reaction in Croatia and Slovenia to Assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy

REF :

As elsewhere, the first reports on the shooting of Senator Robert F. Kennedy produced a mood of shock and surprise among the citizens of Croatia and Slovenia. The Consulate General received numerous telephone inquiries for the latest news while Senator Kennedy lay in critical condition in a Los Angeles hospital. Following the announcement of his death, the mood changed to one of disbelief and sorrow among elements friendly to the United States.

Press reaction to the assassination shifted rapidly from early straight news stories and expressions of sympathy for the Kennedy family to what appeared to be a concerted campaign of editorial comment designed to convince readers that the U.S. is seized by an irresolvable deep-seated domestic crisis which by its nature provides and promotes an atmosphere conducive to acts of violence, including "political assassination." Editorial comment has strongly suggested that the shooting of Senator Kennedy followed logically from the atmosphere of fear and frustration allegedly being generated in the United States in the wake of an inability to resolve the Vietnam war and domestic social ills.

The unusually severe negative commentaries in the Yugoslav press on the U.S. domestic scene may in part have been sparked by pressing domestic propaganda needs. Senator Kennedy's death came at a time of student disorders and demands for reform in Yugoslavia. A particularly vicious denigration of the U.S. society at this juncture presumably serves the useful purpose of providing a framework of comparison with conditions in Yugoslavia and, by extension, sets forth the idea that Yugoslavs, including students, should consider themselves fortunate to be living under the system now in power.

In the wake of the news of the Senator's death, a steady stream of Zagreb citizens came to the Consulate building to stand before the American Library window display in honor of Senator Kennedy. Many stood there briefly in silent tribute, while others expressed their sorrow by placing floral tributes or by lighting vigil candles on the sidewalk in front of the window. Some University student groups, meeting in Zagreb and Ljubljana to press their demands for educational and other reforms, reportedly marked the memory of Senator Kennedy with a moment of silence. Similar expressions of tribute and sorrow were registered at church services in the consular district.

In addition to the numerous individual oral expressions of sympathy and sorrow extended to staff members, the Consulate General has received telegrams and letters of condolence from Yugoslavs in the consular district. Those directed to or addressed to the Kennedy family are being forwarded to the Embassy for appropriate onward transmittal.

SUBJECT : Senator Kennedy's Assassination

REF :

For the first time local reaction to the death of a prominent American contained strong elements of hostility as well as the suspicion of conspiracy which was also present here at the assassination of the Senator's brother, President Kennedy. Of some 50 telephone calls received by the Consulate General on the day Senator Kennedy was shot down, 30 were hostile, but of course anonymous. Such epithets as "murderers" were scrawled on cars parked around the Consulate building. These were the first overt manifestations of anti-American sentiments since pre-coup days when parades of small bands of crypto-communists along the Consulate's waterfront were an unfailing weekend feature.

A frequent comment was to the effect that the death represented a real blow to Greece, a view based on the belief common here that the Senator was pledged to assist Greece when he became President.

The conviction that the death was the result of a conspiracy is even more widely held, including nearly all of the Consulate's Foreign Service Locals, who found supporting evidence in the speed with which Attorney General Ramsey Clark denied this possibility.

On the other hand, there were a great many sincere expressions of sympathy from all classes of Greeks and, despite the coincidence of Sunday and the Whit Monday holiday, many called at the Consulate to sign a Book of Condolences made available.

The British Consul General held the annual Queen's Birthday Reception, but prefaced the traditional toast to the Queen with a surprisingly moving tribute to the Senator and the Kennedy family.

SUBJECT: REACTION TO SENATOR KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION

1. JAPAN RECEIVED NEWS OF SENATOR KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION WITH DEEP REGRET AT THE LOSS OF A FRIEND. FROM THE TIME OF HIS VISIT IN 1962, THE MOST SUCCESSFUL GOOD-WILL VISIT JAPAN HAS EVER HAD, KENNEDY HAD BEEN FOR JAPAN THE PERSONIFICATION OF ALL THAT IS MOST POSITIVE ABOOUT AMERICA, AND JAPAN SOMEHOW FELT THE ESTEEM WAS MUTUAL. THE SENATOR THUS HAD MORE POPULARITY THAN THAT WHICH HE INHERITED FROM HIS ELDER BROTHER.

2. IMMEDIATE REACTIONS: (A) JAPANESE HAVE LINED UP BY THE HUNDREDS AT OUR EMBASSY AND CONSULATES TO EXPRESS CONDOLENCES--TELEGRAMS AND LETTERS CONTINUE TO FLOW IN. EVENTS SURROUNDING SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH HAVE BEEN GIVEN FULL AND IMMEDIATE COVERAGE BY ALL MEDIA. IN NEXT FEW WEEKS, MEANING OF EVENT CAN BE EXPECTED TO DRAW ADDITIONAL COMMENTARY AND ANALYSIS. (B) SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH IS SEEN BY SOME JAPANESE AS THE SLAYING OF A DOVE. THEY

QUESTION WHETHER THERE WILL BE A NEW STANDARD-BEARER TO REPLACE HIM AND FEAR ANOTHER BARRIER HAS BEEN ERECTED ON ROAD TO PEACE IN VIETNAM.

3. ASSASSINATION WILL SOMEWHAT WEAKEN OUR INFLUENCE IN JAPAN. EVEN OUR FRIENDS SEEM TO BE ASKING US TO REMEDY SOCIAL ILLS THAT THEY ASSUME PRODUCED THE ASSASSINATION BEFORE THEY CAN AGAIN HAVE FAITH IN U.S. AS LEADER OF FREE WORLD. RELEVANCE TO ASSASSINATION OF ILLS THEY ARE ASKING US TO REMEDY IS FAR-FETCHED, AND MANY ASTUTE OBSERVERS WILL COME TO REALIZE THIS. HOWEVER, POLITICAL INFLUENCE OF U.S. IN JAPAN IS IN GOOD PART A MATTER OF OUR POPULAR IMAGE, AND THIS HAS RECEIVED A NEW SHOCK. ADDITIONALLY, SENATOR KENNEDY WAS CONSIDERED BY MANY JAPANESE AS SYMPATHETIC PUBLIC FIGURE, SORT OF "FRIEND AT COURT", AND HIS LOSS THUS WEAKENS ANOTHER SENTIMENTAL BOND. KENNEDY ALSO PROBABLY HELPED OVERALL BALANCE OF EMOTIONS ABOUT VIETNAM. THOUGH SOME HAWKS IN JAPAN WERE UNEASY ABOUT KENNEDY'S POSITIONS ON THIS ISSUE, HIS VOICE WAS REASSURING TO MANY. TO THIS EXTENT ASSASSINATION HAS PERHAPS SLIGHTLY HEIGHTENED UNREAL FEARS OF AMERICA'S "MILITARY ADVENTURISM" IN ASIA. HOWEVER, OVER LONG RUN, AS WE AND JAPAN MOVE TOWARD MORE COLDLY RATIONAL RELATION BASED ON REAL CALCULATIONS OF COMMON NATIONAL INTEREST (AND THIS SEEMS TO US DIRECTION WE MAY BE HEADING), POLITICAL AND SENTIMENTAL ELEMENTS MAY COME TO HAVE LESS WEIGHT. SEEN FROM SUCH LONG-RANGE STANDPOINT, ASSASSINATION WILL STILL HAVE BEEN A BAD THING FOR US-JAPAN RELATIONS, BUT NOT MAJOR DETERMINANT.

BEGIN UNCLASSIFIED:

The June 6 edition of the Montevideo weekly Marcha (intellectual, extreme left) carried an extraordinarily venomous, anti-U.S. editorial on the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. It was written by Carlos QUIJANO, Marcha's director.

Quijano concedes that the assassin of Robert Kennedy may not have been the specific agent of a conspiracy, but he declares that the assassination is a reflection of United States society, "which is itself a conspiracy." It is a society of "gangsters," of "lynchers of Negroes," of "Mafia thugs," of "pointless life and pointless death." It is a society which has made possible the "genocide of Viet Nam," the "lies of McNamara," "the invasion of the Bay of Pigs," the "slaughter of Santo Domingo," the "support of dictators" throughout the world. Since Americans are "taught to kill abroad," Quijano says, they quite naturally kill at home. He declares: "The United States--that diabolical power--is today the greatest danger to humanity."

Quijano says Americans are dehumanized shadows whose lives are filled with emptiness from the cradle to the grave. It is quite natural that they should resort to "drugs, alcohol, and violence."

There are occasional Americans like Robert Kennedy, Quijano says, who raise their heroic voices against certain aspects of the American system, but they tend to fall victims of its "fire," of its "violence and madness." The only possible consolation is that the American Quijano concludes: "Our enemy is the United States and we are at war with it. Regardless of who its next President is, that war will continue."

END UNCLASSIFIED
Comment: The Embassy has long considered Quijano a Marxist (see airgram under reference). His article on the Kennedy assassination not only confirms this evaluation, but reveals him as a psychopathic enemy of the United States. A Prensa Latina or New China News Agency blast could hardly contain more vitriol than his editorial.

The Embassy has been increasingly concerned of late over the possible long-range impact of Marcha on the minds of educated Uruguayans. Since it is well written and the only intellectual weekly in the country, many responsible, non-Marxist people read it and are no doubt swayed by its extreme leftist, anti-U.S. fare. If anything, it appears to have veered further to the left in recent months under the baton of an ever more anti-American Quijano.

SUBJECT : Memorial Services for Robert F. Kennedy in Amsterdam

REF : -------

The City of Amsterdam and the private John F. Kennedy Foundation held a memorial service for Robert Francis Kennedy on Saturday, June 8th at the John F. Kennedy Memorial on Kennedylaan in this city. Despite a driving rain at least one thousand persons were in attendance, with hundreds more standing on roof tops and observing from open windows in the neighborhood.

Wreaths were laid at the monument by Mayor Samkalden, the Director of the Netherlands-America Institute, this Consul General, and groups of Amsterdam school children. Speakers were: the Mayor, this Consul General, a Protestant Minister and a Rabbi. A Catholic priest led the assembled group in prayer.

Significantly, telegrams of condolence from Peter COHEN, Preident of the General National Student Association, and from the students of the Free University of Amsterdam were read at the services.

The Mayor then led the entire assemblage past the monument and the wreaths in a silent march. Later, hundreds of those in attendance visited the Consulate General to sign the register expressing condolences to the Kennedy family. (Incidentally, a steady stream of visitors to the Consulate General throughout Thursday, Friday and Saturday signed the register, filling several books which will be included among those to be sent to the Kennedy family from the Embassy.)

A lighted oil lamp was placed at the monument. It is the intention of the John F. Kennedy Foundation to replace the symbolical oil lamp with a permanently flaming torch.

TEXT OF SPEECH HELD BY CONSUL GENERAL HAROLD E. HOWLAND DURING COMMEMORATIVE SERVICE FOR ROBERT FRANCIS KENNEDY ON SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1968 IN AMSTERDAM

Mijnheer de Burgemeester, Dames en Heren:

Voor mijn aanstelling in Amsterdam woonde ik dicht bij de Robert Kennedy familie. De tragiek van zijn dood is voor mij een persoonlijk verlies. Ieder van zijn tien kinderen betekent iets voor ons. Hij was een goed, medelevend en trouw dienaar van ons volk. En nu is Robert Kennedy dood, in de kracht van zijn leven.

Mag ik een telegram voorlezen, dat ik van President Johnson ontving en dat naar mijn mening het beste uiting geeft aan wat er in onze harten leeft:

> "This is a time of tragedy and loss. Senator Robert F. Kennedy is dead.
> "Robert Kennedy affirmed this country -- affirmed the essential decency of its people, their longing for peace, their desire to improve conditions of life for all.
> "During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy.
> "Yet, he never abandoned his faith in America. He never lost his confidence in the spiritual strength of ordinary men and women.
> "He believed in the capacity of the young for excellence -- and in the right of the old and poor to a life of dignity.
> "Our public life is diminished by his loss. Mrs. Johnson and I extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy and his family. I have issued a proclamation calling upon our nation to observe a day of mourning for Robert Kennedy."

En vandaag, hier in Amsterdam, sluiten wij ons aan bij President Johnson, Mevrouw Kennedy en het Amerikaanse volk in hun rouw over Robert Kennedy. Ik dank allen die aan de voorbereiding van dit herdenkingsuur hebben meegewerkt, al onze Hollandse vrienden die hun condoleances hebben aangeboden, en al de inwoners van dit land, waarvan wij weten dat zij in ons zware verlies delen.

SUBJECT : Views of the Casablanca Left on the Assassination of Senator Kennedy and the American Presidential Election

REF :

Beneath a surface reserve and embarrassment -- the product of apprehensions over Sirhan's identification as an Arab and over the possible political use the Istiqlal Party domestically and virulently pro-Arab groups abroad may make of the affair -- members of the Casablanca Left have shared a deep sorrow and concern over the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

The sorrow reflects their profound and longstanding sense of identification with the Kennedy family. They greatly admired the late President Kennedy, were immensely flattered when Senator Edward Kennedy visited Casablanca in late 1966 and met with leaders of the local Left, and took a direct and personal interest in the presidential candidacy of Senator Robert Kennedy (a small but typical example has been a secretary at the Union Marocaine du Travail (UMT) who has repeatedly told the drafting officer that she prayed each night for Senator Kennedy's election).

The impact of the murders of Senator Kennedy and Dr. King coupled with the press accounts of racial and student disorders have raised concern over the viability of American society and over the future personal safety of any American political leader like the Kennedys.

If the Casablanca leftists are convinced that the outcome of the 1968 American presidential election is of grave consequence for the world and for Morocco, they have little conception at present of what the outcome and its consequences might be and, indeed, have displayed surprising ignorance of American politics and the current candidates for the presidency.

For example, there has been a prevalent belief (shared by former Prime Minister Ibrahim) that Senator Kennedy had already won the Democratic nomination. The other Democratic candidates have been scarcely known and held in low regard: Vice President Humphrey because he is locally believed to be Jewish and Senator McCarthy because he is thought to be related to the late Senator Joseph McCarthy and his views. On the Republican side, Mr. Nixon is slightly better known but only in the historic context of the Eisenhower Presidency. The personal background and particular views of each of these candidates, as well as other dark horse presidential aspirants, are unknown to the Casablanca Left.

If the astonishing ignorance of persons, policies, and politics in the current U.S. presidential election by the leaders and members of the Casablanca Left is typical of political figures in other countries, there is an evident need for considerable background material, translated into local languages, on the election and its candidates. The Consulate General would particularly recommend the translation and use of campaign biographies, or excerpts thereof, as a means of describing and bringing to life the individual presidential candidates for foreign target audiences.

Public and private reaction within the Republic of Korea to the assassination of Senator Kennedy was highly emotional, and such substantive comment as did appear was devoted largely to questioning the ability of the American society to surmount the challenges it faces at home and abroad. Amidst all these expressions of doubt, a columnist for the Choson Ilbo saw fit to use this occasion to express in eloquent terms a reaffirmation of Korean faith in the United States. ANOTHER PRAYER

By Korean standards, few seemed more blessed than Joseph P. Kennedy was. To speak of longevity, he has lived eighty years. As for wealth, he is one of the wealthiest men in the world's richest country. He has nine children, and tens of grandchildren. He himself was once the Ambassador to England, and his sons have been or are the U.S. President, Cabinet member, and U.S. senators. But a storm of misfortune is blowing against his family. His eldest son was killed in World War II; his second son was assassinated at the summit of glory; and his third son has just been shot down while campaigning for the presidency.

What the old man must feel now is apprehensible enough to anybody. But we should note that his way of thinking is entirely different, in some aspect, from that of ours. Faced with a similar tragedy, some of us might feel like ascribing it, say, to the geomantically unlucky situation of their ancestral tombs. Others might let the rest of their sons wash their hands of politics. But the Kennedys apparently would not yield to all these mishaps. The younger brother rose where his big brother had fallen. If the younger brother is also downed, his little brother will come forth. If he, too, should fall, his sons and grandsons would show up. This is the pioneer spirit of America. It is the die-hard will of American struggle.

In the Kennedys we see a symbol of the American spirit. Their country has been blessed--blessed with wealth, prosperity, and power. But she has come to face serious troubles of late. More than once, the Goddess of Liberty has shed tears, staining her clothes. But America never resigns, nor falls down for good. She will rise again and spring out of the quagmire of violence, plot, and depravity. May her liberty and peace always overwhelm the forces of injustice! So pray all her allies.

SUMMARY

In compliance with the Department's reftel this airgram discusses the classified aspects of the assassination, excluding as much unclassified material as possible without sacrificing coherence. A separate unclassified airgram will be transmitted shortly.

While local news coverage of the assassination was extraordinarily extensive, editorial comment has been meager, and only one editorial used the tragedy for an unqualified attack on the U.S. Condolences from officials and private citizens have been sparse, with most such expressions coming from consular corps colleagues and the Anglophone community. I thought it best not to notify officially the host government of our condolence book or our modest memorial service, although the latter was advertised in the funeral notices section of the local press. The local citizenry has been intensely interested but very few share our sense of loss or regret our troubles.

NEWS MEDIA

As noted in our reftel, local press coverage of the attack on and death of Senator Kennedy was extraordinarily extensive and essentially factual. No editorials appeared until June 7, and there have been only three since then. Only one editorial--that in the June 7 edition of Diario, the Church-owned daily in Lourenco Marques -- took advantage of the tragedy, through expressions of sorrow, to announce the final failure of democracy and raise the spectre of conspiracy as a reflection of a "sick nation". This editorial, on the left-hand side of the page, was signed only with the initial "A".

Significantly, the editor (and second-in-charge) of Diario made a condolence call on me only a few hours after the paper appeared, stayed for some thirty minutes, and was especially sympathetic. I asked him who wrote the editorial, and he said that he did not know but that he would find out and let me know. He has not called back. I think it probable that the editorial was written either by the director of the newspaper, by the Archbishop, or by a senior official of the Banco Nacional Ultramarino (co-owner of the paper with the Church), as these are the only people outside the secular government whom the editor could neither edit nor identify to me. I view the editor's visit as an attempt to personally disassociate himself from the editorial.

Translations of these editorials, and any more of substance that may come in, will be transmitted as enclosures to the subsequent unclassified airgram.

HOST COUNTRY OFFICIALS AND PROTOCOL

Most of the elite in Lourenco Marques no doubt have been hoping that Kennedy would not be the next President, if for no other reason than that he has been closely associated in their minds with President Kennedy's African policy and with Governor Williams. It is also a reasonable assumption that most of them read the extensive factual coverage of the assassination as further evidence of the weakness of our system of government and the dangerous immaturity of Americans.

Under these circumstances, and of course lacking precedents, the Consulate General sought appropriately to reflect national sorrow, cohesion, dignity and faith without violating local protocol, embarrassing host country or foreign consular officials, or risking local rebuff. We opened a condolence book without public or official notice, even to the Dean of the Consular Corps, although the entire Consular Corps was made aware informally of its existence. As we received no condolences or expressions of regret from any Portuguese clergyman, and as there was no American Catholic parish priest here, we felt it inappropriate to request a memorial service (which would have been in Portuguese) that could have placed the local Catholic Church in the position of turning us down or at least might have caused the local government to feel it appropriate to tell its own officialdom not to attend.

However, the rector of the local Anglican Church, a British subject who by chance is the senior Anglican clergyman in Mozambique at the moment in the absence of the Bishop, on June 7 volunteered to give a memorial service. I accepted and we placed a black-bordered advertisement among the funeral notices of both local newspapers on June 8, for a service on June 9. Again I thought it best not to bring this formally to the attention of either the local government or the foreign consular corps through its dean. However, we did notify by telephone or in person all members of the small American community who were in town at the time. The service, which will be described more fully in the subsequent unclassified airgram, was in good taste, attended primarily by Americans and British with a few South Africans, but virtually no Portuguese. Fortunately the church was small, holding only about 80 people, and it was therefore full.

The few host country officials who have either signed the book or sent written condolences -- mostly the latter -- are among those whom I might have expected to do so out of courtesy to me, as they are mostly people I know quite well. Perhaps more significant is the fact that many other officials with whom I and/or other officers have frequent official and social contact, and virtually all the local citizenry who are supposedly anti-establishment, have made no gesture or remark whatever. Included in this group are several people who have talked to us on other matters since the assassination. Only two ConGen local employees (out of 9) expressed their condolences to me or otherwise. One was the Consulate General's African receptionist/chauffeur, who sought me out and spoke to me almost immediately after the Senator's death, and the other was our most junior secretary (of Greek rather than Portuguese origin), who attended the church service. Conversely, our entire household staff -- all Africans -- did give us their condolences.

CONCLUSIONS:

The typical personal reaction of the elite here no doubt was about what one might expect: Great interest, further support for the Portuguese belief that theirs is an older and more civilized society that has no obligation to listen to us or to sympathize with our troubles, and somewhat improved hopes that the next U.S. Administration will at least not be still less sympathetic to them. Many of our personal acquaintances are obviously less courteous or less hypocritical than I would have expected.

1. IT BECAME EVIDENT IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING ASSASSINATION OF KENNEDY THAT AFRICANS AND FRENCH ALIKE HERE SAW ACT AS PART OF SAME "CONSPIRACY" WHICH THEY BELIEVE TOOK LIVES OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING. THIS INSTANT REACTION STEMS IN PART FROM FACT ALL THREE CLOSELY IDENTIFIED WITH CIVIL RIGHTS, AND FROM TYPICAL EUROPEAN OR EUROPEAN-ORIENTED MENTALITY WHICH ALWAYS ASKS "WHO PROFITS FROM THIS ACT?".

2. WHILE IT IS APPARENT THAT SENEGALESE AND FRENCH WISH TO SEE A PLOT, IT IS ALSO OBVIOUS THAT THEY WISH THIS IMAGINED PLOT TO TAKE FORM THEY DESIRE. THUS, DAKAR-MATIN HAS CAREFULLY POINTED OUT THAT SIRHAN WAS NOT MUSLIM, THEREFORE DID NOT ACT AS INSTRUMENT OF ANTI-ISRAELI ORGANIZATION (SIC).

3. AS OPINION HERE, AND I SUSPECT ELSEWHERE IN AFRICA AND THIRD WORLD, JELLS DURING CRUCIAL EARLY HOURS, EXTREMELY CAUTIOUS OFFICIAL AMERICAN APPROACH AND POSSIBLE OVER-AWARENESS OF ARAB SENSITIVITIES IS LEAVING THE FIELD TO THE ENEMY. ALREADY WIDELY QUOTED IS HUMANITE REMARK THAT SENATOR'S DEATH IS RESULT OF "LINE OF CONSPIRACY" BEGINNING WITH PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S DEATH. MUCH CRITICAL TIME HAS ALREADY BEEN LOST, AND LITTLE TIME IS LEFT US TO CATCH UP TO ACCUSATION. AND THESE ACCUSATIONS, IF NOT KNOCKED DOWN, WILL PLAGUE US FOR YEARS TO COME IN AFRICA AND ELSWHERE.

SUBJECT : Commemoration of Death of Senator Robert Kennedy

REF :

The murder of Senator Kennedy was given generally good coverage in the information media, however Government restraint was evident in interpretation of the event. Apparently because of the Arab origin of the presumed assassin and for "anti-imperialist" reasons, official regrets were not expressed and editorializing went so far as to suggest a Zionist plot. There were copious quotes from commentators who spoke of America's sick society, and the unnecessary remarks by Los Angeles Mayor Yorty were also given good coverage. The late Senator's recent remarks in support of Israel were apparently not forgiven and also contributed to the unbecoming silence and absence of official regrets at his passing.

In view of this atmosphere and of the generally poor state of U.S.-Algerian relations, a memorial service was not organized. A memorial book was opened in the Chancery and was signed by those who knew of it. A copy of the signatures is enclosed for the record, which should note also other expressions of sympathy. Members of this mission received numerous telephone calls and letters from non-Algerian friends registering deep grief and condolences. There is enclosed a typical list of those who telephoned to me. Numerous other non-Algerians also expressed regret at receptions and dinners which we recently attended. Enclosed for the Department and Kennedy archives are copies of letters received from diplomatic and other friends. Each letter has been appropriately acknowledged.

Because of the official Algerian attitude described above, it would be embarrassing, at least under present circumstances, to disclose the names of the several Algerians who took initiative to condole us.

Cher Collègue et Ami,

C'est avec une profonde émotion et consternation que j'ai appris la triste nouvelle de l'issue fatale de l'attentat contre le Sénateur Robert Kennedy.

Dear Lewis,

I just heard in the radio the sad news. The murder attempt against Dulles is a horrible crime, a crime against humanity, a criminal act against a courageous man, against America, against the whole humanity. What happens to Americans, happens to all of us. America must overcome this horrible deterioration of human relations. Otherwise all values of the human life, the understand them, will be compromised.

SUBJECT : Preliminary Assessment and Documents on Senator Kennedy's Assassination

REF : Bamako A-170, June 21, 1968

JOINT EMBASSY-USIS MESSAGE

SUMMARY: This airgram contains attachments for transmission to the Kennedy family and offers a preliminary assessment of Malian reaction to the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

Any final assessment of the effects of Senator Kennedy's death upon Malian opinion will have to be made long after the fact. The effects already appear to be of the magnitude to require the passage of considerable time before their full import is played out in the local psychological atmosphere.

* * * * *

Following on the heels of the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King, Senator Kennedy's violent death seemed to drive home Malian impressions of the United States as a violent society. This image derives from historical as well as contemporary developments and is partly a reflection of the old French colonial view of the United States as a "cowboy" society, given to violence such as one sees in some American commercial films. The "American war" in Vietnam, the presence of the United States in military confrontations around the globe since the end of World War II, and the double standard of morality often applied to American and opposing actions on the international scene, all contribute toward our image as a violent society. The impact of the three major assassinations in American political life within the past few years has been doubly important because each seemed to be the violent end of a proponent of the principles Malians admire and which they were heartened to see championed.

The roles of President Kennedy, his brother and Martin Luther King in civil rights and their direct connections with African problems of racism and apartheid deepen the emotional impact of their violent deaths.

This aspect of the problem may leave the most lasting impression in years to come, especially if racial tensions increase in the United States or on the world scene.

The handful of non-staff Malians who signed the memorial book (Enclosure 1) in the Embassy for the most part only gave their names. The diplomatic corps offered universally sympathetic remarks. Only one Malian took the trouble to express his opinions in detail. Interestingly, he diametrically opposed the official opinion given in L'Essor June 7 (see Bamako USINFO June 8), which viewed Senator Kennedy's death as an outgrowth of the violence bred in American society because of its "capitalistic system" (see Bamako 1856, 1860). Our single sympathetic commentator placed American political violence in the context of similar problems elsewhere in the world and asked if all human societies should be condemned because of the violence which all have exhibited at one time or another (Enclosure 2).

In addition to the above comments, former Malian Ambassador to the U. S., Abdoulaye Maiga, wrote Ambassador Moore (Enclosure 3), expressing his sorrow, observing that "The hysteria that seizes human beings is a seizure (crise) of our civilization." Ambassador Maiga reaffirmed his faith in the American people in their actions for justice and peace, and he enclosed a brief letter of condolence to Mrs. Robert Kennedy (Enclosure 4), with the request that it be forwarded to her. (The Embassy would be grateful if the Department would so forward this letter.)

In the public domain, the mass media have continued to follow related developments closely and rather objectively, although they have consistently reported all sensational stories arising in the aftermath of the assassination. This reflects largely the nature of the materials supplied by AFP, the major news source for Malian mass media. Probably such use of sensational stories is prompted by genuine interest as well as by ideological considerations.

The use of USIS materials has continued, although such use is selective. The President's efforts to obtain a gun control law have been publicized, for example, and a USIS newsreel on the Senator's visit to Africa has been presented in the major state-owned cinema here. In addition, USIS issued a wrap-up on official American condolences which was mailed to several hundred members of the Malian elite.

Although it is impossible to compare precisely the degree of shock felt by Malians over the deaths of President Kennedy, Dr. King and Senator Kennedy, it does seem that the Senator's death has had even more impact than that of Dr. King, following as it did so closely on Dr. King's murder. The Senator's visit to Africa, his championship of civil rights, his position on the Vietnam war--as understood by Malians--and perhaps most important, his relationship to the still revered memory of President Kennedy, all contributed to deepening the emotional reaction of Malians to his death.

The simple and direct quality seen in the relationship of his death to violence in American society is another outstanding element in the Malian reaction. Despite the fact that local media have given full coverage to the background of the alleged assassin as a resident immigrant bent on murder for the sake of his Arab homeland, there seems to be no transference of this fact into local consciousness or into the emotional reaction to the assassination. Rather, the facts of the case seem to be excluded and fantasy reigns in attributing the murder to a plot or to some general malaise in the American social system.

It is possible that events to come, such as the trial of the accused murderer, will somewhat affect the initial reaction. However, it seems unlikely that we shall see any radical transformation of opinion, given the depth of the initial reaction, unless the developments that follow are equally dramatic.

As in the assassinations of President Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, our general prestige has suffered a considerable blow, the effects of which will linger for some time to come.

TRANSLATION OF MAJOR COMMENT

FROM CONDOLENCE BOOK

Bob Kennedy is dead. Our suffering is immense. Millions of people are crying for the man who was the apostle of the poor, the weak and the poverty stricken. He is dead for the cause of peace in the world. John Kennedy, Robert Kennedy and Martin Luther King are the fine flower of the American people. The American dock workers who are not working today will cry over Bob Kennedy. The students who have remained at home, the office workers who have closed their offices, are also American people who are mourning. Therefore, the American people are not savage, nor barbarous, nor inhuman, otherwise they would not have praised Kennedy.

I am deeply saddened to see that the death of Kennedy has been used as a pretext to insult the American people, as a whole. It is America which opened the way to independence. It was the John Browns who fought in America to liberate the American Negroes. Therefore America is like other countries. Which country does not have its heros and its victims? In France Jaurez (?) was assassinated in 1914. Before him President Sadikalon (?) was assassinated. In Russia, Nicholas III, the Tsar, was assassinated. Even Lenin was a victim of an attempt. Kirov fell in 1936. And General De Gaulle escaped many times previously. Therefore all countries are savage?

I refuse to condemn the American people. They have their heroes and their victims. From death comes life. Here, therefore, I share the sorrow of the American people. Bob Kennedy was a friend to us all.

N A I R O B I, 5 JUIN - Le KENYA ne reconnaitra pas la province rebelle, a déclaré Mardi M. ARGWINGS KHODEK, Ministre d'Etat Kenyan Chargé des Affaires Etrangères, au cours d'une conférence de presse tenue conjointement par quatre Ministres Kenyans pour les participants à la Conférence de l'Institut International de la Presse.

"Nous éprouvons de l'horreur pour le massacre en cours, a ajouté M. KHODEK et nous ferons tous nos efforts pour trouver une solution. Nous déplorons l'échec des pourparlers de KAMPALA et nous espérons que dans quelques jours un compromis sera trouvé entre le NIGERIA et la province rebelle./.-

Fin de la visite de M. KENNETH KAUNDA à NAIROBI

M. KENNETH KAUNDA, Chef de l'Etat Zambien, a quitté aujourd'hui NAIROBI après une visite officielle d'une semaine au KENYA.

Il est reparti dans son avion personnel pour KAMPALA, capitale de l'OUGANDA, où il assistera à la Conférence Annuelle du Congrès Populaire Ougandais, Parti Gouvernemental.

Le Président JOMO KENYATTA et les Ministres de son Gouvernement sont venus prendre congé de M. KAUNDA à l'aéroport.

Dans un communiqué commun publié à l'issue de la visite, les deux Présidents déclarent que l'usage de la force ne doit pas être exclu pour le renversement du régime IAN SMITH, comme réponse ultime à la rebellion Rhodésienne.

"Le plan de sanctions imposé par les Nations-Unies a été contrecarré par la complicité de certains Etats sans scrupules, et en particulier l'Afrique du Sud et le Portugal déclare le communiqué.

"Les deux Présidents estiment que le Gouvernement Britannique ne doit pas tenter d'échapper à ses responsabilités. Il doit être prêt, dans l'intérêt de la justice et de l'humanité, à remplir ses obligations envers les Quatre Millions d'africains opprimés en ZIMBABWE".

"Afin d'éviter une conflagration raciale dans le continent, la démocratie et la justice doivent s'instaurer en Afrique Australe".

Au sujet du Nigéria, les deux Présidents expriment l'espoir que les négociations reprendront bientôt et qu'une solution durable et équitable sera trouvée pour mettre fin à une éffusion de sang inutile".

Ils déclarent leur soutien sans réserve à l'O.U.A., et appuient de même les propositions, émises notamment par l'Empereur HAILE SELASSIE d'ETHIOPIE, en faveur d'une conférence des pays non-alignés destinés à promouvoir la paix mondiale.

Les deux Présidents expriment leur soutien aux efforts de l'ONU pour assurer le contrôle du territoire du Sud Ouest Africain et déplorent les contretemps provoqués par le Gouvernement Sud-Africain qui défie les résolution de l'ONU.

Les deux chefs d'Etat notent le resserrement des liens politiques, économiques, techniques et commerciaux entre les deux pays. Le KENYA se félicite de la candidature Zambienne à la Communauté de l'Afrique de l'Est./.-

LE SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY VICTIME D'UN ATTENTAT A LOS-ANGELES.

-:-:-:

co-réalisateur de la chaîne A.B.C., qui a été atteint au ventre.

La police a indiqué que l'Hôtel Ambassador avait été immédiatement encerclé par les forces de l'ordre après l'attentat. Arrêté sur le champ, le tireur, a été emmené sous la protection de la police alors que la foule qui se trouvait sur les lieux voulait le lyncher.

L'état d'extrême confusion et d'abasourdissement mêlé d'horreur qui règnait à l'Hôtel Ambassador dans les minutes suivant l'attentat ont rendu très difficile le contrôle des informations les plus diverses qui ont circulé.

Voici grosso-modo le film des évènements tel qu'il a pu être reconstitué :

Minuit : Mr. Robert KENNEDY monte sur une estrade mise en place dans la salle des fêtes de l'Hôtel Ambassador. Ses partisans sont venus par centaines pour l'acclamer et un nombre impressionnant de caméras de télévision sont braqués sur lui.

Vingt minutes plus tard le sénateur de NEW-YORK descend, triomphant de l'estrade après avoir prononcé une allocution de victoire dans laquelle il a proposé au Vice-Président HUBERT HUMPHREY d'ouvrir un dialogue constructif concernant le règlement des problèmes d'ordre intérieur et international.

Zéro heure 2I : Mr. Robert KENNEDY pousse la porte battante qui conduit de la salle des fêtes aux cuisines de l'Hôtel, sur le trajet qu'il doit emprunter pour se rendre à la salle où sont installés les services de presse.

C'est là que l'assassin, qui s'était posté devant la porte des cuisines, ouvre le feu, atteignant, le sénateur, à deux endroits, à la tête et à l'épaule et blessant trois autres personnes.

L'attentat déclenche une panique indescriptible.

Zéro heure vingt trois : la police arrête un suspect. L'homme est décrit comme étant detaille moyenne Im,67 environ), de teint basané et de type Latino-Américain.

Les policiers l'éloignent aussitôt pour le soustraire à la fureur de la foule qui veut le lyncher tandis que Robert KENNEDY, qui s'était écroulé au sol baignant .../...

dans son sang, est transporté à un centre médical de première urgence dans un état qualifié de très critique.

Une heure trente : le sénateur de NEW-YORK est conduit à l'[illegible]l DU BON SAMARITAIN où un bulletin médical aussitôt publié précise qu'une balle s'est logée dans son cerveau et qu'il souffre d'une blessure superficielle à l'épaule.

Il est environ deux heures trente cinq lorsqu'une équipe de six chirurgiens, spécialistes de neurologie, commencent une opération destinée à extraire le projectile du cerveau du sénateur KENNEDY.

Précisions du chef de la police sur l'attentat contre le sénateur KENNEDY.

Il était minuit 20 à LOS ANGELES (07h.20 GMT) quand un homme a tiré des coups de feu contre Mr. Robert KENNEDY à l'Hôtel "Ambassador", a précisé Mr. TOM REDDIN, chef de la police de la ville, donnant la première version officielle de l'attentat.

Mr. REDDIN a précisé que le suspect, qui ne portait pas de papiers d'identité, a tiré les huit balles qui se trouvaient dans le chargeur de son arme, un pistolet de 22.

Deux des balles ont atteint Mr. Robert KENNEDY; l'une pénétrant par l'oreille droite s'est logée dans le cerveau : l'autre l'a touché à l'épaule.

Mr. REDDIN a précisé que le suspect avait été maîtrisé et désarmé par Rosie GREER, joueur de foot-ball de l'équipe des LOS-ANGELES RAMS qui passa le révolver à l'athlète noir RAFER JOHNSON qui lui-même le transmit à un policier.

Mr. REDDIN a déclaré que le suspect était un homme de race blanche de I mètre 67, ayant le teint mat et les cheveux abondants.

Il parle et comprend l'anglais mais refuse de répondre aux questions et n'a pas demandé l'assistance d'un avocat.

Il n'est pas possible jusqu'ici d'identifier sa nationalité, ni son accent.

Ses empreintes digitales ont été envoyées à WASHINGTON pour essayer de les identifier.../...

"Autant qu'on puisse le dire, une seule personne a pris part à cet attentat et cette impression est fondée sur les informations recueillies auprès de dizaines de personnes", a-t-il dit.

Mr. REDDIN a déclaré que le suspect avait été officiellement accusé de tentative de meurtre et qu'il serait sans doute déféré en justice demain.

Il a précisé que le F.B.I. avait offert son aide et Mr. RAMSEY CLARK, ATTORNEY Général des ETATS-UNIS a annoncé à WASHINGTON qu'il avait demandé officiellement au F.B.I. de participer à l'enquête bien que la police de LOS-ANGELES continuerait à jouer le rôle principal dans cette affaire.

Mr. REDDIN a dit que le suspect était interrogé par un policier parlant espagnol. Il a ajouté que des troubles avaient éclaté à la prison où le suspect a été emmené mais que le calme était maintenant revenu.

Il a indiqué qu'on avait tenté d'administrer les derniers sacrements à Robert KENNEDY sur les lieux de l'attentat mais que l'état d'énervement de la foule n'a pas permis de le faire. Au lieu de cela, un chapelet a été placé entre les mains de la victime et y est resté jusqu'au transfert à l'Hôpital où les derniers sacrements ont pu lui être finalement administrés.

L'opération de Robert KENNEDY.

L'opération que six Neuro-chirurgiens tentent actuellement sur la personne du sénateur Robert KENNEDY est une intervention très délicate : ôter un corps étranger situé dans le cerveau d'un homme.

La balle a perforé l'OS-MASTOIDE DROIT, et a pénétré dans le cerveau. Les Neuro-chirurgiens devront, semble-t-il, enlever et le projectile et les esquilles osseuses provoquées et entraînées par la balle.

Il est vraisemblable que les chirurgiens vont trépaner le blessé en créant un volet osseux dans la boîte cranière. Ensuite ils essaieront de rétirer le projectile avec des instruments extrêmement fins dans le but de ne pas léser davantage le cerveau. Il leur faudra également arrêter les hémorragies qui se sont produites.../...

Le succès de l'intervention dépend en fait de la localisation la plus exacte possible du corps étranger et de la précision des gestes du chirurgien. La réalisation de ces deux conditions est rendue possible par l'emploi d'un appareil dit stéréotaxique, appareil qui permet l'opération à l'intérieur du cerveau sans que le chirurgien sache visuellement où il en est.

L'état de Mr. Robert KENNEDY n'est pas désespéré.

L'adjoint au Maire de LOS-ANGELES, Mr. JOSEPH QUINN, a déclaré à 06h.40 locale (I4h.30 GMT) - que l'opération du sénateur KENNEDY avait pris fin et que les médecins étaient "quelque peu encouragés.

L'opération a duré quatre heures.

Mr. QUINN a fait cette déclaration en sortant de l'hôpital où l'opération a été effectuée par six chirurgiens. Il a ajouté que le Sénateur est l'objet de soins intenses mais qu'il ne sera pas possible de savoir avant deux ou trois jours si une lésion a été causée à son cerveau.

Robert KENNEDY : état extrêmement critique.

L'état de santé du sénateur Robert KENNEDY est "extrêmement critique" à l'issue de l'opération au cerveau qu'il a subie pendant trois heures à l'hôpital du BON SAMARITAIN de LOS-ANGELES, a déclaré Mr. FRANK MANKIEWICZ, attaché de presse du candidat démocrate aux élections présidentielles. Mr. MANKIEWICZ a ajouté que les fragments de la balle entrée dans le cerveau avaient été extraits, à l'exception d'un seul.

"Il semble, a-t-il indiqué, qu'une nouvelle intervention chirurgicale sera nécessaire".

Mr. MANKIEWICZ a également déclaré que Mr. Robert KENNEDY était "encore inconscient", mais qu'il pouvait respirer sans l'aide d'aucun secours et que la température et la tension artérielle étaient "satisfaisantes".

Mr. MANKIEWICZ a, d'autre part, signalé la présence d'un projectile "quelque part à l'arrière du cou" du sénateur KENNEDY, qui a perdu beaucoup de sang à la suite de la blessure reçue dans la partie droite de la tête. Il a émis l'hypothèse que "le centre du cerveau pourrait ne pas être normalement alimenté par la circulation sanguine. Il a toutefois indiqué que les "facultés mentales" du Sénateur ne sont probablement pas en danger.../...

Selon le porte-parole la "période très critique" se situera dans les prochaines heures, vraisemblablement de I2 à 36 heures", a-t-il estimé, et ce n'est qu'après ce délai que l'on pourra évaluer exactement les lésions subies par le cerveau.

L'agresseur de Robert KENNEDY placé dans une cellule de "sécurité maximum".

L'agresseur du sénateur KENNEDY, inculpé d'agression avec intention de donner la mort, a été placé dans une cellule de "sécurité maximum", surveillée constamment par la police, a indiqué le chef de la police de LOS ANGELES, Mr. THOMAS REDDIN. Les autorités de LOS ANGELES veulent, visiblement, éviter le renouvellement du drame de DALLAS quand LEE HARVEY OSWALD, assassin présumé du Président KENNEDY, fut abattu à son tour en plein commissariat de police.

L'identité de l'agresseur n'est toujours pas connue et la police paraît elle-même déroutée par son étrange personnalité. Mr. THOMAS REDDIN a indiqué qu'apparemment au moment du drame, il n'était ni sous l'influence de l'alcool ni sous celle de la drogue. L'homme pourrait être, d'après la police, d'origine Latino-Américaine, Eurasien ou même du Moyen-Orient.

Les témoins oculaires ont pu, dans les minutes qui ont suivi ledrame, apercevoir un petit homme brun, au teint basané, entraîné par les policiers vers une voiture au milieu d'une foule qui, apprenant à l'instant même ce qui venait de se passer, parlait de le lyncher.

Suivant une tradition maintenant bien établie et qui trouve des précédents dans l'assassinat du Président JOHN KENNEDY, comme dans celui du Pasteur MARTIN LUTHER KING, les policiers ont immédiatement affirmé que rien n'indiquait qu'il s'agisse d'une conspiration.

Les réactions américaines après l'attentat contre Robert KENNEDY.

"Il n'existe pas de mots suffisamment forts pour exprimer toute l'horreur de cette tragédie", a déclaré le Président JOHNSON en apprenant ce matin l'attentat soumis contre Robert KENNEDY..../...

"Nos pensées et nos prières vont vers le Sénateur KENNEDY, sa famille et les autres victimes de l'attentat, a ajouté le Président.

"Nous prions également pour que les divisions de la violence soient éliminées partout du coeur des êtres humains".

"Nos prières et nos voeux vont au sénateur KENNEDY et aux autres victimes de cet horrible acte de violence", a déclaré pour sa part le Vice-Président Hubert HUMPHREY lorsqu'il a été informé de l'attentat commis contre le sénateur de l'état de NEW-YORK son rival dans la campagne électorale pour la présidence des ETATS-UNIS.

A l'annonce de l'attentat, le sénateur EUGENE MAC CARTHY également rival du sénateur KENNEDY dans la course à la Maison Blanche a décidé d'interrompre sa campagne électorale.

"Le monde est devenu fou", a déclaré le sénateur Henry JACKSON démocrate de l'état de WASHINGTON.

Ces quelques mots sont ceux qui, au moment où la capitale Fédérale Américaine s'éveille, sont sur les lèvres de la plupart des hommes politiques américains dont la violente reprobation contre l'acte criminel qui vient d'être commis contre un autre membre de la famille KENNEDY n'a d'égale que l'inquiétude qu'ils éprouvent pour l'avenir des institutions mêmes de la République Fédérale Américaine.

Les américains sont horrifiés.

En se reveillant Mercredi matin tous les américains qui branchent leurs postes de télévision afin de connaître les résultats des élections primaires de CALIFORNIE sont horrifiés de voir repasser sans cesse les images hallucinantes de l'attentat dont le sénateur Robert KENNEDY a été l'objet à LOS-ANGELES, alors qu'une grande partie de la nation était plongée dans le sommeil.

Angoissés, terrifiés, des dizaines de millions de télespectateurs ont pu voir le sénateur KENNEDY gisant au sol couvert de sang. Les lèvres remuent, mais aucun son ne sort de sa gorge. Deux hommes lui soutiennent la tête afin qu'elle ne repose pas sur les carreaux.../...

Ils ont pu voir le visage bouleversé de Mme. ETHEL KENNEDY, semblable à celui de sa belle-soeur JACQUELINE KENNEDY il a cinq ans, au moment de l'attentat de DALLAS.

L'étroit couloir où gît le sénateur de NEW-YORK retentit en un vacarme indescriptible : hurlements de désespoir, ordres, contre-ordres, commentaires par radio-reporters se mêlent dans la plus grande confusion. Les caméras sont bousculées, les images dansent sur l'écran. Puis les brancardiers se faufilent au milieu de cette foule et portent "BOBBY" sur une civière.

Les commentaires succèdent aux images, Unanimes les journalistes de télévision condamnent en termes énergiques ce nouvel acte de violence qui intervient deux mois après l'assassinat du Pasteur Martin LUTHER KING.

"Nous sommes un pays de fous", "de sauvages", "quand interdira-t-on la vente libre des armes à feu", disent des hommes de la rue, interrogés après l'attentat. Enfin l'un d'eux fait cette remarque : "et l'on nous appelle un pays civilisé".

Le Président JOHNSON a ordonné de bonne heure ce matin au service sécret de détacher immédiatement au moins un garde de corps auprès de chacun des candidats déclarés à la présidence.

Bien qu'aucune législation ne l'autorise, le chef de l'exécutif a pris sur lui de donner des instructions dans ce sens, dès qu'il a eu connaissance de l'attentat.

Mr. JOHNSON a ensuite consulté plusieurs parlementaires pour obtenir du congrès une loi d'urgence entérinant sa décision.

Les réactions en Europe après l'attentat contre le Sénateur KENNEDY.

La nouvelle de l'attentat contre le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY a jeté la consternation dans les capitales occidentales.

A Paris, l'attentat a été évoqué au conseil des Ministres de ce matin.

Le Général De GAULLE a fait part aux Ministres des dernières nouvelles de l'état du Sénateur américain.../...

Le conseil a marqué son émotion et sa sympathie pour le Sénateur KENNEDY et son inquiétude pour les conséquences éventuelles que pourrait avoir cet attentat.

A Londres, les premières éditions des journaux de l'après-midi consacrent des manchettes énormes à l'attentat. L'Ambassade des ETATS-UNIS est assaillie de coups de téléphone de personnes qui veulent exprimer leur sympathie. L'extraordinaire fatalité qui poursuit la famille KENNEDY frappe d'autant plus les britanniques que cette famille est d'origine irlandaise.

Au Vatican, le Pape PAUL VI a déclaré, à l'issue de l'audience générale du Mercredi : "Nous ne pouvons pas taire la douleur que nous a causé la nouvelle de l'attentat perpétré contre le sénateur Robert KENNEDY... Nous espérons qu'une volonté commune de bannir les méthodes de violence, de dissension, de lutte et d'homicide puisse faire suite au sentiment d'indignation qui parcourt aujourd'hui le monde à la suite de cet épisode douloureux et blâmable".

A Madrid, le Ministre Espagnol de l'Information déclare : "Il est stupéfiant, inconcevable que dans notre monde chrétien et plus particulièrement dans le plus développé de ses pays, on puisse avoir recours à l'assassinat comme arme politique".

A BONN, la nouvelle de l'attentat perpétré contre le sénateur Robert KENNEDY a été accueillie avec un sentiment d'effroi et d'indignation.

Aucune réaction à MOSCOU où la nouvelle de l'attentat a été rapidement transmise par l'Agence TASS, sans commentaire.

L'Agence Soviétique, citant les Agences Occidentales, a diffusé deux dépêches avec la mention "urgent".

La nouvelle a créé de profonds remous dans les Ambassades, qui téléphonent aux bureaux des agences de presse pour plus amples informations.

Robert KENNEDY.

Le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, qui a été blessé dans la nuit de Mardi à Mercredi à LOS ANGELES, est né le 20 Novembre 1925..../....

A 26 ans, au barreau de MASSACHUSETTS, il entama sa carrière politique en faisant campagne pour l'élection de JOHN KENNEDY, son frère, au poste de Sénateur du MASSACHUSETTS.

A 34 ans, il organisa la campagne à l'issue de laquelle JOHN KENNEDY devint le 35ème Président des ETATS-UNIS. Il fut alors nommé Ministre de la Justice et s'employa surtout au règlement du problème des droits civiques, à la repression du crime organisé, et des rackets, ainsi qu'à la solution des problèmes concernant la législation du travail, la défense des pauvres, et la ré abilitation des detenus.

En I964, après avoir été deçu dans ses espoirs d'être choisi comme Vice-Président par LYNDON JOHNSON, il démissionna de son poste de Ministre de la Justice et se présenta aux élections sénatoriales de NEW-YORK. Malgré une vive opposition de la part des démocrates comme des républicains, qui l'accusèrent de vouloir rechercher une nouvelle "rampe de lancement" pour ses aspirations politiques, il fut élu.

Opposant déclaré, dès I965, d'une politique d'escalade au VIET-NAM le Sénateur KENNEDY se vit alors acclamé par un nombre croissant d'américains et surtout par les jeunes comme la "solution de rechange" à opposer au Président JOHNSON.

Ce n'est pourtant que début Février I968 que Mr. KENNEDY sortit de sa réserve. Il prononca alors un discours fracassant, démolissant impitoyablement la politique du chef de l'exécutif américain qu'il traîta d'illusoire et d'irréalisable. Mais s'il se désolidarisait publiquement du Président JOHNSON, Mr. KENNEDY ne déclarait pas pour autant vouloir lui disputer la nomination démocrate. Cette décision, il ne la prit qu'au lendemain de la surprenante démonstration de force faite dans le New-Hampshire par le Sénateur MCCARTHY, qui recueillit presque autant de voix, aux élections primaires du I2 mars, que le Président JOHNSON, ouvrant ainsi des espoirs à une candidature KENNEDY.

Mr. ROBERT KENNEDY est père de dix enfants./.

L'identification de l'agresseur du Sénateur ROBERT KENNEDY a été rendue possible par son frère, qui s'est mis en rapport avec la police de LOS ANGELES dans la matinée.

Sa nationalité n'est pas connue, mais il pourrait s'agir, selon le Maire de LOS ANGELES, d'un ressortissant Jordanien ou d'un citoyen d'un pays arabe. Il fut domicilié à JERUSALEM pendant un certain temps, mais il réside actuellement à PASADEMA, en CALIFORNIE./.-

Robert Kennedy: une toute petite chance de s'en sortir

Le Dr. J. Le Dr. CUNEO a déclaré: "Il pourrait bien y rester. Il a une toute petite chance de s'en sortir". Le Dr. CUNEO est un ancien élève du Dr. POOL, Directeur et Professeur de Neuro-Chirurgie au COLUMBIA-PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL DE NEW YORK".

"J'ai bien peur d'ajouter que cela semble de mauvais présage", a conclu le Dr. POOL, interrogé au cours d'une interview Radiodiffusée./.-

M. Kenneth Kaunda commente à Kampala l'attentat perpétré contre M.KENNEDY

M. KENNETH KAUNDA, Président de la République de ZAMBIE qui est arrivé aujourd'hui à KAMPALA pour assister demain Jeudi à la conférence du "CONGRES POPULAIRE OUGANDAIS" a déclaré qu'il avait ressenti une vive émotion à la nouvelle de la tentative d'assassinat perpétrée contre ROBERT KENNEDY. On peut dire, a-t-il dit que c'est le "commencement de la fin". On a beaucoup parlé de la démocratie américaine, at-il ajouté, mais si le peuple recourt au fusil pour décider de ce qui régira le pays; il ne nous reste plus qu'à oublier la démocratie américaine. Nous souhaitons maintenant, a dit encore M. KAUNDA, que le coupable soit découvert./.-

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE :

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

P A R I S :- 5 JUIN - Situation encore confuse sur le Front du Travail, mais tendance à la reprise dans divers secteurs.

Dans les Chemins de Fer, les cheminots votent aujourd'hui pour approuver ou rejeter les accords intervenus entre leurs syndicats et le gouvernement. Aux termes de ces accords une augmentation de salaire de I7 pour cent est accordée aux plus bas salaires et une augmentation de IO pour cent aux salaires plus élevés.

A la régie des transports parisiens, le personnel doit également se prononcer aujourd'hui sur la reprise du travail. Les autobus et le métro sont encore immobilisés aujourd'hui.

Avec la grève des autobus et du métro on s'attend aujourd'hui encore à des encombrements monstres dans la capitale dus à l'emploi des voitures privées par tous ceux qui en possèdent.

Les taxis pariens sont toujours en grève.

Reprise partielle du travail dans les postes où un gros amas de courrier en retard attend les postiers.

Reprise du travail dans les mines et dans un certain nombre de grands magasins, dans les banques, dans les assurances, dans le textile et à la sécurité sociale.

A Sud-Aviation les ouvriers se plaignent d'avoir été expulsés des usines par la police avec brutalité, ce qui, disent-ils, ne fera que durcir leur position.

Chez RENAULT, chez CITROEN poursuite de la grève, ainsi que chez PEUGEOT où un vote sur la reprise du travail n'a pas été conclu.

La situation économique en France.

Mr. COUVE DE MURVILLE, Ministre de l'Economie et des Finances, a fait un premier bilan portant sur les aspects économiques et financiers des récents évènements.

Résumant le sens de cette communication, Mr. YVES GUENA, Ministre de l'Information, a expliqué qu'il était difficile d'établir un bilan précis et chiffré. Pour le moment, on ne peut simplement voir les choses que d'une façon générale. Ce qui est sûr, a-t-il dit, c'est que les conséquences économiques et financières de la crise seront très importantes à la fois au point de vue économique et au point de vue financier pour la collectivité nationale.

.../...

Du point de vue de l'économie, il est certain, a rappelé le Ministre de l'Information, que nous devons nous engager dans la voie d'une expansion accrue, étant entendu que toutes mesures seront prises pour qu'on ne soit pas entraîné de ce fait dans un processus inflationniste.

Il n'est pas question pour la France de changer de politique économique. Il n'est pas question, en conséquence, de mettre un frein aux mutations en cours, ni de se rétirer de la compétition internationale.

"Si on était tenté d'agir ainsi, a souligné Mr. YVES GUENA, on s'apercevrait bientôt que cette politique se traduirait par la stagnation alors qu'on doit aller vers l'expansion.

D'autre part le Ministre a précisé que, pour le moment, quelles que soient les charges budgétaires accrues qui résultent des accords qui ont été passés, il n'y a aucune préoccupation en ce qui concerne la trésorerie. C'est également le cas sur le plan monétaire international étant donné l'importance des réserves. Les quelques sorties de capitaux signalés sont relativement peu de chose par rapport à l'importance de nos actifs et là non plus il n'y a rien d'alarmant.

Il reste que quelques semaines seront encore nécessaires pour pouvoir présenter un bilan et des prévisions détaillées.

En ce qui concerne la situation sociale le Ministre de l'Information, Mr. YVES GUENA, a indiqué : la reprise se confirme incontestablement. Chaque fois qu'on peut recourir au vote, c'est largement dans le sens de la reprise du travail que se prononcent les travailleurs.

Reprise du travail à Air-France.

Le personnel de l'aéroport de Paris a repris le travail tant au Bourget qu'à Orly, avec l'accord des organisations syndicales.../...

Cependant au Bourget on ne prévoit aujourd'hui que deux vols de la "SABENA" à destination et en provenance de BRUXELLES. A ORLY, on ignore encore quelles seront les possibilités de trafic.

D'autre part, la direction de la compagnie Air-France a communiqué à midi : "comme suite au vote favorable émis le 4 Juin, le travail a repris dans les établissements de Paris de la compagnie Nationale Air-France".

La grève de l'OCORA.

L'Office de Coopération Radiophonique (OCORA) communique.

"Après la réunion d'une nouvelle assemblée générale tenue le 4 Juin 1968, l'ensemble des personnels de l'OCORA en grève, estimant insuffisantes les réponses faites à leurs révendications, ont décidé de poursuivre leur mouvement revendicatif jusqu'à ce qu'ils soient en mesure de se prononcer sur des accords définitifs.

"En plus de ces révendications de caractère salarial, le personnel de l'OCORA réaffirme sa volonté de participer à une réforme des structures de l'Office, afin de poursuivre une politique mieux adaptée aux besoins des pays africains et malgache.

Mr. Couve De Murville candidat dans le quartier des Champs-Elysées.

Mr. MAURICE COUVE DE MURVILLE, ancien Ministre des Affaires Etrangères, depuis quelques jours Ministre des Finances, sera candidat aux élections législatives dans le 8ème arrondissement de Paris, quartier des Champs-Elysées, apprend-on officieusement mardi soir.

C'est la deuxième fois que Mr. COUVE DE MURVILLE se lance dans la bataille électorale. En 1967, sortant de sa réserve de diplomate devenu Ministre, il s'était présenté dans le très aristocratique 7ème arrondissement où se trouve le Ministère des Affaires Etrangères, mais il avait été battu par un parlementaire parisien, Mr. FREDERIC-DUPONT.

Cette année dans le 8ème arrondissement, Mr. COUVE DE MURVILLE ira à la bataille avec comme suppléant Mr. RAYMOND BOSQUET, lui aussi ancien Ambassadeur.../...

Violentes bagarres à la faculté des lettres de LYON.

De violentes bagarres ont éclaté Mardi soir vers 20 heures à la faculté des lettres de LYON, occupée par des éléments "avancés" qu'on essayé de déloger quelques 200 assaillants.

Pour se défendre, les occupants ont lancé des cocktails molotov contre les assaillants, mais une centaine d'entre eux ont réussi à pénétrer à l'intérieur de la faculté.

Un léger incendie s'est déclaré dans les locaux de la faculté, mais les occupants ont refusé d'ouvrir les grilles aux sapeurs-pompiers. Profitant de la présence des voitures de pompiers, les assaillants se sont retranchés derrière elles pour se protéger des cocktails molotov.

A 20h.30 GMT, une dizaine d'assaillants parmi ceux qui étaient parvenus à pénétrer à l'intérieur de la faculté en ont été expulsés par les occupants.

Ces incidents auraient fait plusieurs blessés.

Des forces de police sont intervenues pour faire cesser la bataille en encerclant l'immeuble de la faculté./.

LES POURPARLERS AMERICANO-VIETNAMIENS.

bombardements et tout autre acte de guerre contre la République Démocratique du VIET-NAM pour que les conversations sur d'autres questions intéressant les deux parties puissent commencer dans les meilleurs délais" : telle est la conclusion de la déclaration prononcée ce matin par le Ministre XUAN THUY devant la délégation américaine à la septième séance des pourparlers américano-Nord-Vietnamiens. C'est la réaffirmation de la position de HANOI telle qu'elle a été exposée depuis le début de la conférence de Paris.

Dans sa déclaration, le Ministre XUAN THUY, analysant d'autre part les déclarations des 28 et 30 Mai dernier du Président JOHNSON et celle faite hier à GLASSBORO a exprimé son "regret de n'y avoir rien trouvé de nouveau... par rapport à son discours du 3I Mars". Des déclarations, a dit Mr. XUAN THUY en substance, montrent que les ETATS-UNIS "se cramponnent à leur exigence absurde d'une soi-disant réciprocité, empêchant ainsi les conversations de Paris de progresser".

Cependant, Mr. XUAN THUY a utilisé pour condamner cette réciprocité demandée par les américains une formulation qui mérite d'être étudiée très attentivement. Il a en effet déclaré : les discours du Président JOHNSON des 28 et 30 Mai "ne sont toujours là que des propos sur la soi-disant réciprocité, propos que nous avons déjà rejetés, cependant jusqu'ici la partie américaine persiste à les présenter comme des conditions, ce qui fait que ces conversations n'ont pu progresser". Autrement dit, si les américains ne présentaient pas cette "réciprocité" comme une "condition" à l'arrêt des bombardements sur la totalité du Nord-VIET-NAM, les conversations pourraient progresser. Pour les observateurs, cela parait indiquer que si les américains cessaient inconditionnellement leurs bombardements contre le Nord-VIET-NAM, un "geste" en réponse à cette cessation serait immédiatement fait par HANOI.

C'est peut-être là l'indice d'une relance que l'on attendait avec la venue à Paris de Mr. Le DUC THO, conseiller spécial " de Mr. XUAN THUY. D'ailleurs le ton de cette déclaration de Mr. XUAN THUY était très modéré, par rapport à ses précédents discours. S'il a maintenu ses accusations de crimes "extrêmement barbares" commis par les ETATS-UNIS au VIET-NAM, il a cependant fait appel à la "sagesse" et au bon sens des ETATS-UNIS afin qu'ils comprennent la position de HANOI et accèdent au dialogue./.

L'AGITATION ETUDIANTE S'ETEND EN YOUGOSLAVIE.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

BELGRADE :- 5 JUIN - A l'issue d'une réunion, hier soir, de l'exécutif du parti communiste Yougoslave, un avertissement a été adressé aux étudiants, déclarant que toute tentative pour obtenir des reformes par un recours à la violence se heurterait à une résistance décidée.

Ceux qui, déclare l'exécutif du parti, essaient de passer outre à l'autorité des organismes représentatifs et des organisations sociales et d'autogestion dirigent en fait leur action contre le système d'autogestion même du pays.

L'avertissement de la direction du parti communiste Yougoslave intervient au moment où l'agitation s'étend de Belgrade, où les étudiants ont occupé les bâtiments de l'université après des heurts avec la police, à d'autres points du pays.

C'est ainsi que l'agence Tanjug rapporte qu'un certain nombre d'étudiants et de policiers ont été blessés hier soir au cours d'une manifestation à Sarajevo, capitale de la Bosnieherzegovine. D'autres éléments de la population, précise l'agence, se sont joints aux étudiants lors de cette manifestation. La circulation a été interrompue pendant une heure dans le centre de la ville.

Des réunions et des manifestations ont également été organisées par les étudiants à Titograde, dans le Montenegro, à Nis et Kragujevac, en Serbie, à Osijek, dans le nord de la Yougoslavie, et à Split, sur la côte Dalmate.

A Zagreb(Croatie), Ljubliana, Maribor et Leskovac(Slovenie), les étudiants ont décidé de défendre les méthodes démocratiques et de s'opposer à la violence.

A mesure que l'agitation s'étend, la presse écrite et la télévision adoptent une attitude de plus en plus critique vis-à-vis de l'action étudiante. Dans un éditorial publié aujourd'hui, le journal "Borba" condamne les manifestations des étudiants et déclare qu'ils auraient dû désavouer plus nettement certaines personnes et certains slogans et se désolidariser de certains actes commis par leurs rangs.

Il apparait cependant que les demandes formulées par les étudiants pour qu'une solution soit apportée, notamment, aux questions de l'emploi ont été prises sérieusement. C'est ainsi que plusieurs collectives se sont déclarées prêtes à employer davantage de jeunes experts.-

LE GENERAL GOWON ET LA PROVINCE REBELLE

LAGOS, 6 JUIN - Les forces fédérales Nigérianes poursuivront la guerre jusqu'au coeur du pays Ibo, si tous les appels lancés ne parviennent pas à amener les secessionnistes à se rendre, a déclaré Mercredi le Général YAKUBU GOWON, Chef de l'Etat Fédéral.

Répondant aux questions des journalistes sur la stratégie qu'adoptera à l'avenir le Gouvernement de LAGOS après l'échec des récents négociations de KAMPALA, le Général GOWON a déclaré :

"Après l'échec de tous les appels, on peut dire qu'il n'y a qu'une seule façon de continuer....combattre les rebelles où qu'ils soient."

Le Général GOWON a refuté les affirmations selon lesquelles la guerrecivile Nigériane aurait fait plus de morts en onze mois que le conflit Vietnamien en trois ans.

Le Général GOWON a également demandé au Conseil Oécuménique des Eglises,au Comité International de la Croix Rouge, et à l'Eglise Catholique de faire leur possible pour persuader la province rebelle de renoncer à son indépendance.

Cet appel a été lancé dans un télégramme envoyé Mardi àGENEVE et publié Mercredi à LAGOS./.-

Enquête sur des massacres qui auraient été commis par des soldats Nigérians

Le Général YAKUBU GOWON, Chef de l'Etat Fédéral Militaire du Nigéria, a annoncé Mercredi à LAGOS qu'il avait ordonné l'ouverture d'une enquête approfondie sur des massacres et des tortures qui, selon certains rapports, auraient été commis par des soldats fédéraux contre des habitants d'un village de l'Etat du Centre-Ouest.

SELON des rapports en question, deux cents à quatre cents habitants du village d'ISHIAGU auraient été massacrés le 23 AVRIL dernier par des soldats fédéraux qui en auraient en outre torturé six autres en les écorchant vifs à l'aide de tessons de bouteilles et en versant du poivre sur leurs chairs.

.../...

Le Général GOWON a déclaré d'autre part qu'il lui était difficile de croire que des soldats fédéraux aient pu commettre de tels actes à l'encontre de populations qu'ils venaient libérer. Il a ajouté que ces atrocités avaient peut être été commises par des rebelles dans l'intention d'en faire supporter la responsabilité par les fédéraux./._

Entretien entre le délégué de la Croix-Rouge et le Général GOWON

M. GEORGES HOFFMAN, représentant de la Croix-Rouge Internationale pour l'Afrique, s'est entretenu Mercredi avec le Général YAKUBU GOWON, Chef de l'Etat Fédéral Nigérian, des moyens de faire parvenir des secours d'urgence aux populations rebelles.

A l'issue de cet entretien, le Général GOWON a renouvelé la proposition qu'il avait récemment formulée de faire parvenir ces secours par voie aérienne, jusqu'aux aéroports contrôlés par les Nigérians, et de là, par la route, jusqu'aux lignes avancées du front des combats. A ce sujet, le Général a regretté que sa proposition n'ait pas encore été acceptée par les "rebelles".

On croit savoir que M. HOFFMAN essaiera de persuader les rebelles d'accepter cette proposition, qui constitue dans l'état actuel de la situation, le seul moyen de leur faire parvenir des vivres et des médicaments de première nécessité./._

LE SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY EST MORT.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

LOS-ANGELES :- 6 JUIN - Quatre ans, 6 mois I4 jours après la mort le 22 Novembre I963 de son frère J.F. KENNEDY à DALLAS en campagne pré-électorale, le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, vient d'être lui aussi assassiné à LOS-ANGELES après sa brillante victoire dans les élections primaires en CALIFORNIE, frappé par une balle qui se logea dans son cerveau.

Le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY est décédé cette nuit à OI heure 44 du matin heure de CALIFORNIE (08h.44 GMT) à l'Hôpital DU BON SAMARITAIN de LOS-ANGELES dès suites de ses blessures.

De nombreux membres de sa famille se trouvaient à son chevet : sa femme ETHEL, sa soeur Mme. PETER LAWFORD, son autre soeur Mme. STEPHEN SMITH et son mari ainsi que Mme. JACQUELINE KENNEDY, veuve du Président JOHN KENNEDY.

Mr. FRANK MANKIEWICZ, Secrétaire de presse du Sénateur, est entré dans salle de presse installée dans le refectoire, des infirmières, marchant à pas lents.

Il est demeuré pendant une minute, la tête baissée devant les caméras de télévision et finalement a ouvert la bouche pour dire : "J'ai un communiqué dont je vais donner lecture maintenant".

Mr. MANKIEWICZ a alors annoncé que Mr. KENNEDY était décédé.

Partiellement paralysé et toujours dans le coma, Robert KENNEDY est mort 24 heures exactement après le début de l'opération tentée par six chirurgiens pour extraire une balle qui s'était logée dans le cerveau.

Après l'opération qui avait duré trois heures, les médecins avaient déclaré que les premières 36 heures seraient les plus critiques.

Au fil de la journée d'hier, les bulletins de santé étaient devenus de plus en plus pessimistes et le dernier publié à minuit GMT ne laissait aucun doute que les médecins s'attendaient au pire.../...

La depouille mortelle du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY sera transportée ce matin de LOS-ANGELES à WASHINGTON, via NEW-YORK.

Mr. MANKIEWICZ a précisé que le Sénateur de NEW-YORK avait reçu les derniers sacrements peu après l'attentat et qu'un Prêtre se trouvait à ses côtés lorsqu'il a rendu l'âme.

Le Secrétaire de presse n'a pas dit si les trois aînés de la famille Robert KENNEDY se trouvaient à son chevet mais il a confirmé que les enfants se trouvaient à l'intérieur de l'Hôpital.

Mr. MANKIEWICZ a déclaré que le Sénateur n'avait jamais repris connaissance depuis le moment où il a été atteint par la balle qui a pénétré dans le crâne.

Il a ajoute que la famille KENNEDY accompagnerait probablement la dépouille mortelle du candidat à la Présidence qui sera ramenée par avion "dans la matinée".

Il a déclaré que les dispositions en vue des funérailles n'avaient pas encore été prises mais qu'elles seraient annoncées très prochainement.

Une demi-heure après avoir annoncé le décès de Mr. Robert KENNEDY, Mr. MANKIEWICZ est revenu vers les journalistes pour leur dire qu'il avait oublié de dire que Mr. EDWARD KENNEDY, Sénateur du MASSACHUSETTS se trouvait également au chevet du mourant.

Comme on lui demandait si l'état de santé de Mr. KENNEDY s'était détérioré pendant la nuit, il a répondu qu'il n'était jamais amélioré. "Nous avions espéré une amélioration après l'opération mais elle ne s'est pas produite."

Devant l'hôpital, la foule qui observait une vigile de prières a éclaté en sanglots en apprenant le décès mais on n'a observé aucune scène d'hystérie comme celles qui se sont produites à l'Hôtel "AMBASSADOR" au moment du drame.

Carnets retrouvés sur SIRHAM :

Un calepin appartenant à SIRHAN SIRHAN, auteur présumé de l'assassinat du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY portait la mention "KENNEDY doit être assassiné avant le cinq Juin 1968," a déclaré Mercredi soir Mr. SAMUEL YORTY, Maire de LOS ANGELES.

Mr. YORTY a ajouté que deux carnets portant des indications manuscrites de SIRHAN ont été retrouvés .../...

à PASADENA au domicile de l'agresseur et apportés au poste de police de RAMPART STREET où se poursuivait l'interrogatoire du suspect.

A WASHINGTON, on précise que SIRAHAN SIRHAN est entré aux ETATS-UNIS le I2 Janvier I957. Il a été classé par les services d'immigration comme résident permanent.

D'après ses papiers d'identité, il est né le I9 Mars I944 dans la partie de JERUSALEM qui devint plus tard le secteur Jordanien de la ville.

Déclaration de JOHNSON : après la mort du Sénateur.

En annonçant aujourd'hui que Dimanche serait une journée de deuil national aux ETATS-UNIS, le Président JOHNSON a déclaré : "le moment est venu pour tous les américains de se tenir par la main pour traverser cette noire période où l'angoisse nous étreint et pour déboucher sur une aube nouvelle d'unité consolante.

"Dans nos Eglises, dans nos foyers et dans nos coeurs prenons la résolution devant Dieu et entre nous que les idéaux de progrès et de justice du Sénateur KENNEDY survivent après sa mort.

"Un noble leader plein de sollicitude pour l'humanité, un serviteur devoué et fidèle du peuple est tombé sous les balles d'un assassin alors qu'il était plein de vigueur et d'avenir".

Le même communiqué indique que les drapeaux flottant sur tous les bâtiments officiels américains seront mis en berne jusqu'à la mise en terre du defunt.

Le Président JOHNSON faisait publier un peu plus tard une autre déclaration dans laquelle il rendait hommage à celui qui a été au cours des derniers mois son adversaire politique le plus résolu, et dont voici le texte :

"L'heure présente est celle de la tragédie.

Le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY est mort.

"Robert KENNEDY a été un porte-parole de ce pays - défendant son peuple, exprimant son désir de paix et sa volonté de voir les conditions de vie devenir meilleures pour tous...../.....

"Au cours de sa vie, les tragédies personnelles ont fondu sur lui.

"Il n'a cependant pas perdu foi en l'Amérique. Il n'a jamais perdu confiance en la force spirituelle des hommes et des femmes. Il croyait en l'aptitude de la jeunesse à tendre vers l'idéal et au droit des personnes âgées et des pauvres à une vie décente.

"La vie de notre Nation est atteinte par cette perte.

"Mme. JOHNSON et moi-même exprimons nos sentiments de profonde sympathie à Mme. KENNEDY et sa famille. J'ai publié une déclaration demandant au pays d'observer une journée de deuil national à la mémoire de Robert KENNEDY".

Le Président JOHNSON, s'adressant à la Nation, a lancé mercredi soir un appel dramatique au peuple américain pour qu'il abandonne la violence. Après avoir condamné dans les termes les plus vigoureux l'agression contre le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, à LOS-ANGELES, il a annoncé la création d'une commission fédérale qui sera chargée d'étudier les causes de cette violence, qui ensanglante le pays, a-t-il dit, depuis l'assassinat du Président JOHN KENNEDY, et d'y trouver des remèdes. Cette commission est présidée par Mr. MILTON EISENHOWER, frère de l'ancien Président des ETATS-UNIS et lui-même ancien Président de l'Université JOHNS HOPKINS DE VALTIMORE. Elle comprend notamment l'archevêque de NEW-YORK, Monseigneur TERENCE COOKE. Le chef de l'exécutif a d'autre part demandé au congrès d'adopter le plus rapidement possible des mesures législatives pour arrêter "le trafic insensé des armes" aux ETATS-UNIS.

Déclaration de Mr. HUMPHREY.

A la suite de la mort du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, Mr. Hubert HUMPHREY, Vice-Président des Etats-Unis, a fait à WASHINGTON la déclaration suivante :

"Nous avons tous perdu un grand américain - un homme dont les préoccupations étaient profondes, ainsi que la compassion et les engagements personnels.

"Nous sommes de coeur avec son épouse et ses chers enfants et avec sa famille - qui a déjà connu plus de tragédie que personne ne devrait en supporter.../...

"C'est maintenant notre obligation à tous - même dans notre tristesse et notre douleur, de nous consacrer à nouveau aux principes d'humanité et de justice individuelle en lesquels croyait le Sénateur Robert F. KENNEDY.

"Puisse notre pays trouver la force, la foi et la sagesse pour disperser les forces de haine déraisonnable entre nous et les remplacer par l'amour des hommes et de Dieu".

Mr. Schlesinger, conseiller de l'ancien gouvernement Kennedy : "nous sommes, marqués par notre société".

"Les américains sont le peuple le plus effrayant de la planète" a déclaré, Mercredi soir, Mr. ARTHUR SCHLESINGER, Conseiller de l'ancien Président KENNEDY, puis de son frère Robert, au cours d'une allocution qu'il prononçait à l'occasion d'une remise de Doctorat à 38 étudiants de CITY collège, à NEW-YORK.

Ému au point d'en pleurer, Mr. SCHLESINGER a ajouté: "depuis trois ans, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde. Nous avons déjà assassiné deux citoyens qui personnifiaient l'idéalisme américain à l'étranger et hier nous avons tenté d'en assassiner un troisième. Ces actes de violence ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national". Ces actes, a poursuivi Mr. SCHLESINGER, ont commencé lorsque l'homme blanc s'est mis à assassiner les indiens et à faire des esclaves : ceux qu'il considérait comme ses inférieurs à cause de la couleur de leur peau". "Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violance qui apparaît dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au VIET-NAM qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence", a conclu Mr. SCHLESINGER.

Hypothèses sur les mobiles de l'attentat de LOS-ANGELES.

Une profonde émotion, menée d'un sentiment de désarroi, s'est saisie de la population de HARLEM, le quartier noir de NEW-YORK, à l'annonce de l'attentat dont a été victime le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY.

L'opinion la plus repandue parmi les noirs de NEW-YORK est que les coups de feu qui retentirent, dans les cuisines de l'hôtel "AMBASSADOR" de LOS-ANGELES visaient autant.../...

le jeune Sénateur démocrate que les américains de couleur, qui voyaient en lui un des principaux défenseurs de leurs droits civiques.

Partout, on entend, dans les rues de HARLEM, des reflexions du genre suivant : "On dirait qu'ils veulent supprimer tous ceux qui pensent un peu à nous", "c'est une conspiration politique, on élimine systématiquement les meilleurs américains", "bien sûr, ils savent que nous ne voterons pas si nous ne pouvons voter pour BOBBY" ou encore "RAP BROWN" (leader extrémiste noir) avait raison: "Il n'y a que la violence qui compte en amérique".

Mais cette thèse, pour acceptable qu'elle soit pour la plupart des noirs, n'est qu'une de celles que l'on émet à NEW YORK, dans les milieux les plus divers, surtout depuis que la révélation de l'identité et des origines de l'agresseur de Mr. KENNEDY a ouvert la voie à de nouvelles spéculations sur les mobiles auxquels SIRHAM SIRHAM a dû obéïr pour mettre à exécution son projet criminel.

Hommage de R.NIXON à R.KENNEDY.

Le Sénateur ROBERT KENNEDY était "un homme d'une énergie et d'une vitalité énormes" et un des grands chefs les plus populaires de l'histoire américaine, a déclaré ce matin, Mr. RICHARD NIXON, ancien Vice-Président des Etats-Unis, qui brigue l'investiture du Parti Républicain, pour les élections Présidentielles de Novembre prochain.

"Accablés aujourd'hui de tristesse, ajoute Mr. NIXON dans une déclaration remise à la presse ce matin à NEW YORK, les enfants KENNEDY sauront, lorsqu'ils grandiront que leur père et leur oncle était un homme jeune de grand...../.....

courage qui avait déjà laissé sa marque dans l'histoire./.

Le Président Diori HAMANI et la mort du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY.

"Je ne peux qu'exprimer mon indignation devant ce nouvel attentat et la méthode lâche qui consiste à supprimer physiquement un adversaire politique", a déclaré, ce matin, le Président de la République du Niger à l'annonce de la mort du sénateur Robert KENNEDY .../...

"Cependant l'idée lancée par la famille KENNEDY d'égalité raciale et d'unité nationale dans son pays fera son chemin malgré tout, a conclu le Président DIORI HAMANI, et nous sommes persuadés qu'en fin de compte cet objectif sera atteint".

Message du Président BONGO au Président JOHNSON.

Mr. Albert BONGO, chef de l'état gabonais a envoyé un message de condoléances au Président JOHNSON à la suite de l'assassinat du Sénateur KENNEDY.

"La nouvelle du décès du sénateur KENNEDY déclare notamment le message a été ressentie très douloureusement par le peuple gabonais par son gouvernement et par moi-même. Pour la seconde fois la famille KENNEDY paie de son sang sa participation active et constructive aux institutions démocratiques et à la vie politique de la nation américaine".

Condoléances du Président Tsiranana au Président JOHNSON.

Le Président de la République malgache Mr. Philibert TSIRANANA, dès qu'il a eu connaissance de la mort du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, a adressé au Président LYNDON JOHNSON un message de sympathie, annonce-t-on officiellement à TANANARIVE.

Le message du Président TSIRANANA est ainsi conçu : "compatissant profondément avec tout le peuple malgache au grand deuil qui frappe le peuple américain et toutes les nations libérales du monde, je vous adresse, cher Monsieur le Président, l'expression de notre sympathie attristée. Je vous prie d'agréer et de transmettre à la famille du regretté sénateur Robert KENNEDY nos condoléances émues et celles de la République malgache".

Selon le Procureur GARRISON, ROBERT KENNEDY aurait été victime d'une "vaste conspiration".

Mr. JIM GARRISON aurait déclaré mercredi qu'à son avis le Sénateur Robert KENNEDY aurait été victime d'une "vaste conspiration" celle-là même pour laquelle le procureur de la NOUVELLE-ORLEANS a fait inculper Mr. CLAY SHAW, l'homme d'affaires de Louisiane qui sera prochainement traduit en justice pour avoir pris part à un complot contre le Président JOHN KENNEDY.../...

Cette opinion a été rendue publique par Mr. HENRY WADE, Procureur du District du DALLAS, qui s'est toutefois dit incapable de prendre position à cet égard.

Mr. WADE, qui occupait déjà ses fonctions actuelles au moment de l'attentat de DALLAS, le 22 Novembre I963, a souligné, d'autre part, que la publicité qui a entouré les circonstances de l'agression de LOS-ANGELES ne permettra guère, selon lui, de réunir un Jury impartial pour juger le coupable. "Tout le monde est au courant du moindre détail, a déclaré le procureur de DALLAS, la télévision a tout montré. Elle est allée jusqu'à reconstituer le crime devant les télespectateurs, avec une doublure à la place du suspect".

Radio-Alger et l'attentat contre Kennedy.

Après le quotidien "EL MOUDJAHID" qui exprimait ce matin son inquiétude au sujet des "insinuations" de la police américaine selon laquelle l'agresseur de Robert KENNEDY serait d'origine arabe, "Radio-Alger" s'alarme de la tournure politique, visant cette fois le monde arabe, prise, dit-elle, par divers commentaires de la presse mondiale.

"On a tout à fait l'impression, déclare la Radio-Algérienne, de revivre la tragédie de DALLAS, tant cet évènement est présenté de façon identique au grand public. On lance le nom de l'agresseur d'une façon ou d'une autre et on relève ses attaches avec l'étranger. A DALLAS, où dans les heures qui ont suivi le drame, le nom de LEE HARVEY OSWALD a été prononcé en insistant sur ses attaches avec CUBA et l'Union Soviétique. Dans le cas présent, c'est le monde arabe qui semble visé".

Srihan Sirhan transféré dans une infirmerie de Los-Angeles.

L'auteur de l'agression contre le sénateur Robert KENNEDY a été transféré mercredi après-midi du quartier général de la police de LOS ANGELES à l'Infirmerie de la prison du Comte, a indiqué un porte-parole de la police. Sirhan Sirhan, y est soigné, a-t-il précisé, pour un doit cassé et des contusions à une jambe. Le porte-parole a refusé de dire si le prisonnier avait été blessé au cours de la lutte qui suivit immédiatement l'attentat, avant d'avoir été maîtrisé par les gardes du corps du sénateur./.

Il s'agit d'une femme âgée de 23 à 27 ans, blonde et mesurant environ Im.65.

Mme. Luther KING : Kennedy est mort en combattant.

"Comme mon mari, le Sénateur KENNEDY est mort en combattant pour les idéaux de la démocratie américaine", a déclaré jeudi Mme. Martin LUTHER KING, Veuve du leader du Mouvement de la non-violence assassiné le 4 Avril dernier à MEMPHIS. "Nous devons mettre un terme à la violence ou la violence nous supprimera, a poursuivi Mme. De son côté, le sénateur MCCARTHY, bouleversé, a déclaré : "les mots sont impuissants pour soulager l'angoisse de la famille du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY ou la peine de ceux qui l'ont aimé. Mort KENNEDY: Réactions dans les pays socialistes

BELGRADE :- "La mort tragique du Sénateur ROBERT KENNEDY représente une perte irréparable pour le peuple américain et la paix mondiale", déclare le Maréchal TITO dans un message à la veuve du Sénateur. De son côté "BORBA" réserve un éditorial à l'assassinat sous le titre "LE TROISIEME DALLAS". "Ils se pourrait, déclare le journal, que le deuxième KENNEDY, l'ancien ATTORNEY GENERAL à l'époque du grand complot Texan, ait été victime d'un autre DALLAS afin que le monde n'apprenne jamais la vérité sur le premier Dallas".-

PRAGUE :- M. CERNIK, Président du Conseil Tchécoslovaque, déplore la mort du Sénateur et M. JIRI HAJEK, Ministre des Affaires Etrangères déclare que les conséquences de cet assassinat "sont défavorables aux forces pacifiques et réalistes des Etats-Unis. "M. HAJEK a fait l'éloge de la politique préconisée par ROBERT KENNEDY. De son côté RADIO-PRAGUE a déclaré: "En la personne de ROBERT KENNEDY l'Amérique du Sud perd un homme politique réaliste".-

VARSOVIE :- L'Agence Polonaise de Presse et la Radio officiellement accueilli avec scepticisme les spéculations qui tendent à établir un rapprochement entre l'assinat de ROBERT KENNEDY et les prises de positions pro-Israéliennes du Sénateur et soulignent notamment que "certains observateurs cherchent à détourner l'attention des affaires intérieures des Etats-Unis" et mettent en relief des "motifs d'ordre extérieur".-

MOSCOU :- C'est en condamnant en des termes extrêmement durs la société américaine et ses dirigeants que la presse Soviétique réagit ce soir à l'assassinat de ROBERT KENNEDY. "Les coups de feu de LOS ANGELES, écrit "ZA ROUBIEJOM", posent avec une acuité nouvelle la question du rôle funeste joué par ces piliers essentiels des milieux dirigeants des ETATS-UNIS que sont le F.B.I. et la C.I.A.". "A SAN FRANCISCO, écrit le correspondant des "IZVESTIA" dans cette ville, au moment même où sur la septième chaine de la télévision locale on condamnait la violence, sur la cinquième comme d'habitude, on la vantait et on la glorifiait" dans un film de gangsters./.-

REPRISE GENERALISEE DU TRAVAIL

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

PARIS :- 6 Juin - Après trois semaines de paralysie, métro et autobus ont recommencé à fonctionner aujourd'hui à Paris où les employés des services de voirie ont également repris le travail.

Du côté du métro, la première rame a commencé a fonctionné à 8H 30. Beaucoup de stations sont encore fermées en attendant la fin des travaux d'inspection sur les lignes, indispensables après le debrayage prolongé des employés. On s'attend cependant que le trafic sera redevenu à peu près normal aux environs de midi.

Du côté des autobus, 66 des 160 lignes fonctionnaient.

Pour ce qui est des grandes lignes, on prévoit une reprise graduelle au cours des prochaines vingt-quatre heures.

Un autre secteur où la reprise se précise est celui des postes.

Du côté de l'industrie automobile, cependant, les grevistes restent sur leurs positions.

Si aucun incident ne s'est produit, les dirigeants syndicaux ont réagi avec aigreur.

Dans un communiqué publié ce matin, la fédération force ouvrière de la métallurgie condamne sévèrement l'occupation de l'usine de Flins par les forces de police.

Cet acte de repression et de violation du droit de grève, dit-elle constitue, en l'état actuel des choses, une provocation dont les conséquences peuvent s'étendre au-delà de cette usine.-

Air France : le personnel commercial au sol pour la reprise du travail.

A l'issue d'un vote qui s'est déroulé ce matin sur l'initiative des syndicats, le personnel commercial au sol d'Air-France a décidé la reprise du travail pour demain à 8 heures.

Quant aux personnel commercial navigant de la compagnie(hôtesses et Stewards), on ignorait ce matin leur position définitive, mais la tendance serait favorable à une poursuite de la grève.-

L'UNEF : Le courant révolutionnaire n'est pas mort.

Nous refusons de négocier avec le pouvoir. Nous l'avons toujours dit et nous le dirons toujours, a déclaré Jacques Sauvageot au cours d'une conférence de presse donnée par l'UNEF et le SNE SUP.

Les membres du bureau national du SNE-SUP ont expliqué que le SNE-SUP, en ce qui concerne les négociations avec le gouvernement, à une attitude différente de celle d'autres syndicats qui ont des revendications immédiates. Ce n'est pas le moment, ont-ils ajouté, de formuler des revendications précises pour l'université. Elle s'est écroulée. Il faut une refonte totale. Quand cette refonte, qui doit être le fait des étudiants et des enseignants sera achevée, il restera, bien sur, un contentieux corporatif.

Le courant révolutionnaire n'est pas mort. Il attend. Les ouvriers ont vu la réalité de leur pouvoir et ils ont compris qu'il pouvaient tout changer a dit pour sa part Jacques Sauvageot avant de préciser que l'UNEF doit dégager les mots d'ordre d'un combat spécifique.

L'essentiel, a-t-il dit, est d'ouvrir l'université aux travailleurs et de poser le problème de la valeur sociale des diplômes. Il faut refuser la formation de cadres au service du capital et rechercher l'égalisation du travail intellectuel et du travail manuel. Il a rappelé les projets de l'UNEF quant à l'organisation future des universités qui, d'autre part, seront des centres de continuation de la bataille sous le contrôle des ouvriers et avec la participation des étudiants et des enseignants.-

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

NATIONS-UNIES :- 6 JUIN - Le Congo-Kinshasa a proptesté aujourd'hui auprès du conseil de Securité des Nations-Unies à propos du survol de son territoire le 2I Mai par des avions Portugais de l'Angola.

M. Théodore Idzumbuir, délégué permanent du Congo a déclaré que deux appareils militaires Portugais ont survolé à cette date Kimpangu, poste frontière situé à I20 Km de Moerkeke, et ont lâché des tracts.

D'un côté, le tract en question portait les couleurs Portugaises, et de l'autre un appel en Portugais aux refugiés Angolais déclarant : ceci est notre drapeau. A toi qui rameneras ce drapeau aux autorités ou aux soldats, la voie sera ouverte, et si tu veux, tu peux avoir une maison, des habits, un docteur qui prendra soin de toi, une école et la justice ici en Angola, qui est partie intégrante du Portugal.

Le délégué Congolais a déclaré qu'il entendait protester vigoureusement contre de tels actes de provocation, qui viole d'une manière flagrante les principes de la charte des Nations-Unies.-

LE SOUS-MARRIN NUCLEAIRE "SCORPION" CONSIDERE DESORMAIS COMME PERDU.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

WASHINGTON :- 6 JUIN - La marine Américaine considère désormais officiellement comme perdus le sous marin nucléaire "scorpion" et ses 99 membres d'équipage.

Mais l'Amiral Thomas H. MOCRER, chef des opérations navales, a déclaré que les recherches continueraient et que rien ne serait laissé au hasard pour établir les circonstances de la disparition du submersible.

Le "Scorpion" qui a envoyé son dernier message le Ier Mai alors qu'ils se trouvait à l'ouest des Açores a disparu entre ce point et le port de Norfolk où il devait arriver le 27 Mai.

Par ailleurs, la marine Américaine a annoncé mercredi que la dernière inspection du sous marin, avant la croisière pendant laquelle il a disparu, avait décelé certaines defectuosités dont aucune cependant n'était assez sérieuse pour le mettre en danger.-

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

ROME :- 6 JUIN - La coalition gouvernementale Italienne de centre-gauche, qui expédiait les affaires courantes depuis les recentes élections générales, a démissionné mercredi, c'est M. Aldo Moro, le premier Ministre, qui a présenté la démission de son cabinet au président de la République, M. Giuseppe Saragat.

.../...

M. Saragat va maintenant entreprendre des consultations pour la formation d'un nouveau gouvernement. Les socialistes se sont retirés de la coalition, après le recul qu'ils ont enregistré aux élections. Mais les trois partis de la coalition, démocrates-Chretiens, socialistes et républicains se sont mis d'accord hier sur la répartition des postes importants au sein du parlement.

Cet accord est considéré comme un signe encourageant, et semble laisser prévoir que les socialistes pourraient soutenir un gouvernement de coalition démocrates-Chrétiens et Républicains. Ce matin M. FANFANI a été élu président du Senat, et il a démissionné de son poste de Ministre des Affaires Etrangères.

Le président Saragat a demandé à M. Moro de continuer a expédier les Affaires courantes jusqu'à la formation d'un nouveau gouvernement et à s'occuper également des affaires Etrangères en remplacement de M. FANFANI, devenu président du Senat.

Les étudiants de gauche de l'université de Rome ont distribué des tracts dans lesquels ils renouvellent leur appel à un mouvement de contestation semblable à celui qui s'est manifesté en France.

A Catanzaro, dans le sud de la péninsule, des ouvriers du bâtiment en grève se sont bagarrés avec la police. Plusieurs policiers et grevistes ont été blessés.-

EUROPE - ORIENT

LA DEPOUILLE MORTELLE DU SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY EST A NEW-YORK.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

NEW-YORK :- 7 JUIN - L'avion de la Maison Blanche transportant la dépouille mortelle du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY est arrivé Jeudi soir à NEW-YORK. Le lourd cercueil d'Acajou a été placé dans un fourgon funèbre et a été amené à la Cathédrale Saint-PATRICK où le corps de Mr. Robert KENNEDY restera exposé aujourd'hui Vendredi pour un dernier hommage des Newyorkais avant la messe de requiem de Samedi matin. Les obsèques solennelles du Sénateur auront lieu à WASHINGTON Samedi après-midi.

Les New-Yorkais se massent pour rendre un dernier hommage à Robert Kennedy.

Le corps du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY repose sur un catafalque, seul dans l'immense cathédrale Saint-PATRICK, veillé seulement par les membres de sa famille qui se relaient à son chevet.

La foule imposante, estimée à près de 10.000 personnes qui était massée aux alentours de la cathédrale lors de l'arrivée du fourgon funèbre, s'est dispersée et, à une heure du matin, il restait quelques centaine de personnes devant la cathédrale. Ce dernier groupe de "fidèles" est décidé à rester toute la nuit. Il y a là des jeunes et des vieux, des blancs et des noirs, des familles entières assises ou couchées par terre attendant l'heure d'ouverture au public de la cathédrale pour pouvoir rendre un dernier hommage au sénateur.

Menaces de mort pour Sirhan Sirhan :

De nombreuses menaces adressées contre SIRHAN SIRHAN, l'assassin présumé de Mr. Robert KENNEDY, sont parvenues à la police depuis la mort du Sénateur de NEW-YORK, a déclaré aux journalistes à LOS-ANGELES le SHERIF PETER PITCHESS.

Celui-ci a précisé que ces menaces avaient été enrégistrées à différents postes de police sous forme de coups de téléphone ou de lettres dont la plupart des auteurs annonçaient leur intention de mettre fin aux jours de SIRHAN SIRHAN.../... lors de l'acheminement de ce dernier de la prison au tribunal où il doit comparaître.

L'un des auteurs de ces communications a même laissé entrevoir un attentat à la bombe destiné à faire sauter la prison tout entière. En attendant, Sirhan Sirhan fait l'objet de mesures de surveillance particulièrement strictes à l'Infirmerie de la prison centrale pour hommes de LOS-ANGELES.

Mr. PETER PICHESS a précisé que le detenu se trouvait dans une cellule située dans une aile isolée à l'extrémité d'un couloir isolé lui aussi au second étage de la prison.

Une surveillance sans relache est exercée 24 heures sur 24 par des gardes en uniforme dont l'un se trouve dans la cellule même du detenu, laquelle à 3,7 mètres de large et 3,7 de long - le garde exerce sa surveillance à travers un voyant pratiqué dans la lourde porte en acier de la cellule, tandis que les quatre autres arpentent inlassablement le couloir.

Mr. PITCHESS a déclaré qu'il avait parlé à SIRHAN SIRHAN pour le mettre au courant des menaces dirigées contre lui et lui demander de coopérer pleinement avec la police en ce qui concerne les mesures prises en vue de sa protection.

Le SHERIFF a ajouté que le prisonnier souffrait de contusion et d'écorchures au visage, d'une cheville foulée et d'un index brisé au cours de la cohue survenue au moment de son arrestation.

Il a été examiné par le Dr. MARKUS CRAGAN, un psychiatre qui dirige les services médicaux de la prison.

SIRHAN encourt la peine de mort dans la chambre à gaz.

SIRHAN BECHARA SIRHAN, le meurtrier du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, encourt d'après les lois de l'état de CALIFORNIE, la peine de mort dans la chambre à gaz de la prison de SAN QUENTIN. Il comparaîtra aujourd'hui à HUIS-CLOS devant le Grand Jury du Comté qui formulera les chefs d'accusation retenus contre lui. SIRHAN SIRHAN sera probablement à la fois accusé de meurtre, sur la personne du sénateur KENNEDY,.../...

et d'agression, avec intention de donner la mort, sur les cinq autres victimes de l'attentat de l'hôtel AMBASSADOR.

En conséquence, et selon la loi Californienne, il ne pourra plus bénéficier de la mise en liberté provisoire, même s'il réussissait à réunir les 250.000 dollars fixés pour la caution. Le procès, indique-t-on au bureau du District ATTORNEY, se déroule sans doute d'ici à un ou deux mois.

Des précautions exceptionnelles ont été prises à la prison du Comté afin que ce qui s'était produit à DALLAS (Le meurtre de LEE HARVEY OSWALD) ne se reproduise pas.

Controverse sur l'identité du meurtrier de Mr. KENNEDY.

Quelle est la véritable identité du meurtrier du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY ? L'enquête à laquelle s'est livré le département des migrations du gouvernement jordanien semble indiquer que bien des points doivent être encore éclaircis sur la vie de SIRHAN BECHARA SIRHAN.

Alors qu'à LOS ANGELES on affirme qu'il n'est pas marié et qu'il est originaire du village de SELOUAN, près de JERUSALEM, l'enquête officielle des autorités jordaniennes revèle que son vrai nom est SIRHAN SELIM SIRHAN ABOUKHADER. Il est marié et orginaire du village de TAYBE, près de RAMALLAJ, dans la banlieue de JERUSALEM.

La famille de sa femme vit dans la ville de SALT (à l'Ouest de AMMAN). Elle déclare que SIRHAN a émigré aux ETATS-UNIS alors qu'il était très jeune, en I948, qu'il est revenu en Jordanie en I958 et a épousé à SALT sa cousine LEILA YOUSSEF MIKHAIL ABOUKHADER. Le mariage a été célébré dans l'Eglise Chrétienne de la ville le 27 Mai I967.

Quelques jours après son mariage, SIRHAN a regagné les ETATS-UNIS. Trois mois plus tard, il a demandé à sa femme de le rejoindre et, depuis cette époque, elle vit avec lui aux ETATS-UNIS.

La presse et la mort du Sénateur

Robert KENNEDY.

La presse européenne rend ce matin un hommage unanime au Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, louant ses qualités d'homme d'état et regrettant sa fin tragique.

La presse britannique se demande en particulier quelles seront les suites politiques de cette soudaine disparition.

"Le monde entier connaissait Robert KENNEDY de vue et aimait son image", écrit le "TIMES", "Sa mort a creusé un fossé immense... l'Amérique survivra certainement à la mort de Robert KENNEDY, comme elle a survécu à celle de son frère. Mais la principale question pour I968 n'est plus de savoir qui sera le prochain Président, mais de savoir par quels moyens l'Amérique s'emploiera à survivre", conclut le "TIMES".

Pour sa part, le "DAILY TELEGRAPH" estime qu'il faut bien faire comprendre à l'électorat américain" que les idéaux et les ambitions qui ont poussé les frères KENNEDY ne sont pas morts avec eux. Sinon des temps bien pires risquent de survenir."

Les quotidiens italiens consacrent à Robert KENNEDY des pages entières, illustrées de nombreuses photographies du Sénateur et de sa famille.

Sous le titre "une tragédie de la liberté", "IL POPOLO", (gouvernemental, démocrati chrétienne) écrit notamment : "L'émotion et la pitié ne suffiront certainement pas à effacer ce nouveau jour néfaste pour la liberté. Le peuple américain possède les moyens de surmonter et de racheter cette tragédie, qui est morale avant d'être publique, et qui nous concerne tous".

"Questions angoissantes. Où va l'Amérique ? - fanatisme - espoir", tels sont quelques-uns des titres des éditoriaux de la presse allemande.

"La mort d'un homme politique aussi représentatif implique des conséquences politiques. Ce meurtre modifie la scène américaine", estime la "FRANKFURTER ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG" (tendance gouvernementale), qui ajoute par ailleurs : "tant que sera incertaine l'image que nous offrira prochainement la politique intérieure américaine,.../...

les négociations de Paris sur le VIET-NAM vont piétiner, tandis que les combats continueront de plus belle sur place. De toutes les repercussions politiques de ce terrible drame, c'est la plus dramatique". "AL AHRAM" affirme dans un éditorial que "le véritable meurtrier du sénateur est la violence qui caractérise la vie américaine, et le Parti-Pris des Etats-Unis contre la cause du peuple arabe, qui ne demande que son droit à l'existence... le racisme américain contre les arabes se transforme en pression pscychologique qui se fait sentir contre les immigrants arabes aux ETATS-UNIS", ajoute le journal.

Règlementation sur les armes demandée par JOHNSON.

Le Président JOHNSON a proposé jeudi soir au congrès, "au nom d'une Nation indignée", trois séries de mesures visant à règlementer sévèrement la vente des armes à feu de tous genres aux Etats-Unis.

S'appuyant sur les exemples de l'assassinat du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY et du Président JOHN KENNEDY, le chef de l'exécutif a adressé une lettre aux Présidents des deux chambres formulant les trois principes suivants :

I°) - Suppression de la vente des armes à feu par correspondance, tant en ce qui concerne les fusils et les fusils de chasse que les armes de poing.

2°) - Interdiction de vendre des armes de poing aux personnes âgées de moins de 2I ans, et des fusils ou fusils de chasse aux jeunes de moins de I8 ans.

3°) - Limitation de la vente des armes, dans un état, aux seuls résidents de cet état.

La vente des armes aux Etats-Unis.

Les télespectateurs américains ont pu suivre Jeudi soir sur leur petit écran, au moment où l'on attendait l'arrivée à NEW-YORK de l'avion ramenant le corps du sénateur Robert KENNEDY une séquence au cours de laquelle des passants entraient dans des boutiques Newyorkaises spécialisées dans la vente de surplus militaires pour en ressortir chargés de fusils, de révolvers, de bazookas, de lance-flammes,.../...

de grenades et de mortiers.

Il ne s'agissait pas d'un film mais d'un reportage effectué par des journalistes du réseau C/B.S. (Columbia Broadcasting system) en vue de démontrer la facilité avec laquelle on peut se procurer des armes aux Etats-Unis, sans permis et sans présentation de pièces d'idendité.

Un armurier curieux ayant demandé aux reporters ce qu'ils comptaient faire de cet arsénal. "Mais voyons, c'est pour en faire des cadeaux de Noël", lui fut-il répondu. Le vendeur légèrement surpris n'avait pas insisté.

La position de Messieurs MCCARTHY et HUMPHREY après la mort de Mr. KENNEDY.

La mort du sénateur Robert KENNEDY a libéré de leur promesse les délégués de son parti qui, à la suite des élections primaires, s'étaient engagés à voter à la convention de CHICAGO pour sa nomination comme candidat démocrate aux élections présidentielles de Novembre.

La majorité des observateurs politiques dans la capitale fédérale estiment qu'un partage des voix de ces délégués entre le Vice-Président Hubert HUMPHREY et le Sénateur EUGENE MCCARTHY est très probable et qu'il augmentera l'avance actuelle du Vice-Président en lui donnant le "contrôle" de la convention.

Cet avis n'est toutefois pas entièrement partagé par Mr. George GALLUP, qui dirige l'Institut de l'opinion publique, dont les sondages sont très suivis dans la presse américaine et à l'étranger. Au cours d'un déjeûner du "National Press Coub" Mr. GALLUP a déclaré que l'élimination de la scène politique démocrate de Mr. Robert KENNEDY pourrait constituer en dernière analyse, un avantage pour le Sénateur MCCARTHY.

Mr. GALLUP a affirmé que la question la plus importante pour les démocrates est actuellement de savoir le choix que feront les divers "groupes" minoritaires ou autres qui constituaient le principal appui du Sénateur de NEW-YORK. Ce problème est notamment capital en ce qui concerne les électeurs de race noire qui, selon les sondages, étaient favorables à Mr. KENNEDY dans la proportion de 85 à 90 pour cent./.

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE:
RETOUR A LA NORMALE.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

PARIS :- 7 JUIN - Après vingt jours de paralysie, la vie a repris ce matin un cours presque normal en France.

Les enfants ont repris le chemin des écoles qui ont rouvert et aucune difficulté de transports n'entrave plus les déplacements des travailleurs, symbole de ce retour à la normale. La Bourse qui n'était pas en grève mais que la paralysie générale avait contraint à fermer va ouvrir ses portes à l'heure habituelle. Elle porte encore les tracts de l'incendie que les étudiants avaient tenté d'y allumer, un soir d'émeute, pour détruire, disaient-ils, le temple du capitalisme.

Quelques secteurs grevistes subsistent encore, dans la métallurgie et l'industrie automobile notamment. Leur détermination ne permet pas d'exclure des incidents violents, comme à l'usine Renault de Flins où des bagarres ont mis aux prises ce matin encore les ouvriers et les forces de police qui les avaient expulsés des bâtiments. Mais il ne s'agit apparamment que de cas locaux qui ne semblent pas devoir se généraliser et entraver la reprise générale du travail dans le pays. Celle-ci s'effectue à un rythme différent suivant les secteurs. La complexité de l'infrastructure ferroviaire, et la sévérité des règles de sécurité y rend la reprise plus lente, de même pour la navigation aérienne. Pour les postes également, la quantité de courrier accumulé et la nécessité de le trier en ralentit la distribution.

Mais partout les services municipaux fonctionnent, les banques ont rouvert leurs guichets, l'approvisionnement s'effectue normalement.

Dans l'enseignement, si les écoliers ont repris normalement leurs classes ce matin, il n'en va pas de même dans les lycées et les collèges où seuls quelques cours ont repris. La fédération de l'éducation nationale, qui groupe la plupart des enseignants, a en effet donné l'ordre de reprise du travail après consultation de ses adhérents, mais deux importants syndicats de l'enseignement secondaire ont décidé de poursuivre le mouvement et exigent de nouvelles négociations. Quant à l'enseignement supérieur, le syndicat national qui a joué un rôle important dans la crise maintient son refus de toute négociation, la grève continue donc sans perspective de solution.

.../...

La grève continue également dans la métallurgie, dans l'industrie aéronautique (ce qui retarde notamment le programme du "Concorde") et surtout dans l'industrie automobile où les usines Renault à Flins, Peugeot à Sochaux et Berliet à Lyon constituent des bastions d'irréductibles. Sans que l'on puisse minimiser l'effet que l'action de ces derniers pourrait encore avoir surtout si les incidents devaient y dégénerer il ne semble pas que le mouvement de reprise générale du travail en France puisse en être compromis. Déjà l'attention de l'opinion publique se porte sur les futures conséquences économiques de la crise et sur les prochaines élections législatives, dont l'interview que le chef de l'Etat accorde ce soir à la télévision marque en quelque sorte le coup d'envoi.-

Orly et le Bourget: Reprise du travail.

A l'aéroport d'Orly, tout le personnel au sol d'Air France a repris le travail ce matin à 7H.GMT ainsi que la majeure partie du personnel navigant.

D'autre part le CCR (Centre de contrôle régional d'Athis-Mons) a repris ses activités ce matin mais la remise en marche ne s'effectuera que lentement tout au long de la journée.

Au Bourget, après avoir été paralysé pendant une quinzaine de jours par la grève générale, le trafic commercial aérien reprendra progressivement.-

UN APPEL DE M. THANT.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

NATIONS-UNIES :- 7 JUIN - Ce que toutes les parties directement en cause dans la guerre du Vietnam dépensent chaque jour est l'équivalent de ce que l'Organisation des Nations-Unies dépense en un an. Autrement dit, si la guerre du Vietnam dure encore un an, les frais de cette guerre seront l'équivalent des dépenses de l'ONU pendant 365 ans.a déclaré jeudi M. Thant, secrétaire général de l'ONU, à l'ouverture de la session du conseil d'Administration du fonds des Nations-Unies pour l'enfance.

M. Thant constate aussi que les sommes dépensées par les puissances nucléaires pour découvrir l'énergie atomique, qu'il évalue à environ IO milliards de dollars, représentant à peu près I70 fois les dépenses annuelles du F.I.S.E., dont le capital d'investissement est la jeunesse du monde entier.

.../...

Il en déduit qu'il y a quelque chose d'erronné dans les priorités de l'époque et que la communauté humaine a perdu le sens des perspectives dans l'édification d'un nouveau monde.-

LA CRISE BELGE ENTRE DANS SON 5EME MOIS.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

BRUXELLES :- 7 JUIN- La crise Gouvernementale Belge dont le denouement paraissait proche cette semaine, après l'accord réalisé entre les négociateurs des deux partis Chrétiens et socialiste sur un programme gouvernemental, vient de rebondir. Cet accord qui porte principalement sur les problèmes des relations entre Flamands et Wallons est remis en cause par les socialistes Francophones de Bruxelles. Ces derniers refusent de souscrire aux solutions préconisées par M. Vanden Boyenants pour le statut de l'agglomération Bruxelloise dont le bilinguisme cristallisé l'opposition des deux communautés Flamande et Wallons.

Le parti socialiste ne se réunira pas avant mercredi prochain pour décider ou non de sa participation au nouveau gouvernement il n'est pas exclu que les socialistes francophones Bruxellois emettent un vote hostile.-

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

NICOSIE :- 7 JUIN - Je suis satisfait des premiers contacts que j'ai eus avec les dirigeants Chypriotes Turcs à Beyrouth mais je ne veux pas donner l'impression que nous aboutirons à une solution dans un avenir proche, a déclaré jeudi M. Glafcos Clerides, président du parlement de Chypre, à son retour de Beyrouth où il représentait les Chypriotes-Grecs au cours des premières conversations directes entre les deux communautés Chypriotes.

Les conversations directes entre les leaders des deux communautés se poursuivront à Nicosie, alternativement dans le secteur Grec puis Turc de la capitale et, à partir du 24 Juin, sous les auspices du représentant spécial des Nations-Unies, M. Osorio Tafal.

Si les conversations n'aboutissent pas, une conférence des puissances garantes (la grande Bretagne, la Grèce et la Turquie), se réunira pour décider du nouveau regime de Chypre.-

Nous les femmes, nous ne pouvons nous empêcher de manifester notre joie à la création de cette usine qui nous permettra de nous habiller et d'habiller nos enfants à peu de frais. Notre satisfaction ne s'arrête pas seulement à l'usine COMATEX. Nous accueillons également avec plaisir toutes les autres réalisations industrielles car c'est une fierté pour nous que de pouvoir compter sur nos propres moyens. C'est ainsi que nous saluons avec joie la rénovation qualitative de nos conserves de tomate.

Pour terminer la camarade Sitan SANGARE a invité toutes les militantes maliennes à honorer les produits Maliens sortis des usines Maliennes.

De leur côté, les femmes de Médina-Coura et de Tomicorobougou ont, elles aussi organisé des manifestations au niveau de leur quartier.

AIDE ALIMENTAIRE AU MALI.

R O M E :- IO JUIN - Le PAM (programme alimentaire ONU/FAO) expédiera 365 tonnes de poudre de lait au Mali où il sera reconstitué et mélangé au lait local.

Un accord a été signé la semaine dernière à BAMAKO entre le PAM et le gouvernement du Mali prévoyant l'expédition de poudre de lait pendant quatre ans afin de permettre la production de 5.000 litres de lait liquide par jour.

Les opérations de mélange seront effectuées dans une usine fournie par le FISE (Fonds des NATIONS-UNIES pour l'Enfance) actuellement en cours d'installation avec l'aide d'un expert de la FAO (Organisation des NATIONS-UNIES pour l'alimentation et l'Agriculture). Le lait reconstitué et enrichi sera vendu à BAMAKO à bas prix pour le mettre à la portée de tous.

Pour accroître sa production de lait, le Mali effectue des croisements de vaches locales avec des espèces bovines importées. Les recettes provenant de la vente du lait fourni par le PAM serviront d'ailleurs à l'amélioration du Cheptel.

L'opération coûtera I58.600 dollars au PAM./.

LA MORT DE MAITRE LAMINE GUEYE

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

DAKAR, IO JUIN - Maître LAMINE GUEYE, Président de l'Assemblée Nationale du Sénégal, est mort cet après-midi à DAKAR. Maître LAMINE GUEYE qui avait été Sous-Secrétaire d'Etat à la Présidence du Conseil du Gouvernement Français en I946, et membre de la première et de la deuxième Assemblée Constituante Française, était né le 20 SEPTEMBRE I89I à Médine (MALI).

Maître LAMINE GUEYE, Président de l'Assemblée Nationale du Sénégal qui vient de mourrir cet après-midi à son domicile Dakarois des suites d'une longue et douloureuse maladie avait été Maire de Dakar. Il avait également été jusqu'à l'indépendance de son pays en I960, chef de file de la SFIO d'Afrique Occidentale Française.

Les obsèques nationales lui seront faites demain à partir de I6 Heures. Dès aujourd'hui tous les drapeaux ont été mis en berne. Une foule nombreuse et silencieuse stationne déjà devant son domicile Avenue de la République.-

Libération des étudiants Sénégalais arrêtés au cours des manifestations

Les étudiants Sénégalais qui avaient été arrêtés Mercredi 29 Mai à la suite des manifestations de l'Université de DAKAR ont été libérés ce matin. Ainsi, la détente amorcée en début de semaine avec la libération de tous les leaders syndicaux, arrêtés après les grèves et les manifestations du 3I Mai, se confirme.

Le travail a maintenant repris dans tous les secteurs, les écoles primaires rouvrent leur portes aujourd'hui les établissements secondaires dans les prochains jours.

C'est dans ce climat de confiance retrouvée que s'ouvriront MARDI I2 JUIN les conversations tripartites Gouvernement-Syndicat-Patronat.

Cette rencontre ne fait pas suite à la grève, elle avait été prévue depuis plusieurs semaines par le Gouvernement du Président SENGHOR.

.../...

Les conversations auront pour objet essentiel l'examen des révendications des travailleurs, révendications contenues dans un mémorandum qui avait été remis le 6 Mai dernier au Gouvernement par les Syndicats.

Ce mémorandum fait apparaitre deux révendications essentielles.

Les syndicats demandent d'une part un rélèvement des salaires, surtout des bas salaires, d'autre part un contrôle plus rigoureux des prix, notamment des produits de première nécessité tel que le riz et le sucre.

On pense généralement que le Gouvernement répondra favorablement à ces deux révendications, étant entendu que les rélèvements de salaires ne pourront se faire que dans les limites des possibilités économiques et financières du pays.

Une troisième révendication des syndicats serait également examinée. La sécurité sociale n'existant pas au Sénégal, les travailleurs voudraient que les patrons prennent entièrement à leur charge les frais médicaux et pharmaceutiques non seulement des salariés mais également de leur famille. Ce troisième point est beaucoup plus délicat car les familles Sénégalaises sont très importantes du fait de la polygamie.

Le I3 JUIN le Président de la République, M.LEOPOLD SEDAR SENGHOR s'adressera à la nation. Il fera vraisemblablement le point des négociations et d'une façon plus générale des évènements qui viennent de se produire au Sénégal./.-

COMMUNIQUE FINAL IRAN-ETHIOPIE

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

ADDIS ABEBA, 10 JUIN - L'IRAN et l'ETHIOPIE ont déclaré Dimanche que les troupes Israéliennes devraient se retirer des territoires occupés pour assurer la paix et la stabilité au Proche-Orient.

Dans un communiqué commun publié à l'issue de la visite officielle d'une semaine effectuée en ETHIOPIE par le Chah Mohamed Reza Pahlevi d'IRAN, le Chah et l'Empereur HAILE SELASSIE d'ETHIOPIE déclarent qu'ils ont étudié tout spécialement, au cours de leurs entretiens, la situation au Proche Orient.

Les deux chefs d'Etat ont également demandé l'instauration d'un désarmement général et complet sous un contrôle efficace, qui serait, estiment-ils, un moyen d'assurer une paix durable.

Le Chah d'IRAN et son hôte l'Empereur HAILE SELASSIE ont décidé de réexaminer les possibilités d'un élargissement de la coopération politique, économique, culturelle et agricole entre leurs deux pays, et de préparer des projets à réaliser dans un avenir proche.

Ils ont décidé que leurs Ministres se réuniront de temps en temps pour coordonner leurs vues sur les affaires internationales et les questions d'intérêt mutuel.

Les deux chefs d'Etat ont condamné la discrimination raciale et ont demandé à toutes les nations d'unir leurs efforts en accord avec les résolutions des Nations-Unies pour l'élimination d'une politique incompatible avec le prestige et la dignité humaines.

Le Chah a invité l'Empereur à se rendre en visite officielle en IRAN, invitation qui a été acceptée. Aucune date n'a encore été fixée.

L'Empereur s'est déjà rendu en IRAN en 1964, et c'est à la suite de cette visite que le Chah est venu en ETHIOPIE./.-

Départ du Chah d'Iran pour Rome

Le Chah Mohamed Reza Pahlevi d'IRAN et l'Impératrice FARAH ont quitté Dimanche ASMARA à l'issue d'une visite officielle d'une semaine en ETHIOPIE.

Les Souverains Iraniens sont partis dans un avion spécial de la Compagnie "ETHIOPIAN AIRLINES" à destination de ROME.

Le Chah quittera ROME pour les ETATS-UNIS, où il effectuera une visite privée, tandis que l'Impératrice regagnera TEHERAN./.-

CHRONIQUE INTERNATIONALE

EUROPE - OCCIDENT

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

PARIS :- IO JUIN - Plus d'un million de travailleurs sont encore en grève aujourd'hui Lundi, au seuil de la quatrième semaine d'un mouvement de révendications qui avait entraîné, à la fin du mois de Mai, dix millions de salariés à arrêter le travail.

Dans plusieurs secteurs et notamment dans celui de la Métallurgie Parisienne, aucun accord précis n'est intervenu au cours de la journée de Dimanche.

Seule la direction des Usines RENAULT. "En dépit des pressions faites sur le personnel de l'Usine FLINS pour décourager de prendre son travail, plus du tiers du personnel, soit 3.500 personnes environ, a pris son service ce matin".

"Il faut préciser une fois de plus ajoute la direction que les forces de l'ordre n'occupent pas les usines de FLINS, mais que se limitent à disperser les éléments, bien souvent étrangers à l'usine, qui s'efforcent de s'opposer à l'entrée du personnel".

Le bureau de l'Union des Industries Metallurgiques et Minières, qui sera reçu ce matin par le nouveau Ministre des Affaires Sociales, Mr. MAURICE SCHUMANN, maintient fermement sa position, a savoir qu'il ne peut aller sensiblement au-délà des accords de GRENELLE sans compromettre gravement l'avenir de l'Industrie Française.

De nombreuses reprises de travail sont cependant attendues sous peu dans différentes entreprises à la suite de "CONSTATS", c'est-à-dire de sortes de protocoles d'accord qui ne font pas l'objet de signatures. C'est le cas notamment d'Industries Aéronautiques comme Sud-Aviation, Nord-Aviation, la SNECMA et DASSAULT. Les syndicats ont convoqué les travailleurs de ces entreprises pour Lundi matin afin de leur exposer les résultats des négociations et l'on pense que la plupart d'entre eux accepteront de reprendre le travail.../...

Même situation dans d'autres firmes importantes comme PEUGEOT, MICHELIN, DUNLOP, etc...

Dans les Imprimeries de Labeur (éditions) un protocole d'accord est également intervenu entre les syndicats et les patrons.

Dans le port, des dockers ont repris le travail et d'autres semblent disposés à suivre leur exemple, notamment sur le littoral méditerranéen.

Par contre, des "poches de grève" subsistent dans différents secteurs comme certains grands magasins parisiens qui n'ont pas encore rouvert leurs portes.

Les prochaines élections législatives françaises.

Deux mille trois cents candidats se sont officiellement déclarés pour disputer, les 23 et 30 Juin prochains 470 sièges de députés en France métropolitaine. La nouvelle assemblée nationale comprend normalement 487 députés en tenant compte des départements et territoires d'Outre-Mer dont la liste complète des candidats n'est pas encore parvenue au siège du Ministère de l'Intérieur.

Le total des candidats métropolitains dépasse de peu celui qui avait été enregistré en Mars I967 lors du dernier scrutin législatif. Une "inflation" de candidats est pourtant enregistrée à Paris et dans la région Parisienne où 490 candidats se disputeront soixante dix sièges.

Le quartier Latin où se sont déroulées depuis le début du mois de Mai, la plupart des affrontements entre les étudiants et la police détient un record dans le nombre des candidatures.

Le député sortant, Mr. PIERRE CAPITANT, Ministre de la Justice du nouveau gouvernement de Mr. POMPIDOU, et qui avait donné sa démission de député pour protester contre la politique à ses yeux trop conservatrice des Gaullistes à douze challengers.

Le Parti Communiste à des représentants dans la totalité des circonscriptions métropolitaines. Les Gaullistes et la Gauche non communiste dans la quasi totalité. Les centristes ne sont représentés que dans la moitié environ des circonscriptions et les républicains indépendants de Mr. GISCARD D'ESTAING, alliés des Gaullistes à la majorité gouvernementale sortante dans le quart des circonscriptions.../...

Deux formations sans représentation parlementaire sont également sur les rangs : le Parti Socialiste Unifié et le Mouvement Technique et Démocratie. On remarque par contre que Mr. EDGAR PISANI, ancien Ministre de l'Agriculture qui avait projeté de réunir soixante quinze candidats pour représenter le Parti Mouvement pour la réforme qu'il a fondé n'a pas réussi dans ce dessein. La campagne électorale débute aujourd'hui. Elle risque d'être acharnée.

La conférence de presse de Mr. POMPIDOU.

Recevant la presse hier, en fin d'après-midi à l'Hôtel MATIGNON, Mr. GEORGES POMPIDOU a fait le point de la situation sur divers plans : affaires sociales - étudiants et université - affaires politiques.

"Au travail" : telle doit être, à l'heure présente, selon Mr. GEORGES POMPIDOU, Premier Ministre la devise de la France.

"Il importe maintenant que tous les français se remettent au travail, et pour rattrapper le temps perdu du fait des grèves, et pour redonner à notre expansion ce coup de fouet dont elle à un besoin urgent, en particulier d'ailleurs pour donner toute leur valeur aux avantages qui viennent d'être consentis aux travailleurs a déclaré Mr. POMPIDOU qui a estimé que "la situation ne se présente pas "mal, pour la bonne raison que les travailleurs ont parfaitement conscience de leurs intérêts".

Après avoir souligné que, si la police avait été envoyée aux usines RENAULT de FLINS, ce n'était pas "pour occuper l'usine mais pour défendre la liberté du travail", le Premier Ministre a fait remarquer que "les choses semblent s'améliorer, et on peut espérer que chez RENAULT, le travail reprendra demain", après les conversations qui se déroulent actuellement entre les syndicats et la direction".

Le Premier Ministre a ensuite évoqué les problèmes universitaires :il a insisté pour que les professeurs de l'enseignement secondaire, dont les syndicats ont maintenu l'ordre de grève, "reprennent le chemin du lycée" afin d'éviter que la jeunesse perde une année. Abordant l'enseignement supérieur, Mr. POMPIDOU a constaté que ses appels aux étudiants "n'ont guère eu d'écho", certains ayant même déclaré qu'"ils ne veulent avoir aucun rapport avec ce gouvernement"...../...

Or, a-t-il ajouté, "le gouvernement de la France n'est pas celui des étudiants. C'est le gouvernement légal, celui qui sort de la volonté du peuple... Il serait surprenant que les étudiants refusent de s'entendre et de discuter pour une réforme de l'Université que j'ai reclamée et promise avec le gouvernement voulu par la majorité des français, qui sont ceux-là lèmes qui se préoccupent de financer l'université".

Traitant enfin de l'actualité politique, le chef du gouvernement a souligné que l'"Union pour la Défense de la République", que soutient les Gaullistes pour les prochaines élections, "ne représente pas un parti". L'U.D.R., a-t-il indiqué, accordera son investiture aux députés Gaullistes sortants (Union Démocratique pour la cinquième république), aux républicains indépendants (GISCARDINES), à des candidats centristes aussi bien qu'à des candidats nouveaux, qu'ils soient de gauche, anciens radicaux ou socialistes, ou de droite, "et en particulier des hommes qui s'étaient séparés du Général De GAULLE a propos des évènements d'Algérie et qui ont compris maintenant où est le danger, et qui l'ont rejoint".

Retour de Bidault en France.

Mr. GEORGES BIDAULT, ancien Président du Conseil Français rentré Samedi en France au terme d'un exil de six ans a déclaré ce matin à Paris qu'il ne serait pas candidat aux élections législatives du 23 Juin prochain./.

LA CRISE GOUVERNEMENTALE ITALIENNE.

-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-:-

R O M E :- IO JUIN - Mr. GIUSEPPE SARAGAT, Président de la République Italienne, a confié à Mr. MARNO RUMOR, Secrétaire du Parti Démocrate Chrétien Italien, la tâche de former le nouveau gouvernement.

Le communiqué de la Présidence déclare que Mr. SARAGAT a demandé à Mr. RUMOR de procéder à des sondages sur la possibilité de constituer un nouveau gouvernement, "estimant qu'une étude plus approfondie des attitudes des diverses forces parlementaires est nécessaire"./...

Le Président SARAGAT avait commencé ses consultations pour la formation d'un nouveau gouvernement quand les socialistes à la suite de leurs pertes aux dernières élections générales avaient annoncé leur intention de se rétirer de la coalition de centre-gauche.

Le démocratie chrétienne doit maintenant envisager de former un gouvernement de minorité, peut-être avec l'appoint du petit parti républicain.

A ROME, les observateurs politiques estiment que Mr. RUMOR doit faire face à une tâche bien difficile et certains estiment qu'il a peu de chances de réussir, du moins pour l'instant./.

L'HOMMAGE DU PEUPLE AMERICAIN A ROBERT KENNEDY.

-:-:-:

L'immense foule, qui avait défilé pendant 24 heures devant le catafalque dans la Cathédrale Saint-PATRICK à NEW-YORK, celle qui se pressait dans le sanctuaire et dans les avenues de la grande métropole, qui montait une garde muette tout au long de la voie ferrée empruntée par le train funèbre, n'a pas seulement voulu saluer la dépouille mortelle du Sénateur disparu et manifester sa sympathie à une famille déjà si durement approuvée. Cette foule de citoyens américains apportait son adhésion au message de Mr. Robert KENNEDY.

Au-délà des divergences politiques aiguisées par une campagne électorale sans merci, une profonde prise de conscience s'exprimait par le silence d'une foule émue devant la Bière, drapée de la bannière étoilée, contenant les restes mortels de Mr. KENNEDY, le recueillement avait remplacé les scènes bruyantes, parfois hystériques, qui avaient entouré chacune des étapes de sa vie politique.

"Les idées sont plus importantes que les hommes", avait déclaré le Sénateur KENNEDY peu d'heures avant d'être assassiné. Ces idées sont maintenant lancées. Le flambeau de la rénovation va passer en d'autres mains, mais il est maintenant plus évident que jamais que l'esprit de renouvellement de la société américaine est en marche. Quels que soient les hommes qui prendront le rélai, les idées du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY, qui en avait lui-même hérité de son frère JOHN, restent.

La petite colline verdoyante du cimétière national d'ARLINGTON où, côte à côte, reposent maintenant les deux frères unis dans le même esprit, sera plus que jamais le point de ralliement de ceux qui, comme eux croient en la possibilité de jours meilleurs pour l'humanité toute entière.

La journée de deuil national aux Etats-Unis.

Les milliers de personnes se sont rendues Dimanche au cimétière d'ARLINGTON, près de WASHINGTON, pour se recueillir sur la tombe du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY.

La police évalue à 3.500 personnes à l'heure, le rythme du lent défilé. La tête couverte d'un voile noir, Mme. Robert KENNEDY est venue avec son fils aîné en milieu de matinée déposer une fleur unique et prier quelques instants devant la simple croix blanche semblable à toutes les croix des autres tombes du cimétière militaire d'ARLINGTON.../...

Mme. JOHN KENNEDY, la veuve du Président, est également venue se recueillir quelques instants sur les tombes de son beau frère et de son mari.

A la Maison Blanche, la journée de deuil national décrétée par le Président JOHNSON a été marquée par un service réligieux célébré par l'évangeliste BILLY GRAHAN, en présence du Président et de tout le personnel de la résidence présidentielle, dans toutes les Eglises, des services religieux spéciaux ont été célébrés à la mémoire du Sénateur disparu.

Le Pape et Robert KENNEDY.

Le Pape Paul SIX a déclaré aujourd'hui que l'assassinat du Sénateur Robert KENNEDY laissera une marque indélébile non seulement sur l'histoire des Etats-Unis, mais également sur la conscience de l'humanité.

Rendant hommage au Sénateur, devant la foule massée sur la place Saint-PIERRE pour recevoir sa bénédiction dominicale, le Souverain Pontife a souligné le courage de Robert KENNEDY, de son frère le Président KENNEDY et du Pasteur Martin LUTHER KING, qui tous deux furent également assassinés.

"Le monde, dit-il, a été ébranlé la semaine écoulée, en raison, comme nous le savons tous, du meurtre de Robert KENNEDY, et des circonstances dramatiques et tragiques de cet évènement qui s'inscrit en lettres indélébiles, non seulement sur l'histoire des ETATS-UNIS, mais aussi sur la conscience de l'humanité comme un acte de folie abominable. Il doit engendrer en conséquence une réaction spirituelle perpétuelle et bénéfique".

A propos des armes introduites dans la prison centrale.

Les trois pistolets chargés qu'une femme a tenté d'introduire dans la soirée de Vendredi dans la prison centrale de LOS-ANGELES étaient destinés à un prisonnier dont la cellule est située du côté opposé à celle de SIRHAN SIRHAN, a précisé Samedi le Shérif du Comté.

La femme, Edith Grant, 55 ans a été arrêtée et elle est detenue dans une prison pour femmes située dans le secteur Est de LOS ANGELES, a dit le Shérif.../...

Le Shérif n'a pas précisé si la tentative d'Edith GRANT avait un rapport quelconque avec la présence dans une cellule de cette même prison centrale, de SIRHAN SIRHAN, l'assassin du Sénateur KENNEDY.

La majorité des américains pour un contrôle des armes à feu.

D'après un sondage effectué par l'Institut GALLUP le jour de l'attentat contre le Sénateur KENNEDY, la majorité des américains serait en faveur d'un contrôle efficace des armes à feu comme moyen de prevenir la violence.

Le sondage a été effectué par téléphone dans l'ensemble des ETATS-UNIS. L'Institut GALLUP ne fournit cependant aucun pourcentage des réponses favorables à un contrôle des armes. Il rappelle qu'un sondage effectué par ses services le Ier Mai I938 avait donné un pourcentage de 84% en faveur d'un tel contrôle et, en I967, un pourcentage de 85%./.

JAMES EARL RAY EN DETENTION PROVISOIRE
JUSQU'AU I8 JUIN.

-:-:-:

L'EXTRADITION DE JAMES EARL RAY POURRAIT PRENDRE PLUSIEURS SEMAINES.

L'extradition de JAMES EARL RAY, meurtrier présumé du Pasteur Martin LUTHER KING, pourrait prendre plusieurs semaines s'il usait de toutes les ressources de la procédure, estime-t-on dans les milieux judiciaires britanniques. Arrêté Samedi matin à l'aéroport de LONDRES alors qu'il était porteur d'un passeport canadien établi au nom de RAMON GEORGE SNEYD, RAY comparaîtra ce matin devant le tribunal de BOW STREET, qui l'inculpera de port d'arme prohibée et d'usage de faux passeport.

Les juges auront également à établir sa véritable identité. S'il est prouvé que le suspect est bien JAMES EARL RAY, contre lequel la justice de MEMPHIS (TENNESSEE) a lancé un mandat d'arrêt international pour le meurtre du Pasteur KING, l'extradition sera alors décidée. Mais celui qui se faisait passer pour RAMON GEORGE SNEYD aura alors deux possibilités : ou accepter volontairement son rapatriement à MEMPHIS - dans ce cas l'extradition serait rapide ou faire appel contre l'arrêt d'extradition, demander à la haute cour de justice à bénéficier de l'habeas corpus et suivre alors la procédure normale d'appel. Dans ce cas l'extradition serait reportée à plusieurs semaines./.

A T H E N E S :- 20 JUIN - 28 personnes, dont 14 militaires des forces navales, comparaîtront le 3 Juillet prochain en cour martiale à ATHENES sous l'accusation d'avoir tenté de renverser le régime déclare-t-on aujourd'hui de source autorisée à ATHENES.

On ajoute de même source que les accusés avaient été inculpés par le procureur près la cour martiale à ATHENES au terme d'une enquête de cinq mois.

Aucune précision n'a été donnée quant à la nature des chefs d'accusation [illegible] des 28 personnes en question, mais de source digne de foi on déclare que ces personnes sont accusées, entre autres, d'avoir projeté des actes de sabotage contre la flotte Grecque.

Les civils et les militaires de la marine de guerre faisaient partie de deux groupes distincts opérant pour le compte d'une organisation appelée "défense démocratique", ajoute-t-on./.

Protestation de l'Opinion Japonaise.

IO.000 personnes ont participé au meeting et à la manifestation qui ont eu lieu à Fukuoka (île de Kuy-Shu) contre l'instauration dans la région de cette île Japonaise, de la base aérienne américaine de Itazuke.

Les représentants de 45 syndicats professionnels de la zone de Kyu-Shu-nord, des organisations des jeunes et d'autres organisations rassemblés en meeting, ont exigé la liquidation immédiate de la base aérienne américaine d'Itazuke, située dans une zone a dense population. Il y a huit jours un chasseur bombardier de cette base s'était écrasé au cours d'un vol de nuit sur le centre de calcul en construction de l'université de Fukuoka. Ce n'est que par hasard que la catastrophe de l'avion américain militaire ne provoqua pas de grandes pertes. Cette chute d'un avion américain sur la ville de Fukuoka a provoqué dans le pays une vive vague de protestations contre les bases militaires américaines au Japon. Les partis communiste et socialiste ainsi que d'autres organisations démocratiques ont élévé des protestations et ont exigé la suppression immédiate des bases militaires américaines au Japon.

En dépit des protestations énergiques de l'opinion Japonaise, les autorités militaires américaines refusent de cesser le survol par leurs avions des régions peuplées du Japon.-

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN YOUGOSLAVIE

B E L G R A D E, IO JUIN - Le Président TITO, Chef de l'Etat Yougoslave, a déclaré hier soir à BELGRADE que les problèmes mis en lumière par le récent malaise étudiant doivent trouver une solution rapide. Il a ajouté que s'il ne pouvait résoudre ces problèmes, il ne demeurerait pas à la tête de l'Etat.

Dans une allocution radiodiffusée et télévisée à travers tout le pays, le Président a dit qu'il comprenait les requêtes de la majorité des étudiants et que le Comité Central du Parti Communiste Yougoslave s'était déjà penché sur les problèmes universitaires. Il a déclaré que si rien n'a été dit à ce sujet, la responsabilité en revient au Parti, et a ajouté que les manifestations des étudiants avaient accéléré les choses.

Les évènements étudiants font actuellement l'objet de discussions à une session conjointe du Présidium du P.C. Yougoslave et du Comité Exécutif qui se déroule à BELGRADE.

Le Président TITO estime que les manifestations étudiantes ont débuté spontanément. Mais il a ajouté que, par la suite, des éléments divers, les plus réactionnaires et les plus extrémistes ont tenté d'accaparer le mouvement et de l'utiliser à leurs propres fins.

Mais il a affirmé que tout comme la classe ouvrière, les étudiants ont fait la preuve de la maturité de leur conscience politique et ont presque à l'unanimité rejeté ces éléments. Il a ajouté que les étudiants Yougoslaves ont été negligés et traités comme des écoliers et qu'on ne leur a pas suffisament donné l'occasion de participer au système d'autogestion tel qu'il est pratiqué en Yougoslavie.

Deux qui estiment que les désordres étudiants en Yougoslavie, ont été provoqués par l'influence des évènements de France, d'Allemagne Fédérale et de Tchécoslovaquie se trompent, a-t-il dit. Il s'agit en fait d'un reflet des faiblesses de la société Yougoslave, a-t-il ajouté./.-

L'allocution du Chef de l'Etat bien accueillie par les étudiants

Dès la fin de l'allocution radiotélévisée dans laquelle le Maréchal TITO a évoqué Dimanche soir les problèmes du monde étudiant, environ 2.000 étudiants de BELGRADE, après avoir suivi le discours à la Faculté de Droit, ont salué les propos du Chef de l'Etat par un tonnerre d'applaudissements qui ont duré dix minutes, annonce ce matin l'Agence de Presse Yougoslave YANJUG.

A SARAJEVO, siège de l'une des plus importantes Uni-versité du pays, les étudiants ont également marqué leur approbation après l'allocution du Président de la République./.-

La vie reprend à l'Université de BELGRADE

Les examens reprennent cet après-midi à l'Université de BELGRADE, après une semaine de grève et de manifestations. Les étudiants annoncent la fin de l'occupation des Facultés. Mais les "activistes" demandent le maintien des "Comités d'Action" pour contrôler la réalisation des réformes promises, tandis que le Comité de Coordination des Organisations Estudiantines (Comités d'Action et Communistes compris) doit présenter ce soir une "plate-forme" commune.

Détente mais vigilance, en fin de matinée, à la Faculté de Philosophie, où un meeting dans la cour intérieure a réuni un millier d'étudiants et de professeurs prompts aux applaudissements et aux sifflets. On acclame le nom de TITO, dont l'allocution d'hier a dénoué spectaculairement la crise. A l'invitation de la "CAMARADE VERA", Présidente du Comité d'Action, on vote dans l'enthousiasme une lettre de remercie-ment au Chef de l'Etat "qui a montré sa confiance dans la jeunesse universitaire"....

La Camarade n'en précise pas moins que les Comités d'Action resteront et seront élus tous les I5 jours (au lieu de toutes les 48 heures) et qu'ils siègeront régulièrement tous les Mardis et Vendredis, vacances ou pas. A côté du Parti, ils seront les garants même de la légalité socialiste et de la réalisation effective des objectifs de la constitution et de la ligue des communistes./.-

Le samedi 1er juin 1968 le Pavillon n° 3 du Stade Modibo Kéita connaissait l'ambiance des grands jours. En effet, dès 20 h. une foule nombreuse l'avait prise d'assaut, afin d'assister au grand match de basket-ball comptant pour la finale de la Coupe Nationale du Mali, opposant le Réal au Stade Malien.

Après avoir remis la coupe au capitaine de l'équipe victorieuse, le Président Modibo Kéïta lui donne l'accolade

Tous les amateurs de la balle au panier étaient présents à ce grand rendez-vous pour encourager les deux équipes qui ont dominé cette saison, les autres formations de basket.

En effet, le Stade avait éliminé le Djoliba, le Club de Gao et le Bani-Club de Mopti, alors que le Réal de son côté, mettait hors de la compétition nationale, le Stade de Sikasso. Tout laissait donc prévoir une partie magnifique. L'éclat de cette finale était rehaussé par la présence effective du Président Modibo Kéita, ayant à ses côtés les camarades Mahamane Alassane Haïdara, Madéira Kéita, Seydou Tall et le colonel Sékou Traoré. Après la présentation des deux équipes aux personnalités, le match débute à 21 heures 52. D'entrée le jeu devient alerte, mouvementé. Toutes les deux équipes étaient décidées à remporter le trophée national. Le Réal, en maillot noir et blanc, ouvre le score par son numéro 12 Mamadou Traoré qui transforme habilement deux lancers francs. Peu de temps après, Diakalidia, capitaine du Stade, égalise pour son équipe. La partie devient alors endiablée. Le géant Kandé Sy est littéralement déchaîné, mais le Réal résiste. Les deux equipes rivalisent d'adresse. Les actions magnifiques de Sow Amadou du Réal sont mal exploitées par Dramane Traore. Les stadistes prennent ensuite l'avantage grâce à l'habilité de Diakalidia et à la classe de ses joueurs. Cependant le Réal se reprend admirablement et, après avoir été mené à la marque par 13 à 6, remonte jusqu'à 12. Le jeu prend alors une nouvelle allure — les différentes combinaisons soulèvent l'enthousiasme du public. Le Stade Malien a mené à la fin de la première mi-temps par 19 à 14.

A la reprise le Stade s'envole et marque successivement plusieurs paniers — le Réal résiste, mais les actions d'Amadou Sow sont une fois de plus gâchées par le numéro 10 Bakary Traoré, qui nuit à son équipe en voulant faire son petit numéro — Le Stade est déchaîné, sème le désarroi dans les rangs du Réal où le numéro 7 Dramane Traoré réussit tant bien que mal quelques paniers. Mais le numéro 14 Mahamane Traoré ne laissent aucun répit au Réal chez lequel la fatigue et l'énervement commencent à se faire sentir. C'est ainsi que le Réal fut entièrement submergé par l'inexorable courant stadiste. Les rares envolées du Réal sont enrayées à cause de la maladresse de ses joueurs. Le Stade l'emporta en fin de compte sur le score de 49 à 28, s'adjugeant ainsi la Coupe Nationale que le capitaine Diakalidia a reçue des mains du Président Modibo Kéita, sous les acclamations frénétiques du public.

Le jeu assez équilibré en première mi-temps où il était d'un bon niveau technique — En effet, nous avons assisté en première mi-temps à un duel acharné entre les deux équipes qui se sont alors livrées à font, et ont tiré profit de différentes combinaisons — La partie était alors très serrée, très vive, la balle volait d'un camp à l'autre et le public était emporté. Il est hors de doute que si toute la partie s'était déroulée à cette allure, le public eût assisté au plus beau match de basket de l'année.

A PEKIN, LA DELEGATION MILITAIRE MALIENNE VISITE UNE UNITE DE LA FORCE AERIENNE

La délégation militaire malienne, dirigée par le Ministre Mamadou Diakité, a visité le 4 juin, en compagnie du vice-Ministre chinois de la Défense Nationale Siao Kin-Kouang, une unité en garnison à Pékin de la force aérienne de l'armée populaire de libération de Chine.

A cette occasion le camarade Mamadou Diakité a été salué ainsi que les autres hôtes de marque par les commandants et combattants, qui brandissant des portraits du Président Mao et du Président Modibo Kéita, ont crié : Vive l'amitié des peuples Chinois et Malien.

Les membres de la délégation malienne ont écouté un compte-rendu sur le développement de cette unité fait par le responsable de cette unité. Ce dernier a dit : « Nous constituons les forces aériennes populaires qui sont édifiées selon la pensée du Président Mao sur l'édification de l'armée et servent, de tout cœur le peuple.

Accompagnés du responsable de l'unité, les amis maliens ont visité l'exposition de sculptures d'argile, histoire des familles des combattants d'aviation, assisté à la représentation de numéros artistiques donnés par l'équipe de propagande de la pensée de Mao Tsé-Toung. Ils ont également assisté à une démonstration aérienne.

Le camarade Mamadou Diakité membre du CNDR, Ministre délégué à la présidence chargé de la Défense et de la sécurité a, lors d'un entretien avec des commandants et combattants, fait un éloge chaleureux du succès de la démonstration aérienne. Il a dit que la République Populaire de Chine possédait des avions modernes et puissants, et que les hommes qui les utilisaient, étaient armés de la pensée de Mao-Tsé-Toung. Donc, a-t-il ajouté, nous sommes convaincus que le peuple Chinois sera invincible. C'est un grand encouragement pour les peuples du monde entier.

Moussa Coulibaly, chargé d'affaires par intérim de l'ambassade du Mali en Chine participait à la visite.

LE SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY VICTIME D'UN ATTENTAT A LOS ANGELES

— Une des balles a atteint le cerveau par l'oreille droite —

A Los Angeles un attentat a été commis mardi soir contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy. Atteint à la tête par des balles alors qu'il fêtait sa victoire aux élections primaires de Californie, le sénateur Robert Kennedy a été transporté d'urgence à l'hôpital où son état est jugé critique.

M. Ron Schulman, technicien de la télévision, déclara que le sénateur sortait de la salle des fêtes et se dirigeait vers la cuisine de l'hôtel Ambassador quand un homme surgit de la foule et ouvrit le feu.

Un garde du corps de Kennedy riposta et l'assaillant, blessé à la jambe, aurait été remis immédiatement entre les mains de la police.

Madame Kennedy attend son onzième enfant

Trois docteurs se précipitèrent pour aider le sénateur qui a été transporté vers une ambulance.

La femme de Robert Kennedy, Ethel, qui attend son onzième enfant, s'est agenouillée à côté de son mari, les traits figés et livide, avant qu'il ne soit amené à l'hôpital.

Les témoins déclarent que l'agresseur a tiré quatre à cinq coups, rapidement, d'une arme assez petite, sans doute un révolver.

Selon plusieurs témoins oculaires, le sénateur Kennedy a murmuré plusieurs mots pendant qu'on le transportait à l'ambulance, stationnée devant l'hôtel.

Un porte-parole a qualifié son état de très critique.

Un officier de police se trouvant sur place a déclaré que deux personnes avaient été appréhendées.

On ne connaît pas leur identité, mais d'après certains témoins, l'un d'eux serait un blanc d'assez grande taille.

La police a indiqué que l'hôtel avait été immédiatement encerclé par les forces de l'ordre après l'attentat.

La balle avait atteint le cerveau par l'oreille droite

En dernière minute, on apprend qu'une équipe chirurgicale de six spécialistes du cerveau ont procé-

DEPART DE LA DELEGATION DE LA JRDA POUR KANKAN

La délégation de la jeunesse de la révolution démocratique africaine, conduite par le camarade Diamady Kéita, député à l'Assemblée Nationale de la République de Guinée, membre du Comité exécutif national de la J.R.D.A., a quitté Bamako hier à destination de Kankan.

Au terme d'un séjour d'une semaine dans notre pays au cours duquel les jeunes guinéens ont visité outre notre capitale, Kati et Ségou, le chef de la délégation a déclaré que sa visite au Mali a été l'une des plus agréables, l'une des plus riches en expérience et surtout l'une des plus fraternelles.

Elle nous a permis, a-t-il poursuivi, d'être convaincu de la maturité politique de nos masses et de leur niveau de conscience et surtout de l'invaincibilité de notre régime respectif.

ECHOS de nos SECTIONS

SEGOU

Les travailleurs et les organisations démocratiques de Ségou poursuivent sans relache leur aide aux sinistrés du village de Nérékoro qui ont entrepris d'importants travaux de construction de logements dans le nouvel emplacement qui leur est assigné.

En effet, après leurs camarades de la Subdivision des T.P., tous les travailleurs de la division syndicale de l'Economie rurale, augmentés de plusieurs centaines de jeunes de la section, se sont rendus le dimanche 2 juin 1968, dans ce village, situé à 18 km environ de pour se consacrer à la construction de plusieurs pièces devant servir de logement.

Ces travaux d'investissements volontaires dont l'importance n'échappe à personne, se sont déroulés de 7 heures à 14 heures dans une allegresse indescriptible.

DJENNE

Comme partout en République du Mali, la préoccupation constante des responsables de Djenné est de mettre tout en œuvre pour que les militants et militantes soient largement informés des objectifs du Parti dans le cadre de notre option socialiste.

C'est ainsi que depuis le 11 mai 1968, des délégations du C.L.D.R. sillonnent les Comités des sous-sections pour développer les thèmes suivants à l'intention des populations : Rôle de la jeunesse dans la production ; mouvement et rôle des femmes maliennes dans la production ; le groupement rural ; le champ collectif ; la commercialisation ; le stockage ; la culture attelée ; fumure organique et fumure minérale ; emploi des fongicides ; protection de la brousse ; l'assolement ; dangers du nomadisme agricole ; lutte contre les parasites des cultures.

Les sous-sections visitées sont :

1° Sous-section de Kouakourou par les camarades Lassana Sacko, commandant de cercle ; Tidiany Cissé, membre du B.E.J.

2° Sous-section de Mougna par le camarade Mamadou Sangaré, membre du C.L.D.R.

3° Sous section de Konio par les camarades Kolado Cissé, membre du B.E.J. ; Alassane, agent du développement.

4° Sous section de Taga par le camarade Hamady Cissoko, agent forestier.

Signalons par ailleurs que toutes ces sous-sections ont ouvert leur école élémentaire pour la formation idéologique.

Sous la présidence effective du ministre chargé du Haut-Commissariat à la Jeunesse et aux Sports un grand match de football au profit des IIes Jeux Africains, opposera le vendredi 7 juin 1968, à 21 heures, au stade Modibo Kéita, une formation de l'assistance technique française aux vétérans maliens. Au demeurant, il n'est pas nécessaire de s'apesantir sur la valeur des joueurs des deux formations qui sont du reste des anciens footballeurs de renom. Ce match, qui sera une occasion pour les Maliens de revoir à l'œuvre leurs idoles des années passées, fera revivre durant la partie une conception certes très ancienne du football, mais pleine de vertuosités et d'exaltations.

Le Conseil d'Administration,

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE

En France, situation encore confuse sur le front du travail, mais tendance à la reprise dans divers secteurs.

Dans les chemins de fer, les cheminots devaient voter pour approuver ou rejeter les accords intervenus entre leurs syndicats et le gouvernement. Aux termes de ces accords une augmentation de salaire de 17 pour % est accordée aux plus bas salaires et une augmentation de 10 % aux salaires plus élevés.

A la Régie des Transports Parisiens, le personnel devait également se prononcer hier sur la reprise du travail. Les autobus et le métro sont encore immobilisés.

Avec la grève des autobus et du métro, on s'attendait hier encore à des encombrements monstres dans la capitale dûs à l'emploi des voitures privées par tous ceux qui en possèdent.

Les taxis parisiens sont toujours en grève. Reprise partielle du travail dans les postes où un gros amas de courrier en retard attend les postiers.

Reprise du travail dans les mines et dans un certain nombre de grands magasins, dans des banques, dans les assurances, dans le textile et à la sécurité sociale.

A Sud-Aviation, les ouvriers se plaignent d'avoir été expulsés des usines par la police avec brutalité, ce qui, disent-ils, ne fera que durcir leur position.

Chez Renault, chez Citroën, poursuite de la grève, ainsi que chez Peugeot où un vote sur la reprise du travail n'a pas été concluant.

Le personnel de l'OCORA (Office de Coopération Radiophonique), réuni en Assemblée générale a décidé de poursuivre le mouvement de grève jusqu'à ce qu'ils soient en mesure de se prononcer par un vote sur des propositions d'accord définitif, apprend-on par un communiqué publié à l'issue de la réunion.

Au cours de cette réunion, ajoute le communiqué, une motion de solidarité et de soutien au personnel en grève de l'O.R.T.F. a été votée à l'unanimité et transmise immédiatement.

La grève de l'OCORA a commencé le 22 mai.

LE JAPON ET LE DANGER DES RETOMBEES RADIOACTIVES AMERICAINES

Les unités de la marine américaine propulsées par l'énergie nucléaire s'abstiendront de faire escale au Japon jusqu'à nouvel ordre, aux termes d'un accord qui vient d'être conclu à Tokyo par les deux nations.

Le département d'Etat a annoncé cette nouvelle mardi après l'arrivée à Washington, pour consultations, de M. Alexis Johnson, ambassadeur des Etats Unis à Tokyo.

Le Japon avait demandé aux Etats Unis d'interdire à leurs unités de surface et à leurs sous-marins nucléaires de faire escale dans ses ports après que de fortes radiations eurent été détectées le 6 mai au moment de la visite à Sasebo du sous-marin atomique « Swordfish. »

Départ du Président Kenneth Kaunda pour Kampala

M. Kenneth Kaunda, chef de l'Etat zambien, a quitté hier Nairobi après une visite officielle d'une semaine au Kenya.

Il est reparti dans son avion personnel pour Kampala, capitale de l'Ouganda, où il assistera à la conférence annuelle du Congrès Populaire Ougandais, parti gouvernemental.

Dans un communiqué commun publié à l'issue de la visite, les deux Présidents déclarent que l'usage de la force ne doit pas être exclu pour le renversement du régime Ian Smith comme réponse ultime à la rébellion rhodésienne.

Le plan de sanctions imposé par les Nations Unies a été contrecarré par la complicité de certains Etats sans scrupules, et en particulier l'Afrique du Sud et le Portugal déclare le communiqué.

Les deux Présidents estiment que le gouvernement britannique ne doit pas tenter d'échapper à ses responsabilités. Il doit être prêt, dans l'intérêt de la justice et de l'humanité, à remplir ses obligations envers les quatre millions d'Africains opprimés en Zimbabwe.

MM. Kaunda et Kenyatta expriment leur inquiétude au sujet de la dangereuse évolution des événements en Afrique du Sud. Ils condamnent la philosophie perverse de l'apartheid, et invitent toutes les nations éprises de paix à s'opposer au régime sud-africain, qui fait peser un danger très réel sur la paix mondiale, et constitue un affront à la dignité humaine.

Afin d'éviter une conflagration raciale dans le continent, la démocratie et la justice doivent s'instaurer en Afrique australe.

24 HEURES DANS LE MONDE

PARIS :

Le général De Gaulle s'entretiendra le vendredi 7 juin à 20 heures à la radio et à la télévision avec M. Michel Droit sur la situation et sur les problèmes posés au pays, a annoncé M. Yves Guena à l'issue du conseil des ministres.

BUDAPEST :

M. Malick Zoromé, ministre des Affaires étrangères de Haute-Volta, est arrivé mardi à Budapest, où il a été accueilli à l'aéroport par M. Janos Peter, ministre des Affaires étrangères hongrois. MM. Henri Ouattara, chef du département de la coopération internationale au Ministère voltaïque des Affaires étrangères; Alfred Boukousi BANSE, chef du département du Commerce extérieur au Ministère du Commerce et des Finances et Mamadou Diallo, chef du département des Etudes et de l'organisation au Ministère de la Planification et du Travail, accompagnent M. Zoromé dans sa visite officielle en Hongrie.

BELGRADE :

Un impôt progressif sur les revenus élevés et les profits excessifs sera prochainement adopté par tous les organes compétents en Yougoslavie, et les étudiants connaîtront une intégration réelle dans l'université (sans doute par l'intermédiaire d'organes d'autogestion) et dans la société (ce qui pourraient signifier leur entrée au Parlement), promet la ligue des communistes serbes dans un communiqué publié aujourd'hui.

On estime à cet égard à Belgrade que des négociations décisives auront probablement lieu aujourd'hui.

PARIS :

Le personnel de l'aéroport de Paris a repris le travail tant au Bourget qu'à Orly, avec l'accord des organisations syndicales.

Cependant au Bourget on n'a prévu hier que deux vols de la « SABENA » à destination et en provenance de Bruxelles. A Orly, on ignore encore quelles seront les possibilités de trafic.

D'autre part, la direction de la compagnie Air-France a communiqué hier midi : « Comme suite au vote favorable émis le 4 juin, le travail a repris dans les établissements de Paris de la Compagnie nationale Air-France ».

BRAZZAVILLE :

Le contrôle des changes est institué au Congo-Brazza « à titre temporaire et exceptionnel » pour compter du 4 juin, annonce-t-on officiellement hier matin à Brazzaville.

Un decret présidentiel comportant onze articles réglemente les opérations de change, mouvements de capitaux et paiements de toute nature entre le Congo-Brazza et les pays étrangers n'appartenant pas à la zone franc à l'intérieur de laquelle les opérations demeurent libres.

L'importation et l'exportation d'or sont d'autre part toujours soumises à l'autorisation préalable.

L'annonce officielle de cette mesure était attendue depuis plusieurs jours. Les banques et établissements de crédit de la place avaient en effet été prévenus dès le 1er juin.

ALGER :

Les milieux officiels et la presse algérienne observent le silence le plus total sur le droit d'asile accordé par les autorités tunisiennes au colonel Tahar Zbiri, ex-chef d'Etat-major de l'armée algérienne.

Ni la radio, ni l'agence « Algérie Presse-Service », ni le quotidien gouvernemental d'Alger, « El Moudjhaid » ne soufflent mot de cet événement.

Aucune notification tunisienne n'ayant été transmise officiellement aux autorités algériennes au sujet du droit d'asile accordé à l'auteur du coup d'Etat manqué contre le gouvernement Boumédienne. Les milieux officiels algériens se sont refusé jusqu'à présent à tout commentaire.

Le Ministre Américain de la Justice et la campagne des pauvres

M. Ramsey Clark, Ministre de la Justice des Etats-Unis, a reçu mardi 115 participants à la campagne des pauvres, pour la plupart des Noirs, des Indiens de l'Ouest et des Américains d'origine mexicaine.

La campagne dure depuis le milieu du mois dernier dans la capitale fédérale, et doit être marquée, le 15 juin, par le rassemblement de plusieurs dizaines, centaines peut-être de milliers de combattants non-violents contre la pauvreté.

M. Clark a été interrompu au début de la déclaration qu'il faisait à ses visiteurs par un leader intégrationniste américano-mexicain, M. Rudolf Gonzales. « Les lois sur les droits civiques, a déclaré ce dernier à l'attorney général, ne valent pas le papier sur lequel elles sont écrites, et M. Clark lui-même est bien naïf et aveugle s'il croit qu'elles ont mis fin à la discrimination raciale ».

M. Gonzalès a ajouté que les pauvres réunis à Washington réclament un changement complet, une nouvelle philosophie de la justice.

Le Ministre de la Justice, dont les paroles tombaient dans le silence alors que l'auditoire n'avait pas ménagé ses applaudissements à M. Gonzalès, a souligné l'importance des échanges de vues entre divers groupes raciaux. Il importe, a-t-il dit, pour conclure, que nous nous comprenions : et la compréhension requert la raison et l'ordre.

A Paris, la 7e séance plénière des conversations officielles américano - nord-vietnamienne s'est terminée hier à 14 h. 20. Elle a duré trois heures quarante.

A la sortie du centre des conférences internationales, M. Averell Harriman a annoncé que la prochaine séance aurait lieu mercredi prochain à 10 h. 30.

« Je voudrais vous dire franchement que le plus sage pour les Etats-Unis est de mettre fin à leur politique d'agression et de guerre au Vietnam et dans l'immédiat de faire droit aux exigences du gouvernement de la République Démocratique du Vietnam et de l'opinion américaine et mondiale en cessant inconditionnellement les bombardements et tous autres actes de guerre contre la République Démocratique du Vietnam pour que les conversations sur d'autres questions intéressant les deux parties puissent commencer dans des meilleurs délais », telle est la conclusion de la déclaration prononcée hier matin par le Ministre nord-vietnamien Xuan Thuy devant la délégation américaine.

C'est la réaffirmation de la position de Hanoï telle qu'elle a été exposée depuis le début de la conférence de Paris.

Dans sa déclaration, le Ministre Xuan Thuy, analysant d'autre part les déclarations des 28 et 30 mai dernier du Président Johnson et celle faite mardi à Glassboro, a exprimé son regret de n'y avoir rien trouvé de nouveau par rapport à son discours du 31 mars. Ces déclarations, a dit M. Xuan Thuy en substance, montrent que les Etats-Unis se cramponnent à leur exigence d'un soi-disant réciprocité, empêchant ainsi les conversations de Paris de progresser.

Le Caire :

PREMIER ANNIVERSAIRE DE L'AGRESSION ISRAELIENNE DE JUIN DERNIER

Un défilé aérien a marqué hier au Caire le premier anniversaire de l'agression israélienne de juin dernier.

Parmi les avions participant au défilé, figuraient des chasseurs à réaction et des hélicoptères de transport de troupes.

A midi, heure locale, les Egyptiens ont observé une minute de silence à la mémoire de ceux qui ont été tués au cours de l'agression.

Les militaires sont consignés dans leurs casernements où ils entendent des discours de leurs commandants rappelant notamment que le Sinaï et la bande de Gaza sont occupés depuis un an par les Israéliens.

A Amman, quelque 10.000 personnes se sont massées hier pour une réunion au cours de laquelle divers orateurs ont lancé des appels à la guerre contre Israël.

M. Suleiman Al Nabulsi, membre du « Comité pour le Secours à Jérusalem », comité organisateur de la réunion, a déclaré : « Notre stratégie ne doit pas être fondée sur la paix avec Israël. Notre tâche essentielle est de consacrer toute notre énergie à la préparation d'une guerre qui nous permettra de retrouver nos terres ».

Le Sénateur Robert Kennedy victime d'un attentat à Los Angeles

dé à une opération sur M. Robert Kennedy.

Le porte-parole a précisé qu'une balle avait pénétré par l'oreille droite et s'était logée dans le cerveau.

Sa respiration est bonne et son cœur fonctionne normalement, ajoute-t-on.

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy se trouvait dans un état « extrêmement critique » à la suite de l'opération de trois heures qu'il a subie hier matin et au cours de laquelle une équipe de six chirurgiens a tenté d'extraire la balle qui s'était logée dans son cerveau.

Un membre de l'entourage du sénateur de New York, M. Frank Makiewicz, a déclaré qu'un fragment du projectile n'avait pu être retiré.

Période très critique : trente-six heures

Le sénateur Kennedy a perdu une quantité de sang considérable. La balle a pénétré dans le côté droit de sa tête en traversant l'apophyse mastoïde.

Les médecins ont indiqué que le blessé allait traverser une période très critique pouvant durer de douze à trente-six heures.

M. Manciewicz a déclaré que la pénétration de la balle dans le cerveau à proximité du bulbe rachidien pourrait provoquer des désordres dans le système d'irrigation sanguine de l'organe.

Ces désordres pourraient à leur tour avoir des répercussions sur certaines fonctions vitales, mais ne mettraient pas en danger le processus de la pensée, a-t-il poursuivi.

M. Manciewicz a indiqué que les médecins n'avaient pas jugé utile pour le moment d'extraire une autre balle qui s'est logée dans la nuque de M. Robert Kennedy, le projectile ne constituant pas un danger mortel pour le blessé.

Kennedy respire sans le secours d'un appareil

Après l'opération, le sénateur a été transporté dans une salle de soins spéciaux. M. Manciewicz a précisé que le pouls, la respiration et le rythme cardiaque de l'opéré étaient à peu de choses près les mêmes qu'avant l'intervention, mis à part le fait que Robert Kennedy respire maintenant sans le secours d'un appareil.

A l'annonce de l'attentat, le sénateur Eugène Mac Carthy, également rival du sénateur Kennedy dans la course à la Maison Blanche a décidé d'interrompre sa campagne électorale.

« Le monde est devenu fou », a déclaré le sénateur Henry Jackson, démocrate de l'Etat de Washington.

Ces quelques mots sont ceux qui, au moment où la capitale fédérale américaine s'éveille, sont sur les lèvres de la plupart des hommes politiques américains dont la violente réprobation contre l'acte criminel qui vient d'être commis contre un autre membre de la famille Kennedy n'a d'égale que l'inquiétude qu'ils éprouvent pour l'avenir des institutions mêmes de la République Fédérale Américaine.

Consternation dans les capitales occidentales

La nouvelle de l'attentat contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy a jeté la consternation dans les capitales occidentales.

A Paris : L'attentat a été évoqué au Conseil des Ministres dès hier matin. Le général de Gaulle a fait part aux Ministres des dernières nouvelles de l'état du sénateur américain.

Le Conseil a marqué son émotion et sa sympathie pour le sénateur Kennedy et son inquiétude pour les conséquences éventuelles que pourrait avoir cet attentat.

A Londres : Les premières éditions des journaux d'hier après-midi consacrent des manchettes énormes à l'attentat. L'ambassade des Etats-Unis est assaillie de coups de téléphone de personnes qui veulent exprimer leur sympathie. L'extraordinaire fatalité qui poursuit la famille Kennedy frappe d'autant plus les Britanniques que cette famille est d'origine irlandaise.

Au Vatican : Le Pape Paul VI a déclaré, à l'issue de l'audience générale du mercredi : « Nous ne pouvons pas taire la douleur que nous a causé la nouvelle de l'attentat perpétré contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy... Nous espérons qu'une volonté commune de bannir les méthodes de violence, de dissension, de lutte et d'homicide puisse faire suite au sentiment d'indignation qui parcourt aujourd'hui le monde à la suite de cet épisode douloureux et blâmable ».

A Madrid : Le Ministre espagnol de l'Information déclare : « Il est stupéfiant, inconcevable que dans notre monde chrétien et plus particulièrement dans le plus développé de ses pays, on puisse avoir recours à l'assassinat comme arme politique. »

A Bonn : La nouvelle de l'attentat perpétré contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy a été accueillie avec un sentiment d'effroi et d'indignation.

C'est incroyable, s'est contentée de répéter la princesse Lee Radziwill, sœur de Madame Jacqueline Kennedy, en apprenant à Londres la nouvelle de l'assassinat.

Elle a précisé qu'elle avait téléphoné à la veuve du Président assassiné et a ajouté qu'elle ne savait pas encore si elle allait se rendre aux Etats-Unis.

A Athènes : Une demi-heure après l'attentat, M. George Papadopoulos, Premier Ministre grec, a adressé le message suivant au sénateur Kennedy :

« Le gouvernement grec et moi-même exprimons notre plus profond regret devant cet événement choquant et vous souhaitons un

FINALE DE LA COUPE NATIONALE DE BASKET-BALL

En seconde mi-temps, la partie fut moins équilibrée. Les stadistes s'imposèrent nettement en réussissant 15 paniers contre 7 seulement au Réal. Une fois de plus, Kandé Sy du Stade a magistralement prouvé qu'au basket, la taille, l'engagement physique et moral, le sang-froid, la maîtrise de soi-même et l'adresse dans les lancers sont déterminants dans l'acquisition de la victoire. Si les joueurs du Réal avaient été plus adroits et plus calmes, la partie eût été plus équilibrée.

Les meilleurs l'ont emportée. L'arbitrage a été serré, la soirée agréable.

Une partie des étudiants de Belgrade a décidé malgré l'interdiction de la police, de se rendre individuellement en face de la faculté des lettres, quartier général des grévistes à la suite d'une série de meetings qui se sont tenus avant-hier dans les facultés occupées.

Tandis que les étudiants en sciences politiques contestent le caractère extra-professionnel des revendications étudiantes, un durcissement est observé à la faculté des lettres, rebaptisée « faculté Karl Marx » ou des pancartes invitent les ouvriers à lutter contre les déviations du socialisme et demandent que soit posée la question de confiance politique.

A la faculté technique, les étudiants réclament la relève des « cadres incapables. »

Tous les étudiants sont par contre d'accord pour demander le retrait de la milice et le rétablissement du droit de réunion.

ENTRETIEN DE LA MAISON : LE MENAGE

Une des conditions essentielles pour une bonne santé est de vivre dans une maison propre.

Le nettoyage a pour buts de nous faire vivre dans un local propre et salubre, de prolonger la durée des meubles, de rendre la maison agréable. Le meilleur moyen de simplifier le nettoyage est de salir le moins possible.

La maîtresse de maison s'efforcera de donner aux enfants de bonnes habitudes d'ordre et de soin c'est-à-dire : ne jeter aucun papier par terre ; ne pas laisser en désordre les vêtements, les livres de classe et les jouets.

L'entretien de la maison revient à la femme. Ce n'est pas tout d'avoir une belle maison et de jolis meubles, mais il faut savoir les garder propres, en bon état.

Chaque jour, elle doit faire un petit ménage qu'on appelle : « Ménage quotidien ». Ce ménage est souvent mal fait surtout si la femme a beaucoup de travail dans la journée ou bien si elle travaille à l'extérieur ou encore si le ménage est fait par un domestique. Il faut donc choisir un jour de la semaine pour faire un nettoyage à fond ou « grand nettoyage ». On ne peut pas faire le nettoyage à fond de toutes les pièces, mais il se fera par étapes. Nous commençons par la salle de séjour qui, en général est une grande pièce où se réunissent les parents, les amis, etc.

C'est une pièce dont on doit veiller à la propreté et la mise en ordre car, c'est là aussi où le chef de la famille reçoit les visiteurs, les étrangers pour causer ou discuter.

Pour le nettoyage à fond, il faut ouvrir grandes les fenêtres, les portes, sortir les meubles transportables et protéger ceux qui sont fragiles contre la poussière. Enlever des murs, des coins, des portes, les toiles d'araignées à l'aide d'un bâton au bout duquel on a attaché un balai ordinaire.

SI LE SOL EST EN TERRE BATTUE : On arrose avant de balayer.

SI LE SOL EST CARRELE : Pour enlever les tâches, on le frotte avec du sable fin.

SI LE SOL EST CIMENTE : Brosser les tâches avec de l'eau chaude savonneuse, puis rincer à l'eau claire. En attendant que l'intérieur de la pièce soit sèche, nettoyer les meubles c'est-à-dire ouvrir les buffets, les placards, essuyez et chassez les cafards, les cancrelats.

SI LES MEUBLES SONT EN BOIS BLANC et qu'il y a des tâches : les laver à l'eau chaude savonneuse, rincer à l'eau claire et les laisser sécher à l'ombre.

POUR LE BOIS CIRE : Quand il y a des tâches, passez la paille de fer suivant le sens du bois, essuyez ensuite la cire ou l'encaustique, puis frottez avec un chiffon de laine propre.

LE BOIS PEINT : Lavez à l'eau tiède légèrement savonneuse avec une éponge mais en commençant par le haut du meuble, rincer aussitôt à l'eau claire et sécher avec un chiffon propre et sec.

POUR LES VITRES : Les tâches s'en vont en les frottant avec du vinaigre. Une fois que la pièce est sèche, ranger soigneusement les meubles comme avant.

AU SENEGAL, LES TRAVAILLEURS ONT REPRIS LE TRAVAIL

Les travailleurs du Sénégal ont repris mardi le travail dans tous les secteurs de l'économie nationale, les leaders des syndicats arrêtés le 31 mai ayant été remis en liberté, comme l'a annoncé au cours d'une séance du cabinet le ministre de l'Intérieur Amadou Cissé Dia.

On sait déjà que l'U.N.T.S. a appelé tous les travailleurs à reprendre le travail mardi 4 juin après que les délégués de l'Union Nationale des Travailleurs du Sénégal se soient entretenus avec les représentants du gouvernement.

Vers de vastes reformes en Yougoslavie

Un impôt progressif sur les revenus élèves et les profits excessifs sera prochainement adopté par les organes compétents en Yougoslavie, et les étudiants connaîtront une intégration réelle dans l'université (sans doute par l'intermédiaire d'organes d'autogestion) et dans la société ce qui pourrait signifier leur entrée au parlement, promet la ligue des communistes serbes dans un communiqué publié hier.

On estime à cet égard à Belgrade que des négociations décisives auraient probablement lieu hier entre le gouvernement et les étudiants.

On prevoit des changements rapides dans le domaine de l'emploi des cadres et de la lutte contre la repartition inégale du travail. Toutefois, le PC serbe met en garde contre une minorité qui pourrait, dit-il tenter de poursuivre le mouvement revendicatif étudiant en lutte contre le régime.

Dans le reste du pays les ouvriers ne se sont pas solidarisés avec l'aspect « para-insurrectionnel » du « comité Karl Marx » qui a reuni avant hier un meeting de 2.000 étudiants à la faculté de philologie. Toutefois, on observe que des éléments non-étudiants se sont battus avec les étudiants contre la police, lors de l'accrochage d'avant hier à Sarajevo, qui fit de nombreux blessés.

LE SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY EST MORT HIER MATIN

«...Ces actes de violences ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national...»

— a déclaré M. Schlesinger, conseiller des frères John et Robert Kennedy —

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy est décédé hier à 1 h. 44 du matin, heure de Californie, soit 8 h. 44 G.M.T., à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain de Los Angeles des suites de ses blessures.

De nombreux membres de sa famille se trouvaient à son chevet : sa femme Ethel, sa sœur Madame Peter Lawford, son autre sœur Madame Stephen Smith et son mari ainsi que Madame Jacqueline Kennedy, veuve du Président John Kennedy.

Devant l'hôpital, la foule qui observait une vigile de prières a éclaté en sanglots en apprenant le décès mais on n'a observé aucune scène d'hystérie comme celles qui se sont produites à l'hôtel Ambassador au moment du drame.

M. Mankiewick, après avoir précisé que le sénateur de New York avait reçu les derniers sacrements peu après l'attentat et qu'un prêtre se trouvait à ses côtés lorsqu'il a rendu l'âme, a déclaré que le sénateur n'avait jamais repris connaissance depuis le moment où il a été atteint par la balle qui a pénétré dans le crâne.

Bob Kennedy avait un pressentiment

Romain Gary, écrivain et cinéaste français, dans un article publié hier par le « Figaro », écrit que le sénateur Robert Kennedy lui avait déclaré voici une quinzaine de jours qu'il serait tôt ou tard victime d'une tentative d'assassinat.

Romain Gary ajoute qu'au cours de cette entrevue, qui s'était déroulée à Los Angeles dans la demeure du metteur en scène John

A propos de l'assassinat du Sénateur Robert Kennedy

L'AMERIQUE SERA-T-ELLE LA DEMOCRATIE DU COLT ?

Robert Kennedy est mort hier, assassiné.

Assassiné comme son frère John Kennedy, assassiné comme Malcom X; assassiné comme le pasteur Martin Luther King; assassiné comme des milliers de citoyens américains obscurs et anonymes.

Robert Kennedy est mort hier, victime lui aussi de l'odieux et impitoyable système des Etats-Unis que déjà, avant la première guerre mondiale, Jacques London fustigeait dans son livre génial « Le talon de fer ». Car, c'est bien le système américain, et lui seul, qui vient de ravir à l'affection du monde ce jeune homme lucide, courageux, dynamique et plein d'avenir.

Mais la mort du sénateur Kennedy donne une nouvelle et tragique dimension à ce qu'on appelle « la politique des Etats-Unis d'Amérique » : elle prouve de façon dramatique que ce pays, devenu trop technique sinon trop technocratique et par là même inhumain, s'engage de plus en plus profondément dans la voie de la barbarie et de la décadence.

SESSION ORDINAIRE DU CONSEIL DES MINISTRES

Une session ordinaire du Conseil des ministres s'est tenue le 6 juin 1968 sous la présidence de M. Modibo Kéita, chef de l'Etat et président du Comité National de Défense de la Révolution.

Les ministres ont adopté deux projets de decrets, l'un portant réglementation de la Recherche scientifique en République du Mali, l'autre portant nomination de M. Mountaga Traoré, précédemment à l'Office des Changes, chef de cabinet du Ministère des Finances.

Ils ont ensuite étudié pour transmission à la délégation législative :

— Un projet de loi autorisant des virements de crédits au budget régional de Mopti, exercice 1967-1968 ;

— Un projet de loi portant modification au code des impôts directs, indirects et taxes assimilées ;

— Un projet de loi portant fixation de l'année fiscale.

Le Conseil des ministres, à la lumière d'un certain nombre de communications verbales, donna son accord pour la participation du Mali à plusieurs réunions prévues en Afrique et en dehors du continent.

Avant de lever la séance, le chef de l'Etat, après analyse de la conjoncture africaine internationale, fit d'importantes recommandations relatives au renforcement de la vigilance à tous les niveaux.

LE SEJOUR DE LA DELEGATION MILITAIRE MALIENNE A PEKIN

La délégation militaire malienne, conduite par le ministre Mamadou Diakité, a visité mercredi, en compagnie du vice-ministre chinois de la Défense nationale Siao Kin-Kouang, la fabrique générale d'article de bonneterie de Pékin. Elle y a été l'objet d'un accueil chaleureux de la part des ouvriers et employés révolutionnaires.

Le ministre Mamadou Diakité et les autres membres de sa délégation ont entendu un rapport fait par un responsable du Comité révolutionnaire de la fabrique expliquant comment les ouvriers et employés révolutionnaires ont appliqué l'enseignement du président Mao : « Compter sur ses propres forces », et développer la production et quels sont les brillants succès qu'ils ont enregistrés.

Le ministre Mamadou Diakité a fait l'éloge des réalisations enregistrées par les ouvriers et employés.

Exaltant les combattants de l'armée populaire de libération, il a affirmé : « Par cette visite, nous avons constaté que l'armée populaire de libération, une armée du peuple s'est édifiée selon la pensée de Mao Tsé-Toung et qu'elle applique la politique du président Mao ».

REUNION DU BUREAU DE L'U.N.T.M.

Le bureau de l'U.N.T.M. s'est réuni le mercredi 5 juin 1968 sous la présidence de son secrétaire administratif le camarade Nama Kéita, membre du C.N.D.R.

Il analysa tout d'abord les nouvelles en provenance du Sénégal. Compte tenu de la gravité du climat social ainsi créé dans ce pays ami et dans le but de renforcer les liens de fraternité et d'amitié qui ont toujours existé entre nos deux Organisations syndicales du Sénégal et du Mali, le Bureau décida de l'envoi à Dakar par l'avion du jeudi 6 courant d'une délégation composée des camarades Nama Kéita et Sané Moussa Diallo pour une prise de contact avec le Bureau de l'Union Nationale des Travailleurs sénégalais et les autorités sénégalaises.

Après avoir analysé les nouvelles en provenance des unions locales, il a procédé à la désignation de deux délégations devant se rendre incessamment à Tombouctou et à Yanfolila.

Le Bureau, après avoir fait l'économie des travaux du dernier séminaire sur la coopération salua les décisions de cette importante réunion dont les conclusions engagent désormais l'U.N.T.M. et les travailleurs maliens. Il décida de consacrer une réunion spéciale à l'étude du rapport de synthèse de ce séminaire.

Dans le but de marquer davantage la contribution des travailleurs au financement des IIes Jeux Africains, le Bureau envisagea l'organisation avant le 30 juin 1968, de diverses manifestations.

La commission d'organisation est chargée de préparer immédiatement ces manifestations.

Enfin, le Bureau a désigné le camarade Demba Soumaré pour le représenter au sein de la délégation du C.N.D.R. qui doit se rendre à Ansongo.

Le peuple de la République du Mali et moi-même vous adressons nos condoléances attristées ».

Signé : Modibo Kéita.

FIN DE LA VISITE DE M. PALMER EN GUINEE

M. Joseph Palmer, sous-secrétaire d'Etat américain aux Affaires africaines, devait quitter hier matin Kindia par la route, au terme de sa visite en Guinée, pour se rendre en Sierra Leone, annonce radio Conakry.

Arrivé mercredi en sa compagnie dans cette localité, le Président Sékou Touré avait rendu hommage à M. Palmer pour « sa haute conscience et sa haute compétence des problèmes africaines. »

M. Sekou Touré s'est réjoui de la visite de M. Palmer, qui, a-t-il espéré, lui permettra de se faire une idée exacte de la Guinée.

Le Chef de l'Etat s'est félicité de la qualité des rapports existant entre la Guinée et les Etats Unis, et a ajouté : « Le peuple de Guinée est un peuple fier de sa souveraineté. »

PROTESTATIONS A COPENHAGUE CONTRE L'AGRESSION AMERICAINE AU VIETNAM

Selon des informations en provenance de la capitale danoise, près de 20.000 danois ont organisé une manifestation à Copenhague pour protester contre l'agression américaine au Vietnam.

Au mépris des obstacles de la police, les manifestants ont tenu un meeting devant l'Ambassade des Etats Unis, à Copenhague, protestant contre l'agression américaine.

Après le meeting, de nombreux manifestants se sont rendus au port où ils ont lancé des pierres et des bouteilles sur le bâtiments de guerre américaine qui y mouillaient.

Ils ont également manifesté devant les bureaux de « Americaltex » et une agence de tourisme américaine, dont ils brisèrent plusieurs fenêtres avec des pierres et des bouteilles.

Quand les manifestants passaient devant l'Ambassade de Thaïlande à Copenhague, ils en brisèrent les fenêtres à coup de pierre, condamnant la Thaïlande qu'ils considèrent comme complice des Etats-Unis dans la guerre d'agression au Vietnam.

LE PARLEMENT KOWEITIEN RATIFIE L'ACCORD TRIPARTITE CONCLU A BEYROUTH

Le parlement Koweitien a ratifié l'accord établissant l'« organisation des pays arabes producteurs de pétrole. »

Cet accord avait été conclu à Beyrouth le 9 janvier 1968 entre l'Arabie Saoudite, le Koweit et la Libye. Cette organisation aura son siège au Koweit et se propose la coordination des politiques pétrolières entre les pays arabes producteurs.

L'organisation (à laquelle l'Irak s'est refusée de participer) est complètement différente de l'OPEP (Organisation des Pays Exportateurs de Pétrole). Tout pays arabe ou non arabe qui est exporteur net, c'est-à-dire dont la production dépasse la consommation, peut demander à faire partie de l'OPEP. En sont membres à l'heure actuelle : l'Indonésie, l'Irak, l'Iran, le Koweit, la Libye, le Qator, l'Arabie Saoudite et le Venezuela.

La nouvelle organisation créée à Beyrouth en janvier dernier se propose de défendre plus particulièrement les intérêts des pays arabes producteurs en unifiant leur attitude à l'égard des compagnies étrangères et en coordonnant dans tous ses détails leur politique pétrolière.

Et le peuple américain lui-même, parce qu'il subit cette politique, le sait très bien. Les agences de presse rapportaient hier que nombre de citoyens de ce grand pays, dans les rues, disaient : « Nous sommes un pays de fous, de sauvages ». D'autres faisaient très-tement cette remarque : « Et l'on nous appelle un pays civilisé ! ».

Le sénateur démocrate de Washington, M. Jackson déclarait pour sa part : « Le monde est devenu fou ». Nous disons pour notre part NON ! Le monde n'est pas devenu fou; ce sont les classes dirigeantes des Etats-Unis qui s'affolent: c'est la société américaine, capitaliste et ségrégationniste, qui s'engage dans un processus de décomposition lente, mais inévitable.

Car, une société qui fait siennes des pratiques aussi condamnables et réprouvées, est à coup sûr une société gravement atteinte. Un régime qui compte sur le moyen de l'assassinat politique pour résoudre les contradictions qu'il suscite est un régime agonisant dont les jours sont comptés.

Qu'on ne s'y trompe donc pas, ce qui se passe actuellement aux Etats-Unis est très grave et doit être pris au sérieux par tout le monde.

Désormais, le monde entier sait que ce n'est guère ce pays qui s'enlise dans des mœurs aussi rétrogrades en politique qui peut être fondé à se poser en censeur de la morale universelle et en exemple aux yeux des autres pays; que ce pays, disons-le aussi, est mal venu pour parler au nom de la démocratie, quand ses propres leaders ne peuvent compter sur la sécurité au cours des campagnes électorales; quand la violence s'impose comme loi.

Si la violence, les crimes, les viols, le vol, les brigandages, les agressions et les attentats sont dans la nature du régime capitaliste, le régime de la libre entreprise et de la concurrence effrenée, nous savons que la violence des classes bourgeoises réactionnaires, la violence contre-révolutionnaire qui s'exerce contre le progrès et les hommes progressistes, loin de signifier force et santé du régime dominé par le capital financier, prouve au contraire que les classes exploiteuses ne sont plus en mesure de se maintenir et de perpétrer leur domination par les vieilles méthodes du parlementarisme bourgeois; elle prouve également que la liberté et la démocratie bourgeoises, devenues trop étroites pour un régime fascisant, étouffent de plus en plus les tenants mêmes du pouvoir des monopoles impérialistes, et qu'enfin, les classes d'oppression s'imaginent ainsi qu'à l'aide de la violence et du crime, elles peuvent retarder sinon retourner en arrière la roue de l'histoire.

Mais cette roue, nulle force au monde ne peut ni la retenir, ni à plus forte raison la faire revenir en arrière. Et ce qui se passe aujourd'hui aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, s'il n'était pas prévisible, est dans la nature des choses. Les Américains lucides comme M. Schlesinger le disent clairement : « Depuis trois ans, déclare ce dernier, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde... Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparait dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence ».

Et aucun régime au monde ne peut, à l'échelle mondiale, provoquer des guerres d'agression, organiser des armées de mercenaires et des tueurs à gage, pour attenter à la liberté et à la sécurité des autres peuples et des autres nations, sans s'exposer lui-même de façon dangereuse. C'est ce qui vient d'arriver aux Etats-Unis.

Les innombrables crimes perpétrés par les classes dirigeantes de la société américaine au service des monopoles et des trusts, soit contre le Vietnam ou le Guatémala, contre le Congo ou d'autres pays d'Amérique Latine, ne pouvaient pas ne pas se retourner un jour contre le peuple américain lui-même. Mais que les meilleurs fils de ce peuple, c'est-à-dire ceux que nous considérions comme nos alliés dans la grande lutte pour l'avènement d'un monde nouveau, fait de justice et de fraternité, soient les tout premiers à être victimes de la barbarie du système, voilà ce qui nous afflige profondément.

C'est une loi de faire confiance aux peuples; faisons donc pleinement confiance au grand peuple américain. Car désormais, il est confronté aux difficultés de toutes sortes. Le jour où l'immense majorité comprendra qu'il s'agit d'une question de vie ou de mort, ce jour-là, on peut dire que la partie est gagnée par l'humanité progressiste.

Des épreuves plus dures attendent le peuple américain et ses classes déshéritées en particulier. Car, si l'on songe que ces vagues de crimes abominables qui ont ravi à la société américaine quelques-uns de ses fils parmi les plus nobles et les plus chers au cœur de l'humanité, ne sont même pas dirigées par des ennemis de classes des monopolistes, c'est-à-dire que le régime actuel n'est pas encore ouvertement mis en cause, qu'en sera-t-il lorsque demain il s'agira de lutter héroïquement pour l'instauration d'une démocratie véritable, populaire, aux Etats-Unis ? Et cela viendra inéluctablement, car il est suffisamment démontré que le régime social de ce pays, basé sur l'exploitation et l'oppression des masses laborieuses, n'est plus en mesure de résoudre les grandes contradictions qui sont en train de miner les fondements même de la société américaine.

En attendant, le crime dont vient d'être victime Robert Kennedy ne fera certainement que préparer les conditions pour une prise de conscience plus aigue des classes laborieuses des Etats-Unis.

Plusieurs dirigeants du gouvernement américain ont fait des « prières » à l'annonce de l'attentat contre Robert Kennedy. Le Président Johnson a lancé un appel aux Américains les exhortant à « mettre un terme à la violence ainsi qu'à la prédication de la violence. »

Laissons les magnats et les hommes des monopoles à leurs dévotes et hypocrites prières qui ne les ont jamais empêchés de perpétrer ou de couvrir des crimes. Il faut certes prier : mais il faut aussi et surtout en pareille circonstance des actes de foi, de progrès et d'humanité. Et d'abord que les Etats-Unis renoncent eux-mêmes à exercer la violence à l'égard des autres peuples, et de façon urgente et prioritaire au Vietnam.

Il faut que les Etats-Unis renoncent également de façon urgente et prioritaire à la violence contre les Afro-Américains debout pour la défense des droits humains les plus élémentaires.

Il faut que des Etats-Unis, de façon urgente et prioritaire, s'ils veulent survivre, renoncer à l'ignoble politique de ségrégation raciale imposée par la violence.

Il faut enfin que les Etats-Unis renoncent à leur rôle de gendarme international, car, de toute évidence, un système assis sur la violence et le crime n'a pas le droit de se poser en censeur d'autres systèmes plus équilibrés, et en tout cas plus proche de la morale.

Un vieil adage dit : « Ne fais pas à autrui ce que tu ne voudrais pas qu'on le fit ».

La violence ne peut disparaître du sol des Etats-Unis quand, journellement, on endurcit le cœur et la raison des millions de jeunes Américains pour l'exercice de la violence et de l'hostilité.

Aujourd'hui, il reste à souhaiter que la mort tragique de Robert Kennedy soit une occasion propice pour conduire le gouvernement des Etats-Unis à tirer les conséquences, toutes les conséquences de la situation politico-sociale qui favorise des crimes odieux comme ces assassinats qui font désespérer de la société américaine elle-même.

S'il en était ainsi, la mort du sénateur de New-York, que les forces de progrès du monde entier pleurent, n'aura pas été inutile.

De toute évidence, nous constatons la faillite de la prétendue supériorité du mode de vie américain dont on nous a rebattu les oreilles en le présentant comme la forme la plus élevée d'organisation de la société.

Non ! on n'a pas le droit de parler d'humanisme lorsqu'on a assassiné quatre présidents, et que chaque année, d'après les statistiques officielles, il y a comme en 1965 :

— 9.850 meurtres ;

— 22.467 enlèvements et viols ;

— 1.173.201 cambriolages ;

— 357.894 crimes contre les individus ;

— 2.422.121 crimes contre la propriété privée, etc.

Et nous en passons !

Sodome et Gomerrhe n'avaient pas atteint un tel niveau de dégradation...

Nous pensons que la société américaine, tout comme l'ensemble du monde capitaliste, y compris les nostalgiques du système capitaliste, est atteinte d'un mal qui restera incurable dans la mesure où la prise de conscience du peuple ne se traduira pas par des actions décisives des masses populaires qui obligeront l'Etat impérialiste au service des monopoles à opérer des changements qui mettront la nation américaine à l'abri du chaos et de la décadence.

De toute façon, la crise générale du système capitaliste est entrée dans sa phase la plus active. l'Amérique du Nord, premier des pays capitalistes, du capitalisme pourrissant, arrivé à sa phase de déclin, ne saurait échapper à la dialectique de l'histoire déjà étudiée par Marx et Engels, scientifiquement décrite par Lénine, et analysée avec une lucidité et une vigeur géniales par Mao Tsé-Toung.

Le nouveau crime perpétré contre les forces de progrès et de liberté en Amérique contribuera fortement à dévoiler « le géant aux pieds d'argile ».

Il a sonné le glas contre les monopoles impérialistes et pour des changements nouveaux, comme d'ailleurs partout les lames de fond de la révolution mondiale sont en train de balayer le vieil ordre des choses et liquider les vieux systèmes bâtis sur l'exploitation, l'iniquité et le crime.

JUGEMENT EN HAUTE - VOLTA

Le tribunal spécial de Haute-Volta qui siégeait depuis le 24 mai dernier à Ouagadougou pour juger les 33 accusés du complot du 3 août 1967 contre la sûreté intérieure de l'Etat, a rendu son verdict mercredi soir. Ont été condamnés :

— Madame Félicité Yaméogo, épouse de l'ex-président Maurice Yaméogo, à trois ans d'emprisonnement avec sursis ;

— M. Herman Yaméogo, fils de l'ancien président, à sept ans de réclusion ;

— M. Leonce Koné, fils de l'ancien président de l'assemblée nationale voltaïque, M. Ghegnon Koné, à six ans de réclusion.

D'autre part, le tribunal, qui a prononcé onze acquittements, a condamné deux accusés en fuite à 20 ans de travaux forcés par contumace. Les autres peines prononcées par le tribunal spécial s'échelonnent de deux ans à douze ans de réclusion ou de travaux forcés.

Par ailleurs, une peine de douze ans de travaux forcés a été prononcée par le tribunal spécial de Haute Volta contre Lucien Yaméogo, fonctionnaire du trésor, accusé d'avoir trempé dans le complot d'août 1967 visant au renversement du gouvernement du président Sangoulé Lamizana.

Trente-cinq inculpés comparaissaient depuis le 21 mai devant le tribunal.

Yaméogo et ses complices étaient accusés d'avoir créé un groupe dit « groupe X, » qui entendait assassiner le président Lamizana et trois de ses Ministres. L'accusé principal affirmait que le but de ce groupe était de prévenir l'assassinat de l'ex-président Maurice Yaméogo, renversé en janvier 1966 dont il aurait eu vent en juillet 1967.

Treize des accusés ont été condamnés à des peines allant de trois à dix ans, dont Herman Yaméogo, fils de l'ex-président condamné à sept ans et Leonce Koné, fils de l'ancien président de l'assemblée nationale, qui se voit infliger six ans de réclusion.

Huit accusés sont condamnés à des peines d'emprisonnement avec sursis, dont l'ex-présidente Yaméogo, née Félicité Zagré, trois ans de prison. Onze des accusés ont été acquittés.

Des peines de vingt ans de travaux forcés ont été requises contre deux personnes en fuite, Jacques Yaméogo (cousin de l'ancien président) et Sayouba Dera Rous.

Hier devait débuter un autre procès devant le tribunal spécial, où comparaissent MM. Begnon Koné et Moussa Savadogo, respectivement ancien président et secrétaire général de l'assemblée nationale.

Tous deux sont accusés d'intelligence avec des agents d'une puissance étrangère, ayant pour effet de nuire à la situation diplomatique de la Haute Volta.

M. Koné aura également à répondre de l'accusation de détention illégale d'armes à feu perfectionnées.

C'est au lendemain des évéments de janvier 1965, qui ont amené l'armée au pouvoir, que M. Begnon Koné de même que l'ex-président Yaméogo, se sont vus assignés à résidence surveillée dans un camp militaire situé dans la région de Ouagadougou.

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE

LES GREVISTES REPRENNENT LE TRAVAIL

Après trois semaines de paralisie, métro et autobus ont recommencé à fonctionner hier à Paris où les employés des services de voirie ont également repris le travail.

Du côté du métro, la première rame a commencé à fonctionner à 3 h 30. Beaucoup de stations sont encore fermées en attendant la fin des travaux d'inspection sur les lignes, indispensables après le débrayage prolongé des employés. On s'attend cependant que le trafic devait revedenir à peu près normal aux environs de midi.

Du côté des autobus, 66 des 160 lignes fonctionnaient.

Pour ce qui est des grandes lignes, on prévoit une reprise graduelle au cours des prochaines 24 heures.

Un autre secteur ou la reprise se précise est celui des postes.

Du côté de l'industrie automobile, cependant, les grevistes restent sur leurs positions.

Pour tenter de briser leur résistance, un millier de C.R.S. ont occupé avant le lever du jour les usines Renault de Flins, près de Paris, d'où ils ont expusé du même coup les piquets de grève.

Dans un communiqué publié hier matin, la fédération force ouvrière de la métallurgie « condamne sévèrement l'occupation de l'usine de Flins par les forces de police. »

La direction de la régie nationale des usines Renault de Flins a publié de son côté un communiqué dans lequel elle explique la raison de sa décision.

« La direction, dit le communiqué, avait appelé mardi 4 juin, le personnel de l'usine à un vote à bulletin secret. 80 % environ du personnel s'était présenté à ce vote. Le piquet de grève s'est opposé au déroulement des opérations. De l'avis de la direction, il prouvait ainsi qu'il en craignait les résultats. C'est pour permettre à ceux qui veulent travailler que la direction a décidé de faire ouvrir les postes de l'usine. Les prochains jours montreront que l'immense majorité du personnel désire reprendre le travail. »

Orly, par ailleurs le personnel au sol a voté dans sa grande majorité hier en faveur d'une reprise du travail ce matin.

Etant donné, toutefois, que les négociations entre le personnel de la tour de contrôle régionale et le gouvernement n'ont pas encore abouti, on ne prévoit pas une reprise, dans un avenir, immédiat, des vols en partance d'Orly ou du Bourget.

Une autre catégorie de travailleurs ou la grève continue à être suivie est celle des chaffeurs de taxis parisiens. Ils reprendront le travail aujourd'hui. Quant à la Bourse, elle est restée fermée hier.

Le Sénateur Robert Kennedy est mort hier matin

Frankenheimer, le sénateur lui avait confié qu'il importait de compter sur la chance.

A propos des mesures qu'il prenait pour assurer sa protection au cours de la campagne électorale, le frère du Président assassiné avait déclaré en réponse à une question :

« Il n'y a aucun moyen de protéger un candidat pendant la campagne électorale. Il faut se donner à la foule et à partir de là... il faut compter sur la chance.

« De toute façon, il faut avoir la chance avec soi pour être élu Président des Etats-Unis. On l'a eu ne l'a pas. Je sais qu'il y aura un attentat tôt ou tard. Pas tellement pour des raisons politiques : par contagion.... par émulation... Nous vivons dans une époque d'extraordinaire contagion psychique. Parce qu'un type tue Martin Luther King ici, un « contaminé » va immédiatement tenter de tuer un leader des étudiants ».

Inhumation à Arlington

M. Robert Kennedy, sénateur de l'Etat de New York, sera inhumé au cimetière national d'Arlington, à Washington, là où repose son frère aîné, le Président John Kennedy, a annoncé M. Pierre Salinger, porte-parole de la famille Kennedy.

La dépouille mortelle de M. Robert Kennedy, décédé cette nuit à l'hôpital, devait être ramenée hier matin de Los Angeles à New York à bord d'un appareil spécial fourni par la Maison Blanche. Les membres de la famille, ainsi que les amis et l'entourage de l'ancien candidat à la Présidence ont voyagé à bord de cet appareil.

La dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée à la cathédrale Saint-Patrick de New York où le public sera admis à défiler aujourd'hui vendredi de 8 heures du matin à 23 heures. Une messe de requiem sera célébrée samedi matin.

La dépouille mortelle sera ensuite transportée par train de New York à Washington, puis au cimetière national d'Arlington où aura lieu l'inhumation.

Deuil aux Etats-Unis

Dès l'annonce du décès du sénateur Robert Kennedy, le pavillon américain a été mis en berne sur tous les bâtiments publics et les navires de la Marine. Les funérailles auront lieu samedi. La journée de dimanche prochain sera journée de deuil national. La dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée par avion spécial de Los Angeles à New York où, après avoir été exposée pendant toute la journée de vendredi, une messe sera dite samedi matin à la cathédrale Saint-Patrick au cœur même de la grande métropole.

Puis, par train, le corps du sénateur sera transporté à Washington où il sera inhumé samedi dans la journée au cimetière national d'Arlington aux côtés de la dépouille du Président John Kennedy qui y repose depuis sa mort.

Le gouvernement a pris un peu partout des mesures préventives pour faire face à tout désordre qui pourrait survenir à la suite de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy et l'annonce officielle de sa mort.

Mais les Américains de race noire et les pauvres ont perdu leur idole et déjà le révérend Ralph David Abernathy, qui dirige la « Marche contre la Misère » a affirmé que cet assassinat fait partie d'un vaste complot destiné à éliminer un à un tous ceux qui aident les pauvres aux Etats-Unis.

Cependant, les mobiles du crime sont peut-être tout autres. L'enquête a déjà permis de se rendre compte que le Jordanien Sirhan Sirhan était un adversaire acharné d'Israël et un chaud partisan des thèses nationalistes arabes les plus extrêmes.

Un calepin... Une mention...

Un calepin appartenant à Sirhan Sirhan, auteur présumé de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy, portait la mention : « Kennedy doit être assassiné avant le 5 juin 1968 », a déclaré mercredi soir M. Samuel Yorty, maire de Los Angeles.

M. Yorty a ajouté que deux carnets portant des indications manuscrites de Sirhan ont été retrouvés à Pasadema, au domicile de l'auteur et apportés au poste de police où se poursuivait l'interrogatoire du suspect.

Biographie

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy qui vient de mourir hier à Los Angeles, est né le 20 novembre 1925.

A 26 ans, au barreau de Massachusetts, il entama sa carrière politique en faisant campagne pour l'élection de John Kennedy, son frère, au poste de sénateur du Massachusetts. A 31 ans, il organisa la campagne à l'issue de laquelle John Kennedy devint le 35e Président des Etats-Unis. Il fut alors nommé Ministre de la Justice et s'employa surtout au règlement du problème des droits civiques, à la répression du crime organisé et des rackets, ainsi qu'à la solution des problèmes concernant la législation du travail, la défense des pauvres, et la réhabilitation des détenus.

En 1964, après avoir été déçu dans ses espoirs d'être choisi comme Vice-Président par Lyndon Johnson, il démissionna de son poste de Ministre de la Justice et se présenta aux élections sénatoriales de New York. Malgré une vive opposition de la part des démocrates comme des républicains, qui l'accusèrent de vouloir rechercher une nouvelle « rampe de lancement » pour ses aspirations politiques, il fut élu.

Opposant déclaré, dès 1965, d'une politique d'escalade au Vietnam, le sénateur Kennedy se vit alors acclamé par un nombre croissant d'Américains et surtout par les jeunes comme la « solution de rechange » à opposer au Président Johnson.

Ce n'est pourtant qu'au début de février 1968 que M. Kennedy sortit de sa réserve. Il prononça alors un discours fracassant, démolissant impitoyablement la politique du chef de l'exécutif américain qu'il traita d'illusoire et d'irréalisable. Mais s'il se désolidarisait publiquement du Président Johnson, M. Kennedy ne déclarait pas pour autant vouloir lui disputer la nomination démocrate. Cette décision, il ne la prit qu'au lendemain de la surprenante démonstration de force faite dans le New Hampshire par le sénateur Mac Carthy, qui recueillit presque autant de voix, aux élections primaires du 12 mars que le Président Johnson, ouvrant ainsi des espoirs à une candidature Kennedy.

M. Robert Kennedy est père de dix enfants.

HOMMAGE DE R. NIXON A ROBERT KENNEDY

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy « un homme d'une énergie et d'une vitalité énormes » et un des grands chefs les plus populaires de l'histoire américaine, a déclaré hier matin M. Richard Nixon, ancien vice-président des Etats-Unis, qui brigue l'investiture du Parti republicain, pour les élections présidentielles de novembre prochain.

« Accablés aujourd'hui de tristesse, ajoute M. Nixon dans une déclaration remise à la presse hier matin à New-York, les enfants Kennedy sauront, lorsqu'ils grandiront que leur père et leur oncle était un homme jeune de grand courage qui avait déjà laissé sa marque dans l'histoire.

HARLEM A L'ANNONCE DE LA NOUVELLE

Une profonde emotion, mêlée d'un sentiment de désaroi, s'est saisie de la population de Harlem, le quartier noir de New-York, à l'annonce de la mort du sénateur Robert Kennedy.

L'opinion la plus répendue parmi les Noirs de New-York est que les coups de feu qui retentirent, dans les cuisines de l'hôtel « Ambassador » de Los Angeles visaient autant le jeune sénateur démocrate que les Américains de couleur, qui voyaient en lui un des principaux défenseurs de leurs droits civiques.

Partout, on entend dans les rues de Harlem des réflexions du genre suivant : « On sait qu'ils veulent supprimer tous ceux qui pensent un peu à nous » ; « C'est une conspiration politique, on élimine systématiquement les meilleurs Américains », ou encore : Pap Brown avait raison, il n'y a que la violence qui compte en Amérique ».

MESSAGE DU CONSEIL DE SECURITE A Mme KENNEDY

Aux Nations Unies après avoir rendu hommage au sénateur Robert Kennedy, le Conseil de Sécurité, saisi de plaintes jordanienne et israélienne sur la situation à la frontière, a décidé de renvoyer sine die son débat.

La décision a été prise sur proposition de M. Tewfik Bouattoura, délégué de l'Algérie, au nom des pays arabes.

Au début de séance, dans un geste sans précédent, le Conseil avait décidé l'envoi d'un message à Mme Robert Kennedy, lui exprimant ses sentiments de consternation et de profonde tristesse.

Le message du Conseil de Sécurité déclare : « Le soutien du sénateur Kennedy aux Nations Unies et à leurs objectifs de paix est connu et respecté dans le monde entier.

« Tous les membres du Conseil s'associent aux prières pour lui et expriment leur profonde sympathie à vous-même et à toute la famille Kennedy ».

« CES ACTES DE VIOLENCE NE SONT PAS DES ACCIDENTS »

Ému au point d'en pleurer, M. Schlesinger a ajouté : « Depuis trois ans, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde. Nous avons déjà assassiné deux citoyens qui personnifiaient l'idéalisme américain à l'étranger et hier nous avons assassiné un troisième. Ces actes de violence ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national ». « Ces actes, a poursuivi M. Schlesinger, ont commencé lorsque l'homme blanc s'est mis à assassiner les Indiens et à faire des esclaves de ceux qu'il considérait comme ses inférieurs à cause de la couleur de leur peau. Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparaît dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence », a conclu M. Schlesinger.

Nations Unies :

Protestations du Congo-Kinshasa

Le Congo Kinshasa a protesté hier auprès du conseil de sécurité des Nations Unies à propos du survol de son territoire le 21 mai par des avions portugais de l'Angola.

Le délégué permanent du Congo, a déclaré que deux appareils militaires portugais ont survolé hier Kimpangu, poste frontière situé à 120 km. de Moerkeké, et ont lâché des tracts.

D'un côté, le tract en question portait les couleurs portugaises, et de l'autre un appel en portugais aux refugiés angolais.

Le délégué congolais a déclaré qu'il entendait protester vigoureusement contre de tels actes de provocation, qui viole d'une manière flagrante les principes de la charte des Nations Unies.

LE SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY EST MORT HIER MATIN

«...Ces actes de violences ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national...»

— a déclaré M. Schlesinger, conseiller des frères John et Robert Kennedy —

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy est décédé hier à 1 h. 44 du matin, heure de Californie, soit 8 h. 44 G.M.T., à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain de Los Angeles des suites de ses blessures.

De nombreux membres de sa famille se trouvaient à son chevet : sa femme Ethel, sa sœur Madame Peter Lawford, son autre sœur Madame Stephen Smith et son mari ainsi que Madame Jacqueline Kennedy, veuve du Président John Kennedy.

Devant l'hôpital, la foule qui observait une vigile de prières a éclaté en sanglots en apprenant le décès mais on n'a observé aucune scène d'hystérie comme celles qui se sont produites à l'hôtel Ambassador au moment du drame.

M. Mankiewick, après avoir précisé que le sénateur de New York avait reçu les derniers sacrements peu après l'attentat et qu'un prêtre se trouvait à ses côtés lorsqu'il a rendu l'âme, a déclaré que le sénateur n'avait jamais repris connaissance depuis le moment où il a été atteint par la balle qui a pénétré dans le crâne.

Bob Kennedy avait un pressentiment

Romain Gary, écrivain et cinéaste français, dans un article publié hier par le « Figaro », écrit que le sénateur Robert Kennedy lui avait déclaré voici une quinzaine de jours qu'il serait tôt ou tard victime d'une tentative d'assassinat.

Romain Gary ajoute qu'au cours de cette entrevue, qui s'était déroulée à Los Angeles dans la demeure du metteur en scène John

A propos de l'assassinat du Sénateur Robert Kennedy

L'AMERIQUE SERA-T-ELLE LA DEMOCRATIE DU COLT ?

Robert Kennedy est mort hier, assassiné.

Assassiné comme son frère John Kennedy, assassiné comme Malcom X ; assassiné comme le pasteur Martin Luther King ; assassiné comme des milliers de citoyens américains obscurs et anonymes.

Robert Kennedy est mort hier, victime lui aussi de l'odieux et impitoyable système des Etats-Unis que déjà, avant la première guerre mondiale, Jacques London fustigeait dans son livre génial « Le talon de fer ». Car, c'est bien le système américain, et lui seul, qui vient de ravir à l'affection du monde ce jeune homme lucide, courageux, dynamique et plein d'avenir.

Mais la mort du sénateur Kennedy donne une nouvelle et tragique dimension à ce qu'on appelle « la politique des Etats-Unis d'Amérique » ; elle prouve de façon dramatique que ce pays, devenu trop technique sinon trop technocratique et par là même inhumain, s'engage de plus en plus profondément dans la voie de la barbarie et de la décadence.

SESSION ORDINAIRE DU CONSEIL DES MINISTRES

Une session ordinaire du Conseil des ministres s'est tenue le 6 juin 1968 sous la présidence de M. Modibo Kéita, chef de l'Etat et président du Comité National de Défense de la Révolution.

Les ministres ont adopté deux projets de décrets, l'un portant réglementation de la Recherche scientifique en République du Mali, l'autre portant nomination de M. Mountaga Traoré, précédemment à l'Office des Changes, chef de cabinet du Ministère des Finances.

Ils ont ensuite étudié pour transmission à la délégation législative :

— Un projet de loi autorisant des virements de crédits au budget régional de Mopti, exercice 1967 1968 ;

— Un projet de loi portant modification au code des impôts directs, indirects et taxes assimilées ;

— Un projet de loi portant fixation de l'année fiscale.

Le Conseil des ministres, à la lumière d'un certain nombre de communications verbales, donna son accord pour la participation du Mali à plusieurs réunions prévues en Afrique et en dehors du continent.

Avant de lever la séance, le chef de l'Etat, après analyse de la conjoncture africaine internationale, fit d'importantes recommandations relatives au renforcement de la vigilance à tous les niveaux.

LE SEJOUR DE LA DELEGATION MILITAIRE MALIENNE A PEKIN

La délégation militaire malienne, conduite par le ministre Mamadou Diakité, a visité mercredi, en compagnie du vice-ministre chinois de la Défense nationale Siao Kin-Kouang, la fabrique générale d'article de bonneterie de Pékin. Elle y a été l'objet d'un accueil chaleureux de la part des ouvriers et employés révolutionnaires.

Le ministre Mamadou Diakité et les autres membres de sa délégation ont entendu un rapport fait par un responsable du Comité révolutionnaire de la fabrique expliquant comment les ouvriers et employés révolutionnaires ont appliqué l'enseignement du président Mao : « Compter sur ses propres forces », et développer la production et quels sont les brillants succès qu'ils ont enregistrés.

Le ministre Mamadou Diakité a fait l'éloge des réalisations enregistrées par les ouvriers et employés.

Exaltant les combattants de l'armée populaire de libération, il a affirmé : « Par cette visite, nous avons constaté que l'armée populaire de libération, une armée du peuple s'est édifiée selon la pensée de Mao Tsé-Toung et qu'elle applique la politique du président Mao ».

REUNION DU BUREAU DE L'U.N.T.M.

Le bureau de l'U.N.T.M. s'est réuni le mercredi 5 juin 1968 sous la présidence de son secrétaire administratif le camarade Nama Kéita, membre du C.N.D.R.

Il analysa tout d'abord les nouvelles en provenance du Sénégal. Compte tenu de la gravité du climat social ainsi créé dans ce pays ami et dans le but de renforcer les liens de fraternité et d'amitié qui ont toujours existé entre nos deux Organisations syndicales du Sénégal et du Mali, le Bureau décida de l'envoi à Dakar par l'avion du jeudi 6 courant d'une délégation composée des camarades Nama Kéita et Sané Moussa Diallo pour une prise de contact avec le Bureau de l'Union Nationale des Travailleurs sénégalais et les autorités sénégalaises.

Après avoir analysé les nouvelles en provenance des unions locales, il a procédé à la désignation de deux délégations devant se rendre incessamment à Tombouctou et à Yanfolila.

Le Bureau, après avoir fait l'économie des travaux du dernier séminaire sur la coopération salua les décisions de cette importante réunion dont les conclusions engagent désormais l'U.N.T.M. et les travailleurs maliens. Il décida de consacrer une réunion spéciale à l'étude du rapport de synthèse de ce séminaire.

Dans le but de marquer davantage la contribution des travailleurs au financement des IIes Jeux Africains, le Bureau envisagea l'organisation avant le 30 juin 1968, de diverses manifestations.

La commission d'organisation est chargée de préparer immédiatement ces manifestations.

Enfin, le Bureau a désigné le camarade Demba Soumaré pour le représenter au sein de la délégation du C.N.D.R. qui doit se rendre à Ansongo.

Le tribunal n'a pu prononcer son verdict, l'affaire étant mise en délibéré. Le Jugement final sera le 19 juin.

FIN DE LA VISITE DE M. PALMER EN GUINEE

M. Joseph Palmer, sous-secrétaire d'Etat américain aux Affaires africaines, devait quitter hier matin Kindia par la route, au terme de sa visite en Guinée, pour se rendre en Sierra Leone, annonce radio Conakry.

Arrivé mercredi en sa compagnie dans cette localité, le Président Sékou Touré avait rendu hommage à M. Palmer pour « sa haute conscience et sa haute compétence des problèmes africaines.»

M. Sékou Touré s'est réjoui de la visite de M. Palmer, qui, a-t-il espéré, lui permettra de se faire une idée exacte de la Guinée.

Le Chef de l'Etat s'est félicité de la qualité des rapports existant entre la Guinée et les Etats Unis, et a ajouté : « Le peuple de Guinée est un peuple fier de sa souveraineté. »

PROTESTATIONS A COPENHAGUE CONTRE L'AGRESSION AMERICAINE AU VIETNAM

Selon des informations en provenance de la capitale danoise, près de 20.000 danois ont organisé une manifestation à Copenhague pour protester contre l'agression américaine au Vietnam.

Au mépris des obstacles de la police, les manifestants ont tenu un meeting devant l'Ambassade des Etats Unis, à Copenhague, protestant contre l'agression américaine.

Après le meeting, de nombreux manifestants se sont rendus au port où ils ont lancé des pierres et des bouteilles sur le bâtiments de guerre américaine qui y mouillaient.

Ils ont également manifesté devant les bureaux de « Americaltex» et une agence de tourisme américaine, dont ils brisèrent plusieurs fenêtres avec des pierres et des bouteilles.

Quand les manifestants passaient devant l'Ambassade de Thaïlande à Copenhague, ils en brisèrent les fenêtres à coup de pierre, condamnant la Thaïlande qu'ils considèrent comme complice des Etats-Unis dans la guerre d'agression au Vietnam.

LE PARLEMENT KOWEITIEN RATIFIE L'ACCORD TRIPARTITE CONCLU A BEYROUTH

Le parlement Koweitien a ratifié l'accord établissant l« organisation des pays arabes producteurs de pétrole. »

Cet accord avait été conclu à Berouth le 9 janvier 1968 entre l'Arabie Saoudite, le Koweit et la Libye. Cette organisation aura son siège au Koweit et se propose la coordination des politiques pétrolières entre les pays arabes producteurs.

L'organisation (à laquelle l'Irak s'est refusée de participer) est complètement différente de l'OPEP (Organisation des Pays Exportateurs de Pétrole). Tout pays arabe ou non arabe qui est exporteur net, c'est-à-dire dont la production dépasse la consommation, peut demander à faire partie de l'OPEP. En sont membres à l'heure actuelle : l'Indonésie, l'Irak, l'Iran, le Koweit, la Libye, le Qator, l'Arabie Saoudite et le Venezuela.

La nouvelle organisation créée à Beyrouth en janvier dernier se propose de défendre plus particulièrement les intérêts des pays arabes producteurs en unifiant leur attitude à l'égard des compagnies étrangères et en coordonnant dans tous ses détails leur politique pétrolière.

Et le peuple américain lui-même, parce qu'il subit cette politique, le sait très bien. Les agences de presse rapportaient hier que nombre de citoyens de ce grand pays, dans les rues, disaient : « Nous sommes un pays de fous, de sauvages ». D'autres faisaient très-tement cette remarque : « Et l'on nous appelle un pays civilisé ! ».

Le sénateur démocrate de Washington, M. Jackson déclarait pour sa part : « Le monde est devenu fou ». Nous disons pour notre part NON ! Le monde n'est pas devenu fou; ce sont les classes dirigeantes des Etats-Unis qui s'affolent; c'est la société américaine, capitaliste et ségrégationniste, qui s'engage dans un processus de décomposition lente, mais inévitable.

Car, une société qui fait siennes des pratiques aussi condamnables et réprouvées, est à coup sûr une société gravement atteinte. Un régime qui compte sur le moyen de l'assassinat politique pour résoudre les contradictions qu'il suscite est un régime agonisant dont les jours sont comptés.

Qu'on ne s'y trompe donc pas. ce qui se passe actuellement aux Etats-Unis est très grave et doit être pris au sérieux par tout le monde.

Désormais, le monde entier sait que ce n'est guère ce pays qui s'enlise dans des mœurs aussi rétrogrades en politique qui peut être fondé à se poser en censeur de la morale universelle et en exemple aux yeux des autres pays; que ce pays, disons-le aussi, est mal venu pour parler au nom de la démocratie, quand ses propres leaders ne peuvent compter sur la sécurité au cours des campagnes électorales; quand la violence s'impose comme loi.

Si la violence, les crimes, les viols, le vol, les brigandages, les agressions et les attentats sont dans la nature du régime capitaliste, le régime de la libre entreprise et de la concurrence effrenée, nous savons que la violence des classes bourgeoises réactionnaires, la violence contre-révolutionnaire qui s'exerce contre le progrès et les hommes progressistes, loin de signifier force et santé du régime dominé par le capital financier, prouve au contraire que les classes exploiteuses ne sont plus en mesure de se maintenir et de perpétrer leur domination par les vieilles méthodes du parlementarisme bourgeois; elle prouve également que la liberté et la démocratie bourgeoises, devenues trop étroites pour un régime fascisant, étouffent de plus en plus les tenants mêmes du pouvoir des monopoles impérialistes, et qu'enfin, les classes d'oppression s'imaginent ainsi qu'à l'aide de la violence et du crime, elles peuvent retarder sinon refourner en arrière la roue de l'histoire.

Mais cette roue, nulle force au monde ne peut ni la retenir, ni à plus forte raison la faire revenir en arrière. Et ce qui se passe aujourd'hui aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, s'il n'était pas prévisible, est dans la nature des choses. Les Américains lucides comme M. Schlesinger le disent clairement : « Depuis trois ans, déclare ce dernier, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde... Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparait dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence ».

Et aucun régime au monde ne peut, à l'échelle mondiale, provoquer des guerres d'agression, organiser des armées de mercenaires et des tueurs à gage, pour attenter à la liberté et à la sécurité des autres peuples et des autres nations, sans s'exposer lui-même de façon dangereuse. C'est ce qui vient d'arriver aux Etats-Unis.

Les innombrables crimes perpétrés par les classes dirigeantes de la société américaine au service des monopoles et des trusts, soit contre le Vietnam ou le Guatémala, contre le Congo ou d'autres pays d'Amérique Latine, ne pouvaient pas ne pas se retourner un jour contre le peuple américain lui-même. Mais que les meilleurs fils de ce peuple, c'est-à-dire ceux que nous considérions comme nos alliés dans la grande lutte pour l'avènement d'un monde nouveau, fait de justice et de fraternité, soient des tout premiers à être victimes de la barbarie du système, voilà ce qui nous afflige profondément.

C'est une loi de faire confiance aux peuples; faisons donc pleinement confiance au grand peuple américain. Car désormais, il est confronté aux difficultés de toutes sortes. Le jour où l'immense majorité comprendra qu'il s'agit d'une question de vie ou de mort, ce jour-là, on peut dire que la partie est gagnée par l'humanité progressiste.

Des épreuves plus dures attendent le peuple américain et ses classes déshérités en particulier. Car, si l'on songe que ces vagues de crimes abominables qui ont ravi à la société américaine quelques-uns de ses fils parmi les plus nobles et les plus chers au cœur de l'humanité, ne sont même pas dirigées par des ennemis de classes des monopolistes, c'est-à-dire que le régime actuel n'est pas encore ouvertement mis en cause, qu'en sera-t-il lorsque demain il s'agira de lutter héroïquement pour l'instauration d'une démocratie véritable, populaire, aux Etats-Unis ? Et cela viendra inéluctablement, car il est suffisamment démontré que le régime social de ce pays, basé sur l'exploitation et l'oppression des masses laborieuses, n'est plus en mesure de résoudre les grandes contradictions qui sont en train de miner les fondements même de la société américaine.

En attendant, le crime dont vient d'être victime Robert Kennedy ne fera certainement que préparer les conditions pour une prise de conscience plus aigue des classes laborieuses des Etats-Unis.

Plusieurs dirigeants du gouvernement américain ont fait des « prières » à l'annonce de l'attentat contre Robert Kennedy. Le Président Johnson a lancé un appel aux Américains les exhortant à mettre un terme à la violence ainsi qu'à la prédication de la violence. »

Laissons les magnats et les hommes des monopoles à leurs dévotes et hypocrites prières qui ne les ont jamais empêchés de perpétrer ou de couvrir des crimes. Il faut certes prier ; mais il faut aussi et surtout en pareille circonstance des actes de foi, de progrès et d'humanité. Et d'abord que les Etats-Unis renoncent eux-mêmes à exercer la violence à l'égard des autres peuples, et de façon urgente et prioritaire au Vietnam.

Il faut que les Etats-Unis renoncent également de façon urgente et prioritaire à la violence contre les Afro-Américains debout pour la défense des droits humains les plus élémentaires.

Il faut que les Etats-Unis, de façon urgente et prioritaire, s'ils veulent survivre, renoncer à l'ignoble politique de ségrégation raciale imposée par la violence.

Il faut enfin que les Etats-Unis renoncent à leur rôle de gendarme international, car, de toute évidence, un système assis sur la violence et le crime n'a pas le droit de se poser en censeur d'autres systèmes plus équilibrés, et en tout cas plus proche de la morale.

Un vieil adage dit : « Ne fais pas à autrui ce que tu ne voudrais pas qu'on te fît ».

La violence ne peut disparaître du sol des Etats-Unis quand, journellement, on endurcit le cœur et la raison des millions de jeunes Américains pour l'exercice de la violence et de l'hostilité.

Aujourd'hui, il rest à souhaiter que la mort tragique de Robert Kennedy soit une occasion propice pour conduire le gouvernement des Etats-Unis à tirer les conséquences, toutes les conséquences de la situation politico-sociale qui favorise des crimes odieux comme ces assassinats qui font désespérer de la société américaine elle-même.

S'il en était ainsi, la mort du sénateur de New-York, que les forces de progrès du monde entier pleurent, n'aura pas été inutile.

De toute évidence, nous constatons la faillite de la prétendue supériorité du mode de vie américain dont on nous a rebattu les oreilles en le présentant comme la forme la plus élevée d'organisation de la société.

Non ! on n'a pas le droit de parler d'humanisme lorsqu'on a assassiné quatre présidents, et que chaque année, d'après les statistiques officielles, il y a comme en 1965 :

— 9.850 meurtres ;

— 22.467 enlèvements et viols ;

— 1.173.201 cambriolages ;

— 357.894 crimes contre les individus ;

— 2.422.121 crimes contre la propriété privée, etc.

Et nous en passons !

Sodome et Gomerrhe n'avaient pas atteint un tel niveau de dégradation...

Nous pensons que la société américaine, tout comme l'ensemble du monde capitaliste, y compris les nostalgiques du système capitaliste, est atteinte d'un mal qui restera incurable dans la mesure où la prise de conscience du peuple ne se traduira pas par des actions décisives des masses populaires qui obligeront l'Etat impérialiste au service des monopoles à opérer des changements qui mettront la nation américaine à l'abri du chaos et de la décadence.

De toute façon, la crise générale du système capitaliste est entrée dans sa phase la plus active, l'Amérique du Nord, premier des pays capitalistes, du capitalisme pourrissant, arrivé à sa phase de déclin, ne saurait échapper à la dialectique de l'histoire déjà étudiée par Marx et Engels, scientifiquement décrite par Lénine, et analysée avec une lucidité et une vigeur géniales par Mao Tsé-Toung.

Le nouveau crime perpétré contre les forces de progrès et de liberté en Amérique contribuera fortement à dévoiler « le géant aux pieds d'argile ».

Il a sonné le glas contre les monopoles impérialistes et pour des changements nouveaux, comme d'ailleurs partout les lames de fond de la révolution mondiale sont en train de balayer le vieil ordre des choses et liquider les vieux systèmes bâtis sur l'exploitation, l'iniquité et le crime.

JUGEMENT EN HAUTE - VOLTA

Le tribunal spécial de Haute-Volta qui siégeait depuis le 24 mai dernier à Ouagadougou pour juger les 33 accusés du complot du 5 août 1967 contre la sûreté intérieure de l'Etat, a rendu son verdict mercredi soir. Ont été condamnés :

— Madame Félicité Yaméogo, épouse de l'ex-président Maurice Yaméogo, à trois ans d'emprisonnement avec sursis ;

— M. Herman Yaméogo, fils de l'ancien président, à sept ans de réclusion ;

— M. Leonce Koné, fils de l'ancien président de l'assemblée nationale voltaïque, M. Gbegnon Koné, à six ans de réclusion.

D'autre part, le tribunal, qui a prononcé onze acquittements, a condamné deux accusés en fuite à 20 ans de travuax forcés par contumace. Les autres peines prononcées par le tribunal spécial s'échelonnent de deux ans à douze ans de réclusion ou de travaux forcés.

Par ailleurs, une peine de douze ans de travaux forcés a été prononcée par le tribunal spécial de Haute Volta contre Lucien Yaméogo, fonctionnaire du trésor, accusé d'avoir trempé dans le complot d'août 1967 visant au renversement du gouvernement du président Sangoulé Lamizana.

Trente-cinq inculpés comparaissaient depuis le 21 mai devant le tribunal.

Yaméogo et ses complices étaient accusés d'avoir créé un groupe dit « groupe X. » qui entendait assassiner le président Lamizana et trois de ses Ministres. L'accusé principal affirmait que le but de ce groupe était de prevenir l'assassinat de l'ex-président Maurice Yaméogo, renversé en janvier 1966 dont il aurait eu vent en juillet 1967.

Treize des accusés ont été condamnés à des peines allant de trois à dix ans, dont Herman Yaméogo, fils de l'ex-président condamné à sept ans et Leonce Koné, fils de l'ancien président de l'assemblée nationale, qui se voit infliger six ans de réclusion.

Huit accusés sont condamnés à des peines d'emprisonnement avec sursis, dont l'ex-présidente Yaméogo, née Félicité Zagré, trois ans de prison. Onze des accusés ont été acquittés.

Des peines de vingt ans de travaux forcés ont été requises contre deux personnes en fuite, Jacques Yaméogo (cousin de l'ancien président) et Sayouba Dera Rous.

Hier devait débuter un autre procès devant le tribunal spécial, où comparaissent MM. Begnon Koné et Moussa Savadogo, respectivement ancien président et secrétaire général de l'assemblée nationale.

Tous deux sont accusés d'intelligence avec des agents d'une puissance étrangère, ayant pour effet de nuire à la situation diplomatique de la Haute Volta.

M. Koné aura également à répondre de l'accusation de détention illégale d'armes à feu perfectionnées.

C'est au lendemain des évéments de janvier 1965, qui ont amené l'armée au pouvoir, que M. Begnon Koné de même que l'ex-président Yaméogo, se sont vus assignés à résidence surveillée dans un camp militaire situé dans la région de Ouagadougou.

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE

LES GREVISTES REPRENNENT LE TRAVAIL

Après trois semaines de paralisie, métro et autobus ont recommencé à fonctionner hier à Paris où les employés des services de voirie ont également repris le travail.

Du côté du métro, la première rame a commencé à fonctionner à 3 h 30. Beaucoup de stations sont encore fermées en attendant la fin des travaux d'inspection sur les lignes, indispensables après le débrayage prolongé des employés. On s'attend cependant que le trafic devait revedenir à peu près normal aux environs de midi.

Du côté des autobus, 66 des 160 lignes fonctionnaient.

Pour ce qui est des grandes lignes, on prévoit une reprise graduelle au cours des prochaines 24 heures.

Un autre secteur ou la reprise se précise est celui des postes.

Du côté de l'industrie automobile, cependant, les grevistes restent sur leurs positions.

Pour tenter de briser leur résistance, un millier de C.R.S. ont occupé avant le lever du jour les usines Renault de Flins, près de Paris, d'où ils ont expusé du même coup les piquets de grève.

Dans un communiqué publié hier matin, la fédération force ouvrière de la métallurgie « condamne sévérement l'occupation de l'usine de Flins par les forces de police. »

La direction de la régie nationale des usines Renault de Flins a publié de son côté un communiqué dans lequel elle explique la raison de sa décision.

« La direction, dit le communiqué, avait appelé mardi 4 juin, le personnel de l'usine à un vote à bulletin secret. 80 % environ du personnel s'était présenté à ce vote. Le piquet de grève s'est opposé au déroulement des opérations. De l'avis de la direction, il prouvait ainsi qu'il en cragnait les résultats. C'est pour permettre à ceux qui veulent travailler que la direction a décidé de faire ouvrir les postes de l'usine. Les prochains jours montreront que l'immense majorité du personnel désire reprendre le travail. »

Orly, par ailleurs le personnel au sol a voté dans sa grande majorité hier en faveur d'une reprise du travail ce matin.

Etant donné, toutefois, que les négociations entre le personnel de la tour de contrôle régionale et le gouvernement n'ont pas encore abouti, on ne prévoit pas une reprise, dans un avenir, immédiat, des vols en partance d'Orly ou du Bourget.

Une autre catégorie de travailleurs ou la grève continue à être suivie est celle des chaffeurs de taxis parisiens. Ils reprendront le travail aujourd'hui. Quant à la Bourse, elle est restée fermée hier.

Frankenheimer, le sénateur lui avait confié qu'il importait de compter sur la chance.

A propos des mesures qu'il prenait pour assurer sa protection au cours de la campagne électorale, le frère du Président assassiné avait déclaré en réponse à une question :

« Il n'y a aucun moyen de protéger un candidat pendant la campagne électorale. Il faut se donner à la foule et à partir de là... il faut compter sur la chance.

« De toute façon, il faut avoir la chance avec soi pour être élu Président des Etats-Unis. On l'a ou on ne l'a pas. Je sais qu'il y aura un attentat tôt ou tard. Pas tellement pour des raisons politiques : par contagion.... par émulation... Nous vivons dans une époque d'extraordinaire contagion psychique. Parce qu'un type tue Martin Luther King ici, un « contaminé » va immédiatement tenter de tuer un leader des étudiants ».

Inhumation à Arlington

M. Robert Kennedy, sénateur de l'Etat de New York, sera inhumé au cimetière national d'Arlington, à Washington, là où repose son frère aîné, le Président John Kennedy, a annoncé M. Pierre Salinger, porte-parole de la famille Kennedy.

La dépouille mortelle de M. Robert Kennedy, décédé cette nuit à l'hôpital, devait être ramenée hier matin de Los Angeles à New York à bord d'un appareil spécial fourni par la Maison Blanche. Les membres de la famille, ainsi que les amis et l'entourage de l'ancien candidat à la Présidence ont voyagé à bord de cet appareil.

La dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée à la cathédrale Saint-Patrick de New York où le public sera admis à défiler aujourd'hui vendredi de 8 heures du matin à 23 heures. Une messe le requiem sera célébrée samedi matin.

La dépouille mortelle sera ensuite transportée par train de New York à Washington, puis au cimetière national d'Arlington où aura lieu l'inhumation.

Deuil aux Etats-Unis

Dès l'annonce du décès du sénateur Robert Kennedy, le pavillon américain a été mis en berne sur tous les bâtiments publics et les navires de la Marine. Les funérailles auront lieu samedi. La journée de dimanche prochain sera journée de deuil national. La dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée par avion spécial de Los Angeles à New York où, après avoir été exposée pendant toute la journée de vendredi, une messe sera dite samedi matin à la cathédrale Saint-Patrick au cœur même de la grande métropole.

Puis, par train, le corps du sénateur sera transporté à Washington où il sera inhumé samedi dans la journée au cimetière national d'Arlington aux côtés de la dépouille du Président John Kennedy qui y repose depuis sa mort.

Le gouvernement a pris un peu partout des mesures préventives pour faire face à tout désordre qui pourrait survenir à la suite de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy et l'annonce officielle de sa mort.

Mais les Américains de race noire et les pauvres ont perdu leur idole et déjà le révérend Ralph David Abernathy, qui dirige la « Marche contre la Misère » a affirmé que cet assassinat fait partie d'un vaste complot destiné à éliminer un à un tous ceux qui aident les pauvres aux Etats-Unis.

Cependant, les mobiles du crime sont peut-être tout autres. L'enquête a déjà permis de se rendre compte que le Jordanien Sirhan Sirhan [illegible] des thèses [illegible] arabes les plus extrêmes.

Un calepin... Une mention...

Un calepin appartenant à Sirhan Sirhan, auteur présumé de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy, portait la mention : « Kennedy doit être assassiné avant le 5 juin 1968 », a déclaré mercredi soir M. Samuel Yorty, maire de Los Angeles.

M. Yorty a ajouté que deux carnets portant des indications manuscrites de Sirhan ont été retrouvés à Pasadena, au domicile de l'auteur et apportés au poste de police où se poursuivait l'interrogatoire du suspect.

Biographie

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy qui vient de mourir hier à Los Angeles, est né le 20 novembre 1925.

A 26 ans, au barreau de Massachusetts, il entama sa carrière politique en faisant campagne pour l'élection de John Kennedy, son frère, au poste de sénateur du Massachusetts. A 31 ans, il organisa la campagne à l'issue de laquelle John Kennedy devint le 35e Président des Etats-Unis. Il fut alors nommé Ministre de la Justice et s'employa surtout au règlement du problème des droits civiques, à la répression du crime organisé et des rackets, ainsi qu'à la solution des problèmes concernant la législation du travail, la défense des pauvres, et la réhabilitation des détenus.

En 1964, après avoir été déçu dans ses espoirs d'être choisi comme Vice-Président par Lyndon Johnson, il démissionna de son poste de Ministre de la Justice et se présenta aux élections sénatoriales de New York. Malgré une vive opposition de la part des démocrates comme des républicains, qui l'accusaient de venir rechercher une nouvelle tribune pour ses ambitions politiques, il fut élu.

Opposant déclaré, dès 1965, d'une politique d'escalade au Vietnam, le sénateur Kennedy se vit alors acclamé par un nombre croissant d'Américains et surtout par les jeunes comme la « solution de rechange » à opposer au Président Johnson.

Ce n'est pourtant qu'au début de février 1968 que M. Kennedy sortit de sa réserve. Il prononça alors un discours fracassant, démolissant impitoyablement la politique du chef de l'exécutif américain qu'il traita d'illusoire et d'irréalisable. Mais s'il se désolidarisait publiquement du Président Johnson, M. Kennedy ne déclarait pas pour autant vouloir lui disputer la nomination démocrate. Cette décision, il ne la prit qu'au lendemain de la surprenante démonstration de force faite dans le New Hampshire par le sénateur Mac Carthy, qui recueillit presque autant de voix, aux élections primaires du 12 mars que le Président Johnson, ouvrant ainsi des espoirs à une candidature Kennedy.

M. Robert Kennedy est père de dix enfants.

HOMMAGE DE R. NIXON A ROBERT KENNEDY

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy « un homme d'une énergie et d'une vitalité énormes » et un des grands chefs les plus populaires de l'histoire américaine, a déclaré hier matin M. Richard Nixon, ancien vice-président des Etats-Unis, qui brigue l'investiture du Parti républicain, pour les élections présidentielles de novembre prochain.

« Accablés aujourd'hui de tristesse, ajoute M. Nixon dans une déclaration remise à la presse hier matin à New-York, les enfants Kennedy sauront, lorsqu'ils grandiront que leur père et leur oncle était un homme jeune de grand courage qui avait déjà laissé sa marque dans l'histoire.

HARLEM A L'ANNONCE DE LA NOUVELLE

Une profonde émotion, mêlée d'un sentiment de désarroi, s'est saisie de la population de Harlem, le quartier noir de New-York, à l'annonce de la mort du sénateur Robert Kennedy.

L'opinion la plus répandue parmi les Noirs de New-York est que les coups de feu qui retentirent, dans les cuisines de l'hôtel « Ambassador » de Los Angeles visaient autant le jeune sénateur démocrate que les Américains de couleur, qui voyaient en lui un des principaux défenseurs de leurs droits civiques.

Partout, on entend dans les rues de Harlem des réflexions du genre suivant : « On sait qu'ils veulent supprimer tous ceux qui pensent un peu à nous » ; « C'est une conspiration politique, on élimine systématiquement les meilleurs Américains », ou encore : Pap Brown avait raison, il n'y a que la violence qui compte en Amerique ».

MESSAGE DU CONSEIL DE SECURITE A Mme KENNEDY

Aux Nations Unies après avoir rendu hommage au sénateur Robert Kennedy, le Conseil de Sécurité, saisi de plaintes jordanienne et israélienne sur la situation à la frontière, a décidé de renvoyer sine die son débat.

La décision a été prise sur proposition de M. Tewfik Bouattoura, délégué de l'Algérie, au nom des pays arabes.

Au début de séance, dans un geste sans précédent, le Conseil avait décidé l'envoi d'un message à Mme Robert Kennedy, lui exprimant ses sentiments de consternation et de profonde tristesse.

Le message du Conseil de Sécurité déclare : « Le soutien du sénateur Kennedy aux Nations Unies et à leurs objectifs de paix est connu et respecté dans le monde entier.

« Tous les membres du Conseil s'associent aux prières pour lui et expriment leur profonde sympathie à vous-même et à toute la famille Kennedy ».

« CES ACTES DE VIOLENCE NE SONT PAS DES ACCIDENTS »

Ému au point d'en pleurer, M. Schlesinger a ajouté : « Depuis trois ans, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde. Nous avons déjà assassiné deux citoyens qui personnifiaient l'idéalisme américain à l'étranger et hier nous avons assassiné un troisième. Ces actes de violence ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national ». « Ces actes, a poursuivi M. Schlesinger, ont commencé lorsque l'homme blanc s'est mis à assassiner les Indiens et à faire des esclaves de ceux qu'il considérait comme ses inférieurs à cause de la couleur de leur peau. Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparait dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence », a conclu M. Schlesinger.

Nations Unies :

Protestations du Congo-Kinshasa

Le Congo Kinshasa a protesté hier auprès du conseil de sécurité des Nations Unies à propos du survol de son territoire le 21 mai par des avions portugais de l'Angola.

Le délégué permanent du Congo, a déclaré que deux appareils militaires portugais ont survolé hier Kimpangu, poste frontière situé à 120 km. de Moerkeké, et ont lâché des tracts.

D'un côté, le tract en question portait les couleurs portugaises, et de l'autre un appel en portugais aux refugiés angolais.

Le délégué congolais a déclaré qu'il entendait protester vigoureusement contre de tels actes de provocation, qui viole d'une manière flagrante les principes de la charte des Nations Unies.

LES MILITANTS DE OUELESSEBOUGOU DOTENT LEUR CENTRE D'UNE MATERNITE

Nous avons envoyé notre reporter à Ouélessébougou pour s'entretenir avec le secrétaire général de cette sous-section. Nous publions ci-dessous les questions posées par notre envoyé spécial et les réponses du camarade secrétaire général de la sous-section de Ouélessébougou, nous réservant de revenir dans notre prochaine édition hebdomadaire sur cette réalisation grandiose qui a valeur d'exemple pour toutes les sections du Parti.

QUESTIONS : Camarade Idrissa Diakité votre sous section vient de réaliser une œuvre sociale d'une très grande envergure. Pouvez-vous nous dire comment l'idée de construire une maternité vous est venue ?

REPONSE : L'idée de construire une maternité nous est venue en 1963. En effet, il a été porté à la connaissance du Bureau politique de la sous-section les pertes douloureuses de jeunes mamans à la suite d'accouchements.

Nous avons d'abord obtenu des Services de la Santé, le bénéfice de la formation de quatre matrones à la maternité de Bamako. Au niveau du village de Ouélessébougou même, nous sommes parvenus dès lors à la charge des matrones, à diminuer les accouchements selon la méthode traditionnelle.

Les matrones ont donc procédé aux accouchements à domicile, soit au total 550 à la date de l'inauguration de la maternité. Leurs nombreux déplacements pour assurer le travail (accouchements et soins aux bébés) ont accru le souci de la population à vite construire une maternité.

QUESTION : Cette maternité intéressant au premier chef nos sœurs militantes, quelle a été leur contribution dans la réalisation de cette belle entreprise ?

REPONSE : La contribution des femmes de l'arrondissement à cette œuvre est digne d'éloge : 11.085 femmes de beurre de karité ; 211.975 francs de souscriptions en espèces. Cela fit une valeur totale de 521.636 francs, soit environ 35 % de la valeur globale du bâtiment.

QUESTION : Quelle influence cette formation sanitaire aura-t-elle sur les populations de l'arrondissement de Ouélessébougou ?

REPONSES : Cette formation sanitaire aura certainement une influence heureuse sur les populations. En effet sauf pour des cas d'exception, on ne pourra plus aller à Bamako. De plus, plusieurs paysannes seront certainement attirées par les résultats, ce qui aura pour effet de les gagner à la cause de la médecine moderne.

QUESTION : Dans le domaine social avez-vous d'autres projets en vue ? Quels sont ils ?

REPONSE : Bien sûr nous avons d'autres projets en vue. Il nous faut créer un centre social, pour l'éducation de nos jeunes paysannes ; il nous faut également une P.M.I. à l'avenir, pour la continuité des soins.

Dans le domaine scolaire, toutes les écoles de l'arrondissement ont atteint le cycle prévu (1 cycle complet, 3 écoles du premier cycle).

Cependant dès que sera possible, nous créerons des écoles dans des centres dont le programme est à présent tracé.

Sur le plan politique, dès que nous aurons achevé notre Permanence du Parti (les travaux sont déjà très avancés) nous devons construire un centre culturel pour les jeunes.

Evidemment tout cela exige beaucoup de courage, mais je puis affirmer que nos militants ne manquent point de volonté.

LA REPUBLIQUE POPULAIRE DE CHINE ASSURE LE MALI DE SON SOUTIEN ACTIF DANS SON COMBAT POUR LA SAUVEGARDE DE SON INDEPENDANCE

L'agence « Chine Nouvelle » annonce que le chef d'Etat-major de l'armée populaire chinoise Huang Yung Sheng a assuré le Mali du soutien actif de la République Populaire de Chine dans son combat pour la sauvegarde de son indépendance.

Prenant la parole à un dîner d'adieu offert à Pékin par la délégation militaire malienne, conduite par le camarade Mamadou Diakité, membre du C.N.D.R., ministre délégué à la Défense et à la Sécurité, le chef d'Etat-major chinois a déclaré :

« Nos amis maliens peuvent être assurés que le peuple chinois se tient solidement à leurs côtés et les soutient activement dans leur combat pour la sauvegarde de l'indépendance nationale, le développement de l'économie nationale et le renforcement de leur défense nationale ainsi que dans leur opposition aux complots d'intervention et de subversion de l'impérialisme et de ses valets ».

Pour sa part le camarade Mamadou Diakité, membre du C.N.D.R. a déclaré que, quoi qu'usant de la violence et donnant l'impression d'être forts, les jours des impérialistes en Afrique et dans le monde entier sont comptés. Il a réaffirmé que sous la conduite du président Modibo Kéita, le Mali continuerait à soutenir pleinement le juste combat des peuples luttant pour leur pleine indépendance.

Le Premier ministre Chou En Lai a reçu hier la délégation nationale.

AUTOUR DE L'ASSASSINAT DU SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY

Dans une dépêche datée de Washington, le correspondant de l'agence Reuter indique que la mort de Robert Kennedy a profondément affecté les Etats de la campagne électorale aux Etats Unis à 8 semaines de la convention du Parti républicain et 11 semaines de celle du Parti Démocrate.

La grande question que tous les commentateurs politiques se posent est celle-ci : sur quel candidat vont se porter les suffrages des partisans de l'américain sénateur de New York qui trouvait une large audience auprès des jeunes et des noirs ?

D'autre part, poursuit l'agence Reuter, un porte parole des Nations Unies a démenti hier que des précautions spéciales aient été prises pour protéger les délégués arabes à l'ONU, à la suite de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy. Il a déclaré ne pas être au courant de menaces à l'encontre des diplomates arabes.

Certains journaux de New York ont écrit jeudi soir ci à nouveau hier qu'un certain nombre de diplomates arabes ont reçu des coups de téléphones les menaçant, et que la police de New York et les services de sécurité des Nations Unies avaient en conséquence augmenté le nombre de personnes chargées d'assurer leur sécurité.

L'HOMMAGE DES NEW YORKAIS A ROBERT KENNEDY

Les l'ouverture hier matin des portes de la cathédrale St-Patrick, la foule a commencé à défiler devant le cercueil du sénateur Robert Kennedy exposé sur un catafalque.

Des milliers de personnes viennent rendre un dernier hommage au candidat à la présidence, passant au rythme de 80 à la minute devant le cercueil dont le couvercle est fermé.

A chaque coin du catafalque, entouré de six grandes bougies jaunes, se tient un parent ou ami de la famille.

Cette garde d'honneur sera relayée toutes les demi-heures et des parents, amis, collaborateurs ou vedettes et célébrités du monde y prendront part.

Au cours de la première demi-heure, une des personnes participant à la vigile était Robert Kennedy junior, 14 ans, second fils du défunt qui garda la main posée sur le cercueil.

Dans la ville que Robert Kennedy avait choisie comme fief politique il y a quatre ans, tous les bureaux de l'Etat et de la ville sont fermés, ainsi que les écoles, les musées et les tribunaux.

Les drapeaux sont en berne sur presque tous les mâts existants. Le deuil officiel se poursuivra samedi et dimanche dans l'Etat de New York.

Aujourd'hui sera célébrée la messe de requiem en la cathédrale Saint-Patrick en présence d'environ 2.500 personnes conviées par la famille Kennedy.

Bien qu'il ne l'ait pas encore annoncé officiellement, il est quasiment certain que le président Johnson y assistera.

Après la messe, la dépouille mortelle sera transportée par train à Washington où elle sera inhumée au cimetière national d'Arlington en suivant un itinéraire qui fera passer le cortège devant le sénat dont il était membre et devant le Ministère de la Justice où il a occupé les fonctions d'attorney général sous la présidence de son frère.

Agée de 77 ans, la mère de Bob Robert Kennedy s'est rendue seule hier matin, à 8 heures, à la cathédrale St-Patrick de New-York, pour y prier au pied du catafalque sur lequel repose la dépouille de

3° Ministre de l'Intérieur : M. Abdoulaye Sadi ;

4° Ministre de l'Education nationale : M. Assane Seck ;

5° Ministre de la Culture, de la Jeunesse et des Sports : M. Amadou Mahtar M'Bow ;

6° Secrétaire d'Etat à la Présidence, chargé de l'Information : M. Abdoulaye Diack ;

Deux Ministres ont donc quitté le gouvernement sénégalais, MM. Mbome Badara M'Benge (ancien Ministre des Affaires étrangères) et Amadou Racine N'Diaye (ancien Ministre de la Jeunesse et des Sports).

Un nouveau venu dans l'équipe ministérielle : M. Amadou Clédor Sall, ancien gouverneur du Cap-Vert, qui se voit confier l'important portefeuille de l'Intérieur que détenait M. Cissé Dia depuis trois ans.

M. Amadou Cissé Dia, Ministre délégué à la Présidence, reste chargé de suppléer le Président de la République sénégalaise en cas d'empêchement provisoire. Il reste ainsi le deuxième personnage du Gouvernement.

Ainsi, à part les secteurs clefs des Affaires étrangères, de l'Intérieur et des Forces armées, ce remaniement ministériel n'entraîne guère que quelques permutations.

Toujours de Dakar, on apprend que le voyage que le Président Senghor devait effectuer en U.R.S.S. et en Pologne à partir du 17 juin prochain est annulé.

Les raisons de cette annulation ne sont pas précisées mais on croit savoir que le chef de l'Etat sénégalais préfère ne pas quitter le Sénégal après des récents incidents qui se sont produits la semaine dernière à Dakar.

Déclaration du Ministre Dahoméen des finances sur certains projets du Conseil de l'Entente

Les Dahoméens ne sont nullement disposés à jouer le rôle d'une vache à lait que l'on repousse lorsque son lait est tari, a déclaré M. Pascal Chabi Kao, ministre dahoméen des Finances, des Affaires économiques et du Plan, dans une interview accordée à radio-Dahomey et concernant la réunion du comité de gestion d'entraide et de garantie du Conseil de l'entente qui s'est tenue le 29 mai dernier à Lomé.

Le ministre a tenu à rassurer l'opinion dahoméenne quelque peu inquiète à la suite de certains projets qui lui semblaient ne pas tenir suffisamment compte des ressources potentielles ou virtuelles du Dahomey, l'extraction du calcaire et le pétrole notamment. M. Pascal Chabi Kao a révélé à cette occasion que la délégation dahoméenne suivie par celle du Togo notamment, avait vigoureusement protesté contre des modifications de dernière heure apportées à l'ordre du jour de cette réunion, qualifiant ces méthodes de « cavalières ». Le Dahomey, a-t-il dit, s'est formellement refusé à discuter les problèmes non inscrits. C'est pourquoi, a-t-il poursuivi, « Tous les points de l'ordre du jour relevant de l'improvisation » ont été reportés à des réunions ultérieures qui se tiendront à peu près à la même date, la fin juin à Niamey et à Ouagadougou où notamment sera discuté le problème de la création d'unité régionale de fabrication de ciment. « Je n'ai pas manqué, a dit le ministre, de manifester notre étonnement à propos d'un projet dont le Dahomey n'avait été informé alors que notre pays est potentiellement parlant l'un des plus riches en gisements calcaires ».

M. Chabi Kao a également déclaré qu'il avait été non moins étonné d'apprendre que le Togo est en pourparlers avec la Côte d'Ivoire pour la création d'une usine d'extraction de calcaire à Lomé. En effet, a-t-il rappelé, un accord précédemment conclu entre le Dahomey et le Togo a abouti à la création d'une société mixte des ciments du Dahomey. Il y a, par ailleurs, ce qui reste actuellement [illegible] qui, il a dit, est celui de savoir si des experts auront déposé leurs rapports, si l'usine en fonction de la rentabilité respective de gisements, sera installée au Dahomey ou au Togo. C'est pourquoi, a-t-il révélé, nous avons demandé la convocation pour la semaine prochaine du conseil d'administration de cette société afin de préciser à nouveau les termes du contrat liant le Dahomey et le Togo à ce sujet. Evoquant ensuite les « craintes de l'opinion dahoméenne concernant une hémoragie de pétrole dahoméen vers la Côte d'Ivoire » à la suite de la décision adoptée par le Conseil de l'entente de fournir aux raffineries d'Abidjan la matière première qui lui est nécessaire, le ministre a déclaré : « Je crains que les Dahoméens n'aillent trop vite en besogne. Les experts africains qui prospectent actuellement les côtes dahoméennes n'ont pas encore en effet défini si le pétrole dahoméen est exploitable commercialement. Il va sans dire, a-t-il ajouté, que si le sous-sol dahoméen révélait les gisements importants, nous saurions prendre nos dispositions pour créer notre propre raffinerie. Nous serions en effet dans ce cas libre d'exploiter comme nous l'entendons les 50 pour cent de la production [illegible] bénéfice nous revenant. Le Dahomey a compris la leçon [illegible] M. Pascal Chabi Kao [illegible] est prêt à prendre toutes ses responsabilités dans le domaine industriel ».

LA RHODESIE NE PARTICIPERA PAS AUX JEUX OLYMPIQUES DE MEXICO

La commission d'organisation des Jeux olympiques de Mexico a annoncé jeudi que la Rhodésie qui était invitée aux compétitions sportives d'octobre, se voit dans l'impossibilité d'y participer.

Le comité aurait été informé officiellement de la résolution adoptée le 29 mai par le Conseil de Sécurité des Nations Unies, relative à l'attitude que devront observer les états membres envers les ressortissants rhodésiens.

En vertu de cette résolution, signale le comité dans un communiqué à la presse, le comité organisateur observe en toute objectivité qu'il est flagrant que la délégation de la Rhodésie ne pourra pas participer aux Jeux.

La résolution du Conseil de Sécurité signale principalement que les Etats membres de l'O.N.U. doivent refuser l'entrée dans leur pays aux citoyens rhodésiens.

Une nouvelle bataille de Khe Sanh se prépare

Une nouvelle bataille de Khe Sanh se prépare.

Les guerilleros du FNL ont fait leur réapparition en force hier et ont attaqué une forte position américaine avec pour la première fois l'appui de canons de 130 mm.

L'artillerie a préparé l'attaque pendant la nuit, les canons ont poursuivi de jour le harcèlement de la position des marines américaines, à sept kilomètres au Sud ouest de Khe Sanh.

Un hélicoptère a été abattu et détruit pendant 15 attaques. 13 marines ont été tués et trente sept blessés.

L'attaque avait été lancée par 160 patriotes avançant derrière un barrage d'artillerie sous la protection de tirs de grenades à fusils et de tirs d'armes automatiques.

DOUBLE JEU de LONDRES en AFRIQUE

Le refus de Londres d'utiliser la force et d'étendre les sanctions aux partenaires de la Rhodésie de « l'alliance diabolique » Afrique du Sud et portugaise dévoilent avec une netteté particulière le double jeu de la diplomatie anglaise en Afrique. Le commentateur de la Pravda Mikhail Zenovitch le déclare en rapport avec l'adoption par le Conseil de Sécurité d'une nouvelle résolution sur la Rhodésie.

Les rapports économiques toujours plus solides entre l'Angleterre et l'Afrique du Sud, réalisés en dépit des résolutions de l'O.N.U. sur le boycottage commercial des racistes, sont devenus depuis longtemps une « fable du quartier ».

Dans les conditions actuelles, leur danger pour l'Afrique est tout particulièrement évident, puisque Pretoria a assumé non seulement les fonctions du soutien économique de Smith mais aussi le rôle de « son ange gardien » militaire alors que l'armée de la République sud-africaine essaie d'étouffer le mouvement des partisans africains, poursuit l'auteur. Le raffermissement de coopération économique anglo-sud africain signifie pratiquement le soutien militaire du régime contre lequel les diplomates britanniques lancent l'anathème dans leur discours officiel du haut de la tribune de l'O.N.U.

Les monopoles anglais s'efforcent de stabiliser la situation dans le Sud africain dans le sens désirable pour les racistes et d'élargir ensuite leur participation à l'économie sud africaine. Voilà pourquoi, déclare le commentateur en conclusion, l'Afrique, recourant à l'aide de l'opinion mondiale, cherche ses propres voies de la solution du problème rhodésien ayant en vue en premier lieu l'intensification de l'aide aux combattants de Zimbabwe par le canal de l'Organisation de l'Unité Africaine.

LA SITUATION SOCIALE EN FRANCE

Après vingt jours de paralysie la vie a repris hier matin un cours presque normal en France.

Les enfants ont repris le chemin des écoles qui ont rouvert et aucune difficulté de transports n'entave les déplacements des travailleurs. Symbole de ce retour à la normale, le tour de France qui n'était pas en grève mais que la caravane générale avait contraint à fermer, va rouvrir ses portes à Pheure habituelle. Elle porte encore les traces de l'incendie que les gaullistes avaient tenté d'y allumer un soir d'émeute, pour détourner l'attention ils, le temple du cyclisme.

Quelques secteurs grévistes subsistent encore dans la métallurgie et l'industrie automobile, notamment leur détermination ne permet pas d'exclure des incidents violents, comme à l'usine Renault de Flins où des bagarres ont mis aux prises hier matin encore des ouvriers et les forces de police qui les avaient expulsés des bâtiments. Mais il ne s'agit actuellement que de cas locaux qui ne semblent pas devoir se généraliser et entraver la reprise générale du travail dans le pays. Celle-ci s'effectue à un rythme différent suivant les secteurs. La complexité de l'infrastructure ferroviaire et la rigueur des règles de sécurité y rend la reprise plus lente, le même pour la navigation aérienne. Pour les postes également, la quantité de courrier accumulé et la nécessité de le trier ont ralenti la distribution. Mais partout les services municipaux fonctionnent. Les banques ont rouvert leurs guichets. Le ravitaillement s'effectue normalement.

Dans l'enseignement, si les écoliers ont repris normalement leurs classes hier matin, il n'en va pas de même dans les lycées et les collèges où seuls quelques cours ont repris. La Fédération de l'éducation nationale, qui groupe la majorité des enseignants, a en effet donné l'ordre de reprise du travail après consultation de ses adhérents, mais deux importants syndicats de l'enseignement secondaire ont décidé de poursuivre le mouvement et exigent de nouvelles négociations. Quant à l'enseignement supérieur, le syndicat national, qui a joué un rôle important dans la crise, maintient son refus de toute négociation, la grève continue donc sans perspective de solution.

La grève continue également dans la métallurgie, dans l'industrie aéronautique (ce qui retarde notamment le programme du «Concorde») et surtout dans l'industrie automobile où les usines Renault à Flins, Peugeot à Sochaux et Berliet à Lyon constituent les bastions d'irréductibles. Sans que l'on puisse minimiser l'effet que l'action de ces derniers pouvait encore avoir, surtout si les incidents devaient y dégénérer, il ne semble pas que le mouvement de reprise générale du travail en France puisse en être compromis. Déjà l'attention de l'opinion publique se porte sur les futures conséquences économiques de la crise et sur les prochaines élections législatives, dont l'interview que le chef de l'Etat français a accordé hier soir à la télévision marque en quelque sorte le coup d'envoi.

Les délégués syndicaux de l'usine Renault de Flins ont été reçus peu avant midi hier par M. Gorriec, directeur de la Régie à Flins. Ils lui ont demandé d'intervenir auprès de la direction de la Régie afin que soient reprises l'ouverture les négociations sur les revendications et que ces conversations aboutissent au plus tôt.

Ils lui ont également demandé de faire en sorte que les forces de police se retirent de l'usine.

Auparavant, les forces de l'ordre avaient repoussé les ouvriers grévistes des abords de l'usine en utilisant notamment les grenades fumigènes.

« La communauté humaine a perdu le sens des perspectives dans l'édification d'un nouveau monde »

déclare U. Thant

Le secrétaire général des Nations Unies U. Thant a dit que si la guerre du Vietnam dure encore un an, les frais de cette guerre seront l'équivalent des dépenses de l'ONU pendant 365 ans.

M. Thant constate aussi que les sommes dépensées par les puissances nucléaires pour découvrir l'énergie atomique, qu'il évalue à environ 10 milliards de dollars, représentent à peu près 170 fois les dépenses annuelles du FISE, dont le capital d'investissement est la jeunesse du monde entier.

Il en déduit qu'il y a quelque chose d'erroné dans les priorités de l'époque et que la communauté humaine a perdu le sens des perspectives dans l'édification d'un nouveau monde.

M. Thant a fait cette déclaration à l'occasion de l'ouverture de la session du conseil d'administration du fonds des Nations Unies pour l'enfance à New York.

La presse européenne rend un hommage unanime au Sénateur Robert Kennedy

La presse européenne a rendu hier un hommage unanime au sénateur Robert Kennedy, louant ses qualités d'homme d'Etat et regrettant sa fin tragique.

La presse britannique se demande en particulier quelles seront les suites politiques de cette soudaine disparition.

Le monde entier connaissait Robert Kennedy de vue et aimait son image, écrit le «Times». Sa mort a creusé un fossé immense. L'Amérique survivra certainement à la mort de Robert Kennedy, comme elle a survécu à celle de son frère. Mais la principale question pour 1968 n'est plus de savoir qui sera le prochain Président, mais de savoir par quels moyens l'Amérique s'emploiera à survivre, conclut le «Times».

Pour sa part, le «Daily Télégraph» estime qu'il faut bien faire comprendre à l'électorat américain que les idéaux et les ambitions qui ont poussé les frères Kennedy ne sont pas morts avec eux ? Sinon des temps bien pires risquent de survenir.

Les quotidiens italiens consacrent à Robert Kennedy des pages entières, illustrées de nombreuses photographies du sénateur et de sa famille.

Sous le titre «Une tragédie de notre temps», il Popolo écrit notamment : «L'émotion et la pitié ne suffisent certainement pas à effacer ce nouveau fait néfaste pour l'Amérique. Le peuple américain pourra-t-il trouver en lui-même le courage de surmonter cette tragédie qui est survenue avant l'élection présidentielle et qui nous concerne tous.

Quelles orientations va prendre l'Amérique ? Faut-il une espoir ?» Il y a quelques jours des titres des éditoriaux de la presse Allemande.

La mort d'un homme politique aussi représentatif implique des conséquences politiques. Ce meurtre modifie la scène américaine, estime la «Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung», qui ajoute par ailleurs : tant que sera incertaine l'image que nous offrira prochainement la politique intérieure américaine, les négociations de Paris sur le Vietnam vont piétiner, tandis que les combats continueront de plus belle sur place. De toutes les répercussions politiques de ce terrible drame, c'est la plus dramatique.

Enfin, le quotidien égyptien «Al Ahram» affirme dans un éditorial que «le véritable meurtrier du sénateur est la violence qui caractérise la vie américaine, et le Parti pris des Etats Unis contre la cause du peuple arabe, qui ne demande que son droit à l'existence. Le racisme aussi, enfin contre les arabes se manifeste en expression psychologique qui se fait sentir contre les immigrants arabes aux Etats Unis ajoute le journal.

La violence est devenue aux Etats Unis un phénomène quotidien dit-il de son côté, la «Gazette de Lausanne».

Un nouveau crime a été commis. Le nouveau tue non omnalité politique en versant dans une mare de sang. Et le journal d'enchaîner : «L'assassinat de Los Angeles est le reflet de la réalité sociale et politique l'aspect de l'infirmité de la société américaine.

Le gouvernement est impuissant à établir le calme à l'intérieur du pays et la violence s'est nuée en système politique.

Pour sa part l'observateur de la «Tribune de Lausanne» déclare que la société américaine porte des stigmates suppurants, guerre du Vietnam, pauvreté, racisme.

Robert Kennedy : Son attachement au progrès

(Par George Adams)

Le sénateur Robert Francis Kennedy était attaché à la liberté, à la justice, à l'égalité, à la dignité et au progrès pour tous les hommes.

Et tout au long des efforts qu'il déploya dans le but d'atteindre ces objectifs, pour renverser les barrières érigées par la société, il était plus particulièrement frappé par le courage moral et l'attachement aux principes.

Dans un discours qu'il avait prononcé le 6 juin 1966 devant une grande foule massée à l'Université du Cap, en Afrique du Sud, le sénateur Kennedy avait exprimé avec éloquence ses convictions.

«Les caractéristiques essentielles de la nature humaine, avait-il déclaré, ne peuvent être protégées et préservées que là où le gouvernement favorise non seulement les riches, les personnes appartenant à une religion ou à une race particulières, mais l'ensemble du peuple».

A la base des principes de liberté et de démocratie du monde occidental, avait-il affirmé, «est ancrée la conviction que l'homme, cet enfant de Dieu, est la pierre de touche du mérite. La société, les gouvernants, l'Etat existent tous pour promouvoir son bien-être».

Le courage moral, avait-il dit, est une des qualités essentielles de ceux qui cherchent à changer un monde qui n'accepte que très difficilement les changements».

«Le courage moral, avait-il précisé à l'intention de son auditoire sud-africain, est une qualité plus rare que l'héroïsme sur le champ de bataille ou que l'intelligence...

«Je suis convaincu que ceux de cette génération, qui auront le courage de s'engager dans ce conflit d'ordre moral se découvriront des partisans aux quatre coins du monde».

Deux ans plus tard — le 6 juin 1968 — le sénateur Robert F. Kennedy expirait dans un hôpital de Los Angeles, victime d'un assassin. Il était âgé de 42 ans. Sa dernière déclaration prononcée devant la foule délirante de ceux qui approuvaient sa candidature à la présidence avait trait au changement pacifique, à sa détermination de mettre fin aux divisions qui existent dans le monde et au sein de la société américaine.

Au cours de son existence brève mais bien remplie, le sénateur Kennedy avait visité de nombreux pays. Il s'était rendu pour la première fois en Afrique au mois d'août 1961, pour représenter son frère, le Président John F. Kennedy, aux cérémonies marquant l'accession de la Côte-d'Ivoire à l'indépendance. Son deuxième voyage, en juin 1966, le conduisit en Afrique du Sud, en Tanzanie, au Kenya et en Ethiopie.

Le 27 juillet dernier, au cours d'une interview accordée à Washington, le sénateur Kennedy avait fait part de l'intérêt vital qu'il portait au développement de l'Afrique.

«Nous sommes profondément impressionnés», avait-il déclaré, «par certains des leaders ayant paru sur la scène politique africaine, par l'attachement de ces dirigeants et de leurs populations à la promotion du développement de leurs pays respectifs et du bien-être de leurs concitoyens, par leurs efforts dans le domaine de l'éducation et par ceux qu'ils déploient pour développer leurs pays respectifs sur les plans industriel et agricole».

Bien que les nations africaines, tout comme les autres pays ayant récemment accédé à l'indépendance, doivent faire face à des problèmes, «j'estime que nous devrions tous être vivement impressionnés par les progrès qui ont été accomplis au cours de la dernière décennie», avait fait observer le sénateur Kennedy.

La question suivante avait alors été posée au sénateur :

«Sénateur Kennedy, de nombreux observateurs ont remarqué le sentiment de profonde sympathie qu'avait fait naître votre frère, le regretté Président Kennedy, dans le cœur des Africains. Estimez-vous qu'ils vous portent un sentiment semblable, avez-vous l'impression qu'il existe entre vous et la population africaine un sentiment d'amitié cordiale ?»

Le sénateur Kennedy avait répondu :

«Le Président Kennedy portait un vif intérêt à l'Afrique. Je m'y intéresse moi-même profondément, tout comme mon plus jeune frère, le sénateur Edward Kennedy».

Une autre question avait trait à la parallèle entre le développement des Etats-Unis au cours des premières années de leur histoire et les difficultés et obstacles auxquels les nations africaines ont à faire face à l'heure actuelle.

Il existe de nombreuses similitudes, avait-il expliqué, entre l'essor de l'Afrique et celui que connurent les Etats-Unis, mais il existe aussi plusieurs importantes différences. Par exemple, avait-il souligné, «nous avons été en mesure de nous développer dans un climat relativement calme pendant près de cinq cinquante ans. De leur côté, les nations africaines ont été projetées brusquement sur la scène internationale et elles doivent prendre des décisions qui ne concernent pas seulement leurs populations respectives, mais leurs voisins et les pays du monde entier».

«Par conséquent, avait-il conclu, je considère comme remarquables les progrès accomplis par les pays africains au cours des années qui ont suivi leur accession à l'indépendance».

« La Révolution française a perdu le sens du progrès »

Déclare le Président Tsiranana

Le président de la République malgache, M. Philibert Tsiranana a déclaré : «L'émotion et la pitié ne suffisent certainement pas à effacer ce nouveau fait néfaste pour l'Amérique. Le peuple américain pourra-t-il trouver en lui-même le courage de surmonter cette tragédie qui est survenue avant l'élection présidentielle et qui nous concerne tous.

Déflagrations de bombes au plastic dans le Sud des Etats-Unis

Des déflagrations de bombes au plastic ont fait dans le Sud des Etats Unis, écho aux coups de feu de Los Angeles.

La maison de Lilly Bird, 57 ans, veuve de l'ancien leader de l'association nationale de contribution au progrès de la population de couleur qui réside à Florence Etat de Mississipi a été dynamitée jeudi à l'aube.

Le frère de Lilly Bird a été blessé par la déflagration. On signale dans la ville depuis 1967 plusieurs attentats contre la vie ou les biens de combattants pour les droits civiques des noirs.

DES MENACES DE MORT DIRIGEES CONTRE SIRHAN-SIRHAN

A Los Angeles une dizaine de menaces de mort dirigées contre Sirhan Sirhan, l'assassin présumé de M. Robert Kennedy, sont parvenues à la police depuis la mort du sénateur de New York, a déclaré aux journalistes à Los Angeles le Chef Peter Pitchess.

Celui-ci a précisé que ces menaces avaient été enregistrées à différents postes de police sous forme de coups de téléphone ou de lettres dont la plupart des auteurs annonçaient leur intention de mettre fin aux jours de Sirhan Sirhan lors de l'acheminement de ce dernier de la prison au tribunal où il doit comparaître.

L'un des auteurs de ces communications a même laissé entrevoir un attentat à la bombe destiné à faire sauter la prison tout entière. En attendant, Sirhan Sirhan fait l'objet de mesures de surveillance particulièrement strictes à l'infirmerie de la prison centrale pour hommes de Los Angeles.

M. Peter Pitchess a précisé que le détenu se trouvait dans une cellule située dans une aile isolée à l'extrémité d'un couloir isolé lui aussi au second étage de la prison.

Une surveillance sans relâche est exercée 24 heures sur 24 heures par des gardes en uniforme dont l'un se trouve dans la cellule même du détenu, laquelle 3.7 mètres de large et 3.7 mètres de long.

Un garde exerce sa surveillance à travers un voyant pratique dans la lourde porte en acier de la cellule, tandis que les quatre autres arpentent inlassablement le couloir.

AUTOUR DE L'ASSASSINAT DU SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY

L'ASSASSINAT DU SENATEUR KENNEDY EST ENGENDRE PAR L'ATMOSPHERE DE CRIMINALITE DECLARE LE LE PRESIDENT JOHNSON

L'assassinat à Los Angeles du sénateur Robert Kennedy est engendré par l'atmosphère de la criminalité qui règne aux Etats Unis. Annuellement 6.500 personnes tombent victimes des crimes, commis au moyen des armes à feu, déclare le Président Johnson dans une lettre, adressée après l'assassinat du sénateur Kennedy aux Présidents de la chambre des représentants et du sénat du congrès américain. Le Président estime que le libre commerce des armes à feu est une des raisons des crimes nombreux, et il précise que l'année dernière seulement 2 millions de fusils et de pistolets ont été vendus aux Etats Unis.

Le Président demande au congrès d'adopter une loi prévoyant le contrôle de la vente des armes.

La presse américaine signale que jusqu'ici les sénateurs et les membres de la chambre des représentants avaient refusé d'adopter cette loi sous la pression des corporations, des fabricants des armes dont les profits s'élèvent à des milliards de dollars.

LA VENTE DES ARMES AUX ETATS UNIS

Les telespectateurs américains ont pu suivre jeudi soir sur leur petit écran, au moment où l'on attendait l'arrivée à New York de l'avion ramenant le corps du sénateur Robert Kennedy une séquence au cours de laquelle des passants entraient dans des boutiques New-yorkaises spécialisées dans la vente de surplus militaires pour en ressortir chargés de fusils, de revolvers, de bazookas, de lance-flammes, de grenades et des mortiers.

Il ne s'agissait pas d'un film mais d'un reportage effectué par des journalistes du réseau C.B.S. (Columbia Broadcasting System) ce, vue de démontrer la facilité avec laquelle on peut se procurer des armes aux Etats Unis, sans permis et sans présentation de pièces d'identité.

Un armurier curieux ayant demandé aux reporters ce qu'ils comptaient faire de cet arsenal, « Mais voyons, c'est pour en faire des cadeaux de noël », lui fut-il répondu. Le vendeur légèrement surpris n'avait pas insisté.

SIRHAN ENCOURT LA PEINE DE MORT DANS LA CHAMBRE A GAZ

Sirhan Bechara Sirhan, le meurtrier du sénateur Robert Kennedy encourt d'après les lois de l'Etat de Californie, la peine de mort dans la chambre à gaz de la prison de San Quentin. Il devait comparaître hier à huis clos devant le grand jury du comté qui formulera les chefs d'accusation retenus contre lui. Sirhan Sirhan sera probablement à la fois accusé de meurtre sur la personne du sénateur Kennedy, et d'agression, avec intention de donner la mort, sur les 5 autres victimes de l'attentat de l'Hôtel ambassador.

En conséquence, et selon la loi californienne, il ne pourra plus bénéficier de la mise en liberté provisoire, même s'il réussissait à réunir les 250.000 dollars fixés pour le caution. Le procès, indique-t-on au bureau du district Attorney, se déroulera sans doute d'ici un ou deux mois.

Des précautions exceptionnelles ont été prises à la prison du comté afin que ce qui s'était produit à Dallas le meurtre de Lee Harvey Oswald ne se reproduise pas.

Jusqu'à présent, Sirhan Sirhan n'a vu que les enquêteurs.

Selon M. San York, maire de Los Angeles, Sirhan aurait agi en croyant servir la cause arabe. Le maire a révélé qu'un journal personnel avait été trouvé sur l'assassin, dans lequel il était écrit que le sénateur devait être assassiné avant le 5 juin 1968, premier anniversaire de la guerre de 6 jours. Ce cahier, selon M. Yorty, contenait de nombreuses pages de propagande anti-israélienne et de nombreuses annotations favorables au Président Nasser et au communisme.

Alors que certains avancent que Sirhan a pu commettre son crime en raison des déclarations pro-israéliennes de M. Robert Kennedy, les observateurs notent que le sénateur de New York ne figurait pas parmi les personnes les plus engagées vis-a-vis de l'Etat d'Israël.

Robert Kennedy, relativement peu appreçié des grands milieux juifs de New York, était par contre populaire chez les noirs, souvent plus favorables aux arabes qu'aux israéliens, et l'on s'explique mal pourquoi le sénateur aurait été victime d'un anti-israélien alors qu'il ne manquait pas d'ennemis en raison de ses positions libérales dans le domaine des droits raciaux.

CONDOLEANCES DE MME MARY SIRHAN

« Nous prions dieu de faire la paix, la vraie paix, dans le cœur des gens », déclare Madame Mary Sirhan, mère du meurtrier du sénateur Robert Kennedy, dans un télégramme de condoléances qu'elle a envoyé jeudi à la famille Kennedy.

« Ce qui est arrivé nous blesse profondément, dit encore Madame Sirhan, et nous tenons à le dire spécialement aux enfants, à Madame Kennedy et aux parents du sénateur. Je veux qu'ils sachent que je pleure pour tous. »

LE « NANDA » ET LA LIBERTE D'ASSASSINER AUX USA

« L'assassinat de Robert Kennedy démontre que le régime politique des USA est pourri, a titré hier le « Nandan ». Il n'y a pas de doute que c'est l'assassinat politique.

« Le meurtre de Robert Kennedy met à nu l'horrible société capitaliste pourrie aux USA, qualifiée par le Président Johnson de « grande société. » Le fameux monde libre des USA symbolise la liberté de tuer, d'exploiter, de commettre des crimes contre le peuple américain et d'agresser les autres pays. »

Par ailleurs, les crimes monnaie courante de la vie américaine. Les assassinats de Martin Luther King et de Robert Kennedy sont des phénomènes inhérents à la société américaine, lit-on dans une lettre ouverte adressée au « New-York-Times » par Charles Haines qui réside à Mount Kisco Etat de New-York. Ces crimes sont issus de la propagande et de la haine, de l'animosité et de la violence exaltées tous les jours par la télévision, la radio et la presse américaines.

Le journal officieux jordanien « Al Destour » a écrit hier matin : pourquoi le sénateur Kennedy a-t-il été tué, alors que tous les autres candidats à la présidence avaient donné leur appui à Israël aux dépens des arabes.

« Al Destour » ajoute : quel bénéfice la cause arabe pourrait-elle tirer de la disparition du sénateur Kennedy, alors que son assassin est un jeune homme d'origine arabe ? Le sénateur Kennedy, poursuit le journal le plus modéré des concurrents à la Maison Blanche. Les observateurs arabes étaient persuadés qu'il comprendrait mieux la cause arabe, lorsqu'il arriverait à la présidence. Il faut attendre de plus amples informations pour démasquer les aspects secrets de cet assassinat et connaître les mobiles qui ont incité le nommé Sirhan à tuer le sénateur.

L'HOMMAGE DES NEW YORKAIS A ROBERT KENNEDY

son fils. Vêtue d'une robe noire et portant une mantille, elle a gagné le chœur et pris place près d'un groupe de religieuses agenouillées. Le regard fixe, elle ne semblait pas voir l'immense foule de New-Yorkais défilant dans la cathédrale.

Au début de la matinée, la file d'attente à l'extérieur de la cathédrale s'étendait sur une distance de 18 pâtés de maisons, soit plus d'un kilomètre. Malgre la chaleur accablante, tous les gens sont habillés de sombre, les hommes sont en vestons et les femmes en robes à manches longues. Il y a peu d'enfants mais de nombreux adolescents. Autour du Rockfeller center, en face de la cathédrale, stationnent de nombreux autobus de louage qui ont amené des banlieusards venus rendre un dernier hommage au sénateur.

A RABAT, LE PARTI DE L'ESTIQLAL RECLAME LA FIN DE L'ETAT D'EXCEPTION

Rabat, le Parti de l'Istiqlal réclame à nouveau la fin de l'état d'exception décrété il y a trois ans au Maroc et que de nouvelles élections puissent se dérouler dans le pays.

Dans un communiqué publié hier ce Parti déclare notamment : « Il n'est pas normal qu'une situation pareille se prolonge et que le pays vive éternellement dans l'etat d'exception.

Cependant, si le but visé par l'état d'exception est de se débarrasser d'une assemblée qui ne jouit pas d'une majorité compétente où qui est susceptible d'entraver la marche de la législation son mandat est venu à son terme et la nécessité d'élire un nouveau Parlement représentant véritablement la nation s'impose.

Pour cela, conclut-il, le Parti de l'Istiqlal estime que l'état d'exception ne doit plus durer, demande l'abrogation de cet état et que des élections saines aient lieu.

L'APS COMMENTE LA CAMPAGNE ANTI ALGERIENNE DE LA PRESSE TUNISIENNE

Dans un commentaire sur une récente campagne anti-algérienne de la presse tunisienne, l'agence « Algérie Presse-Service » a affirmé jeudi soir que cette campagne ainsi que la présence en Tunisie du colonel rebelle Tahar Zbiri constituaient une action reflèchie dont les Etats-Unis pourraient être responsables.

Ce commentaire met fin au silence observé durant 48 heures du côté algérien à la suite de l'annonce à Tunis, mardi dernier, que l'ancien chef d'Etat major Tahar Zbiri, accusé d'avoir dirigé la tentative de coup de force de décembre dernier, s'était vu accorder le droit d'asile en Tunisie.

Evoquant les critiques formulées au début de cette semaine par les journaux tunisiens à l'encontre de la presse algérienne, à laquelle il était reproché de traiter d'une manière déplorable les informations concernant la Tunisie, l'agence A.P.S. parle de l'atteinte subite aux bons rapports entre les deux pays.

TCHECOSLOVAQUIE : L'AFFAIRE DE L'EX-GENERAL SEJNA

Deux officiers de la sécurité d'Etat ont exposé à la télévision tchécoslovaque les conclusions de l'enquête officielle sur l'affaire de l'ex-général Sejna ancien chef de l'organisation du Parti Communiste au ministère de la Défense qui s'est enfui le 25 février dernier pour se refugier aux Etats Unis et dont l'extradition a été réclamée par le gouvernement tchécoslovaque.

On ignore ce que Sejna a emporté dans sa serviette, a dit l'un des officiers, mais on sait qu'il a bonne mémoire, qu'il avait en d'excellents contacts et qu'il jouissait de la plus haute confiance ; c'est-a-dire celle de l'ex-Président Novotny, qui le considérait comme un informateur très précieux.

D'après les conclusions de l'enquête, la fuite de l'ex-général Sejna ne revêt aucun caractère politique et ne s'explique que par la découverte imminente des vols et les malversations dont il se serait rendu coupable, durant de longues années avec la complicité de son ami et secrétaire, le colonel Moravec.

EMPRUNT ACCORDE A LA GRANDE BRETAGNE PAR LE FONDS MONETAIRE INTERNATIONAL

Le gouvernement britannique a l'intention de recevoir sans tarder toute la somme de l'emprunt accordé à la Grande Bretagne par le fonds monétaire international s'évaluant à 1.400 millions de dollars, soit 583 millions de livres sterling. On se rappelle que le fonds monétaire international avait consenti cet emprunt en novembre dernier pendant la dévalution de la livre sterling. Il l'avait conservé jusqu'à présent au cas où la situation financière s'aggraverait.

Cet emprunt servira à payer, nous dit-on, les dettes a brève échéance aux banques centrales de certains pays. En se servant d'un nouvel emprunt pour payer les autres emprunts l'Angleterre ne fait que différer le dénouement, cet emprunt étant pour un délai de trois ans.

Le gouvernement britannique espère que d'ici là, la situation économique du pays s'améliorera. Néanmoins les observateurs financiers sont fort pessimistes et ils prédisent une nouvelle flambée de crise monétaire, résultat des maladies économiques de l'Angleterre elle-même et des malaises de l'ensemble du système monétaire international.

Le rôle de la jeunesse dans la bataille de l'agriculture à Cuba

Dans son dernier numéro l'hebdomadaire cubain « Granma » traite du problème de l'agriculture à Cuba. Affirmant que la bataille de l'agriculture se gagne à Camaguey, le journal écrit : « La jeunesse cubaine a toujours accompli son devoir historique. Pendant ce siècle de lutte contre la domination coloniale espagnole d'abord, et contre l'impérialisme ensuite, les jeunes se sont toujours placés à l'avant-garde du combat contre l'oppression.

Cuba s'est proposé de réaliser le bond du sous-développement à la conquête de la science et de la technique sur la base d'un choc gigantesque dans l'agriculture. Les tâches de l'agriculture sont devenues la mission historique de la génération actuelle. En s'incorporant aux travaux agricoles dans le cadre de l'école à la campagne et des colonnes agricoles de la jeunesse, la jeunesse cubaine a répondu du présent au devoir d'aujourd'hui.

Depuis un an et demi, des jeunes de tous les secteurs ont répondu à l'appel de l'Union de la Jeunesse Communiste et se sont engagés dans les colones agricoles de la jeunesse. Ce mouvement qui a pris de plus en plus d'ampleur constitue un exemple de la fermeté dans les colonnes agricoles de l'honneur révolutionnaire qui animent ceux qui sont venus grossir ses rangs.

Le fait que 40.000 jeunes se soient incorporés à ce mouvement prouve une fois de plus que les hommes sont capables de produire et de créer des richesses mus par leurs convictions révolutionnaires et la conscience d'accomplir un devoir social.

Conformément aux dispositions du gouvernement révolutionnaire, ces jeunes percevront un salaire en fonction de leurs besoins et de ceux de leur famille.

Il y a quinze ans, le 26 juillet 1953, en attaquant la caserne Moncada, la jeunesse cubaine dirigée par Fidel commençait la lutte pour la libération contre la tyrannie de Batista. Ces événements ont marqué une étape importante de l'histoire de Cuba.

En ce quinzième anniversaire de l'attaque de la caserne Moncada, une nouvelle génération du centenaire entreprend une nouvelle et gigantesque tâche héroïque.

Sur les étendards victorieux, poursuit le journal, des précédentes générations de combattants, nous avons écrit une consigne qui exprime l'hommage militant que nous rendons aux héros et aux martyrs qui ont rendu possible la première défate de l'impérialisme yankee en Amérique. 50.000 jeunes pour trois ans à Camaguey.

En cette heure de création et de travail, ceux qui, modestement et avec un héroïsme quotidien, ne refusent pas aujourd'hui leur sueur, sont les mêmes qui demain ne refuseront pas leur sang pour défendre la patrie, conclu le journal.

LA REPUBLIQUE POPULAIRE DE CHINE ASSURE LE MALI DE SON SOUTIEN ACTIF DANS SON COMBAT POUR LA SAUVEGARDE DE SON INDEPENDANCE

L'agence « Chine Nouvelle » annonce que le chef d'Etat major de l'armée populaire chinoise Huang Yung Sheng a assuré le Mali du soutien actif de la République Populaire de Chine dans son combat pour la sauvegarde de son independance.

Prenant la parole à un diner d'adieu offert à Pekin par la délegation militaire malienne, conduite par le camarade Manadou Diakité, membre du C.N.D.R., ministre délégué à la Défense et à la Securité, le chef d'Etat major chinois a déclaré :

Nos amis maliens peuvent être assurés que le peuple chinois se tient solidement à leurs côtés et les soutient activement dans leur combat pour la sauvegarde de l'indépendance nationale, le développement de l'economie nationale et le renforcement de leur défense nationale ainsi que dans leur opposition aux complots d'intervention et de subversion de l'impérialisme et de ses valets ».

Pour sa part le camarade Manadou Diakité, membre du C.N.D.R. a déclaré que, quoi qu'usant de la violence et donnant l'impression d'être forts, les jours des impérialistes en Afrique et dans le monde entier sont comptés. Il a réaffirmé que sous la conduite du président Modibo Kéita, le Mali continuerait à soutenir pleinement le juste combat des peuples luttant pour leur pleine indépendance.

Le Premier ministre Chou En Laï a reçu hier la délégation nationale.

LES MILITANTS DE OUELESSEBOUGOU DOTENT LEUR CENTRE D'UNE MATERNITE

La cerémonie d'inauguration de la nouvelle maternité de la sous-section de Ouélessébougou a eu lieu le 2 juin en présence d'une délégation de la Commission sociale des femmes de Bamako, des responsables politiques et administratifs de l'arrondissement et des représentants du Ministère de la Santé publique et des Affaires sociales.

C'est grâce aux souscriptions volontaires des femmes de la sous-section de Ouélessébougou, N'Tintoubougou et à la contribution volontaire des militantes des soixante huit villages de l'arrondissement que cette maternité a vu le jour. C'est un bâtiment de 12 m de long avec une salle d'accouchement, deux salles de 4 à 6 lits et une pièce de garde pour infirmière. Le coût s'élève à 1.542.880 frs.

Fruit de l'effort commun, cette maternité est la contribution de la sous-section de Ouélessébougou à la grande marche en avant de notre pays vers le bonheur et la prospérité.

Nous avons envoyé notre reporter à Ouélessebougou pour s'entretenir avec le secrétaire général de cette sous-section. Nous pu-

ASSEMBLEE GENERALE DE LA CROIX ROUGE MALIENNE

Affaires sociales, président exécutif de la Croi-Rouge malienne, a ouvert les travaux de cette première assemblée générale en prononçant l'allocution que voici :

« Le Comité central est hautement honoré par la présence à la séance inaugurale de notre première assemblée générale, du camarade Modibo Kéita, secrétaire général de notre grand Parti l'Union Soudanaise-R.D.A., guide incontesté de notre révolution, président d'honneur de la Croix-Rouge malienne. Mieux, n'est-il pas en fait un des plus actifs membres de notre jeune société nationale de la Croix-Rouge, par le soutien matériel, les interventions à l'occasion des conférences régionales pour l'épanouissement de cet organisme.

« Cette présence confère donc à nos assises un éclat particulier qui servira de stimulant, une conviction, une récompense morale à ceux qui, depuis bientôt trois ans, nous ont apporté leur concours combien précieux pour matérialiser notre action dans son efficience réelle.

« En adhérant aux Conventions de Genève du 12 août 1949, le Mali a voulu s'associer à tous les pays qui se sont engagés à encourager et à favoriser la naissance et la coopération d'organisations volontaires nationales, dûment autorisées par les gouvernements et qui ont pour objet l'amélioration des conditions de vie par l'adoucissement de la souffrance et de la misère dans le monde.

« Les Conventions de Genève sont des traités fondamentaux qui procèdent du respect de la personne humaine et de sa dignité ; elles consacrent le principe de l'aide désintéressée sans charité humiliante, et donnée sans discrimination à la victime, au combattant blessé ou prisonnier, désormais sans défense qui n'est plus un ennemi, mais seulement un être humain qui souffre.

« Les Conventions de Genève ont encore cette autre signification qui mérite d'être signalée. Sous le signe de la Croix-Rouge, la Loi d'amour du prochain est devenue plus qu'un commandement, mais une obligation d'aider son prochain se trouvant dans le besoin, dans les difficultés dont il n'est que comme victime.

« Nul n'a le droit de rester insensible à la souffrance des autres.

« La coopération volontaire au sein de la Croix-Rouge est l'occasion pour ceux qui en font partie, de découvrir la valeur de ce qui est entrepris en commun, afin de prévenir ou de combattre la détresse humaine, et de se rendre compte combien la bonne volonté individuelle peut contribuer au bien-être de toute la collectivité vouée à demeurer dans la même barque.

« N'est-ce pas là le vrai esprit qui anime la Société africaine ? N'est-ce pas surtout l'objectif suprême de notre Parti dans l'édification d'une société juste ?

« Partout, les populations ont réservé un accueil enthousiaste à nos délégués. Actuellement, la phase de l'organisation est très avancée si elle n'est pas encore achevée, et nous avons déjà au niveau de toutes les régions installé des comités dont certains se révèlent dynamiques, s'étant chargé de créer des comités locaux dans tous les cercles et arrondissements.

« Mais il n'est pas superflu de rappeler que la cause de la Croix-Rouge, c'est la cause de tout être humain, puisqu'aucune détresse de l'humanité ne lui est étrangère. Que de services sont ou seront rendus par ses volontaires dans l'anonymat. Leurs efforts ont pour but la préservation des maladies, l'amélioration de la santé, le soulagement de la souffrance les secours d'urgence aux victimes des calamités publiques et des sinistres naturels.

« Le mot « donner » dont s'inspire la Croix-Rouge est associé étroitement à son travail. Il signifie que chacun de ceux qui jouissent de conditions de vie meilleure se doit un geste à la cause des moins favorisés, en faveur desquels une action humanitaire est indispensable.

« C'est pourquoi nous avons dit en son temps que la Croix-Rouge nous concerne tous, directement, que nous soyons malades ou bien portants, affamés ou bien nourris, âgés ou jeunes. Ce mouvement qui s'étend au monde entier, unit les efforts de plusieurs centaines de millions d'hommes, de femmes, de jeunes, qui payent de leur personne pour chercher à extirper les causes mêmes de souffrance que nul ne peut ignorer à notre époque de communications par des engins supersoniques.

« Actuellement, cent onze Etats ont leurs sociétés de Croix-Rouge, membres de la ligue et cent vingt-cinq Etats ont adhéré aux Conventions de Genève, illustrant le fait que, malgré les différences de conceptions politiques, économiques, sociales, religieuses, culturelles, le monde entier est uni dans cet idéal d'humanité, dans ce respect de la vie et de la personne humaine et dans cette volonté de combattre toutes les souffrances.

« La Croix-Rouge malienne reste au service des pouvoirs publics et participe et participera à toutes les actions qui requièrent son concours si minime soit-il. Le fait c'est sa ferme volonté d'intervenir en faisant appel aux bonnes volontés.

UN PEU MOINS DE GUERRE ET BEAUCOUP PLUS DE COMPREHENSION ENTRE LES PEUPLES

« Sur le plan international, elle exige le respect du droit des peuples à disposer d'eux-mêmes, à s'organiser pour un mieux-être national et dans ce cadre, elle délrit la violence, la domination étrangère, l'esprit expansionniste.

« Cependant, l'évidence demeure que ce monde a de lendemains chargés d'incertitudes, aussi il nous paraît utile de réitérer au nom du peuple malien l'appel à tous les peuples pour que la raison triomphe sur l'instinct, qu'il soit mis fin aux destructions insensées qui endeuillent inutilement l'humanité, que les sommes employées pour ses massacres soient utilisées plutôt à renforcer les infrastructures économiques, sociales et culturelles, afin que l'homme vive sa vie dans la paix et le bonheur.

« C'est sur cette note d'espoir M. le président, honorables invités et chers camarades que je voudrais terminer en criant :

« VIVE la Croix-Rouge malienne !

« VIVE la Croix-Rouge internationale pour que vive la paix dans le monde ».

Après cette allocution fort ovationnée, le président exécutif devait présenter à l'assistance, les membres du Comité central élus en 1965.

Ensuite le camarade Amadou Traoré, secrétaire général de la Croix-Rouge malienne a présenté le rapport d'activités de l'organisation. Ce rapport contenait les grands traits de l'action médico-sociale, et le soutien matériel apporté à la Croix-Rouge malienne par toutes les couches sociales du Mali, ainsi que par des pays amis.

Pour terminer, le camarade Amadou Traoré a dégagé les grandes perspectives de la Croix-Rouge malienne.

Après suspension de séance, l'assemblée a repris ses travaux par la lecture du rapport financier présenté par le trésorier général, le capitaine Sékou Doumbia.

La discussion des rapports du Comité central a eu lieu à 16 h.

Indiquons que les travaux de l'assemblée se sont poursuivis le dimanche 9 juin 1968.

Dans nos prochaines éditions, nous reviendrons sur cette importante session.

blions ci-dessous les questions posées par notre envoyé spécial et les réponses du camarade secrétaire général de la sous-section de Ouélessebougou, nous réservant de revenir dans notre prochaine édition hebdomadaire sur cette réalisation grandiose qui a valeur d'exemple pour toutes les sections du Parti.

QUESTIONS : Camarade Idrissa Diakité votre sous-section vient de réaliser une œuvre sociale d'une très grande importance. Pouvez-vous nous dire comment l'idée de construire une maternité vous est venue ?

REPONSE : L'idée de construire une maternité nous est venue en 1963. En effet, il a été porté à la connaissance du Bureau politique de la sous-section des pertes douloureuses de jeunes mamans à la suite d'accouchements.

Nous avons d'abord obtenu des Services de la Santé, le bénéfice de la formation de quatre matrones à la maternité de Bamako. Au niveau du village de Ouélessebougou même, nous sommes parvenus dès la fin du stage des matrones, à éliminer les accouchements selon la méthode traditionnelle.

Les matrones ont donc procédé aux accouchements à domicile, soit au total 550 à la date de l'inauguration de la maternité. Leurs nombreux déplacements pour assurer le travail (accouchements et soins aux bébés) ont accru le souci de la population à vite construire une maternité.

QUESTION : Cette maternité intéressant au premier chef nos sœurs militantes, quelle a été leur contribution dans la réalisation de cette belle entreprise ?

REPONSE : La contribution des femmes de l'arrondissement à cette œuvre est digne d'éloge : 11,085 tonnes de beurre de karité ; 211.955 francs de souscriptions en espèces. Cela fit une valeur totale de 821.630 francs, soit environ 55 % de la valeur globale du bâtiment.

QUESTION : Quelle influence cette formation sanitaire aura-t-elle sur les populations de l'arrondissement de Ouélessébougou ?

REPONSES : Cette formation sanitaire aura certainement une influence heureuse sur les populations. En effet sauf pour des cas d'exception, on ne paiera plus pour aller à Bamako. De plus, plusieurs paysannes seront certainement attirées par les résultats, ce qui aura pour effet de les gagner à la cause de la médecine moderne.

QUESTION : Dans le domaine social avez-vous d'autres projets en vue ? Quels sont-ils ?

REPONSE : Bien sûr nous avons d'autres projets en vue. Il nous faut créer un centre social, pour l'éducation de nos jeunes paysannes ; il nous faut également une P.M.I. à l'avenir, pour la continuité des soins.

Dans le domaine scolaire, toutes les écoles de l'arrondissement ont atteint le cycle prévu (1 cycle complet, 3 écoles du premier cycle).

Cependant dès que sera possible, nous créerons des écoles dans des centres dont le programme est à présent tracé.

Sur le plan politique, dès que nous aurons achevé notre Permanence du Parti (les travaux sont déjà très avancés) nous devons construire un centre culturel pour les jeunes.

Evidemment tout cela exige beaucoup de courage, mais je puis affirmer que nos militants ne manquent point de volonté.

LE SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY EST MORT LE JEUDI 6 JUIN

«...Ces actes de violences ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national...»

— a déclaré M. Schlesinger, conseiller des frères John et Robert Kennedy —

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy est décédé le 6 juin à 1 h 44 du matin, heure de Californie, soit 8 h. 44 G. M.T., à l'hôpital du Bon Samaritain de Los Angeles des suites de ses blessures.

De nombreux membres de sa famille se trouvaient à son chevet : sa femme Ethel, sa sœur Madame Peter Lawford, son autre sœur Madame Stephen Smith et son mari ainsi que Madame Jacqueline Kennedy, veuve du Président John Kennedy.

Devant l'hôpital, la foule qui observait une vigile de prières a éclaté en sanglots en apprenant le décès mais on n'a observé aucune scène d'hystérie comme celles qui se sont produites à l'hôtel Ambassador au moment du drame.

M. Mankiewick, après avoir précisé que le sénateur de New York avait reçu les derniers sacrements peu après l'attentat et qu'un prêtre se trouvait à ses côtés lorsqu'il a rendu l'âme, a déclaré que le sénateur n'avait jamais repris connaissance depuis le moment où il a été atteint par la balle qui a pénétré dans le crâne.

On se rappelle qu'à Los Angeles un attentat a été commis mardi 4 juin au soir contre le sénateur Robert Kennedy. Atteint à la tête par des balles alors qu'il fêtait sa victoire aux élections primaires de Californie, le sénateur Robert Kennedy a été transporté d'urgence à l'hôpital où son état est jugé critique.

M. Ron Schulman, technicien de la télévision, déclara que le sénateur sortait de la salle des fêtes et se dirigeait vers la cuisine de l'hôtel Ambassador quand un homme surgit de la foule et ouvrit le feu.

Un garde du corps de Kennedy riposta et l'assaillant, blessé à la jambe, aurait été remis immédiatement entre les mains de la police.

Bob Kennedy avait un pressentiment

Romain Gary, écrivain et cinéaste français, dans un article publié hier par le « Figaro », écrit que le sénateur Robert Kennedy lui avait déclaré voici une quinzaine de jours qu'il serait tôt ou tard victime d'une tentative d'assassinat.

Romain Gary ajoute qu'au cours de cette entrevue, qui s'était déroulée à Los Angeles dans la demeure du metteur en scène John Frankenheimer, le sénateur lui avait confié qu'il importait de compter sur la chance.

A propos des mesures qu'il prenait pour assurer sa protection au cours de la campagne électorale, le frère du Président assassiné avait déclaré en réponse à une question :

« Il n'y a aucun moyen de protéger un candidat pendant la campagne électorale. Il faut se donner à la foule et à partir de là... il faut compter sur la chance.

« De toute façon, il faut avoir la chance avec soi pour être élu Président des Etats-Unis. On l'a ou on ne l'a pas. Je sais qu'il y aura un attentat tôt ou tard. Pas tellement pour des raisons politiques : par contagion..., par émulation... Nous vivons dans une époque d'extraordinaire contagion psychique. Parce qu'un type tue Martin Luther King ici, un « contaminé » va immédiatement tenter de tuer un leader des étudiants ».

Inhumation à Arlington

M. Robert Kennedy, sénateur de l'Etat de New York, sera inhumé au cimetière national d'Arlington, à Washington, là où repose son frère aîné, le Président John Kennedy, a annoncé M. Pierre Salinger, porte-parole de la famille Kennedy.

La dépouille mortelle de M. Robert Kennedy, décédé cette nuit à l'hôpital, devait être ramenée hier matin de Los Angeles à New York à bord d'un appareil spécial fourni par la Maison Blanche. Les membres de la famille, ainsi que les amis et l'entourage de l'ancien candidat à la Présidence ont voyagé à bord de cet appareil.

La dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée à la cathédrale Saint-Patrick de New York où le public sera admis à défiler aujourd'hui vendredi de 8 heures du matin à 23 heures. Une messe de requiem sera célébrée samedi matin.

La dépouille mortelle sera ensuite transportée par train de New York à Washington, puis au cimetière national d'Arlington où aura lieu l'inhumation.

Deuil aux Etats-Unis

Dès l'annonce du décès du sénateur Robert Kennedy, le pavillon américain a été mis en berne sur tous les bâtiments publics et les navires de la Marine. Les funérailles auront lieu samedi. La journée de dimanche prochain sera journée de deuil national. La dépouille mortelle du sénateur sera transportée par avion spécial de Los Angeles à New York où, après avoir été exposée pendant toute la journée de vendredi, une messe sera dite samedi matin à la cathédrale Saint-Patrick au cœur même de la grande métropole.

Puis, par train, le corps du sénateur sera transporté à Washington où il sera inhumé samedi dans la journée au cimetière national d'Arlington aux côtés de la dépouille du Président John Kennedy qui y repose depuis sa mort.

Le gouvernement a pris un peu partout des mesures préventives pour faire face à tout désordre qui pourrait survenir à la suite de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy et l'annonce officielle de sa mort.

Mais les Américains de race noire et les pauvres ont perdu leur idole et déjà le révérend Ralph David Abernathy, qui dirige la « Marche contre la Misère » a affirmé que cet assassinat fait partie d'un vaste complot destiné à éliminer un à un tous ceux qui aident les pauvres aux Etats-Unis.

Cependant, les mobiles du crime sont peut-être tout autres. L'enquête a déjà permis de se rendre compte que le Jordanien Sirhan Sirhan était un adversaire acharné d'Israël et un chaud partisan des thèses nationalistes arabes les plus extrêmes.

Un calepin... Une mention...

Un calepin appartenant à Sirhan Sirhan, auteur présumé de l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy, portait la mention : « Kennedy doit être assassiné avant le 5 juin 1968 », a déclaré mercredi soir M. Samuel Yorty, maire de Los Angeles.

M. Yorty a ajouté que deux carnets portant des indications manuscrites de Sirhan ont été retrouvés à Pasadena, au domicile de l'auteur et apportés au poste de police où se poursuivait l'interrogatoire du suspect.

Biographie

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy qui vient de mourir hier à Los Angeles, est né le 20 novembre 1925.

A 26 ans, au barreau de Massachusetts, il entama sa carrière politique en faisant campagne pour l'élection de John Kennedy, son frère, au poste de sénateur du Massachusetts. A 34 ans, il organisa la campagne à l'issue de laquelle John Kennedy devint le 35e Président des Etats-Unis. Il fut alors nommé Ministre de la Justice et s'employa surtout au règlement du problème des droits civiques, à la répression du crime organisé et des rackets, ainsi qu'à la solution des problèmes concernant la législation du travail, la défense des pauvres, et la réhabilitation des détenus.

En 1964, après avoir été déçu dans ses espoirs d'être choisi comme Vice-Président par Lyndon Johnson, il démissionna de son poste de Ministre de la Justice et se présenta aux élections sénatoriales de New York. Malgré une vive opposition de la part des démocrates comme des républicains, qui l'accusèrent de vouloir rechercher une nouvelle « rampe de lancement » pour ses aspirations politiques, il fut élu.

Opposant déclaré, dès 1965, d'une politique d'escalade au Vietnam, le sénateur Kennedy se vit alors acclamé par un nombre croissant d'Américains et surtout par les jeunes comme la « solution de rechange » à opposer au Président Johnson.

Ce n'est pourtant qu'au début de février 1968 que M. Kennedy sortit de sa réserve. Il prononça alors un discours fracassant, démolissant impitoyablement la politique du chef de l'exécutif américain qu'il traita d'illusoire et d'irréalisable. Mais s'il se désolidarisait publiquement du Président Johnson, M. Kennedy ne déclarait pas pour autant vouloir lui disputer la nomination démocrate. Cette décision, il ne la prit qu'au lendemain de la surprenante démonstration de force faite dans le New Hampshire par le sénateur Mac Carthy, qui recueillit presque autant de voix, aux élections primaires du 12 mars que le Président Johnson, ouvrant ainsi des espoirs à une candidature Kennedy.

M. Robert Kennedy est père de dix enfants.

HOMMAGE DE R. NIXON A ROBERT KENNEDY

Le sénateur Robert Kennedy « un homme d'une énergie et d'une vitalité énormes » et un des grands chefs les plus populaires de l'histoire américaine, a déclaré hier matin M. Richard Nixon, ancien vice-président des Etats-Unis, qui brigue l'investiture du Parti républicain, pour les élections présidentielles de novembre prochain.

« Accablés aujourd'hui de tristesse, ajoute M. Nixon dans une déclaration remise à la presse hier matin à New-York, les enfants Kennedy sauront, lorsqu'ils grandiront que leur père et leur oncle était un homme jeune de grand courage qui avait déjà laissé sa marque dans l'histoire.

HARLEM A L'ANNONCE DE LA NOUVELLE

Une profonde émotion, mêlée d'un sentiment de désarroi, s'est saisie de la population de Harlem, le quartier noir de New-York, à l'annonce de la mort du sénateur Robert Kennedy.

L'opinion la plus répandue parmi les Noirs de New-York est que les coups de feu qui retentirent, dans les cuisines de l'hôtel « Ambassador » de Los Angeles visaient autant le jeune sénateur démocrate que les Américains de couleur, qui voyaient en lui un des principaux défenseurs de leurs droits civiques.

Partout, on entend dans les rues de Harlem des réflexions du genre suivant : « On sait qu'ils veulent supprimer tous ceux qui pensent un peu à nous » ; « C'est une conspiration politique, on élimine systématiquement les meilleurs Américains », ou encore : Pap Brown avait raison, il n'y a que la violence qui compte en Amérique ».

MESSAGE DU CONSEIL DE SECURITE A Mme KENNEDY

Aux Nations Unies après avoir rendu hommage au sénateur Robert Kennedy, le Conseil de Sécurité, saisi de plaintes jordanienne et israélienne sur la situation à la frontière, a décidé de renvoyer sine die son débat.

La décision a été prise sur proposition de M. Tewfik Bouattoura, délégué de l'Algérie, au nom des pays arabes.

Au début de séance, dans un geste sans précédent, le Conseil avait décidé l'envoi d'un message à Mme Robert Kennedy, lui exprimant ses sentiments de consternation et de profonde tristesse.

Le message du Conseil de Sécurité déclare : « Le soutien du sénateur Kennedy aux Nations Unies et à leurs objectifs de paix est connu et respecté dans le monde entier.

« Tous les membres du Conseil s'associent aux prières pour lui et expriment leur profonde sympathie à vous même et à toute la famille Kennedy ».

« CES ACTES DE VIOLENCE NE SONT PAS DES ACCIDENTS »

Ému au point d'en pleurer, M. Schlesinger a ajouté : « Depuis trois ans, nous tuions des gens de l'autre côté du monde. Nous avons déjà assassiné deux citoyens qui personnifiaient l'idéalisme américain à l'étranger et hier nous avons assassiné un troisième. Ces actes de violence ne sont pas des accidents. Ils ont leur origine dans notre passé national ». « Ces actes, a poursuivi M. Schlesinger, ont commencé lorsque l'homme blanc s'est mis à assassiner les Indiens et à faire des esclaves de ceux qu'il considérait comme ses inférieurs à cause de la couleur de leur peau. Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparaît dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence », a conclu M. Schlesinger.

A propos de l'assassinat du Sénateur Robert Kennedy

L'AMERIQUE SERA-T-ELLE LA DEMOCRATIE DU COLT ?

Robert Kennedy est mort le 6 juin, assassiné.

Assassiné comme son frère John Kennedy, assassiné comme Malcom X; assassiné comme le pasteur Martin Luther King; assassiné comme des milliers de citoyens américains obscurs et anonymes.

Robert Kennedy est mort hier, victime lui aussi de l'odieux et impitoyable système des Etats-Unis que déjà, avant la première guerre mondiale, Jacques London fustigeait dans son livre génial : « Le talon de fer ». Car, c'est bien le système américain, et lui seul, qui vient de ravir à l'affection du monde ce jeune homme lucide, courageux, dynamique et plein d'avenir.

Mais la mort du sénateur Kennedy donne une nouvelle et tragique dimension à ce qu'on appelle « la politique des Etats-Unis d'Amérique » ; elle prouve de façon dramatique que ce pays, devenu trop technique sinon trop technocratique et par là même inhumain, s'engage de plus en plus profondément dans la voie de la barbarie et de la décadence.

Et le peuple américain lui-même, parce qu'il subit cette politique, le sait très bien. Les agences de presse rapportaient hier que nombre de citoyens de ce grand pays, dans les rues, disaient : « Nous sommes un pays de fous, de sauvages ». D'autres faisaient trèstement cette remarque : « Et l'on nous appelle un pays civilisé ! ».

Le sénateur démocrate de Washington, M. Jackson déclarait pour sa part : « Le monde est devenu fou ». Nous disons pour notre part NON ! Le monde n'est pas devenu fou; ce sont les classes dirigeantes des Etats-Unis qui s'affolent; c'est la société américaine, capitaliste et ségrégationniste, qui s'engage dans un processus de décomposition lente, mais inévitable.

Car, une société qui fait siennes des pratiques aussi condamnables et réprouvées, est à coup sûr une société gravement atteinte. Un régime qui compte sur le moyen de l'assassinat politique pour résoudre les contradictions qu'il suscite est un régime agonisant dont les jours sont comptés.

Qu'on ne s'y trompe donc pas, ce qui se passe actuellement aux Etats-Unis est très grave et doit être pris au sérieux par tout le monde.

Désormais, le monde entier sait que ce n'est guère ce pays qui s'enlise dans des mœurs aussi rétrogrades en politique qui peut être fondé à se poser en censeur de la morale universelle et en exemple aux yeux des autres pays; que ce pays, disons-le aussi, est mal venu pour parler au nom de la démocratie, quand ses propres leaders ne peuvent compter sur la sécurité au cours des campagnes électorales; quand la violence s'impose comme loi.

Si la violence, les crimes, les viols, le vol, les brigandages, les agressions et les attentats sont dans la nature du régime capitaliste, le régime de la libre entreprise et de la concurrence effrenée, nous savons que la violence des classes bourgeoises réactionnaires, la violence contre-révolutionnaire qui s'exerce contre le progrès et les hommes progressistes, loin de signifier force et santé du régime dominé par le capital financier, prouve au contraire que les classes exploiteuses ne sont plus en mesure de se maintenir et de perpétrer leur domination par les vieilles méthodes du parlementarisme bourgeois; elle prouve également que la liberté et la démocratie bourgeoises, devenues trop étroites pour un régime fascisant, étouffent de plus en plus les tenants mêmes du pouvoir des monopoles impérialistes, et qu'enfin, les classes d'oppression s'imaginent ainsi qu'à l'aide de la violence et du crime, elles peuvent retarder sinon retourner en arrière la roue de l'histoire.

Mais cette roue, nulle force au monde ne peut ni la retenir, ni à plus forte raison la faire revenir en arrière. Et ce qui se passe aujourd'hui aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, s'il n'était pas prévisible, est dans la nature des choses. Les Américains lucides comme M. Schlesinger le disent clairement : « Depuis trois ans, déclare ce dernier, nous tuons des gens de l'autre côté du monde... Nous sommes marqués par notre société d'un droit inné à la violence qui apparaît dans le zèle que nous mettons à poursuivre une guerre irrationnelle au Vietnam qui suppose une poussée intérieure de haine et de violence ».

Et aucun régime au monde ne peut, à l'échelle mondiale, provoquer des guerres d'agression, organiser des armées de mercenaires et des tueurs à gage, pour attenter à la liberté et à la sécurité des autres peuples et des autres nations, sans s'exposer lui-même de façon dangereuse. C'est ce qui vient d'arriver aux Etats-Unis.

Les innombrables crimes perpétrés par les classes dirigeantes de la société américaine au service des monopoles et des trusts, soit contre le Vietnam ou le Guatémala, contre le Congo ou d'autres pays d'Amérique Latine, ne pouvaient pas ne pas se retourner un jour contre le peuple américain lui-même. Mais que des meilleurs fils de ce peuple, c'est-à-dire ceux que nous considérions comme nos alliés dans la grande lutte pour l'avènement d'un monde nouveau, fait de justice et de fraternité, soient les tout premiers à être victimes de la barbarie du système, voilà ce qui nous afflige profondément.

C'est une loi de faire confiance aux peuples; faisons donc pleinement confiance au grand peuple américain. Car désormais, il est confronté aux difficultés de toutes sortes. Le jour où l'immense majorité comprendra qu'il s'agit d'une question de vie ou de mort, ce jour-là, on peut dire que la partie est gagnée par l'humanité progressiste.

Des épreuves plus dures attendent le peuple américain et ses classes déshéritées en particulier. Car, si l'on songe que ces vagues de crimes abominables qui ont ravi à la société américaine quelques-uns de ses fils parmi les plus nobles et les plus chers au cœur de l'humanité, ne sont même pas dirigées par des ennemis de classes des monopolistes, c'est-à-dire que le régime actuel n'est pas encore ouvertement mis en cause, qu'en sera-t-il lorsque demain il s'agira de lutter héroïquement pour l'instauration d'une démocratie véritable, populaire, aux Etats-Unis ? Et cela viendra inéluctablement, car il est suffisamment démontré que le régime social de ce pays, basé sur l'exploitation et l'oppression des masses laborieuses, n'est plus en mesure de résoudre les grandes contradictions qui sont en train de miner les fondements même de la société américaine.

En attendant, le crime dont vient d'être victime Robert Kennedy ne fera certainement que préparer les conditions pour une prise de conscience plus aigue des classes laborieuses des Etats-Unis.

Plusieurs dirigeants du gouvernement américain ont fait des « prières » à l'annonce de l'attentat contre Robert Kennedy. Le Président Johnson a lancé un appel aux Américains les exhortant à mettre un terme à la violence ainsi qu'à la prédication de la violence. »

Laissons les magnats et les hommes des monopoles à leurs dévotes et hypocrites prières qui ne les ont jamais empêchés de perpétrer ou de couvrir des crimes. Il faut certes prier ; mais il faut aussi et surtout en pareille circonstance des actes de foi, de progrès et d'humanité. Et d'abord que les Etats-Unis renoncent eux-mêmes à exercer la violence à l'égard des autres peuples, et de façon urgente et prioritaire au Vietnam.

Il faut que les Etats-Unis renoncent également de façon urgente et prioritaire à la violence contre les Afro-Américains debout pour la défense des droits humains les plus élémentaires.

Il faut que les Etats-Unis, de façon urgente et prioritaire, s'ils veulent survivre, renoncer à l'ignoble politique de ségrégation raciale imposée par la violence.

Il faut enfin que les Etats-Unis renoncent à leur rôle de gendarme international, car, de toute évidence, un système assis sur la violence et le crime n'a pas le droit de se poser en censeur d'autres systèmes plus équilibrés, et en tout cas plus proche de la morale.

Un vieil adage dit : « Ne fais pas à autrui ce que tu ne voudrais pas qu'on te fit ».

La violence ne peut disparaître du sol des Etats-Unis quand, journellement, on endurcit le cœur et la raison des millions de jeunes Américains pour l'exercice de la violence et de l'hostilité.

Aujourd'hui, il rest à souhaiter que la mort tragique de Robert Kennedy soit une occasion propice pour conduire le gouvernement des Etats-Unis à tirer les conséquences, toutes les conséquences de la situation politico-sociale qui favorise des crimes odieux comme ces assassinats qui font désespérer de la société américaine elle-même.

S'il en était ainsi, la mort du sénateur de New-York, que les forces de progrès du monde entier pleurent, n'aura pas été inutile.

De toute évidence, nous constatons la faillite de la prétendue supériorité du mode de vie américain dont on nous a rebattu les oreilles en le présentant comme la forme la plus élevée d'organisation de la société.

Non ! on n'a pas le droit de parler d'humanisme lorsqu'on a assassiné quatre présidents, et que chaque année, d'après les statistiques officielles, il y a comme en 1965 :

— 9.850 meurtres ;
— 22.467 enlèvements et viols ;
— 1.173.201 cambriolages ;
— 357.894 crimes contre les individus ;
— 2.422.121 crimes contre la propriété privée, etc.

Et nous en passons !

Sodome et Gomerrhe n'avaient pas atteint un tel niveau de dégradation...

Nous pensons que la société américaine, tout comme l'ensemble du monde capitaliste, y compris les nostalgiques du système capitaliste, est atteinte d'un mal qui restera incurable dans la mesure où la prise de conscience du peuple ne se traduira pas par des actions décisives des masses populaires qui obligeront l'Etat impérialiste au service des monopoles à opérer des changements qui mettront la nation américaine à l'abri du chaos et de la décadence.

De toute façon, la crise générale du système capitaliste est entrée dans sa phase la plus active. l'Amérique du Nord, premier des pays capitalistes, du capitalisme pourrissant, arrivé à sa phase de déclin, ne saurait échapper à la dialectique de l'histoire déjà étudiée par Marx et Engels, scientifiquement décrite par Lénine, et analysée avec une lucidité et une vigeur géniales par Mao Tsé-Toung.

Le nouveau crime perpétré contre les forces de progrès et de liberté en Amérique contribuera fortement à dévoiler « le géant aux pieds d'argile ».

Il a sonné le glas contre les monopoles impérialistes et pour des changements nouveaux, comme d'ailleurs partout les lames de fond de la révolution mondiale sont en train de balayer le vieil ordre des choses et liquider les vieux systèmes bâtis sur l'exploitation, l'iniquité et le crime.

Dans la nouvelle société qui naîtra, le peuple américain chantera l'hosanna pour les John Kennedy, les Malcolm X, les Martin Luther King, les Robert Kennedy, comme pour tous les martyrs de la lutte contre l'impérialisme et le racisme, pour la cause de la liberté, de la démocratie et de la paix.

L'HOMMAGE DES NEW YORKAIS A ROBERT KENNEDY

Dès l'ouverture hier matin des portes de la cathédrale St.-Patrick, la foule a commencé à défiler devant le cercueil du sénateur Robert Kennedy exposé sur un catafalque.

Des milliers de personnes viennent rendre un dernier hommage au candidat à la présidence, passant au rythme de 80 à la minute devant le cercueil dont le couvercle est fermé.

A chaque coin du catafalque, entouré de six grandes bougies jaunes, se tient un parent ou ami de la famille.

Cette garde d'honneur sera relayée toutes les demi-heures et des parents, amis, collaborateurs ou vedettes et célébrités du monde y prendront part.

Au cours de la première demi-heure, une des personnes participant à la vigile était Robert Kennedy junior, 14 ans, second fils du défunt qui garda la main posée sur le cercueil.

Dans la ville que Robert Kennedy avait choisie comme fief politique il y a quatre ans, tous les bureaux de l'Etat et de la ville sont fermés, ainsi que les écoles, les musées et les tribunaux.

Les drapeaux sont en berne sur presque tous les mâts existants. Le deuil officiel se poursuivra samedi et dimanche dans l'Etat de New-York.

Aujourd'hui sera célébrée la messe de requiem en la cathédrale Saint-Patrick en présence d'environ 2.500 personnes conviées par la famille Kennedy.

Bien qu'il ne l'ait pas encore annoncé officiellement, il est quasiment certain que le président Johnson y assistera.

Après la messe, la dépouille mortelle sera transportée par tran à Washington où elle sera inhumée au cimetière national d'Arlington en suivant un itinéraire qui fera passer le cortège devant le sénat dont il était membre et devant le Ministère de la Justice où il a occupé les fonctions d'attorney général sous la présidence de son frère.

Agée de 77 ans, la mère de Bob Robert Kennedy s'est rendue seule hier matin, à 8 heures, à la cathédrale St-Patrick de New-York, pour y prier au pied du catafalque sur lequel repose la dépouille de son fils. Vêtue d'une robe noire et portant une mantille, elle a gagné le chœur et pris place près d'un groupe de religieuses agenouillées. Le regard fixe, elle ne semblait pas voir l'immense foule de New-Yorkais défilant dans la cathédrale.

Au début de la matinée, la file d'attente à l'extérieur de la cathédrale s'étendait sur une distance de 18 pâtés de maisons, soit plus d'un kilomètre. Malgré la chaleur accablante, tous les gens sont habillés de sombre, les hommes sont en vestons et les femmes en robes à manches longues. Il y a peu d'enfants mais de nombreux adolescents. Autour du Rockfeller center, en face de la cathédrale, stationnent de nombreux autobus de louage qui ont amené des banlieusards venus rendre un dernier hommage au sénateur.

DES MENACES DE MORT DIRIGEES CONTRE SIRHAN - SIRHAN

A Los Angeles une dizaine de menaces de mort dirigées contre Sirhan Sirhan, l'assassin présumé de M. Robert Kennedy, sont parvenues à la police depuis la mort du sénateur de New York, a déclaré aux journalistes à Los Angeles le Cherif Peter Pitchess.

Celui-ci a précisé que ces menaces avaient été enregistrées à différents postes de police sous forme de coups de téléphone ou de lettres dont la plupart des auteurs annonçaient leur intention de mettre fin aux jours de Sirhan Sirhan lors de l'acheminement de ce dernier de la prison au tribunal où il doit comparaître.

L'un des auteurs de ces communications a même laissé entrevoir un attentat à la bombe destiné à faire sauter la prison tout entière. En attendant, Sirhan Sirhan fait l'objet de mesures de surveillance particulièrement strictes à l'infirmerie de la prison centrale pour hommes de Los Angeles.

M. Peter Pitchess a précisé que le détenu se trouvait dans une cellule située dans une aile isolée à l'extrémité d'un couloir isolé lui aussi au second étage de la prison.

Une surveillance sans relâche est exercée 24 heures sur 24 heures par des gardes en uniforme dont l'un se trouve dans la cellule même du détenu, laquelle 3,7 mètres de large et 3,7 mètres de long.

Un garde exerce sa surveillance à travers un voyant pratique dans la lourde porte en acier de la cellule, tandis que les qautre autres arpentent inlassablement le couloir.

Remaniement Ministériel au Sénégal

Le Président Léopold Séder Senghor a procédé jeudi après-midi au remaniement de son gouvernement.

Il assumera désormais personnellement la responsabilité des forces armées, dont le Ministère est rattaché directement à la Présidence.

Voici les autres changements intervenus :

1° Ministre délégué à la Présidence de la République chargé des relations avec les assemblées et les affaires religieuses : M. Amadou Cissé Dia;

2° Ministre des Affaires étrangères : M. Amadou Karim Gaye;

3° Ministre de l'Intérieur : M. Amadou Clédor Sall;

4° Ministre de l'Education nationale : M. Assane Seck;

5° Ministre de la Culture, de la Jeunesse et des Sports : M. Amadou Mahtar M'Bow;

6° Secrétaire d'Etat à la Présidence, chargé de l'Information : M. Abdoulaye Diack;

Deux Ministres ont donc quitté le gouvernement sénégalais, MM. Alioune Badara M'Bengue (ancien Ministre des Affaires étrangères), et Amadou Racine N'Diaye (ancien Ministre de la Jeunesse et des Sports).

Un nouveau venu dans l'équipe ministérielle : M. Amadou Clédor Sall, ancien gouverneur du Cap-Vert, qui se voit confier l'important portefeuille de l'Intérieur que détenait M. Cissé Dia depuis trois ans.

M. Amadou Cissé Dia, Ministre délégué à la Présidence, reste chargé de suppléer le Président de la République sénégalaise en cas d'empêchement provisoire. Il reste ainsi le deuxième personnage du Gouvernement.

Ainsi, à part les secteurs clefs des Affaires étrangères, de l'Intérieur et des Forces armées, ce remaniement ministériel n'entraîne guère que quelques permutations.

Toujours de Dakar, on apprend que le voyage que le Président Senghor devait effectuer en U.R.S.S. et en Pologne à partir du 17 juin prochain est annulé.

Les raisons de cette annulation ne sont pas précisées mais on croit savoir que le chef de l'Etat sénégalais préfère ne pas quitter le Sénégal après les récents incidents qui se sont produits la semaine dernière à Dakar.

belle humeur était entretenue par les accords harmonieux des instruments musicaux et les accents révolutionnaires de la fanfare de la garde républicaine.

A cette fête à la fois grandiose et combien significative, assistaient notamment des représentants de toutes les organisations populaires de l'Union Soudanaise R.D.A.

L'immense salle de conférence de la Permanence Pavoisée aux couleurs nationales, pour la circonstance, était archi-comble, et c'est devant une foule de plusieurs milliers de militantes et de militants que Mme Sall, née Ramata Sidibé, présidente de la sous-commission sanitaire de la Commission sociale des Femmes, a prononcé l'importante allocution que voici :

« Depuis 1949, des organisations démocratiques de Femmes de nombreux pays célèbrent, le 1er juin, la Journée internationale de l'Enfance.

« La Commission sociale des Femmes de l'Union Soudanaise-R.D.A. a décidé dans son rapport d'activités 1967-1968 approuvé par le Comité National de Défense de la Révolution, de s'associer désormais à la commémoration de cette Journée.

« Le sort de l'enfance a été, de tout temps, en tout lieu la préoccupation constante des sociologues, des médecins, des enseignants, des hommes de droit.

« La socialisation des institutions, quel que soit le système politique ; le groupement par les divers Etats, a permis de dégager des critères communs en la matière.

« C'est ainsi que la conférence mondiale de l'Enfance, tenue à Stockholm (Suède) du 3 au 6 octobre 1967, a défini les voies et moyens pour la défense des droits de l'enfant à la vie, au bien-être, à l'instruction.

« Elle a notamment affirmé la nécessité :

- de protéger tous les enfants contre les persécutions, l'exploitation, l'emprisonnement et le massacre ;
- de créer des conditions nécessaires à l'épanouissement de tous les enfants ;
- d'assurer l'instruction, l'éducation, la santé à tous les enfants.

« En d'autres termes, de garantir aux familles les conditions d'existence telles que l'enfant ne soit pas contraint de travailler pour se nourrir, se soigner, se loger convenablement, de promouvoir une politique scolaire et sanitaire équitable pour tous les enfants.

« Mais tout cela ne peut être réalisé que lorsque la paix règne dans le monde, que lorsque les relations entre les peuples, entre les États auront pour fondement la compréhension mutuelle, la solidarité humaine.

« L'œuvre est grandiose. Elle ne se conçoit pas sans l'apport inlassable et positif des femmes du monde entier, car elles sont mères, épouses et citoyennes.

« Les femmes maliennes ne sauraient se dérober aux obligations dévolues aux organisations démocratiques féminines. Leur participation remarquable aux activités publiques du pays donne une puissante impulsion à la vocation sociale de la femme en raison de sa prédisposition à la connaissance des problèmes humains.

« Les femmes maliennes, membre de l'Union Soudanaise-R.D.A., ont constitué des commissions sociales qui sont un facteur déterminant d'unité entre les générations, entre les couches sociales, entre le milieu urbain et rural.

« La conséquence fut la liquidation des conflits d'antan, la meilleure connaissance par toutes les femmes des problèmes communs, de leurs droits et devoirs envers la nation, l'acquisition des principes essentiels d'éducation, d'hygiène, l'adaptation au progrès pour le bien-être général, particulièrement pour le bien-être de l'enfant, ce dans le cadre familial, africain ou mondial.

« En effet, la formation du citoyen commence au berceau, se poursuit dans la famille, se développe et s'affirme sur le plan national et international.

« Il faut donner à l'enfant la santé du corps, la santé de l'esprit.

« Il faut insuffler, entretenir, développer en lui le sens de la patrie, de la communauté africaine, de la communauté internationale afin d'ouvrir son âme aux dimensions des grands principes humanitaires universels.

« Ce rôle, la femme doit l'assumer avec une vigilance permanente en surveillant la santé de l'enfant, son éducation scolaire et post-scolaire.

« Car le monde d'aujourd'hui se caractérise en ce que tout se fait par les jeunes eux-mêmes davantage sollicités directement, à des âges de moins en moins élevés à l'œuvre de reconversion nationale, africaine, mondiale, indispensable à l'instauration d'une ère de paix, de fraternité et de solidarité véritables.

« Les illustrations en sont multiples et d'ampleur variée, mais toujours significatives.

« Et à cet effet, la Commission sociale des Femmes, salue la première réunion à Dakar des jeunesse de l'Organisation des Etats riverains du « Sénégal ».

« Elle salue la contribution dynamique des organisations des jeunes de l'Union Soudanaise-R.D.A. au processus révolutionnaire déclenché le 18 juillet 1967.

« Elle salue l'intensification des mouvements de pionniers.

« Toutes ces activités sont notre récompense et notre fierté, à nous femmes de l'Union Soudanaise-R.D.A.

« Le vœu de la Commission sociale est que les bébés d'aujourd'hui se montrent dignes de leurs aînés.

« C'est pourquoi, le concours du « plus beau bébé » qui ouvre les manifestations de la Journée internationale de l'enfance célébrée pour la première fois par notre pays, à la période historique que nous vivons, verra le couronnement de tous les enfants ici présents.

« Toutefois, la répartition des lots demeure hiérarchisée.

« Si le premier Prix est appelé Prix Modibo Kéita à cause de l'action de notre camarade secrétaire général, président du Comité National de Défense de la Révolution, en tant que chef de gouvernement et en tant qu'homme tout court, en faveur de l'épanouissement de l'enfant.

« Vive la Révolution !

« Vive le C.N.D.R. !

« Vive la Journée internationale de l'enfance !

« Merci aux généreux donateurs qui ont apporté plus de joie dans les foyers ».

Après ce discours vivement applaudi, un jury désigné à cet effet procéda à l'élection du plus beau bébé.

Notons que le programme de la fête comportait également :

- Distribution de dons à la P.M.I. centrale par Mme Modibo Kéita ;
- Des manifestations folkloriques et populaires au niveau de chaque quartier (danses de bara, de takamba, etc.) ;
- Et enfin une réception offerte par la présidente de la Commission sociale des Femmes, au palais présidentiel à Koulouba.

A PEKIN, SOIREE ARTISTIQUE EN L'HONNEUR DE LA DELEGATION MALIENNE CONDUITE PAR LE CAMARADE MAMADOU DIAKITE

Le Ministère de la Défense nationale de Chine a organisé dimanche 2 juin 1968 une soirée artistique pour accueillir la délégation militaire malienne conduite par Mamadou Diakité, membre du CNDR, ministre délégué à la présidence, chargé de la Défense et de la Sécurité de la République du Mali.

Houang Yong-Cheng, Chef d'Etat-Major général de l'armée populaire de libération de Chine, a accompagné les amis maliens pour assister à tam-tam de combat sur l'équateur, une pièce moderne reflétant la lutte armée du peuple du Congo-Kinshasa.

A la fin du spectacle, le Chef d'Etat-Major général Houang Yong Cheng, et Mamadou Diakité ainsi que les autres amis maliens sont montés sur la scène pour serrer chaleureusement la main aux artistes, les félicitant du succès.

Etaient également invités à cette occasion, Moussa Coulibaly, chargé d'Affaires par intérim de l'ambassade du Mali en Chine, les autres diplomates de l'ambassade et d'autres amis maliens.

A PEKIN, LA DELEGATION MILITAIRE MALIENNE VISITE UNE UNITE DE LA FORCE AERIENNE

La délégation militaire malienne, dirigée par le Ministre Mamadou Diakité, a visité le 4 juin, en compagnie du vice-Ministre chinois de la Défense Nationale Siao Kin-Kouang, une unité en garnison à Pékin de la force aérienne de l'armée populaire de libération de Chine.

A cette occasion le camarade Mamadou Diakité a été salué ainsi que les autres hôtes de marque par les commandants et combattants, qui brandissant des portraits du Président Mao et du Président Modibo Kéita, ont crié : Vive l'amitié des peuples Chinois et Malien.

Les membres de la délégation malienne ont écouté un compte-rendu sur le développement de cette unité fait par le responsable de cette unité. Ce dernier a dit : « Nous constituons les forces aériennes populaires qui sont édifiées selon la pensée du Président Mao sur l'édification de l'armée et servent, de tout cœur le peuple.

Accompagnés du responsable de l'unité, les amis maliens ont visité l'exposition de sculptures d'argile, histoire des fabriques des combattants d'aviation, assisté à la représentation de numéros artistiques donnés par l'équipe de propagande de la pensée de Mao Tsé-Toung. Ils ont également assisté à une démonstration aérienne.

Le camarade Mamadou Diakité membre du CNDR, Ministre délégué à la présidence chargé de la Défense et de la sécurité a, lors d'un entretien avec des commandants et combattants, fait un éloge chaleureux du succès de la démonstration aérienne. Il a dit que la République Populaire de Chine possédait des avions modernes et puissants, et que les hommes qui les utilisaient, étaient armés de la pensée de Mao-Tsé-Toung. Donc, a-t-il ajouté, nous sommes convaincus que le peuple Chinois sera invincible. C'est un grand encouragement pour les peuples du monde entier.

Moussa Coulibaly, chargé d'affaires par intérim de l'ambassade du Mali en Chine participait à la visite.

SEGOU

Les travailleurs et les organisations démocratiques de Ségou poursuivent sans relache leur aide aux sinistrés du village de Nérékoro qui ont entrepris d'importants travaux de construction de logements dans le nouvel emplacement qui leur est assigné.

En effet, après leurs camarades de la Subdivision des T.P., tous les travailleurs de la division syndicale de l'Economie rurale, augmentés de plusieurs centaines de jeunes de la section, se sont rendus le dimanche 2 juin 1968, dans ce village, situé à 18 km environ de pour se consacrer à la construction de plusieurs pièces devant servir de logement.

Ces travaux d'investissements volontaires dont l'importance n'échappe à personne, se sont déroulés de 7 heures à 14 heures dans une allegresse indescriptible.

DJENNE

Comme partout en République du Mali, la préoccupation constante des responsables de Djenné est de mettre tout en œuvre pour que les militants et militantes soient largement informés des objectifs du Parti dans le cadre de notre option socialiste.

SESSION ORDINAIRE DU CONSEIL DES MINISTRES

Une session ordinaire du Conseil des ministres s'est tenue le 6 juin 1968 sous la présidence de M. Modibo Kéita, chef de l'Etat et président du Comité National de Défense de la Révolution.

Les ministres ont adopté deux projets de décrets, l'un portant réglementation de la Recherche scientifique en République du Mali, l'autre portant nomination de M. Mountaga Traoré, précédemment à l'Office des Changes, chef de cabinet du Ministère des Finances.

Ils ont ensuite étudié pour transmission à la délégation législative :

- Un projet de loi autorisant des virements de crédits au budget régional de Mopti, exercice 1967-1968 ;
- Un projet de loi portant modification au code des impôts directs, indirects et taxes assimilées ;
- Un projet de loi portant fixation de l'année fiscale.

Le Conseil des ministres, à la lumière d'un certain nombre de communications verbales, donna son accord pour la participation du Mali à plusieurs réunions prévues en Afrique et en dehors du continent.

Avant de lever la séance, le chef de l'Etat, après analyse de la conjoncture africaine internationale, fit d'importantes recommandations relatives au renforcement de la vigilance à tous les niveaux.

FINALE DE LA COUPE DU MALI
REAL — 1 STADE — 0

Nombreuses sont nos équipes qui caressent l'unique désir de disputer la finale de la Coupe du Mali. Plusieurs dizaines au départ, elles ne sont plus en effet que deux pour cette phase ultime. Cette année l'une s'appelait le Réal et l'autre le Stade. L'on ne peut que s'incliner devant ces noms prestigieux, tant ces équipes se sont bâties une renommée et une popularité qui dépassent nos frontières.

Le président Modibo Kéita remettant la coupe au capitaine du Réal Adama Camara.

Des Clubs africains comme Kotoko, Sily Club, Assec et Stade Abidjan, etc. ne sont pas près d'oublier des joueurs qui ont noms Bakaridian, Doudou, Samba Bass, Yacouba Samabaly, Nani, Domingo, Labass Diakité, Ousmane Traoré, Tiémoko Sinaté, etc.

Cette finale du 2 juin a sans aucun doute opposé deux équipes qui sont avec le Djoliba au-dessus du lot et, l'enthousiasme populaire qui a précédé la rencontre était digne du trophée.

Dès 16 heures 15, les équipes encadrées de Sané Mady Diallo arbitre central, Mamou Diarra et Cheick Kéita, juges de touches firent leur apparition sur la pelouse du Stadium. Un tonnerre d'applaussements et de vivats les accueillit. Elles vinrent s'aligner sur la touche, et, après l'exécution de l'hymne national furent présentées au Président de la République qui encouragea l'une et l'autre. Toss, échange d'étendard et poignée de main s'effectuèrent dans un temps record et, à 16 heures 42, adossé à la colline du Point G, le Stade vêtu de blanc de pied en cape engagea la partie.

Dès les premières minutes l'on constata un certain flottement dans cette équipe, qui peut quelque chose qu'il cherche, une pièce mal graissée qui grince. Elle n'avait plus cette vivacité, cet allant, cet enthousiasme qui arrachèrent les applaudissements du public et faillirent abattre le Djoliba deux semaines auparavant.

En ce début de match le Réal également tarda à se retrouver. Mais on sentit vite au fil des minutes qu'il a une organisation de jeu que ses hommes ont à cœur de suivre. Tout tourna autour du quadrilatère Dramane dit Wabi, Nani, Ousmane et Yacouba ; Fatogoma, ailier de pointe, était chargé de démanteler la défense adverse. Ainsi, par leurs incessants déplacements, les hommes de Lorenzi ouvrirent le score à la 25e minute par Wabi. Une immense clameur accueillit ce but et encouragea le Stade et ses supporters.

REAL : 1 ; STADE : 0.

Cette avance donna au Réal des ailes. Il s'envola de plus belle, multiplia ses assauts et son tourbillon, faillit à plusieurs reprises emporter le Stade et son gardien. Le réseau défensif stadiste tint heureusement bon et la mi-temps intervint sur ce score de 1 but à zéro.

La seconde période jouée sur le même ton ne fut en aucun moment intéressante. Le Réal se sentait nullement en sécurité d'autant qu'il ne put malgré une meilleure occupation du terrain et ses nombreux assauts aggraver le score. Le sort ne fut jamais favorable au Stade qui ne sut en aucun moment ou donner de la tête. Son Etat Major passa un mauvais quart d'heure. Il se tortura en vain les méninges pour savoir s'il fallait tout chambouler en renforçant une attaque manquant de punch et d'adresse ou maintenir le statut-quo et en laissant ses stoïques défenseurs attendre de pied ferme les vagues houleuses du Réal. Le milieu du terrain avait été déjà inondé et ses hommes se portèrent à l'arrière-garde laissant sans appui leurs attaques menus et frêles aux prises avec le réseau défensif adverse qui ne s'embarrassait pas des fioritures. Aucun changement notable n'intervint finalement dans le déroulement du match malgré une domination territoriale du Réal qui remporta le trophée pour la 3e fois consécutive par le score très étroit de 1 but à zéro.

LE JEU

Il n'a à aucun moment atteint les sommets et ne fut guère digne de la Coupe, ni de l'ambiance et de l'organisation matérielle de la rencontre. Les spectateurs déçus restèrent d'ailleurs sur leur faim. Le panache, l'aisance et le style des grandes compétitions manquaient à ce match. Celui-ci se joua bien au-dessous de ce qu'on attendait des deux finalistes. Ils ne portèrent aucune action lumineuse et collective à leur actif et le trophée doit se sentir rudement offensé de se voir livré pour un si petit but, une si piètre exhibition.

Néanmoins le Réal a gagné en dominant le Stade dans tous les compartiments du jeu. Il sut avec bonheur attaquer et défendre massivement. Le milieu du terrain, domaine des deux frères Traoré fut la force de l'équipe. L'attaque quoique peu efficace posa maints problèmes à la défense stadiste.

Quant au Stade son organisation collective s'effrita lorsqu'il encaissa l'unique but de la partie. Son tort fut alors de conserver le même système de jeu. Il eût été préférable que l'entraineur appréciât la situation et opposât au jeu de l'adversaire une organisation plus adéquate susceptible de brouiller les cartes du Réal. Il ne fit rien, et le Stade dominé, malmené attendit avec impatience le coup de sifflet fatidique. Le milieu du terrain qui devait épauler l'attaque ne tint que pendant les 35 premières minutes. Et si le score n'a pas été plus lourd le Stade le dut seulement à ses défenseurs et à la maladresse de l'adversaire.

Ce 2 juin, la sympathique équipe de Oumar Sy pêcha sur toute la ligne. Elle fut incapable de se ressaisir, de se réorganiser et de conserver la balle. Sa ligne d'attaque manqua d'homogénité et de précision dans la tactique d'approche. Dès lors l'on comprend que le Réal sans être un foudre de guerre se montra le meilleur et mérita d'enlever le trophée.

FINALE DE LA COUPE NATIONALE DE BASKET-BALL

Le samedi 1er juin 1968 le Pavillon n° 3 du Stade Modibo Keïta connaissait l'ambiance des grands jours. En effet, dès 20 h, une foule nombreuse l'avait prise d'assaut, afin d'assister au grand match de basket-ball comptant pour la finale de la Coupe Nationale du Mali, opposant le Réal au Stade Malien.

Tous les amateurs de la balle au panier étaient présents à ce grand rendez-vous pour encourager les deux équipes qui ont dominé cette saison, les autres formations de basket.

En effet, le Stade avait éliminé le Djoliba, le Club de Gao et le Bani-Club de Mopti, alors que le Réal de son côté, mettait hors de la compétition nationale, le Stade de Sikasso. Tout laissait donc prévoir une partie magnifique. L'éclat de cette finale était rehaussé par la présence effective du Président Modibo Kéita, ayant à ses côtés les camarades Mahamane Alassane Haïdara, Madéira Kéita, Seydou Tall et le colonel Sekou Traoré. Après la présentation des deux équipes aux personnalités, le match débute à 21 heures 52. D'entrée le jeu devient alerte, mouvementé. Toutes les deux équipes étaient décidées à remporter le trophée national. Le Réal, en maillot noir et blanc, ouvre le score par son numéro 12 Mamadou Traoré qui transforme habilement deux lancers francs. Peu de temps après, Diakalidia, capitaine du Stade, égalise pour son équipe. La partie devient alors endiablée. Le géant Kandé Sy est littéralement déchaîné, mais le Réal résiste. Les deux équipes rivalisent d'adresse. Les actions magnifiques de Sow Amadou du Réal sont mal exploitées par Dramane Traore. Les stadistes prennent ensuite l'avantage grâce à l'habilité de Diakalidia et à la classe de ses joueurs. Cependant le Réal se reprend admirablement et, après avoir été mené à la marque par 13 à 6, remonte jusqu'à 12. Le jeu prend alors une nouvelle allure — les différentes combinaisons soulèvent l'enthousiasme du public. Le Stade Malien a mené à la fin de la première mi-temps par 19 à 14.

A la reprise le Stade s'envole et marque successivement plusieurs paniers — le Réal résiste, mais les actions d'Amadou Sow sont une fois de plus gâchées par le numéro 10 Bakary Traoré, qui nuit à son équipe en voulant faire son petit numéro — Le Stade est déchaîné, sème le désarroi dans les rangs du Réal où le numéro 7 Dramane Traoré réussit tant bien que mal quelques paniers. Mais le numéro 13 Lamine Coulibaly et le numéro 11 Mahamane Traoré ne laissent aucun répit au Réal chez lequel la fatigue et l'énervement commencent à se faire sentir. C'est ainsi que le Réal fut entièrement submergé par l'inexorable courant stadiste. Les rares envolées du Réal sont enrayées à cause de la maladresse de ses joueurs. Le Stade l'emporta en fin de compte sur le score de 49 à 28, s'adjugeant ainsi la Coupe Nationale que le capitaine Diakalidia a reçue des mains du Président Modibo Kéita, sous les acclamations frénétiques du public.

Le jeu assez équilibré en première mi-temps où il était d'un bon niveau technique — En effet, nous avons assisté en première mi-temps à un duel acharné entre les deux équipes qui se sont alors livrées à fond, et ont tiré profit de différentes combinaisons — La partie était alors très serrée, très vive, la balle volait d'un camp à l'autre et le public était emporté. Il est hors de doute que si toute la partie s'était déroulée à cette allure, le public eût assisté au plus beau match de basket de l'année.

Après avoir remis la coupe au capitaine de l'équipe victorieuse, le Président Modibo Kéita lui donne l'accolade

En seconde mi-temps, la partie fut moins équilibrée. Les stadistes s'imposèrent nettement en réussissant 15 paniers contre 7 seulement au Réal. Une fois de plus, Kandé Sy du Stade a magistralement prouvé qu'au basket, la taille, l'engagement physique et moral, le sang-froid, la maîtrise de soi-même et l'adresse dans les lancers sont déterminants dans l'acquisition de la victoire. Si les joueurs du Réal avaient été plus adroits et plus calmes, la partie eût été plus équilibrée.

Les meilleurs l'ont emportée. L'arbitrage a été serré, la soirée agréable.

« En adhérant aux Conventions de Genève du 12 août 1949, le Mali a voulu s'associer à tous les pays qui se sont engagés à encourager et à favoriser la naissance et la coopération d'organisations volontaires nationales, dûment autorisées par les gouvernements et qui ont pour objet l'amélioration des conditions de vie par l'adoucissement de la souffrance et de la misère dans le monde.

« Les Conventions de Genève sont des traités fondamentaux qui procèdent du respect de la personne humaine et de sa dignité : elles consacrent le principe de l'aide désintéressée sans charité humiliante, et donnée sans discrimination à la victime, au combattant blessé ou prisonnier, désormais sans défense qui n'est plus un ennemi, mais seulement un être humain qui souffre.

« Nul n'a le droit de rester insensible à la souffrance des autres.

« La coopération volontaire au sein de la Croix-Rouge est l'occasion pour ceux qui en font partie, de découvrir la valeur de ce qui est entrepris en commun, afin de prévenir ou de combattre la détresse humaine, et de se rendre compte combien la bonne volonté individuelle peut contribuer au bien-être de toute la collectivité vouée à demeurer dans la même barque.

UN IDEAL DE HAUTE PORTEE HUMANITAIRE

« N'est-ce pas là le vrai esprit qui anime la Société africaine ? N'est-ce pas surtout l'objectif suprême de notre Parti dans l'édification d'une société juste ?

« Mais il n'est pas superflu de rappeler que la cause de la Croix-Rouge, c'est la cause de tout être humain, puisqu'aucune détresse de l'humanité ne lui est étrangère. Que de services sont ou seront rendus par ses volontaires dans l'anonymat. Leurs efforts ont pour but la préservation des maladies, l'amélioration de la santé, le soulagement de la souffrance les secours d'urgence aux victimes des calamités publiques et des sinistres naturels.

UN GESTE A LA CAUSE DES MOINS FAVORISES

« Le mot « donner » dont s'inspire la Croix-Rouge est associé étroitement à son travail. Il signifie que chacun de ceux qui jouissent de conditions de vie meilleure se doit un geste à la cause des moins favorisés, en faveur desquels une action humanitaire est indispensable.

« Il pourra donner non seulement de ses biens, mais aussi de lui-même, de ses forces physiques et morales, en devenant un membre actif de cette grande fraternité universelle : finalité de la condition humaine.

« C'est pourquoi nous avons dit en son temps que la Croix-Rouge nous concerne tous, directement, que nous soyons malades ou bien portants, affamés ou bien nourris, âgés ou jeunes. Ce mouvement qui s'étend au monde entier, unit les efforts de plusieurs centaines de millions d'hommes, de femmes, de jeunes, qui payent de leur personne pour chercher à extirper les causes mêmes de souffrance que nul ne peut ignorer à notre époque de communications par des engins supersoniques.

« Actuellement, cent onze Etats ont leurs sociétés de Croix-Rouge, membres de la ligue et cent vingt-cinq Etats ont adhéré aux Conventions de Genève, illustrant le fait que, malgré les différences de conceptions politiques, économiques, sociales, religieuses, culturelles, le monde entier est uni dans cet idéal d'humanité, dans ce respect de la vie et de la personne humaine et dans cette volonté de combattre toutes les souffrances.

« La Croix-Rouge malienne reste au service des pouvoirs publics et participe et participera à toutes les actions qui requièrent son concours si minime soit-il. Le fait c'est sa ferme volonté d'intervenir en faisant appel aux bonnes volontés.

UN PEU MOINS DE GUERRE ET BEAUCOUP PLUS DE COMPREHENSION ENTRE LES PEUPLES

« Sur le plan international, elle exige le respect du droit des peuples à disposer d'eux-mêmes, à s'organiser pour un mieux-être national et dans ce cadre, elle flétrit la violence, la domination étrangère, l'esprit expansionniste.

« Cependant, l'évidence demeure que ce monde a le lendemains chargés d'incertitudes, aussi il nous paraît utile de réitérer au nom du peuple malien l'appel à tous les peuples pour que la raison triomphe sur l'instinct, qu'il soit mis fin aux destructions insensées qui endeuillent inutilement l'humanité, que les sommes employées pour ses massacres soient utilisées plutôt à renforcer les infrastructures économiques, sociales et culturelles, afin que l'homme vive sa vie dans la paix et le bonheur.

« C'est sur cette note d'espoir M. le président, honorables invités et chers camarades que je voudrais terminer en criant :

« VIVE la Croix-Rouge malienne !

« VIVE la Croix-Rouge internationale pour que vive la paix dans le monde ».

Après cette allocution fort ovationnée, le président exécutif devait présenter à l'assistance, les membres du Comité central élus en 1965.

Ensuite le camarade Amadou Traoré, secrétaire général de la Croix-Rouge malienne a présenté le rapport d'activités de l'organisation. Ce rapport contenait les grands traits de l'action médico-sociale, et le soutien matériel apporté à la Croix-Rouge malienne par toutes les couches sociales du Mali, ainsi que par des pays amis.

Pour terminer, le camarade Amadou Traoré a dégagé les grandes perspectives de la Croix-Rouge malienne.

Après suspension de séance, l'assemblée a repris ses travaux par la lecture du rapport financier présenté par le trésorier général, le capitaine Sékou Doumbia.

La discussion des rapports du Comité central a eu lieu à 16 h.

Indiquons que les travaux de l'assemblée se sont poursuivis le dimanche 9 juin 1968.

Dans nos prochaines éditions, nous reviendrons sur cette importante session.

24 HEURES DANS LE MONDE

OUAGADOUGOU :

On apprend de Ouagadougou que M. Denis Yaméogo est décédé à Paris après une longue maladie.

M. Denis Yaméogo, cousin de l'ancien président de la République voltaïque, avait été plusieurs fois ministre et détenait le département de l'Intérieur lors des événements de janvier 1966 qui virent la chute de l'ancien régime.

ARABIE SAOUDITE :

Le roi Fayçal d'Arabie Saoudite a affecté un crédit de 15 millions de livres sterling à l'achat d'armes pour l'armée jordanienne.

Cette annonce figure dans un télégramme de remerciements adressé par le roi Hussein de Jordanie au souverain saoudite et dont le texte a été publié dimanche.

LUSAKA :

Un porte-parole du gouvernement zambien a annoncé hier que des saboteurs ont fait sauter un pont de première importance sur la route qui relie Lusaka au Malawi.

Le gardien du pont a été poignardé par les saboteurs.

Le trafic commercial entre la Zambie et le Malawi est interrompu. Des mesures ont été prises pour permettre sa reprise dans les meilleurs délais, a indiqué le porte-parole.

La Zambie est tributaire de ce pont pour ses importations de pétrole et pour ses exportations de cuivre.

OUAGADOUGOU :

M. Joseph Palmer, sous-secrétaire d'Etat américain aux Affaires africaines, est arrivé dimanche soir à Ouagadougou venant d'Abidjan.

« L'un des buts principaux de ma visite en Haute-Volta, a déclaré M. Palmer à sa descente d'avion, est de vérifier comment notre politique actuelle et nos activités futures peuvent se conformer au programme que la Haute-Volta a établi pour elle-même ».

Au cours de son séjour, M. Palmer visitera le gisement de Maganèse de TAMBAO et le ranch expérimental de Markoye, dans le nord du pays. Il s'est entretenu hier matin avec les responsables de divers Ministères, et a été reçu en audience par le président de la République voltaïque, le général Sangoulé Lamizana.

LE CAIRE :

En République Arabe-Unie, quatre anciens officiers supérieurs des forces de l'air devaient comparaître à nouveau devant un tribunal pour répondre à l'accusation selon laquelle ils ont manqué à leur devoir lors de l'agression israélienne de juin 1967.

C'est sous la pression de l'opinion publique et notamment en raison des protestations émanant des ouvriers et des étudiants que ce procès des maréchaux a été repris en février dernier, des milliers d'Egyptiens ayant protesté contre le traitement de faveur dont auraient bénéficié les quatre officiers supérieurs lors de leur premier procès.

JOHANNESBOURG :

Quarante-quatre lingots d'or, pesant chacun plus de 900 g, et représentant une valeur totale de 90.000 rands environ, 600.000 francs français ont été découverts hier dans les lavabos d'un boeing 707 appartenant à une compagnie australienne à l'aéroport de Johannesbourg.

Les lingots qui ne proviennent pas d'Afrique du Sud, ont été trouvés par deux employés de l'aéroport. L'appareil était arrivé dimanche de Sydney via Port-Louis (Ile Maurice).

DES MILLIERS DE PERSONNES CONTINUENT DE SE RENDRE AU CIMETIERE D'ARLINGTON POUR SE RECUEILLIR SUR LA TOMBE DU SENATEUR ROBERT KENNEDY

Des milliers de personnes se sont rendues dimanche au cimetière d'Arlington, près de Washington, pour se recueillir sur la tombe du sénateur Robert Kennedy.

La police a évalué à 3.500 personnes à l'heure, le rythme du lent défilé.

A la Maison Blanche, la journée de deuil national décrétée par le président Johnson a été marquée par un service religieux célébré en présence du président Johnson et de tout le personnel de la résidence présidentielle. Dans toutes les églises, des services religieux spéciaux ont été célébrés à la mémoire du sénateur disparu.

Après l'adieu de la nation américaine au sénateur Robert Kennedy, dont l'assassinat a plongé l'Amérique dans la stupeur et le deuil la campagne électorale, interrompu par sa mort tragique, va reprendre cette semaine aux Etats Unis.

L'Etat-Major du Parti Démocrate devra décider très rapidement comment combler le vide créé par la disparition du sénateur défunt. Pour l'instant deux candidats démocrates sont en présence : Eugène Mccarthy dont la position sur la plupart des problèmes politiques était proche de celle de Robert Kennedy, et Humphrey, vice président des Etats Unis.

On prête à ce dernier l'intention de convaincre le sénateur Edward Kennedy âgé de 36 ans de reprendre le flambeau de son frère Robert et de se présenter comme son co-listier. On ignore toutefois quelle pourrait être la décision de celui-ci.

La campagne électorale mise à part, l'opinion américaine sera préoccupée dans les semaines à venir par le sort des responsables de la violence. Celui de Sirhan Bechara Sirhan, assassin du sénateur Robert Kennedy et de James Earl Ray, assassin présumé du pasteur Martin Luther King, arrêté samedi à Londres. Celui-ci devait comparaître hier devant un tribunal de Londres.

D'autre part, à Paris, les négociations entre américains et Nord Vietnamiens vont reprendre cette semaine. La 8e séance est prévue pour demain mercredi.

La sous commission du sénat américain sur la délinquence juvénile envisage, après l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy, de mener une enquête visant à déterminer si la violence au cinéma et à la télévision contribue à créer l'atmosphère de malaise sociale qui se manifeste aux Etats Unis.

L'information est donnée de source proche du congrès. Au début de la semaine, le président Johnson avait déjà décidé la mise sur pied d'une commission spéciale chargée d'enquêter sur les causes de la violence aux Etats Unis et de proposer des solutions.

Le Pape Paul VI a déclaré que l'assassinat du sénateur Robert Kennedy laissera une marque indélébile non seulement sur l'histoire des Etats Unis, mais également sur la conscience de l'humanité.

Rendant hommage au sénateur devant la foule massée sur la place Saint-Pierre pour recevoir sa bénédiction dominicale, le souverain Pontife a souligné le courage de Robert Kennedy, de son frère président Kennedy et du pasteur Martin Luther King, qui tous deux furent également assassinés.

La situation au Sud Vietnam

Au Sud-Vietnam, les patriotes du Front National de Libération ont une nouvelle fois bombardé aux roquettes et au mortier la capitale du Sud-Vietnam ainsi que six autres villes.

A Saïgon, les objectifs principaux ont été un bâtiment de la police ainsi qu'un pont important reliant la capitale avec les régions situées plus au nord.

La base américaine de An Lao a elle aussi été bombardée. Les dix roquettes qui sont tombées sur la base ont notamment causé des dégâts aux avions et aux installations de la base.

Un bataillon entier de patriotes sud-vietnamiens a attaqué dimanche des unités de la troisième division de « Marines » à 12 km. au sud de la base américaine de Khe Sanh, a annoncé hier matin un porte-parole militaire américain. Cette attaque, qui a été repoussée, a-t-il ajouté, a fait plusieurs morts et blessés parmi les « Marines ».

Simultanément, d'autres éléments du F.N.L. sud-vietnamien ont tendu une embuscade à un convoi de ravitaillement qui se rendait à la base de Khe Sanh, durant sept mois encerclée par les troupes du Front National de Libération sud-vietnamien. Au cours des combats qui en ont résulté de nombreux « Marines » ont été tués et blessés.

Enfin, les bombardiers géants B-52 ont poursuivi samedi et dimanche leur pilonnage des hauts plateaux du Sud-Vietnam. Ils ont effectué cinq attaques contre des objectifs situés à environ 30 km. à l'ouest-nord-ouest de Dak To, près de la frontière laotienne.

Ouverture en France de la campagne pour les élections législatives

C'est dans une France profondément marquée par les événements de mai que s'est ouverte hier la campagne électorale pour les élections législatives des 23 et 30 juin prochain.

Certes, dans les villes et les campagnes, après une paralysie de trois semaines, les trains circulent. Mais tous les travailleurs n'ont pas encore repris le travail.

De nouvelles reprises du travail auront lieu dans la journée, notamment dans l'industrie aéronautique, mais dans le secteur-clé de la métallurgie de la région parisienne, notamment chez Renault, les négociations sont au point mort.

Quant aux universités, beaucoup restent occupées par les étudiants, en particulier celles de Nanterre et de la Sorbonne où naquit l'explosion qui a secoué le pays.

Dernier élément spectaculaire de la situation, la grève persistante des journalistes et techniciens de la télévision d'Etat qui, depuis des semaines, ne diffusent plus de programmes normaux. Revendication majeure des journalistes de l'O.R.T.F. : l'impartialité de l'information télévisée.

Cette lenteur du retour à une situation normale contraste avec l'extrême rapidité dont ont dû faire preuve les partis politiques pour préparer les élections.

Il y a trois semaines encore personne ni dans la majorité, ni dans l'opposition ne pensait sérieusement que l'Assemblée Nationale française, élue il y a 15 mois, allait être dissoute.

M. Pompidou :
« La situation en France ne se présente pas mal »

M. Pompidou recevant le dimanche soir les journalistes à l'Hôtel Matignon a lancé un appel pour la reprise du travail. « Je veux espérer que demain chez Renault comme ailleurs le travail reprendra. La situation ne se présente pas mal. Partout où les scrutins à bulletins secrets ont été organisés une majorité s'est dégagée pour la reprise du travail ».

A propos de la situation universitaire, M. Pompidou a lancé un appel aux professeurs de l'enseignement secondaire pour qu'ils reprennent leur travail, car, a-t-il dit « un lycée n'est pas comme une usine et on ne peut pas demander aux enfants de rattraper le temps perdu à cause de la grève ».

Evoquant les problèmes de l'enseignement supérieur, M. Pompidou a déclaré : « Le gouvernement de la France n'est pas le gouvernement des étudiants, c'est le gouvernement de l'ensemble des Français. Il faut bien que les étudiants s'en accommodent pour que se réalise comme ils le veulent une réforme de l'université ».

Le Premier Ministre a déclaré que l'Union pour la Défense de la République qui est le nouveau sigle gaulliste « n'est pas l'émanation d'un parti puisqu'en plus des députés sortants l'investiture de l'U.D.R. a été donnée à de nombreux candidats originaires de la gauche comme de la droite qui s'étaient séparés du général de Gaulle à l'époque de la guerre d'Algérie et qui ont compris maintenant où était le danger ».

Il a ajouté pour conclure : « Je me félicite du très large écho qu'a reçu l'appel du général de Gaulle en faveur de l'union et de la liberté.

Le Président Tito commente les manifestations des Etudiants Yougoslaves

Le Président Tito, chef de l'Etat yougoslave, a déclaré dimanche soir à Belgrade que les problèmes mis en lumière par le récent mouvement étudiant doivent trouver une solution rapide. Il a ajouté que s'il ne pouvait résoudre ces problèmes, il ne demeurerait pas à la tête de l'Etat. Dans une allocution radiodiffusée et télévisée à travers tout le pays, le Président a dit qu'il comprenait les requêtes de la majorité des étudiants et que le Comité central du Parti communiste yougoslave s'était déjà penché sur les problèmes universitaires. Il a déclaré que si rien n'a été dit à ce sujet, la responsabilité en revient au Parti, et a ajouté que les manifestations des étudiants avaient accéléré les choses.

Les événements étudiants font actuellement l'objet de discussions à une session conjointe du Présidium du P.C. yougoslave et du Comité exécutif qui se déroule à Belgrade.

Le Président Tito estime que les manifestations des étudiants ont débuté spontanément. Mais il a ajouté que, par la suite, les éléments divers, les plus réactionnaires et les plus extrémistes, ont tenté d'accaparer le mouvement et de l'utiliser à leurs propres fins.

Mais il a affirmé que tout comme la classe ouvrière, les étudiants ont fait la preuve de la maturité de leur conscience politique et ont presque à l'unanimité rejeté ces éléments. Il a ajouté que les étudiants yougoslaves ont été négligés et traités comme des écoliers et qu'on ne leur a pas suffisamment donné l'occasion de participer au système d'autogestion tel qu'il est pratiqué en Yougoslavie.

Ceux qui estiment que les désordres étudiants en Yougoslavie ont été provoqués par l'influence des événements de France, d'Allemagne de l'Ouest et de Tchécoslovaquie se trompent, a-t-il dit. Il s'agit en fait d'un reflet des faiblesses de la société yougoslave, a-t-il ajouté.

A travers la presse algérienne :

POUR LIBERER LA PALESTINE, UNE SEULE ISSUE : LA GUERRE REVOLUTIONNAIRE POPULAIRE

L'Agence de presse et les journaux algériennes ont souligné dans leurs éditoriaux et commentaires qu'à présent, pour libérer la Palestine et les autres territoires arabes occupés, la seule issue était la guerre révolutionnaire populaire.

Le quotidien « El Moudjahid » a publié le 5 juin un éditorial dans lequel il réaffirme la position exprimée à maintes reprises par l'Algérie et selon laquelle négocier avec Israël équivaut à une capitulation inconditionnelle. Il est dit dans l'éditorial : il ne peut être question de coexistence entre le système impérialiste et les forces de libération. C'est donc un combat de vie ou de mort qui se déroule pour la nation arabe.

L'erreur trop souvent commise, et notamment le 5 juin 1967, indique par ailleurs le journal, fut de croire à une guerre classique. Ce qu'il faut aujourd'hui pour vaincre l'impérialisme, c'est une authentique guerre révolutionnaire.

La guerre révolutionnaire, c'est d'abord la guerre du peuple.

La mobilisation des masses est un impératif premier.

Le journal a souligné : « Dans les conditions actuelles, le règlement du problème par des soi-disant négociations ne pourrait conduire qu'à la capitulation pure et simple. » « El Moudjahid fait l'éloge du peuple palestinien qui a donné l'exemple dans la lutte anti-impérialiste des peuples arabes.

Sur le même sujet, l'Agence algérie presse service indique dans un commentaire publié le 5 juin qu'un « élément important qui s'est imposé avec plus de vigueur après le 5 juin 1967 concernant la lutte armée des peuples arabes contre l'agression. Le combat libérateur est une nécessité impérieuse... C'est la seule voie qui ne va pas dans le sens de la capitulation et que dicte la dignité nationale. »

Pour sa part, la radio télévision algérienne a, dans la soirée du 5 juin, indiqué dans un commentaire que pour libérer la Palestine, il faut recourir à une guerre de libération, guerre dans laquelle les masses populaires assument un rôle primordial, guerre où seule compte la volonté des masses — leur détermination, leurs sacrifices et leur abnégation.

L'HOMME RECHERCHE POUR L'ASSASSINAT DE MARTIN LUTHER KING ARRETE ET DETENU A LONDRES

James Earl Ray, l'homme recherché depuis l'assassinat, en avril dernier, à Memphis, du pasteur Martin Luther King, a brièvement comparu hier matin devant les magistrats londoniens qui ont décidé son maintien en détention jusqu'au 18 juin.

Ray avait été arrêté samedi à l'aéroport de Londres alors qu'il s'apprêtait à prendre un avion pour Bruxelles. Il était porteur d'un passeport canadien au nom de Ramon George Sneyd. Les policiers avaient trouvé dans sa poche un pistolet. L'audience d'hier matin a duré exactement deux minutes.

Ray a été accusé de port d'arme prohibée et d'usage de faux passeport, seules charges qui peuvent être retenues contre lui par les Britanniques.

Lorsqu'on lui a demandé s'il avait quelque chose à dire, il n'a pas répondu.

En prévision de la comparution de Ray, des mesures de sécurité extraordinaires avaient été prises dès les premières heures de la matinée autour du tribunal.

Deux heures avant l'audience, une foule nombreuse, composée de curieux, de journalistes et de photographes de presse s'était déjà formée devant le tribunal.

Lorsque l'audience s'ouvrit, la salle était comble. Toutes les personnes qui s'y trouvaient avaient été fouillées par les policiers qui tenaient à s'assurer qu'aucune d'entre elles n'était armée.

Dans un coin de la salle avait pris place M. Fred Vinson, Vice-Ministre américain de la Justice, venu à Londres en vue d'accélérer les formalités d'extradition de Ray.

Interrogé par les journalistes, il s'est refusé à toute déclaration.

Dès la fin de l'audience, James Earl Ray a quitté le tribunal à bord d'un fourgon cellulaire que précédait une voiture de police.

VERS LA REPRISE DE L'AIDE BELGE AU CONGO-KINSHASA :

Le général Joseph Mobutu, président de la République démocratique du Congo, a quitté Bruxelles hier pour Rome à l'issue d'une visite privée de deux jours, sur l'invitation du roi Baudouin de Belgique.

Le président Mobutu a été accompagné à l'aéroport par le roi Baudouin.

On croit savoir que le général Mobutu a discuté avec le gouvernement belge de la reprise de l'aide belge au Congo-Kinshasa, suspendue en août dernier à la suite d'incidents anti-belges, et des compensations à l'union minière.

Il s'agit de la première visite en Belgique d'un chef d'Etat congolais depuis l'indépendance de l'ancienne colonie belge il y a huit ans.

M. PALMER EST ATTENDU AUJOURD'HUI A NIAMEY

Joseph Palmer, secrétaire d'Etat américain adjoint chargé des Affaires africaines devait arriver aujourd'hui mardi à Niamey pour une visite de trois jours au Niger dans le cadre de la tournée qu'il effectue actuellement dans seize pays africains.

M. Palmer s'entretiendra notamment avec M. Diori Hamani, président de la République du Niger, ainsi qu'avec des membres du gouvernement et avec M. Boubou Hama, président de l'Assemblée Nationale.

M. Palmer aura également une séance de travail avec une délégation nigérienne, et passera en revue certains projets de l'agence américaine pour le développement international (U.S.A.I.D.).

Du Niger, le secrétaire d'Etat américain adjoint partira le 13 juin pour le Tchad, prochaine étape de sa tournée.

LE GOUVERNEMENT SENEGALAIS A LIBERE LES ETUDIANTS DETENUS

Le gouvernement sénégalais a libéré les étudiants détenus depuis le 29 mai, à la suite de la grève déclenchée par l'Union Démocratique des Etudiants Sénégalais et l'évacuation de l'Université par les autorités.

Le gouvernement sénégalais a d'autre part libéré les derniers dirigeants syndicaux qui étaient détenus à la suite de la grève générale déclenchée par les centrales syndicales et les fédérations corporatives des enseignants.

Hier lundi, les écoles primaires ont rouvert leurs portes et les classes de l'enseignement secondaire ne tarderont pas à suivre.

Quant à l'Université, on ignore encore quel sera son fonctionnement futur. On indique même que les autorités sénégalaises envisageraient sa fermeture pour un an.

Quant au travail, il a maintenant repris dans tous les secteurs.

C'est dans ce climat de confiance retrouvée que s'ouvriront demain 12 juin les conversations tripartites gouvernement-syndicat-patronat.

Cette rencontre ne fait pas suite à la grève, elle avait été prévue depuis plusieurs semaines.

Les conversations auront pour objet essentiel l'examen des revendications des travailleurs, revendications contenues dans un mémorandum qui avait été remis le 6 mai dernier au gouvernement par les syndicats.

Ce mémorandum fait apparaître deux revendications essentielles. Les syndicats demandent d'une part un relèvement des salaires, surtout des bas salaires, d'autre part un contrôle plus rigoureux des prix, notamment des produits de première nécessité, tel que le riz et le sucre.

On pense généralement que le gouvernement répondra favorablement à ces deux revendications, étant entendu que les relèvements de salaires ne pourront se faire que dans les limites des possibilités économiques et financières du pays.

Une troisième revendication des syndicats serait également examinée. La sécurité sociale n'existant pas au Sénégal, les travailleurs voudraient que les patrons prennent entièrement à leur charge les frais médicaux et pharmaceutiques non seulement des salariés mais également de leurs ayants-droits.

Le 13 juin, le président Léopold Sédar Senghor s'adressera à la Nation sénégalaise. Il fera vraisemblablement le point des négociations et, d'une façon plus générale, des événements qui viennent de se produire au Sénégal.

FIN DE SEJOUR DU PRESIDENT MASSEMBA DEBAT EN ROUMANIE

Après une visite officielle de 5 jours en Roumanie à l'invitation de M. Nicolas Ceausescu, M. Alphonse Massemba Débat, président de la République du Congo Brazzaville a quitté Bucarest hier matin. Il a été salué à l'aéroport par M. Nicolas Ceausescu, secrétaire général du Comité Central du Parti Communiste Roumain et de nombreuses personnalités. Une chaude manifestation de sympathie de la part des habitants de Bucarest s'est également manifestée à l'aéroport où nombre d'entre eux s'étaient rendus pour acclamer le Chef de l'Etat congolais.

On sait que le président Alphonse Massemba Debat se rendra à Bonn cette semaine pour une visite de 2 jours en République Fédérale d'Allemagne.

Au cours de sa visite il aura des entretiens avec le Chancelier Kurt Georg Kiesinger. Le lendemain il sera l'hôte à déjeuner du président Heinrich Luebke.

Le 11 juin, le président Massemba Debat regagnera le Congo Brazzaville.

M. RUMOR CHARGE DE FORMER LE NOUVEAU GOUVERNEMENT ITALIEN

M. Giuseppe Saragat, président de la République Italienne, a confié à M. Mariano Rumor, secrétaire du Parti Démocrate Chrétien Italien, la tâche de former le nouveau gouvernement.

Le communiqué de la présidence déclare que M. Saragat a demandé à M. Rumor de procéder à des sondages sur la possibilité de constituer un nouveau gouvernement, « estimant qu'une étude plus approfondie des attitudes des diverses forces parlementaires est nécessaire. »

Le président Saragat avait commencé ses consultations pour la formation d'un nouveau gouvernement quand les socialistes à la suite de leurs pertes aux dernières élections régionales avaient annoncé leur intention de se retirer de la coalition de centre-gauche.

La Démocratie chrétienne doit maintenant envisager de former un gouvernement de minorité, peut-être avec l'appoint du petit parti républicain.

A Rome, les observateurs politiques estiment que M. Mariano Rumor doit faire face à une tâche bien difficile et certains estiment qu'il [illegible] pour l'instant.

SUBJECT : Norwegian Press Reaction to Kennedy Assassination; Government Representatives Head Memorial Service Attendees

REF : A-643 and A-652

As did their counterparts in the American press world, Norwegian newspapers in general reacted editorially to the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy by refusing to condemn an entire nation while pointing to a troubled American society.

"Aftenposten" (Conservative), Norway's largest daily, noted that "in less than five years murder has robbed the American nation---and the world---of three lightning personalities who combined a compassionate idealism with sound realism and the God-like ability to inspire and lead men towards a better, safer and more humane world. The shock, the horror and despair of seeing political murder about to become a norm can shatter the belief of many Americans and others that 'God's own country' offers its citizens the highest freedom and the best future...Americans are proud of their traditions...Unfortunately...the traditions of violence belong to the American heritage...But (the death of Senator Kennedy) will not have been in vain if it opens the eyes of more Americans to the necessity of changing the material, social and cultural conditions which are a threat to their society and to confidence in the greatest of all democracies." The Center Party paper "Nationen" was concerned with the "mentality of violence in the United States", a concern shared by "Morgenbladet" (independent, conservative), which noted that democratic societies in the Western world are being hit by a wave of violence against which they can only protect themselves to a limited degree. "Democracy has its martyrs" was the summation of "Verdens Gang", another independent, conservative daily.

The Labor daily "Arbeiderbladet", described President Kennedy and Senator Kennedy as "idealists without illusions". The death of Senator Kennedy represented "a new American tragedy" which must result in an "extensive self-examination."

Only "Dagbladet", the sensationalist Liberal daily, based its editorial statement on the belief that the assassination showed that "there is something sick in a society where such a thing can happen again and again."

Official Reaction

Prime Minister Per Borten, interviewed on radio, spoke of the "great tragedy" and pointed out that large parts of world society are presently marred by "an apparent disintegration of social order and the rule of law, the very basis for a meaningful dialogue...Instead of respecting the individual right to security and to criticize, violent methods are being used...We should pay attention to this phenomenon in this country as well..." Both the Prime Minister and Foreign Minister John Lyng sent their condolences to the Kennedy family.

At an Embassy-arranged memorial service on Saturday, June 8, at St. Olav's Cathedral, the Norwegian Government was represented by Church and Education Minister Kjell Bondevik, Foreign Minister Lyng, and Defense Minister Otto Grieg Tidemand. Members of the Norwegian military services and high-ranking officials of the civil service, were present, as were members of the Oslo diplomatic corps. The church was crowded 45 minutes before the memorial service began with young Norwegians by far the largest group of attendees. The requiem mass was celebrated by the Bishop of Oslo, John Gran.

Condolence books of signatures gathered in the Embassy and at the United States Information Office at Tromso were sent under separate cover.

SUBJECT : Zambian Reactions to Senator Robert Kennedy's Assassination

REF : Lusaka 2022; Lusaka A-456 of June 12, 1968; Lusaka 2085; Lusaka A-461 of June 17, 1968

SUMMARY. Zambian reactions to Senator Robert F. Kennedy's assassination were extraordinarily strong and often bitterly anti-American, leading to a good number of intemperate comments. The major significance of these reactions may lie in the feelings of unfulfilled expectation that they represent, leading too many Zambians--both leaders and followers--to conclude wrongly that it is America and Americans which have frustrated the hopes they placed on Senator Kennedy. The leaders' misinterpretation of the American political scene may seriously affect their attitude toward relations with the United States and poison the average man's view of American society. END SUMMARY.

Nature and Strength of the Zambian Reactions

The major reactions to Senator Kennedy's assassination were reported by unclassified cable (Lusaka 2022) and airgram (A-456). In most cases the immediate shock was followed by strongly emotional expressions of anger and frustration directed against the United States. Private reactions reported to us were particularly strong. One Zambian civil servant told a Negro American friend, "I'm so angry I feel like going over to the American Embassy and breaking some windows." (Fortunately nobody succumbed to such impulses.) Education Minister Arthur Wina, talking to Ambassador Good right after hearing the news of Senator Kennedy's death, said something to the following effect: "Personal feelings aside, this is shocking; it is too much. People are saying some pretty bad things." (Presumably he meant that some of his colleagues were saying bad things about the United States.)

On Thursday evening June 6, the head of Zambia's Television News, Otto Vibetti, strongly implied a link between the two Kennedy assassinations and that of Martin Luther King. Vice President Kapwepwe, whom Vibetti was interviewing, then repeated his earlier statement that the act was "primitive, barbaric and undemocratic" (A-456). After hearing a condemnatory radio news talk the next morning and reading newspaper reports of reactions suggesting that the assassination was plotted by "those in power" in the United States (A-456), the Embassy was concerned at what President Kaunda might say when he made a scheduled speech on his arrival at the airport late June 7 from East Africa, particularly if he reacted without knowing that the accused assassin was not even an American. Accordingly, the Embassy sought to get a message to him with some additional information before he left East Africa (Lusaka 2015), but the message was too late and Kaunda cast his remarks in terms of a protest to the Government of the United States (see full text, Lusaka A-461).

As reported in Lusaka 2022, the atmosphere at the airport was not very friendly. Some unknown persons--probably senior party people--within the VIP enclosure shouted epithets like, "Johnson is a murderer," during President Kaunda's speech. Some of the Ministers and other senior Zambians at the airport ceremony exhibited an attitude of definite withdrawal.

The next evening, following the Requiem Mass at St. Ignatius Catholic Church, almost no Zambians came up to the Ambassador to express their personal condolences, although a number of other people did so. Kapwepwe and Kamanga, who attended, made no move to speak to the Ambassador. One had the feeling that their attendance and their signing of the book of condolence was intended solely as a sign of respect for the late Senator. The only Cabinet Minister who called to express condolences directly to the Ambassador was Dr. K. Konoso (Natural Resources and Tourism), who has always been personally friendly.

Of the 433 entries in the Embassy's book of condolence, fewer than 100 were by Zambians, but the idea of a condolence book is probably new even to some of the more senior Zambians. A much larger proportion of the 420 entries in a similar book opened privately at the Edinburgh Hotel in Kitwe was Zambian. Initiative for the Kitwe book came from a young Irishman, Stewart A. Marchant, who is a long-time admirer of the Kennedy family.

Although Ambassador Good, at the request of the Times of Zambia, issued a statement (Enclosure 8 of Lusaka A-456) indirectly but firmly refuting the quoted comments of prominent officials who suggested Kennedy was killed by a conspiracy of "those in power," he decided that the blatancy of such allegations by senior public officials also demanded an official protest. Accordingly, he wrote the Minister of Foreign Affairs a letter (Enclosure 1, also summarized in Lusaka 2080) taking exception to these allegations and trying to put recent events into perspective so that the Minister could see why the allegations were both wrong and harmful. To date the Minister has not replied through diplomatic channels, but he revealed the fact of the Ambassador's protest to the government-owned Zambia Mail, answering it indirectly by an interview in which he spoke of U.S. politics as the "politics of gunpowder" and implied disbelief that the recent assassination could be anything other than part of a plot (see clipping, Enclosure 2). At the Department's suggestion the Embassy decided not to respond further to the discourtesy (Lusaka 2085, State 185070 and Lusaka 2113).

Significance of the Zambian Reactions

The esteem in which President John F. Kennedy was held throughout the world was revealed only by his death. To many, John F. Kennedy represented the promise of an idealized version of the United States and what it has tried to stand for in terms of human rights ever since the "shot heard 'round the world" in 1775. Senator Robert F. Kennedy inherited the "Kennedy myth"--the presumption that things would have been different, and that the world would have been a better place to live in, had President Kennedy not been killed. For many Zambians, as for many others, the myth was extended by the hope that Robert F. Kennedy might fulfill the promise they visualized in his brother.

"We can't see what part the Kennedy family is going to play in the politics of the United States." was Kaunda's pathetic lament, "there is only one young man now left in that family. How can it be?"

What is interesting and significant is that Zambians were indeed participants in the Kennedy myth and may unconsciously consider themselves members--even if only second class--of the free Western world he represented. Their devotion to Kennedy and the ideal view of the United States he represented would not attach to Che Guevara, whose death produced no visible reaction here, or to Mao Tse-Tung or to other heroes of the revolutionary left, and it is hard to imagine Zambians reacting similarly to such an event elsewhere at the present time. Kennedy obviously was a hero who belonged to them as well as the U.S.

When the Ambassador put a question about this to Naphy Nyalugwe, author of the bitter radio news talk about violence in American society, Nyalugwe's answer was simply that "we expected so much from America" and the Kennedys represented the "much" that was expected. In brief, Zambian feelings about the loss of Kennedy is that something--if only a promise--has been taken away from them personally.

Why, if this was the case, did Zambians direct their feelings against the country of which Kennedy was a part, which he himself loved and represented, and many of whose citizens were his most active supporters? Disillusionment is probably one answer--this being a function of the extent to which illusions were earlier entertained about the willingness and ability of the U.S. to do something about the problems of greatest importance to Africa. Because American society and its potential were probably over-idealized before, it becomes difficult now to accept the society for what it is, and the great remaining values are thought to be as false as the illusory ideals were. Now, as a result, American society is over-villified.

This phenomenon is influenced by a natural tendency of Zambians to interpret American politics in the only frame of reference they are familiar with. When Senator Kennedy said (as he did in one of the TV newsreel film clips shown here) that "those in power are the principal divisive force in the U.S." and that "President Johnson is the principal divisive force," Zambians see Kennedy as a revolutionary nationalist fighting reactionary imperialism and racialism. Inconceivable to them is the assumed framework of consensus within which political contenders in the United States operate. The areas of agreement which Americans so often take for granted between such contenders (whether in the same party or in different parties) are missed by most Zambians, who therefore imagine our political conflicts to be sharper and deeper than they are. Hence the search for a logical source of an assassination conspiracy is directed toward the normal political arena, and the idea that such an act could be carried out by a politically insignificant individual or group is rejected out of hand. Some would concede the possibility of a criminally deranged assassin but cannot envision such a person acting on his own (Enclosure 2).

Effects of the Reactions

The danger in these reactions is twofold. First, at the leadership level, there is a blind downgrading of the United States as a nation with which Zambia should be concerned to keep a good working relationship, to write it off as a source of genuine understanding and potential help. This may be short term, we hope it is, but it is accentuated at the moment by the feeling some Zambians may have that since the United States is unwilling to support an activist policy against Rhodesia and South Africa, since it has been unforthcoming in its attitude toward Zambia's self-assessed defense needs, and since it is rapidly reducing its AID program, it must not be on Zambia's side and is therefore more likely a potential enemy than a friend.

What the leaders may conceptualize in figurative terms, the average man may take literally. Thus, while the leaders may readjust their view of the U.S. after a while, their emotional outbursts condemning American society may do more permanent damage by poisoning the average man's view of the U.S.

Either way the result is harmful to relations between the U.S. and Zambia. Although there is no way to prove that it is not just normal bureaucratic inefficiency, it may be significant that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs has taken no action since June 6 to approve the names of some Exchange Visitor Travel Grantees which were selected some time ago although the Ministry is fully aware the money for their travel will be lost if not obligated before June 30. We have a feeling, perhaps wrong, that they have consciously decided not to let these people accept U.S. grants at this time.

The foregoing points to the need for a determined educational effort on our part to combat the false ideas being propagated by senior Zambian leaders. Since President Kaunda is himself deeply and emotionally involved, however, this will not be an easy task. Ideally, our efforts should include an attempt to persuade senior Zambian officials to adhere to the niceties of diplomacy. Success in such an endeavor would enable us to refute false and unfair allegations without becoming involved in emotionally charged public interchanges that must inevitably have an adverse impact on governmental relations. In present circumstances our approach will probably have to be confined to the informal level. Nevertheless, when the Ambassador returns from his current trip to East Africa it may be useful to consider whether and how the subject can be raised tactfully with President Kaunda, for if we are unable to interpret our country objectively to the Zambians and seek their understanding, the relations between our two countries will almost certainly be subjected to further unnecessary strains in the future.

EDMONDSON

AMBASSADOR GOOD'S LETTER TO FOREIGN MINISTER KAMANGA

My Dear Mr. Minister:

I must take the most vigorous exception to recent statements by senior members of the Zambian Government, as reported in the press, that the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy was "schemed by those in power," that he was killed by a "mercenary" (by implication, a "mercenary" of those in power), and that "to survive as President in America today one has to be a thug."

America has lost one of her noblest sons at the hands, not of an American but (if the accused is found guilty) a foreigner evidently deranged by an issue having nothing to do whatsoever with American domestic problems. It is a matter to me of official concern and personal sorrow that in these sad circumstances I, my country and the Government I represent have been made the object of abuse--much of which would seem appropriate only for governments standing in an adversary relationship.

I can understand the deep emotions which have welled up in Zambia following this appalling event, for these emotions and sentiments, I can assure you, are more profound by far in America. Bob Kennedy was after all an American, devoted to America and to humane ideals (ideals which alas we, as perhaps all nations, fall far short of realizing) and acknowledged by most Americans, even those who did not agree with him, as a young leader of vision and dedication.

I can understand your abhorence of blind hate and violence, for today this abhorence is almost an obsession among Americans who have been cast again into national mourning and personal grief by a violent act. I can only invite your understanding of the vast forces which history has unleashed in America and with which we now are grappling--problems of human relationships as we pursue our revolution for equal opportunity in our heterogeneous, melting-pot society; problems of international responsibility which bring to our very doorstep every contentious issue which unsettles our troubled world--all of which can be, have been, and will continue to be productive of violent reactions within my country.

I can understand your shock at what must appear to be America's recklessness with the lives of its eminent men. We Americans are shocked three-fold--and deeply perplexed. We have rightly been accused of lax gun-control laws which now, thank God, are at last being rectified. But the tightest controls that can be devised will not prevent a madman from illegally obtaining a lethal weapon, and the best Secret Service in the world did not save John Kennedy when he insisted on riding in an open car. Our tradition, of which we are rightly proud, is open political competition with total access to the public. Bob Kennedy himself was recently asked about the danger of assassination and replied that there was no way to protect a candidate for the Presidency since he must give himself to the people. Clearly we will have to do better for the price we have paid is intolerable--but the problem, objectively considered, is great. No candidate for major office in America welcomes the constraint of Secret Service protection.

These various emotions and views I can understand, even as I invite you to a greater understanding of the environment in America which has produced them. What I can neither understand nor accept, Mr. Minister, is the notion that "those in power" in America today have somehow perpetrated Senator Kennedy's assassination or that the American Government is in the hands of a "thug." These are truly diabolical assertions--and constitute an unwitting, but I believe an open invitation to "hate America," an attitude which is likely if perpetuated to contribute to, rather than diminish, those terrible and senseless forces of irrationality which are the common enemy of us all.

Yours sincerely,

Robert C. Good
American Ambassador

Kamanga replies to US protest

LUSAKA, Thursday. — The United States embassy here has protested against Zambia's reaction to the assassination last week of Senator Robert Kennedy. The Foreign Minister, Mr Reuben Kamanga, said the protest note implied that Zambia blamed the Senator's death on the US Government.

But Mr Kamanga emphasized that this was a misunderstanding of Zambia's view which was outlined by President Kaunda on his return from his visit to Kenya and Uganda last week.

Mr Kamanga said: "This is not what the people of Zambia are saying. What they are saying, is that American politics have become politics of gunpowder — whether they admit it or not."

Condemned

The minister, who accompanied President Kaunda on his East African tour, said the Note was handed in by the US Ambassador, Mr Robert Good — who was among the foreign diplomats who welcomed President Kaunda at Lusaka International Airport on his return.

Mr Kamanga said: "It is not good to hide something bad — it must be condemned for what it is. The American people must prove they are decent and disassociate themselves from this very bad thing which has occurred so frequently in recent years."

It was difficult to believe that the death of Senator Kennedy, or that of his brother President John Kennedy and civil rights leader Dr Martin Luther King, could be the work of mad men. Even then, "a mad man can be used as an instrument", the minister pointed out.

Mr Kamanga said it was "far-fetched" to suggest that Senator Kennedy was assassinated because of the pro-Israel remarks he had made sometime back on the Middle East situation.

"Could he have died just for this?" Mr Kamanga asked. "Why are the people who actually supply the (war) materials left untouched? We don't know who has been committing the murders but there has definitely been some careful planning."

Zambia wanted friendship with America like other countries but this did not mean fearing to speak out on such important, international matters as political assassinations, the minister said.

On his return from East Africa, President Kaunda commented on the death of the Kennedys and Dr King: "We must make our view known to the American Government. We fail to understand that leaders of that type . . . can be assassinated at all."

The President criticised what he called "a very strange pattern" where outstanding leaders could only be protected when they were dead. He said 500 police officers had been at New York airport only to receive Robert Kennedy's dead body.

President Kaunda said: "We regard those people who strike at the international problems as our friends. Bobby Kennedy was one of the few American leaders who identified himself with the poor. For a rich man to come down and speak the voice of the poor," he declared, "is not an easy thing to achieve."

SUMMARY

The assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy caused reactions of shock and dismay among Iranians. Official response seemed delayed, apparently because of the absence of the Shah in Ethiopia, but after June 7 prominent Iranian officials expressed their sympathy in the Condolence Book at the Embassy and to Embassy officers. Press coverage was closely monitored and generally straight-forward, though some editorials were critical of the climate of violence alleged to exist in the United States. Many Iranians profess to believe that the assassination was a plot, possibly connected with the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King. The GOI's handling of the news showed its sensitivity on the subject of assassination and to the possibility of an emotional reaction with political overtones.

* * * * * * * *

The shooting and death of Senator Robert Kennedy caused reactions of shock and dismay among Iranians, many of whom keenly admired the Senator and the late President Kennedy as the leaders of a new outlook in politics, concerned for peace and the underprivileged. The Senator's campaign for the Presidency has attracted considerable attention here, and the impact of his death was heightened by the recent assassination of Martin Luther King.

Official Reactions and other Condolences

The Shah, in Ethiopia at the time of the shooting, sent a cable to Mrs. Kennedy expressing his sympathy and that of the Empress. After the Senator's death, the Shah sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Kennedy and a similar message to President Johnson. Prime Minister Hoveyda sent a message to Mrs. Kennedy on June 7 or 8, and Foreign Minister Zahedi sent one to the Secretary of State.

During the four-day period in which the Embassy Condolence Book was open for signature, over 300 persons came in to express their sympathy and regrets. Prime Minister Hoveyda led the list of Iranian Government officials who came to the Embassy in person. (The book is currently being bound and will be submitted separately, along with letters of condolence that have been received). There was some delay in the expression of official regrets to the Embassy, apparently caused by the usual hesitancy of Government leaders during the Shah's absence. A number of Iranian officials personally telephoned officers of the Embassy to express their sympathy and concern.

Authorities in Tabriz broadcast a notice concerning the Condolence Book at the Consulate, which was signed by the Governor-General, Military Commanders, and approximately 100 others. The American Consul in Khorramshahr reported that Iranians were shocked and grieved, and that many went out of their way to express their sympathy. The news was received with dismay in Isfahan, although few persons called or visited the Consulate to express their condolences. A memorial service was held in the Anglican church in Shiraz. In Meshed, few came to the Consulate, but there was considerable discussion among local residents about the motivation for the assassination.

Press Coverage and Editorial Reaction

During the days immediately following the shooting and the death of the Senator, press coverage was limited. Not until Saturday, June 8, was the story given heavy play in the press. Editorials then began appearing which lamented the assassination and praised the Senator's principles and his qualities of leadership. A number of editorials commented on the climate of violence in a society where guns are readily available, and speculated about the meaning of the assassinations of President Kennedy, Senator Kennedy, and Martin Luther King. Echo commented June 17 that the press had become indifferent to the US' presidential campaign after the assassination, and was reporting mainly on the crime itself.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Plot Theories

Iranians, who are inclined to see plots and nefarious machinations in many events, have put forward a number of theories blaming the assassination on a plot concocted by persons opposed to Senator Kennedy because of one or more of his policies (e.g. Viet-Nam and/or racial integration). Iranians are even more receptive to this type of thinking because of the recent assassination of Martin Luther King and memories of the death of President Kennedy; some attempt to link the three assassinations.

U.S. Community

Charge d'Affaires Robert H. Harlan sent a message to all Americans in Tehran giving guidance on matters relating to the assassination. Special prayers were offered at church services attended by the American community.

COMMENT

The early hesitation in official and press attention to the assassination reflects the confused conduct of affairs caused by the Shah's absence, and was not a deliberate affront to the United States. The GOI seemed concerned that extensive and graphic coverage of the assassination might stimulate similar thoughts or actions by Iranians. It is not improbable that the GOI was also concerned over a public emotional reaction that could have turned into a manifestation of opposition sentiment, although this concern would seem to us exaggerated.

Chadian reaction to the assassination was one primarily of dismay. There was a feeling that Senator Kennedy was in a sense "their" man. They had looked to him to continue the programs of his brother which they believed would contain bold initiatives in foreign affairs not only in the field of reducing cold war tension but also with respect to the underdeveloped "third world".

The Chadian press, which consists of a government radio and a government newspaper, gave detailed and sympathetic coverage to the assassination. President Tombalbaye sent a personal telegraphic message of condolence to President Johnson and the Kennedy family. Foreign Minister Baroum also sent a telegraphic message of condolence to Secretary Rusk.

On June 9 a commerative service was held for the American community at the Ambassador's residence. The Catholic Archbishop of Fort Lamy on June 10 said a requiem mass in memory of Senator Kennedy. The mass was attended by many in the American community, some Chadians and French, and the full diplomatic corps including the Soviet Union and the Sudan, although the United States does not have diplomatic relations with the latter.

The June 13 issue of the Soviet Daily News contained another article on the RFK murder, but this time in Amharic. The piece reported remarks allegedly made by Arthur Schlesinger, Prof. David Abraham, and Prof. John Spiegel, a psychologist, to the effect that the U. S. is a sick and profoundly violent nation.

A translation of the article follows:

"National Shame: Many Americans have said that the killing of Senator Robert Kennedy is a national shame.

"The aide of the late President John F. Kennedy, the well-known historian Arthur Schlesinger, in a statement said: 'America is a violent country; violence is in the flesh and blood of the country', he said, reporting his grief.

"Schlesinger stated that America, by pursuing the Vietnam war, by killing via murderers President John Kennedy, Martin Luther King and Senator Robert Kennedy, has made herself into a country feared by the people of the world.

"Further, Prof. David Abraham reported that there is no other civilized country in the world as violent as America. The killing of John F. Kennedy opened a new chapter in violence, he said.

"Prof. John Spiegel, professor of psychology, said that American youth are raised in an attitude of violence and domination, and criticized that in America bullets were seen as a solution to disagreements."

SUBJECT : Lesotho Expresses Condolence on the Death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy

REF : Maseru 563 and 582

Once again an American tragedy has caused the Basotho people to suspend, if only momentarily, their political differences and join together to express their sympathy and condolence to the people and Government of the United States and, particularly, to the family of the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy. In addition to the messages sent by the Prime Minister (Maseru 563), countless Basotho and other residents of Lesotho took the time to express their profound shock at the tragedy through telephone calls, calls in person at the Embassy and United States Information Service (where books of condolence were opened), and calls at the residences of American officers. Peace Corps Director David R. SHERWOOD issued the following statement to the press on first learning of the attempt on the Senator's life:

> "President Kennedy was the father of the Peace Corps. His brother helped nurture that child. When Senator Kennedy was hurt this morning we felt the pain, and our work for equality and justice became more important."

A memorial service was held at the Anglican Church on the day of the Senator's burial. Two days later, a Solemn Concelebrated Requiem Mass was held at the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Our Lady of Victories in Maseru, attended by the King, Prime Minister and virtually all other dignitaries of the realm.

Enclosed for transmission to the Kennedy family are several written messages of sympathy and the pages from the Embassy and USIS condolence books containing the signatures of, among others, the Prime Minister, other Government Ministers, leaders of the opposition, and the Roman Catholic Archbishop.

The Embassy transmitted to the Department (AFS), on June 13, a complete set of clippings from the Cape daily press showing local newspaper coverage of the assassination of Senator Kennedy.

From Saturday, June 8, press coverage of the matter continued to be extensive but shifted its emphasis to concern over violence in the US and speculation over the Presidential campaign.

The Embassy and Consulate General opened a condolence book from the afternoon of June 7 through June 12, which was signed by some four hundred persons representing a broad cross-section of the community. A list of the notable signers is attached. Also among those signing the book were the Counsellor and Information Attache of the Rhodesian diplomatic mission and the locally-resident consular representative of Rhodesia.

We have also transmitted (to AFS) one copy of the June 12 issue of Varsity, University of Cape Town student paper, which recalls the Senator's visit to UCT in 1966, at the invitation of the National Union of South African Students, to deliver the Day of Affirmation speech which Senator Edward Kennedy quoted at length in his eulogy at the funeral mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

We plan to conclude our reporting of the assassination by forwarding,

SUBJECT : Guyanese Reaction to the Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy

REF :

SUMMARY

Guyanese saw in the Kennedy murder the loss of another supporter of the American Negro less than two months after the similar death of Dr. Martin Luther King. Initial anger was somewhat tempered by the nationality of the accused slayer, but there were still expressions that the assassination was another indication of a "sick America." This trend of thought, which includes suspicion of conspiracy against those favoring assistance to the Negroes and the poor, was pushed hard in the official statement of the communist-led opposition party (PPP) but indirectly countered by statements by Guyanese government leaders. In short, each side tended to think not only of the U.S. but also of the manifestations for the situation in Guyana.

* * * * * * *

1. Following by less than two months the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, the murder of Senator Robert F. Kennedy shocked and saddened this country. Official commentary and editorial opinion generally were not as critical of the U.S. as in the death of Dr. King, however.

2. Official comment on the slaying tended to link the slayings of Dr. King and Senator Kennedy. Said Prime Minister Burnham: "It was Martin Luther King, now it is Robert Kennedy to die at the hands of an assassin." But the Prime Minister also sounded an abvious warning to Guyanese that political murder is "an irrational short-cut to anarchy and chaos which no thinking person can tolerate." Similarly, Attorney General and Minister of State S. S. Ramphal said: "The victim was Robert Kennedy; but the assassins were those people everywhere who peddle hate, whether as persons or groups within nations or as between nations themselves when they promote dogma and intolerance. The hand that struck down Senator Kennedy was in this sense the same hand that struck down Gandhi and Martin Luther King. The world is too short of gifted and dedicated men of this kind for us to destroy them when they yet have so much to give."

3. His statement was motivated in part by a desire to counter a particularly vicious statement by the PPP. The PPP General Secretary, Janet Jagan, who has a valid claim to American citizenship, linked the assassination of Senator Kennedy with that of Martin Luther King and Malcolm X as exposing "the sickness and decadence of present-day American society. In a country where violence is the official policy towards its own people and peoples of the third world one can hardly be surprised that this violence has infected the whole society. It is clear that the extreme right-wing fanatical fascist elements have declared war on radicals, progressives, and even liberals. America once again appeared before the world exposed as a vicious brutal monster. The PPP extends sympathy to the wife and children of Senator Robert Kennedy."

4. Part of this theme was mildly echoed to a degree by the Young Socialist Movement, youth arm of Prime Minister Burnham's People's National Congress (PNC). The YSM saw the slaying as directed against leaders who champion the cause of oppressed minorities, e.g., Negroes. "The conclusion is inescapable that violence is a way of life, an integral part of American society," the YSM statement said.

5. Editorial opinion was considerably more restrained. A first Guyana Graphic editorial eulogized the role Senator Kennedy could have played in American life, but made no comment on American society. A week after the slaying, Lucian, the Graphic's editorial page columnist, wrote what was actually a strong pro-U.S. column. "I cannot reconcile American society, with its violent upsurge of primitive vitality, with a sick society," Lucian noted. He praised the U.S. Government for "leaving open the avenues for protest ... in spite of the turmoil of the society." Still, he chided Congress for not "removing the causes which lie in the economy and the social structure."

6. This was much the same message of the Evening Post which was critical of Congress for not taking faster action to curb the sale of guns or increase taxes to prevent inflation. "These men who form the United States Congress, by their doubtful and selfish motives, are imperiling the lives of many," the Evening Post said. The Mirror, unofficial organ of the PPP, in an editorial titled "Where is Safety?" said the U.S. is a society "which cannot tolerate reformers who appear likely to achieve even a modicum of reform." In a subsequent editorial, it called again for the removal from Guyana of Peace Corps volunteers who are "products of a gangster society."

7. The New Nation, the PNC weekly party newspaper, saw a "breakdown of social stability in the U.S.A.--not in the context of race relations--but in the fabric of the society where political murders seem to be the easy substitute for the will of the people." Seconding Prime Minister Burnham's statement, the New Nation also expressed the hope that "Guyanese do learn that such acts of barbarism lead to the breakdown of social and institutional frameworks" within any society.

8. The Government of Guyana ordered its flag flown at half-staff on Sunday, June 9, but there was no official ceremony marking the assassination. This was in contrast to a government-sponsored memorial rally in honor of Dr. King.

9. Enclosed for appropriate Department action is the Book of Condolence which was opened at the USIS John F. Kennedy Library. It was signed by more than 1,500 persons, including the Governor-General and several Cabinet Ministers.

SUBJECT : Israeli Ambassador's Letter to Le Monde

REF :

Israeli Ambassador Walter EYTAN wrote a letter which appeared in the June 11 issue of Le Monde. It is translated here in its entirety because it gives the full measure of Israeli indignation and exasperation not only at Le Monde's handling of Robert KENNEDY's assassination but the entire attitude Le Monde, and beyond it, officials in the French Government have demonstrated toward the situation in the Middle East.

Several phrases give the flavor:

"No compassion whatsoever for a family cruelly afflicted..."

"Instead indulgent comprehension for the assassin and his supposed motives..."

"Admit that this is something to cause profound indignation even to those of your readers who believe themselves long since immune to the by far too partial positions you take in the Israeli-Arab conflict..."

REF : SD-2778 POL 6 US/KENNEDY, ROBERT F

1. On June 8th the enclosed printed flyer was distributed in Santo Domingo, apparently by the PRD. A translation is attached as Enclosure 1.

2. Comment:

A. Neither the Political Section nor CAS have any evidence to indicate that the flyer is other than PRD in origin, although it may well be the work of the JRD rather than of the National Executive Committee itself. It is difficult to assign responsibility for the handout and to decide the question of whether it accurately reflects the official party line; although it did not appear on the streets until after Secretary General PEÑA Gómez and Press and Propaganda Secretary "Manny" ESPINAL had left for the US and the Kennedy funeral, they may have been aware of the flyer's contents prior to their departure. Embassy officers plan to discuss the matter with the PRD leaders after their return to the DR, and will report any significant new information obtained.

B. The handout reflects aspects of recent speeches by Sec. Gen. PEÑA Gómez, Organization Secretary "Rafa" GAMUNDI and Organization Office Director Napoleon NUÑEZ, including some following Senator Kennedy's assassination. On the June 11 PRD radio program Gamundi linked the fighting "Northamerican revolutionaries" with their counterparts in the DR and elsewhere; and on the June 8 radio program Nuñez mentioned a list of "martyred revolutionaries" (including "Che" Guevara) similar to that contained in the flyer.

C. The PRD handout certainly scales new heights of radical revolutionary rhetoric (for the PRD), and some of the martyrs in the

As noted in the referenced telegram, it is too early to know whether this more extremist propaganda line is simply the product of frustration and distress over the Kennedy death, or whether they reflect a more fundamental shift (or advance) in party policy.

SUMMARY

The death of Senator Robert Kennedy caused profound shock and sorrow in Uruguay. The grief felt by Uruguayans over the Senator's death was reflected by the large number of people who visited the Embassy, sent letters or telegrams, or made other gestures expressing their sorrow. Uruguay's President and Foreign Minister sent condolence messages to President Johnson and Secretary Rusk respectively, and the Senate held a special session in Senator Kennedy's memory. The Senator's death was widely mourned in the press, with the majority of papers concentrating their comments on the tragedy and the Senator himself rather than criticizing American society.

X X X X X

The people of Uruguay were shocked and grieved by the sudden violent death of Senator Robert Kennedy. As soon as news reached Uruguay on June 5 that the Senator had been shot, Uruguayans began to visit, telephone, wire, and write to the Embassy to express their sorrow. By June 14, approximately 1,600 people had visited the Embassy or the Embassy Residence and signed the condolence books which had been set up at both places. Approximately 150 letters and telegrams of condolence had been received by the Embassy as of June 14, and these were continuing to arrive at the rate of about ten per day. One particularly noteworthy letter, signed by over thirty fourth-year (age 15 and 16) students from a Montevideo secondary school, expressed the students' deep grief over the loss to a "world hungry for peace" of this "shining figure", and their "profound anxiety in the face of events like this, which . . . raise doubts over the destiny of mankind . . ." The students expressed their sympathies for the people of the United States and especially for the Kennedy family, which "has nurtured with its blood enterprises which deserve the consideration of all their fellow men." Another noteworthy gesture was that of an Uruguayan lady who brought an attractive silk Uruguayan flag to the Embassy and asked that it be forwarded to the Kennedy family. In the interior town of Salto, the City Council resolved to name a street after Senator Kennedy. On June 8 in Montevideo, several hundred persons attended a Memorial Mass held in the Senator's honor at a local Catholic Church.

The President of Uruguay, Jorge PACHECO Areco, expressed his sorrow in a cable to President Johnson on June 5, after Senator Kennedy had been shot, and again in another cable to President Johnson on June 6 after the Senator had died. Foreign Minister Venancio FLORES also sent cables to Secretary Rusk after the shooting and after the Senator's death. On the floor of the Uruguayan Senate, several Senators on June 5 expressed their deep concern over this act of senseless violence against an outstanding American leader. On June 6, after the Senator had died, the Senate held a special session to render homage to his memory.

The Uruguayan press gave heavy coverage from June 6 - 9 to the shooting and death of the Senator. One daily newspaper, El Día, published a special eight-page edition on June 6 devoted exclusively to Senator Kennedy's life and death. Almost all newspapers carried editorials expressing grief and dismay at the untimely death of an outstanding American leader who had championed the cause of underprivileged peoples and nations. Some editorials went on to express concern over the increasing frequency of violent acts in the United States and other countries, and several editorials asked how it could be that such events are occuring in the most advanced nation in the world. For the most part, the editorials which raised this type of question did not seek to provide answers or to indict American society as a whole for the death of the Senator. One newspaper, the large-circulation Colorado List 15 daily Acción, firmly reasserted its faith in the American people with the statement that "the people of the United States, who have created the greatness of their nation, deeply moral, vigorous, optimistic, and vital, undoubtedly must be suffering disconsolately from this unexpected and stupid deed."

Two small-circulation newspapers, Extra (Colorado-Segovia) and El Debate (Blanco-Echegoyen), made critical references to U.S. foreign policy in their editorials on Senator Kennedy. El Debate, the organ of the Blanco Party's most nationalistic and right-wing faction, said that it sincerely regretted Senator Kennedy's death even though his country has not always "adjusted its international conduct to the strict canons of impartial and respectful co-existence among nations". Extra lamented the loss of Senator Kennedy because "he did not hesitate to criticize a foreign policy recently conducted under the banner of error and aggression". The Extra editorial specifically mentioned U.S. policy in Viet Nam and U.S. "sponsorship . . . of economic and social formulas and prescriptions which have only provoked disturbances in the life of our people", as policies which it has hoped Senator Kennedy would be able to redirect.

The far-left press used Senator Kennedy's death to launch sharp attacks against the United States. As of June 15 the Communist Party organ El Popular was still carrying editorials or articles almost every day under such headlines as "Society of Crime", "Democracy of Gangsters", "Crime Pays", "Weapons Rule in the U.S.", and "Who Will be Next -- The Society of Hate, Violence, and Crime". These articles and editorials portray the United States as a crime-ridden society in which violence is endemic and in which anyone who challenges government policy or stands up for the underprivileged is likely to be murdered. One El Popular article was accompanied by a reproduction of a 1963 Herb Block cartoon lampooning the ease with which guns can be purchased in the United States. The Socialist weekly Izquierda carried an article on the Senator's death entitled "The System of Political Crime" which called the United States a land of "systematized political crime and violent inhuman destruction", the "most immoral" nation in history, and the "sinister oppressor of more than half of humanity". Equally as vitriolic was an editorial in the intellectual leftist weekly Marcha by Carlos QUIJANO, Marcha's director. Quijano characterized the assassination of Senator Kennedy as a reflection of a society of "gangsters", "lynchers of Negroes", and "Mafia thugs". Since Americans are "taught to kill abroad", to carry out "genocide in Viet Nam" and "slaughter in Santo Domingo", said Quijano, they quite naturally kill at home (Montevideo A-759).

Also appearing in the press were a number of paid advertisements by civic organizations expressing sorrow over the tragic and premature end of Senator Kennedy's career. The Senator's death also received widespread radio coverage, with audiences reaching as high as two million (over two-thirds of Uruguay's population) on June 6 and 7 (Montevideo 2918).

BEGIN CONFIDENTIAL

Comment: Many Uruguayans find it hard to believe that the assassinations of Senator Kennedy and other American leaders in recent years could have been carried out by individual fanatics acting alone. However, few have accepted the radical left's characterization of the United States as a crime-ridden, gangster-dominated nation of violence and savagery. The editorial in Extra was probably motivated at least in part by the desire of Extra's owner and director, Glauco SEGOVIA, to carve out a new political identity for himself as a spokesman for the left wing of the Colorado Party. Segovia, who was Mayor of Montevideo in 1967 and who was chairman of the recently dissolved "Colorado Unity Front" alliance of several leading Colorado politicians, in the past has often shifted places on the political spectrum in accordance with what he has perceived to be his best political interests. The Marcha editorial reveals Quijano, who has long been considered a Marxist by the Embassy, to be virulently hostile to the United States. Marcha's editorial is more a cause for concern than the El Popular, Izquierda, Extra, or El Debate criticisms, because Marcha is the only intellectual weekly in the country and it reaches and influences moderate students and intellectuals as well as extreme leftists.

Summary

The cables under reference reviewed some of the Portuguese reactions to the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. The following report is a survey of the political climate existing in Portugal (with appropriate references to recent reports) which made that reaction predictable if not almost inevitable in view of the extremely conservative bias of those in key positions.

While nowhere was Senator Kennedy attacked personally or as a symbol of U.S. political life, his death unleashed a round of anti-American criticism motivated both by ideological differences with the U.S. and by the increasing nervousness of the Portuguese Government in its preoccupation with maintaining and defending the existing political order.

A separate airgram now under preparation will summarize the non-official reaction.

attitudes and official Portuguese mythology. From the ideological point of view, the GOP is staunchly anti-Communist, representing as it does in its Constitution the last active current of pre-World War II corporativism. The power elite of Portugal consider that the National Revolution (1926) took place in reaction to the disorder in Portuguese society and government unleashed with the fall of the monarchy. Through the exercise of a variety of means, including the application of force, they have kept the lid on ever since. The coolness in relations between Portugal and most of her NATO allies is analyzed by the GOP as resulting from a lack of understanding on the part of most other Western nations of the real issues in the East-West confrontation or, worse, self-serving action on the part of some of those allies seeking to despoil Portugal. The fact that Portugal is attacked in international forums and meetings and is frequently condemned in UN resolutions contributes to the feeling of isolation. As the war against the insurgents in the African territories drags on, a feeling of being beleaguered is added.

Distrust of the U.S. by the GOP

The result is that, although Portugal identifies with Western society and recognizes the United States as the leader of the Free World, this identification contains many elements of a love-hate relationship. There is respect for U.S. power, but there is distrust of U.S. motives with regard to Portugal and suspicion of U.S. political philosophy which, without naming names, was recently equated by the Foreign Minister with Russian Communism as being evangelical and expansionist: The domestic problems confronting the U.S. are viewed locally with dismay heavily tinged by the self-righteous and self-serving assertion that only Portugal is on the right path politically. The Portuguese are prompt to pounce on purported weakness of the "American way of life" (usually depicted locally in pejorative terms) in order to contrast it unfavorably with what they consider to be their own orderly, stable society. The Portuguese Government's message comes through to their people something like this : "You see what happens in wicked libertarian societies! Aren't you fortunate that we don't have such problems?"

The obvious stick with which to beat the U.S. is racism. The Portuguese point by contrast to what they proudly call - with some justification within certain limits - their "pluri-continental multiracial society." The press in general is not backward in taking this line. However, the worst offender is the Government-controlled television system which seems to have more than its quota of rabid totalitarians (See A-291, March 13, 1968). These are not above presenting ludicrously distorted and one-sided programs about race riots and civil strife in the U.S. That the message does not always hit home in the manner intended is sometimes apparent. Recently, after a particularly nasty piece of TV work, a Portuguese field grade officer approached an Embassy officer to explain how disturbed he had been by the TV series on the U.S. civil rights movements. In all sincerity, he offered the gratuitous advice that the movement "must be crushed by force" and the Negroes "put in their place."

The GOP Is Nervous

More recently, the Francophile Portuguese have been severely shaken by the disturbances in France (See Lisbon 1497, May 29). They feared the crumbling not only of their preferred model of a highly advanced member of Western society, but the possibility of revolutionary contagion spreading to Portugal. In characteristic fashion, and in quick succession, the Minister of Interior delivered a very tough speech (See para 4, Lisbon 1497) warning both students and labor against any similar activity, the Minister of Economy used the theme of the French disturbances and the unreliability of foreign markets for a new exhortation toward greater self-sufficiency in the agricultural sector, and the Foreign Minister delivered his highly nationalistic and isolationist views on international affairs (See Lisbon 1532, June 5). The editorial commentators had a field day viewing with alarm Western society tottering before the forces of international Communism. The Portuguese conspiratorial view of history received full play and was evident even among the well-educated. It would seem apparent that such a view would be particularly prevalent in an authoritarian state which battens on conspiracy, either real or imagined, and which probably (and naturally) generates it.

The Assassination

The assassination of Senator Kennedy was a shock to the Portuguese, as to everyone else; but certain elements in the power structure saw it as an additional opportunity to drive home their views.

The "Béjart incident" (See Lisbon 1550) appears to be a clear indication that the police intend to tolerate nothing which may even remotely be considered a threat of disorder. In this instance, the GOP attempted to cover its tracks in self-justification by reprinting Belgian press articles which disapproved of Béjart's conduct and by spreading the line through the diplomatic corps that the police had reacted to Béjart's remarks ("Down with violence, down with Fascism!") because they allegedly were anti-U.S. and anti-French. If, as is evident, the Government was bracing itself for possible political strife by becoming even more repressive than usual, what better justification than the problems which exist in a more permissive society like the U.S.? From a purely ideological point of view, the assassination permitted an orgy of anti-American propaganda emphasizing racism, the U.S. tradition of violence, the consequences of decadent democracy and the effects of a highly materialistic, technologically advanced society on the spirit of man.

The flow was not all one way and occasionally more moderate pieces would appear. News coverage, as distinguished from editorial commentary, was extensive and sympathetic. Dutra FARIA, the head of the official Government news agency ANI, followed up an early, highly incensed, editorial in the official party newspaper Diario da Manha with a more reasonable one entitled "Let's Not Exaggerate." However, the ideological orchestration of the editorial comment was discernible from the repetitious themes and also from the hints received that some of the pieces had been written to order. Despite Faria's pleas in the semi-official Diario da Manha, the television attack continued. An attempt is being made to obtain the script of three special half-hour programs on the assassination and the U.S. which were shown at peak hours with an estimated viewing audience of four million people.

The Effects of the Anti-U.S. Campaign

The Embassy considers it highly unlikely that this anti-American campaign will have any permanent adverse effect on the basic good will of the populace toward the United States. In the aftermath of the assassination itself, the large numbers of expressions of sympathy, received in person, by telephone and in writing, as well as comments received by Embassy officers from people in all walks of life, demonstrated a sympathetic reaction to the bereavement of the Senator's family and the American nation, although mixed with a certain bewilderment at this latest violence against a national figure. The Embassy believes that the Senator's death made a profound impression on the Portuguese. This is all the more notable since Senator Kennedy, because of his identification as a "Liberal," was not a favorite in local Government circles and did not usually receive a good press. A special mass sponsored by Embassy personnel and announced with short notice was well attended by the diplomatic corps and by an impressive number of private citizens. (Similarly, special prayers offered at churches of various denominations and the Lisbon Synagogue revealed a certain depth of popular sympathy.) Government officials, however, did not attend the mass.

In addition, the Portuguese are somewhat cynical concerning the pronouncement of their Government and, in fact, among intellectual and student groups, a strong, obviously Government-sponsored attack will probably generate sympathy. Many calls were received by the Embassy from Portuguese who objected to the line taken by the Portuguese TV programs. One danger lies in the fact that a distorted picture of the United States is being developed in the mind of those having no direct knowledge of the U.S. The most graphic example of this is the quite common question posed by otherwise sophisticated people, "Do you think it would be all right for me to go to New York (... Washington ... Los Angeles) during my trip to the United States?" The more obvious point is that the Portuguese Government, becoming increasingly nervous over possible future problems, responded with an attack against the democratic concept of government and, specifically, the U.S. view of that concept.

1. We also regret that Fonmin Kamanga saw fit to reply to Ambassador's letter through medium of press and agree that reactions to Kennedy assassination by certain GRZ officials have been most unfortunate.

2. Dept notes however that Embassy has made US position clear both publicly and privately. We have done likewise here with Ambassador Banda when we gave him copy of Amb. Good's letter. both on June 8 and again today./ Ambassador Banda once again expressed regret over statements made by some GRZ officials, e.g., Mainza Chona and Chanda, and insisted they should be taken as views of individuals rather than as official GRZ position. Emphasized that neither President Kaunda nor Fonmin Kamanga, despite their deep shock over assassination, had meant to imply USG responsibility or involvement. Again mentioned his efforts to place assassination in proper perspective for his Govt. (Copy his condolence message to Secretary being pouched.)

SUBJECT :Ivory Coast Reaction to Kennedy Assassination

REF :

The reaction of Ivorians, French and others in Ivory Coast to the death of Senator Robert Kennedy has been one of shock, disbelief, and sympathy, not so much sympathy for America's loss, but for the personal loss of Senator Kennedy's family. The sharply emotional Ivorian reaction was that to some degree it was America that killed Kennedy. That belief sums up the very negative and unfavorable image of America that the assassination has projected for local eyes.

Senator Kennedy inherited much of his brother's charismatic appeal to Africans who have regarded him as the natural champion of President Kennedy's compassion and understanding for third world problems.

From the moment the news spread of the attempt on Senator Kennedy's life, various officials called the Embassy to express sympathy. The Senator's death provoked further reactions, such as telephone calls and letters of sympathy from all quarters, including the French. The memorial service held June 7 at the Ambassador's Residence was well attended; the Ivorians were represented by two of the three Vice Presidents of the National Assembly, several Deputies, a Vice President of the Economic and Social Council, and the Secretary General of the Foreign Ministry. Later the same evening, National Assembly President Yace, Economic and Social Council President Mamadou Coulibaly, and Supreme Court President Alphonse Boni, the country's second, third and fourth personalities, called on Ambassador Morgan to present condolences in behalf of the Ivory Coast's Democratic Party which they lead. President Houphouet-Boigny sent a personal message to Mrs. Kennedy in behalf of himself, Mrs. Houphouet-Boigny and the Ivorian people.

A steady stream of people visited the Embassy from June 6 to June 10 to sign the register set out in the Embassy foyer. Foreign Minister Usher signed the register for the Ivorian government.

Press reaction was sharp. The June 6th edition of Fraternité-Matin carried a page devoted to Kennedy's biography and his political prospects, and a bitter front page editorial condemned the act, predicting dire consequences for the United States if Kennedy died. Later the same day, a special edition was issued announcing his death, the first time in the history of the newspaper that this has been done.

The June 7 issue headlined the Arthur Schlesinger speech given at CCNY "Why so many murders in the U.S.?" The back page of the same issue covered world and U.S. reactions, a statement by Ambassador Morgan, and other articles peripherally related to the assassination. Later issues included information on the accused slayer, the funeral, and the day of mourning. On June 11, Fraternité printed two poems condemning the slaying and criticizing America. The weekly party newspaper Fraternité printed a large front page photograph of the Senator with editorial comment expressing the universality of guilt for the assassination and the hope that the world would learn from Kennedy's death as it had from his life.

In sum, feelings in Ivory Coast have been strong. The over-riding sentiment centers on the fact that the possible election of a Kennedy brother has been crushed. Moreover, Senator Kennedy had a special appeal in Ivory Coast stemming partly from the fact that he was fondly remembered as having been President Kennedy's personal representative to the Ivory Coast's first independence celebration in 1961.

Text of ad-Difaa article, June 17, 1968

SIRHAN'S FATHER IN AMMAN: A TALK TO "AD DIFAA" AT MIDNIGHT

At 2:00 p.m. yesterday, ad-Difaa learned that Mr. Bishara Sirhan, father of Sirhan Sirhan, accused of assassinating Senator Robert Kennedy, arrived in Amman from the West Bank on a permit issued by the occupation authorities. It is said that Mr. Sirhan has come to Amman to clear up certain financial matters in preparation for his departure for America. Until 10:00 p.m. ad-Difaa searched high and low for him. In what hotel was he staying? In whose house was he a guest? At last, we found him at the Hotel Continental. Our reporter, Salah Abd as-Samad, who spent over two hours with Mr. Bishara Sirhan, wrote the following interview.

Bishara Sirhan was sitting calmly and talking confidently. You could detect in his tone parental emotions. The 52-year old man said, "The murder of Senator Kennedy saddened me because he was from the Kennedy family, but the picture has a second face..."

"Which...?"

"The political face..for the Senator was also an American politician, so on this I have a view to express."

"Please..."

"I believe that the imbalance in Senator Kennedy's speeches while electioneering for the Presidency was the primary cause of what happened."

"How..?"

"He was promising certain parties to supply them with arms and aircraft with full awareness of the consequences of that promise. Its consequences would be more displacement of children, more orphans and more widows. This is in addition to the degradation of and contempt for the Arabs in his speeches, a thing that made my son Sirhan feel insulted in that society where Senator Kennedy was speaking. And this is what pushed my son to act as he did. Had the late Senator been reserved and merely called for peace in the Middle East, nothing would have happened."

"Are you furious with Sirhan?"

"In the first moments after I learned of the incident I was furious."

"And now?"

"My heart and mind are now with him. I believe that world opinion and human conscience will stand by him."

"Why?"

"Because he is a man of good character by the testimony of his university teachers and friends. He is also a fervent Arab in every drop of his blood."

"What was the position of the Israeli authorities toward you?"

"At 4:30 a.m. of the day following the news, an Israeli military car parked in front of my house. I was then taken to the Military Governor's office in Ramallah. An Israeli officer asked about my life, that of Sirhan, and the family..."

"And the Israeli intelligence agency?"

"It also interrogated me and wrote down information similar to that which I gave at the Governor's office."

"And what is the latest news about Sirhan?"

"I learned that he told the investigators he refuses to be tried in the USA, and wants to be tried elsewhere."

"What is his pretext for that?"

"He is not American. I am not either. None of my sons got naturalized."

"What else?"

"Two Lebanese lawyers and a Swedish lawyer have volunteered to defend my son."

"What do you imagine will be the sentence against Sirhan?"

"I believe there are in the world people of free conscience. I believe world public opinion will be on my son's side because Sirhan was a model boy and did not commit his action except to prevent further tragedy and further displacement of children from their homes. Sirhan imagined that Senator Kennedy would add to those tragedies. For all that, I hope that people of conscience in the whole world will stand by my son."

"I only wish the Los Angeles Court, and the American people and members of the Kennedy family would imitate me..."

"In what?"

"In my toleration. My son Munir was killed in Jerusalem in 1946 after a car ran over him. But I pardoned the culprit and gave up my rights, even the amount given to me as compensation, 500 dinars. I donated it to mosques and churches and to the poor. I only hope that toleration will be observed by all during the trial of Sirhan."

"Did you do anything to explain your views in defense of Sirhan?"

"Yes, I sent appeals to President Johnson, the Pope and to U Thant. I appealed to them to work for peace in the Middle East and Vietnam so that the tragedy of Sirhan and Robert Kennedy would not be repeated."

"When do you leave for America to attend the trial?"

"I am studying the matter from all angles, including the financial one and the question of my safety while there."

"That means you are afraid?"

"No. I am not afraid. The matter really requires careful study."

"Your style of talking indicates you are a lawyer?"

"I am a mechanic. The credit for that belongs to the holy books: the Quran, the New Testament and the Old Testament. I studied them all and have them in my house side by side."

"And if I request you to offer a last opinion in this interview...?"

"I say I hope the Arabs will unite."

UNCLASSIFIED

Excerpts from ad-Dustour's Interview with Sirhan

(1) "Bishara Sirhan, 52, is the father of five children and was in charge of a water section under the British Mandate Government in Palestine until 1948. He then came to Amman and worked on various water and mechanics projects until 1957 when he emigrated to the United States with his five children, Sharif, Sa'dallah, Adel, Sirhan, and Munir. Three years ago, he returned alone to his native town, Tayybeh, in the Ramallah area."

(2) "At dawn on June sixth while still asleep, I felt heavy footsteps on the stairs of my house. I awoke and heard the 'moukhtar' (elder) of the village, Fayez Ma'addi, knocking and saying, 'Open the door, Abu Sharif. Don't be afraid. It's Fayez.' I opened the door and Fayez entered with two Israeli soldiers and three civilians, one of whom began to question me in English, which I know well, about my identity and the history of my family and my son, Sirhan. I asked, 'why all these questions?' He answered that he was a correspondent of the NEW YORK TIMES and said, 'Did you hear about Robert Kennedy?' 'Yes,' I said, 'yesterday I heard that someone fired at him in Los Angeles.' The reporter then said, 'Didn't you know it was your son Sirhan who shot him?' I said, 'What do you say? My son killed Kennedy? I think that most unlikely.' When he affirmed the news to me, it was a violent shock. I was furious and sad. The reporter asked, 'what is your opinion on the matter? Do you know anything?' I answered, 'here I am asleep in Tayybeh, a village over 12,000 miles from Los Angeles. Of course I do not know anything. It is an unpleasant, stunning, shocking surprise.' The reporter asked, 'what is your feeling?' I replied, 'If the report is correct, I am sorry for Kennedy and deeply regret the incident and am grieved that this has happened to my son.'"

(3) "As I said before, there is no enmity between the Kennedy and Sirhan families. I want both Arab and American opinion to listen to this statement. Senator Kennedy had two personalities: first, he was a member of the American Kennedy family; second, he was a great American statesman. On the personal level, I am grieved by his death and shall continue to be so. As for Robert Kennedy the politician, that is a different matter. He stated time after time that he wanted certain nations to get stronger and certain nations to get weaker. This, in my opinion, was a great error. I believe thoughtful men all over the world will agree. As a statesman, Kennedy ought to have been balanced in his statements and speeches and ought to have avoided saying things liable to kindle hatred in the Middle East. As a statesman he ought to have supported peace, right and justice in the Middle East without favoring Israel."

UNCLASSIFIED

(4) "I still believe my son is innocent despite the accusations. But even is we suppose he did it, we must examine the motives and reasons that led him to such an act. His love for his homeland and religion must have overcome eveything else and incited him to act. I do not support violence or political assassination. But Kennedy was rash in his statements. I say also that the conscience of America, and its courts, and world public opinion will stand by Sirhan."

(5) "Sirhan has seen destruction and death in his own country, which last suffered war in 1967. In spite of the fact that Sirhan left for America in 1957, and lived over ten years in American society, his religion and homeland were constantly on his mind. The late Senator Kennedy was the man who lit the fuse of the mine inside my son Sirhan."

(6) "What is the program of your visit to Jordan?"

"I arrived in Amman today with a one week permit. I want to see to my account in Intra Bank, where I had some money before June 1967. After that I will return to Tayybeh."

"Do you want to go to the United States?"

"I am considering the matter in detail. I intend to hire lawyers to defend my son, but have not yet decided whether I personally will go to America to be with Sirhan during his trial."

Memorial services for Senator Robert Kennedy were arranged by the Embassy in Ankara and the Consular posts at Adana and Istanbul. The service in Istanbul was held at the TUSLOG Chapel on June 7 with Consul-General Collins and his staff attending. A similar service was held at the Base Chapel in Adana on June 9. A Requiem Mass was said at the JUSMMAT auditorium in Ankara on June 9 with the Ambassador delivering the eulogy.

Embassy personnel and other members of the American mission in Ankara have received numerous letters, telegrams, and telephone calls transmitting expressions of sorrow and grief. Most members of the Diplomatic Corps here have written or telephoned personally to the Ambassador or signed the Book of Condolence placed in the Embassy rotunda. Spontaneous gestures of sorrow were made before the fact of Senator Kennedy's death was known, including that of the Minister-Counselor of Iran, Mr. Hamayoun Ardalan, who proposed a minute of silence at the meeting of the CENTO Budget Committee on June 6. A warm eulogy was delivered in the Grand National Assembly on June 10 by the Honorable Kasim Gulek, Deputy for Adana. There were also instances of individuals expressing the condolences of schools, such as the Yenimahalle Girls' Institute. Only a few letters received here were markedly belligerent or hostile.

The following are representative excerpts from letters, telegrams, and inscriptions in the Book of Condolence:

> "The Turkish press shares the deep sorrow felt in your country and throughout the world over the assassination of your valuable statesman and member of the Senate, Robert Kennedy..."Telegram, Burhan Felek, President of Association of Journalists, Istanbul

Your wonderful doctrine of freedom, humanity, and courage, like your older brother, is the main enemy of Communism. Kennedys and Turks join in the same goal and same objective. This is the great reason why Turks love Kennedys and cry for them...You must believe that you are resting in the hearts of most Turks..." Inscription in Book, Sukru Erdiren, Col. You and your excellent ideas for all will live in our hearts everlasting." Inscription in Book, Ahmed Kubulay, Turkish citizen

"Quelle tragedie antique!" Inscription in Book, Hon. Robert Fenaux, Ambassador of Belgium

The following is the text of Ambassador Hart's eulogy given at the memorial service in the JUSMMAT auditorium on June 9:

"We are gathered in grief once more. We mourn a man whose name in his own time was deeply etched in our history, whose loss is a loss to all nations.

"Robert Francis Kennedy was the third son to his parents. He was the second brother to be struck down by hate; and in this tragic decade a hundred years after our fratricidal war, the brothers from New England have been joined by Martin Luther King as martyrs to divisiveness.

"We were not all disciples of Robert Kennedy while he lived, but all of us share a common sense of deprivation at his passing - an almost desperate desire to give vent to our feelings of loss.

"The Senator was a generous man, a loving father. He could slip so easily out of himself to join his audience and laugh with them at his own public figure and that of his family. But, it is another side of Robert Kennedy which concerns us now, his commitment to justice, to essential human values. He didn't have to care. No one would have criticized or even remarked if he had pursued a private, comfortable life. John Kennedy did not have to go to West Virginia mine towns and Robert was not pushed into Bedford-Stuyvesant and Watts. But they did care and they did go and in the end they were one with the people there.

"In life and death a man is measured by the principles he keeps. Eulogies soften the sharper spurs of a man's character, but for Robert Kennedy it would be wrong to do so. Let us remember he was a flinty man who shot out sparks. Let us not forget his toughness and his temper. Let all our people see now, let us not hide from the world the fire that leaped from his soul to burn away injustice.

"Our nation is a poorer place with the death of Senator Kennedy. Yet if this terrible event ignites a spark of awareness that violence is purposeless, if it provokes an increased willingness to adjust inequities in our nation, perhaps he will have served his country in death as well as he did in life.

"Our hearts and prayers go out to his family which has been so cruelly bereaved. Our hopes and efforts are bent to assure that his death does not signal the passing of what he so courageously stood for.

"Therefore, let us unite, as we recall the words of President Johnson's proclamation of this day of national mourning:

> 'A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.
>
> 'The tragedy and senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.
> 'This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity ...
> 'Throughout the United States, in our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.' "

The following is the text of the eulogy given by the Honorable Kasim Gulek, Deputy for Adana, at the Grand National Assembly of Turkey on June 10, 1968:

> "Honorable friends; I come before you to honor the memory of Senator Robert F. Kennedy of the United States, our friend and ally, who lost his life suddenly in the line of duty.
>
> "Senator Kennedy's assassination is a tragedy in so many ways. The eldest son in this family, Joseph Kennedy, was killed while a Reserve Air Force Lieutenant during a bombing mission in World War II. A second son, John Kennedy, was killed while President.
>
> "Now, the third son is also the victim of cruel fate. It is a human tragedy that three members of the same family all died in the name of duty. The whole world was distressed at the horrible death of Robert Kennedy, who was killed before the eyes of his wife, expecting her eleventh child.
> "Robert Kennedy was the champion of the people, a fighter against povery, want, and backwardness. He had dedicated his life to noble ideals. Those ideals for which he fought were human dignity, freedom, social justice, and racial equality. The Negro question, one of America's greatest problems, found in him a spirit of determination for change and equity. The Negroes saw Robert Kennedy as a kind of saviour in the struggle to obtain equal rights. He often repeated these words: "Views on race, religion, politics should not be causes for enmity."

"He was a brave man, far-sighted and understanding. He had on many occasions proven these qualities. When his brother was President, he became Attorney General. He was a close adviser to his brother. The recommendations he made during the Cuban crisis showed his brother, the President, a clear course to follow. He was able to find a way out of that conflict with courage and dignity. Robert Kennedy, who died at an early age, had many, long years before him in which to serve his country and mankind. He did not always approve of the policy that his party followed. At times he criticized and openly expressed his differences publicly. He made his criticisms sincerely.

"I met Robert Kennedy personally at the time we worked together on the Political Committee of the North Atlantic Assembly. He was an energetic, brave, and honest man. At the same time, there was a sensitive, shy, and retiring side to his nature.

"The ideals for which Robert Kennedy fought and died and was buried yesterday at Arlington National Cemetery beside the grave of his brother, are the ideals of all mankind. These ideals will live on, will find new Robert Kennedy's to carry their torch forward. With Robert Kennedy's death our friend, the American nation, has lost a valuable son and the world a great man. May the Almighty bless his soul." (Applause)

The Embassy proposes that its Condolence Book be forwarded to the Kennedy family through Senator Edward Kennedy.

SUBJECT : Commemoration of Robert Kennedy

REF :

A low requiem mass for the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy, organized by the Embassy under the sponsorship of the Ambassador, was held at the Roman Catholic Cathedral at Tunis on Saturday, June 8. The mass was attended by approximately 600 people including 15 Ambassadors and representatives of about 27 other diplomatic missions and the Tunisian government, members of the American community in Tunisia, and a number of Tunisian citizens.

The mass was said in English by the Reverend Father Laurence Smith, a British subject and chaplain to the English-speaking Catholic community in Tunisia, assisted by the French Administrator of the Cathedral, Reverend Father Massisien. The Archbishop of Tunis, Monsignor Michel Callens, presided. The DCM, Edward W. Mulcahy, and an American Catholic layman served as acolytes. Seated inside the sanctuary were two visiting dignitaries of the Anglican Communion, the Right Reverend Lane Barton, Episcopal Bishop of Eastern Oregon, and the Venerable Archdeacon Dunbar, formerly Vicar of St. George's (Anglican) Church, Tunis. Bishop Barton spoke briefly and led the congregation in prayer for Senator Kennedy and his family. Archbishop Callens delivered a eulogy and conducted the traditional absolution prayers at the end of the mass in French. The Cathedral organist rendered appropriate selections during the mass. Officers of the Embassy, USIS, and USAID served as ushers.

The ecumenical aspect of the service is believed to have set a precedent in Tunis.

The Embassy encloses, for such disposition as the Department may wish, the condolence book for Senatory Kennedy which was placed in the Chancery foyer from June 6-10.

SUBJECT :President Kaunda's Speech on Senator Robert E. Kennedy's Assassination

REF :

Following is the full verbatim text of President Kenneth Kaunda's remarks about the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy as recorded by the Zambia Information Services during the President's speech at Lusaka International Airport on June 7, 1968. An official summary of the speech was previously submitted as Enclosure No. 6 of Lusaka A-456.

BEGIN TEXT: I come to what I think is a very sad matter and I will end on this note. You all know that during my absence, this world, in many ways, the sad world has lost one of this generation's outstanding, dynamic and young leaders in the person of late Robert Kennedy. This is a very sad thing. I think we must make our views known to the American Government that we fail to understand that leaders of that type--first was John Kennedy, second, Martin Luther King, and now Bobby Kennedy. We seem to see a very strange pattern here where leaders, such outstanding men, who have a lot to contribute to this world can only be protected when they are dead. We think this very strange indeed. I hear that there were 500 police officers at the airport--but this was to receive a dead body. How does this happen?

We have a right to complain because we believe that in the person of John Kennedy we lost a man who can never ever be replaced at all. And now John Kennedy--I mean Robert Kennedy--again the same pattern; protection was given after the assassination had been committed. This is very difficult to understand and I think we have a right as citizens of this world to protest to the American Government. They have got to do something more. If they understand their society, they know that obviously something ought to be done. We think this is shameful, very shameful indeed. As I say we cannot understand this at all. Now obviously, we can't see what part the Kennedy family is going to play in the politics of the United States.

There is only one young man now left in that family. How can it be? In the short space of five years. I repeat, we have a right to protest to that Government. We feel strongly about this. We are internationalists and people who liked John Kennedy, Martin Luther King, people like Bobby Kennedy, who stand to strike at the call of the international problem of poverty. I think we have a right to regard them as our friends.

Well, however, tomorrow--I would like to ask all of you--those of us who go to churches, to remember the Kennedy family in our prayers; to remember this young man that we have just lost. And indeed, I now order that the Commissioner of Police should send Police messages throughout the country. For broadcast, Radio Zambia should help us and broadcast this message that tomorrow we will be mourning Bobby Kennedy and all flags should fly at half mast.

As we remember this young man tomorrow in our prayers, wherever we are, let it be understood that all we have about this young man shows clearly that he was one of the few American leaders who identified themselves with the poor whether they were black, white or Mexican, Puerto Ricans, whatever they were, he was advancing their cause. And indeed the society in which he was found when he was shot, as we well know, is a society of the poor. It is a very, very great achievement, we must all accept. For a very rich man to genuinely come down and speak the voice of the poor is not an easy thing to achieve and, therefore, in Bobby Kennedy just like in his brother, just like in Martin Luther King, we have lost a sincere friend and it is our duty to show and demonstrate that by observing tomorrow as our national day of mourning for this young man. Prayers will be conducted on Sunday. END TEXT.

FROM : Amembassy ADDIS ABABA

DATE: June 15, 1968

SUBJECT : Soviet Daily News on RFK Murder

REF :

The murder of Robert F. Kennedy was covered fairly assiduously by the Soviet Daily News in Addis Ababa. Though the June 6 issue only carried a short tail-end item announcing the bare facts of the shooting, a long lead story the next day characterized the murder as the third in a series of planned gangsterist shooting.

Entitled "The Shots In Los Angeles" and written by a Novosti correspondent, V. Ardatovsky, the piece links the assassinations of President Kennedy, Dr. Martin Luther King, and Senator Robert Kennedy. The 'lone assassin' explanations are derided and the acts of terror are ascribed to "the situation within the country and its foreign policy which concentrates on the war in Vietnam..."

The most recent murder is seen as a deliberate move by the "Ultras" (extreme rightists) to stop RFK because he was sharply critical of U.S. policy in Vietnam and because he favored radical transformations in the U.S. racial situation as well as in domestic and foreign policy.

On June 11 the Soviets printed a short piece on page 2 entitled "Where Does The Policy of War and Racialism Lead To?" Devoted to the U.S. Communist Party's remarks on the murder, it asserted that acts of terror are directed against public figures in the U.S. who oppose "extreme militarism and racialism." The article also states that "the predominance of the military-industrial complex gives birth to an atmosphere of violence and extreme-rightist fascist-like movements." What is more, the series of political murders "reflect the violence, brutality and the devaluation of human values which are a result of the policy of aggressive wars and racialism."

"The Shots in Los Angeles" by V. Ardatovsky, Novosti Press Agency, printed as lead story in Soviet Daily News, June 7, 1968

"The United States has once again covered itself with disgrace. It is difficult to call a country a civilized state in which hired assassins the day before yesterday shot President Kennedy, yesterday Luther King, the progressive leader, and today Senator Robert Kennedy.

"The shots in Dallas, in Memphis and in Los Angeles are links in the chain in which political gangsterism has enmeshed the United States. To ascribe the crimes to maniacs who act on their own, as has been the case and which undoubtedly will also be undertaken in the future, means to lie. The situation within the country and its foreign policy, which concentrates on the war in Vietnam, has made all forms of terror against progressive forces and political leaders who uphold different views, a regularity.

"It is by no means accidental that the crime in Los Angeles was perpetrated immediately following Robert Kennedy's obvious victory in the primaries in such a key state as California. His political opponents could not but experience anxiety due to the fact that the next step towards the White House was made by a person who sharply criticises Washington's Vietnam policy, by an adherent of radical transformations in the sphere of combatting racial discrimination and of other changes in the country's domestic and foreign policy.

"In awakening America, which is starting to seriously think about its destiny and its place in the world, the rise in the authority of such people as Robert Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy is an irreversible phenomenon. And once again the Ultras, basing themselves apparently on most influential quarters, decided to resort to gangster methods: otherwise, they could not count on 'removing' either Luther King, or Robert Kennedy.

"In the Soviet Union the news about the crime in Los Angeles was received with deep sorrow. The name of the talented young American statesman is widely known. The stand taken by Robert Kennedy on many questions, in particular his role in the struggle for ending the war in Vietnam and for the rights of the Negro population is regarded here with respect. Soviet people are sincerely indignant over the fact that today in 1968, acts of crude political gangsterism are possible. Present-day America will for long, for very long indeed, have to wash off the disgrace with which it has covered itself in recent years."

"Where Does The Policy of War and Racialism Lead To?", printed in middle of Page 2, Soviet Daily News, June 11, 1968

"The terror campaign in the United States is directed against those public figures who keep, in one form or other, to the position spearheaded against extreme militarism and racialism, says a statement of the U.S. Community Party issued in connection with the murder of Robert Kennedy.

"Such murders, of which numerous examples could be cited, reflect the violence, brutality and the devaluation of human values which are a result of the policy of aggressive wars and racialism, the statement continues. The predominance of the military-industrial complex gives birth to an atmosphere of violence and extreme-rightist fascist-like movements. Such acts of brutality are the reverse side of the vindictive imperialist aggression against Vietnam, which is tantamount to genocide."

SUBJECT : Reactions to Senator Robert F. Kennedy's Death in Senegal

REF :

The Senegalese were deeply shocked by the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy. The Kennedy name has been a household word to many Senegalese, and ever since President Kennedy's death, the Senegalese have followed closely the activities of the rest of the family. Press coverage on Senator Kennedy's assassination was sympathetic, accurate and friendly.

Dakar-Matin, Senegal's only daily newspaper, covered all aspects of the assassination and funeral in great detail. Radio Senegal put together an extremely moving half hour program on the life of Robert Kennedy, which was repeated a number of times. Reports from French radio correspondents in the United States were also used extensively on Radio Senegal. President Senghor sent three messages: first to Mrs. Kennedy while the Senator was still living, and then again to her and President Johnson after news was received of his death. (Copies attached)

So far, 285 people have come to sign the book in the Embassy although many signed for their families, schools and professional organizations. These have included Senegalese from all walks of life, members of the Diplomatic Corps and a great many Frenchmen resident in Dakar. Curiously enough, many of the French have taken this opportunity to tell us how they still consider themselves to be close friends of the United States and how much affection there is in France for the Kennedy family. The radio quoted several times what Senator Kennedy had said last year after a visit to General de Gaulle: that peace was not possible in Vietnam without the cooperation of France.

A memorial service was conducted Saturday, June 9th, at the Eglise du Sacré Coeur in Dakar. This was conducted in French by the Vicar General, as the archbishop was unable to be present himself. The Papal Nuncio, Monsignor Mariani, celebrated the requiem mass. The eulogy delivered by Père Courier was most impressive and expressed the ideals for which the Kennedy brothers had stood. The service was attended by several hundred people -- Senegalese, French and Diplomatic Corps.

On Sunday, June 10th, an English-speaking service was held in the French Protestant Church, conducted by the Bishop of The Gambia and the Rio Pongas, The Rt. Reverend T.O. Olufosoye. This was attended by a number of English-speaking Africans, many diplomats, including the Dean of the Corps, French Ambassador Lagarde, and most of the American colony, including a large number of Peace Corps volunteers. Ambassador Kwesi Brew of Ghana read the lesson and Ambassador Brown read President Johnson's proclamation.

Attached are some of the more moving comments written in the Embassy's book, as well as excerpts from some of the letters received by the Ambassador.

SUBJECT : Spanish Opposition Leaders Sponsor Memorial Mass

REF :

Following the model they established after the assassination of President Kennedy, leaders of the Spanish democratic opposition joined together to arrange a memorial mass on June 12 for the repose of the souls of John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, and Robert F. Kennedy. Without identifying themselves by name, they placed paid advertisements in three Madrid dailies inviting Spaniards who shared the ideals for which the three men gave their lives to join them at the parish of the Sacred Hearts (los Sagrados Corazones, near the Bernabeu Stadium) for the funeral mass.

The liberal monarchist Joaquín SATRUSTEGUI personally invited the Embassy to send representatives. Five Embassy officers (Administrative Counselor, acting Chief of the Political Section, Labor Attaché, a political officer and the Student Affairs Officer in the Cultural Section) were placed by Satrústegui in the front pews of the Church. Embassy officers were seated on either side of the senior Spanish participant, Christian Democratic leader José María GIL ROBLES.

An estimated 1500 persons attended the Mass, but a certain number seemed to have come for the Mass regularly said at the church at that hour. The church porch and the rear of the church were patrolled by a half-dozen Armed Police in uniform; a station wagon with two officers in civilian clothes and a uniformed driver was parked in front of the church; and the Embassy learned that reinforcements were present behind the Church. None of them was needed.

They did not interfere in any way with the greetings and conversation that went on before and after the ceremony.

The celebrant said pointedly at the beginning of his sermon that the ceremony had no political purpose. He referred to the concern that the Kennedy brothers and King had shown for political, racial and social equality, for reducing the gap between the privileged and the unprivileged, and for advancing peace and understanding in the U.S. and between nations.

ABC and Ya carried articles on June 13 describing the ceremony and listing those present in places of honor. El Alcazar published a photograph with caption showing Gil Robles and the Embassy representatives.

SUBJECT : Spanish Reaction to Kennedy Assassination

REF :

Ordinary Spaniards reacted with shocked disbelief and genuine grief to the assassination of Robert Kennedy. Young people, students and lower class Spaniards seemed especially concerned. Many, helped along by the story treatment of local radio, television, and newspapers, generally identified the killing of the Senator with that of his brother and Martin Luther King, creating a merged image of the forces for constructive change in the U.S. being violently eliminated. A belief in conspiracy was evident in conversations with all Spaniards from the most sophisticated to the most humble.

Shortly after Robert Kennedy's death had been confirmed on June 6, the Chargé saw the large number of reporters and photographers who had gathered at the Chancery and read to them a statement stressing the sorrow of this mission and our determination to carry on the ideals of Robert Kennedy. (enclosed).

Spaniards flowed into the Embassy beginning at noon on June 6 to sign the book of condolence. At this writing over 6,200 signatures have been placed in the books and over 2,200 pieces of correspondence, including calling cards, telegrams, and letters, have been received by the Embassy. All four consulates report corresponding interest and a large volume of signatures and mail.

Masses have been celebrated throughout Spain for the repose of Robert Kennedy's soul and sometimes prayers were included for the souls of President Kennedy and Martin Luther King. The Embassy worked with the Jesuit Fathers at the Church of Saint Francis Borgia, across the street from the Chancery, to arrange a requiem mass celebrated by the Papal Nuncio (Monsignor Luigi Dadaglio). The Mass, celebrated at twelve noon on June 8, was attended by over 2,000 persons. The Chargé attended as the official U.S. representative and the Under Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Ramon SEDO) as the representative of the Government of Spain.

On the official side, the Spanish Government was prompt in its expression of condolence. By noon on June 5, the mission had two important telephone calls, one from the Director General of American and Far East Affairs at the MFA (Nuño Aguirre de Carcer) to the Chargé and the other from the Chief of the High General Staff (Captain General Agustin Muñoz Grandes) to Chief JUSMAG, both expressing concern over the shooting and hopes for recovery. On the following day, after the Senator had died, Franco sent messages to the President and Mrs. Kennedy; Foreign Minister Castiella sent a message to Mrs. Kennedy. At five p.m. on June 6, Aguirre de Carcer called on the Chargé as representative of the Foreign Minister to express the Minister's condolences. Vice President Luis Carrero Blanco (by hand-written note) and five Cabinet Ministers sent written messages to the Chargé. Diplomatic colleagues at all levels wrote, called, and telephoned with the French Embassy being notably prompt and numerous in its expressions of condolence.

Appearing in the morning press of June 6 was a statement by the Information Minister (Manuel FRAGA Iribarne) which tended to set the tone for coverage by the regime-oriented press - correct expressions of sadness coupled with a view of the act as justification for more authoritarian forms of government (read Franco Spain) than are permitted in a democracy. Fraga's statement said: "This occurrence is a clear demonstration that peace and liberty can only be maintained in authentic form when law and the principle of authority construct a style of citizenship in which the use of violence in political contests does not fit... for this reason we should value, as the highest obligation of politics, the maintenance of order...". A considerable number of Spanish contacts commented in unfavorable terms about the "bad taste" Fraga showed in so openly using the Kennedy assassination as a justification for rigid authoritarianism.

In the days following June 6, the Madrid press tended to divide on the responsibility of the American democratic system for the death of Robert Kennedy. Strident voices from the Movimiento press (Diario SP, Pueblo and to a lesser extent Arriba) indicted the U.S. institutions which could not eliminate the recourse to violence. The Opus Dei press (Nuevo Diario and Alcazar) stoutly defended democracy in the U.S.: "A people that can resolve political succession in a half hour (Kennedy to Johnson), that can maintain under civilian control the greatest military power in history, that in the midst of war can tolerate internal dissent even to the point where that dissent creates policy changes, a people, in sum, which can produce men like the Kennedys merits a vote of confidence" (Alcazar, June 6).

Figures from the opposition quickly sought to identify themselves warmly and sympathetically with their Embassy contacts in the tragic days following June 5. Monarchists, Christian Democrats, and Socialists were in evidence signing the condolence book, giving oral expressions of their sorrow and concern to the Embassy officers on duty at the book, and in attendance at the Mass on June 8. On June 12, this group sponsored a Mass of its own for the repose of the soul of Robert Kennedy, which several Embassy officers attended (separate report).

Spaniards followed the sad events of June 5 through June 8 over radio and television. Government operated Spanish television (TVE) had a sympathetic interview program on June 6 featuring government leaders including Aguirre de Carcer who reminisced about occasions on which he had talked with Robert Kennedy when Aguirre was Minister Counsellor at the Spanish Embassy in Washington. TVE also carried live portions of the Mass at St. Patricks in the afternoon of June 8 and gave live coverage to the funeral procession through Washington and burial at Arlington (12:30 a.m. - 4:00 a.m. June 9 Madrid time).

English-speaking Spaniards with FM equipment, followed Armed Forces Radio, which stayed with the story also until 4:00 a.m. June 9 and provided the audio portion of U.S. network television coverage. They could all join with ABC's Bill Downs at the grave-site who tearfully closed: "This is the second time in four and a half years we have had to do this job, and I hope I never have to do it again."

STATEMENT BY CHARGE WILLIAM W. WALKER, ON OCCASION OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY'S DEATH. MADRID, JUNE 6, 1968.

We of the United States Mission to Spain share the depths of grief that are beyond words. A senseless act has taken Senator Kennedy from us in the full flower of his vigor. Irrational violence has ended the labors of a man whose life was given to peace, a man of good will whose whole career was devoted to the cause of his fellow human beings.

Already condolences in our sorrow have begun to arrive from the people of Spain, high and low, who share - with all the world - our irreaplaceable loss. To all of you, we are most profoundly grateful.

Bowed as we are with grief, it is the task of the living to carry on, to keep bright the ideals which Senator Kennedy so nobly advanced, to carry on the work which he can no longer shoulder, to advance the human condition in his name and of men of good will everywhere.

Books for those who wish to express their sentiments are available at the Embassy, Serrano 75, and the Casa Americana, Castellana 37.

A memorial service is being planned, and details will be announced.

All public and social events involving the Embassy or individual official Americans have been cancelled until further notice.

We are sending a message to the family of Senator Kennedy on behalf of all of us in this hour of tragedy.

JOINT EMBASSY/USIS MESSAGE

Embtels 1746 and 1790 reported on Nigerien reaction to the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy. Enclosed are the full texts, with English translations, of the two key public statements made regarding this assassination, i.e., the declarations of President Diori Hamani and National Assembly President Boubou Hama broadcast on Radio Niger on June 6.

We consider unfortunate the implication which both these declarations contain of criticism of the American political system. This implication was inherent in the references to "political assassination" and to "political adversary." President Diori subsequently made clear to Ambassador Ryan that he had intended this term to relate to a far broader context than that of the American political party system.

A third public reference to the assassination was contained in Foreign Secretary Sidikou's reply, also broadcast over Radio Niger, to Ambassador Ryan's speech on June 12 upon the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the new American Embassy office building at Yantalla overlooking the Niger River on the outskirts of Niamey. Sidikou departed from his prepared text to make the following reference.

> "It would be impossible for me to enumerate here, even briefly, all of the joint [Nigerien-American] projects which have been worked out and implemented or which are in process of being implemented. I will nonetheless point out the future bridge across

RYAN

Declaration of President Diori Hamani on Niger Radio on June 6, 1968

Je dois exprimer mon indignation devant cette méthode lâche de suppression d'un adversaire politique. Ici dans le cadre du Niger comme nous l'avons réaffirmé dans OUA et l'OCAM, nous condamnons toujours l'assassinat comme moyen d'arriver à des fins politiques.

Il est vraiment dommage qu'aprés son frère John Kennedy que ce soit encore Robert qui soit frappé par des inconscients. Car ces pauvres types s'imaginent qu'en tuant un homme on tue une idée. L'idée lancée par les Kennedy vers la réconciliation nationale aux Etats-Unis l'égalité et la justice, cette idée fera son chemin contre vents et marées et je salue toute la famille éprouvé - c'est la raison pour laquelle au nom du Gouvernement un telegramme a été envoyé à la famille Kennedy et au Président des Etats-Unis d'Amérique.

Translation of President Diori Hamani's declaration on Radio Niger June 6, 1968

I must express my indignation at this cowardly method of suppression of a political adversary. Here in Niger, as we have reaffirmed within OAU and OCAM, we always condemn assassination as a means of attaining political ends. It is a great pity that after his brother John Kennedy it should now be Robert who is attacked by people failing to realize the importance of their acts. For these poor fellows imagine that by killing a man one kills an idea. The idea started by the Kennedys towards national reconciliation in the United States and toward equality and justice - this idea will progress against wind and tide.

I salute the bereaved family and it is for this reason that in the name of the Government a telegram has been sent to the Kennedy family and to the President of the United States of America.

Declaration of President Boubou Hama on Niger Radio June 6, 1968

Cet acte en soi est odieux. Sur le plan humain, je le condamne. Ce n'est pas par l'assasinat politique qu'on peut se débarraser d'un adversaire, bien au contraire, on accredite dans le présent ou en direction de l'avenir la mémoire de cet adversaire qui devient pour cela un martyr. Le sénateur Kennedy est effectivement un martyr, un martyr d'autant plus douleureux qu'il y a 5 ans son frère - alors Chef Suprême des Etats Unis - avait été abattu. Drame autant plus que les Kennedy se sont attachés à essayer de trouver au drame américain une solution; de telle façon que la mort des Kennedy est une espéce d'esperance enfuit - une espéce d'espoir de millions de pauvres gens d'Amérique enterré. Eh bien, l'Amérique, je le dis en tant que personne humaine, parait être un habitué du fait - le fait d'assassiner ses dirigeants. Cette façon de faire ne doit pas devenir une habitude, car en ce moment là, dans un grand - un trés grand pays comme l'Amérique, tout homme valable peut trembler pour sa vie, et dans ses conditions, où peut on trouver la démocratie? Voila le problème qui est posé, l'affaire est sans doute américaine, elle nous intéresse de loin, mais l'affaire est surtout une affaire humaine, une question d'humanité et c'est pour cela que nous en parlons. Et aussi nous disons que la civilisation occidentale est en train de décevoir des millions d'hommes. Car quand cette civilisation à son pôle le plus developpé, à son pôle le plus actif, le plus puissant, quand cette civilisation qui veut se donner comme modèle au genre humain tue de cette façon des hommes de valeur à cause de leurs idées et surtout des idées extrêmement humaines, on en arrive à douter de la civilisation occidentale. Voila un fait que l'on constate et ce fait qu'on le veuille ou pas, condamne cet aspect de la civilisation occidentale et est un example morbide qui incite ces peuples à l'assassinat, à des actes de violence. Nous pensons quant à nous, qui aimons profondément l'Amérique et les Americains, que la mort de Robert Kennedy, que la mort de John Kennedy, que la mort du Pasteur Martin Luther King, que la mort de tant d'autres anonymes, doit permettrent au peuple américain de se ressaisir, et de réagir avec la foi et la force qu'il faut contre les assassins, contre cette loi de la jungle, qui tend à s'installer dans un pays, dans un des pays du monde le plus avancé.

En dehors de cela, je présente mes condoleances les plus émues au Gouvernement américain et aussi à la famille des victimes. Je souhaite que le peuple américain surmonte cette crise de violence qui sévit sur son territoire national. Je demande au Tout Puissant d'inspirer ses dirigeants actuels afin d'éliminer en Amérique l'assassinat politique comme moyen de parvenir à ses buts.

Translation of President Boubou Hama's Declaration on Niger Radio June 6, 1968

This act in itself is odious. I condemn it from the human point of view. It is not by political murder that you get rid of an opponent. Just the contrary: you build him up in the present as well as in the future and make a martyr out of him. Senator Kennedy is indeed a martyr, and even more so because five years ago his brother, then President of the United States, was killed. More tragic because the Kennedys were determined to find a solution to the American drama. Therefore the death of the Kennedys is a sort of loss of hope, to millions of poor people in America. Well then, and this is my opinion, it seems that the American people are accustomed to have their leaders assassinated. This method, however, should not become a habit.... At this point in a great, a very great country as America every person of worth has to fear for his life. In such conditions where is democracy? Here's the problem, it is of course an American affair and not much to do with us, but most of all its an affair that concerns human beings, and that is why we are talking about it. I say that Western civilization is disappointing millions of people, for now at its highest degree of development, at its most active and powerful, this civilization which claims to be an example to humanity kills worthy men because of their ideals, and especially humanitarian ideals, then we begin to have doubts about Western civilization.

This is a fact we must recognize and, like it or not, this aspect of Western civilization is a morbid example inciting people to murder and violence. We, who have a deep regard for America and the Americans, feel that the death of John Kennedy, the death of Robert Kennedy, of Pastor Martin Luther King and the death of many other unknown persons should lead the American people to take a hold on themselves, to stand up with the necessary force and faith against the killers, against this law of the jungle which seems to be taking hold in one of the most advanced countries of the world.

Apart from this I present my most sincere sympathy to the American Government and also to the victim's family. I express the hope that the American people may overcome this wave of violence assailing their land. I pray the Almighty to inspire their leaders to eliminate political assassination in America as a means of reaching its goals.

SUBJECT : Greenland Peaks named for John and Robert Kennedy

REF :

The Alpine Club of Alpignano, Italy (a suburb of Turin) has informed the Consulate that on July 3, 1968 an expedition consisting of members of the Alpignano branch of the Alpine Club of Italy (CAI) climbed twin Greenland peaks, 4,164 feet high and christened them John and Robert Kennedy.

The peaks are in the District of Angmagssalik, approximately 50 miles north of the town of Angmagssalik and about three hours by sea from Eskimo village of Kungmiut. The exact location is between the fiords Ikasagtivaq and Ikasaulaq. The summits were reached after 10 hours hiking and climbing, and although the peaks are not particularly high, they are considerably higher than other mountains in the area. That they are not especially easy to climb can be seen from the single photograph of John Kennedy Peak supplied to the Consulate, which is enclosed with this airgram.

The summits of the peaks were reached by three alpinists led by the President of the Alpignano branch of the CAI, Fiore AMISANO, and including also Gianmaria GUASTI and Flavio BERTOLO.

The Danish Geodetic Institute was informed of the naming of the peaks and the names presumably will appear on the next map of Greenland published by the Institute. The Alpignano branch has offered to show to the Consulate and the public a film of the expedition taken during the expedition as soon as arrangements can be made for a mutually acceptable time and date for the screening. A booklet describing the expedition also will be printed.

ACTION REQUESTED: Please transmit the above information to the office of Senator Edward Kennedy, with the enclosed photograph. In the event information regarding the peaks has not been previously furnished to the Kennedy family we are certain that a letter of acknowledgment from Senator Kennedy, transmitted through the Consulate, would be appreciated.

SUBJECT : Sirhan Trial Receives Close Attention in Amman

Noted-file NEA/ARN 9-6-68

REF :

The trial of the accused assassin of Senator Robert Kennedy, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, continues to receive wide press coverage in Jordan. The reporting generally is straightforward and detailed. Editorials have been sparse. The following editorial from the sensationalist Amman weekly Akhbar al-'Usbou' on August ninth, entitled "Sirhan and the Palestine Problem", provides an example of some of the more extreme opinions:

> "As a result of the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy, Sirhan is standing trial in an American court. His only defense is that he killed Kennedy for the sake of his country.
> "Three important points are raised by this case:
>
> "1. Sirhan is not a criminal, but rather a man of principle.
> "2. The bullet that shot Kennedy was an inevitable necessity because Zionism has succeeded in attracting bigoted Christians in America into an unholy alliance by convincing them that the Palestine problem is a dispute between Moslems and Jews, and that it is a Christian duty to support the Jews. Sirhan killed Kennedy because he is an Arab first and a Christian second. He killed Kennedy for the sake of his homeland which was usurped by the Jews with the help of the Americans. Living in this atmosphere of direct challenge, Sirhan discovered the necessity for this bullet.

"Kennedy's assassination has raised many questions in America, such as: What has this Christian to do with it? Are the Arab Christians with the Moslems? For whose sake did Sirhan shoot Kennedy? It is sufficient that Sirhan's bullet has raised such questions among Americans.

"3. Arabs everywhere have denied responsibility for this assassination and have avoided comment on the virtues of political assassination. This attitude of the Arabs toward Sirhan is similar to the attitude of Pilatus toward Christ.

"Will Sirhan's trial be able to melt the indifference and passivity of the Arabs toward this Arab patriot in a foreign land?"

SUBJECT : Zambian Reactions to Senator Kennedy's Assassination: Foreign Minister Belatedly Answers Protest

REF : Lusaka 2079, 2080, 2085 and A-465 of June 1968

Lusaka's A-465 and the telegrams under reference reported the letter which Ambassador Good sent to Foreign Minister Kamanga taking exception to allegations made by prominent Zambian officials to the effect that Senator Kennedy was killed by a conspiracy of "those in power." Kamanga's initial reply was in the form of a press interview (Enclosure 2 of A-465) implying disbelief that the assassination could have been anything other than part of a plot.

Today, several weeks later, the Ambassador received a reply (Enclosed) expressing in fairly conciliatory tones, understanding of the Ambassador's concern and stating that the offensive statements were purely the personal feelings of the authors and "were not in any way made or intended to be made on behalf of the Zambian Government."

Although the Foreign Minister's note speaks of messages of condolence to the U.S. Government, the Embassy is unaware of any official expression of condolence addressed to it (or any other U.S. Government agency) by the Zambian Government. (Instead President Kaunda spoke of having a right to protest to the U.S. Government).

Why Kamanga answered at all at this date we can only guess. We assume that the letter was drafted by one of his more diplomatic-minded civil servants--probably Permanent Secretary Mulikita--who finally got him to sign it.

1968 AUG 9 PM 4 01

Enclosure to Lusaka A-504

Office of the Minister of Foreign Affairs,

P.O. Box RW 69,

Lusaka.

30th July, 1968.

His Excellency Robert C. Good,
Ambassador,
Embassy of the United States of America,
LUSAKA.

My Dear Ambassador,

I have just received and noted the contents of your letter of 9 June, 1968. I would have replied earlier than today, but you will no doubt have known that I have been away from Lusaka accompanying His Excellency the President on his recent tour of European countries.

Mr. Ambassador, I fully understand your concern over statements which the Press attributed to certain members of my Government soon after the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. I note from your letter with gratification that you fully understood the deep emotions which the assassination emitted in Zambia. The quick succession of the assassinations of Dr. Martin Luther King and Senator Kennedy confirmed in the minds of many Zambians the picture of the United States as a country where the rule of the gun is the order of the day. To many of them, real life in the States is not different from the cowboy "American-Western" picture they see on their cinema screens and television. They do not understand why the U.S. Government has not succeeded in controlling the gun as effectively as their own Government in Zambia does.

So it is that as one after another, a number of prominent citizens of the U.S. are gunned down, understandably but mistakenly, in the heat of emotions, most Zambians heap the blame on the U.S. Administration.

My Government, however, appreciates the difficulties which successive Administrations in your country have had to battle against in their fight to halt murder by mail order. My Government is sympathetic to the efforts of the present Administration to introduce legislation effecting tighter control on the use of the gun in the United States. The reaction of my Government to the assassination took this background into account. I hardly need remind you of what my Government did to commemorate the assassination of Senator Kennedy, messages of condolence to your Government and the Kennedy family, as well as setting aside a day of national mourning. ?

One feature which the Press in my country shares with the Press anywhere, is that it capitalizes on the private indiscretions of people in responsible positions. The news of the assassination of Senator Kennedy offered the Press in Zambia an excellent opportunity to demonstrate their skill at this old game. I would like to reassure you and your Government that the reported statements expressed a personal feeling on the part of their authors and were not in any way made or intended to be made on behalf of my Government.

I sincerely hope that the machinations of the Press will not be allowed to mar the excellent relations which our two Governments are currently enjoying. It is my hope that our two Governments will lose no opportunity to work side by side in a greater effort to realise the humane ideals, for which Bob Kennedy died, in both our own societies and the entire international community.

Yours sincerely,

The British and German Consulates General lowered their flags to half mast; the Rector of the Anglican Church volunteered to give a memorial service, which was accepted (see refair); and the local florist from whom we bought the flowers for the service volunteered to go to the church at 6 o'clock on Sunday morning and spent over three hours arranging the flowers to perfection. Beyond this, no one showed any unusual concern.

Enclosure 3 consists of a Noticias clipping showing the Consul General signing the formal statement he gave to the press in lieu of interviews and carrying the text of the statement, and the English translation of the statement.

Enclosure 4 consists of the press clippings of the announcement of the memorial service and the reporting on the memorial service in the local press, and a copy of the sermon delivered by the Anglican Rector at the memorial service.

Enclosure 5 contains five copies of the afternoon Extra (the only Extra published here in at least one year) devoted entirely to the late Senator Kennedy.

FALÊNCIA TOTAL DA DEMOCRACIA?

O brutal assassínio de Kennedy mostra bem a falência de determinado tipo de democracia, de todo aquele regime político que pretende fazer doutrina através de propaganda sàbiamente dirigida. Os acontecimentos que nos últimos anos têm ensombrado e recoberto de terror a vasta América e que agora culminaram com o atentado a um jovem senador que se batia pela igualdade dos direitos civis entre os homens e pelo regresso a uma paz duradoura, ressaltam de um estado de coisas que se situa ainda muito longe do espírito autêntico das sãs democracias.

Campeão da liberdade e da igualdade entre todos os homens, Kennedy teria oportunidade de imprimir à sua administração, porque era católico, o que a Igreja nos ensina, atribuindo assim a todos os gestos o mais profundo e transcendente significado. Kennedy acreditava nos homens porque acreditava em Deus e era pelo amor a Deus que trazia todos os homens até si, no mais sagrado respeito pela dignidade fundamental de todo o ser humano.

O que agora aconteceu na América é o retrato de uma época, a trágica e desoladora caricatura de determinado período histórico e que demarca a falência da democracia, quando erguida sobre princípios que desrespeitam exactamente os mais elementares direitos do povo.

No caso presente, a situação torna-se ainda mais desoladora e vergonhosa na medida em que não foi, certamente, um desvairado a cometer o crime, mas qualquer sociedade ou grupo secreto e apenas possível numa nação doente.

Significam e exprimem estas linhas a tristeza do nosso jornal, que se bate pela Justiça e pelo Bem. Descanso eterno à alma de Robert Kennedy.

IS DEMOCRACY COMPLETELY BANKRUPT?

The brutal assassination of Kennedy shows well the failure of a certain type of democracy, where the entire political system seeks to create doctrines by the process of wisely guided propaganda. The events of the last years, that have shadowed and blanketed in terror the huge [land of] America, and have now culminated in the attempt on a young Senator who fought for equality of civil rights among men and for return to a lasting peace, came about from a state of affairs indeed far removed from the true spirit of sane democracy.

Champion of liberty and equality among all men, Kennedy had the opportunity to stamp upon his Administration, because he was Catholic, that which the Church teaches us, giving thereby to all accounts a most profound and transcendent significance. Kennedy believed in men because he believed in God and it was for the love of God that he brought all men to this point in the most sacred respect for the fundamental dignity of every human being.

What has now happened in America is the picture of an epoch, a tragic and desolate caricature of a certain historic period, that marks the failure of democracy when it is guided by principles that specifically derogate the most elementary rights of the people.

In this case the situation is even more wretched and shameful to the extent that it certainly was not a deranged person that committed the crime, but some society or secret group that is possible only in a sick nation.

These lines reflect and express the sorrow of our newspaper that fights for justice and right. Eternal rest to the soul of Robert Kennedy.

A LEI DA BALA

Aconteceu, esta semana, em Los Angeles: uma saraivada de balas levou, em estado de coma, para o Hospital do Bom Samaritano, o corpo inerte de Robert Kennedy.

Entrou, imediatamente, em acção a Cirurgia e, em plena era das Transplantações, o bisturi soçobrou frente aos efeitos da pistola. A Ciência foi «rejeitada» pela violência. O pistoleiro tinha imposto a sua lei: a lei da bala.

Tràgicamente, manteve-se, assim, uma constante histórica dos Estados Unidos: Há um século, Lincoln; há cinco anos, John Kennedy; há poucos meses, Luther King; esta semana o candidato mais recente da projectada dinastia dos Kennedy.

A mesma arma nos quatro assassínios. O mesmo móbil do crime nos quatro atentados.

E vem de longe esta liberdade incrível. Cheira a Far-West. a lei da arma que fez dos pistoleiros heróis, a lei da bala que os próprios xerifes tinham de usar para fazerem Justiça.

Nos trajos de gala desses velhos tempos do Oeste, os coldres figuraram como espadas de honra. Na aprendizagem dos jovens para a vida, o jeito e a rapidez de atirarem certo constituiam diploma de mérito, motivo de orgulho e da vaidade dos pais. E tão sedimentado foi este atavismo que até chegou à Lei Constitucional com uma disposição que garante, a qualquer cidadão, o direito indiscriminado do porte de armas.

Fez-se, entretanto, a revolução técnica e industrial. Computadores, estatísticas, cálculos infalíveis para a conquista do Cosmos... tudo foi possível. Provàvelmente, tudo continuará a ser possível no domínio da máquina, do controlo e do aproveitamento da energia, da certeza dos números. Mas, ao que parece, só o Homem — mais lento na conquista e no domínio de si próprio — ficou amarrado aos coldres da violência válidas para uma sobrevivência matemática, subtraiu-o à forja do Humanismo que caldeia culturas e civilizações. E, feito máquina, destituido de contacto humano — contacto que se faz à custa de martírios e decepções — o velho «Far-West» ressuscitou no mundo da electrónica e da energia nuclear. Voltou a impor a sua lei: a do coldre e da bala.

Não morriamos de amores por Robert Kennedy, nem de ansiedades pelo seu sucesso eleitoral. Sabemos bem que a Casa Branca não pode cair no papo de um pobre de Job. A campanha custa dólares expressos em miríades de zeros e as proclamações ideológicas guardam também, bem guardadas, garantias de fortuna para amanhã. Lamentamos, no entanto, a sua morte pela violência que a impôs. Pesa-nos toda a violência, até porque, neste nosso Moçambique, em atavismos de Far-West, também sentimos no sangue, na carne, nos ossos o sabor amargo dos pistoleiros da lei da bala, das minas, das emboscadas. Somos pela coexistência — aquela que, na verdade, permite «revolucionar» sem coldres nem espoletas; aquela que dá ao Homem o acesso a uma autêntica civilização. E parece que podemos sintetizar este acesso num único propósito: dar ao Homem a certeza de que lhe é garantido o direito pleno de viver, de coexistir com os outros, de construir, em suma, um mundo sempre novo para si e para os seus filhos. E construi-lo apenas com barro, alma e repúdio total de balas e violências.

THE LAW OF THE BULLET

It occurred this week in Los Angeles: A hail of bullets sent the inert body of Robert Kennedy in a state of coma to the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Surgery went into action immediately, yet in the full era of (organ) transplants the scalpel bowed to the effects of the bullet. Science was "rejected" by violence. The gunman had imposed his law: The law of the bullet.

Thus, tragically, was an historical constant of the U.S. maintained: a century ago Lincoln; five years ago Kennedy, a few months ago Luther King; this week the most recent candidate of the projected Kennedy dynasty. The same type of weapon in all four assassinations. The same criminal hallmark in all four attempts.

And this incredible liberty comes from the past. It smells of the Far West, the law of the weapon which made gunmen heroes, the law of the bullet that the sheriffs themselves had to use in order to carry out justice.

On the fancy dress of those old times of the West, holsters served as badges of honor in the apprenticeship of youth for life; the skill and the speed with which they could shoot accurately served as a diploma of merit, a source of pride and vanity for their parents. And so firmly rooted was this ativism that it found itself even in the constitutional law in the form of a revision which guaranteed to any citizen the indiscriminate right to bear arms.

Meanwhile, the technical and industrial revolution took place, computers, statistics, immutable calculations for the conquest of the cosmos..everything was possible. Probably everything will continue to be possible in the realm of the machine, of the control and use of energy, and the certainty of mathematics. But, so it seems, man alone -- slower in the conquest and domination of himself -- remained strapped to the holsters of violence.

UNCLASSIFIED

Any balancing of the accounts that is mathematically valid for survival is betrayed at the forge of humanism that shapes cultures and civilizations, and in a mechanical object void of human contact -- contact created at the cost of martyrdom and disappointments -- the old Far West is revived in the world of electronics and nuclear energy. It has returned to impose its law; that of the holster and the bullet.

We were not overcome with love for Robert Kennedy nor with anxiety for his electoral success. We well know that the White House cannot fall into the lap of one as poor as Job. The campaign costs sums expressed in myriads of zeros and the idealogical proclamations retain also well protected guarantees of fortune for tomorrow. We lament nevertheless his death because of the violence with which it came. We regret all violence even to include that of our Mozambique which lacks the ativism of the Far West, and we also feel in our blood, our flesh and our bones the bitter taste of the gunmen of the law of the bullet, of the mines and the ambushes. We are for coexistence, that which in fact permits the making of "revolution" without holsters or detonating caps; that which gives man access to an authentic civilization. And it seems we can synthesize this access in one proposition: give to man the certainty that to him is guaranteed the clear right to live, to coexist with others, to build, in short, an ever new world always new for him and for his children and to build it only with earth and with spirit, and with total repudiation of bullets and violence.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking pearls: who when he had found one pearl of great price went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Mt. 13,45

During the past few weeks the world has lost two men which it could ill afford to lose. Robert Francis Kennedy was a Catholic of whom some would say "he had learned the Protestant Ethic." Martin Luther King was a Protestant clergyman of whom some would say "he had learned Catholicity in all its fullness." Both of these men gave to the Church an example of humble obedience in following, according to their lights, the words of Jesus of Nazareth in the tenets of Christian freedom. Both of these men died at the hands of an assassin who in his waywardness expressed the waywardness of the society in which he lived.

What was it which they had discovered in life which was a compelling force, which drove them to be solitary lights in a lost generation? Speaking on this continent before four thousand people, Robert Kennedy said: "I do not do this because it is politically expedient -- although it is. I do not do it because it is commercially and economically profitable, but it is; I do not do it because the laws of God say so -- although they do. I do it because I believe it is the right thing to do."

Martin Luther King, speaking in London when asked about the possibility of his own assassination said, "I can only reply with the words of a man whose name I share, 'Here I stand - I can do no other.'"

It was as though, in the words of the parable, they had found in life, a philosophy, a way of living which was to them like a pearl of great price and both were prepared to sacrifice all that they had in order to find fulfillment in it.

UNCLASSIFIED

If we can find anything praiseworthy in the lives of these two men, I propose that it may help us to reflect on this biblical parable which strikes with precision all that they found true for themselves for in so doing we may discover something which is true for ourselves.

"The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking pearls: who when he had found one pearl of great price went and sold all that he had, and bought it." Notice that the merchant didn't find the pearl of great price at the beginning of his career. He was in business for some time before he found it. Of course, he had to accumulate the capital needed to buy it. Had he found it at the beginning of his career he would not have had the stock to sell to realize the fortune needed to buy it. Had he not traded in lesser pearls he would never have acquired the one pearl he longed for.

Jesus said the Kingdom, the absolute for man, is like this merchant. It is not something which can be presented to you on a plate so that all you have to do is get it and feel good. You will find many who have forgotten that this is so.

They tell you that if you stick to this, that or the other form of orthodoxy you've got it. But you haven't got it! All you've got is an excuse to stop looking for it. Fanaticism is always a means of preventing doubt from becoming serious.

Others will tell you that the Kingdom is found in obedience to a traditional system of morals. Obedience always looks like a virtue whereas in fact it is always blasphemy - blasphemy against oneself. To base your life on other people's rules, even though we call them "God's laws" is to choose slavery instead of freedom. Freedom means that we have discovered for ourselves what is true for ourselves, how we can express sincerely and freely what we are. If we are content to be conventional, which means content to be like someone else accepting rules for a given type of person, then we have abandoned the search for the Kingdom of Heaven.

Others tell you that you must have a particular sort of religious experience called conversion. They say if you haven't had this then you are outside the Kingdom. The trouble with this sort of experience is that if you examine it carefully, it isn't religious at all. True, the required feelings are often long associated with religion; but similar feelings can be evoked without religious symbols. Think of the warmth, the escape, the sense of purpose and mission evoked by this century's greatest preacher who fooled all Europe with a lie. His name is Adolph Hitler. It is not easy to distinguish between the Kingdom of Heaven and the Kingdom of Hell.

How then can we find the Kingdom, the truth for ourselves, the pearl of great price? Surely by refusing to be satisfied with anything less than what is satisfying. Not what should satisfy, but what does satisfy. You know how we all go to parties and we all enjoy ourselves immensely. This is just polite convention. But beware lest we treat life in this way, trying to persuade ourselves that it satisfies when it doesn't.

Let's return to the merchant. Remember, he had to accumulate capital before he could buy the one pearl. This was solid wealth. We often think we can buy the pearl with paper money -- but it is dangerous to forget that there is little value in paper money. We resolve to do this or that, forgetting that there are large areas of life in which the willpower we wish for is never available. I resolve to love people more. That resolve is the paper money I pay for the pearl of great price, but I forget that as yet my capacity to love is immature and in the absence of real wealth my resolve is worth very little. So I expect to get the pearl and wonder why I don't. What we have to learn is that real capital accumulates slowly and often without our noticing it.

Theologians say we grow by the grace of God but grace isn't a sort of spiritual petrol. It's the creative quality of life itself -- all things we do, all that happens to us, working, arguing, listening, playing, loving, all splendors, all miseries, all the pleasure and all the pain. It is here that our real selves and real capital accumulates slowly so that in the end we can know the paper money of our resolves with the gold of our whole selves.

Can we recognize the pearl of great price? Christianity presents us with a man on a cross. It points to this man in his death, and says that there, in utter, complete self-giving is what totally satisfies. Most of us have brief moments when we know with absolute certainty that to give ourselves away in love is the perfect satisfaction for which we crave. But such moments do not stay -- the crucified soon passes out of sight, and we are left to win the truth for ourselves by trial and error and by unspeakable joy full of glory.

Through Jesus there is nothing in this world, or in the next, which cannot, and will not, be turned into the valid currency we need, to buy the one pearl of great price. That is what we mean when we say that we are redeemed.

Consulate personnel have participated in the following memorial observances concerning the Kennedy family during the present month:

On July 15, 1968 Consul General Joseph C. Wheeler and Mrs. Wheeler attended ceremonies at Barga (province of Lucca) dedicating the municipal park and a fountain in honor of John and Robert Kennedy. The fountain was donated by members of the "Giovanni Pascoli Benevolent Society" of Chicago. 183 representatives of the Society came from the United States to attend the dedication ceremonies at which Consul General Wheeler delivered an address, in Italian, to an audience estimated at over 3,000 persons. The 49th Army Band and an American military honor guard were present at this event during which the American flag was raised and both American and Italian national anthems were played. Among the dignitaries participating were Loris Biagioni, under secretary of State, and numerous local and provincial authorities. The Consul General's speech was very warmly received and good coverage was obtained in the local press. Sections of the ceremonies also appeared on Italian national television on July 16, 1968.

On July 7, 1968 FSO Allen S. Greenberg participated in memorial activities for Senator Kennedy organized by the "La Perla" Cultural Society of Follonica (province of Grosseto). The observances included a Mass for Senator Kennedy at which an American military honor guard was present. An estimated 400 persons attended this ceremony. FSO Greenberg subsequently delivered a memorial address, in Italian, at the Follonica City Hall to an audience of 65 persons.

DOMENICA A BARGA

Inaugurati la fontana e il parco alla memoria di John e Robert Kennedy

Presenti i « barghigiani di Chicago » - Le parole del console americano
Un po' di storia - Il discorso conclusivo del sottosegretario Biagioni

Encl 1
Florence A-54

Nel centenario dell'emigrazione barghigiana — fu intorno al 1870 che a quella nomade e temporanea del « figurinai » si sostituì nel Barghigiano la vera e propria emigrazione verso i grandi centri industriali del Nord America — sono stati inaugurati ieri a Barga una fontana monumentale e un parco pubblico dedicati alla memoria di John e Robert Kennedy, e la casa di riposo « Giovanni Pascoli », ambedue munifico dono dei membri barghigiani della « Giovanni Pascoli benevolent society » di Chicago alla loro città natale. Fontana e casa di riposo sono state realizzate interamente dai barghigiani di Chicago: il parco pubblico — che sorge nel punto di congiunzione fra la vecchia Barga castellana e quella moderna costituita dai barghigiani tornati dall'estero in questi cento anni di intensa e tradizionale emigrazione — più propriamente dalla Pro Loco e dall'intera cittadinanza.

Tra avvenimenti come lo sottolineato il console generale americano J. Wheeler, fu un un colpo simbolico « Cinque i grandi coraggiosi barghigiani che partirono cento anni or sono, il bisnonno di John e Robert Kennedy aveva traversato l'Atlantico nella metà del secolo scorso per trovare un maggior benessere per se stesso e per i suoi figli nel nuovo mondo. Come i primi barghigiani, egli aveva portato con sè poco più della sua volontà di fare del suo meglio e di lavorare onestamente. Le strade del nuovo mondo non erano lastricate d'oro ed egli come gli altri immigrati doveva lavorare duro per guadagnarsi il pane quotidiano. Ma grazie all'operosità e all'intelligenza sua e dei figli che lo avevano seguito, la famiglia Kennedy non poteva solo arricchirsi ma faceva germogliare nei nostri tempi quella magnifica fioritura in cui esemplari più belli sono certo stati John e Robert Kennedy. Allo stesso modo gli emigrati barghigiani trasferendosi sul fertile suolo americano hanno lavorato e contribuito allo sviluppo degli Stati Uniti e i loro generosi discendenti, rappresentati oggi da centosettanta membri della « Giovanni Pascoli benevolent society » di Chicago, sono tornati in Italia per portare soccorso, speranza alla loro città di origine. La fontana, il parco e la casa di riposo che oggi inauguriamo, rappresentano un ulteriore segno di quel forte vincolo che unisce i nostri grandi popoli così come i fratelli Kennedy avevano lavorato per unire tutte le genti del mondo su basi di reciproca amicizia, soccorso e amore ». I centosettanta barghigiani di Chicago erano arrivati domenica sera a Milano in aereo per presenziare alla inaugurazioni. A Milano avevano ricevuto il caloroso benvenuto del sindaco di Barga, cav. uff. Felice Menichini, del presidente della Pro-Loco cav. Pietro Marroni e del direttore del Giornale di Barga, Bruno Sereni, infaticabili promotori e animatori della manifestazione. A Barga gli « americani » hanno ricevuto l'affettuoso saluto dei loro conterranei e l'attestazioni della riconoscenza e della profonda stima per le due magnifiche realizzazioni che costituiscono il più bel monumento ai cento anni dell'emigrazione barghigiana.

Col console generale americano hanno preso parte alla cerimonia, cui faceva festosa corona tutta la popolazione, il sottosegretario onorevole Loris Biagioni, il viceprefetto dottor Rovella, il questore dottor Bernucci, il presidente dell'amministrazione provinciale ingegner Barsanti, il comandante del presidio colonnello Nocentini, il presidente dell'ente turismo professor Arata, il direttore dell'ENAL Giuliani, il capitano Barlo dei carabinieri eccetera. Prestava un servizio d'onore un picchetto di soldati americani e la banda della SETAF.

Al parco Kennedy — la fontana monumentale è un dono personale degli italo-americani Luigi De Prato, Augusto Lazzerini e Fabio Conti di Chicago — dopo l'alzabandiera americana e la benedizione impartita dal proposto di Barga monsignor Baroni hanno parlato il sindaco di Barga e il console generale americano. Il sindaco ha ricordato il generoso contributo dei barghigiani all'estero, sottolineando come Barga il giorno in cui viene inaugurata la casa di riposo, abbia voluto testimoniare la sua grande riconoscenza verso gli Stati Uniti dedicando il parco pubblico alla memoria del grande presidente John Kennedy e a quella del fratello senatore Robert entrambi apostoli e martiri della libertà e della convivenza di tutti i popoli della terra.

Successivamente, nei pressi dell'ospedale, è stata inaugurata la casa di riposo « Giovanni Pascoli ». Ha parlato il presidente della « Giovanni Pascoli benevolent society », Augusto Lazzerini, che ha ricordato la costituzione della società avvenuta a Chicago nel 1955 e le iniziative dei barghigiani emigrati in America, culminate con la donazione della casa di riposo che ha definito « un lembo di Chicago in terra barghigiana ».

Ha concluso il sottosegretario Biagioni il quale ha esaltato l'operosità dei nostri emigranti e il loro amore alla terra natale. Al termine del suo intervento il sottosegretario ha consegnato all'italo-americano Nicola Marcucci la commenda della solidarietà nazionale conferitagli dal presidente del consiglio onorevole Leone.

Dopo la benedizione della casa e il taglio del nastro da parte della consorte del console americano, autorità e invitati hanno visitato i locali guidati dal presidente dell'ospedale di Barga, Guelfo Marcucci.

Il bisnonno di Kennedy come gli emigrati di Barga

Nobili parole del console Joseph C. Wheeler alla cerimonia inaugurale del parco-giardino - Il discorso del sindaco Menichini

I festeggiamenti dell'emigrazione borghigiana con l'inaugurazione del parco-giardino intitolato ai fratelli Kennedy e la Villa di riposo « G. Pascoli », hanno avuto favorevole eco in tutto dovunque.

Come ha tenuto a sottolineare il console americano Joseph C. Wheeler « l'avvenimento accomuna in sentimento di fierezza e solennità italiani e americani. Come i primi coraggiosi borghigiani che partivano cento anni or sono, il bisnonno di John e Robert Kennedy aveva attraversato l'Atlantico nella metà del secolo scorso per trovare un maggior bene sia per se stesso e per i suoi figli nel Nuovo Mondo. Come i primi borghigiani egli aveva portato con sè poco più della sua volontà di fare del suo meglio e di lavorare onestamente. Le strade del Nuovo Mondo non erano certo lastricate di oro ed egli, come gli altri immigrati, doveva lavorare sodo per guadagnarsi il pane quotidiano. Ma grazie alla operosità ed intelligenza sua e dei figli che l'avevano seguito, la famiglia Kennedy non poteva solo arricchirsi ma faceva germogliare, nei nostri tempi quella magnifica nazione i cui esemplari più belli sono certo stati John e Robert. Allo stesso modo gli emigrati di Barga trapiantando i suoi fertile suolo d'America hanno lavorato e contribuito allo sviluppo degli Stati Uniti e i loro discendenti rappresentati qui oggi dai 170 membri del "Giovanni Pascoli Benevolent Society" di Chicago, sono ritornati in Italia per portare soccorso e sperare alla loro città d'origine ...»

Il sindaco cavaliere ufficiale Menichini ha detto fra l'altro: « Nel commemorare i cento anni di emigrazione borghigiana nel mondo, è con sentimento di profonda gratitudine che io voglio ricordare non solo il grande sviluppo economico favorito dai nostri concittadini all'estero alla loro terra di origine, ma anche i generosi contributi da essi dati alle più nobili iniziative. Barga, con la sensibilità che la distingue, ha voluto in questo stesso giorno in cui viene inaugurata la villa di riposo, testimoniare la sua grande riconoscenza verso gli Stati Uniti, dedicando il parco-giardino, la cui ampia vasca è un dono, un altro dono di tre concittadini di Chicago, alla imperitura memoria dei fratelli Kennedy. Questo parco, voluto e costruito dalla Pro Loco, con la partecipazione della cittadinanza, è una rara dimostrazione di quella vita associata che Barga attraverso i secoli ha sempre mantenuto ...»

La cerimonia a Barga. Parla il console generale degli Stati Uniti

COPY NO. 1 SERIES A

FROM : Amembassy SANTO DOMINGO

DATE: 7 July 68

SUBJECT : Transmitting Bosch Letter

REF : SD-2762

DEPARTMENT OF STATE BUREAU OF INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS
JUL 10 1968

1. Attached are five copies of a letter dated June 9 and sent to PRD confidant Sacha VOLMAN from party mentor Juan BOSCH. In the letter, Bosch points out how he had predicted that Robert Kennedy would be killed, and how the US people are allegedly dominated by the power structure. The US people are "Pentagonized", and there is no chance that the US will change its reckless policies either toward Latin America or the rest of the world; if the US withdraws from Viet-Nam, it will be for internal political reasons, and only to fight another day somewhere else. The US will continue applying its established methods in the DR, and Volman and PEÑA Gómez are mistaken if they hope for any change in this. Only the Dominican people can help themselves, and then only by severing ties with the US and looking elsewhere. It is useless to try to remove the PRD's "communist" stigma, for the party's enemies are convinced of this, and President Johnson himself called PRDers communists. Finally, Bosch expresses himself firmly against the US trip of the PRD delegation to the Robert Kennedy funeral observances (see reference) by pointing out the risks involved and by charging that the US seeks servants, not allies.

2. Volman asked that the letter be shown to the Ambassador, in the belief that it clearly demonstrates the difficulties he (Volman) and Secretary General PEÑA Gómez are having with Bosch, who charges them with a naive and soft attitude toward the U.S. Volman also believes that the letter by inference refutes the idea that Peña Gómez is by nature or commitment anti-US.

3. For obvious reasons, the distribution of this letter should be limited and the source strictly protected.

4. Comment:

A. Bosch's letter speaks for itself and is perhaps of most value in demonstrating the lengths to which Bosch's bitterness and frustration have driven him. His anti-Americanism clearly extends not only to the Johnson Administration but to the US people per se with the rationalization that they have been hopelessly "Pentagonized" and that nothing good may be expected of them. In a clear call to abandon hope for the democratic achievement of power in favor of the route of violent revolution, he advises all Dominicans seeking to transform their country to break their ties with the US and to take their struggle elsewhere, for "anything else is a waste of time and energy."

B. The letter does appear to show, as Volman suggests, that Peña Gómez is at odds with Bosch concerning PRD/US relations; and this basic disagreement with the former PRD President extends to other party leaders as well, according to Volman's description of their reactions to the letter.

Querido Sacha:

Andas con dos meses de adelanto, puesto que fechaste tu carta del día 9 en agosto y no en junio. Cuando la recibí ya estaban viajando para New York José Francisco, Cundo Gil, Mani Espinal. José Francisco me dijo que iban al entierro de Bobbie Kennedy, pero en realidad para mí eso es un pretexto. José Francisco cree todavía en la posibilidad de que los Estados Unidos cambien su política sobre la América Latina; y yo creo que la muerte de Bobbie demuestra que los norteamericanos no pueden cambiar nada; al contrario, irán cada vez más hacia la locura internacional aunque se retiren de Vietnam. Porque estoy convencido de esto decía que a Bobbie lo matarían, y la pobre Carmen me pedía que no lo dijera, que no repitiera e-funcionando la maquinaria de poder como hasta ahora y para que siga aplicando en Santo Domingo los métodos que ha estado aplicando allí; y José Francisco y tú se equivocan si tienen la menor esperanza de que eso cambie. Lo único que podría hacer cambiar la situación un poco --no mucho-- sería la lucha del pueblo dominicano. Pero comprendo que José Francisco mantenga su esperanza porque habiendo sido un demócrata convencido le cuesta mucho trabajo y mucho dolor aceptar que la democracia norteamericana es una mentira monumental y ya no puede volver a ser lo que fue.

JUAN BOSCH

Por otra parte, también le duele a José Francisco que lo acusen --y nos acusen-- de comunista. Y yo me pregunto si hay manera de cambiar esa situación. Nada puede cambiarla. Fue Johnson, el presidente de los Estados Unidos quien nos acusó de comunistas, y nadie podrá quitarnos esa acusación de encima. Pero no tiene ningún sentido querer demostrar que no somos comunistas si resulta que nuestros enemigos están convencidos de que lo somos. Lo que tiene que hacer José Francisco y lo que tienen que hacer todos los dominicanos que quieren transformar su país en otra cosa es preci-

(2) so, como si la amenaza contra la vida de ese estupendo muchacho estuviera en mis palabras y no en el seno de la sociedad norteamericana, que ya no tiene salida si no es por el camino de la violencia colectiva y personal. Una dominicana que vive en España me llamó por teléfono al día diguiente del atentao de Los Angeles y me dijo que cuando me oyó decir que a Bobbie ~~[illegible]~~ lo matarían pensó que yo estaba hablando por pasión, pero que reconocía que no era así. También al oírme hablar de la política norteamericana en Santo Domingo y en América Latina alguien puede pensar que estoy apasionado y racionliso esa pasión. Pero le cierto que ~~[illegible]~~ estoy convencido de que la maquinaria del poder de los Estados Unidos domina a los hombres de ese país y esa maquinaria no dará marcha atrás. Se retirará de Vietnam por razones de política interna, pero estará en otro sitio, o por lo menos reforzará su poderío en los países débiles de América. Hasta hoy, domingo día 9, ya enterrado Bobbie, en todos los Estados Unidos no ha habido la menor protesta por el asesinato de Los Angeles, lo que indica que yo tengo razón cuando digo que el pueblo de los Estados Unidos está pentagonizado y no luchará contra el poder que lo lleva hacia una catástrofe. Hay, pues, las condiciones adecuadas para que siga

(4) samente romper sus nexos con esa llamada democracia norteamericana y luchar en otro campo. Todo lo demás es perder tiempo y energías.

Yo tengo mis ideas sobre el viaje de los muchachos. Espero que me llegue la noticia de que han sido desconsiderados por algún inspector de Inmigración o por la policía o por algún funcionario, como le sucedió a José Francisco en mayo de 1966. El viaje ha sido hecho por cuenta y riesgo de ellos. José Francisco me lo comunicó la noche antes de su salida y ya le dije que estaba bien porque no podía hacer otra cosa. Pero no lo apruebo. No apruebo nada que signifique el menor esfuerzo para llegar a un entendimiento con los norteamericanos, porque ellos buscan sirvientes, no aliados; y lo que es peor, no pueden aceptar aliados debido a que su política de poder no les permite respetar ningún límite, ningún compromiso. Su maquinaria de poder es demasiado grande y marcha aplastando todo lo que halle a su paso, y no hay en los Estados Unidos quien detenga esa maquinaria ni quien pueda detenerla. Y el que lo dude, que resucite a Robert Kennedy.

Gracias por tus atenciones con doña Carmen. Un abrazo con mi viejo afecto.

provided in response to inquiries; a condolence book was made available at the Ambassador's residence and then at the Embassy itself; the Ambassador delivered the eulogy at a memorial service sponsored by the combined American churches; and letters of condolence coming to the Embassy were answered by a letter from the Ambassador.

On the day of the shooting, in a remarkable personal gesture considering the lack of diplomatic relations between the two countries, the Charge d'Affaires of the United Arab Republic telephoned the Ambassador to express his shock and regrets. A similar telephone call was made by the second officer in the U.A.R. mission to the Deputy Chief of Mission.

During the day between the shooting and the Senator's death, the Embassy answered numerous inquiries by providing the latest news that had reached us through the various media. The Marine Guards were given a statement which was periodically revised as the situation changed.

Following the Senator's death, arrangements were made to make available a condolence book at the Ambassador's residence on Sunday, June 9, the day of national mourning. The book was available from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., and nearly two hundred people signed the book during the course of the day. A Marine guard was posted by the book as an honor guard, and junior officers of the Embassy acted as escorts to greet and thank callers. Mr. E.W. Barker, Singapore's Minister of Law and National Development,,signed the book on behalf of the Government of Singapore. The signing was covered by press and television photographers and carried later in the local press and on television. Among the others who came during the day were the Chief Justice of Singapore, the wife of the Foreign Minister, and most of the Ambassadors and other foreign representatives in the Republic.

During the course of the following week the condolence book was kept in the lobby of the Embassy, and numerous other Americans and Singaporeans signed the book during this time. On Tuesday, June 11, the Prime Minister of Australia, Mr. John Gorton, present in Singapore on an official visit, called at the Embassy in order to sign the book and to convey his condolences to the Ambassador. He and Mrs. Gorton were greeted by the Ambassador and Mrs. Galbraith and his visit to the Embassy was recorded by the Embassy photographer. The Prime Minister later sent a personal note to the Ambassador as well.

A memorial service for Senator Kennedy was held in the Wesley Methodist Church in the afternoon of Sunday, June 9. Organized and sponsored by the combined American churches in Singapore, the service was attended by some two hundred people. Most of those present were Americans, but a considerable number of non-Americans attended as well. Minister Barker again representated the Government of Singapore. Ambassador Galbraith delivered the eulogy and two of the local American clergymen read lessons and led prayers. Moving but dignified, the service was a fitting memorial to the Senator. Requiem masses were also held for Senator Kennedy on Friday, June 14, at the Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus.

During the days following the assassination the Embassy received numerous letters and other tributes from people in all walks of life in Singapore. Among these were several poems, one memorial story, and a letter from a "young American" that ended, "Today I cry for America and I hope Mr. Ambassador that my people will hear me." Where possible these letters were answered by the Ambassador, expressing his appreciation and that of the Kennedy family for the thoughts and sympathy of the writers. The Ambassador has also written personal letters of condolence to Mrs. Robert Kennedy and to Senator Edward Kennedy, enclosing copies of the eulogy delivered at the memorial service on Sunday.

These were the most significant events in Singapore related to the death of Senator Kennedy and the reaction here to his death. The scale of purely private mourning cannot be accurately reported, but numerous social events were cancelled during the weekend following the assassination out of respect for the Senator and his family.

As attachments to this airgram, the Embassy is forwarding to the Department the condolence book, two copies of the eulogy delivered by Ambassador Galbraith at the memorial service, letters of condolence received by the Embassy together with copies of our replies, a newspaper clipping describing the memorial activities here, and several photographs taken by members of the Embassy staff.

Honorable Edward M. Kennedy
United States Senator
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Kennedy:

I want to inform you of how people in Singapore shared in America's sorrow and grief over Senator Robert Kennedy's death.

I was in charge of our Embassy in Djakarta when President Kennedy died and I remember the amazing number of people from all walks of life who at that time spontaneously showed their feelings for him and for our country. There has been a similar showing of feeling here in Singapore, as I am confident there was everywhere, for Senator Robert Kennedy. Hundreds came to the Embassy Residence on Sunday, June 9 to sign a condolence book. Services by a combined group of American protestant pastors on June 9 and later by Catholic Missions here, were heavily attended. We have received many letters eloquent of feeling and sympathy for you and your family and all of us who share your loss. I will send a complete report on the Singapore response to you and others in the Kennedy family through the Department of State as soon as I feel that the response, which is still going on, has been fulfilled. But I wanted you to have this brief account and to be able to express to you and members of your family my own deep sympathy. I enclose a copy of the eulogy I delivered at one of the church services, in which I tried to express how I felt.

Sincerely,

Francis J. Galbraith
Ambassador

Fellow Americans. Friends of America.

I speak to you today at a time of national, indeed of international sorrow.

All of us have known sorrow; most of us have known suffering; some of us have known tragedy. But a tragedy such as this second assassination of a Kennedy in public life makes us realize the limitations of the spoken word in trying to convey what is in our minds and hearts.

Some of us knew Robert Kennedy as an individual and as an official of the Government of the United States. As a member of the late President Kennedy's cabinet, the more recently as a candidate for our highest elective office, he was much in the public eye.

As perhaps the most colorful member of a large and colorful family, he drew attention wherever he moved -- and he was never still. He provoked as much acclaim, adulation, criticism, and controversy at home and abroad, as any man I know of his age in public life.

Senator Robert Kennedy would have been 43 years old on the 20th of next November. That was the age of John Kennedy when he was elected President.

Senator Kennedy was a sophomore at Harvard when his eldest brother Joseph was killed in World War II. Robert pleaded with Navy Secretary Forrestal and got a transfer from Naval ROTC in college to duty in war aboard the destroyer named the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., in honor of his fallen brother.

After a short Navy career he returned to Harvard where he displayed again that fierce competitive courage that was to mark his too-short life: weighing a mere 150 pounds he played end to the varsity football team.

After Harvard he went to the University of Virginia Law School. The Dean of the Law School there said that if he had been as much interested in grades as he was in public affairs, he would have been an honor student.

After law school Robert Kennedy's first position was with the U.S. Government, in the Criminal Division of the Justice Department. When newly elected President John Kennedy appointed him head of the Justice Department, as Attorney General, in 1961, it provoked a lot of criticism. But when as Attorney General Robert became one of the President's most valued advisers and, next to the President himself, one of the most decisive, active and powerful men in the U.S. Government, the carping about his inexperience and unsuitability subsided.

In 1964 Robert Kennedy ran for the Senate from the state of New York, overwhelming the popular Republican incumbent. Robert Kennedy's election marked the first time in our history that three brothers ever served in the U.S. Senate.

Robert Kennedy spurned the approved role of the quiet "freshman" Senator, earning once again both praise and denunciation. Time and again he spoke out on the subjects he felt strongly about. His advocacy of civil rights and of welfare for the poor and underprivileged won him the respect and adulation of the unfortunate. He had the capacity, perhaps strange for one born with a silver spoon in his mouth, to sympathize with the deprived, the defeated, the forgotten. Those who reported on him at close hand in these things say there was nothing false or opportunistic in his concern for the downtrodden, that he really cared. He conducted his presidential campaign as a passionate crusader for the less fortunate in America and elsewhere.

Above all, of course, he appealed to the young, for he never lost those youthful qualities of idealism and thirst for adventure, even though lines had begun to show in his face and grey to fleck his hair.

With his wealth and privilege in this day of much comfort and self-indulgence, it would have been easy for him to reiterate the age-old shoulder-shrugging words: "Am I my brother's keeper?" The whole of his too-brief working life was devoted to the service of his country and of his fellow man.

He knew it was a hard and dangerous path he had chosen. But adversity and danger never deterred him -- indeed he sought them out.

Shortly before his tragic death Robert Kennedy expressed his awareness of the dangers of his exposure in the political arena. But he did not fear for himself. Nor did he fear for America. He dared to dream, and to do, and he accomplished much. He went far. But he always looked onwards and upwards, to the top of the mountain.

Someone once asked Robert Kennedy what he had done that pleased him most. He replied that the best thing he had ever done was to marry Ethel.

It is to her and their children, to the many-times-bereaved mother of Robert Kennedy, to his aged and ailing father, and to all the Kennedy family, that our hearts and our prayers go in this dark, sad hour for them -- and for all who love and admire the brave.

In honoring Robert Kennedy let us resolve that this great tragedy shall not have been in vain and by our thoughts, words and deeds give as courageously and as unselfishly as he did to make this a better world for all.

In proclaiming this day a day of national mourning in honor of Robert F. Kennedy, President Johnson said: "This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity."

Robert F. Kennedy will be buried today in Arlington alongside President John F. Kennedy. They belong to history. May their souls rest in peace.

Dear Frank,

On behalf of Betty and myself, and of all the British community, I want to offer you our condolences on the death of Senator Kennedy.

It seems such a short while ago that I was writing a similar letter to John Steeves in Kabul about the death of President Kennedy. The shock that we all feel at the assassination of so distinguished a member of the United States Senate is all the greater when we remember the many tragedies which have afflicted the Kennedy family. I know that all of us are thinking particularly today not only of Senator Kennedy's widow and children but also of his mother, a woman who has had to face far more sorrow than should be the lot of any human being.

Yours sincerely
Arthur

I write to express my sincere thanks for your letter of condolence over the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. An event such as this, the more tragic for being the second assassination of a Kennedy in public life, is indeed a source of shock and grief for all of us.

I know, as you indicated in your letter, that the Arab press along with the press of most of the world expressed shock and disapproval of this terrible crime. Please be assured that no group or people is considered responsible for this act, though it is indeed tragic that there are conditions in the world which can play on twisted minds and motivate such a deed.

I am forwarding your letter and the newspaper article which accompanied it to Washington where they may join the many other expressions of sympathy from all around the world. I know that it will be a source of comfort to the Kennedy family to know that their profound grief is shared by so many others.

Dear Excellency,

When the very sad news of the death of Mr. Robert Kennedy reached Singapore I was then in Malaysia and therefore I was not able to come to your Embassy earlier to sign in the condolences book. I could only do so on the 18th instant.

I officially now convey to you my deepest sympathy and express my sincere condolences on the great loss suffered by the American people by the death of Mr. Robert Kennedy.

You are in Singapore and do not of course read the various sections of the Arab press, both right and left. I, however, read these regularly and I can assure you that the entire Arab press has disapproved the crime and has expressed the greatest regret and pain for what has happened. All the Arab States and Governments have expressed their condemnation of the crime and their deepest sympathy to the Kennedy's family. In addition the leaders of the Arab Commandos who are resisting the Israel occupation have also disapproved the crime and have expressed their greatest regret.

The Arab Press has in particular mentioned that although the late Mr. Robert Kennedy uttered on more than one occasion sentiments in support of Israel the Arab World excuses such utterances because every candidate an important election in America must say something about Israel otherwise he is liable to lose many votes in the election.

The Arab World still remembers and appreciates the attitude of the late President John Kennedy who was less in favour of Israel than any other American President. As a matter of fact because of the Israeli press criticised once the late President John Kennedy.

Although the accused killer of Mr. Robert Kennedy is an Christian Arab youth the Arab World considers that this youth must have been badly misled by the Communists, or very possibly by Israeli in disguise pretending to be Arab nationalists. Nothing would do more harm to the Arab cause under present day International circumstances than have an Arab accused of killing Mr. Robert Kennedy.

I send herewith a picture of the father of the accused killer of Mr. Robert Kennedy. This father and his family have been among the saddest people because of what has happened. The simple father when he heard the news said, "I am shocked by what my son did". The father also said that he was unable to believe that his son who was sharply intelligent could have descended to such a level. In one of the father's additional statements he also said that his son was a good Christian and that he must have been very badly misled and wrongly influenced.

With kindest regards.

Introduction

The needs of human hearts are basically the same. It makes no difference if its owner lives in a Park Avenue apartment and drives a Cadillac or whether he dwells in a cottage and walks to work — his heart yearns to know God.

But the necessity of earning one's daily bread seems to consume most of our daylight hours. We go to the office or punch a time clock or clean the house . . . while relentless time marches on. Before we realize it, we have spent our lives as a tale that is told or as a watch in the night . . . and our never-dying souls have not been fed.

We know that we should take more time for communion with God; but somehow the rugged realities of life demand our time to the point that we almost forget that "the grave is not the goal" of life.

If you find yourself pictured somewhere in the above description then this "Little Book of Comfort" is for you. No matter who you are or what your mission in life may be, God is the answer to the seeming jig-saw of your life.

Take up and read and God will give you life . . . eternal life. Read and believe, for "all things are possible (if we) only believe."

Sunrise with God

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth (Psalm 121:1, 2).

Whether it be the rolling hills of Kansas or the steep majesty of the Rockies, to look up is inspiring.

But to catch a glimpse of the sun breaking across the rugged beauty of the land seems easily to turn one's mind toward God. It did for David ...it can for each of us.

David must have been up before the sun many times as he herded his sheep. And often must have met his Lord just as streamers of gold and silver spoke of a new day.

Try lifting up your eyes to the hills as David did, in the early morning hour, and you, too, will find the help that he spoke of.

Bishop Ralph Cushman emphasized this thought in his poem:

God's Presence

I met God in the morning
When my day was at its best,
And His presence came like sunrise—
Like a glory in my breast.

All day long this Presence lingered,
All day long He stayed with me,
And we sailed in perfect calmness
O'er a very troubled sea.

Other ships were torn and battered,
Other ships were sore distressed,

But the winds that seemed to drive them
Brought to me a peace and rest.

Then I thought of other mornings
With a keen remorse of mind,
When I, too, had loosed the moorings
With this Presence left behind.

So I think I've learned the secret
Learned through many a troubled way,
You must meet God in the morning
If you want Him through the day.

It isn't easy to do . . . I know. But, to take a few moments with Him just as the sun comes up — when the house is still, and just the birds are peeping — is a blessed time. You may not be able to do it every morning, just occasionally. But, if you meet Him in the morning often you'll find that the day is empty when you forget.

Such was the case with the disciples of our Lord who had spent the night fishing, in vain . . .

But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore . . . Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes . . .

As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread . . .

Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine . . . (John 21:4-12).

God bids us through His Son, Jesus, to meet Him in the morning . . . if you want Him through the day.

Abide in Him

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler (Psalm 91-1-4).

All of us have known fear. Fear of hunger . . . fear of want . . . fear of death. Everyone — regardless of race or creed — has been afraid.

And it's mighty comforting to know that when moments of fear and insecurity come . . . we have God to turn to. David found Him in his lonely shepherd days. He found Him to be his refuge against fear and danger.

Now God's Son speaks to us in like manner and calls us unto Himself saying:

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light (Matthew 11:28-30).

"Dwell in the secret place," and He will deliver us. Come unto Him and He will give us rest. He promised to lift the heavy load of sin and frustration from our shoulders and bear it Himself.

This, then, is the secret of it all—abiding in Him. Dwelling in Him and allowing Him to dwell in us. Allowing His presence to fill us and permeate us and fill our entire being. And, if we do this . . . abide in Him, He has promised:

Ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you (John 15:7).

He is saying: If you have sought Me and accepted Me and have become vitally united with Me you are so much a part of Me that we are one. Because of that fact you can ask anything you wish and I will do it.

Think what that means. No more need to fear anything! David said it rightly when he said, "He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust."

William Cullen Bryant pictured this thought in the poem:

To a Waterfowl

Vainly the fowler's eye Might mark thy distant flight to do thee wrong,
As, darkly seen against the crimson sky,
Thy figure floats along...
There is a Power whose care Teaches thy way along that pathless coast—
The desert and illimitable air—
Lone wandering, but not lost...
He who, from zone to zone,
Guides through the boundless sky
thy certain flight,
In the long way that I must tread alone,
Will lead my steps aright.

So, there's no need to fear... Because in the midst of life He will stand by our side, saying:

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness (Isaiah 41:10).

Prayer for Today

Dear Lord, teach us today the simple yet profound secret of abiding in Thee. Help us to see that in all of life we need not fear because Thou dost see us... and will overshadow us... and will be our refuge, if we will only come to Thee. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Strength from Above

Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint (Isaiah 40:28-31).

Most of us have admired the muscles of a strong man with envious eyes. One such young man sidled up to a heavily muscled giant and sighed until his attention was attracted.

"Mister, do you know what I'd do if I had muscles like you?"

"No, what would you do?"

"Why, sir, I'd go out into the woods and catch me the biggest bear I could find."

The big man looked down upon the other for a moment, then replied, "Son, there are just lots of little bears out there."

Most of us have been guilty of listening to a saint of God pray and wish that we could pray like that. Or have wished for more strength or time with which to serve God.

But, the truth of the matter is . . .

we have failed to use the resources at hand. We seem to act as if God might tire of our prayers . . . so we fail to pray. Or act as if He didn't have enough grace or strength to go around, so we don't ask Him for any.

Read this verse again: The Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary . . .

He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

Think of it. We aren't dealing with man . . . but with God! The One who made all things . . . even us. The One who understands our needs much better than we understand them ourselves.

That includes you and me. "He giveth power to the faint." Power to live for Him. Power to be used by Him. Power to be real witnesses for Him.

All of us get tired, even the young; but this good news includes both the young and old. However, there is an "if" involved. This promised power is only for those who will wait upon the Lord.

Await or stay until power comes. Then wait on Him in service.

Listen to Longfellow:

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

A verse to hide in our hearts: In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul (Psalm 138:3).

Peace Like a River

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid...

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace (John 14:27, 16:33).

In a world beset by the constant specter of war, these words of Jesus are as meaningful today as in the day in which they were spoken. Peace–the very word brings to mind a gentle dove with an olive branch.

Peace. But notice Jesus said that He is the giver of peace. No war can make the world a peaceful place. Real peace must spring from the hearth . . . "not as the world giveth," saith Jesus. It must come from Him.

In 1914 our young men sailed to France to fight a war to make the world safe for democracy. Many of those boys are buried in Flanders Field. "Lest we forget" became America's watchword.

But, we did forget. Oh, not the slogan, but what it stood for. And since then we've been engulfed in yet another world war! The result: many more boys gave their all... And still the world does not have or know peace.

It is clear, then, that Jesus wasn't speaking of world peace, ... not as the world giveth... But He went on to say these words of comfort: "...in me ye...have peace."

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways,
Reclothe us in our rightful mind.
In purer lives Thy service find,
In deeper reverence praise.

Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease.
Take from our souls the strain and stress
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace.
—Author Unknown

A Scripture for today:
Great peace have they which love thy law (Psalm 119:165).

Prayer for today:
Dear Lord, teach us to allow Thee to fill us with Thy peace that we in turn might be called the peacemakers. In Thy name, Amen.

Why Worry?... Pray

Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened (Matthew 7:7, 8).

Jesus spoke these words to a large crowd including His disciples. He spoke with sincerity the message that the world needed then... and needs now.

He knew that many in that crowd had been guilty (as we are) of carrying their own burdens. But He wants to carry the load with us... to share our load.

Today we are concerned about many things. But, actually they are more than just concerns. They are just out and out worries! Let's face it. That's what they are!

But, why shouldn't we worry? There's a car payment about due. Grocery money is shrinking... with no relief in sight. The old winter coat just won't last another season. No wonder we worry!

So it was with the crowd who must have looked at Jesus strangely, because He told them not to worry. He said: Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?...

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?...

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself (Matthew 6:25-34).

One day Jesus' disciples came to Him with a request similar to one often heard today... teach us to pray... Not how to pray. Not the form nor the method nor the style of praying. But, rather, their request was... teach us to pray.

Some men would say they do not know how to pray. But, could that be so? Prayer is really just a needy heart communing with a great all-sufficient God.

Across the top of a church in California someone saw a sign, "Why pray when you can worry?" Jesus comes to us with the good news that we need not worry... we can pray.

John Greenleaf Whittier must have been inspired to write the following lines:

The Eternal Goodness

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

No offering of my own I have,
Nor works my faith to prove;
I can but give the gifts He gave,
And plead His love for love...

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care...

And thou, O Lord! by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on Thee!

There really is no reason to worry when such a God is looking down upon us . . . in compassion and love. So, let's not worry—let's pray.

A Scripture for Today: Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full (John 16:24).

God Has the Answer

So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown (Job 2:7).

All this trouble beside the death of his sons and his daughters, his possessions taken by force—and his wife's bitter demand for him to ... curse God, and die.

Yet Job had the simple trust in God to cling to Him. A lesser person might have turned upon his Maker and cursed Him. Maybe even you or I. But, not Job. Instead, he reverently spoke ... the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord (Job 1:21).

A young couple lost their only child. They demanded an answer of God and when none came they turned away from Him. A very promising Christian young person, —planning to enter the ministry, was killed in an auto accident.

Why? Why couldn't it have been different? We cannot know, but God has the answer. We see just a tiny segment of life at a time. He sees the end from the beginning. We live mainly for the present ... not thinking of what eternity might hold. God is eternity.

A consecrated couple became parents of a little girl ... only to discover she was afflicted and could not live. Why did it happen to them? They never knew, but God has the answer.

Perhaps you have been troubled with a problem that has bowed your head with anxiety . . . with no answer in sight. Perhaps you've reached the end of your finances. Maybe you've come to the place where you are ready to question God's wisdom and judgment. What should you do?

What did Job say to that one? Listen: What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? Yet his anguish was so severe that when his friends came to comfort him they . . . knew him not . . . So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great (Job 2:10, 12, 13)

David found the answer too. He didn't demand an answer, but God gave it in the notes of a psalm:

The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble . . .

Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee . . .

Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel . . .

Now know I that the Lord saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God (Psalm 20:1-7).

That is the answer . . . it must be. Trust in God. Some trust in bank accounts and others in real estate, but in the words of David:

We will remember the name of the Lord our God.

A Psalm of Life

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Finds us farther than today.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant!
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,—act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God o'erhead...

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

We do not know the answers . . . only God does. We cannot know the future . . . only God can. But, we can trust in Him so explicitly that no matter what comes or goes, no matter how life treats us, we will do as Job did and say as he said, . . . the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

A Verse to Remember: Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths (Proverbs 3:5, 6).

God's Loving Care

They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble...

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men (Psalm 107:23-31).

Only one who has seen and felt the terrifying power of a mighty storm can appreciate one. Green and white combers curling across a ship's decks have caused more than one man to call on God.

Most sailors believe in God. They have seen the peaceful lapping of wavelets along a sandy beach. They have seen those same wavelets. churned to a frenzy by the wind, tear steel plates from a ship. They can see and appreciate the hand of God over His creation.

But, it isn't just the sailors that God is interested in. He loves the farmer . . . and causes His rain to fall and His sun to shine upon their crops.

He loves the mother and declares that even in the pain and fear of bringing a new life into the world—His hand is upon her, and He loves her.

In fact, any one of God's creatures who has seen or felt the works of His hands — He loves. David cried out in sheer wonder of it all: When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:3-6).

Jesus spoke words of comfort to His disciples one day, just before He sent them out to tell others the good news of salvation:

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows (Matthew 10:29-31).

Do you catch the implication? God, the Creator of the ends of the earth is interested in you and me, He actually cares for us! Isaiah saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up. High above us, so high that our minds can never reach His.

Yet He sent His Son Jesus to reach down beneath us and lift us up to heaven.

God loves us . . . and understands. He hears us . . . when we lift our hands, and call His name.

A Verse to Remember: Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God . . . Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you (1 Peter 5:6, 7).

Gathering Clouds

(Elijah)... went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life...

And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

And he said, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away...

And the Lord said unto him...

Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal (1 Kings 19:4-18).

Even one of God's chosen, even after a "mountaintop" experience, can get discouraged. Elijah had just challenged and won a great victory over the priests of Baal.

Now... utter despondence. Why? Who knows? It makes about as much sense as one of our own trips into the "valley."

One day that dynamic preacher, Martin Luther, was despondent and showed it. Soon he became aware that his wife was clad completely in black—for mourning.

"Why do you wear black?" he asked in amazement. "For whom do you mourn?"

"For God," she replied. "You act as if He were dead."

He realized how silly it all was and changed his attitude.

But, we all do it... get discouraged. It seems that friends are not friendly... nobody understands our problems... heartaches come. Our love grows cold and it almost seems that God has died.

At such a time, why not do as David did? He praised the Lord. It may seem that you do not have much to praise Him for... but you do. We all do. Try it just the same. Soon you will feel your heart grow warm.

Share with him his praises to God in Psalm 138.

I will praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: for great is the glory of the Lord.

Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

It seems that we are so alone at times . . . even in the midst of a crowd . . . we feel alone. Elijah felt it, so did David . . . so have most of us.

But, remember what God said to Elijah? Elijah claimed that he alone stood for good and God. But the Lord spoke to him and wiped the doubts away, Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel.

He wasn't alone. Neither are you and I. God knows the heavy load we carry, that was one reason He sent His Son, Jesus. For, one day as Jesus realized the heartaches of the people He spoke to meet their need. He said, Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light (Matthew 11:28-30).

So when the clouds begin to gather and lie dark and black upon the horizon . . . just turn to Him in prayer.

Prayer for today:

Our heavenly Father, forgive us when we sometimes forget that Thou hast come to bear our burdens and bring forgiveness and peace to our hearts. Grant to us the sense of Thy nearness during even the darkest of days. And, most of all . . . help us to allow Thee to help carry our loads. In Jesus' name, Amen.

In the Shadows

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever (Psalm 23:1-6).

Anguish grips your soul, fear fills your heart. God has seen fit to take that loved one home. The family circle is broken tonight. There is nowhere to turn.

But, wait, there is hope. David experienced very deep sorrow; yet in the midst of it all God came very near. Listen to him:

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God (Psalm 42:5).

Hope thou in God. He is our hope . . . and when all else has failed . . . our only hope.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil . . . But there is more: In the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock (Psalm 27:5).

But, you say, I wasn't ready to let him go. I still needed him and depended upon him. I can't understand why . . . I know not what to do. Yes, it is dark—and lonely. And you must feel weak and alone. But, in the midst of those shadows there is One who cares and understands, for:

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof . . .

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge . . .

Be still, and know that I am God (Psalm 46:1-10).

This, then is the secret: Turn to God. Lean upon Him. Place your trembling hand in His. Let His strength become your strength. Let Him breathe to you the reality of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's poem:

The Sleep

Of all the thoughts of God that are Born inward into souls afar,
Along the Psalmist's music deep,
Now tell me if any is,
For gift or grace, surpassing this;
"He giveth His beloved—sleep."

"Sleep soft," beloved! we sometimes say,
Who have no tune to charm away
Sad dreams that through the eyelids creep:
But never doleful dream again
Shall break the happy slumber when
He giveth His beloved—sleep.

Ay, men may wonder while they scan
A living, thinking, feeling man
Confirmed in such a rest to keep;
But Angels say, and through the word
I think their happy smile is heard—
"He giveth His beloved—sleep . . ."

You may have been there when those trusting eyes looked up and smiled into yours, then closed . . . to open in Paradise. And with his trust in God, and in the Living Christ . . . perhaps at this moment he has transferred the grip of his fingers to the hand of the One who tasted death for every man.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever (Psalm 23:6).

Prayer for today:

Dear Lord, Thou dost see the falling tear and feel the breaking heart. Come close right now and fill the empty spot left by this departed one . . . with Thy love. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Through the Veil

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away (Revelation 21:1-4).

There is life after death! Jesus Himself told about it... and made the way. One day as He spoke to His disciples; they were puzzled, and fearful as He began to tell them that one day soon He would have to leave them. He tried to calm their fears:

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also (John 14:1-3).

Some think of heaven as a place of eternal freedom from work. Others, as a place where there will never be any shortages . . . or wars . . . or economic problems. No one knows for sure what it will be like on the other side of that veil . . . but someday, if we live close to Him . . . we will find out.

But we do know a little about heaven. Good things. No tears, or death, or sorrow, or pain. God shall be there to personally wipe away tears. And Jesus will be there. He's there now, sitting at the right hand of God, interceding for you and me . . . waiting.

And the city will be wondrous to behold. Twelve gates made of twelve pearls! Streets of pure gold, clear as glass! But, there is more, Listen:

And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there . . .

And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth . . .

And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever (Revelation 21:22-25, 27; 22:3-5).

It's worth waiting for and working for and living for . . . in fact, to get to heaven will be worth it all. All we've ever gone through. Pain, persecution, long lonely nights . . . it'll be worth it all when we get to heaven!

Verse to Remember: Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6).

Sunset Musings

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened . . .

Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it (Ecclesiastes 12:1-7).

This precious spark God has given us is unique—it cannot be reproduced in a test tube or in any laboratory. It is God's to give . . . and His to take away.

Life, as serious as it becomes at times, has its lighter moments . . . but when consideration is given to life itself—its real meaning and purpose—then we realize that it is merely a dressing room for eternity.

Longfellow phrases this very well.

Psalm of Life

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!—
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.

As a child we all remember how endless the weeks could become. And the years . . . they never would pass. But, now, already too many have slipped by . . .

For some it is still early morning. With others the bright noonday with its still-high hopes has been reached. For others the "three score and ten" are nearly used up. The years have drawn nigh . . . there is no more pleasure in them. The light is becoming dim and the nights are long.

Sunset is not far away . . .

But, wait! Don't become panicky. Hope thou in God. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you.

Across the years you may have grown consciously closer to Him . . . now you are about to meet Him face to face. Glorious thought!

But, perchance, the years have slipped by too quickly, leaving you yet unprepared for the loosing of "the silver cord." But, take heart ... and call upon Him. If you do, He has pledged Himself to answer you. For Jesus said . . . him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out (John 6:37).

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life (John 5:24).

Sunsets can be beautiful. Even gray, forbidding clouds reflect the luster of their Maker and bring forth in profusion colors that have remained hidden throughout the daytime.

Don't be fearful, don't give place to that ominous chill that begins to slip up your spine. But, rather, take the advice of William Cullen Bryant in his poem.

Thanatopsis

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan that moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave

Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

A verse for the Sunset Hour: The Lord is my shepherd... Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me (Psalm 23:1, 4).

Prayer for today:

Dear God, sunrise was a long time ago and nearly forgotten. Even high noon and its pleasant memories sometimes escapes me. Lone shadows and sunset come nigh. Simply, as You told us to do, I trust my soul into Thy care. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear Esther,

We are 2 girls living in Singapore. You do not know us but we know you and we would like you to know, we also share your grief at this time.

We have always admired your husband the late Senator R. Kennedy, and also not forgetting the late President J. Kennedy your beloved brother-in-law. We were shocked beyond words when we heard the news that he was shot over the air. The only thing we could do was to pray for his recovery, but sad to say that our prayers were answered in the way Our Lord thought best. We console ourselves with the thought that Our Lord works in mysterious ways, His wonders to perform; and that a day will come when the entire family will be reunited in Heaven to sing are forever his glories and mercies. You ~~the~~ one of the very few who could look up to your late husband as an instrument of Our Lord's peace. He tried to sow love where there was hatred. He understood the feelings of people who felt cheated and troubled in life. We are sure that had he lived he would have been a shining example of real love for one and all.

Please take care of yourself especially in your present condition, for I am sure that your late husband would like you to go on in life as usual, and there will be another Kennedy added to the family next year. We know that you are faced with a big trial at the moment but remember, that when Our Lord ~~gives~~ sends us crosses, He and Our Blessed Lady are with us to bear it.

We end this letter wishing you and your dear ones all the best. God Bless all of you.

Love,

Sir,

To introduce myself,

I am neither a poet nor a scholar; only a humble citizen of the world, watching the daily events. Together with the shocking news of the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy I saw the picture of the Mother Rose Kennedy in mourning dress. This gave rise to the thoughts of a bereaved mother whose sons met with similar tragedy, which made the world cry. I wanted expression of my feelings and hence I composed the enclosed simple verses; which bear no relation to any politics. It is only an expression of human feelings said in a layman's language, to console a bereaved mother.

If acceptable, please acknowledge.

Thanking you,

Most humble citizen,

K. V. Devan

POOL OF TEARS

Oh God! how sad she is! Mother Kennedy,
No Mother will ever bear the grief so bloody.
Oh Lord! we pray Thee, make her bold,
To mourn the loss of sons worth gold.

Sons who strived for sure Democracy, by pure ballots,
Proud mother she is; though they fell to bullets.
Oh Criminals! why you grew in your mothers' wombs?
Violence makes her sons less; and three their tombs.

Her heart loaded with grief thinks no revenge,
Like a Mother-hen who lost three under her wings.
Sons stood for freedom, like Lincoln forever remind;
Bereaved; never mind! under the grave Freedom will ring.

Heroes they are; her young ones so dear,
Pistols felled them one by one, how to bear?
Oh Father Jesus! - you carried the cross for sinners,
So Rose; May Mother forgive? Heartless brutes are killers.

Dear Sir,

I am very sorry for troubling a very busy and important man like you, by writing this little letter.

I am a boy of fourteen years of age. My main reasons of writing this letter is, firstly, to send my condolence to the family of the late Senator Robert Kennedy, through you because I have no any other ways of doing so. It was a very shocking and indeed a very untimely end for a very great man like him — a loss that cannot be weighted. My prayers will always go with his family.

My final request is that, I shall be very much obliged and greatful. if you will only enter my name in the condolence book for the late Senator Robert Kennedy. My reason for being unable to do it personally is that, I wasted much of my time yesterday by going to the one near Coleman Street, thinking that the book was there.

I am proud to say that, I am one of the greatest supporter of Mister Robert Kennedy. But at present, I am one of the saddest in the world, on hearing of his tragic death.

If you need any more particulars from me, you are always welcome to write. I hope you will not disappoint me, by turning down my letter.

I think I better end my letter here, thanking you. So ending my letter here, I once again thank you.

Thank you.

Your's sincerely.

Robert Kennedy

A brother gone
A few years ago
And now death takes him
Such chance lost to serve the people

The nation mourn
The world in sorrow
For so much he could do
In bettering peace for all

A good man gone
No chance redeem
For he could lead mankind
Where love and trust are known

For hope we own
A new leader comes
And peace on earth shall be
But his name be in history.

"Kamar Biru"

Dinas, masih belum mahu melelapkan mata-nya, Jam tepat 12.00 malam, dan selalu hari dan malam lain, Tapi ....., hati-nya chukup sedih, di-samping mengalah pandangan, hiasan lengkap, sechasa yang paling indah, satu kala warna biru nuda dengungan yang masih melayang jauh, di-bawa angin di-bawah gunung, sirasa dengung itu masih belum pernah di-tempohi se-umur hidup, dan.....
"ah chukup indah, kau sungguh pandai membina bilek ini, untuk malam pertama, dan macham orang-nya juga, manis ....."

"Tapi ....., oh ya, aku juga hanya lelaki yang menumpang di-kamar indah ini"

Dinas masih mundar mandir, kala-ia ingin, menanti Murni, dan menyambut tangan-nya, yang begitu halus, "juga tempat ini, chagaran binaan tangan mu, untuk kebahagiaan sendiri dan umat yang sangup berdamping"

Rasa-masa itu terlalu lama, hanya saat itu terlalu chuyang jauh di-bawa dengungan kampung, dan resah kawan-yang menghantar, di-majlis meriah ini, chuma di-terangi ngilapan nion biru, mengilap rambut yang di-sisis rapi, masih di-rata baju kebangsaan yang masih basah peluh, rasa sejuk meresap anggota, kala bau-an meresap ....., indah.

"Samenjak hari pertama dulu, dan pertemuan kini"

Terkejut Dinas, di-belai jelingan kechil, jauh tersorok di-kelip bintang, bertambah satu chahaya, dan susok yang di-dandan rapi, Dinas masih bingung, serta gugup menatap wajah Murni.

"Murni, ..., indah nama mu, untuk hari dan hari esok ..... dan Murni..."

Kata-itu masih terkulum jauh di-anak tekak, cuma di-ulangi

"Murni, kau indah memilina keindahan, - - - - -"

Suasana itu terus hening, cuma seperti lintah, dengungan rumah tangah masih heboh, dengan seribu pertanyaan, semuga pilihan itu akan kekal, aman, dan kebahagiaan untuk dunia, dan selama dunia itu di-akui sebagai rumah mahluk, yang memerhati, dan membimbing kebahagiaan, di-menterikan sebagai hari ini, lambang dunia esok hari.

Lemah longlai Murni, menundok-kan, gemulai dan Dinas menyambut tangan Murni, membelai dengan hemat.

"Murni, aku ta' sangka, di-atas kemenangan kau, - - - - - perchaya, kemenangan hari ini, adalah kemenangan orang lain, yang mempunyai emosi yang sejalan, kau dengan Murni. Orang di luar, masih di-tabari gendang, masih gembira, seperti kita menyambut malam - - -"

Cuma Murni masih melekapkan muka-nya di pelok Dinas dengan hemat, dan teragah-mengelai rambut urai, di-indahkan ngiaran biru.

"Kau berjanji Murni, sejak hari ini dan kelam akan berkekalan, di-samping memahami wajah lilek ini, dan wajah aku, kau dan keindahan di-pinggir, akan berkekalan menjadi tambor selama-nya"

Mereka hening, cerasa anggok-kan kechil. Murni, masih tersangkut di-anak mata Dinas, mereka memkimbing jauh. Tingkap, di-samping dengan perlahan menentang satu dengan lain, hening, cuma tangan di-siul bulan, malam itu menyuloh samping memerhati kesibok-kan di-luar, kala langsir di-belai dengan halus

Terus di-pupuk bayu, membelai di anak-rambut Murni, dan desiran hening, ta' terkata mereka, malam itu, chuma hati Dinas .....

"Ah ....., malam biasa di-reka, sa-riku tahun, dan di-susul esok, tapi .... aku, Murni, meng-harap malam ini, seperti malam esok, aku per-chaya kau masih tau kesugolan hati-ku, dan waswas, untuk meniempoh hidup, selama malam ini, di-pupuk bayu bujang"

Mereka bertukar pandangan, kala-sa-titis ayer jernih, masih menerokka malam mudah, sa-titis demi tingema dan membasahi keindahan. Dinas masih terunggang ta' keluar kata-hati-nya,

" Tapi ....., Murni, kau tau hati-ku, atau malam ini akan hanya bunyi retak sa-riku tahun silam, masih di-anggap kuno hari dan malam ini, di-lambong bayu, ah ..... Murni, sudah-lah, nah ....., aku anggap bunyian itu, walau usang, namun penghibur bahagia dan ta' sayugia indah dua kali, esok hari"

Dinas merebok sa-helai tuala bujur, masih tinukir ikatan manis, kala-wangi itu, menusok insan, di-usap perlahan, hingga sedu itu hilang, di-telan pelok-kan Dinas.

" Kalau tidak juga Murni ....., katakan kenapa, ... Mengapa Murni".

Lama, Murni masih tundok, membisu di-pinggir tasek guraman di-ctauba dengan tenang kala-di-resap sa-titis, keindahan.

" Bukan ..... Dinas, sechara tambor malam ini, aku akui gendang kelmarin, namun tuadisi hati-ku, mengenang satu ....., yang menchipta lagu kebahagiaan, yang sungguh berden-dang antara kau dan aku juga mahluk ....."

"Dan telah terkubur . . . . . , Dinas, kau paham, setiap rangkaian yang kertunas, telah patah, kerana ma'asusia dan zaman ta' mahu mengakui, dan mereka masih mementingkan hawa nafsu gendang demokratik sendiri, aku sangat berharap Dinas . . . . . kau paham, malam indah ini, arwah mereka bersama kita, yang bakal membimbing kebahagiaan kita dan anak . . . . aku perchaya Dinas, Mereka tidak berdosa, mereka tetap tidak berdosa, malam telah terkubur, dichelah gunung sama . . . . . , kau perhati, Dinas, gunung yang sementiasa di-selaputi embun dingin dan mereka memerhati kita, sennga akan cedar dunia dan keastian, tamaddun, tapi, aku ta' menyesal, walau hati perempuan, namun, hati ku juga mempunyai perasaian yang sangat mendalam, menyedarkan satu paktor untuk mu Dinas, kau ta' menyesal . . . . . mereka kembali meranti akan kepulangan, walau di-rasai dan sa-kalek-nya, Mari Dinas, akan ku pimpin tangan kita, dan chiri hati-ku, yang akan mengenal mundur untuk satu iktisad, dan bachul mengakui kekurangan, sadikit tenaga, kau berjanji Dinas, Berjanji . . . . . "

Dinas masih terpenanjat, lama di-amati . . . . muka Murni perlahan,

"Dek, ... , Besar hasrat ada-lah rangkaian hati setiap insan, chuma pencheroka dan zaman menjadi teradisi hidup, tapi . . . . aku Murni, aku tetap mengakui gendang mereka, yang telah faham akan bimbingan mereka, ta' kira di-mana mereka munchul, dan patah di-padang tandus, ke satu tujuan Murni, sa-akan chinta ku pada mu, dan dunia"

Tiba2 suasana itu terbingkalai, masih berdetus di-hati mereka, lantaran satu panahan suara sioh menuju bilek mereka. Mereka terchengang, samping berpandangan, munjol sengum2an ringan . . . .

" Wah . . . . , ta' ingat kawan lama, Murni Dinas . . . . . "

Dan Dinas teragah2 membalas sengman mereka di-chuba2 chuma tangan Murni di-peverat mesra.

" Eh . . . . , kawan2, Ehwan, Sayang, Dalila, kan datang, kenapa . . . . sudah berlarut zaman, baru nesti datang, tapi . . . . , kebahagia'an kami akan ahni esok juga, sapeti sudi kan orang menekmati keharmonian bersama . . . . Murni dan Dinas berpinpin terus, ka-ruangan tengah, di-temani saribu tegor sapa, yang nyata keriangan

" Ya . . . . . Pa' Chik, tau sama tau sudah-lah, allah . . . . , dulu mak chik dan Pa' chik bagaimana, ... tapi, ah sama, dulu sé-karang satu perjuangan, chuma belum sampai, tapi, saya akui malam ini sudah siang hari "

Ketawa mereka terus berlah, chuma mereka melihat kawan2 telah menanti di-bawah pohon kelapang, di-terangi nion indah, dan Kadir lantas menarek bangku dengan hormat, didok di-chelah2 vayang, hanya Dinas menchelah,

" Wah . . . . , Kadir, bukan main tem-berang, tapi musim ini awas2 silit, kita sudah mulai tau . . . ya-lah lampu terang . . . "

"Bukan Dinas. Cherita orang di-sa-kelah kari mengisi ruang-masa kosong."

"Kenapa pula"

"Ah, apa lagi, suara lama, allah, nanti kan paham, berjaya mereka dan akan berjaya kan, pikara biasa, seperti suami isteri, ah, pikara biasa Murni, jangan bimbang, selagi jaoh mata dan telah bertanut, namun hari ini ta'mungkin talut menghadapi - - - -"

"Hai - - - - - ta' chari lain Kadir, tapi masa pun di-isi dengan perlunan kebahagiaan semunga menahani - - -. tapi, aku ta' sudi mendengar chontoh mereka untok diri-ku. Kerana perjuangan sama, tapi keada'an ada-lah berlainan, namun persetan mereka, tapi aku sudi mengambat tangan mereka, keavah satu pembinaan, ayah Murni, Dalila, Sayang minum."

Gelas mereka berganding, senyum di-telan jaoh hilang, hanya lata-kechil Sayang jugop berulang.

"Aku harap Murni dan Dinas, seperti malam ini, dan kawan, menumpang chita, juga di-pinta berkekalan"

Malam itu telah berakhir, chuma sisa-nasih lelah. Dinas masih meringkok, seperti cha-haya malam kelmarin, satu tiupan kechil nye menkusi telinga-nya dan mendayu satu suara halus. "Dinas - - - - -"

Khayalan itu jaoh, di-hari pertama, dan jehigan Murni, di-chelah pohon bunga juga tumbul di-pinggir pintu dan hilang.

"Kan panggil aku Murni, - - - - Kenapa, sudah siang, - - - - sudah siang"

Letters with no return address

I don't know what to say, but damn the tears and damn my people. How could they be so blind, don't they know they are sinking, can't they see that a most unusual man is trying so hard to keep us from rotting. My brother's eyes are red and the tears are still falling. Bobby is so intense, he wanted to do so much for us and that bastard no-body kill him. I would gladly die in his place but the past is a by-gone thing. Ambassador, what has become of the country we love so much, why do our people want guns to play with and guns to kill with. We kill the best in our society, Bobby, King and John and leave the rotten. America has no place for the good. Our people are only concern about themselves, they never care about others around them. I pray that Americans will change for the good and made progress what it really should be. Bobby was cheated, he was about to feel power and do a lot of good for our poor black brothers and for America. America is a bloody world and all our people can ever say and do is 'Oh God'. God bless Bobby. Things will never be quite the same again.
Today I cry for America and I hope Mr. Ambassador that my people will hear me.

Young American.

"America has lost a worthy son,
the world a hopeful leader;

The assassination of the Senator is both tragic and appalling."

Our sympathies are with his family

The United States Ambassador,
Mr. Francis Galbraith,
17, Swettenham Road
Singapore

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

I am very sad to hear of Senator Kennedy's death and just have to write to you, the U.S ambassador here, because I don't know who else to share my grief with. I had wanted to sign the condolence book but could not be able to locate Swettenham Road; if only the book was at the Hill Street Embassy. Mr. Ambassador, if you should see Mrs. Ethel Kennedy please let her know that as the world mourns the loss of a fine leader there is at least one little schoolgirl in Singapore who admires her bravery and shares the grief of the U.S nation and particularly the Kennedy family. Please ask them not to be so sad.

tell her

Thank You.

I remain Sir,
Yours gratefully,
BOBBY- ADMIRER.

Within the first few days following the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy this Consulate General received formal written expressions of sympathy from 73 residents of the Antwerp area. This group included nine of the top officials in the area plus seventeen members of the Consular Corps of Antwerp. See attached list. Each of these expressions of sympathy was responded to by an individually typed letter, signed by the Consul General.

Inasmuch as most of the writers who sent the Consulate General letters or telegrams of condolence expressed the hope that their sympathy would be transmitted to Senator Kennedy's family, it is requested that the Department let the Kennedy family know of the many expressions of sympathy received by this Consulate at the time of the Senator's death.

The thesis of the tract is that Sirhan Bishara Sirhan's action should be looked upon as a political action directly linked to the struggle of the displaced Palestinian people to regain their homeland. The writer hopes Sirhan's action will not prejudice the reaching of an understanding between the American and Palestinian peoples.

Encl. A227 Beirut

Friend,

In addressing your conscience we shall not resort to exaggeration. We shall only place before you essential facts relating to the case of a young man who is being tried in your country, America, namely Sirhan Bishara Sirhan.

We are confident, while this case is being discussed by the American court, that law will prevail in the end. We agree that crime cannot solve the problems of the individual or of the community.

But the young man in question was deliberately uprooted from his homeland to face an unknown destiny which finally led him to your country while still a child. However, he was not a happy child as his memory was filled with the atrocious massacres committed by alien people in his country and against his people. You certainly agree with us that the case of a young man with such painful reminiscences of an unhappy childhood, should be treated within the framework of his people's cause.

We are aware that you must have known a lot about the cause of Palestine, the homeland of this young man. But we regret that, most probably, what you have known is widely different from the truth.

We also realise that the charge levelled at this man has created a delicate situation as regards U.S. relations with the Palestine problem raising many questions about the consequences of this incident to American and world public opinion.

The defendant, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan was born in Palestine and his family was a victim of the Israeli usurpation of this Arab country as a result of which it immigrated to America. The incident was committed one year after the aggression of June 5th., 1967. This timing underlines the importance of political considerations which cannot be easily overlooked.

This young man standing before the court, moves the conscience of the world with his bitter question «where is my homeland ? Where is my people ? And where is my house ?» The answer is, «I no longer have a country or a place which I can call mine. I am sick of living in a foreign country. I want a place whose inhabitants speak my language and eat the food I like... I want my city, Jerusalem, my land Palestine and my job there.»

These words echo the feelings of many other emigrants who ask the same question. All that they want from you and your people is, understanding. Nothing can be more painful for a valiant people struggling for their rights than to find these rights wasted through deceit and facts distorted and misrepresented.

Robert F. Kennedy and Sirhan Bishara Sirhan are both victims of intertwined factors. We hope, friend, that you would realise this fact and draw the attention of your great people to it.

With best wishes for friendly ties and understanding between our two peoples.

Yours Sincerely,

Palestine Women Association

SUBJECT: CONTINUING PRESS SUPPORT FOR SIRHAN

REF: AMMAN 2440

1. LOCAL PRESS CONTINUING GIVE ATTENTION TO SIRHAN. IN AN EDITORIAL OF MAY 25, AD-DUSTOUR CALLS ON ARAB RESISTANCE MOVEMENT CONTACT VIET CONG AND REQUEST THEM TO OFFER TO EXCHANGE AMERICAN PRISONERS OF WAR IF LIFE OF SIRHAN NME TAKEN. DUSTOUR FEELS VIET CONG WOULD QUOTE EARNESTLY VIEW THE MATTER, CONSIDERING UNITY OF PURPOSE AMONG RESISTING PEOPLES EVERYWHERE.... UNQUOTE DUSTOUR ALSO FEELS THAT IF VIET CONG MAKE SUCH OFFER, FAMILIES OF AMERICAN POW'S WILL BRING PRESSURE ON WASHINGTON AND SIRHAN WOULD ESCAPE GAS CHAMBER.

2. DUSTOUR RETURNED TO THE ATTACK IN ISSUE OF MAY 26 WHEN IT CHARGED THAT QUOTE SIRHAN KILLED KENNEDY BECAUSE KENNEDY WANTED GIVE ENEMY MORE ARMS TO KILL SIRHAN'S PEOPLE. THE KILLING WAS THEREFORE IN DEFENSE OF THE PEOPLE WHOM THE UNITED STATES INSISTS ON ASSASSINATING!.... SIRHAN WILL BE MENTIONED IN HISTORY ONE DAY AS ONE OF THOSE WHO HAVING DONE THEIR DUTY FACE DEATH WITH SMILE OF SATISFACTION THAT THEY GAVE THEIR LIFE FOR THEIR PEOPLE UNQUOTE.

COMMENT: IF LOCAL PRESS CONTINUES PRESENT UNSAVORY CAMPAIGN, GOOD POSSIBILITY IT WILL SUCCEED IN CONVINCING MANY JORDANIANS THAT CONVICTED KILLER SIRHAN IS IN FACT HERO. THIS COULD HAVE NASTY CONSEQUENCES LOCALLY IF DEATH SENTENCE FINALLY CARRIED OUT.

SUMMARY: DURING THE COURSE OF THE SIRHAN TRIAL, LOCAL MEDIA TENDED TO TAKE SOMEWHAT RELAXED ATTITUDE TOWARD SIRHAN, AND RESTRICTED COVERAGE GENERALLY TO RUNNING STORIES FROM THE COMMERCIAL WIRELESS SERVICES. SINCE THE DEATH SENTENCE WAS RECOMMENDED BY THE JURY ON APRIL 21, THE LOCAL PRESS HAS BECOME MORE SYMPATHETIC TO SIRHAN,. GOVERNMENT-OWNED TV AND RADIO CONTINUE TO RESTRICT COVERAGE TO STORIES FROM COMMERCIAL SOURCES BUT NEWSPAPERS NOW ATTEMPTING PORTRAY SIRHAN AS HERO WHO CONTINUES TO DESERVE SUPPORT OF ARABS.

1. PRIOR TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE COURT'S DECISION IN THE SIRHAN TRIAL, PRESS RADIO/TV ALL TENDED RESTRICT COVERAGE TO LENGTHY EXCERPTS FROM UPI, REUTERS, MENA, ETC. LOCAL JOURNALISTS PRIVATELY ADMITTED THAT LITTLE SYMPATHY IN JORDAN FOR KILLER OF FATHER OF TEN CHILDREN.

HIS ARTICLE PRINTED AD-DIFAA, ARABIC DAILY, MAY 14 SAID HE SENDING A QUOTE DEEPLY FELT SALUTATION TO THE SOLDIER AND THE FREEDOM FIGHTER ..... 1. SAUDI PRESS HAS FOLLOWED SIRHAN CASE ALMOST DAILY WITH LOW KEY STRAIGHT NEWS COVERAGE. COMMENT OF SIRHAN'S FATHER THAT EXECUTION WILL HARM US-ARAB RELATIONS HAS ALSO BEEN CARRIED WITHOUT COMMENT. THERE HAS BEEN NO COMMENT ON COURT PROCEEDINGS.

2. FIRST EDITORIAL COMMENT SINCE VERDICT AND SENTENCING APPEARED TODAY IN UKAZ BY ALI OMAR JABR, URGING ARABS NOT TO FEEL SAD FOR SIRHAN SINCE GRIEF IS ONLY FOR THOSE WHO LOSE WAY. EDITORIALIST ARGUES SIRHAN "LIGHTING THE WAY AND DEFINING THE GOAL." HE CONCLUDES DYING IS "SIMPLEST DUTY" FOR CAUSE OF FREEDOM.

3. COMMENT: EDITORIAL IS OBVIOUS EFFORT MAKE BEST OUT OF BAD THING. FROM BEGINNING SAUDIS HAVE HAD MIXED FEELINGS ON SIRHAN'S ACT. THEY REALIZED IT WAS MISGUIDED AND HARMFUL TO OVERALL ARAB CAUSE, YET LIKE OTHER ARABS HAVE SOUGHT CONVINCE THEMSELVES THAT SIRHAN IS HERO OF FEDAYEEN TYPE NOW SO WIDELY HERALDED HERE FOR EXPLOITS AGAINST ISRAEL. THIS IS LIGHT IN WHICH BAROODY RECENTLY TRIED CAST SIRHAN AT UN. SAUDI PRESS MEDIA HAS FOUND IT SOMEWHAT DIFFICULT PORTRAY HIM AS SUCH, BUT MAY NOW BE EXPECTED TRY TO WHIP UP MORE CONVICTION ALONG THESE LINES. SUBJECT : Inquiry from Los Angeles Police Department Concerning Past Residences of the Sirhan Family

REF :

A letter (Enclosure No. 1), dated August 21, from the Chief of Police of the City of Los Angeles to Ambassador Symmes asked the Embassy to forward to the Director General of Jordan's Public Security Forces a request for information concerning events which took place in the areas of the known residences of the Sirhan Family in the 1940-1957 period, during the time of their residence in each area. The purpose of the inquiry was to obtain information for use in connection with a possible defense in the Sirhan trial based on the theory of a diminished capacity of the accused to form intent caused by accumulated traumatic experiences during his childhood.

The Embassy's interim reply (Enclosure No. 2), dated August 31, informed the Los Angeles Police Department that the area of the Sirhan family's former residences was now under Israeli control and that an inquiry addressed to the Jordanian authorities would not, in the Embassy's opinion, prove productive. The Embassy proposed, as an initial alternative, to gather what information it could through discreet inquiry and forward it to Los Angeles.

A memorandum with appended map of Jerusalem (Enclosure No. 3) sets forth the results of the Embassy's preliminary inquiry which included several books, personal knowledge of officers at the American Embassy in Amman and the American Consulate in Jerusalem, and conversations with local employees from the Jerusalem area. Conversations with other than official Americans were restricted to discussion of events without reference to the Sirhan case. Any effort on the part of the Embassy to relate the events described to particular members of the Sirhan family would have required direct questioning of persons acquainted with the family and living in the specific area at the time. A detailed inquiry of this nature would necessitate a considerable expenditure of time and effort by Embassy personnel as well as bringing Jordanian, and perhaps Israeli authorities into the matter, all of which the Embassy would be reluctant to do in the light of present tensions in the area.

The memorandum and map are forwarded to SCS for review and transmittal to the City of Los Angeles Police Department.

August 21, 1968

The Honorable Harrison M. Symmes
The United States Ambassador
United States Embassy
Amman, Jordan

This department is conducting a thorough investigation of the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy on June 5, 1968, at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, California.

A very important phase of the investigation is a complete background coverage of the suspect, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, from the date of his birth to the date of the assassination. Considerable documented background information has been gathered on the Sirhan family. The recent plea of "Not Guilty" by Sirhan indicates a possible defense based on the theory of a diminished capacity to form intent which was caused by accumulated traumatic experiences. This necessitates a history of said experiences for study and evaluation by the psychiatrist assigned to the prosecution.

The Sirhan family has alleged that as a child the accused was exposed to many bombings, strafings and possible death in the streets while living in New and Old Jerusalem. Our historical research indicates that many bombings and strafings occurred in the Jerusalem, Palestine area from 1944 through 1948. There is further indication that there were occasional incidents of that nature from 1948 through 1957 in Jerusalem, Jordan. In view of the above it is imperative to the medical rebuttal that it be determined if Sirhan, in fact, actually experienced such incidents.

Immigration data, known former residences of the Sirhan family and a list of questions are enclosed. Pursuant to advice received from Mr. Byron Engle,

Director,

3. Describe if possible the general living conditions in the refugee villages in Jerusalem, Jordan during years 1948 - 1957.

Dear Chief Reddin:

I have your letter of August 21, Ref. No. 6.24, regarding Sirhan Bishara Sirhan and certain background information you seek concerning areas in which he reportedly lived.

As the area of what was formerly Palestine in which Sirhan resided is now under Israeli control and Jordanian authorities do not have access to all of their records on the West Bank, we do not believe it would be too productive to ask the Jordanian security authorities to try to compile the information you have requested. We propose, therefore, initially to seek to answer your questions as completely as we can, both through our own knowledge and through discreet inquiry by Embassy personnel. We are also exploring the subject through the Consul General in Jerusalem. We will further consider the prospects of obtaining from the Government of Jordan a statement on events in the areas concerned; however, we would appreciate your views on the usefulness of material developed entirely by the Embassy.

We hope to forward a report to you within the next ten days. This, therefore, should be considered an interim reply.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM

This memorandum describes events which took place in the area of the known residence of the Sirhan Family during the period of their residence. Sources include several books recording events of the time, personal knowledge of officers of the American Consulate in Jerusalem and the American Embassy at Amman, and conversations with natives of Jerusalem. A map of Jerusalem, printed in 1952, is attached.

Much has been written on Jerusalem during the 1948 Arab-Israeli War, particularly from the Jewish side. The following references are suggested:

Barnett Litvinoff, Road to Jerusalem, Weidenfeld and Nicolson, London 1965
Harry Levin, I Saw the Battle of Jerusalem, New York 1950

1940-1942 El Qatamon, Jerusalem, Palestine

El Qatamon, or Katamon, is a residential district on the southwestern outskirts of Jerusalem which, prior to the 1948 Arab-Israel war, was largely inhabited by upper-middle class Christian Arabs. 1940-1942 was a period of prosperity in El Qatamon, during which no fighting or disturbances on a significant scale are known to have taken place.

1943-1944 Beit Safafa, Jerusalem, Palestine

Beit Safafa is an Arab village on the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv rail line, situated to the southwest of Jerusalem about one mile beyond El Qatamon. Although in 1944 fighting did break out against the British in some parts of Palestine, to the best of our knowledge no fighting occurred in Beit Safafa in the 1943-1944 period.

1944-1946 Tabah (off Ramallah Road), Jerusalem, Palestine

Tabah may be either Tibeh or Taibeh, birthplace and current residence of the father of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan. Taibeh is a Christian Arab village, located about 8 miles northeast of the town of Ramallah. So far as the Embassy is aware, no fighting on a major scale took place in the Ramallah-Taibeh area during 1944-1946. The period did witness much fighting in other areas of Palestine, however, including the blowing up of Jerusalem's King David Hotel in July 1946.

1946-1948 Mar Boulos (Saint Paul) Road, near the Saint George School, the British Commissioner's Building and the radio station. Also Murara Street and Mamilla Road, Jerusalem, Palestine

Saint Paul's Road and Mamilla Road (EF-3 and DEF-4 on the appended map) are main thoroughfares in the area of Jerusalem west of the Old City and east of King George Avenue. Murara Street is located in the Mahne Yehuda district (BC-2, 3). Fighting began between Arabs and Jews in November 1947 and intensified with the termination of the British Mandate on May 15, 1948. Heavy fighting and much destruction took place in the vicinity of the radio station, just west of St. George's School and Saint Paul's Road in 1948. Many of the houses destroyed in this area have never been rebuilt. Sniping and terrorist activity took place at the same time in the vicinities of Murara Street and Mamilla Road.

A chaotic situation prevailed in the Jerusalem area of Palestine in 1947-1948. The massacre of some 250 Arabs, including women and children, in the Jerusalem suburb of Deir Yassin in April 1948 by the Irgun, a Jewish terrorist organization, had a profound effect on the Arab community and stimulated the flight of many Arabs from Jewish-controlled or disputed areas.

1948-1957 In a refugee village inside the Old City

During and after the 1948 fighting, many Arabs from West Jerusalem took refuge in the Old City. For the most part they were taken into the homes of friends and relatives or allowed to live in church buildings rent free. Some may have slept in caves. There was no "refugee village" as such, but many refugees established themselves in the Jewish Quarter of the Old City where a large number of buildings had been destroyed during the fighting. Initially, they lived in tents or temporary shelters built of rubble, until 1954-1955 when more permanent shelters of stone or mud with corrugated roofs were built. Food was apparently not particularly scarce, but water was rationed by the Old City authorities during the 1948 fighting owing to the fact that Jewish forces had closed off outside water sources and the city had to rely on internal supplies.

SUBJECT : Sirhan Trial Receives Close Attention in Amman

REF :

The trial of the accused assassin of Senator Robert Kennedy, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, continues to receive wide press coverage in Jordan. The reporting generally is straightforward and detailed. Editorials have been sparse. The following editorial from the sensationalist Amman weekly Akhbar al-'Usbou' on August ninth, entitled "Sirhan and the Palestine Problem", provides an example of some of the more extreme opinions:

> "As a result of the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy, Sirhan is standing trial in an American court. His only defense is that he killed Kennedy for the sake of his country.
> "Three important points are raised by this case:
>
> "1. Sirhan is not a criminal, but rather a man of principle.
> "2. The bullet that shot Kennedy was an inevitable necessity because Zionism has succeeded in attracting bigoted Christians in America into an unholy alliance by convincing them that the Palestine problem is a dispute between Moslems and Jews, and that it is a Christian duty to support the Jews. Sirhan killed Kennedy because he is an Arab first and a Christian second. He killed Kennedy for the sake of his homeland which was usurped by the Jews with the help of the Americans. Living in this atmosphere of direct challenge, Sirhan discovered the necessity for this bullet.

"Kennedy's assassination has raised many questions in America, such as: What has this Christian to do with it? Are the Arab Christians with the Moslems? For whose sake did Sirhan shoot Kennedy? It is sufficient that Sirhan's bullet has raised such questions among Americans.

"3. Arabs everywhere have denied responsibility for this assassination and have avoided comment on the virtues of political assassination. This attitude of the Arabs toward Sirhan is similar to the attitude of Pilatus toward Christ.

"Will Sirhan's trial be able to melt the indifference and passivity of the Arabs toward this Arab patriot in a foreign land?"

June 19, 1968

Participants: Chief Robert A. Houghton
Los Angeles Police Department

L/NEA - Robert H. Neuman

Subject: Case of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan

I spoke with Chief Houghton by telephone this morning regarding a visit made last night to Sirhan by the Jordanian Honorary Consul in Los Angeles, Mr. George Zuraykat. Chief Houghton confirmed that the visit did occur and resulted from a request made by Sirhan through his attorney, Public Defender Wilbur Littlefield. During the visit Sirhan and Zuraykat were required to sit on opposite sides of a glass partition and to speak to each other through a telephone. They were further required to converse in English and were informed that should they attempt to speak in any other language the phone connection would be terminated. Chief Houghton said that these conditions were the customary regulations in the prison in which Sirhan is being held. Mr. Littlefield sat with Zuraykat during the visit and, according to Chief Houghton, no prison official was present in the immediate vicinity where the conversation was carried on. Chief Houghton added that Mr. Littlefield had requested that the above described security precautions be observed during this visit. The Chief also said that Mr. Littlefield had been permitted to visit Sirhan privately on several occasions, an exception to the normal prison regulations, and that no one else, including members of Sirhan's immediate family, was permitted such private visits. According to Chief Houghton Mr. Littlefield has requested that these precautions apply to all persons seeking to visit Sirhan. The Chief suggested that if we wish to discuss visits to Sirhan in further detail we contact Mr. Littlefield directly or the Chief Public Defender, Mr. Richard Buckley.

The Jordan Ambassador called on me this morning at his request to discuss the current status of the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan case in California. He was particularly interested in discussing the implications to Sirhan's trial should four Jordanian lawyers come to the United States to either assist the defense of or actually to defend Sirhan in the courts. He said that he was opposed to the lawyers' coming, as it would interject into the case a political element, which we have all been endeavoring to avoid. He mentioned that he had sent a strong message to his Government recommending that if at all possible the lawyers be dissuaded from coming to the U. S. for the above purpose. Now that the Federation of Lawyers in Amman had apparently made a decision to do something about the Sirhan case (he reminded me that the Federation was politically oriented), there was a limit to how much influence the Jordan Government could exert on the lawyers because they were now committed to take some action. He mentioned that he was returning to Jordan for approximately a week in the next few days and that he would do what he could about the situation. The best that could be expected, however, would probably be to persuade the lawyers or the Federation to finance the hiring of a highly qualified American lawyer and to nominate one of their own members to the United States to act as observer during the trial. He was not even sure that this could be arranged.

I told him that we felt strongly that the Jordanian lawyers should not come to the U. S. for the very reason that he had offered. We, however, were to some extent caught on the horns of a dilemma in trying to persuade the lawyers against coming because we also did not want to open ourselves to the charge that we were denying Sirhan the right to request a lawyer of his choice, which could include Jordanian lawyers. The Jordan Government could probably state the concern we both shared more effectively than we could. We were both interested in insuring that Sirhan received a fair trial and that no political development enter the picture to prejudice a fair trial. I told him that I hoped that he could state his case as strongly as possible in Amman. He said he would.

He asked me when the trial began. After consulting with Mr. Neuman in L, I informed him by telephone that on June 28 the defendant would have to plead, i.e., guilty, not guilty, etc. According to the law, the trial must begin sixty days after the indictment, which I was informed was around June 6 or 7. This period could be prolonged by agreement between the defense and prosecuting attorneys. I told him that the District Attorney in California ventured the guess that the trial would probably begin one-and-a-half to two months after June 28.

The Ambassador called me subsequently and said that the Jordan Honorary Consul George Zuraykat had contacted Sirhan on June 19. He said the authorities treated the Honorary Consul very well, but the interview resulted in little more than the Consul's finding out that Sirhan was in good health and was being treated well. A satisfactory conversation between the two was prevented because, according to the Jordan Ambassador, there was a glass partition between the Honorary Consul and Sirhan and the Consul had to talk to him by telephone. The Honorary Consul was enjoined that he had to speak in English or the conversation would be cut. The Ambassador wondered if this were normal procedure and if it would have made a difference if a member of his Embassy had tried to talk with Sirhan rather than the Honorary Consul. I told him I was not certain of what the law permitted, although I was somewhat surprised by the restrictions imposed. I told him that I would consult with our Legal Adviser's Office and would call him back.

before that court in this case would lie in discretion of trial judge. Judge could admit them as defense counsel or as associate counsel. END FYI.

4. Should lawyers decide come to US, we would be confronted by a dilemma. On the one hand we fear injection undesirable political element into case were Jordanian lawyers to defend Sirhan. Jordanian and Arab cause could suffer badly by over-zealous efforts of Arab lawyers, however well motivated. On the other hand, it is within Sirhan's constitutional right to request lawyer of his choice, which could include Jordanian lawyers as counsel and consequently would put USG and California court in awkward situation if refused.

5. In circumstances, there would seem be three courses we could follow. We could let nature take its course. Alternatively Embassy could approach appropriate GOJ officials and point out unfortunate political ramifications which could result if Jordanian lawyers were to represent Sirhan. Embassy could suggest that GOJ attempt in its own interest to dissuade these lawyers from pursuing their efforts on behalf Sirhan. Finally, or if lawyers persist, GOJ might attempt to persuade them to choose one of their number, perhaps with assistance Jordanian Lawyers Association, to come to United States and attend trial as observer in order to assure that trial being conducted fairly or as associate counsel.

Dean Rusk,
Secratary of State
Washington, D.C.
Dear Mr. Secratary;

Re: Sirhan B. Sirhan

As attorney who formerly represented Jack Ruby, I see many parallels between Oswald's assassination of President Kennedy and Sirhan's assassination of Senator Kennedy.

One of these similarities is the hate and prejudice of Anti-Semitism that led to each of these outrageous murders. (For a few factual details see specific references to Anti-Semitism in written Opinion of Texas Court of Appeals for reversing Ruby conviction and "Trial of Jack Ruby" by Kaplan & Waltz").

Sirhan is not the only Arab guilty of murder. Guilt is not restricted to the one who pulled the trigger. Guilt includes all those who triggered Sirhan's mind to act and caused him to suffer from irrational impulses, irresistible pressures and mental disturbances that culminated into an act of violence. Those Arab mis-leaders like Nasser who poisoned and polluted Sirhan's mind by filling him with the vicious hate and prejudice of Anti-Semitism (Anti-Zionism) are no less guilty than Sirhan.

Many Arabs like Sirhan have been misled to believe that Israel is their enemy and the cause of their enslavement and poverty; that the mere existence of an Israel in the Middle East, regardless of its size or boundaries, prevents Nasser from establishing the entire Middle East into a United Arab Republic that he claims would solve all Arab problems. This Nazi-type of propaganda has led to many irrational acts of violence and tragic murders similar to the recent Kennedy assassination.

Not unlike Hitler, these Nassers have exploited and converted a natural brotherly love and friendship that previously existed between Jews and Arabs into enmity, hate and murder; contrary to the Golden Era; contrary to Kind Feisal's letter to Frankfurter and his agreement with Weitzman; contrary to the very teachings of Mohammed and his Holy Koran; and contrary to the Arabs own best interests.

The Sirhans were converted 'Christian-Arabs' living among Moslems in Israel and constantly subjected to and blinded by Nassar's false vicous propoganda. What could be more confusing and frustrating?

Sol A. DANN

PS 7-1 Jordan - US / Sirhan, Sirhan B. / Biography

DECLASSIFIED BY BS/R

Sirhan is so mixed up about his Arab Nationalism that he doesn't even know that his ancestors were not Jordanians. Jordan was only recently artificially created after his father was born. Jordan was carved out of the area for the proposed Re-establishment of the Jewish State.

Sirhan's Anti-Zionism was merely another form of Anti-Semitism. Limited space here prevents a detailed discussion of Sirhan's political paranoic Anti-Semitic Anti-Zionism. Suffice to say that the recent re-establishment of Israel could not be, and is not, responsible for the slavery and poverty suffered by the Arabs during the last 2000 years. Some Arab States are over 1000 miles away from Israel.

Sirhan didn't stop to realize that Israel (Palestine) was a Jewish state over 3000 years ago and that it was never at any time in all history, an Arab National Homeland. Nor that there is no 'conflict of interest' between Little Israel and the many vast Arab countries. But there are definite 'conflicts of interest' between the different Arab Leaders and the intrigues of various Foreign powers competing with each other to exploit, missionize and dominate the Arabs (vis a vis Russian, Vatican and Oil Barons).

It is impossible to compare "on one foot" the respective rights and plight of the hundreds of thousands of Jewish Refugees from Arab countries, as against the claims of the Fugitives that Sirhan prefers to call "Arab Refugees" except to say that "War is Hell" and creates problems that only Peace can solve.

The Sirhans twisted the Arab proverb: "He who befriends my friend is also my friend" into "He who supports my enemy is also my enemy." Therefore, Nasser-propagandized Arabs believe they must murder every Israeli, or any American like Senator Kennedy who supported Israel.

If there were no Jews in the United States, it would still Be our DUTY AND behoove our Government to support a Democratic state like Israel to help establish World peace and freedom, and to protect our own American interests in the Middle East.

Genocide that has caused the murder of millions of innocent people feeds on fanatic national and religious hates and prejudices. Therefore, anyone who teaches or encourages Anti-Semitism (Anti-Zionism), be it nation, Church, or individual, aided, abetted and are no less guilty than Sirhan in the malicious premeditated murder of United States Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

Sincerely,

Sol A. Dann

UNDER HEADLINE, "PUBLICITY ASPECTS OF SIRHAN TRIAL", ARABIC DAILY AL YOWM SUGGESTS THAT ARABS SHOULD TAKE INITIATIVE, RATHER THAN BE ON DEFENSIVE, IN TRIAL AS FAR AS PUBLICITY IS CONCERNED. THE PAPER STRONGLY CONDEMNS ASSASSINATION" AS A MATTER OF PRINCIPLE AND FOR HUMAN REASONS", BUT "AS LONG AS CRIME HAS BEEN COMMITTED AND AS LONG AS ALLEGED MURDERER IS AN ARAB AND BECAUSE THERE IS NO PROOF OF ANY CONSPIRACY"
. ARABS SHOULD TAKE OPPORTUNITY OF TRIAL TO TELL THEIR STORY REGARDING PALESTINE QUESTION TO AMERICANS. ZIONISTS, THE PAPER STATES, ARE ALREADY USING ISSUE TO FURTHER THEIR PROPAGANDA. NEWSOM

4. FYI--JERUSALEM POST JUNE 7 CARRIED EXTENSIVE INTERVIEW BY MEMBERS THEIR STAFF (AND OTHER REPORTERS) WITH SENIOR SIRHAN
EARLY MORNING HOURS JUNE 6. FATHER, LPE VILLAGE MUKHTAR AND A

FORMER SCHOOLMASTER SAID YOUNG SIRHAN "GENTLE, POLITE, QUIET AND HUMBLE BOY INTERESTED MAINLY IN BOOKS. IT'S BEYOND COMPREHENSION HOW HE COULD HAVE COMITTED SUCH TERRIBLE ACT AT HIS OWN INITIATIVE WITHOUT HAVING BEEN PUT UP TO THIS BY SOME OTHER PEOPLE." ZDSHARA SIRHAN QUOTED AS SAYING SON WAS "A GOOD CHRISTIAN. HE COULD NOT HAVE DONE SUCH A THING ON HIS OWN. SOMEONE MUST HAVE PUSHED HIM TO IT."

5. FYI--ABOUT HOUR AFTER INTERVIEW MUKHTAR PHONED NYTIMES CORRESPONDENT AND SAID ELDER SIRHAN WAS "PROBLEM." BASED ON STORIES FROM MUKHTAR AND FORMER NEIGHBORS, NYTIMES MAN TOLD US HE FORMS PICTURE OF FATHER WHO WAS OFTEN JOBLESS, GENERALLY SHIFTLESS, BRUTAL TO HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN AND IN TURN DISLIKED AND EVENTUALLY REJECTED BY THEM. ACCORDING NEWSMAN'S SOURCES, FLIGHT OF MOTHER AND CHILDREN TO US AS REFUGEES WAS ARRANGED BY LOCAL CHURCH FRIENDS TO ESCAPE FATHER. ALTHOUGH HE EVENTUALLY REJOINED THEM IN US, FAMILY STRIFE CONTINUED RESULTING IN HIS RETURN TO PALESTINE AND LIVING ALONE IN TAYBEH NOW. END FYI.
